The first cervical vertebra. Its etheric structure is responsible for the connection of the etheric structures of the spinal cord and brain. On the physical level, this is the support of the head, its movements, protection from injuries when turning the head, when bending. On the etheric plane, this is the transmission of information. The section of the spinal cord that is directly responsible, like the diencephalon, for all functions of the body passes through the atlas: instinctive ones, such as breathing, heartbeat, and so on.

Atlanteans

Residents of the ancient city of Atlantis, destroyed in a war 12,000 years ago. They lived in contact with the civilizations that created man, received knowledge from them, including spiritual knowledge. This people had very well-developed mental, brain, and energy abilities, corresponding to the control of their spirit and body among the Snow People. In everyday life and work, they used auxiliary material means that enhanced their abilities, for example: huge crystals or copper sheets covered with the juice of certain plants, which enhanced the properties of the metal. Unlike modern technical electronic devices, these means played a different role: an accumulator of the psychic energy of the Atlantean using it and the energy of his mentor. The Atlanteans had very good contact with plasmoid worlds. Their religion was paganism, they believed in good and evil gods. They perceived the war with Selbet as an attempt by evil gods to destroy them and as salvation from the good gods.

Atman or Atmas (Superconsciousness, Higher Self, Conscience, Intuition)

6th level of the aura of an earthly person. Manifestations of the pure Light of Love that are in every person. The state of not being different, not being distinguishable from God, as a spirit.

#14, 03:10

Atom

A dense-material particle, which consists of energies of three levels: electromagnetism, radiation and thermonuclear energy, gravity. The source of these energies is in the Spiritual world, their flow gradually lowers its vibrations, first forming subtle-material worlds, then, as a small part of the universe, dense-material ones.

A solid stable structure assembled by plasmoids, consisting of elements. That is why the concept of "natural element" includes only elements that are not created artificially, but are contained in nature itself. There are 92 of these elements. These are uranium and a few more, and all the rest are artificially created.

The smallest dynamic particle of a substance of a particular element (naturally or artificially created), which consists of quanta.

A dynamic system that cannot remain in this state for long and changes because it begins to exchange energy with surrounding atoms from space. And, losing and acquiring various energies, the atom changes. It is not only electricity, all energies change in it.

Representatives of all four elements gather in one space to give their energies to form an atom. At first, the third level of manifestation is formed. What is called microgravity and macrogravity, and gravitons.

Aurabook

Equipment that takes readings from a person's aura.

#225, 19:42

Aura (dimensions)

2.5-3.5 meters − for the aura, as for a set of energy bodies, nested in each other, for a modern person, which can be recorded in the Astral. Three, three and a half meters − this is an average indicator. But the spirit that comes to the earthly body takes a potential of about twice as much, that is, in the region of 9-10 meters.

As energy develops, the aura begins to increase.

What is considered the size of the aura is the ideal size of the aura, which also exists in the embodied part of the spirit and in the Higher Self. The aura is not in the Spiritual World, but around a person, surrounds his spiritual channel (when you go out to the Higher Self, you rise along the channel above the crown of the head, this is the spiritual channel). Around this spiritual channel, when you rise along it, a bright white, yellow or any other color light is visible on the sides, this indicates that this energy is concentrated around this channel. But for it to enter the body, it must be prepared. The physical system must be prepared, the etheric system must be prepared, that is, the etheric body must be developed, the astral system must be prepared, that is, feelings, emotions must be under control.

The more a person cleanses himself of his blocks and loves everything around him, the larger his aura becomes. A Saint's aura can be tens of meters. But it can even exceed the one given to him at birth by tens of meters, because he is also charged by his Guardian Angels, by his curators. It is cumulative for him.

The larger the size of the aura, the more the etheric body will be filled. This means that there will be more vital energy to perform your actions, the more the astral body will be filled. That is why the Higher Self treats the filling of the aura with energy very consciously and responsibly.

Aura of a human of the earth type

Energy structure consisting of seven levels:

1 Ether or Prana;

2 Astral shell;

3 Mental field;

4 Causal level;

5 Buddhi or Pure Mind;

6 Atman or Atmas;

7 Possibility of entering the state of Atman.

#14, 03:10

Autism

Violation of the connection with the spirit, between the spirit and the body through the etheric body. The structure of the spirit itself is not violated. But this development of pathology is caused not only by the state of the body of children, but also by the state of the energy of the parents. This disorder occurs from a painful experience in the past of the body. The incarnated spirit is so frightened by the circumstances of the past life that any communication is frightening to it, and it builds its own world in itself. It has a blocked memory of what happened specifically. But the fact that someone comes up to it and starts talking causes fear and aggression in it and an unwillingness to communicate, even with the closest person.

Contact, most often, with plasmoids. There may be no contact. The person was incarnated in the worlds of plasmoids and it is difficult for him to adapt to this world.

Aphrodite (Venus)

One of the daughters of Cephastis (Zeus), visited Earth after her father flew away. Lived on Disaru for a long time, this is one of the reasons for the origin of such an address to her.

Acidosis

A human condition that occurs when the acid-base environment in the body is less than 7.35, which leads to oxygen starvation of the body, resulting in heart attacks and strokes.

Ashtar Sheran

An embodied spirit. He is over 12 thousand Earth years old. He lives on Burkhad and Tumesout, but spends most of his time on a space station, which is currently located at a distance of 37 astronomical units from the Solar System, specifically from the Sun. He is the leader of the Fleet.

Previously lived on a planet orbiting the star Sirius B, but as a result of the war with the reptilians 12 thousand years ago, this planet was destroyed. Now Ashtar Sheran, together with his fellow tribesmen, lives in space on a huge base, he does not have one base, but a large spaceship. The space station has a diameter of about 60 km and the shape of a dark sphere. On the ship there are 2.5 thousand representatives of the world of Ashtar, who have been living on ships and on other planets since the time when their planet perished.

Baikal (lake)

The place that was prepared for 280 Earth years for the representatives of the planet Tikht by the representatives of the Earth's plasmoid civilizations. They charged it, cleansed it from harmful negative emissions of the noosphere.

The Fitisa base appeared on Baikal in the 3rd century BC. Later, representatives of the Galactic Federation of Light, other civilizations and not only from the Pleiades began to fly there. According to the history of this base, a people lived on the shores of the northern part of Baikal, who had many contacts with their ancestors, those who built the base.

12 thousand years ago, in place of Lake Baikal, there was another body of water, a smaller lake. People lived on its shores. As a result of the Selbetovites' weapons being aimed at this lake, a deep-going rift occurred, a break in the earth's crust, which goes away from Baikal in three directions. A hole formed a little later in the place of one of these rifts, which filled with water.

All the rivers that flow into Baikal appeared later. This lake is the result of the war. It was not like this before. There was a lake in its place that was ten times smaller. All the people who lived on the shore of the lake and in the surrounding area died from weapons that were so powerful that they dented the earth's crust.

Cracks extended from this dent: three larger ones and a network of smaller ones. Later, when the earthly civilization came here, minerals began to be mined around. This was a seismically dangerous region before because of these faults. In the depths of the earth, heterogeneous processes occur that depend on solar activity. And the core of the Earth expands and contracts. Volcanic activity can also be activated and deactivated every few decades. Damage to the earth's crust caused shifts.

During the periods when minerals were being mined around Baikal and further north, the Earth's interior continued to be disturbed. This could subsequently lead to earthquakes becoming more frequent.

There is a fault under the bottom of Lake Baikal and there can be tremors from there too. Because one edge is higher than the other, which can creep up on it, so this is reflected on the surface.

It has become calmer here lately. We work with the plasmoid civilizations of the Earth, which can also influence these processes from an energetic point of view. Stop them, slow down the divergence of faults. People can also influence this if they treat each other in this region with positive energy, with Love. Any cataclysm, any earthquake, volcanic eruption, including, can be provoked not only by man-made causes, but also by energetic ones.

There are water tunnels underground. They connect Lake Baikal with other bodies of water on Earth. Fish and those mammals that can swim some distance underwater can move along them.

Baikal (plasmoid)

Plasmoid (Solar System, Earth, Lake Baikal).

It is located above the surface of the water.

According to his own description, his appearance is 12 spheres, divided into two groups of 6 in the form of two pyramids, which slowly rotate around each other. Curator of Lake Baikal. 38th density level.

Soulless people

People without conscious contact with the Higher Self, living only by the interests, needs, instincts of the physical body. They lack the manifestation of high qualities of the soul, their Higher Self in actions, thoughts, contacts with others.

#165, 53:00

Beginningless beginning (God, Absolute, Absolute mind, Supreme mind, Creator of everything)

God, whom we call God, the Absolute, the Absolute Mind, the Supreme Mind, the Creator of everything. This is the One Who has always been. And if He has always been, He has been in eternity, He is not born by anyone, He is not created by anyone, it means that He had no need for a creator or a parent. It is this Being, as if the original point of everything, that is called God. There is no endless cycle of "who created whom." Everything ends with God.

#444, 45:40

Safety

An instinct of any living being. It is one of the conditions for systematization of information, which is the main ability of the mind. Pathological forms of behavior that prevent others from growing and developing automatically interfere with the development of the mind and spiritual development of both those around them and the creature that violates the safety of others. Even criminals themselves are not deprived of this instinct and strive for safety for themselves and their loved ones.

White Brotherhood

Teachers of Light (Mahatmas and their disciples), who came to the earthly world in the bodies of earthly people who flew in from other planets. Bermuda Triangle

A whole channel of portals that go to plasmoid worlds. In this place, where the Atlantic Ocean is now, there was (before the war with the Selbetians) a single continent on Earth. Almost in this place, with a slight deviation, there was a large city, one might say, the capital of the Earth, in which there were contactees and, among other things, there was an alien base. Representatives of the creators of earthlings lived on one of the alien bases: the Tumesoutians and the Burkhadians. Representatives of the entire Interstellar Union also flew to it. After the war, it ended up, unfortunately, under water due to a crack in the bottom. And almost in this same place, with a slight shift, a portal was formed, because contacts with various kinds of plasmoid civilizations were conducted there. During the war, many people and aliens died. All this created such energy in this place that a channel of portals was created there, going to many plasmoid worlds.

Unselfishness

The inner state of understanding that you already have everything. This does not mean "not taking money."

#287, 30:05

Infertility (reasons)

The reason is spiritual: either it does not correspond to the life task of people, or they are simply not psychologically ready at the moment for such a responsible activity as raising a child. The reason is physical: infections, infectious diseases, hormonal disorders. The spirit in the spiritual world can choose a mother or father for incarnation, but cannot do so due to physical defects.

#226, 01:55

Unreasonable fears in children

The reaction of the child's energy to the negative thoughts and feelings of the parents. The child's energy picks up their negative vibrations and activates the instinct of self-preservation.

#103, 18:02

Demons

Disembodied energy entities. Spirits from the 4th level of the World of non-embodied spirits. Spirits that are so absorbed in the pleasures they receive through the material body that they forget about the law of conservation of energies. They want to endlessly enjoy various material energies and get very irritated when an obstacle appears on their way, even if these are living people. They often do not observe God's law about waiting their turn for incarnation and move into the bodies of embodied spirits that match their vibrations.

#406, 16:40

Demons of alcoholism and drug addiction

A group of non-embodied spirits of subtle-material plasmoid civilizations and a person's own larvae, which become semi-conscious beings. The breakdown of alcohol in the body and the use of drugs give them the opportunity to feed on the life force of a person. Attracted by similar negative vibrations, with the unconscious permission of such a person, they instill thoughts of drinking even more and using drugs.

Betelgeuse

Space plasmoid (Orion Constellation, Betelgeuse Star). Looks like a star tornado. Two cones nested inside each other, consisting of stars. Can take the form of a person. Men, for example. Guardian of the Order of Mages of the Ice Fire of the Betelgeuse system. Teacher of the Order of Mages.

Civilization where fourth level plasmoids are located. Red supergiant, gives a lot of energy.

Bible

Concepts of life in the Spiritual world. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." They shall see God, because those who cleanse their spiritual heart of all frequencies incompatible with Divine love, their energy merges with Divine energy, their will becomes one with Divine will, and their love becomes infinite, just as God Himself is infinite.

The purpose of the writer of the Bible is not to tell in detail about the system of the material world, but to tell about the path to God.

It tells about the path to God, about the history of the Jewish people, about the path of its mistakes and return to God, about its falls and ups.

In some biblical stories, the Spirits of Nature are mentioned under different names. For example, in the Old Testament, they are mentioned under the names of "idol" or "gods". They were deified and idols were made, thus these beings were mentioned. Of course, not all of them, but some of them. But since Judaism and Christianity are monotheistic religions, the emphasis was placed on God the Heavenly Father, on God the Creator. And all subtle-material civilizations are considered to be the same spirits as man, only embodied in subtle bodies. There was no such emphasis as in other religions.

The first reason is that the Bible speaks of the way to God. And the second reason is to support Judaism.

Billena

The name of the planet Earth in the Daral language means "Blue Diamond". Because when approaching our planet from space, one can see that a huge blue glowing ball with small white clouds grows in the vast darkness of outer space. This picture amazes all space travelers, especially those who see it for the first time. That is why they have an urge to name our planet exactly like that.

Bioresonance therapy

Treatment with physical energies aimed at suppressing the frequency of a particular microbe, at activating a particular organ. If the causes of the disease are not removed, these frequencies will become unbalanced again.

#86, 47:34

Biorobots

Robots made on the basis of grown tissues from earthly people. Only, unlike people, intelligent spirits are not embodied in them. They have a certain program, from which they cannot deviate. They have no soul and ethereal body. Biorobots are charged by the program. They do not need water and food, their body is artificial. It is created from artificial biopolymers. They have special batteries that accumulate the energy of electromagnetic waves from space and convert it into the energy of movement and perception, into the energy of the work of their pseudo-biological brain.

They are used on Earth at alien bases, and are similar in appearance to a representative of one or another humanoid civilization (in particular, anthropomorphic).

Blavatsky Helena

Contactee of the planet Esler.

What Blavatsky described as different races, there was talk about those souls that came from different civilizations, her curators with Esler told her about it. Why did she say that the 1st, 2nd and 3rd races died, and now the 5th race lives? When they passed on information to Helena Blavatsky, they meant the cyclical nature of time, i.e. what was called the 1st race, the 2nd was a cycle. These were not bodies, but souls that came in cycles.

A gift of good energy, simply a gift without compensation.

#371, 06:56

Holy Fire

A phenomenon similar to myrrh-streaming, only it is not myrrh that materializes from the energies of the Christian egregor, but fire. First in space at the level of etheric energies, while it does not burn, only then it materializes and can leave a burn. Not only the Angels of the Christian egregor, but also the plasmoids of fire take part in the materialization of the blessed fire.

Holy Fire

A phenomenon similar to myrrh-streaming, only it is not myrrh that materializes from the energies of the Christian egregor, but fire. First in space at the level of etheric energies, while it does not burn, only then it materializes and can leave a burn. Not only the Angels of the Christian egregor, but also the plasmoids of fire take part in the materialization of the blessed fire.

Concentration of energy of the Christian egregor, which contains, among other things, Christ-consciousness (shows its image, which contains phantom energies, including Archangel Michael, Archangel Raphael and other Guardians of the Christian egregor, and from plasmoid civilizations). All this is concentrated through the subtle worlds to such an extent that it passes into material fire. This is done specifically, as a sign of the presence of the Holy Spirit.

These are the energies of the Spiritual world, which then pass into the energies of the subtle world, and then they condense into the energy of fire here on Earth.

#283, 01:47:00

"Blessed are the peacemakers"

The law is not only of Jesus, not only of Christianity, it is the law of the entire Universe in general.

Jesus Christ said these words: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons of God." He did not say that those who win an argument are blessed. He did not say that those who prove their point of view, which the person with the opposite opinion will be forced to accept under the influence of arguments, are blessed.

He said, "Blessed are the peacemakers." Who is a peacemaker? Someone who creates peace with their mere presence, whose words do not make others want to contradict them. And what are these words? These are words filled with Love and Acceptance. But at the same time, this person continues to adhere to his point of view, he makes it clear that this does not interfere with the interaction and friendship of another person.

Why are they blessed? "Blessed" means "absolutely happy." These are those who create peace around themselves, create peace between those who are in a quarrel, and those whose souls are gnawed by negativity. If you bring peace into these hearts, a person by this action attracts Divine grace to himself, that is, energies that directly create reality and support his soul. He begins to consciously receive this flow of grace and therefore becomes absolutely happy, like God.

God is also a peacemaker. He created us all in harmony and in the desire for us to be friends with each other, to help each other and to carry the Light together. And the one who is a peacemaker is like him. And therefore, is like the Light of His Love and His Light of absolute happiness.

And why is it said: "They will be called sons of God"? We are all spirits - sons of God, but "they will be called" means they will be recognized by themselves. God already recognizes them as children. But not all people recognize themselves as children of God, because those who do not feel Him as their Father, but feel Him only as their judge or, in general, as some kind of non-existent law, energy, it is very difficult for them to call God Father. But they will be able to do this absolutely consciously and without pangs of conscience, when they are peacemakers.

Twin Flames

Spirits who have walked next to each other for a very long time, were familiar in the spiritual world and incarnated together many times. They feel themselves as a single whole. There can be not only two, but also three, four, that is, a group. They do not merge with each other, but feel so close to each other that they already know the movement of each soul.

Twin flames of souls imply intelligent spirits with similar vibrations, thoughts, beliefs, who have had a long experience of incarnations in different worlds next to each other and had close relationships on the same or different levels.

Gemini (souls of twins)

Two souls, incarnated in bodies that develop simultaneously in the womb of the mother, this speaks of the first fact that they had a long experience of interaction in different lives, incarnations and that they were familiar in the spiritual world, and they have a lesson in going through this experience as twins. It is a generally accepted fact in the spiritual world that in this way the Angels-consultants of the spiritual world show these souls that they are very close. That they have already lived and interacted together.

Gemini (constellation)

A constellation within which there are four humanoid civilizations. Three of them are members of the Interstellar Union. The self-names of these planets are Samsak, Simpor.

#234, 52:40

Block (energy)

A collection of energy that could go into the aura. A person has collected it in one place. Someone has blocked, closed some emotion or feeling that is unpleasant to consider.

A clot of energy that interferes with the normal flow of life force in the human body, its saturation with nutrients, oxygen. It can appear due to resentment, fear, hatred, anger, jealousy, envy, pride, or non-acceptance of something in the world, or non-acceptance of something in oneself.

If a person cleanses himself of all blocks, passing all this energy through himself, unties, including karmic knots that were connected with past incarnations, and in this incarnation they can manifest themselves as some incomprehensible, unconscious fears, some recurring situations. If a person develops physically, engages in meditation or prayer, communication with God, with his Higher Self, and the more he is full of love, the more the Spirit fills the physical body.

The more a person cleanses himself of his blocks and loves everything around him, the larger his aura becomes.

Memory blocking in contactees

Direction of special electromagnetic fields that affect the signals of the brain neurons and at the same time block the creation of some memory proteins for some period of time, and erase what has already been produced. Those protein structures that were created due to the perception of this event are destroyed.

You can ask the Higher Self if there was physical contact, if the answer is "yes", and the person does not remember, then his memory was erased. The Higher Self can send memories of this, because no physical devices or radiation can block anything for it. It is in the Spiritual World and with its consent it can send these events back to the brain to its embodied part.

Fornication

Frequent change of sexual partners without creating a unity of spiritual love, simply at the level of physical love.

Strengthening the animal nature in oneself at the expense of energies given by God for development. Fornication does not bring pleasure. It brings disappointment, tears, losses, jealousy. The one who enjoys fornication does not know God, does not know the Light. He thinks that temporary tremors of the body at the moment of orgasm are pleasure. No. It is only a temporary spasm. But when it passes, all the problems return again.

God

Absolute, Supreme Reason, Primordial Cause of the Universe. It can be very accurately characterized as the Light of Love and Truth.

Matter around us. Everything that is, everything that can be and everything that we cannot imagine.

The Absolute, who created all matter and who maintains its existence with his energy every second. He is simultaneously energy, personality, and the Supersoul. The names given to God by people never reflect the whole of God, but only some of his facets.

A being filled with absolute Love, Happiness and selfless wish of this Happiness and Love to others. And we were all born from this spiritual Light. The main quality of God is His infinity, and at the same time, simplicity, in which one can express feeling. God has no beginning: He existed, exists and will always exist. He is not a personality, He is a superpersonality. He is not just a personality or a collection of all personalities, He has the so-called pure perfection, unconditional Love, which cannot change in Him into another quality. He cannot lower His vibrations, become a demon, this is His universal perfection. He cannot do this not because He is deprived of omnipotence, but because His perfect will will never wish it. But in this He is completely free: no one forces Him. Another way to express the Superpersonality is not that He is the greatest or the strongest, but that any force and any energy (whatever they may be in any of the worlds: both the Spiritual and the material) is only a type of His energy. The entire material world, not only the Earth, but the entire Solar System, all the Galaxies, the Milky Way Galaxy, all the Galaxies, the billions of Galaxies that exist in the Universe, discovered and undiscovered, is only a small part of the divine energy. To say that the entire God is the material Universe is the same as saying that one nail is the entire person. God is an absolutely happy being. His happiness cannot be darkened by anything. But His loving heart is not something that suffers or gets upset, it does not lower its vibrations. But it is capable of coming to a state, remotely speaking, not of bewilderment, but of understanding that this choice cannot be changed. And from this comes a state of slight sadness, when He sees, the consciousness of God sees that those bright Teachings that He gave through different people on Earth become a subject of discord between His children. And He is ready to manifest Himself through all of Creation. And He does it. He helps every person, regardless of whether He loves them or not. He gives everyone Life, Bread, Warmth, the Sun, the Sky, the Stars. God, the Creator, does not create the whole world Himself, but provides this creation of the whole world to His children - to us, because He gave us matter. Matter is the material for creation. So that we, His children, His small parts could become like Him. For this He gave us matter, so that we could be embodied in it and use it to create our worlds. Someone builds from bricks, someone builds from molecules. God is not just energy,which is scattered in space. It has its own mind. We see the manifestation of this mind in the orderliness of the entire Universe, in its immutable laws, which we observe everywhere, from the movement of galaxies to the structure of our body and the work of each cell. God is an Incorporeal Energy Entity.

This is everything you can imagine and much more. It is called differently in different religions, in different languages and on different planets. Everything you can imagine: absolute, perfect, bright, good in the outside world or in yourself - this will be God. We understand it as the Source of everything that exists, who created this world and continues to support it. Because He is outside of time, and if you look from his point of view, the creation of the world continues infinitely. Also infinitely, from his point of view, the birth of us, as spirits, continues. For him, the past, present and future are all at once. As for the character of God, in your earthly terms, it can be described as absolute, bright, selfless Love. Because Love is the highest, strongest and brightest energy of the universe that can be known. Only it is capable of creating worlds, only it is capable of giving birth to life, only it is capable of giving birth to reason in living beings. Love is experienced by us, as intelligent spirits, as inner Light. When I say the word Light, I do not mean a stream of photons. I mean that mental spiritual Light that everyone who has entered into the presence of God within himself has experienced.

God the Father

The beginningless beginning of everything, the source of all matter and all spirits. A living, intelligent, infinitely bright being, which consists of the energy of absolute Love. But in addition to energy, it has its essence, which also contains reason, a spiritual heart, energies. That is, God the Father is similar to the human soul, in general, to any intelligent spirit, only, of course, infinitely larger. Not larger in size, but in possibilities, in energies, in the very structure of the essence, which is not a born spirit, but the parent of spirits.

God (origin of the word)

The word "god" is close in origin to the Sanskrit word "bhaga", the word God, but inverted. "Bo" means the highest, high, the letter "G" means "mind", which together means "highest mind". In some sources, it was not just meant mind, but the mind of the Earth, i.e. earthly mind. In ancient legends, the Earth was called Mother Earth, it was believed that she was also endowed with mind, that an unreasonable creature could not grow fruits, flowers of various shades, which were considered the children of the Earth, its fruits. The word "fruit" and the word "child" in Russian have similar semantic coloring. Therefore, the letter "G" meant not only "mind", but sometimes also "Earth". "Earth" and "mind" were similar concepts. Therefore, "god" meant not only the highest mind, but also the highest above the Earth, i.e. the one who descends to Earth from above. The highest, who descends to Earth, who has reason. In this case – God. There were many gods. The word “god” itself was invented much earlier than Christianity came. It was used to denote those gods who were plasmoid civilizations, deified people, heroes and alien representatives who flew in. Later, the word “god” was used to name the God who was in Christianity.

God the Son

The spiritual essence that was born first is called the Firstborn Son. It was used to denote the essence of Jesus Christ. But after his incarnation on Earth, Jesus Christ told people that the concept of "Son of God" includes not only Him alone, but also everyone, because Jesus Christ gave a prayer that He suggested people pray to, to address the Father as He addresses - "My Father", "Our Father". Everyone who addresses with the words "Our Father" is a son or daughter of God. That is, "Son of God" - this hypostasis of the Trinity means all born spirits.

Virgin Mary

A woman named Maria, born among a certain people (Jews) in a certain egregor, through whom a high Spirit could incarnate and subsequently incarnate Christ, without being destroyed. When Maria reached the age of childbearing, representatives of Burkhad took her into contact. Christ was ready to incarnate on Earth in the form of Spirit, and they decided to take a physical father from Burkhad. To accept the nature of the Burkhadians, only a mother was enough. People 2 meters tall and have white skin live on Burkhad. Maria did not have physical contact with a Burkhadian, she was injected with the genetic material of a Burkhadian by the IVF method. But first, Archangel Gabriel, who was also a Burkhadian, asked her if she agreed. In the New Testament, in the Gospel of Luke, it is said that Mary gave birth to a son from the Lord God. Christ was the firstborn son of God and, at the same time, the son of that Burkhadian, who was also considered God.

Guardian and leader of the Russian egregor. The stage that she supervised was relatively calm, She covered the entire Russian land with Her Veil. The stage of the quantum transition, which She personally supervised, ended on the Day of the Circumcision of the Lord - January 14, 2022. Circumcision is a dedication to God. On the last Day of the Circumcision of her son, she removed the Veil from the Russian land (the Veil is energy), so that the entire planet, including Russia, could adapt to the vibrations that were given by all civilizations at all levels of density, by all Spiritual worlds.

Pathogenic viruses and bacteria

Animal group souls of microorganisms, which are created by plasmoid civilizations. But what civilizations exactly create these souls? The thing is that plasmoids are also different: by their character, by their development, by whether they fulfill their tasks or not. They are also different, like people. If a plasmoid has negative qualities, blocks (only they are not in its chakras, but in itself), then the group soul it creates (for example, microorganisms) also turns out to be distorted. In the sense that it subsequently switches to parasitism and already creates generations of its children distorted.

Those plasmoid civilizations that create souls for them also have certain vibrations. They are in a space where there are many of these microbes. Therefore, when there is a bell ringing or the smell of incense, or the ringing of Tibetan bowls, then these low-vibration plasmoids are uncomfortable in this space. They leave it if they do not have a special, specific goal for which they can tolerate this discomfort. As is known, they can even be in a church. But in any case, it will be more difficult for them to be there, so the space will be cleared, including from the bell ringing.

#344, 01:23:00

Disease

Violations in the physical, etheric, astral bodies. A disease of the body affects the spirit, lowering its vibrations. It can be a choice of the soul, if it has chosen to go through an illness in order to learn to enjoy life even in this state. The disease is formed due to the variability of the physical body. The energies that form the spirit can influence the physical body, disrupting various types of chemical and physical processes in it. In any case, this occurs due to the variability of the physical body.

Parkinson's disease

A disorder in those structures of the brain that are responsible for the movement of the body's muscles. They become less capable of carrying out the commands of the mind, the commands of that part of the embodied spirit that is in the body and gives signals, orders for movement.

Due to damage to these brain structures, not enough hormones are released, such as dopamine, to make these movements easy and fast. The person becomes partially paralyzed. This can also be the result of trauma, hypertensive crisis or microstroke and negative blocks located in the sixth and seventh chakras.

#427, 31:23

Pain

The reaction of the nervous system to the destruction of something. The physical body has laws of its existence. If there is no pain, there will be no instincts of self-preservation, there will be no possibility of survival in this world that can cause damage or death. An energetic state that can be given to another being so that it is on our level.

Big Bang (Big Bang Theory)

The emergence of the Universe. It looked like an explosion, but it was not in a separate point, but throughout space, practically all galaxies. That is, a luminous plasma appeared, interstellar gas, which began to form stars and planets.

The method of description. In general, it does not contradict what was, but it does not take into account that the existence of the material Universe is cyclical. The Universe goes through various cycles and in the material world there are traces by which it can be recorded that this is not the first cycle of its existence. What you call the Big Bang is the beginning of the emergence of the subtle-material world. This is the beginning of the existence of the Universe in the current cycle: the material Universe in the form of electromagnetic radiation. It was then that plasmoid, subtle-material worlds appeared. All this appeared once again for a reason, but so that in these very plasmoid worlds intelligent spirits could incarnate in the form of subtle-material beings, which in modern Russian are called plasmoids. This is a term for describing a subtle-material being and I ask you not to confuse it with plasma. There are many different types, species and varieties of them. After the emergence of the plasmoid world, all plasmoid worlds, several more billion years passed and only then did the centers of the Galaxies appear, i.e. what we call the dense-material Universe began to form. When we say "dense-material Universe", we mean by this word any substance that is included, that is written down in your modern periodic table. And even when we talk about the most rarefied gas (for example, hydrogen), when we talk about atoms, about the most rarefied gases (hydrogen, helium, etc.), we mean precisely the dense-material Universe. Despite the fact that in terms of density it is, of course, inferior to solid substances. When we talk about an atom, molecules, we mean precisely the dense-material Universe. So stars, galaxies, intergalactic gas (meaning clouds of intergalactic gas) - all this is the dense-material Universe. It appeared later. And gradually.

Fight for justice

Awareness of duty and sympathy for those with whom this struggle is being waged for the sake of the highest Truth and justice, whose name is Love. Experiencing Love even for the one with whom the struggle is being waged, and the struggle is not with the personality itself, but with the state and emotions that have plunged one into low vibrations, then this struggle does not bring about a lowering of vibrations. On the contrary, it brings about an increase in vibrations, because it helps one's brother to emerge from the state of low vibrations and rise higher. Sometimes this requires physical struggle.

Buddhism

It is not a religion or the energy of indifference, it is the energy in which the realization of the highest spiritual state is possible only in helping those who suffer. If you suffer, then in helping yourself, if someone else suffers, then in helping him.

In Buddhism there is no understanding of different densities. There is a material world with different worlds, but there is no understanding that the soul cannot enter a body that does not correspond to reason, the rational principle.

In those incarnations that the spirits of nature had, they perceived themselves as animals, as insects. They also told others about their experiences. Therefore, it was believed (and not only in Buddhism, but also in ancient Indian cults, religious movements) that the soul can incarnate not only in insects, but also in plants, in trees. It was believed so because there were stories of people who remembered themselves, for example, as a tree or a flower. Then it was not believed that this was some kind of creature that creates his soul, there was no such worldview.

Buddhism (nutrition issue)

It's a matter of personal choice. It's not what you eat that matters, but how you feel about your fellow man.

If you have eaten something that is plant-based, but at the same time you are angry with someone close to you, then this act will distance you from enlightenment. Food will not make you either a saint or a sinner, it is only a substance for supporting the body, it has the meaning that you put into it. If you have eaten meat and at the same time you are full of love for people, then it has not brought anything bad. But if food has given you the strength for your cruelty, you have become evil, cruel, then you will go to the lower worlds. Buddhism does not prescribe that there must be plant or non-plant food. This is the choice of the person himself.

#367, 01:40:16

Buddhism (main goal)

Deliverance from suffering of all living things, all sentient beings. Suffering is considered to be an unnatural energy generated by the spirits themselves, the souls themselves, which involves them in a cycle of rebirths without awareness.

As soon as you realized that you are not a material body, you have already taken the first step towards awareness. As soon as you realized that the person next to you is also not a body, but also a soul, a spirit, and that he has the same feelings, needs, thoughts and desires as you, you have taken the second step towards awareness. And as soon as you stopped distinguishing him from yourself and merged with him and with each of your neighbors into a single consciousness, you have reached the state of Buddha.

Future

That which is not predetermined now. But in the Spiritual world it is known, because there is no time there. In the Spiritual world, the past, present and future exist simultaneously. And in the material world, the past exists in the form of information records, the present – in the form of the manifested world, and the future is only being formed. But it is formed from the actions of spirits. Therefore, when they talk about a time machine, implying that it is possible to go to the future and to the past, then this is possible to do in the Spiritual world. You can change the future only because you do not know about it, and therefore you can change it for yourself. But all the results of your choices, which you yourself do not know about, and the consequences that they will entail, that chain of events that you cannot know, they are known to the mind that created everything, because He is omniscient. He knows all the results of the choices of all his children, although the children themselves do not know about it. You can also call this a "space of options", because the result of your choice is unknown to you. For example, if you want to stay home in the morning or go somewhere, you don't know what will happen if you stay home, and you don't know what will happen if you go. You don't know who you will meet there, and what will follow from this. It is hidden from you. But in the Spiritual world, it is all open. And about options. If you have a choice ahead that can influence your events in one direction or another, then, reaching this point of choice, you have different options. But the results of both are known in the Spiritual world. But initially, God knows only one - the path that you will actually take, and not the one that you choose. That is, you can have as many options as you like, but which will be reality for you - this is already known. But no one influences your choice itself, because before incarnation, we are all shown those main options for life that we will go through until death. The options, naturally, are shown those that we should focus on in order to develop. And in the Spiritual world we are shown what will happen to us if we degrade here. We can choose the option for growth and development and the option for degradation, but the thing is that when we are in the Spiritual world, it seems easy to us to come, incarnate and live a life in the material world. That is, we already see our whole life on the screen and already think: "This is how I will act, this is how it will follow, this is how one event will follow another." It is similar to how a person sees a chessboard with pieces placed. But everything is not at all simple when you find yourself in a material body with a blocked memory. But it is blocked for a reason, but precisely so that a person goes through this path without remembering anything, it is then that he will acquire the necessary experience in solving problems and correcting his mistakes.

Vedas (Slavic-Aryan Vedas)

A religious text that was transmitted by a contactee with one of the civilizations of the Interstellar Union, or by a contactee with plasmoid civilizations (shaman, priest, etc.).

A series of books by different authors. These are not manuscripts found by archaeologists, because most of them have not survived, but knowledge transmitted mainly by plasmoid civilizations to new worshipers of the ancient Gods. This is contact information, it is passed through the consciousness and awareness of the contactee. It is necessary to remember that the texts received in contact are most often a joint work of the curator and the contactee. For example, this was the case with Elena Blavatsky, and with many other contactees, with Konstantin Tsiolkovsky.

Each of the plasmoids: Veles, Svarog and so on, can transmit their book, their scripture. It is necessary to take a specific text and compare it with the truth that is in everyone, which is Light. Venus

A planet of the Solar system. Venus is called Alliyara in the Tumesout language. This word means "first", that is, the first from the star. The fact is that at the time of the discovery of the Earth and Venus, Venus was the first from the Sun, Mercury was its satellite. The second was the Earth, and the third was the Moon. Venus was a small planet and the Solar system was different. which after the war with the Selbet people 12,000 years ago moved closer to the Sun. After they took people off the planet, the Selbet people, having flown there, saw that there was no population there. But they assumed that Venus would be populated again with people and therefore sprayed special gases in the clouds, which gave off a lot of heat and almost completely destroyed oxygen, that is, they reacted with it. Oxygen turned into carbon dioxide and into compounds in the soil. The atmosphere became denser and saturated with sulfuric acid and hydrogen chloride. That is, the Selbetians spoiled the atmosphere, made it unsuitable for life, including increasing the greenhouse effect, blocking the Sun, etc. Due to this impact, Venus moved closer to the Sun.

Faith

The main factor of managing reality, including your energy. The driving force of the rational spirit. A figurative mental representation of a future event that will happen without a doubt. A feeling of the existence of something that cannot be comprehended by the mind, cannot be seen by the eyes, touched by the hands, or sensed by all the senses. This rather pertains to the realm of feelings. It’s like love: there is an image of a loved one, to whom love is directed, and there is an image of faith, to which faith is directed. This is the ability to direct your energy to changing the material world in a variety of forms. True faith allows you to transform what you believe in. If you do not believe, you will not be able to love. There is no rational being without faith in something. And since the spirit can influence chemical and biological processes in the body with its spiritual structures, it also influences its genotype within certain limits. Establishing a bright ideal and striving for it. This is a feeling that is in the spiritual heart. Faith can have a positive effect, raising vibrations, or a negative effect, lowering them.

A feeling that only humans have and that can control their instincts.

Qualities of the soul that allow one to be either in the energy of Light or without It. A property of any dense-material structure, the total frequency of vibrations of its structural chemical elements and fields that surround the atoms. Vibration is strictly individual and species-specific for an animal or a human, and is also strictly individual for an organism. If these frequencies are recoded in a certain way, they can be translated into audible sound frequencies and one can hear not chaotic sounds, but a certain sound melody. There are special devices on Earth that read the frequencies of human body organs and can translate them into sound, and there are devices that generate such sound to restore the original energy of these organs. The higher the vibrations, the closer to the Primary Source.

Vibrations in the spiritual plane

Vibrations or waves of spiritual Light, which constitutes objective and subjective reality. Spiritual vibrations are vibrations of feelings, emotions, will, desires, etc., i.e. spiritual processes that occur in our Spirit. Inside not the body, but the Spirit. They manifest through the body. In the Spiritual world, we are also not deprived of the ability to experience feelings, emotions, or desires - already without a body.

#274, 52:38, #490, 05:54

Highest vibrations

The highest energy, belonging to God. It created and creates this world, is outside this world, like God. According to the hierarchy, Light always controls Darkness, controls the lower.

The highest spiritual vibration is the one that gave birth to all the others, which is the original source and it is "Unconditional Divine Love"! Without Love there is no life. It is because of Love that we were all born from the original spiritual Light. It is because of Love that all the worlds, all the galaxies, all the aliens and everything else appeared. Without Love, no one would have life.

With Unconditional Divine Love, it is necessary to compare all other feelings, all other desires, aspirations - what they are directed to, and, naturally, emotions and thoughts. If we look at the spiritual heart, then the state of the spiritual heart gives rise to thoughts. What the spiritual heart is like, what it is filled with, such will be the thoughts of a person. If we talk about what vibrations are high - these are those that are closer to Unconditional Divine Love.

#165, 20:57, #490, 05:54

Low vibrations

Energies that contradict Love, low-vibration energy, which is the same high-vibration energy, only incorrectly directed, not recognized. This is also Love, but directed in the wrong direction, at the wrong person, or incorrectly manifested.

#165, 20:57

Vibrations (increase)

Increasing your qualities and bringing them as close as possible to the reference source, that same Light of unconditional Love, which is the basis of life, happiness, harmony and the absence of all opposing qualities, and therefore low vibrations. Increasing your vibrations does not mean increasing the number of oscillations in the atoms of the body. These are different vibrations.

It is necessary to understand the purpose of the increase. It is necessary to have before you that ideal with which we will compare our vibrations. To put before you, before your mental gaze, that being which possesses the highest vibrations in the Universe, in the Universe, in the entire existing world.

The second question that everyone will have to answer is: How important is this for me? How necessary is this for me? How necessary is it for me to really engage in my spiritual development, even if I have to make certain sacrifices for this? Every spiritually developed person who follows the path of spiritual development, increasing their awareness, sooner or later understands that this path is not as bright and rosy as it seemed at first. It also has its own stumbling blocks, its own temptations.

57-62% - 4-6 levels of astral (average level)

17-20% - 7th level of the astral, the highest level, passing into the world of disembodied spirits.

This structure reflects the spiritual levels of spirits incarnating on Earth. Most often, those incarnated are from the 6th to the 15th level of the spiritual world. Those incarnated from the 1st to the 5th and from the 16th to the 24th are less common.

Types of Autism

Congenital and acquired in early childhood due to the influence of parents' energy.

#333, 15:15

Types of ether

Intermediate energy between the material and spiritual worlds.

The intermediate energy between the worlds of plasmoids and the astral, the so-called buffer zone or interlayer, and this interlayer is also not homogeneous. For example, there is Akasha, torsion fields, prana, the veil of the astral - these are all types of ether. The energies that are contained in the subtle material worlds of plasmoids are also forms of ether, but a different one. For humans, this is all ether, since we cannot yet record the differences in its forms with devices. Humans cannot record electromagnetic frequencies beyond gamma radiation with devices.

Visualization

Representation of images.

#350, 01:29:03

Visualization (in treatment)

Thought form. If you visualize how a sick organ becomes healthy, i.e. clearly imagine that it changes its color, its structure, or mentally fill it with energy, then you will create a corresponding thought form in your astral field. This thought form, as one of the types of program, will be directed by you to the patient's astral field. And the extent to which your thought form is able to influence his energy, the extent to which it is able to launch its own energy processes to restore this organ will depend on the coincidence of your personal vibrations and the vibrations of the patient. In other words, the effect of the same healer will differ significantly from the vibrations of the patient himself.

Virus

Intracellular organism. Virus souls are created by plasmoids that live in the 15th density level, also the 10th density level creates a lot of them. There are viruses of the 5th density level. Only 1.5-2% of all viruses in certain conditions can be dangerous to humans. It depends on the properties of the organisms where this soul has settled. Virus bodies can multiply either in bacteria or in plants, fungi, animals, people, without causing them harm. But it happens that their reproduction gets out of control. Their energy begins to be damaged. Each virus has a certain life cycle, after which it must self-destruct without causing harm to the cell. Due to some disturbances in the energy of the person himself, a disturbance in the energy of those viruses that live in him begins.

For a virus, in its perception, the human body is not divided into the hypothalamus and something else. For it, the human body is a single planet, from where certain signals come for it. Viruses in one organism are connected to each other by a connection, similar to electromagnetic, but it is much faster, it is a cellular connection. It is not chemical, but rather energetic. They seem to talk to each other. And not only talk. These group souls make up a group mind. It is not like a person's. It is instinctive, like any animal's. Its main task is to survive and acquire offspring. For a virus, the hypothalamus is a place from which signals come that are dangerous to its life. For example, strengthening the immune system is dangerous to the life of viruses. It sends certain parts of itself there (it shows threads, mycelium, only it is energetic), they are as if connected by invisible threads. The virus sends a part of itself. This viral attack on the hypothalamus, and perhaps on the thymus, reduces the body's immune response, and therefore reduces the percentage of its particles dying. The virus perceives life in the body not as penetration into something foreign (capture), but as life in the place where life is the only possible place for it. It can no longer reproduce anywhere. It begins a struggle for survival.

The tendency to form blood clots, the tendency to severe lymphopenia, to thrombocytosis - this is the effect of certain enzymes and proteins created by their own cells in order to reduce the number of lymphocytes that destroy it. And thrombi, in order to reduce the speed of their influx through the blood to this place. The body's inflammatory reactions are directed against itself. This does not happen just like that, but under the influence of a virus that redirects the attack of lymphocytes, the attack of certain eosinophils that are already secreting antibodies, etc., are directed against the body itself. When they hide, they secrete substances so that the substances that stop these inflammatory reactions are not released from the lymphocytes. It turns out that a chain reaction occurs, from which the cells of the body themselves are destroyed. Viruses only enter this gap faster. They have such a cunning mechanism that they created artificially. The very penetration of the virus into the cell releases a substance to the surface that the cell confuses with its own, and captures it itself. It doesn't penetrate by force (it picks up some key), but it sticks to her and she lets it through. Because it imitates the substance that she needs. This is not called an attack method, but a method of viral sabotage.

Inclusion of a person in several egregors

Connecting any spirit to many egregors. It can combine everything that fits in its consciousness without conflicts. There are many people who have a broad outlook, high flexibility of thinking. They are able to combine the Orthodox worldview with magical thinking and perform magical rituals. These are two different egregors, but they exist in one person. There are also Orthodox communists. A person can combine contradictory worldviews. All religions talk about the same thing, just in different languages, depending on where this religion was formed. Therefore, if a person is able to understand what is being discussed, he can support all religions and not be in conflict with any egregor. There will be a harmonious content of all energies in itself.

Water

One of the elements. Like all four elements, it serves as a building material. As an element, it is an energetic state of space. It has a certain fluidity, variability, and certain frequency characteristics. A symbol of various energies, elements, the etheric energy (field) of a person, and subtle civilizations. The only substance in the Universe that, when ice crystallizes, freezes, does not shrink, but expands sharply. Water is very important for the human body. It is in every cell, even in the bone cell. Only with its help can life processes occur.

The water is salty

The water is fresh

A solution of salt, or rather not just one salt, but a set of salts. Each salt, as a substance, also has its own vibration. These substances also have an effect on human energy, especially since salt is a crystalline substance that, like water, can absorb energy.

Fresh water can also absorb energy, but in a different way. Salt water, for example, can retain it longer. Energy states of other people are better transmitted through salt water. They are transmitted through fresh water, but they are not stored for a long time, especially if there is a current, mixing.

Thanks to these salt crystals, the energetic state of the water, which people have charged with their auras, their mental and astral fields, is preserved.

Hydrogen engine

Energy source at the Tikhta base on Baikal. Power about 5000 megawatts. It extracts energy from the bonds of hydrogen and oxygen atoms, as well as the bonds of water molecules with each other, partially. By directing special fields, a chain reaction begins. Atoms repel each other instead of attraction. But their microgravity does not have time to return to the third level of these atoms. It accumulates in special batteries made of iridium alloy with gold and lead, which is created using a molecular lattice. And this energy can be converted into any type of electromagnetic fields and other material energies in special devices.

Warriors

Spirits from the 10th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits, whose main goal is to restore justice as they understand it. Indifference to the suffering of others and to their own allows them to achieve fairly high vibrations, but the implementation of their plans is often associated with condemnation of dissenters and the use of violent methods of influence. Unlike rakshasas, warriors do not fight for their ideas, not for the egoistic advancement of their power, but for ideas that they sincerely and ardently consider socially useful. These are rebels and revolutionaries burning with the dream of social well-being, but losing sight of the law of similarity, according to which negativity, even manifested for good purposes, can only give rise to another negativity.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

War

A material process that is formed by those spirits that are incarnated, with the help of material means that consist of the condensed energies of God. Spiritual entities, being incarnated, use divine energy against each other, and therefore against themselves, because in the Spiritual world everyone is united. War is not only a destructive process of material structures or killing physical bodies, it is also a process of self-destruction, self-degradation of those spirits that are involved in it. Like any material process, it is born on a spiritual level. And the spiritual cause of war is the presence of vibrations of arrogance, pride in the noosphere.

Physical war, physical battle is only the last stage of aggressive energy accumulated in the Earth's noosphere.

First there is a long period of aggression within some people, within some group, and only after a fairly long period of time does it develop into physical actions.

War in Demeter's perception is a black cloud, which consists of negatively charged energy. Negatively charged, meaning, denying love, life, hope—all these high-vibration states. And these dark spots seem to spread along the third level of density. Then they rise up, penetrate all the levels of density and get into the Astral, into those egregors, clusters of thoughts and feelings of people who are already living. And on the way through these levels of density, some plasmoids can try to absorb this energy into themselves in order to process it. For some, this turns out to be inharmonious and they lose connection with their Higher divine essence, switching to a parasitic type of nutrition. They simply do not follow the rule.

Wars on the third level of density are possible only when these dark spaces that come from people, from their auras, accumulate in sufficient numbers. And in this case, the energy that has gathered above people in a kind of dome begins to provoke people to bring each other out of incarnation for a variety of reasons. The reason is not important here: it is important for them to fulfill the will of the energy-informational entity that they themselves created.

Embodiment
The movement of the spirit into the flesh and connection with the body by a special type of energy called life force.
The spirit has decided to incarnate in order to learn something, to convey something to other spirits, or to achieve some goal or dream. It decides to incarnate where a place has already been selected for it, and the incarnation will go through these ancestral egregors. It will be accompanied and it will go to the material world.

You incarnate not only for the sake of lifespan. On the chosen planet, you get into a certain society, into a certain type of body that you need for development, and so on. An earthling has a certain energy, and on Earth there is a certain type of society. You choose your parents not only on Earth, but also if you are born on another planet. It's all the same. Short-lived organisms also have their advantages in that they quickly change their body and quickly adapt to different types of bodies.

Through incarnation, you need to change your vibrations in order to raise your level and come to God. Every intelligent spirit, when it goes to incarnation, is endowed by the Angels-consultants with a certain pranic energy: a type of etheric energy that is taken from the material world. You could say that it moves to the Astral before incarnation. After all, the Astral is a border area between the world of non-incarnate spirits and the material world. In a certain way, that part of the spirit that is separated for incarnation moves to a specially created space, which is called in your opinion "The Hall for dressing spirits with vital energy for accepting a material body", such a light space. For earthlings, this is 30%, as the ray goes. Then this ray is dressed in vital prana, a certain type of ether, which becomes its first vital energy. It will help it in connecting with the body. This happens with any intelligent spirit. Then the Angels-guides will lead him to the material world, where he will watch his future parents at the moment when they will conceive his body. But the spirit that watches them is already called the soul, that is, 30% of the spirit, clothed in this prana. It is called the soul.

Passing through the ancestral egregor, he is endowed with a certain vital force of the egregor itself. This is already, one can say, the second layer of the future etheric body. Then he observes his parents from the Astral on the energy level: he sees their emotions, desires and feelings. When the cells of mom and dad unite, and the first cell of his future body appears, which, naturally, carries all the genetic features and etheric matrices of the cells of a woman and a man, because each cell has an etheric matrix on a subtle level, at this moment the spirit introduces its vital force and part of the pranic shell, like a ray, into its first cell.

And from this moment on, the incarnation begins. The cell is alive, it begins to divide. The spirit itself is still outside this cell, it is in the Astral, but it actively helps the cells to divide. It assists, there is such a word - synergy. It manifests synergy in assisting with energy by forming new layers of the etheric matrix around the future body every day, within the woman's body. Any thought, feeling, desire of a parent, especially a mother, and a father too, but to a lesser extent, because this happens in the woman's body, affects this etheric matrix.

Funnels on the surface of Lake Baikal

Formations that arise under the influence of plasmoids of water and air together. This is their demonstration of themselves, that they exist. Funnels can be large, but they are not long-term, but short-term. At first, the water spins, then stops, becomes quiet in the same place. It may not give these funnels for a long time, and funnels may, in general, no longer appear in this place. And then suddenly appear in another place.

Permanent funnels (there are such), like whirlpools, only they move more slowly in a circle, this is connected with underground currents. Baikal also has its own currents, which pass along the shores, in the depths.

A funnel, depending on what kind, if it exists for a long time, then it is probably connected with the bottom relief and the underground river. There is another example: from the mouth of the inflowing river for several kilometers along the coast to the side and opposite this place there can also be a funnel, because water of different temperatures and different compositions mixes. As a result, due to the different density, the funnel begins to twist.

Upbringing

Light for raising a child. Nutrition of the Soul. Nutrition for ascent. For ascent upward, to the Light of God, nutrition of oneself. There is physical food, and there is spiritual food. Firstly, it is information from spiritual sources about the existence of the Spiritual World and its inhabitants. These are esoteric, philosophical or religious scriptures that study the world. The second source of nutrition is that love, that Light of truth that is born in you when you selflessly help others, communicate with your spirit, forgive enemies, show causeless mercy to all those in need. It is then that the food that is necessary for the growth of your spirit is born in you. This is spiritual food. This is the nutrition that elevates upward or education.

Raising children begins with raising yourself. As soon as you find a sign in raising yourself that you have succeeded, it is that you can maintain emotional stability in any situation. This is a stable positive background. To do this, you need to work with your attitudes. If you react to something negatively, then you need to identify the attitude that gives a negative result and change it. Do not try to change the world around you, but change only your attitudes.

Education (spiritual meaning)

Nutrition of the soul for ascent upward (by vibrations).

The word in upbringing consists of two components: "nutrition" and "ascent". "Ascent" comes from the word ascent. There is nourishment of the body, and there is nourishment of the soul. And nourishment of the body is caring for the child's body. Upbringing has nothing to do with nourishing the body. It is precisely nourishing the soul. Feeding it with certain bright images so that it can adapt to this world and learn to accept everything that happens with Love. At the same time, so that this does not prevent it from actively moving towards its goals and objectives, looking for harmony between activity and humility.

#283, 20:35

Rotation

A type of movement generated by energy that was initially laid down during the creation of physical matter. All material objects rotate because they were originally created from etheric flows. It was the physical plane that was created from the etheric flows of the four elements, described as the creation of atoms. All atoms are composed of the energies of the four elements. The element is an etheric force. When matter was collected, each atom was collected, space, these fields, they were collected already rotating. When several plasmoids begin to collect some object, they release energy from themselves, and it begins to rotate. Rotation is a universal principle of collecting energy for its manifestation on a denser plane.

#420, 40:06

Rotation in the Universe

Reflection of the Divine Perfection of the One Who created this world and its laws. Reflection of the Divine Law of perfection and infinity, since the ball and circle, when they spin, are infinity. The image of a circle is a symbol of infinity, because its lines are never

Time

The ability of the material to change.

The change of particles of the material world, which determines all types of movement and all types of energy, kinematic energy.

A method of measuring changes occurring in space, a parameter of change in space.

A way of counting the intervals of Eternity. Exists only in our perception during our incarnation.

A convenient tool for living in the material world. For convenience, periods of time are selected, for example, a revolution around the Sun is a year, the Earth's revolution around its axis is a day.

Divine energy that moves space. From the point of view of physics of the Interstellar Union, time is energy that is the cause of the formation of space and all its particles. But in itself, without space, without the material world, time does not exist as a physical phenomenon. Each planet that revolves around a single Star, a double Star, a triple Star (there are even planets that revolve around a five-component Star system) - they have completely different time models that depend on their historical past, which, in turn, depends on the time of their planet's revolution around each, for example, of the Suns, around the revolution of their satellites, and so on.

Priceless divine energy that can be directed either towards development or degradation.

Energy flow that is directed both forward and backward. Plus there is the Time Tape. There are variations of events on the Time Tape. They can be both forward and backward.

Not just the energy of Light, but a flow of changes of material particles relative to each other, a flow of changes of their position in space, their sizes, and so on. This is precisely a change, a flow of changes, caused by different energies.

From the point of view of the Spiritual world, time does not exist at all, because there are no changes there. In the material world, there are continuous changes of those energy particles that enter it. It is impossible to stop these changes. Why is it impossible? Because the chain of events that is formed from the change of these particles, its stopping or its acceleration can affect many entities embodied here. Not only people. And therefore, it is impossible for an individual spirit to influence objective time. But it is possible to speed up or slow down your subjective time, simply by going into a state of eternity. When you go into a state of spirit, you find yourself outside of time. And when you find yourself outside of time, then that period of material time that is unpleasant to you for some reason simply passes unnoticed.

Universe

Not only the physical world, it is the ethereal world, the subtle world. This world between the physical and the spiritual—"plasmoid worlds", of which there are many, hundreds of thousands of millions, if you take into account all the galaxies, there are very, very many of them. The Universe manifests itself from the Spiritual Light, which comes from the Divine space sequentially.

The period that comes after the manvantara is called the eternal period of rest, when all energies pass into the Spiritual world from all the material worlds. As soon as this happens, there will be no universe and no material world at all, but there will be the Spiritual world, which is always there, it is eternal.

Then there is a period of rest. It is impossible to determine its time correctly.

As for the duration of the rest period, if we count by subjective time, it could be a second or several million years. No one can determine this. And then everything repeats itself from the beginning.

The Universal "Law of Equilibrium"

The law that says that the Spiritual world, planets and worlds of different density levels are connected to each other. The Spiritual world is one in all civilizations. All planets and plasmoid worlds are a small part of the Spiritual world. The entire cosmos is connected to each other by its parts through the Spiritual world. A wave of a certain frequency reaches the other worlds through the Spiritual world and, accordingly, attracts the same frequency to itself, as like attracts like.

One of the types of ethereal energies that separate the material world from the spiritual. The astral veil is located closest to the material world. Like a film on water, thin but strong for beings consisting of the spiritual substance of the astral world. The astral veil covers the astral bodies of incarnate spirits and one of its functions is to protect unprepared people from direct contact with the astral world, since the low vibrations of people can attract low-vibrational entities, which they can be afraid of.

That is, the mother's spiritual vibrations, her concepts of life, her relationship with her father, and something else no longer correspond to the qualities of the spirit that he must develop and that parents must invest in his upbringing. Everything no longer corresponds to what the Angels-consultants selected for him. In this case, the Spirits-guides come for him, interrupt his incarnation, say that it does not correspond, and that he will need to look for another body, or perhaps a more suitable one for incarnation has already been found. And in this case, he leaves, interrupts the thread of life for no reason, and the woman has a miscarriage.

They decide to interrupt the incarnation of the spirit at the stage of pregnancy if they have found the best conditions for its incarnation and development of its qualities, or if it is needed for some time to work in the Spiritual world.

Higher Self (Spiritual Self)

The non-embodied part of the spirit that remains in the spiritual world. This is the Supreme Being, directly receiving the flow of energy from the Creator. The frequencies of vibrations of the spiritual and material worlds differ so much that when incarnated into a body, the spirit does not fully connect with it, leaving its highest manifestation, its particle of eternal, loving Light, in the spiritual world. This is the part of the human spirit that is not blocked by the memory of all incarnations, of the person's life path, the life tasks of the current incarnation and how well they are being fulfilled.

It does not have physical organs, language, does not give a physical voice. It is a human thought, an image, but not a voice in the head.

The spiritual channel that connects the embodied part of the spirit (we, we call "soul") through the crown of the head, through the seventh chakra, goes into the spiritual channel - up. And it goes to the Spiritual world to the level where our Higher Self is.

The main condition for pure contact with your non-embodied part is trust in yourself and acceptance of the answers that will come. In order not to be deceived by the play of your own imagination, it is necessary to accept. When a person asks a question, he must speak, addressing the Higher Self, and not into the void. At the moment of contact, the mind must be relaxed, that is, you must let go of your thinking.

Higher Self of the Earth.

Plasmoid of the 48th (33rd) density level. This is more of a female image. Her subtle body occupies a volume greater than the volume of the Earth and it is not round, like a cloud. She feels the Earth as her part, sees everything that happens there, sees it all in energies. The name of this plasmoid is Demeter. She is already more than 4000 years old. Before that, the role of the Earth's plasmoid was played by another being, another entity, it was a man. His name can be found in historical reference books. They sometimes change, because they can disembodied and go to the Spiritual World to perform their tasks. When they say that the Earth is alive, the Soul of the Earth, Mother Earth, then all these are appeals to the plasmoid being that is responsible for the entire Earth. It observes and controls all the plasmoids of the earth's elements and places of nature. She knows all the plasmoids, because this plasmoid of the 48th density level has a perfect memory, she can remember everything, save information that is stored in all computers and libraries, and even much more.

#287, 22:45

Higher Selves of Different Countries

The patron of the country in the Spiritual world, usually an Angel of the 22nd, 23rd or 24th level. Most often the 23rd, this is done by Arhats. In the subtle plane there is a patron, i.e. a plasmoid, and in the Spiritual world there is also a patron, they cooperate.

#287, 22:45

Pushing out or knocking out energies

The effect of a magnetic field on atoms that are carriers of all three energy levels. One energy, entering a substance with a certain speed, flow density, etc., can displace those energies that were contained in the substance before the moment of impact.

#272, 12:11, #354, 48:17

Galaxy "M31"

A galaxy that is 2.5 times larger than ours. According to the Intergalactic Union, it includes more than 350 civilizations that are part of their Interstellar Union, and 1,000 humanoid civilizations that are not part of it.

#16, 03:36

Galactic Federation of Light (GFL)

One of many communities in space, which includes both humanoid and plasmoid civilizations, and there are many more plasmoid civilizations. "Humanoid"—are all dense-material forms: anthropomorphs, reptilians, insectoids, and so on. "Plasmoids"—are subtle-material life forms that exist in other dimensions, dimensionalities, and densities of the material world. The capital of the GFL is located in the Pleiades star cluster. Any civilization of the Interstellar Union has the right to join the Galactic Federation of Light, if it agrees to accept it. There are no restrictions in this regard.

In the Galactic Federation of Light, as in the Interstellar Union, there is a Council of Rulers. It consists of 128 representatives of different planets, as well as 3000 representatives of plasmoid entities from different levels. These representatives make up the Council of Hierarchs of the Galactic Federation of Light. By the way, Ashtar Sheran is a member, he is one of the 128.

#288, 56:04

Gehenna

The image of fire. The perception of God's Love as His wrath due to the lowering of one's vibrations.

#53, 01:15:12

Hemophilia type A

A recessive mutation of one of the DNA sections responsible for one or more links of blood coagulation in case of injuries. There are twelve of them, and each enzyme may be disrupted. And then even a high content of platelets in the blood will not save a person from bleeding in case of the slightest injuries, because the insoluble protein fibrin, which forms thrombi from platelets, erythrocytes and leukocytes, will not be formed from fibrinogen.

In order for fibrinogen to form fibrin, a chain of chemical reactions is needed, which depends on many factors that are genetically determined, that is, they are caused by genetic processes. Any protein, enzyme, is produced based on DNA information. If it is not produced or is produced in insufficient quantities, or another enzyme is produced that quickly removes the first enzyme from the body, then the entire system breaks down.

#182, 02:21:45

Gen

A hereditary factor in classical genetics that carries information about a specific trait or function of an organism and which is a structural and functional unit of heredity.

A gene is a DNA sequence that specifies the sequence of a specific polypeptide or functional RNA. Genes determine the hereditary characteristics of organisms that are passed from parents to offspring during reproduction.

#246, 34:51

Genetic diseases

Negative programs of the physical body, which are taken into account when incarnating a spirit with similar negative programs.

#20, 36:40

Genetic modification

Any organism with altered genetics from its original.

#40, 59:12, #316, 04:40

Gene psychology

A science that studies the manifestations of the spirit in the body with a particular set of genes that determine a particular protein structure of the brain. A lot of scientific work has been done on this discipline. A discovery has been made that allows you to control your brain so that it can more accurately and clearly control the body and so that it can help the spirit recognize information from the outside world. So that the brain can help the spirit conduct its thoughts through matter into physical reality without getting tired and at the same time there is a fast metabolism, those toxins that destroy cells do not accumulate.

#500, 27:43

Technologies, most often these are used to minimize efforts for some process. If it is a plant, then plant growing. If it is insulin production, then, accordingly, since the number of diabetes cases is growing, then the insulin that was previously extracted from the pancreas of animals is naturally not enough. You cannot raise so many pigs. Therefore, they were forced to change the genes of E. coli in order to genetically modify it. So that it would secrete insulin instead of its metabolic substance. And some other drugs are obtained in this way to minimize some efforts. For example, to cause some property that was absent, but which can be useful for this plant, so that it would give a greater weight of fruits, a greater yield, be less damaged by producers, and so on.

People who remain in villages, they do not have time to grow products for the city population in a conventional, non-GMO way.

Therefore, the more the population of the Earth grows, the more actively these technologies will be introduced. Such seeds will be used in the future, when people learn to use them more perfectly, so that they do not lose their taste and aroma. Now, genetically modified products are inferior to their natural counterparts in these organoleptic properties, as well as in the content of vitamins and microelements.

In the future, when Earth scientists improve this technology, genetically modified seeds, due to higher yields and lower costs for the same pesticides, herbicides and other substances, which also cost financial resources, and their processing also costs financial resources, will become cheaper and cheaper. And natural ones will become more and more expensive and, due to this, will decrease in consumption. And this will happen faster, the faster the population grows. This is a natural process, they are connected with each other.

#345, 22:32

Human Genome

Information contained in chromosomes at the DNA level. DNA changes any virus that enters a cell, starting from the flu virus, any acute respiratory disease, papilloma virus, all types of hepatitis: A, B, C, HIV infection, etc. Any viral agent changes the DNA of the cell it entered, so that the cell begins to produce proteins that are needed by the virus, and not the body.

#296, 22:51

Human genotype

Selbet, Tumesout and Burkhad genes combined with primate genes. This prepared the nervous system and receptor system of the primate body for the embodiment of an intelligent spirit.

There were common marriages between earthlings and aliens. Between the Tumesoutians and earthlings there were often marriages and common offspring. Also between the Burkhadians, Shimorians, the Burkhad colonies from the Pleiades, between the civilizations of the Lyrian group, with the Ashtar civilization. The earthlings themselves looked like representatives of the white race, only taller, about 3-4 meters. Their bodies were stronger and adapted to the gravity of the Earth. There was a different composition of the atmosphere, the air contained more oxygen. There was a different magnetic field, in which this gravity was easier to bear. People lived from 600 to 900 years.

Closer to the beginning of the war, height changed, the Earth's gravity was high, and adaptive processes in the human genetic system allowed people of shorter stature to be born.

At first it was unnoticeable, but before the war people were already 1.8-2 meters tall, approaching modern heights. It was not sudden, but gradual, over centuries and millennia.

#105, 13:23, #256, 44:33

Genna (Juno)

One of Zeus's wives, based on his only wife Cephastis, a Burkhad humanoid named Agoranias. #52, 18:59

Hermes (Mercury)

A representative of one of the civilizations of the star from the constellation Lyra, at that time they had bases on Earth. Messenger of the gods, like an Angel from the spiritual world, when there was no Christianity yet. A person who transmitted knowledge about people to the gods, came into contact with them. Modern researchers of myths believe that this is a collective image of intermediaries between people and the creatures they deified. Shoes with wings symbolized his ability to fly.

A creature from the myths of Ancient Greece, a figurative representation of a clot of matter formed during the formation of a new cycle of the Universe, part of the energy of Chaos from which the planet Earth and all civilizations incarnated on it were created by plasmoid civilizations.

#288, 07:30

The Death of Atlantis

A mythological account of the war with Selbet 12,000 years ago and its aftermath, which saw the destruction of the cities that existed at the time.

#59, 18:55

The Death of the Universe

The process in which the vibrations of those energies that now make up the atoms increase, pass into the subtle-material worlds, and the subtle-material worlds, increasing their vibrations, pass into the Spiritual world. Only the Spiritual world remains. The material world disappears for observers from the material world, which is why they say "the death of the Universe." But nothing can perish from the Spiritual world, because everything is the energy of the Spiritual world, and it is indestructible. This is simply the return to the Spiritual world of the energy released to create the material world. Then a cycle of rest passes, and the material Universe arises again in order. First the subtle-material worlds: the 59th level of density, then the 58th, then the 57th, and so on down to the first.

#326, 14:32

Hydroplasma (five-cluster water)

The fourth state of water in nature. Revives, makes it clean and structured.

Water, the energy system of atoms of which is changed by the directed energy of an intelligent being or device, in which the arrangement of water molecules relative to each other changes. Consumption of such water affects the etheric body.

Gilgul (in Hebrew)

Wheel, rebirth. The concept of metempsychosis.

#47, 16:30

Gilgamesh

Ruler. His parents were humans. His father was a contactee with the Interstellar Union, and his mother was a priestess in a temple. The temple was dedicated to a lunar deity, where they contacted plasmoids that created animal souls. His mother was in very close contact with one plasmoid that took the form of a female goddess.

By blood, on his father's side, Gilgamesh came from one of the branches of the descendants of the genetic experiments of the Tumesoutians 10 thousand years ago. 2 thousand years after the war, they also carried out these experiments so that humans and Tumesoutians would be a common race.

The Tumesoutians created some people who were taller and lived longer. Such experiments took place both before and after the war. The descendants of these people were born with Tumesoutian genes, the number of which was increased compared to other people.

Gilgamesh was not directly the son of an alien, but was a descendant of one of the branches of a tribe that came from genetic experiments. Due to this, he had a stronger body, he was more resilient. With white skin, lighter than others, about two meters tall. He had dark, wavy hair.

He was a very brave man. He was a physical contactee, they took him. Due to the increased number of Tumesoutian genes, he had a body more resilient to physical stress.

He loved to swim in the sea, could swim for hours, dive and hold his breath underwater for up to six minutes. He had such a feature. Everyone considered him supernatural, a demigod, a special person, if God gave him such power. Gilgamesh was a hunter, especially in his youth. He could shoot very accurately, run faster than a deer.

He radiated such energy that if he met a lion, the lion would lie down in front of him. Gilgamesh looked the lion in the eyes, gave orders, and the lion would no longer understand where it was. He could approach and treat the lion like a kitten, he could pet it, completely wild. Because of this, people were afraid of him, they considered him a sorcerer.

Gilgamesh was a very wise ruler, led defensive wars, issued the Law of Justice, judicial laws (he is shown with scales, as a judge). His spirit was of a high level.

A locality in the north of the single continent Pangea. In the syllabic proto-language of the peoples who inhabited it, the name sounded like Ragaria, which can be translated as "the image of the path to the Divine Sun", that is, the spiritual image of the path to God.

#288, 56:04

Hypnosis

An altered state of consciousness achieved by the influence of one part of the mind on another. The influence of an active zone in the human mind, consisting of certain thoughts, on the rest of the mind and on other parts of the structure of the spirit in such a way that it becomes dominant in the consciousness of the person. Hypnosis can occur with the help of another person or independently.

The Path of Love and Devotion in Serving God

#309, 10:08

The main difference between the situation “after the quantum transition” and the situation “before the quantum transition”

The tendency of spirits incarnated on Earth to high-vibration states and the simplification of the path of Light for those who follow the path of Light. They will be helped by space itself, including nature, plasmoids, egregors, and so on, since they will be more charged with the energy of Light, high vibrations. And vice versa, spirits incarnated with dark goals will be hindered by everything. This is the main difference that determines all the others.

#222, 26:13

Eye (ancient Egyptian amulet)

The center, in general, of the whole being. It was a sign that God always sees you and that you are under His protection.

#403, 01:06:00

Glaucoma

A pathology in which the vitreous body of the eye can become denser, more heterogeneous, due to which it loses the ability to absorb liquid. This liquid contains many nutrients, including antibodies that protect and nourish the cells that are in the eye. There are many of them. It is very important - there are many types. Not all cells can be supplied with blood vessels. Some must receive nutrition and remove metabolic products with the help of a liquid that is very similar in composition to blood plasma, without red blood cells and other formed elements. It contains antibodies that protect, for example, from viruses. Normally, in a state of harmony, all the liquid that is produced by special blood cells goes to each cell for nutrition and removal of toxic substances. Then it is excreted through the canals and through the vitreous body. It consists of certain substances, in structure, like jelly. Depending on various factors, it can become denser and impermeable to this liquid. It starts to accumulate, it has nowhere to go, it presses back against the wall.

Place of Krishna. Krishna lives there in the Spiritual World.

#305, 14:11

Descendants of marriages between Shimorians and earthlings. The bluish color of the skin and blood of Shimorians is due to the high content of organic copper compounds in the blood.

#105, 01:12:10

Perception of the earthly eyes. The sky on any planet is a symbol of the spiritual world. Blue (dark blue) color reflects the vibrations of the 5th and 6th chakras, which are responsible for the manifestation of creativity and spiritual vision, i.e. the color of the sky on Earth shows people which path to take to become a heavenly inhabitant.

#303, 03:17

Dove as a symbol of Peace

A bird of peace, happiness, grace for any person on Earth in ancient times, since its energy caused an increase in vibrations in the fourth chakra, where love is. It is the dove or turtledove, it was still in the book "Lilith" the only bird species that could be sacrificed to God. It is from birds - a female dove.

The phrase "You will be as simple as doves" was meant to indicate that simplicity is in love, which is expressed through the heart. There is nothing simpler than love.

#259, 05:13

Homeopathy

This is not just a chemical method, it is an energetic one. A method of treatment with microdoses of substances that cause symptoms similar to the disease. But in this case, the effect is not on the physical, but on the etheric body by the radiation of those substances that cause the disease itself. But, since there are no substances in the homeopathic preparations themselves, but only a charge of energy, then this charge of energy, on the contrary, suppresses the disease on the physical level.

#127, 20:21

Homogeneous race

A race that has no genetic cross-breeding with other civilizations and no differences in skin color.

#163, 12:33

Homologous chromosomes

A pair of chromosomes with the same set of genes and similar morphology in the karyotype of a diploid organism. One of the homologous chromosomes is obtained during fertilization from the maternal parental organism, the other from the paternal.

#246, 34:51

Homosexuality

A developmental disorder caused by memories of a past life in a body of the opposite sex, when the spirit cannot come to terms with and accept its current body. Such a spirit cannot live with the opposite sex, considering it "its own." For example, a woman begins to consider men her brothers and therefore cannot have a sexual life with them. On Esler and Shimor, there is no such thing as homosexuality, since every child is explained there that if he was born in this body, then this is his mission, and going against it means going against God's plans, which you yourself agreed to when you incarnated. No one will do this there, since it is pointless.

Reaction to loss.

#428, 04:44

Gorgon (Medusa)

The image of either contactees who had hypnotic abilities, or people who had an active gene of the so-called reptilian brain, which is located under the cerebellum.

Snakes are a symbol of reptilians. Why were they located specifically in the head area? This meant that people perceived priests with snake (reptilian) energy around their heads. Their hair was normal, there were no snakes in it. Usually such people were considered quite wise. Naturally, special spirits with great experience and the ability to contact different civilizations were embodied in them, passing on abilities, knowledge and wisdom to them.

#170, 19:04

Hormones

A certain protein, any enzyme. For their synthesis, material is needed. Most often it is supplied from outside.

#410, 23:12

Horoscope

A circle dividing the constellations, first created by Sumerian priests. They noticed that the path of the Sun across the sky was repeated every year, that it passed through the same constellations. It was this circle that was already called a horoscope in Greece. It was translated as "visible sky", as "I watch the sky".

The priests saw that the circle consisted of 12 constellations. The number "12" had been sacred to them before, because it reflected it as 4 elemental forces multiplied by the trinity of the human spirit. They knew the laws of the trinity in man: body, soul, spirit. They called it differently. The priests saw that the sky also reflected the sacred number. The sacred number is repeated.

Every five years the priests had a holiday. That is, "5" was considered the number of man, as with all ancient peoples, because the distinguishing feature of man is five fingers on the hand. This is the first reason. The image of a five-pointed star, the head, the human image - this is like the number of man. A very ancient expression.

The number "12" repeated 5 times equaled "60". The priests divided the entire sky for observation into 360 degrees, as they measured a circle. The circle was divided into 360 parts. And each segment of the circumference was called a degree. Then an hour began to equal 60 minutes. At first, this was used specifically for the needs of astronomy. Everything was strictly tied to the Solar system and to the universal earthly numerology, which reflected the secret meaning of numbers.

#343, 01:02:00

Gravity platform

The platform is of different shapes: round, oval, square. The shape doesn't matter, only the material. The outer side, where the person stands, is made of one material, and the one facing the surface is made of another. Between them are microcircuits, like tubes. Around each tube is a spiral of very thin wire: nickel, molybdenum, something else. Energy flows through the wires, which suppresses gravity. It has an energy reserve for flight, and then it will need to be charged.

#437, 01:22:12

Gravity bombs

Technical devices (round, white) in which gravitational energy is self-closed in a certain electromagnetic field of vector configuration.

#414, 52:44

Gravity Beacons

Devices placed around the Galaxy that allow correct exit from intergalactic jumps. They are tuned only to ships of the Interstellar Union, the Galactic Federation of Light and ships from other Galaxies that have received special markings. This is done for security purposes.

#218, 34:22

Gravity Engine

A type of engine that allows gravity jumps and travel across the Galaxy in a few dozen minutes. The basis of the gravity engine is one of the types of material energies embedded in atoms, namely microgravity, the carrier of which is the graviton. The source of gravitons is matter. Most often, tetravalent elements in powder form - carbon or silicon - are used to knock out gravitons with a plasma field. Usually, about 6 kg of carbon are required for a ship weighing up to 700 kg for 30 light years.

#17, 21:38, #141, 11:53, 13:20, 14:18

Gravity Jump. Instantaneous Movement

The jump that the gravity engine makes is when gravitons, the quanta of gravity that are in every atom, break out of the nucleus of the atom, from the third energy level. They overcome first the second energy level, then the first energy level. The nature of gravitons is to be inside the third energy level. When they are knocked out of there by some energy, displaced, gravitons strive to return to the third level of this atom. They do not succeed due to the field that is created and does not let this gravitational radiation back.

Radiations can also have a direction, because after all it is material energy (not subtle or spiritual). This radiation begins to rotate along a specially created artificial engine circuit, which, naturally, consists of certain substances and can withstand a plasma field. If the speed of gravitons in a state bound by matter is practically equal to the speed of photons, then in a free state this speed exceeds the speed of photons by 50 times.

But for a gravitational jump, it is not necessary to achieve the maximum speed of gravitons. When gravitons rotate in this engine circuit, the speed constantly increases, because they still strive to return, to overcome this plasma field. They strive to return to matter.

The plasma field experiences, one might say, pressure from this gravitational radiation and presses in response. There, the elastic force of the plasma field is created, special indicators are on the starship's display.

When the speed of these gravitational flows, which resemble a wave because there is heterogeneity there, reaches 4 light speeds, this gravitational field instantly spreads to the entire ship, because this engine circuit transmits it to the entire ship. But it does not transmit it through wires, but through special energy channels that are in the casing. And as soon as the speed reaches 4 light speeds, this released energy moves the ship from one point to another, but not because it dissolves there - this will already be teleportation, this is considered dangerous, because the atoms can assemble incorrectly.

Instantaneous movement is movement when space is instantly overcome precisely due to gravitational interaction. At the moment when a ship disappears in one point of space, not at the same moment, but in the next moment (a moment is approximately equal to 1.5 of your seconds) it appears in another. Not at the same second, otherwise the ship would exist simultaneously in two places.

Gravity

The energy of the third level, which is embedded in each atom at the micro level, “supermicroscopic”. It consists of gravitational quanta – gravitons. Each atom contains three energy levels: the first is electromagnetism, the second is thermonuclear energy, the third is gravity. At the micro level, it acts as a force that attracts atoms to each other and forms dense matter, as a force that allows all stars, galaxies, planets and even the smallest stone to move in space along their trajectories and orbits, that is, to be attracted to each other and not fall on each other.

There are two types of gravity: microgravity and macrogravity.

To shield gravity, magnetic fields or electric fields are not used. This would cause too much energy loss and, ultimately, would be ineffective. For this, certain forms of gravity itself are used, which are directed in the opposite direction, as if into gravitational fields. That is, gravity can be shielded by gravity itself.

Graviton

The carrier of energy, which is on the 3rd level and is called gravity. It is contained in all atoms, atomic structures: molecules, monomers, polymers and others. When released from the substance in which it is contained, it has a much higher speed than the energies of the 1st level (magnetism, light, radio waves).

Gradation of civilizations of the Interstellar Union by technical level of development

A system that determines the level of technical development of a civilization on a certain scale. Each level describes a certain technical system. There are many developers of such scales. There is no single generally accepted system in the Interstellar Union. One of them is the 30-level system. According to this scale, Earth belongs to the 12th level, which is characterized by the use of nuclear weapons and space flights.

#218, 20:07

The boundaries of the universe

Limits of the Universe that have not been found. Most likely, in our material world this limit does not exist.

#22, 33:50

Borders of the Interstellar Union

Borders that end with the borders of our Galaxy. Planet Earth is included in its territory.

Graphene

An allotropic form of carbon, a very light material, it can be lifted to great heights, various forms can be poured that harden. On Earth, this is not yet developed.

Once in the body, graphene cannot harm a person.

#337, 00:21

A sin

That which separates from God, from His energies, is not a property of civilizations, but of those spiritual levels from which spirits come. Any conscious action of an incarnate spirit that takes him away from the Light of God's love. Not that which takes him away, but that which closes his vision of this Light and understanding of its true value.

State of mind. Actions are a consequence of sin, the sin itself is much deeper, it is in the human heart when it is not filled with unconditional love.

The result of damage to mental attitudes and astral feelings and emotions on a deeper spiritual level.

Low vibrational energy states of the mental, astral and etheric bodies.

The Fall

The consequence of eating the fruits of temptation on the spiritual level. There was a fall into low vibrations from top to bottom. Thus, the Bible simultaneously writes about both a spiritual event and a physical one. But to understand all this, you need to know the nuances.

#196, 14:23

Mushrooms

Microorganisms, but they reproduce differently. Firstly, they retain spores and a different metabolism, for example, Candida. It looks different, it cannot spread through living cells as actively as Chlamydia. Candida, like other fungi, is characterized by the metabolism that it feeds on cell debris, dead ones, where few enzymes are needed for digestion, it is ready-made organic material. And they also differ in frequencies. Even one fungus differs from another in the same way as, for example, Staphylococcus differs from Pseudomonas aeruginosa.

#410, 40:37

Hallucinogenic mushrooms, psilocybin

Mushrooms that cause the perception of those energies and spiritual entities that a person in a normal state of consciousness does not perceive. There is an influence not on vibrations, but on the perception of the spiritual world and subtle civilizations. The substances in the mushrooms act on the brain in such a way that substances are released that open this vision. And not only it. Hearing, sensations in the body that are caused by contacts with subtle entities. A person's vibrations remain at the level they were at before taking the substance.

#105, 01:07:43

Group animal soul

Animal souls created by the inhabitants of plasmoid worlds, incarnated in the bodies of microanimals (viruses, microbes, bacteria). The more primitive the animal bodies in development and the smaller they are in size, the more of these bodies the soul, that is, the group soul, is incarnated in. After the death of all the bodies of the group animal soul, it can reincarnate in other animal bodies of the same group of living beings, but with each incarnation there remains less and less vital force and, eventually, it dissipates in the astral.

#27, 01:14:18, #286, 09:23

Group mind

The social structure of insectoids, in which one is responsible for all, and all are responsible for one, and can also energetically and psychologically sense other representatives of their species at a distance. This feature of organisms is the basis of the insectoid worldview, from which the social world order follows. At the head of society is the main insectoid, who is the core of society, from him there are connections on the energetic and psychological level with each member of society. First, he is connected with his close associates (retinue), then each close associate has connections with twenty more, and so on. The structure of society has a clear hierarchical system. In practice, this means that each representative of the race, wherever he is, in space or on his planet, has access to the mind of any other. At an early age, young representatives are even specially taught how not to feel the suffering of other members of society, for example, their death or injury.

#35, 07:33

Humanoid

A dense-material being, an intelligent spirit, embodied in a third-density body, that is, in a physical body consisting of atoms and molecules. The nervous system of such a being is capable of embodying an intelligent spirit. Neither bacteria, nor viruses, nor amoebas, nor insects, nor birds, nor mammals are capable of this. Their nervous systems are not capable. Humanoid life forms include anthropomorphic, reptilian, insectoid, ornithoid and other races.

Metatron's incarnation. He was born into a simple family in that incarnation, but became a contactee since childhood with the planet Tumesout. He wrote poems for songs about nature, about love, and there were also songs-prayers, that is, spiritual ones. They taught him both in his sleep and in reality. They came from the planet Tumesout and taught how to cleanse his spiritual heart, how to tune his spiritual channel to communicate with his Light, with his heart, and how to always be in high vibrations, how to always be bright and pure, "pleasing to God." What is "pleasing to God"? This is a person who corresponds to vibrations in the highest divine quality.

He began to do so, he began to match the vibrations of the place of the ruler of Israel, when it was still united. At that time there was another king. The curator from the planet Tumesout, chose David through his prophet, brought him to this king. Gradually, through seemingly random events, he took his place. And he began to rule Israel.

It was not an easy path. Many times David was in danger of being taken out of the incarnation, many times he was tested for forgiveness, for love, for acceptance of his enemies, those who wanted to kill him. And if he had allowed any feeling towards the former king and his people, he would have ceased to correspond to the place of the ruler.

Therefore he considered this incarnation very important.

#243, 08:56, #446, 12:08

Tao (Taoism)

Followers of the contactee Lao Tzu. They sought physical immortality. Having quickly realized that it was impossible, they replaced it with death, but since death was associated with the decomposition of the body, it was something that caused disgust. The Taoist teachers considered that the most perfect departure was when you did not leave anything for death, for the process of decomposition. This was considered a sign of departure into enlightenment.

Sequence

A planet from the constellation Cassiopeia. Distance - 150 light years from the Sun. Capital - Kuuli. Homeland of Kirkhiton, the first curator of Irina Podzorova.

It was located in the constellation Sagittarius, if you look from Earth, it was called Shiitlo, which roughly translated from the Daraal language into Russian means "Dark Cloud". Because this planet was very often surrounded by clouds that let little light through to the surface of the planet. It was because of this, because of the long period of darkness on the planet, that the ancestors, when they evolved from animals, developed such an organ, the third eye.

The Daaralians have a head that comes out of the body, practically without a neck, because they did not have a section of the spine that is responsible for the neck. One eye is red, and two eyes are yellow, and they are round. Hands with five fingers, just below the knees. They live from 250 to 350 years. The number of chakras is 24. On the head - two, the others are where the hands are. There are energy centers in the limbs.

Evolved from animals, from creatures that vaguely resembled bears. Animals had an organ similar to an eye. Through it, these animals could see infrared radiation emitted by warm objects. It was this function that our ancestors adopted when they evolved from these animals. They could see in the dark, in poor lighting, in weak lighting as clearly as in the daytime, due to infrared radiation. Later, when they became intelligent beings, they changed their genome a lot, including by introducing alien gene structures into it in order to improve the race, to increase life expectancy, to increase endurance, etc. A little less than 500 years ago, their race was hybridized with a race of reptilian creatures. They have 23.8% of their genes. In order to be more adapted to their world, to have a longer life expectancy, not just a longer youth expectancy. To delay old age and for the humanoid to be active until the last days of its incarnation. And to increase strength.

Women look the same as men. There is only a difference in the internal structure. There are no sexual characteristics, sexual organs, like in humans. They are all internal.

17,200 years ago, the planet Shiitlo learned of the existence of the Interstellar Union. But at first they did not join it, although there were no wars, injustice, or other aggressive tendencies. The civilization did not correspond to joining the Interstellar Union due to its careless attitude toward nature, over-active use of its resources, and indifference to environmental pollution.

Five thousand six hundred years ago, a catastrophe occurred, which killed almost 18 billion intelligent beings. It was possible to save a little more than 25,000 humanoids, who were gradually transported to a planet that had long been discovered. All the rest died from a poisonous gas that burst out from under the soil due to the fact that huge cavities had formed under the soil, under the ground due to the active development of minerals. They burst onto the surface of the earth, and no one had time to understand anything.

It is because of this that after 1,000 years, not immediately, but after 1,000 years of resettlement to Daraal, the government passed a law that limited the birth rate with a special permit, which the government issued after the death of one of the representatives of our race. This happened so that there would be no overpopulation and active use of resources, so that the same thing would not happen to Daraal, what happened to Shiitlo.

At that time, the instinct of reproduction was preserved, and therefore, the sexual attraction inherent to it, many humanoids, especially at a young age, very easily mistook sexual attraction for true spiritual Love, united with each other, and they had unauthorized birth of children. The murder of children in the womb had long been equated to the murder of an adult. Therefore, the rulers realized that many humanoids faced the impossibility of fulfilling this law. And they adopted a new law, according to which changes were made to the genome of this race, blocking the manifestation of the instinct of reproduction through the hormonal system and the influence on the nervous system of humanoids

The birth of a new humanoid is possible on the planet only when someone already living comes out of incarnation. There is a law that presupposes the reproduction of intelligent humanoids on the planet by passing the genotype of both parents through a special device that connects them into a single body and allows the Spirit to enter freely. This is a device that can be tuned not only to the structure of physical cells, but also to attract vibrations of the subtle body.

Recently, the ruler of the planet issued a law according to which a planet suitable for the race to establish a colony was discovered in the constellation Cepheus, adjacent to the constellation Cassiopeia. Thanks to this, there will be enough resources and enough space for the free expression of their parental qualities. This is the first such law in more than 5,600 Earth years!

Society has already passed the stage when religions were necessary. Now it is at the stage of development when the concept of God and the feeling of Him occurs not through social formations that you call religions, but individually for each humanoid. Everyone is responsible for himself. There is no need for religions, because there is no need for an organized religious movement led by certain people. Everyone does it himself. The best prayer is a kind word to one's neighbor. The best ritual is a good deed that comes not from ostentatious piety, but from true Love. There they do not call God God, as in Christianity, but call it "an absolutely expedient thought."

The Daraalians have medical centers where humanoids are rehabilitated, for example, after an injury.

Virgin Mary (Mother of God)

The earthly woman, married, was betrothed to her husband, this is a well-known fact in the Scripture, her husband's name was Joseph. Although he is not the biological father of Jesus Christ, he continued to be her husband. Therefore, none of the apostles were surprised by the appearance of children. The teaching that she was immaculate, in Mead's personal opinion, appeared because they wanted to give her a certain shade of divinity, to equate her with the Angels. Not even to the Angels, but so that in the minds of people she would become an unearthly goddess. This was such a completely understandable technique: a goddess in a figurative sense. The fact that she did not give birth to more children means that she is not immoral and a goddess. This is a well-known teaching. But we must understand that these were not Christians, they used Jewish logic. For them, having children was considered a virtue. Having children with the Virgin Mary could not discredit her in any way because she gave birth to them in a legal marriage, not in adultery with her husband. Apostle Paul in his Epistle to the Hebrews clearly wrote that marriage is honorable, and the bed is undefiled. And since the bed is undefiled, it means that the fruits of this bed are gifts from God, and not some unknown creations. There is no contradiction with the dogmas of the church, because they were formed on the basis, including the writings of Apostle Paul. The only problem for the church is that your people will begin to find out which descendants of Mary's children remained on Earth. And since she is considered to be united with the Holy Spirit, it means that her children and further descendants can be endowed with some sacred properties. But this is not so at all. Spirits incarnated, the same as you and me, from different levels, and it does not matter at all what a person's origin is from this or that family, but only his life in the body matters, that is, what he will achieve in this life.

All the beginnings of reason in any of our worlds are manifestations of the Divine mind.

All the aspirations of the multiple worlds of the Interstellar Union are a manifestation of the Divine will of the embodied entities of Divine light.

Reason, will, light, the desire for knowledge are manifestations of the expanding consciousness of Divine energy, which knows itself in all its manifestations.

Demeter

The Earth Plasmoid (Solar System), a subtle being of the 48th density level (where, as on the third density level, there are also many worlds), incarnated from the 20th spiritual level. Appeared in the world of the 48th density level 68,453 years ago, if a year is taken as a year according to the time of the dense world. Began to manage all the plasmoids of the Earth and instruct them 4,576 years ago. This is approximately the same as twenty years for earthlings. Was incarnated on Earth more than 700,000 years ago and this was the 13th density level. Was responsible for the territory that is now located in the central part of Australia, but then it was still a single continent. Was the Manu of a certain territory, that is, the spirit of a certain territory. In the third density level, she was not incarnated either on Earth or anywhere else. There were 129 incarnations, because she was incarnated in subtle worlds, which took a lot of time.

The Higher Self of the Earth. When they say that the Earth is alive, "the Soul of the Earth", "Mother Earth", these are all references to a plasmoid being that is responsible for the entire Earth. It watches over and controls all the plasmoids of the earth's elements and places of nature. For the last 4,000 years, it has been a female image. Its body is several times larger than the Earth. It feels the Earth as itself. It is present everywhere, anyone can communicate with it. It keeps order, like a caring mother takes care of her children and gives them instructions. They are, at the same time, like children and like her servants.

Demeter is one of her names. But every contactee on the third density level who comes into contact with her may hear the name in a completely different way. Demeter is a character from ancient Greek mythology. Each nation that has its own language of communication on the physical level may call her differently. Gaia is the being that was before her. But sometimes Demeter is called that, because people may not know that she took over the Earth from Gaia, and they still address her that way. Also, in some nations, she was called "Ceres". In some nations, she was simply called "Earth" (as in "Mother Earth"). And in some modern languages, she is called "Mother of the World".

Demons

Spirits from the 5th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits who have become so disillusioned with life in the material world that they have come to a complete denial of its value and to accuse God of creating and maintaining it with His Energy. The degree and reasons for this denial are different for everyone, but what remains common is visible asceticism and religiosity, combined with a sharp condemnation of dissenters and a certain disgust towards any form of matter or material activity. Demons often do not want to wait their turn for incarnation, they choose people with weak wills and forcibly occupy their bodies. This violates the law of God, since they must wait their turn to incarnate. Demons have two goals. The first is to show that God gave absolute freedom of choice to his children. Because any coercion in this matter would not cause sincere love, and therefore would not cause such high vibrations as His. And the second goal is to show that God allowed evil deeds, evil choices in His children to exist so that other good children of His who remained in goodness could see an example of the suffering that occurs when they choose evil. That is, in many cases, without going through the experience of evil, it is impossible to evaluate the experience of good.

Depression

A feeling of despondency that has already affected the human brain, and hormones have already stopped being secreted there joy. In order not to experience constant negativity, the Higher Self of a person blocks him, in general, the ability to feel so that this negativity does not further lower the vibrations to low level.

In order to fix this problem, it is necessary to dissolve those blocks that cause it.

constant negativity in a person's mind, in his consciousness. Then the Higher Self will unblock the feelings and a person will see the world in a new way again. His soul will not be empty, he will enjoy what

Depression (reasons)

Internal spiritual causes on the astral, mental, karmic levels, or karmic knots, that is, negative vibrations acquired in past lives and transferred to this one to learn lessons in other conditions of existence. These are mental attitudes that were placed in the mental body in childhood and accepted as truth, leading to a decrease in vibrations.

#292, 51:52

Deprivation

Disconnecting yourself from the sensations of the outside world.

#292, 14:45

Destructive forms of plasmoids

Plasmoids, who, feeding on human fear, irritation, anger, can spend their energy on destroying anything in the material world. They do this to attract attention, and to further intimidate people nearby.

In our Galaxy, the percentage of destructive plasmoid civilizations is 17%, in the Solar System - 22%, and on Earth - 37%. Recently it was 34%, and now it is 37%. But these are destructive plasmoid civilizations that feed on negative energies.

When a large flow of fear, anger, hatred, rage, resentment comes from people, these emotions and feelings go to the Astral. And when they go to the Astral, they pass through the subtle worlds, because at all levels of density the world of one density is embedded in another. According to the principle, not like a matryoshka, but as if inside one world there is a film of another world. These are like shells.

And when vital energy, charged with certain negative thoughts, feelings and emotions, comes from the dense material world, it rises to the astral world, to the egregor. But before getting to the egregor, it passes through all the subtle material worlds. And those plasmoids that are there, shrink from this. If they are high-vibration, then they begin to feel discomfort from this. This cannot be called physical pain, but it is like mental oppression, that is, as if darkness is cast upon them. Some of them retreat from people, rise to another level of density, so as not to be in this energy, and others feel offended, pass into similarity with these energies and begin to feed on them.

They also strive to incarnate in the subtle worlds, but unlike elementals, they often do this not in plasmoids that control the elements, but in their immediate leaders, who look after certain places in the material world: fields, forests, bodies of water, houses, and so on. They also take part in the creation of animal souls and help elementals control the elements.

John Kennedy

Incarnated Abraham Lincoln. He was the President of America these two times. He incarnated into Abraham from the 19th level at the beginning of the nineteenth century and got to the 19th level after disembodiment. He did not fully complete his task because he was forcibly taken out of incarnation, both times he was killed... He also incarnated into John's body from the 19th level, went to the 21st, because he also did not fully complete the task, but he managed to do more.

Juna

Spirit incarnated from the eighteenth level, "Guardian Angel". Birth name Evgenia. "Djuna" is a spiritual name. Was incarnated before coming to Earth on the planet Esler as a man, his name was OlStakr. He was a member of the Planetary Management Council of sixty Eslerians, as a ruler.

Left the incarnation on the seventh level. Did not fulfill the life task of developing patience, humility and the ability not to grumble in difficulties, to endure trials. Accumulated in herself a lot of energy of despondency, sadness and grumbling at God, who did not help in troubles. Why on the seventh? Because she loved nature, the spirits of nature very much, drew them.

The seventh is considered one of the middle levels because there is no darkness here like the demons have. Of course, there is no Light like the Angels have on the eighteenth level.

He paints landscapes, not with a brush on a canvas, but in space. He wants to return to the angelic world to gain more strength and opportunities to help others. As the level increases, the ability to manage one's own energy grows.

Being Juna, she knew how to do massage and transmit energies of her curators. She had spiritual curators, a Guardian Angel, Angels-consultants. Nicholas the Wonderworker and plasmoid civilizations (subtle-material) also came and transmitted energies through their hands.

Disaru

Planet. Cities are similar to those on Earth, with the only difference being that transport is not based on internal combustion engines. It is based on movement along the magnetic lines of the planet. Individual flying machines, similar to hang gliders, but with controls, have become very developed. They replace small Earth vehicles like bikes.

The inhabitants of Disaru are direct descendants of earthlings, absolutely indistinguishable from them neither genetically, nor biologically, nor energetically. The only difference is that they have a longer lifespan due to the fact that they were immediately taken to Disaru after the war 12,000 years ago and they did not live after the catastrophe on Earth. And another difference is that their planet is part of the Interstellar Union. They have contactees on Earth.

Disaru and Earth can have common offspring without the intervention of drugs that correct the genome. Disaru are shorter because they are on a planet where gravity allows them to be slightly taller than Earthlings, but not 4 meters, as Earthlings were originally.

They do not have genes that code for the production of enzymes for processing animal proteins, excluding milk proteins, and very small amounts of those proteins found in bird eggs, for example.

They have only one Rh factor and one blood group, the one that is considered the first on Earth.

Their respiratory epithelial cells and lung alveoli are practically identical in protein composition to human cells, and their DNA is practically identical. Disaru residents can talk to their blood cells.

A law was passed by the Disaru government itself that every father and mother, the future parents of a child, undergo genetic analysis to identify the genetic profile for the purpose of undergoing so-called genetic recovery. DNA structures are studied in detail and a more or less accurate prognosis is given: how likely it is that the child will develop any mutations, including in the future, as well as the ratio of genes.

Disaru Medicine conducted a set of measures aimed at maximum prevention, that is, prophylaxis, of oncological diseases. DNA was not changed. They remained protected at almost the same level.

The education in the Disaru school, the formation of their worldview, and the ideology of society are aimed at preventing destructive work of consciousness or instincts.

Representatives of the civilization look like anthropomorphic (human-like) creatures. with absolutely white skin. The shape of the head is like a strongly elongated egg, two eyes resemble black dots. They are small in stature, 1.10-1.20 m, with very thin limbs compared to a relatively large head and body. The mouth is like a slit, if closed, then it is practically invisible. They live in underwater cities under a dome. They have contactees on Earth, including physical ones.

DNA (Deoxyribonucleic acid)

A macromolecule that ensures the storage, transmission from generation to generation, and implementation of the genetic program for the development and functioning of living organisms. The DNA molecule stores biological information in the form of a genetic code consisting of a sequence of nucleotides.

#246, 35:51, #256, 01:10:05

DNA (the principle of the molecule)

Transfer of information not only from the physical level, but also from the mental level, from the astral level, through the etheric level to the physical body. That is, DNA and the number of its genes, and the number of genes included, and their fermentation among themselves - this is not a static system, it is a dynamic system. Moreover, in the cells of one and the same organism, at the same time, there can be different genetic information, which depends on spiritual understanding, on spiritual inclinations, in other words, the work of some organ can be disrupted by some emotion, for example. And then the genetic information will be disrupted, the mitosis of the cell will be disrupted, and so on, up to cancer diseases can occur.

30% of the spirit that is embodied is enough to activate approximately 70% of the genetic information of a person. This can only happen with the growth of awareness in each spirit. Only with the increase of their vibrations in each person, his Higher Self will allow him to gradually activate dormant genes. Otherwise, in an unconscious person, their activation can lead to the degradation of this person and the people around him, since the forces and energies hidden in him can be used for evil, for harm. People in whom this DNA is activated will have energetic capabilities, for example, directing their life force to moving objects, healing people, self-regeneration, regenerating themselves. And they will also have such a power of faith that they (of course, if they develop it, because even in activated DNA, if it does not develop in this direction, this life force will not act), if they develop it, will even be able to learn to push off the gravity of the Earth. And they will also be able to easily, for example, create phantoms of various astral and mental beings with their thoughts, which will help them in their affairs and so on.

Brownies

One of the representatives of subtle (plasmoid) civilizations, spirits of nature, who are responsible for houses and are usually on the fifth to eighth density levels. In one house there can be several of them, even a whole family, if the residents of the house are attractive to them with their energies. The brownie is basically a balancer of the house, that is, a balancer of the energies of the house, the space in the house. He is the same rightful owner of your space, your home, as you are, although he did not buy this house. He is there, placed in this place by God through the Angels, through his immediate superiors. Exchange energies of Love with him, and he will never frighten you, but on the contrary, will protect you from all low-vibration entities.

These are helpers. Previously, they were called house helpers, not just spirits. Plasmoids have different characters, they can be re-educated in one direction or another by the people themselves. They get used to a certain energy of the house, and they themselves adopt the character of the owners of this house. House spirits are free individuals and can either want to go with them or want to stay and wait for new residents. No rules or laws are provided for them, everything is left to their desire.

Dolmens

Stone structures made by ancient people, both with the help of extraterrestrial civilizations and independently. Stone blocks and the shape of dolmens contributed to the reflection of radiation and the accumulation of energy inside the structure. They performed rituals in them, and not only burials: some were built as graves, and some as rooms for meditation, for rituals and for healing. These were special rooms filled with energies, where the Spirits of Nature came to heal people.

Tree of Life

The Interstellar Union System, received by its specialists many thousands of years ago from the spiritual world. For each planet, the Tree of Life is compiled individually depending on its conditions and the constellation where it is located, the alphabet that is common on the planet, and so on. For the Earth, the Tree of Life is calculated according to the so-called astrological-numerological system. A tool for recognizing life, generic, social tasks of incarnation and those qualities that are included in the characteristics of the physical, astral and mental bodies that must be harmonized to fulfill life's tasks.

Dualistic thinking

Thinking characteristic of earthlings, due to the bipolar, two-sided, structure of the brain.

Since childhood, earthlings have become accustomed to dividing everything into black and white, right and wrong, good and evil, pain and pleasure. All sciences and all religions of earthlings are permeated with a dual worldview.

Because of this, there is a great tendency to division, to wars, to conflicts with those who are not simply a danger to you, but with those who disagree, who hold a different opinion. Because the consciousness of the spirit incarnated in the earthly body tends to demonize or denigrate the opponent who holds the opposite opinion. Precisely because of duality.

This is not typical for other races of the Interstellar Union. Many races have a brain that allows them to easily develop multidimensional consciousness. They see the situation from different sides.

When the two hemispheres work synchronously, harmoniously support each other, do not interfere with each other with signals, this indicates that the spirit that is embodied in this body will easily overcome the duality of thinking and reach multidimensional consciousness. Then the world will be seen not in black and white colors, but in the colors of the rainbow.

Spirit

An immortal entity born of God, which is a part of God, Light, aware of itself at any level from 1 to 24... The birth of the spirit occurs in the flow of Divine Light, thought-forms of God, permeating the entire Spiritual world, all levels. An eternal substance, consisting of divine energy, which cannot be destroyed and is immutable without union with matter of any kind, that is, without embodiment in this matter, has no material dimensions, that is, it cannot be measured by material means. The spirit does not occupy space in the space of the material world.

The Spirit consists of 3 parts: Mind, Heart (the essence of the soul), Energy.

The spirit is an autonomous consciousness within the consciousness of God. And it is as impossible to destroy it as it is to destroy God himself.

The spirit is the mechanism of the laws of nature.

The presence of spirit distinguishes man from animal. There is reason in the Spirit. Unlike an animal, a man can temporarily or permanently switch off any of his instincts. An animal is not capable of this. An animal is not capable of giving its life for an abstract idea. Only a man is capable of this. A man understands, analyzes, he has ideas, faith, humor, etc. - what a rational spirit has.

Each spirit is guided only by its spiritual heart. And the mind is only a tool for the execution of those programs that are embedded in it.

Difficulties and hardships of life encourage the spirit or man, in general, any living being to bypass these difficulties by making plans to level out their consequences. This develops thinking, connection with the spiritual principle.

The initial energy of the spirit, which is given for incarnation, is the amount of vital energy that it received for self-incarnation from three sources. This is from the Angels-consultants. They, naturally, take from Divine sources, endow it with primary ethereal energy.

The second source is when the spirit passes through the egregor of a people, a country. It is endowed with a second ethereal shell, to put it simply.

And the third is when the spirit passes through the egregor of its kind, the ancestral egregor. As was already mentioned in the information on calculating life tasks - both the national egregor or political, as it is now called, and the ancestral egregor or family, as an energy exchange for the energy given to the spirit, offer it tasks.

Spirit of Baikal

Plasmoid of the 38th density level. The body looks harmonious. This structure is made up of twelve small spheres connected into a figure resembling two pyramids, that is, six spheres in each pyramid and they rotate in different directions. This plasmoid has moved part of its consciousness, part of its conscious attention, to the world of the third density. But the main part of the consciousness remained in its world. It can also move, for example, to the seventh level, to the twenty-second, to the level of forest plasmoids, for example, the Arctic Ocean or the same Black Sea.

Spirit of the Earth

Plasmoid, which is responsible for the whole Earth. Its subtle body is very large. It is several times larger than the Earth. Thirty-third density level. This plasmoid is responsible for the Earth, for all Spirits, it is their boss and all localities.

The spirit of the entire Earth in a female form is "Mother Earth". She feels the entire Earth, the entire planet not with her body, but with her part. She can hug and caress it. She protects, gives tasks to the plasmoids of individual countries and cities, who are responsible for specific areas, for the creation of animal souls, and the purification of nature. She is the 33rd level of density. She is already more than four thousand years old, her name is known as Demeter.

Spirits of certain planets

Spirits of stars, plasmoids, who live, for example, in the chromosphere of our Sun and are a rational form of life. They can also incarnate, like humanoids. For them, food and nourishment are what light or radiation are for a person. They have no mouth. They suck in this energy with their entire body.

Spirits of the elements

The four elements, the four ethereal forces, which are expressed in the material world as Water, Earth, Air and Fire, are not just a mixture of some substances, they are certain elemental forces.

Spiritual group

Spirits incarnated in one place and at one time, having agreed in the spiritual world on some common task. All this happens with the permission and under the control of their mentors, each spirit has its own. And a high-vibration spirit has a mentor spirit, which is even higher in the hierarchy. Spirits find each other thanks to circumstances that are formed by their mentors. The main thing is when the spirits from this spiritual group meet, so that they get to know each other and recognize this task. This is possible only if all the spirits from this group lived more their inner life, and not the life of this world. They must question themselves, their intuition, and not focus on immediate tasks.

Spiritual development (goals)

Raising vibrations to match the vibrations of the Creator. Together with Him and in Him, create worlds, support them. Raising your level of awareness of what is happening and seeing everything in the true Light through Love. Developing the mind, spiritual heart and developing the will. Mental development, understanding the new, developing the skill of expressing your feelings and directing them into a more positive dynamic. Developing spiritual knowledge. In the Christian understanding, it includes: prayer, doing good deeds, reading sacred texts. This is often called fighting your passions, but this is their transformation, replacing the negative qualities of a person, his low-vibration components of the soul, replacing them with Light, i.e. positive characteristics. And all this without pride, without any despondency.

Spiritual Heart (essence)

The very essence of the core of the spirit. It has nothing to do with the physical heart, it is a spiritual structure consisting of three components:

feelings (not to be confused with emotions);

the instinctive part, for connecting with any bodies, which appears immediately after the first incarnation in any dense-material body; desires, or conscious aspirations.

The Spiritual Heart is not a material instrument that can measure spiritual vibrations. Every intelligent spiritual being has one.

Spirituality

Following the ideas of spiritual development in your life. Developing the spiritual beginning in yourself. There are several paths of development.

There is a materialistic way, when we develop material aspects, for example, the shape of our body or, for example, running speed. People spend their lives on this, some specific part of their lives, they train, spend their strength, energy, time, in the end. There are those who develop precisely the physical aspect or, for example, improve it so that their body looks ideal from the point of view of themselves or someone else. They spend material resources, time on this.

There are, for example, goals of acquiring some material wealth. A person spends time working not just to satisfy his basic needs, but to have a lot of these material acquisitions, a certain amount of our nervous energy is spent on this.

There is also a person who wants to dominate someone. He has an instinct for power, he wants to show it and he spends time on this too, to come to it and stay there, to organize something.

There is a person who spends time on cognition. Cognition is an increase in knowledge, strengthening of the mind. A person reads books, studies different sciences, writes some articles, he spends his time and energy on increasing the mind. And the mind is a part of the spirit. Cognition is one of the forms of spiritual development. But this is spiritual development not of the heart, but of the mind. It will give only knowledge about the material or the Spiritual world.

If you do not develop your spiritual heart, then this spiritual development will not lead to an increase in level. It will simply increase your intellectual baggage. If a person simply reads books, spends a lot of time on it or writes them, but does not develop his spiritual heart, then he practically remains at the same level. Only his knowledge increases.

And there is also spiritual development – the development of the spiritual heart. What does such development mean? Development is bringing oneself closer to some ideal. What could be the ideal for the spiritual heart? The one described by Jesus Christ: “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.” To see God is the goal of those who develop spiritually in this direction.

What prevents one from seeing? Impurity of the heart. And what can pollute the heart? Any feelings, desires, instincts that do not manifest in the Light of Love. This means that a person who develops Love in himself through rituals, prayers, mantras, and other means, for example, by helping others, by compassion, is on the path of spiritual development, namely, changing vibrations. And all sciences and all religions are tools for our development.

Spiritual and material causes of autism

1 Autistic children incarnated on Earth often have their last incarnation in plasmoid civilizations. They can communicate with their usual circle of plasmoids. The child can mentally see them on the subtle plane, play with them and he does not have the need to communicate with his parents. 2 Having a difficult experience of incarnation in any world, where he left life with great fear. The child does not remember this consciously, but he has a sense of danger. In this case, autism will be accompanied not just by the loss of a thing, but specifically by avoiding some contacts, even physical ones.

Spiritual level 24

Vibrations that are indistinguishable from the vibrations of God the Father, from His perfection in Love, the energy of Life, the energy of Truth. The spirit that has completely merged with the consciousness of the Creator of the Universe with its consciousness, and at the same time has remained itself. Perceives itself as a part of God, perceives God as a whole, which it is itself. Constant presence in the consciousness of God, vibrations of unconditional love, omnipotence, omniscience, omnipresence. At this level, there is no condemnation of oneself, the world, God, spirits around, demons, awareness of complete unity with everything.

The entrance to the Kingdom of Heaven, beyond all worlds. This is a special place where only the Superpersonality of God is, and various spirits from the 22nd to the 24th levels have access there. Those from the 22nd and 23rd levels come temporarily to talk to God and, in merging with Him, to understand how to perform their service on those spiritual levels where they are. Angels from the 24th level are in a continuous state of Light, the so-called "Devas", their function is to teach others. They teach the Angels-consultants, passing on their experience to them. Training on the angelic levels of the Spiritual World does not proceed from the previous level, but through the level. For example, Angels from the 24th level teach Angels of the 22nd.

Spiritual tasks

Raising the spiritual level. This can be done at any age, every day, simply by developing Love in yourself, the desire to help others and forgive, understand, develop mercy in yourself, naturally, depending on the level.

Spiritual tasks never imply the appearance or change of any material values.

#477, 09:43

Spiritual Levels in the Spiritual World

According to the terminology of the Interstellar Union - 24 levels. Everything above 24 is just Light, that is, there is an infinite number of levels, but they will still be 24, these levels are not distinguished.

Levels 1 through 6 are occupied by demons. Levels 7 through 8 are occupied by those who often incarnated in the subtle worlds. Why do they occupy this level? Because they believe that they do not have enough experience to incarnate in the dense worlds. Levels 9 through 16 are the so-called “middle spirits,” where each level has its own name. They are already engaged in the construction of the material world in both the dense and subtle worlds. These are more universal spirits. Levels 17 through 24 are the so-called “Angels.” These are spirits who have found Light within themselves, found Love within themselves. And they can incarnate in any world in order to help others with this. They understand Light not only as the Light of Love, but also as the Light of knowledge, the Light of healing, and so on. These are some high-vibration "good deeds" that lead everyone to perfection, and the highest perfection is precisely in becoming like God, because He is considered to be selfless and unconditional Love. And at the same time, this Love allows Him to possess all qualities in absolute measure.

#344, 39:20

Spiritual level 1

The spiritual level where spirits are, who absolutely do not see even a glimmer of Light, they consider themselves Darkness, they enjoy this Darkness, i.e. the absence of Light. In the Spiritual world, they try to increase this Darkness in others, i.e. it is the norm for them. They do this with the absolute conviction that this is good for them, and evil deeds, crimes are a way of life for such spirits. They can treat people, other spirits differently.

These spirits, too, by natural desire, laid down by God, still desire incarnation in the material world, but it is impossible to pass through incarnation without going through the Spirits-Mentors of the 22nd level. They are still forced to turn to them so that they can select the conditions for incarnation for them.

And here the dispute between the consultants and the demons from the first three levels begins, because usually the demons want to incarnate in one environment, where they can realize their desires to the fullest extent, and the Spirit-Consultants, by their love, by their Light, want to put them in such conditions so that they too come to this enlightenment, come out of the demonic state.

Usually a compromise is found when the spirit of the first level is embodied in such conditions that will promote spiritual growth. And this will be reflected in the tasks for incarnation, because each spirit that has reached the first level has its own circumstances that brought it to this level, the qualities that it has developed, and they are always individual. And in order for it to get out of this state, it needs to develop the opposite qualities, because only positive qualities of the spirit can help transform the negative, and simple suppression of negativity will only lead to its accumulation and further to an explosion, therefore consultants always select the most favorable conditions for spiritual development, based on the qualities that brought the spirit to this state.

Soul

A spirit connected by life force (ether or prana) to a human body. After death, the soul of a human or any humanoid comes out and, for about 40 days, it stays with this soul energy. But gradually, its life energy dissipates due to the death of the body. And then it becomes a spirit. The soul develops only during incarnation in the material world, raising or lowering its level. It remembers its life on Earth and all relatives until its next incarnation in the body. Then its memory is blocked. But in the form of the Higher Self, it remembers them forever, the memory is preserved forever about all incarnations and relatives in these incarnations.

A beam of shining light, as if coming from the central Sun, an energy wave. Takes any form of body, depending on the incarnation.

The breath of Brahma, the breath of the Universe

The Universe's own breathing rhythm. In Hindu legends, this is designated as the breath of Brahma. The breath of Brahma, by which He inhales and exhales millions of worlds. Brahma is understood here as the first matter from which denser worlds, including the physical one, were formed through the work of many plasmoids.

The rhythm of the Universe's breathing makes up entire epochs, or, as they say on Earth, manvantaras, in which the spirit is embodied. Our body is a small micro analogue of the Universe, that is, a microcosm, an analogue of the macrocosm. It also contains millions of worlds, millions of planets, galaxies, only we call them cells, organs. And as God fills the Universe with his energy, so our spirit fills this body with its consciousness. When we breathe, we always remember about the spiritual component, about the fact that we inhale not only oxygen, but also energy. Plus, the oxygen, nitrogen and other gases that we inhale, they also consist of energy.

We inhale divine energies. Each breath we take is a divine gift for life in this body and for us to do good, to create our future in the light of Love.

We concentrate on the top of the head, visualizing the strengthening of the spiritual channel, as if you were opening a water tap more.

You visualize, for example, how narrow it was. At the moment of inhalation, you visualize how the channel expands, and at the same time you visualize a flow of white energy that enters your spiritual heart, which is located in the middle of two lungs for earthlings. The physical heart is in the middle of two lungs, and the spiritual heart is in its center. We imagine that we have inhaled the Light, only we inhale it with the crown of our head. It descends into the spiritual heart, takes the form of the Sun there. On exhalation, we exhale this Sun into space, usually through the third eye, what you call, through the energy center responsible for the work of the brain, which is located in the 6th energy center for people.

We exhale and imagine mentally how this Sun flew out through the third eye. We imagine that the entire space is occupied by such puzzles, where this Sun rises. We assemble the puzzle. We charge the space with high energies. We cleanse it from all the negativity that is here.

Scientists from the Interstellar Union have long conducted a study that recorded the following. If 10 people in a populated area do this practice simultaneously in the morning at sunrise and in the evening at sunset, filling the space for at least 15 minutes at sunrise and sunset, they are able to change the spiritual vibrations of the space that is affected by 100 negative people.

Try doing this practice. Not necessarily right at sunrise, but preferably no later than two hours after sunrise. In summer it will be earlier. At this moment the Sun has a special etheric force, which it directs to the Earth, and intensifies these sensations. Sensations and the impact of your Light on space.

At sunset, it is possible both at sunset itself and no later than two hours after it. This will contribute, as they used to say, to seeing off the Sun. Such a space is also created when a special etheric force helps the effect of this exercise.

Devas

Spirits from the 24th level of the World of non-embodied spirits. Spirits that have fully realized their potential and united their energy with the Divine. There is nothing in them except Love and the potential to degrade when their vibrations decrease. This opportunity is embedded in all intelligent spirits without exception, as a necessary condition for freedom and personal responsibility, in which we can spiritually grow and improve, learning the unconditional Love of our Heavenly Father, so that He can further completely calmly give us His abilities to create and change the material worlds. This opportunity is realized at the 24th level of the spiritual world, reaching which spirits see before them an endless stage of ever greater merging with the Divine Light. Spirits that incarnate into the material world from this level consciously go for misunderstanding and rejection by others so that everyone can discover the Light shining in their own soul. Devas have almost no other feelings except Love, which gives rise to faith, hope, patience, mercy and many other manifestations.

Enoch, the prophet (called Enoch)

One of the incarnations of Archangel Metatron on planet Earth, which was long before the climate change on it, later called the Great Flood, a global cataclysm caused by the impact of weapons of extraterrestrial civilizations. On Earth, he was incarnated at a time when, according to the modern chronology, it was a little more than 40 thousand years ago.

All three books of Enoch reflect the true history, because he transmitted these books to contactees (they were written by five men), who wrote them down, and then two collected them into one. There were some notes, different parts of these books. But the contactees wrote it down in images, as Enoch transmitted. They wrote it down at their level of understanding. They received information in the form of images, as it always happens (almost always during astral contact with a person who has an open spiritual channel).

Desire

Conscious need of the spirit. Since a person is both a biological being, that is, a body and an immortal spirit, he has physical and spiritual needs. Since a person lives in society, he has social needs. A person has a spiritual heart, which he desires. If the desired thing is significant for him (this desire is significant for him), he realizes it as a high degree of need. This means that his criticality towards this thing decreases. He simply desires it. And if his criticality towards this thing increases, it means that he desires the opposite.

Animal Sacrifice

Religious cults based on the deification of plasmoid worlds. There are plasmoid worlds that absorb the energy released at the moment of an animal's death. The cult of sacrifice in the egregor is promoted on Earth by priests, shamans, and brahmins.

#115, 38:22

Animal Soul (Eromes)

A soul that can incarnate only in the bodies of animals, insects, birds, reptiles, etc., that is, in irrational creatures, in whose bodies the nervous system is not intended for the manifestation of consciousness.

Plasmoids are responsible for the incarnation of animal souls. They are the ones who collect their souls, their bodies from the elements and monitor the number of incarnations of a particular soul. The body of a cat, for example, is the body of a mammal, into which a single animal soul is incarnated. There are animals that have a group animal soul, and there is a single animal soul.

A single animal soul of this type, like a cat, can incarnate in any animal, not only in the feline family, but also in all predators. It is a fairly universal type of soul. The number of incarnations for types of this soul can start from 50 and above. Usually they have from 50 to 200.

Plasmoids collect the soul and send it to different incarnations to maintain the planet's biosphere. If these are domestic cats, then in order to communicate with people through this body and this soul, to fill them with energy. And at the same time, of course, hunting mice and so on is important, this is one of the goals. Another goal is to support a person. An animal does not have a Higher Self, some non-embodied part remains, but it cannot communicate with it, like a person, it has a different type of mind.

If a pet gets sick, but not so sick that it dies, leaves its incarnation, but in such a way that it requires care, then it has taken over the energy of its owners.

The animal accepts the energy of its owners, it is also intended for this, to manifest some problems on itself. It shows like a mirror. The animal soul has a very great ability to absorb energy.

If the owner's tumors disappeared, but the animal's appeared, this does not mean that he directly passed them on, like a relay race. Physically - no. In his energy, in his aura, energetic traces of these diseases remained, and they were reflected in the animal that lives with him and loves him. The animal soul can also love. It has a unique spiritual heart, it can also love, strive and sacrifice itself for the sake of Love. All this is in any animal, because it is created by the same intelligent spirits as you and me, but from their soul, from their energies. They put Love into it. And in this, the Earth is also a unique planet. Not everywhere there are pets of this type, which are constantly near a person in his home and communicate with him.

The karmic responsibility for the behavior of an animal, the karmic consequences are borne by its creators, firstly, and secondly, by those who are near them from reasonable, freely choosing individuals, and who influence its behavior. For example, let's take dogs. If its programs, its instincts are set up in such a way that it becomes capable of being aggressive, of attacking a person, then the dog itself does not bear any responsibility for this. Its soul is set up in such a way as to become aggressive. If it is specially trained in this way, then the person is responsible for this. Because he changes its program. Animal Souls, they are simply irresponsible. And in this sense, they do not bear responsibility.

When they reincarnate, they feel immortal. They do not understand that they are mortal, because they are generally deprived of such a category of understanding as death. Even when an animal is born and lives, it does not understand that its existence will end. It feels itself eternal. And it does not understand that its existence of the body will end. Many animals, having seen the death of another living creature, cannot distinguish it from a living, but sleeping one. They may not leave their deceased owner for a long time until they are convinced that he does not care about them, does not feed them, and so on. They believe that he is in a state of sleep.

The animal nature in man (instincts)

Instincts of the primate species: the instinct of self-preservation, the sexual instinct, the instinct of leadership, the hedonistic instinct, which is responsible for the desire for pleasure, and the social or herd instinct. All of them are necessary for survival in this world and were embedded in man and every animal during his creation. These are positive energies and the spirit must control the instincts, control the body, and not vice versa. Instincts themselves do not need to be suppressed. They need to be manifested under the control and management of the spiritual mind. This is not suppression, but the manifestation of the energy of animal instincts, which are useful energies and useful programs for man, but only if they do not contribute to his spiritual degradation and do not lead him away from the path of fulfilling his life tasks.

#341, 39:14

The thread of life

Energy cord or energy thread, beam (it looks more like a cord, because a beam is straight, and a thread is not). This thread is initially formed by the energies of the etheric plane of the spirit that is going to incarnate. The spirit that is going to incarnate separates from itself a certain percentage of energy for incarnation into a body on one planet or another. Angels-consultants and Angels-guides help it, dress it in a special pranic shell. From this pranic shell, when the spirit introduces its life force into the first cell of its body, the primary life thread is already formed. This is a channel of communication between its first cell of the body and itself, which is still outside the body.

In the seventh week of pregnancy, the spirit of earthlings enters its body, that is, the fetus, which continues to form. Its life thread in 90% of cases, while it is in the physical body, twists into a spiral and is in this form, in this form, in the third energy center. The life thread, conventionally speaking, begins from the third energy center.

And when the soul (the embodied part of the spirit) leaves this physical body to go temporarily into the astral space, then the life thread unfolds behind it. This life thread is needed to freely return to the physical body, either when the spirit wants to return, or when there is danger to the body. If something threatens the body, it will wake up, that is, it will give a signal along the life thread, and the spirit will return to ensure safety.

The life thread, since it consists of subtle energy, can visit the Astral. The astral body can visit any worlds, because the life thread cannot be interrupted, it can stretch to an infinite distance. In the Spiritual world, there are no distances in the earthly sense, there is a difference in vibration. So this life thread can stretch and contract. Along this life thread, when the soul has already gone on an astral journey consciously or unconsciously (sleep, trance, hypnosis, fainting, etc.), in any case, when the soul is not in the body, through this life thread the soul and the body continue to exchange energies.

Life force

A continuous flow of energy from the Spiritual world and from the body through breathing and processing food. Most of all, recharging occurs during sleep, when the memory download from the brain is unloaded into the astral body, into the spiritual component, and the neurons of the brain rest.

Life force is a special form of energy, one of the varieties of ether, necessary for the connection of the soul with the physical body. It is also known as ether and prana. The spirit, incarnating into the body, brings this life force with it. It brings with it the information that is recorded in its etheric matrix. And it transfers it to its physical body. Moreover, this process is two-way: the spirit influences the body and the state of the body influences the spirit. They unite into a single whole.

Energy that allows us to exist. Specifically, the vital force of the body allows us to exist and act in the material body and in the world as a whole. The vital force is replenished both from the Spiritual world and from the material world. From the Spiritual world it is replenished by our bright feelings, desires, thoughts, emotions. When we feel bright, spiritual states of ourselves, a stream of spiritual energy enters us, passes through our brain, passes through our body and by activating metabolic processes already in the physical body replenishes our physical energy.

How does replenishment work through the body? The body has special tools for transforming material substances that enter it into energy. These are the digestive tract, the circulatory system, the respiratory system. Energy is spent on the physical processes of the body and it is also directed to emotions, that is, it is spent on those processes that the spirit produces in the body. Not the spirit itself, but its embodied part. For the spirit itself, this is already spiritual energy. The embodied part, the soul, which is in the body, also spends the vital energy of the body, because it is connected to it by the etheric body.

What is the most spent energy of the life force? Naturally, on movement, on heating the body, and also on biochemical processes in it. Many millions of processes occur in each cell. On cell division, regeneration, immunity, and so on - this is where the life force is spent. It is also spent on perception through the senses, through the eyes, through the ears. On processing information that has entered the brain through receptors. So that electrical signals of neurons are generated and they can control the body, can send this information to the spirit. Energy is also spent on this. When we strain, direct attention to vision and read something, watch something, that is, receive information through vision, then the body also spends energy. That is, energy is spent not only when we work physically. When we strain our eyes and look, this also takes energy, a lot of energy. This is why a person gets tired when he has little energy. Replenishment is required. You can get tired not only from physical work, you can also get tired from mental work, even more so.

Why is life force spent more? Negative emotions are unpleasant. To process them into Light, you need to work on your heart, on your attitude towards this phenomenon or person who caused the emotion. But it is easier for a person not to do this. It is easier for a person to forget about it. But if he has forgotten about it, his emotion is sent to the etheric body in the form of a small clot of energy. If he experiences it often, the clot begins to grow and a block is formed, which is located in some chakra or between them and begins to interfere with the circulation of life energy in the etheric body.

WITH

People's delusions about the superiority of one religion over others

The human error is that his leadership instinct can take over his mind and want to control the lives of others, that is, command who and what religion to belong to. If he is an Orthodox Christian with a strong leadership instinct and a suppressed mind, then he may want all his relatives to be Orthodox too. If he is a Jehovah's Witness and has recently converted to this faith, then he is euphoric about having learned everything, and he may want to command other souls, not understanding that each spirit must go through its own lessons. He can direct his energy to cruelty, showing his leadership instinct. This does not happen at the level of egregors, but at the level of individuals. If it is not instincts that act, but spiritual reason, then a Krishnaite, a Buddhist, an Orthodox Christian and a Jehovah's Witness will get along perfectly well. They will be friends, unite in a single Light and then there will be no conflicts.

#21, 19:20

Disease

A certain experience that the spirit itself wished to undergo, and also possible exposure to pathogenic microflora of such intensity that the immune system is unable to protect the body.

#124, 17:13

Diseases (reasons)

Spiritual cause and physical cause. A purely spiritual cause causes a chain of biochemical and physical changes in the body, which will then connect to this spiritual cause and cause diseases. And if it is a purely physical cause, for example, an injury, infection or poisoning, this is also a disease. Then this purely physical cause was also caused by a complex of human actions on a physical level, which depended on its spiritual components - on its feelings, thoughts, emotions, which led this body to these consequences.

#344, 54:33

Diseases after vaccination (reasons)

The body's vulnerability is caused by the fact that antibodies against coronavirus are produced for about three weeks. After the last vaccine administration, the body is still producing antibodies for three weeks; it does not have full protection. It does not produce antibodies, but rather remembers how to produce them. That is, it is still learning. If a person gets infected during this period, the protection will not work. It takes time for the immune response. If a person who has had the disease gets sick again, it means that the first time, he did not develop the immunity that should have protected him from the second time. Each person's body is individual and stores information about the virus in lymphocytes for different periods of time. And this does not depend on whether the virus entered the body naturally, or whether it overcame it and produced antibodies, or whether it produced antibodies to the proteins from the vaccine. All the same, the memory period of lymphocytes is different for everyone. It depends on the strength of the immune system, age, lifestyle, nutrition, etc.

The Criminal Code and the Rules for the Security Service, which determine the tactics of restrictive actions against criminals. The articles of the criminal law of the Interstellar Union determine the dependence of the term of restriction of rights not only on the type of crime and the number of victims, but also on the reasons that led to it. They do not have a judge who applies the same article to everyone equally, there is no prosecutor and lawyer. Instead of a judge, the fate of the criminal is determined by a meeting in which humanoids from different planets are present, and there will always be a representative from the family or immediate circle of the criminal, relatives of the victim and criminal psychologists who conducted the investigation and who contact the spiritual world and determine why the criminal acted this way. They contact the mentors of this humanoid, find out why he lowered his vibrations so much, what happened. All this information is announced at the meeting, and all representatives make a joint vote, which is always individual, because they see the cause and determine what needs to be applied to correct it. The practice of law in the Interstellar Union is not formalized, as on Earth, and is aimed not at punishment, not at the revenge of society for the crime committed, but at helping the one who has broken the law in raising his vibrations, so that he can work on himself during the time of limitation of his rights.

Conception

The process that occurs when male and female reproductive cells unite, leading to the combination of the vital energy of the spirit and the newly formed cell, which will be the first cell of the child's body. The method of conception does not matter for the vibrations of the spirit and cannot change its qualities. The spirit is necessarily present at the conception of its body. When the male and female cells unite and the first division of this new cell begins, the spirit already has the vital force that it received from the sources of nature, from God, specifically for the connection with this new body, and the spirit can already be called the soul. It has already united with this vital force, which we call in Russian ether, the etheric body. Standing nearby, it introduces part of its vital force into these cells, which have already divided. It is already united with them, but does not yet enter there itself.

When the sex cells of the father and mother unite, the first exchange of chromosomes begins. At this time, the soul introduces life force into this cell. And all this happens in the mother's body. But since the father's sex cell is also charged with her energy, and the mother's sex cell is charged with her energy, then three life energies are mixed - father's, mother's and child's. One can say that a prototype of the future etheric body is formed. In this prototype of the etheric body there are already microprints of all future organs. They are recorded in this etheric matrix. This body does not yet exist,

Conception of a person

The great sacred mystery. Certain structures of the spirit depend on the time of conception.

From the Spiritual world, everything is the other way around. The time of conception and the sex of the child are determined in the Spiritual world. And at the moment of conception, the sex is already known to the spirit that comes to the parents at the moment of conception of their future body, and you were all present next to your parents and saw them, not physically, but energetically.

Non-contact conception

The technique of introducing genetic information, which was quite widespread. For example, Krishna, who was a Shimorian, and some descendants of the Tumesoutians were born in the same way.

Now this method has remained in the science of the Interstellar Union, but according to the modern law of the Interstellar Union, such crossings of people and aliens for life on Earth, as it was before, are prohibited due to the fact that this will provide evidence of contacts and everything that may happen after.

Previously, representatives of the Interstellar Union were taken for Gods, now the consciousness is more materialistic and this will be perceived differently, therefore the consequences will be different.

Spirits from the level of Higher Angels, no matter what planet they are incarnated on, have a completely different attitude towards, you call it loyalty, but this is a connection with one energy, let's say so, therefore they have a precise tuning through the body to one energy.

And a connection with another energy, be it from another planet or from their own, can lead to dissonance of their energy centers and then to an inharmonious connection with the previous physical energy.

Why do they and especially aliens feel this? Because their sensitivity to energy influences develops from childhood.

If an alien decided to enter into physical contact with a representative of Earth, then most often these were precisely those aliens who did not have relationships on their planets, and if their contactees did not have a relationship with a loved one.

Sound

The gas vibrations that we feel, if they are intense enough and cause movement, are sound waves, that is, wave vibrations of air atoms. At the same time, the atoms of substances around them change, including metals. This is sound pressure. And with sufficient intensity of vibration of certain atoms, it is theoretically possible to release a small part of magnetic energy. The frequency of vibrations of light waves is much higher than that of sound waves.

#17, 57:04, #304, 32:30

Sound wave

Sound is like a wave in the air – of different frequencies, different strengths, different tonality, tone. It passes through cells. When it passes through them, the cell itself (it has a semi-liquid content – cytoplasm) vibrates. Microvibrations of the cytoplasm can already change reactions. The cell at the level of the mind will not understand what is happening, what kind of sound it is, but it can already influence. Especially infrasounds, they can destroy the cell, at a certain number of decibels and at a certain frequency of the wave. Bell ringing, Tibetan bowls create such vibrations in space, such sounds (and not only in the audible range, but in general), which are attractive to high-vibration plasmoid civilizations.

Earth

A planet created by God and plasmoid civilizations. An integral part of the Cosmos, just like the planet Burkhad. This is the beloved home of the Heavenly Father, the beloved temple of the spirits incarnated here. Planet Earth is the sister of Burkhad and all other planets.

A transfer station so that the soul has the opportunity to go home to the Spiritual World.

A multi-level complex system of different energy layers that have different material density, if by density we mean the frequency-vibrational range of oscillations of matter that came from the Divine Light.

Symbol of the dense material world.

The Earth is one of the manifestations of the Spiritual Worlds and part of the Kingdom of Heaven. If you treat the Earth this way, it will respond with the fruits of joy, pleasure and easing of the spiritual path. The light energy that is invested in it, it reaches its core and returns with bright flowers and tasty fruits.

Low, dirty, heavy energy of rejection, negativity, envy, condemnation, anger (directed at oneself or others), settles down in a dark stream, goes to the core of the Earth and begins to be processed in the core of the Earth. Because of this process, the Earth responds with earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, hurricanes, forest fires. This is how it processes negativity.

There is a plasmoid that is responsible for the entire Earth. Its subtle body is very large, it is several times larger than the Earth. It has a thirty-third density level. This plasmoid is responsible for the Earth, for all spirits, it is their boss and all localities. Each locality has its own plasmoid and its own spirit of nature. They are the same full-fledged earthlings, the same masters of space, just on different density levels.

The spirit of the entire Earth in a female form is "Mother Earth". She feels the entire Earth, the entire planet not with her body, but with her part. She can hug and caress it. She protects, gives tasks to the plasmoids of individual countries and cities, who are responsible for specific areas, for the creation of animal souls, and the purification of nature. She is the 33rd level of density. She is already more than four thousand years old, her name is known as Demeter.

Planet Earth is considered a very generous planet. In many languages of the Galaxy it is called "The Heart of the Generosity of the Universe". As a center.

And getting to such a planet is an opportunity to learn how to manage both natural resources and the resources of the biosphere, and how to interact correctly with the spirits of nature.

According to the laws of the Interstellar Union, not only the earthly civilization, but also those civilizations that are on other levels of density are full-fledged owners and earthly inhabitants of the Earth. These are plasmoid civilizations: spirits of nature, spirits of the elements, spirits of individual places of nature, mermaids, brownies, wood goblins and other spirits of air and water. They are also full-fledged inhabitants of the planet Earth and its owners, who have the right to live in its space. They are also responsible for its condition before the Galactic Spiritual Council, which embodies souls here.

The Earth is a multi-level complex system of different energy layers, which have different material density, if by density we mean the frequency-vibrational range of oscillations of matter that came from the Divine Light.

Now the Earth has not passed even half of its existence. The time of its existence cannot be torn away from the time of existence of the entire Solar system. And the time of existence of the Solar system - from the entire Milky Way Galaxy as a whole. The dense-material plane of the Earth, as well as the entire Milky Way Galaxy, has not passed even half of its existence in the manvantara. And this means that, according to the signs of energetic destruction of the element, the dense-material plane of the Earth will exist for approximately 24 or 27 billion Earth years.

Earth time

The flow of energy change of all earthly elements and forms of their movement relative to each other. This is a change of energy. And not just one local change of energy, but a flow of these changes that goes from the past to the future.

#486, 30:19

Evil

Anything that hinders good.

#391, 23:26

Anger

An emotion that arises when something does not go our way.

#444, 01:33:33

Yellow triangle sign

Symbol of the energy of the spiritual world. When a person looks at it, he tunes into his spiritual channel and calls the Angels. Such signs are known in the Cosmos - where they deal with contacts with the spiritual world. The sign of a yellow triangle, directed upwards, represents the tongue of flame. Inside the triangle, a circle is like a window into the spiritual world and at the same time an eye. This is a symbol of contact with the Light.

Zoroastrianism

Religion that was created by the prophet Zarathustra.

Jacob

The founder of the Jewish race. Son of Isaac.

#37, 12:35

Organians

A hybrid race containing Esler genes, some reptilian and Tashigan genes, that is, it contains genes of 3 civilizations and a local animal. The planet of habitation is Natidzon, located in the constellation Ursa Major. Its representatives had contact on Earth, but the last official contact, according to Burkhad, was in 1995. Now they have interrupted contacts for now.

#40, 55:34

Hebrew

Simplified Tumesout language.

#68, 20:08

Ideal image

The goal and ideal that a person, the spirit of a person, strives for in order to be happy. Such a desire is embedded in absolutely everyone. It is calculated by comparing, comparing perceived images and information with the goals and aspirations of a person and the spirit of a person.

#120, 31:40

Ideal sexual intercourse

Connection in the state of the soul, which is called "eternal love", it must be accompanied by the desire to love and be loved, that is, connection with a loved one. Only with ideal sexual contact are energies released in the form of hormones that stimulate immunity, eliminate pain, and so on. And also various energies are released on the mental, causal, astral and other levels. Such sexual contact can only bring benefits and will not cause any physical harm.

#184, 09:23

Yeshua

The name of Jesus Christ on Burhad.

#146, 47:36

Chosenness

The position of an earthly man in incarnation: he looks from the outside from his earthly world into the spiritual world while he is in the body, that is, he is “chosen.”

#206, 01:54:50

Volcanic eruptions

The consequence of the approach of a new phase of quantum transition. The first to react are the quanta contained in the earth's crust. They increase their vibrations, and if these vibrations do not correspond to the noosphere, a splash occurs. It is like a purification initiated by earthly plasmoids, the so-called gnomes, they control volcanic activity there.

#349, 01:40:41

Exorcism of Demons

An action performed by priests when they connect with the Angels, with the religious egregor, while saying a prayer. The Angels direct the Light of their love to the low-vibration entity, clearing the channels and telling the demon to leave this person. The peculiarity is that the influence comes from the spiritual world. The demon may refuse to leave if the person himself decides to let it in. If after the demon is expelled the person does not change his vibrations, does not experience true repentance, the demon may return.

#165, 01:01:59

Izmail

Abraham's first son, born of a servant. The founder of the Arabs.

#243, 27:25

Climate change (causes)

Intensive extraction of liquid hydrocarbons and gases from the cavities of the Earth's crust, which changes its internal structure. This leads not only to climate change, but also to cataclysms: volcanic eruptions, floods, hurricanes, and so on. The Earth begins to wobble on its axis, which causes it to receive uneven heat from the Sun, the structure of the Earth's crust is disrupted, and the magma, which lies closer to the mantle, rises higher and also heats the planet. Volcanoes become more active, and so on. And there is also the greenhouse effect, which accumulates on Earth because a lot of fuel is burned, which produces carbon dioxide, but instead of planting a lot of trees so that they process carbon dioxide into oxygen, they are cut down.

#47, 45:00

The original source of the magnetic field

An atom is a small particle of matter.

#17, 33:39

Initial level of spirit

The level at which he first became aware of himself.

#233, 49:46

Variability

The fundamental property of matter. This is how it differs from spiritual substance. Spiritual essence without connection with matter is immutable or eternal.

#140, 11:37

Inventors

Spirits from the 15th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits. Spirits for whom the highest happiness lies in creativity, in creating something that has not yet existed. It does not matter what it is: new recipes for pies, perpetual motion machines or programs of political parties. The main thing for them is to make other spirits happy with the truth that has been revealed to them and in the usefulness of which for everyone and at all times they firmly believe. Inventors passionately bring their Light to everyone they meet and are very upset when they are not understood. True, with experience, wisdom comes to them that it is impossible to prove a truth to a person for the comprehension of which he is not ready, and when readiness comes, the need for proof disappears for him.

Emerald Tablets

A manuscript containing ancient knowledge. That is why the tablets are emerald, because emerald is a precious stone, a symbol of precious knowledge.

These were not books carved from emeralds themselves, but a collection of scrolls of books that contained knowledge that was as valuable as emeralds. They were hidden under the ancient sphinx when Egyptian priests found rooms, passages there and created their own rooms there.

Jesus Christ

Spirit, the Entity that God gave birth to first. The very first son of God, the firstborn son. He helped God the Creator in the creation of the material Universe. The greatest potential and knowledge were invested in him. During his incarnation, he remembered all his lives, goals and objectives. The purpose of his incarnation on Earth was to bring a teaching that would facilitate the rapid spiritual progress of all entities incarnated here. During his resurrection after death, he physically restored his body, reconnected with it with his energy received from God, erased information about aging and death in every cell of his body. His body remains immortal forever and is not subject to aging and disease. This is the only immortal material Being. Now he looks like a man of average height, about 1.8 meters, he has a dark short beard, long dark hair down to his shoulders, an open wide forehead, skin similar to that of a Caucasian, a triangular protruding chin, a long straight nose, large almond-shaped eyes. Depending on his mood, his energy changes the color of his eyes from brown to blue, which is typical for all Burkhadians. When communicating, he mainly uses telepathic abilities, transmits thought forms. Knows the languages of almost all MS civilizations. For Christ, both the heart of the Patriarch and the heart of a child, and any believer, and an unbeliever are equally dear, for him there are no such divisions that are dictated by the social structure of the egregor or, in general, this world. For him, everyone is his children, and at the same time they are his brothers and sisters. Such, one can say, theological and internal spiritual paradox exists for Christ. And children, and brothers, and sisters at the same time, as well as parts of his body.

He helped his Apostles, his disciples, to catch fish both for food and for sale, appealing to the mind of a school of fish, to the instinctive in the soul. He either went to the shore, first looking at the water for a long time, or sat in a boat. There he stood up to his full height and also looked at the water for a long time, and then told the Apostles where they should fish.

On Burkhad and in the Interstellar Union it is called a verbal construct that can be translated into Russian as the Primordial Son of the Absolute Light. Not even a son, but the Primordial impulse of thought of the Absolute Light. And not just a thought as an excitation of the mind, but a thought as a calm state of the Divine Mind. It can allocate about ten million phantoms with a certain autonomy of existence. The astral body has a charge of about 30% from all subtle bodies and the physical body. The percentage of the charge of the vital force of phantoms can change depending on the purpose of use and purpose.

He was born 749 years after the foundation of Rome. It was autumn, taking into account leap years, the shift of the earth's axis, it will be September 22, 749 after the foundation of Rome.

There have been sixty-three incarnations in this cycle, including this body. He will not emerge from it until the end of the cycle of the Universe.

Was embodied in plasmoid worlds that created groups of galaxies. Was a plasmoid that led plasmoids that collected matter to create galaxies.

He was incarnated in dense material worlds, including the planets Shimor, Esler, Sho-Hariki, there he was a man from the lower strata of society, who brought the teaching about God to these strata. This allowed society to develop into the religion of Light and stop military, criminal actions on this planet. In the future, this helped to raise the vibrations of this planet and give birth to a high-vibration spirit.

There were also incarnations in other galaxies, including as a reptilian. Incarnated on Burkhad, on Tumesout.

An image that depicts the reality of the spiritual world by physical means.

#36, 22:28, #366, 59:05

Icon of the Savior Not Made by Hands

The icon that is closest to the physical appearance of Christ when he lived on that resurrection on Earth. It is not just the appearance that is conveyed, but the look, the eyes, his energy.

#239, 45:30

Illusions of the mind

Ideas about the world, mental attitudes about how it should be, not how it is in reality, but how it should be according to your idea. The illusion of the mind can also concern the person himself.

The word illusion is translated as delusion.

#182, 02:37:25

Immune response

The body's protective reaction to damaging factors.

#432, 05:17

Immunity

The main defense system of the body, directly related to its spiritual state.

The action of certain structures of the body to adapt to the environment and, one might say, to digest particles that are unnecessary for the body.

#124, 08:44, #409, 25:22

Immunity (reasons for decline)

Despondency, groundless fear, guilt, sadness. Chronic anxiety states, panic attacks, some specific anxiety depressive disorders. Anger, aggression, especially directed at oneself, self-rejection, guilt, resentment towards oneself and others. On the physical level: environmental pollution, food additives that reduce the percentage of oxygen in the blood, change the hormonal status of the brain, etc.

#359, 49:16

Immune response

The body's response, including recognizing the antigen, rendering it harmless, converting the microorganisms' protein substances into its own, and removing toxins, those substances that were formed during this digestion. Remembering the antigen in order to start an immune response before a significant number of body cells are damaged. And also restoring the tissue structure after this attack.

#359, 37:00

Impulse

The release of energy, which serves to transmit a signal to other neurons and to transmit the received information to the level of the etheric body, the life force.

#120, 19:35

Imhotep

Contact with Tumesout. He was the architect of the very first pyramid. All other pyramids were created based on his notes, based on his construction of the first structure. The priests immediately classified his notes and then other architects were engaged in the construction of pyramids according to certain mathematical laws (there must be a certain height, the ratio of the faces, which structures the space).

#403, 48:43

Name of the Higher Self

May coincide with the name in this incarnation, may be from previous incarnations, more important for the Higher Self. May not coincide with the name in this life, may be of a different gender. May be a name for the spiritual world.

#86, 27:08

Name of the spirit

The totality of the spirit's vibrations that reflects it in comparison with other spirits. God gives the spirit a name. Although the spirit considers the idea of the name to be its own creation, this thought is sent to it by God. This is how it happens in the spiritual world.

#114, 28:57

Name of the soul

Many names in different incarnations. One name for the Higher Self.

#86, 27:08

Indra

A subtle entity that took the name of the one close to Krishna to receive animal sacrifices from people. It was an entity of the 15th-16th density level, was responsible for atmospheric phenomena, could create weather, rain or drought, and was in charge of a large space above the village. If animals were not sacrificed, Indra sent drought to the earth.

#310, 10:08

Inertia

The main property of matter that allows it to be opposite.

#263, 03:35

Engineers of dense material structures

Special scientists from aliens who create, for example, special nanofilms to cover ships or robots. On the surface of one metal or polymer material they create a very thin nanofilm of another.

#200, 13:15

Incarnation into the past

The incarnation of the spirit in the past is time for us and for it our present is the future. For the Spiritual world, for the world of non-incarnate spirits, the concept of time in our understanding of the material world does not exist, because there is no change there. Spirits incarnate for this purpose, to change. Since there is no time there, since there is eternity there, then there are no changes there. And since there is no time there, then from the Spiritual world there is the possibility of manifesting in the material past, present and future.

#40, 27:44, 29:27

Incubi and succubi

Most often, these are plasmoid entities that have sexual relations with the human astral body in the astral plane. In this way, they exchange energies, because when entering the astral plane, the astral body remembers the physical one, how it felt during sexual contact with a person. These feelings and desires are stored in the astral body. Therefore, some plasmoids, to whom this human energy is suitable in vibrations…

#180, 44:35

Insectoids

The first civilization in our Galaxy, near its core. Several tens of billions of years have passed since the beginning of the development of insectoids from huge insects, when they passed from animals into intelligent forms.

#414, 48:00, #452, 02:24

Instinct

A self-reproducing program of behavior of a living being, aimed at its survival, reproduction and dominance over other beings. Both humans and animals have an instinct - a program that operates independently of the mind to preserve life, reproduction, and so on. It is more connected with the body, but he (the human, the animal) feels it as his desire or his feeling.

#345, 30:12, 42:43

Instincts (types)

Five basic instincts: preservation, reproduction, power, leadership, herd. And the sixth is hedonistic. A person, like animals, has instincts that originated and were inherited from animal ancestors. These instincts prevail in a person, in a child, while he is being brought up in order to preserve his body. In any child, including a human child, the most important instinct of self-preservation is aimed at following parents and recognizing them as the highest authority. Only they are the guarantee of safety and only from them all perceived information at an early age without any criticism fits into the memory cells and then determines many feelings or conscious attitudes of an already adult person to the world around him. The instinct of self-preservation is needed for a person to fulfill his task, and not go to the spiritual world, because it is better there. The instinct of reproduction is necessary for the creation of new life. The leadership instinct allows you to strive for power and establish laws for structuring and order. The herd instinct allows you to gather in societies and love communication. The instinct of pleasure, the desire for pleasure, is needed for the development of gratitude to God and the manifestation of joy from the incarnation.

#233, 01:26:47, #266, 10:38, 23:47

Instinctive program

A certain unity that consists of the instinctive energy of the spirit, connected with the program in the genes of the human body.

#85, 01:17

Instrumental transcommunication

Communication using technical means with intelligent interlocutors living beyond the perception of earthly senses.

#170, 04:50

Insulin resistance

Non-acceptance of oneself. A person does not enjoy life not only from food, but also from the fact that he lives, sees, hears, something upsets him. A compensatory mechanism occurs: the amount of glucose in the blood increases and, conversely, the amount of insulin falls, or the cells become insensitive.

#189, 25:46, 48:28

Interferents

Negative entities from various lower worlds that connect to a person through his karmic nodes.

These include:

1 souls connected to a person by karmic knots;

2 attachments, connections, which are already being formed in the current incarnation, and they can be formed in early childhood only due to the coincidence of vibrations of spirits embodied in the subtle body and in a person, that is, a spirit embodied in a human body.

#450, 06:05

Intuitive knowledge of reality

A desire coming from the subconscious, from the Higher Self, that is, in the form of intuition.

#417, 00:20

Intuitive insights

Usually these are thoughts that talk about how to fulfill your task, increase love for yourself and the world, expand your knowledge, about everything that brings you closer to divine vibrations. All these thoughts and feelings come from the Higher Self. Everything that pulls you back into condemning others and into the thought that you need to love only yourself is a rejection from the Higher Self.

#1, 14:34

Intuition

A communication channel through which the part of the spirit remaining in the spiritual world tries to communicate with its embodied part.

#30, 33:26

Infectious process

The reaction of a macroorganism to a microorganism that has been able to harm it in some way. If a microflora is encountered that is completely evolutionarily unfamiliar to the microorganism, then no infection will occur, since the microbe will not have the appropriate enzymes to penetrate the body's tissues. If a virus has entered a cell, it begins to signal with special, very small molecules that something bad has happened to it. It does this despite the protection of the virus itself, which places its protein molecules throughout the entire internal membrane of the cell for a while so that its endoplasmic reticulum can produce the proteins it needs to assemble new viral particles. Despite this, the cell still signals. Then the entire organism is activated, that is, special antibodies are produced that destroy their own cell so that these viral particles can go out into the external environment, into the space surrounding these cells, and can be neutralized.

When it is one or two cells, the body will not feel it. But when there are many such cells, the body begins to raise the temperature to slow down the reproduction of viruses, remove unfavorable conditions. The person begins to cleanse. His temperature rises, he feels bad, he feels weak, as an obligatory component in infectious asthenia. This is an obligatory component of any infection so that the person spends his energy on immunity, on cleansing. He is put to bed so that he can be with himself, send the Light of his Love to this organ, which helps to harmonize even harmful microbes. They have been proven to become less virulent and less evil in the body if they are consciously sent Love.

#27, 01:01:20, #365, 23:57

Information war

Influencing the consciousness and subconscious of a person with the aim of causing negative emotions in him, lowering his own spiritual vibrations and causing degradation of both the individual and society.

#295, 01:16

Information field of the Universe

The totality of all egregorial structures that are embodied in this Universe. They contain information. But it is not recorded in the form of some material records, it is in the form of thought-images emitted by people themselves, plasmoid civilizations, and so on.

#420, 35:04

The information is false

A piece of true information that describes one aspect of reality, forgetting about all the others.

#289, 10:57

Information from the photo

Information from the etheric field of the one who is depicted there. The photograph contains energy. When a person is photographed, his image contains information about his life energy, at the moment when he was photographed. An energy trace remains on this sheet of paper, but it is invisible, like a field. The information-energy component is read.

#344, 01:08:26, 01:19:20

Yin-Yang (symbol)

The designation of the fact that in every low-vibration energy, in every low-vibration spirit (what we call a dark spirit) there is a particle of Light. But even a light spirit has the ability to become dark. Freedom of choice is shown here. Two sides of the same thing. Symbols that designate opposites in all spheres of life, both in the real world and in the spiritual.

#66, 01:02:32, #244, 20:48

Seekers

Spirits from the 16th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits, whose task is to find the way to the world of good spirits, to the world of angels, where the Light shines much brighter than in the world of average spirits. Seekers see reflections of this Light everywhere and anywhere. The main thing for them is not to fall into dogmatism and not to limit their thinking. They have already outgrown such an experience and now see a good beginning in all religions and spiritual teachings. A characteristic feature of Seekers is dissatisfaction with their spiritual development, a constant desire for perfection. Many of them already feel that all the books on spiritual development, all religious scriptures will not bring any benefit if they do not see and recognize the Light in themselves. Many Seekers feel it and merge with it, but not all can explain what it is, even to themselves. But their hearts often tremble before the great mystery of existence, while dimly realizing that darkness is unrecognized Light, and evil is misdirected good.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

Distortion (heresy)

Some opinion of the mind, based on the feeling of non-acceptance of matter. Leads to the fact that a person begins to descend in his vibrations and comes to sin in his mind and in his feelings. Because he does not accept matter as one of the energies of God.

#206, 12:05

Sincere forgiveness

Restoring peace in your soul. Realizing that the traumatic act of another is a lesson for yourself. Realizing that if someone acted badly in a state of unconsciousness, perhaps with a decrease in their vibrations, in the absence of love, and directing them the sincere Light of your Love, which will allow them to raise their vibrations and return to God. Wishing true happiness in God, refusing to demand apologies, the return of material things. Full recognition that you have accepted this lesson and passed it. And most importantly - a feeling of Love for your opponent.

#187, 02:18:00

Redemption

To redeem from evil slavery is an image, a figurative expression taken from the 1st century AD. The Lord Jesus Christ sacrificed his life, his incarnations in billions of worlds, to make us his particles, so that we could feel ourselves as Light, Truth, Life. To live as He lives, and become His "slaves".

#165, 25:07

Artificial neural network

Combined systems of artificial neural network and biological body. Exists on the silicon-organic basis of life forms and is responsible for preserving information in an artificial environment. The organic basis is the basis for life force, without which no spirit can connect with the body.

#95, 01:50, 02:07

Artificial intelligence

Automated systems that can reproduce themselves, but according to a given program. They are not capable of independent choice. Independent choice is possible only within the framework of the program. Automatic digital systems that calculate, for example, the flight path of a ship. This is faster, better quality, and frees up the labor of humanoids.

Art on Esler

Educating new generations in the spirit of the Light of Love of our heavenly Father. What is divided on Earth into religions, science, esotericism is a single knowledge. Its essence is faith in oneself as a part of God, endowed with all his qualities for managing the reality of the material world, for greater and greater perfection in Love, without which true happiness in the Light of God is impossible. Explaining to embodied spirits the meaning of freedom and the meaning of suffering in the material world. Often this is an opportunity to learn compassion and help to others, as necessary attributes of Love of those individuals who are next to the innocent sufferer. There is no guilt here, but only the opportunity to develop Love as an invaluable energy that makes it possible to join the source of eternal life, wisdom and grace.

PiosNior, art historian, specialist in the study and application of figurative forms of perception, planet Esler.

#60, 01:45

Temptation

Thoughts that come from outside from those entities: embodied and non-embodied, who are accustomed to a certain way of life.

#53, 01:03:05

Islam

A religion created by a civilization from the planet Tumesout with the purpose of uniting disparate Arab tribes into one strong, national, religious egregor. The Islamic religious egregor was formed during a period of fierce struggle with polytheists, and what was formed carried a charge of anger aimed at remaking the world for itself, fighting dissenters. This charge has been preserved in the Islamic religious egregor to this day, and it is also present in the Christian one, but the light that is in these religions still overcomes the angry energies that were embedded in them, because the more time passes from the formation of the egregor, the more people are born in it who forget about the history of its formation, and they begin to develop more internally. At first, it was a small sect among polytheists. The pagans were of a traditional way of life, and the Muslims were a sect. It took several centuries for a religion, a fairly large formation, to emerge from a small sect. And now a world religion has emerged from a small religion. Islam was initially created for the Arabs, then there was a task to unite the Arabs. At the moment, the religion has fulfilled this task, and now its task is not only the Arabs, but also the maintenance of religious order in the world in general, in the dimension where it is located. Like any bright religion, where they believe in Light, Love, Good, the Islamic religion has the same task as all the others. For example, believers are commanded to pray five times a day, not once. The state of constant prayer is good and useful for the Earth, because bright thoughts are directed to the astral atmosphere and cleanse it of negativity, push it aside, as if squeezing out this negativity. At the moment, the Islamic egregor is mainly controlled by Apshetarim, he is assisted by several Spirits. Now, instead of Muhammad, Ismail controls, he lived on Earth, was a scientist in the 13th century AD. And four more: Ali and Ibrahim - non-embodied spirits, Apshetarim from the planet Tumesout, Liatomon from the planet Burkhad - embodied. They can change, some can come, others go to incarnation or to other egregors, the composition is not constant.

Researchers

Spirits from the 14th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits. Spirits who see joy in learning the laws of the material world in all its diversity. They can learn about nature or society, or themselves, they can see God behind all this, but they also want to learn Him and put Him on the shelves. His laws and energies. They are not always able to check harmony with algebra, so such spirits often cannot understand the difference between faith and knowledge, but still, their innate logic and analytics help them feel that the world is much more complex than it seems to them.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

The truth

And there is God himself, that is, this is the particle of God, the Light that is in everyone, and with which everyone must communicate. That is the Energy that gave everyone Life, Love and Light. And Life, Love, Light, Truth are synonyms, names of the same Energy of Divine Light, to which we all strive. But Truth is in the understanding of the mind, Love is in the understanding of the spiritual heart, Life is in the energy of the body. Everything that exists around us, everything that can be seen with the eyes and heard with the ears, touched with the hand, all this is Divine Light in a dense-material form. Each person is Divine Light. The feeling of the truth of what is happening depends on the degree of awareness of the Energy of Love in us. The more developed the Energy of Love is, the higher the vibrations, the more true the world around you feels, the denser the substance of Truth becomes, really influencing lives. You begin to feel even happier from being in every moment of this Truth, feeling yourself to be an eternal, immortal, shining spirit of divine reason.

Healing

Human integrity. The feeling of being a part of the world, a part of other people, nature, God, and from this the feeling of integrity.

Full understanding of our integrity with God. And when we become integral with God with our spirit, merge with him, our will merges with his, our heart merges with his, we become Love. We become Light for everyone, expecting nothing in return. And then our body, our physical body becomes harmonious and merges with the elements of nature. And all of nature, all of its substances are directed towards its health, towards the health of this body.

The Disappearance of the Universe (End of the World)

Exit from the dense state. At the same time, everything will be illuminated by white light, which will be in our perception as light, but it will be like an instant. And then there will be no more dense matter. But there will already be the 4th level of density. Then the 4th will also disappear. There will be the 5th. And so it will be. All these levels will disappear and all this Divine energy, which made up the dense-material world, will return to God, to his Divine essence. Along the way, these worlds will become less dense. He will, as it were, return it to himself. Then all matter will completely disappear, of all levels of density. Only God will remain and only spirits will remain, that is, us.

One of the twelve apostles of Christ, who was convinced that he had to show the soldiers and priests where Jesus was so that Christ could show his Divine Power and Light. AND

Yeti

All tribes of the people who separated from the civilization of the Earth after the Great Ice Age, caused by the attack of dragons on the Earth. That is, there was a legend that dragons attacked the Earth. This caused a decrease in sunlight. According to legends, the Sun was hurt to look at this lawlessness and it decreased its light. For this reason, part of the life of the Earth left. Many plants, animals, ancestors died. And those who remained hid in caves, underground passages, in some corridors, tunnels. After the glaciation, people moved away from the inner nature and began to build their civilization on the blood and bones of the Earth itself, using its resources, while moving away from the Light, from the Spirit. Then they developed separately. They lived in nature (among nature, adapting to it, communicating with its Spirits). They hid underground, received a dose of radiation, many of them died. But many of them were able to adjust their body in such a way that it rejected radiation, removed radionuclides. There was some damage to genes, including in the sex cells that they passed on to their offspring. The mutations resulted in hypertrichosis or increased hairiness, dark skin color, and thicker skin. The Yeti were able to direct the random mutations caused by radiation energy in their sex cells to adapt to the environment.

The history of the people shows that for a long time they lived in a small tribe, and then began to spread across the Earth. The tribe is divided into families. Each member of the family does some work that is useful for the whole tribe. But in decisions, everyone is equal. An important decision is made by discussion, by the whole tribe.

A leader is someone who offers ideas, but does not insist on them. Not someone who commands, but someone who suggests where to go, what to do, what new places to explore.

Thanks to cell control, yetis exit incarnation when the spirit itself decides to do so, that is, consciously. They practically do not have most diseases. There is no medicine, no drugs. If one of the yetis has received some kind of injury, even a child can stop the bleeding by directing his gaze and mentally ordering the vessels to close, and the blood cells to create a clot.

Yeti do not have writing, but rather an image of language, syllables in order to convey information. This is what the priesthood has. Some priests, in order not to forget information about some new method, for example, of communicating with Spirits, or about some practice aimed at accelerating the energy exchange in their body, can designate this with certain signs (icons, squares). Only they and those to whom they convey this knowledge can understand the signs.

Yeti can have punishments if a fellow tribesman succumbed to the influence of dark Spirits, a dark Spirit entered him and he began to destroy everything around him. He is expelled so that he can take care of himself, because he can be evil and can harm someone.

Plasmoids accompany each child, from 16 to 60 plasmoids.

There are 38 tribes of Yeti. There are about 15,000 individuals on the planet. Their language is more based on images. A certain syllable denotes a certain image. They communicate through thoughts at the level of feelings. For all tribes, the mental language is one. Different images can be put into one syllable.

Yeti have 7 main energy centers. 30% of the spirit is embodied in the body.

Yoga

A universal practice that was widespread throughout the Earth in ancient times. Even before the war 12 thousand years ago, this knowledge was received from the Spiritual World, from plasmoid civilizations, developed by earthlings themselves and received in natural contacts with humanoid civilizations.

This is a kind of synthesis of practices, theories, which were based on the experience of interaction with the surrounding world. It is well known that there is yoga, which is aimed specifically at health. There is also yoga aimed at contacts with subtle civilizations. There is yoga aimed at protection from all harmful influences of geopathogenic zones and so on.

Some part of it is known to the modern world under the name Feng Shui. This is also a certain yoga of space, because yoga is understood not only as the practices that a person does, but also as the teaching about the structure of space.

Let's take the word "yoga" and break it down into syllables of the proto-language. "Yoga" consists of the letters "y" (a modified letter "i"), "o" and the syllable "ga". The Proto-Indo-European language was a syllabic proto-language. Both letters and syllables were used to convey meaning with certain runes. Yoga is deciphered in this proto-language as "The Highest Path for All", or, if you add a preposition - "The Path to the Supreme for All".

Kailash

A mountain in Tibet (it used to be a pyramid, but now it has become more like a mountain over time), in the area of which there is an alien base and above it there are many portals to a variety of plasmoid worlds. It was created exactly like this by the plasmoids. Under Mount Kailash there is a place that is very energetically saturated, and there is a base there, where there are currently about two thousand employees.

Initially, it was the base of the capital of the Interstellar Union Burkhad (Pikran). And now there are representatives from Futissa and other civilizations of the Galactic Federation of Light. Now it has come under the Galactic Federation of Light, there are Burkhadians and representatives of the Ashtar civilization.

It was given by the representatives of Tumesout, even before the birth of Christ, to the rulers in India, who were in contact with the base, with Shambhala, located in the Altai Mountains. Shortly before the birth of Christ, the Chintamani stone was given to Buddhist monks, and was kept in their cave.

The set of characteristics of a complete set of chromosomes inherent in the cells of a given biological species, a given organism, or a cell line.

A karyotype shows the complete set of human chromosomes. Each human cell contains 23 pairs of chromosomes, or 46 chromosomes in total. Each pair of chromosomes is a set of homologous chromosomes. During sexual reproduction, one chromosome in each homologous pair is passed on from the mother and the other from the father. In a karyotype, there are 22 pairs of autosomal, or non-sex, chromosomes and one pair of sex chromosomes. The sex chromosomes in both males (X and Y) and females (X and X) are homologous.

Karl Marx, Vladimir Lenin, Plekhanov

Thinkers who had a memory, albeit suppressed, that all nations must be in a union of equal forces, cooperating in the name of Light, in the name of development on the entire Earth. They had an understanding that all the riches of the Earth's interior, as well as air, water and sunlight, belong to all inhabitants. This came from their suppressed memories of the same laws on the planets of the Interstellar Union.

Their incarnation at a turning point was not accidental. 2000 years after the birth of Christ, in the period from 1900 to 2000, the last century of the 20th century was a turning point, and then your society also made a Quantum transition. The Earth was flying through such a place in the Galaxy, where there were energies that contributed to the unification of various forces on your planet.

#256, 05:32

Karma

The tasks that conscious spirits came to solve in the current incarnation.

A source where all actions and their consequences in previous incarnations are recorded.

Karma is formed every second of incarnation and is connected with the choices of the intelligent spirit. It is offered by consulting spirits.

Karma is not only the burden, not only the legacy that was brought from past incarnations, but also the baggage that is accumulated in this life. It is approximately like a bank account in which you can accumulate certain energies, or take them from there for your needs. But this is very approximate. Therefore, any relationship is karmic in the sense that karma can be both from a past life and accumulated in this life.

Karma: Cancellation

What was called "change of mind" by Christ. It can annul karma if it has happened. And it can happen both in one moment, which is called "satori" in the East, and it can stretch out over a lifetime, if this is an attitude towards some choice that is very dear to the soul of a person. Can a person annul karma? Of course, he can. Because the need for karma disappears for someone who has realized the reason for its formation. The purpose of karma is not punishment, not revenge, but a lesson for those spirits who have made a choice towards degradation. And if a spirit, without a lesson, has already understood why he made this choice and embarked on the path of progress, then the need for this karma disappears. He has already learned this lesson.

#47, 39:41

Quantum Holography

Etheric matrices. That is, between the worlds: dense-material and subtle-material and between the subtle-material and Spiritual, there are so-called etheric layers, torsion fields, for example, etc. They separate the world of one density from the world of another density, the material from the spiritual.

#304, 37:22

Quantum Predetermination (Working with the Time Tape)

Information waves that determine the reality of the material world.

#308, 02:02

Quantum transition

The period when quanta, without losing their material nature, under the external influence of the spiritual world, without losing their ability to form dense material substances, increase their vibrations to fulfill the quality of the development programs being carried out. This leads to the fact that the entire world, the entire Earth with all its shells, all the substances of which they consist, begin to increase their vibrations.

At the same time, physically, people will remain the same, they will also be born, die. But, even being in the body, they will feel like eternal beings, and all of them. And the body itself will contribute to this, because it will also raise its vibrations. Thus, vibrations will gradually increase for everyone, and those who cannot go through this transition will simply be taken out of incarnation in various ways and only those who are ready to go through the transition will be sent to incarnation. This all happens gradually and will contribute to the awakening of dormant sections of people's DNA, but only in agreement, their harmony with the spirit. And subject to their spiritual growth.

The physical body itself will remain the same form. People will communicate more consciously with their Higher Self, with their curators, with extraterrestrial civilizations. They will more easily and consciously leave the body for astral travel.

These people, who have this DNA activated, they will have energetic capabilities, for example, to direct their life force to move objects, to heal people, to self-regeneration, to regenerate themselves. And they will also have such a power of faith that they (of course, if they develop it, because even with activated DNA, if it does not develop in this direction, this life force will not act), if they develop it, will even be able to learn to push off from the gravity of the Earth. And they will also be able to easily, for example, create phantoms of various astral and mental beings with their thoughts, which will help them in their affairs and so on.

The quantum transition entered its active phase in 2012. It is happening in stages. It has an active period of 90-96 days, and then 60-65-70-78 days – the adaptation period.

The transition to a new level of consciousness contributes to the change of quantum fields of human bodies, so that people and their children being born could feel the Spiritual World more. The introduction of new laws will follow, brighter, filled with Divine love, which will allow existence on this planet at the same level as in the Interstellar Union.

Many civilizations, subtle and Spiritual worlds, are now investing energy into civilization so that those souls that have incarnated here could have a chance to develop in more favorable conditions for themselves, to make their path easier. Many civilizations believe that joining other star civilizations, be it the Galactic Federation of Light, the Interstellar Union, or both of these interplanetary organizations at once, will make the path easier. They will help to feel like a single family, where each civilization plays its role. But in order to become ready for this, it is necessary to undergo a quantum transition so that the vibrations of the quanta themselves help, contribute to the purification of souls.

The era of conscious interaction with civilizations is coming. This requires preparation, the consciousness needs to be cleansed of all low-vibration states: fear, anger, envy, jealousy and other destructive emotions that can prevent civilizations and representatives of civilizations that carry the energies of Light from interacting with you.

In order to be able to receive information from a pure source and transmit it correctly, it is necessary to purify oneself inside. This process of purification is currently underway and is called a quantum transition. And it depends on many factors.

Kinesiology

The science of the impact of thoughts, emotions and body movements on a person's spirit.

The spirit works with the physical body through the etheric level. If we look at a person's aura, at his chakras, then practically all seven levels are involved. The impact of kinesiology occurs at all levels: from physical to spiritual. Up to the seventh chakra.

Kinesiology can help boost immunity, improve metabolism, cleanse the body of toxins, and improve the absorption rate of nutrients from food, including glucose. This will help the pancreas and liver maintain stable blood sugar and glucose levels. It can also help suppress inflammatory processes and allergic reactions, autoimmune inflammatory processes, and chronic infections by boosting immunity. The most important thing is to strengthen the belief that the spirit can influence the body.

The connection between the cerebral cortex and the nerve nodes located in the body is stimulated, even individual neurons located among muscle fibers. The connection improves - this means that the process of movement of the neurosignal along the neuron axon accelerates, coordination of movements and understanding of the location of one's body in space improves, and therefore control over it.

After kinesiological correction, the body adapts to the new state of the body. On the physical level, this is the removal of metabolic products from muscles that have been tense for a long time. The level of acids in the blood increases slightly, so a person begins to experience mild dehydration. A person wants to drink to remove these metabolic products from the muscles. And then relaxation begins, he wants to sleep. Because the body is restored in sleep. When the soul leaves the body and goes about its business, the body intensively undergoes restoration processes, accumulation of new blood cells, antibodies.

Representative of the planet Daaral. Incarnated from the 18th level. Curator of Irina Podzorova.

Humanoid. One eye is red, and two eyes are yellow, and they are round. Hands with five fingers, just below the knees. Born when it was April 4, 1844 on Earth.

Profession: astrophysicist. He began to be interested not only in astrophysics, as the study of physical processes that occur in stars, planets, comets and other space objects, but also in contacts with civilizations that are not part of the Interstellar Union. As a scientist, he studied, flew around our Galaxy, and then became interested in contacteeship. He underwent special training, where he was told about the Earth, about the peoples who live here. He completed a course in astral travel.

He began making contacts back in the Russian Empire, in 1887, when the Soviet Union had not yet been created.

Incarnated into a man known on Earth as Pythagoras. There were 1362 incarnations in this manvantara.

On the entire planet Daraal is the only humanoid who has learned the Russian language! Communication with earthlings is the purpose of his incarnation on the planet Daraal. It is to transmit knowledge about space to that civilization, to the representatives of that civilization, for whom the path to the Universe is closed. This is an increase in knowledge of the world. To contribute to the increase of knowledge of man and humanity about the surrounding Universe is the fulfillment of the purpose of incarnation, because this is also a form of Love.

Book of Leviticus

The third book of the Torah.

The code denoted a secret, it was laid down by the Levite priests, who wrote it only in Hebrew. That is, to get it out of there, it was necessary to write down the text in Hebrew. And by counting a certain combination of numbers, it was possible to read what was encoded there. In each chapter, a certain message to other Levites was encoded, which was considered a secret. But it was related to the stages of their spiritual path. That is, the first chapter is a certain message, then the second chapter.

There they deciphered, gave teaching on how to open your spiritual heart, serving in the temple. They gave certain psychotechnics, for example, related to breathing, visualization, and so on. Once this knowledge was secret.

For example, in the fourth chapter of the book of Leviticus, the meaning of these words in Russian can be explained as follows: stand in a certain place in the temple courtyard at the hour of sunrise, visualize the rising of the inner sun from the solar plexus to the heart center and pronounce certain words addressed to Jehovah.

The Code that the Interstellar Union and the Galactic Federation of Light have long been guided by. For example, it is forbidden to transmit information about any technologies that another civilization is not ready for. It could fall into the wrong hands and cause harm to the contactee. It is also forbidden to transmit information that would somehow discredit the contactee in the eyes of people. It is considered incorrect to transmit information to the contactee about other contactees with the Interstellar Union or with other civilizations, regarding who they are contacting and what kind of information it is, without the contactees themselves asking.

#305, 07:37

Bell

A musical instrument that has a very ancient origin, it is much older than Christianity. One of its functions is to increase the vibrations of space and tune in to the vibrations of spiritual entities, to contact with them. Unlike other instruments, it is not customary to sing songs to the bells, they are simply listened to.

The vibrations created in the air by ringing can be low, high, or a combination of both, but in the Spiritual world it is still considered music, special, bell-like. These are sound vibrations that attract vibrations of the Higher Ones, the angelic world, the Spiritual world.

Bell ringing can be used not only in Christian, practical spiritual life, but also by absolutely any believer, in any religion, also to increase their vibrations. It is useful for tuning into bright thoughts, feelings and for cleansing from low-vibration negative blocks that are in the subconscious. When a person listens to this, if he believes in it, he likes it, then those thoughts and feelings that he was not aware of before awaken in his consciousness.

The vibrations of the bell ringing create sounds in space, waves that act on negatively charged, destructive, parasitic plasmoids as unpleasant vibrations (like incense), and they dissipate.

#104, 01:24:13

Communist egregor

An egregor that arose during the formation of communist ideology based on Christian ideology. It contained many of the attitudes of Christian society. This was undoubtedly so, because the people who accepted the ideology, who created it and continued it, themselves grew up in Christian society. These images were around them, and it was impossible to use any other system that was very different from them, because they knew what they knew.

Another thing is that they opposed Christianity, as well as any religion, but the ideology itself remained the same. The ancient principle - "Love God with all your heart, love your neighbor as yourself" in communist ideology sounded like this: "Love your people, love your ruler with all your heart and love your neighbor, in a practical sense, as yourself."

When the egregor of the new state had already been created, when it had been materialized in the Soviet state, there were still people who were not attracted by this image, not only because they were sorry to part with some property, but also for a variety of reasons. Throughout the entire period of the Soviet Union's existence, other images were attractive, for example, religious or images of Western countries. But due to the fact that the egregor of communism, socialism of the Soviet Union was formed during the period of struggle, it had a very large potential for rejecting other images and those people who carry it.

The reason why the Soviet Union was divided and destroyed is, in fact, the influence of this egregor, although the egregor itself remained, its influence on the minds of many people was simply destroyed. This influence, with the involvement of the energy of each person who believes in the egregor, puts his energy into it on a mental and physical level, he shows such actions that contribute to the materialization of his ideas in the physical world.

Contacter

From the word "contact". One of the translation options for the word "contact" is "union". That is, it is an alliance, cooperation with someone, cooperation of two intelligent beings from different planets or from different levels of density, or embodied and non-embodied spirits, spiritual entities. Spirits are called intelligent spiritual entities.

A person who makes contact and has the ability to communicate with representatives subtle and dense extraterrestrial civilizations. Contact can be physical or astral. Contactees with the humanoid world perceive contact as Angels coming to them or their own thoughts. Contactees with the spiritual world communicate with Angels-curators - non-embodied spirits of the 17th-24th levels. Often incarnate from the 19th level.

A person who receives information from a source outside his physical brain, his embodied part of the mind, which is embodied in this brain, in his personality. Every person is a conscious or unconscious contactee.

If a person has something that attracts low-vibration non-embodied spiritual entities and plasmoids to him, they have the right to come to him in any form, because he has already invited them to contact with his vibrations. If this is a sensitive person, a medium, a contactee, then he will call for contact those who match his vibrations. This does not exclude contacts with higher vibrations, both will come to him. Low vibrations will present themselves as different in order to inspire trust. This will be clear from the information. If there are blocks in you, then they distort the mental body. You will believe that this information comes from the Light Forces, from God, from the Divine Truth. You yourself may not be able to discern this. Therefore, before starting contact, you must maximally cleanse your energy structure, your aura, from all energy blocks, completely trust God.

Contactee (conditions for becoming one)

Match your internal vibrations to the inhabitants of other planets:

1 Openness of the mind to the new, i.e. the absence of the habit of thinking according to a template. Because this is a sign of a new type of consciousness, which characterizes a galactic inhabitant, an inhabitant of the Galaxy. They have such vibrations, because it helps them to know the Universe and new forms of life in it.

2 Give within yourself the right to love any person, no matter who they are. Any person, no matter how terrible the deed he has committed, any deed that even harms others, he still has the right to love, to forgiveness, to understanding, to help in correcting his shortcomings. That is, the absence of the slightest need to take revenge and punish for bad deeds.

3 Universal love should not be a hindrance in bringing Light to those who are still in darkness.

4 The ability to listen to your heart and the ability to distinguish the call of your heart, the voice of your soul, intuition, from the logical patterns of the mind.

A mandatory condition is the absence of any heart diseases or diseases that require taking medications, as well as allergic reactions, because you have to contact another form of life that has a certain protein composition that differs from the earthly one. And if there is already an altered reaction of the immune system, then an unpredictable reaction can be to contact with them. And also - the absence of infectious diseases, decreased immunity. This is with regard to physical parameters.

As for the energetic and spiritual parameters, this is the absence of xenophobia, that is, fear of incomprehensible, alien creatures. Absence of fears, absence of mistrust. And also this desire to contact, and also respect and Love for all forms of life. Respect for all religions and in general for any choice of the spirit, that is, the absence of the desire to argue, to prove one's own. To prove one's own point of view. It can be translated as the absence of active aggression. A person must be calm enough to match the vibrations so that he does not have damage to the energy structures.

People who practice various homosexual relationships are not suitable for physical contact, which applies to both men and women. Since such physical contacts with a representative of the same sex for a fairly long time - sometimes from three to six months - damage the aura, chakras. That is, from the exchange of their energy, inherent to this body. This will not harm the curators who fly in for physical contact. But since the aura of representatives of other planets is quite dense, strong, like a ball, and those people have a weakened aura - damage to the people themselves is possible. And then various diseases can be caused.

It is also not recommended to contact people with diseases of the sensory organs - such as poor eyesight, poor hearing, because the transition to space on other planets, the energy of other planets can cause even greater disruption of the neurons of the brain and further deterioration of the condition.

"Contract" ("union", "agreement" in the Spiritual world)

A certain agreement between two or more intelligent beings before the incarnation of one or more of them in the material world. These can be agreements between people. Between a father and mother, for example, about the birth of children. Or between children and their mother about the fact that she will incarnate them, for example, on this planet. These can be agreements with beings from different worlds, who will later incarnate in different worlds, about contacts to achieve certain goals.

The coronavirus

Covid-19

According to the Interstellar Union, an artificially created species for conducting experiments on the creation of biological weapons. Coronavirus-19, due to the specific structure of RNA, the outer protein shell, has the property of falling asleep inside the cell. And not only in the epithelial cells of the bronchopulmonary system or larynx, or something else. It can fall asleep in blood cells, in lymphocytes, for example; also in nerve cells. The program that was originally embedded in the coronavirus Covid-19 affects the reproductive system and affects human genetics. The virus itself is capable of penetrating the germ cells of men and women and changing the DNA there, the sets of chromosomes that are divided for conception. This is created in order to weaken the generation that will then be born. There is also an effect on the nervous system by changing the neurotransmitters of the brain, which leads to a subsequent decrease in vibrations, and a person is more susceptible to negative emotions.

An infectious viral disease that affects the respiratory, cardiovascular and immune systems of the human body. This global epidemic and the response to it by civilization is a clear indicator of the spiritual, moral and political-economic consciousness, the state of earthly society.

The virus was created by changing the genome, introducing genes that were not originally characteristic of the natural virus of this disease. It was characteristic of viruses of related species that were not considered dangerous to humans. The genotypes of several viruses were genetically crossed and this was done for experimental purposes. This happened in a laboratory in China. Even there, few people know about it.

The virus lowers vibrations due to emotions associated with it and with measures to combat it, which cause far from bright emotions. The disease itself, the measures to contain it, all this together, in aggregate, greatly lowers the energy vibrations of the Earth and prevents the quantum transition.

If we look at it from a physical point of view, the people who spread, sprayed this virus, made it look like a leak, had several goals. The first goal was to conduct an experiment on the effect of the created virus on a wide population of people of different ages. And the second goal was to improve the destructive capabilities of this virus as a biological weapon so that it could be used, firstly against enemy states and secondly to reduce the population of one's own country.

Adjustment of education

Frequent conversations with a teenager about the meaning of life, his future profession, interests and life, plans for the future. Ideally, parents should teach their child to connect with the Higher Self. Then the child would be able to ask the Higher Self about his goals and tasks and receive strength and energy to accomplish these tasks. Then nothing will be able to knock him off this path, no external temptations of this world.

Cosmic soul

A person who lived on another planet in a past life, or a spirit who has had the most alien incarnations.

#112, 10:02

Cosmic cycles

Four cycles of civilization development, which are connected with the redistribution of spirits of different levels of the spiritual world in incarnations in the material world. In one cycle, more spirits from higher levels are incarnated, in another – from lower levels. The duration of one cycle is not strictly regulated and is largely controlled by the civilization itself, which exists in one or another place of space and time.

#27, 01:12

Cosmos

The entire created material world (from the Greek σύμπαν (space, universe). In the concepts of the Interstellar Union, this includes not only the physical dense-material cosmos, but also subtle-material worlds, portals, into the world of which the physical space is projected, at any level of density. Creatures embodied in this space are called cosmic plasmoids. From this point of view, the Earth is the same part of the Cosmos as any planet included in the Interstellar Union, and earthlings are the same cosmic inhabitants as any member of the Interstellar Union, it is just that earthlings live on a celestial body that revolves around the Sun.

Cosmohealing

Energy healing, including at a distance. It is considered by many civilizations of the Galaxy to be more promising and perfect, since it eliminates those initial stages of illness and disorders that have not yet manifested themselves on the physical level. It is the most developed system of assistance to the embodied spirit. The harmony of all chakras, all energy centers is adjusted to a person so that he can more easily adjust his spiritual channel to communicate with the non-embodied part of the spirit.

#238, 50:00, #247

Cosmoenergetics

A modern energetic spiritual practice that allows in a fairly short time to give good results in healing the physical health of a person and the soul, to help a person in improving his spiritual level, in personal and spiritual growth. Works with external energies of extraterrestrial civilizations.

Created by humanoid civilizations.

It's a crash

A tradition that arose many centuries before Christ. The egg was a symbol of the Sun, which gives birth to life. From the egg comes life – a chicken.

Eggs were painted with various colors, dyes and eaten at the festival of spring, the revival of nature. This was in ancient Egypt. The tradition came from there.

#400, 50:56

Baptism

Energy that connects a person to the Christian religious egregor, to the church. The purpose of baptism is to introduce a person to the Christian religious egregor for his assimilation of the energies of Christ.

A promise and at the same time a request to God, manifested in one or another Teaching, to raise one's vibrations.

Baptism of a child in no way implies violence against his will. Because baptism does not oblige to anything. It is only help to the child from the Christian religious egregor.

Baptism is given not because the person, the child who came, is so sinful, unclean that he needs purification, but because he needs the energies of Christ, which He gives through the sacrament. He can give them only to someone who has undergone this sacrament. Because this connects a person to the Christian religious egregor, fills him with energy. And such a person is seen by observers of the Christian religious egregor, Spiritual hierarchs and Angels of this egregor. And when a priest baptizes, Angels are invisibly present nearby and put into his field a certain access to the energies of Christ, which he will receive through the sacrament.

The sacrament, which is given by the priest, and Christ puts his energy there, his blood and flesh (through bread and wine), is an opportunity for the spirit, which is embodied in the child, to adapt to the world more easily. Christ will help to process all the negativity that is possible during adaptation, when he, for example, does not understand why people behave this way. After all, he still has little experience.

Epiphany (holiday)

A great Christian holiday, which was established in honor of the baptism of the Lord Jesus Christ in the waters of the Jordan. In Israel at this time, the weather was completely different and Christ did not have to bathe in an ice hole. On this day, at the beginning of the astronomical day, the egregor of Christianity releases such energy into the material world that, acting on the etheric matrices of water molecules, fills them with Light, the Holy Spirit (the Spirit of Light).

Criticism (criticality)

A natural component of thinking. Everyone has it. However, it is directed at different things. Those people who follow someone have reduced criticality towards the source of these orders, but they have increased criticality towards their own ideas. They do not follow themselves.

#347, 32:25

Criticism of ideas

Absolutely correct behavior, which is accepted in any scientific community. In religious, scientific and esoteric communities, open discussions are accepted. They are used when criticizing one idea and presenting the advantages of another. But as soon as the idea is transferred to the personality of those who adhere to these ideas, this lowers the vibrations of everyone and does not allow finding the truth.

#337,04:58

Criticism is constructive

Criticism with good intentions. Should not be aimed at humiliating and condemning another person for some negativity, but at awakening the Light in him.

#203, 32:03

Krishna

Coordinator of the Milky Way Galaxy.

The son of Vishnu, an inhabitant of the planet Shimor, and an earthly woman. Krishna's earthly mother had her own husband on Earth, she was faithful to him. The representative of Shimor, who was Krishna's father, simply gave genetic material. He also had a wife on Earth.

At present, the spirit of Krishna is not embodied and is at the highest level of the Spiritual World. From there, he supports his religious egregor and the egregors of religious movements close to him.

Rama was the embodiment of that spirit which later, much later, incarnated into Krishna.

Krishna (Deity Worship)

The primacy of not the external form, but the internal content. If the worship of the Divine embodied energy in the form of an object is such that it can make a person happy, but at the same time the person does not want to make anyone else happy, then this worship leads to a decrease in vibrations, to the hellish worlds. But if he gives happiness and Love to those who are nearby, without expecting anything in return, then his worship becomes pure and elevates to merging and communicating with the Deity.

Circles on Baikal in winter

A natural phenomenon caused by uneven freezing of water. Due to the presence of different molecular lattices of the ice cover, its color is uneven, which looks like circles. They can be large. There is unevenness in the composition of the water itself and the suspension in it - chemical, biological. Water freezes unevenly, so the color is different there.

Crop circles

The so-called drawing test, widely used in earthly psychology.

Figures denoting symbols of some structures: either galaxies, or symbols of planets, or the internal structure of atoms and molecules. And many, many other different things that are applied to the surface of the planet by a special type of electromagnetic fields. In order to see the level of development of consciousness and intelligence of those who will make assumptions about their meaning.

Esler's sign. Each line means a certain plane of reality or dimension. Most often they are left by representatives of humanoid civilizations from the planet Tashig, from the Pleiades. A ship from orbit sends drones. These can be small round flying objects, which, due to changes in the plasma field, the gravity field, make these circles on the fields. They have a diameter of about 30 cm. But around themselves they create a plasma field of bright white or yellow color, and it changes. When the ball hovers over a field, for example, cereals, then its plasma field changes intensity. A vortex electromagnetic field is created, from which the structure in plants changes. And from this they lie in a pattern. This pattern is already embedded in the program of this ship.

Cube, but it contains two more cubes and they are connected to each other by lines. In one cube is the second, and in the second - the third, that is, the Cube is three-dimensional.

Metatron's Cube represents four sides. The four sides of the cube represent the four elements that create the material world. And three cubes nested one inside the other represent the three levels of energies that make up the physical atom. This is its original meaning.

The image of Metatron's Cube signifies the creation of material physical reality from spiritual reality, through the influence of subtle beings and energies.

#446, 52:05

Kundalini

Etheric energy that was transmitted to people from the reptilian race. At the energy level, kundalini is the etheric fuel for the astral-mental plane. With the correct formation of the energy structure, kundalini from the 2nd chakra should rise to the 4th, giving a feeling of spiritual Light. The accumulation of energy in the 2nd chakra, its excess there, will give a desire to drain energy through sex. Uncorrected kundalini energy in adulthood will manifest itself in the form of aggression in sex, including towards oneself, and in dissatisfaction with a partner.

#134, 01:05:35

Curator (from Latin curare – to care for, to lead)

An energy-informational entity, a rational spirit, embodied at any density level or from the spiritual world, who leads his student (contactee) to a specific goal, transmitting energy and information. A person's curator can only be a being from another world (non-embodied in the third density on Earth).

Khayrane

Representatives of the planet Khairan, which is located in the constellation Sagittarius. They are similar in body structure to lizards. The scales are shiny, and on the back stand on end, like a comb. The flat head ends in a cone. They have deep-set eyes, the head is brown, like an onion.

The Khayrans contacted earthlings about 8,400 years ago, flying to Earth. The city where they had their base was called Urartu in the local language. Which meant "the village of starlight." It was not on the shores of the Persian Gulf, but in the mountains.

This is a reptilian race. Reptilians are very peace-loving. They have never fought with anyone, there have been only a small number of wars on their planet. They were accepted into the Interstellar Union. Their representatives flew to the ancestors of the first kings and the first tribes, whose priests became the kings of the first Sumerians. The Khayran taught the peoples who lived there before the Sumerians. They taught how to build cities, engage in medical activities, taught astronomy, natural history. They also taught how to communicate with nature, increase the fertility of the earth, how to take care of your soul, how to observe moral laws.

Plasmoid (Earth, Kryon Group). Looks like a four-sided cross with a circle in the middle. Reminds of a snowflake with patterns. Spins like a wheel. The size of the subtle-material body is up to 200 m in diameter. Can shrink to the limits of the contactee's perception. Representative of the plasmoid civilization of the Earth's magnetosphere. 15th density level.

Frankincense (cleansing and healing properties)

Incense and its aroma have energetic vibrations that create space, cleanse it of low vibrations and create an energetic environment that is difficult to bear for entities, including plasmoids and those from the world of disembodied spirits. They are incompatible in vibrations. Also, the aroma of incense helps to activate the seventh energy center and get in touch with your Higher Self, believe in yourself, your Light, and cleanse yourself of negative blocks.

Lama Itigelov

A high-level spirit whose life is supported by an egregor into which believers invest their energy. The egregor supports this body. The Lama is in the spiritual world. His connection, the thread of life force, with the body is broken. But the body is in a state of increased energy vibrations because he has been accumulating them in the body all his life. He spent the energy of his endless Love on his spiritual development, and distributed part of it throughout the body with the help of special energy practices. Therefore, his body emits a special energy that suspends all processes of decomposition into elements that are controlled by microorganisms under the guidance of plasmoid civilizations. They are not included in this process, because he has a different energy.

Pandito Khambo-lama XII Dashi-Dorjo Itigelov

Beyond the levels of any worlds for incarnating entities, according to Itigelov himself. According to Li Shioni, Itigelov's phantom corresponds to the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th spiritual levels. It's like an Angel.

On September 15, 1862, physical contact was made with the humanoid Harshori from the planet Disaru.

He was not even 15 years old when he entered the monastery. He did not have time to start a family, because his whole life was dedicated to serving and teaching Buddha, healing people. He performed rituals, healed and taught people, guided them spiritually, told them about meditation, about the emptiness of the mind, so that nothing would linger in their thoughts, so that they would not become attached to anything.

There were a total of 1225 incarnations in the material worlds. Of these, 27 were on Earth, but they alternated with incarnations in other worlds.

The purpose of the manifestation of the incorruptibility of his body was to show the general materialism of consciousness at that time that the spirit is dominant over the body. With such an example it was necessary to show that the spirit of an enlightened person, who carried the Light and continues to carry it now, controls the body even after his death, that is, after leaving for the Spiritual World.

#413, 00:21

Levitation

Temporary suppression of the Earth's gravity by the life force of a person, which is achieved by the ability to create a mental image of a yellow beam directed downwards, with full faith that when this beam exits through the legs (in the imagination), the body will fly up. Doubts are unacceptable.

Gravity attracts the physical body with a certain force, and the vital force of a person, which is released by him every second of time, is stronger than the force with which the Earth attracts his body.

It does not surpass all of the Earth's gravity, but that part of gravity that attracts its body. And in order for this superiority of your life force to be able to lift it above the Earth, you only need to direct it. This requires visualization of how your life force pushes you away from the Earth. In order for this visualization to work, it is necessary to imagine it, and doubts that the result will be achieved disperse the life force in space and do not allow it to push away from the Earth, that is, to shield the body from the Earth's gravity.

Manipulating Earth's gravity. This can be done. It's safer than teleportation, provided you have enough life force and are 100% sure that you won't just take off, but won't lose control mid-flight.

Lenin V.I.

The spirit that incarnated from the 18th level went to the fifth. Compared to the level from which it incarnated, this is truly hell. There is very little Light and very little happiness. He is dissatisfied with the results of his incarnation. He realized that he wasted his life. He lowered the energy vibrations of a large number of people. When he fought for the revolution, he did not think about this. The task of the incarnation was to develop his business to protect the violated rights of people, to defend their rights. It was a matter of protection. He saw so much cruelty, humiliation and injustice. He realized that our fate is in our hands, not in the hands of some God. If people hide behind God and commit injustice, then it is his job to correct it. He wanted all people to live happily. Not to destroy each other, not to exploit. He even thought that if God exists, and he did not cope, then he will take his place and do it.

In the Spiritual World I repeatedly met with the spirit of Nicholas II.

During life, my head hurt a lot and I felt dizzy. Then I suffered from paralysis, recovered, took baths, and was given massages. After the death of my body, I connected with my spirit, realized that I was immortal, and realized that all of this was because I hated so much. The blood vessels in my brain couldn't withstand this energy of hatred. At first, I didn't understand that I had destroyed my body. The blood vessels ruptured.

A person who had in his consciousness that dissenters must be killed, shot, and when there were many such people, what happened happened. And this did not serve to stabilize the society, the country, the government under which these people were born, but led to their destruction. The accumulation of aggression in people (even against some category of the population, according to some idea) led to destruction.

#374, 56:18, #363

Time line

Lines of probability. Forms of images perceived by the consciousness of the observer. The timeline is on the border of the world of non-embodied spirits and the border of the astral world from the side of the world of non-embodied spirits. It is possible to move back into the past and view the events that have already happened, and forward, but then you get into one of the branches of the reality that has not yet happened. The recording of information occurs in images, in impulses of information that carry different frequencies and form different forms.

One person can influence the Timeline of all mankind, everything depends on the power of his thought and personal energy. In fact, it is not the person who influences the world, but his ideas. Nothing can resist the power of an idea whose time has come. Who then determines which idea's time will come? It is determined by the readiness of mankind as a whole for this or that stage of development, psychological, spiritual, physical readiness.

The Time Tape in the Spiritual World consists of seven heterogeneous areas. When the Earth in the physical world goes around the Sun and around the center of the Galaxy, then in the Spiritual World its space goes along the Time Tape of seven heterogeneities. Each of them gives rise to the arrival of souls to Earth from different planets, from different levels, which perform their tasks. The arrival of each soul is not accidental.

The image of time in the material world, which is visible from the Spiritual world. It is seen as a tape, on which the events of the past, present and all variants of the future are displayed.

The most probable sequence of events is visible as a wider flow of the Time Tape, the less probable one as a narrower flow.

The flow of time from the past to the future, which began from the moment of the emergence of the material world and which will end after the end of the existence of the material world and the transition of all energies to the Spiritual world.

A symbol of eternity and infinity of the Universe, as the entire set of material and spiritual energies.

#365, 19:30

Laziness

Lack of energy, vitality, which should be directed to one or another action. Occurs due to insufficient motivation.

Leonardo da Vinci

The spirit, being embodied, was a universal contactee, that is, it could contact any spiritual entity that came to it. He perceived it as contact with deities, Angels, God, with his own heart. Vinci was a believer and was a creator in his soul. He had synthetic thinking: he could combine knowledge from different areas and synthesize them.

Lived for many years, suffered from a dangerous disease, something like plague. Survived, thanks to his high consciousness. His spirit agreed with the Mentors to leave him in embodiment. Therefore, the spiritual Mentors and Angels healed him.

Leonardo da Vinci was a contactee from the age of 10.

He not only painted pictures, but also conducted scientific work and wrote poetry.

He had an unhappy family life. There were several women who did not love him. He broke up with them.

Towards the end of his life he had students.

His character was far from simple. He came from a family above the average. Not a count, but close to that title. He was brought up in that spirit. He did not allow himself to be humiliated.

Often gave new information to the people, which led to ridicule and criticism. It was very difficult for his proud, ambitious heart to tolerate this. He went through a good school of patience and love. After disembodiment, he went to the 20th level, and incarnated from the 15th.

Sopor

The astral journey of the spirit is only longer in time for the physical body to the world that suits it in vibrations. And the first reason is that he has by his own will reduced the intensity of the attraction of the life thread to his body. The second reason is a change in the physical body, in which the spirit cannot return, in the case of, for example, damage to the brain structures through which consciousness manifests. The spirit is in an astral state, in an astral journey, but cannot connect with the body.

#173, 24:01

Jacob's Ladder

An image taken from the biblical descriptions of Jacob's dream (in the dream there was contact with a highly spiritual entity). Jacob saw in his dream a ladder that connects the earth and the sky. It was an image of the spiritual and material worlds being connected.

#37, 12:35

Sopor

A process in which the astral body does not return to the body for various reasons. This may be damage to the body or the desire of the spirit itself (Higher Self). In this case, the life thread between the astral body and the physical body is not completely broken, so physical death does not occur. All processes in the body slow down to a minimum, there may be problems with breathing and heartbeat, but in any case, this does not stop completely.

#280, 49:37

Flying saucer

One of the common forms of alien spaceships. The saucer shape is the most convenient for moving in the atmosphere, for creating a stable magnetic field, for a gravitational jump. Another shape is also possible, for example, a cylinder, a pyramid, a triangle. The shape depends on the preferences of a particular civilization.

#144, 42:35

Therapeutic fasting

Stopping all energy-consuming processes in the body to save energy due to stress. Stress includes the instinct of self-preservation, the process of checking the entire body to find and suppress inflammatory processes. A person's faith in this method is also of great importance.

#81, 28:41

Lilith

According to the sources of the Interstellar Union, a plasmoid entity that came into contact with several representatives of the first male humans. It diverted the sexual energy of these men to itself in order to feed on it. It is, rather, a certain group of entities of group intelligence and various density levels that came into contact with the first humans. Subsequently, these plasmoids began to come to children, frighten them, take their life force, and so on. This is a generalized name for parasitic plasmoid civilizations.

#178, 01:11:30

Limis (in the language of the Interstellar Union, specifically Daraala)

Intelligent spirit. All intelligent beings have one and the same spirit, no matter where they are incarnated, including in humanoid and plasmoid worlds, that is, in all worlds, as well as in non-incarnate spirits in the Spiritual world.

The rational spirit is different from the animal soul, which in the Daraal language is called Eromes. The animal soul can incarnate only in the bodies of animals, insects, birds, reptiles, and so on, that is, in irrational beings, in bodies in which the central nervous system is not designed for the manifestation of consciousness.

Limises differ in their level of spiritual development. There are limis that are from the first to the twenty-fourth level. Everything that is above the twenty-fourth is still the twenty-fourth for us.

Lymph

A type of biological fluid in the body that does not contain red blood cells. The function of the lymphatic system is to transport nutrients throughout the body, remove unnecessary waste, and fight foreign microorganisms that have entered the body.

Intercellular fluid that is necessary for supplying cells with oxygen and nutrients. A fluid similar to blood, but it does not contain hemoglobin, so it is transparent, like water. Lymph can be called the second blood of the body.

Lymph moves mainly due to gravity. Also, in the lymphatic vessels there is a kind of valve, a section that can narrow, contract and push. The movement of the body also contributes to the movement of lymph.

The speed of lymph movement depends on the amount of fluid in the body, the normal functioning of the lymph nodes, and the general metabolism.

#81, 44:32, #432, 02:58, 13:07

Lymphatic vessels (their purpose)

Vessels that permeate the entire human body, starting first with small ones, somewhere between individual cells, then they branch out and merge into larger ones. They pass next to the blood vessels of the arteries and veins.

Their purpose is to collect lymph from all over the body and transfer it to the lymph nodes. From the lymph nodes it again enters the lymphatic vessels, but of a larger diameter.

#432, 05:17

Lymph nodes (lymph nodes)

Blood cells responsible for immunity, in which blood elements, so-called lymphocytes, accumulate.

They are designed to cleanse and filter blood, sort substances and destroy pathogenic flora that has entered from the organs, as well as to turn on and off immune responses.

There are a lot of lymph nodes all over the body. They can be small or large.

#432, 05:17, 07:18

Lingam

A statuette depicting a male sexual organ, a symbol of fertility. It is used in Shaivite religious practices, it is doused with milk, which is then drunk. The meaning of the lingam is that it is a symbol of fertility for plasmoid civilizations, which give their energy through this symbol.

#202, 01:04:05

Linguistic-wave genetics

A term introduced by P.P. Gariaev. The theory that all molecules of our body emit symbolic fields, with the help of which they exchange information with each other, with the environment, with space. Our cell communicates with the whole organism, with cells, with the help of special energy waves.

#344, 04:47, 11:22

Lines on the palms

Lines on the palms of the physical body, reflecting the astrological, numerological map at the moment of birth and are needed to recognize them. It is like a seal on the hand. It is made by the spirit itself, which contains information, including through the karmic, causal body, by influencing the etheric body in the area where the palms of the hands are formed and is a characteristic of the spirit, which it brought to the physical plane.

#234, 36:52

Lithotherapy

One of the subtypes of physiotherapy (treatment by nature). The molecules of a crystal or stone emit first-level energy (electromagnetic oscillations), the effect of which on the physical body suppresses or activates various processes.

Liturgy (about which of the texts most closely corresponds to the texts of the first liturgy)

In the ancient Christian church, until about the 4th century, such importance was not attached to the written word, that it was the law and that was all, more importance was attached to the Spirit. The first Christians until the 4th century, for about 400 years, tried very hard to follow the words of the Apostle Paul: "Do not quench the Spirit." They understood this as giving freedom to the Holy Spirit to manifest itself in its Spirit in the form of inspiration, various poems, prayers, etc. For them, in any liturgy, in any other sacred text and appeal to God, there was a noticeable element of creativity. Therefore, in the ancient world, the ancient Christians, already from the very beginning of the Eucharist, depending on the priest, no longer had the same text.

#239, 24:18, 42:11

Personality

The embodied part of the spirit, whose memory is blocked. Consists of the memory of the current incarnation and conscious character traits that are formed throughout life, but their foundations are laid in childhood in the form of a worldview. They are learned together with the language and the socio-cultural norms that exist in the family. It depends on the parents how the child's character from past incarnations will manifest itself, how negative and positive qualities will develop, whether they will strengthen or weaken.

#277, 01:03:23

Personal Quantum Transition

Part of the general Quantum Transition, accompanied by an increase in the vibrations of one's own body by increasing the vibrations of one's own spirit. Personal Quantum Transition frees one from karma and one becomes the master of one's own destiny, one's own physical body. One is no longer defined by negative karmic programs.

Lilies

Representative of the planet Shimor, specialist in the astral world and its interactions with the material world. Incarnated from the 20th level.

Excess weight

The consequence of energy blocks due to fears, worries, problems. Spiritual reason – fears, unwillingness to let go of something from your life in a psychological sense. Fear of losing something, even non-material. Restructuring of the body to accumulate material elements.

#189, 01:47, 07:35

Lobsang Ramp

The curator from the Spiritual World who came to the writer Cyril Henry Hoskin, an Englishman. He was one of his curators. Lobsang Rampa himself, a Tibetan monk, by that time his physical body had died, he was already disembodied. Cyril Henry Hoskin identified himself completely with the name of Lobsang Rampa, whose story he was telling.

The process of processing information by unfolding and connecting it.

#345, 30:12
Local Universe
The universe manifested in a given time and place of space that can be explored by instruments or known by the mind.

#105, 19:39
Lie
Not the complete absence of truth, but its distortion. Truth, true knowledge, true wisdom are distorted by those emotional energy blocks that prevent it from being accepted in the Light of God. Therefore, a person begins to see lies in the world, lies in himself, and reacts with lies. Lies are one of the main reasons for any negative manifestations of intelligent entities. Lies are opposite to truth, as hatred is opposite to love. As soon as lies disappear and truth becomes available to a person, love also becomes available to him, because truth and love are one.

#266, 03:17, #298, 00:59
Loch Ness monster
A creature that is not related specifically to dinosaurs. Initially, people could see some large fish, for example, that scared someone. And then all this was overgrown with legends and people began to see plasmoids, for example, which are spirits of the same water and can take various forms. And it is easier for them to appear in that image to a person who was expecting to see something, since it is already tuned to the vibrations that they need. The Eslerites did not conduct research on this particular lake, but according to the information that MS has, no prehistoric animals live in the lake.
#46, 30:47
Moon
A body that was originally a planet in the Solar System between Mars and Earth. After the Selbet weapons used during the war 12,000 years ago changed the Earth's trajectory and moved away from the Sun, it pulled the Moon with its gravity, causing the Moon to almost fall to Earth. The Burkhads were able to stop the Moon from falling to Earth and stabilize its orbit, otherwise the Earth would have completely perished as a result of such a collision with the Moon, splitting into pieces. Even before the war, the Burkhads and other civilizations had bases on the Moon, as it was the closest planet to Earth. The Moon is a symbol of mother, family, and femininity.

Sleepwalking

Such a state of a person in which, when the astral body leaves the physical body during sleep, the physical body is not immobilized, and sleep paralysis does not occur from the action of sleep hormones secreted in the pineal gland and pituitary gland. Because these hormones are not secreted, and sleep paralysis does not occur, the physical body either partially moves, or gets up without the astral body and repeats the movements of this body, which acts in its dream in the astral world.

Ray of the Chohan of Freedom

A term that describes our movement towards freedom from all prejudices and negative phenomena, primarily in our own souls.

#253, 04:55

Rays of Truth

Electromagnetic radiation that suppresses those parts of the brain that allow a person to invent something, to lie. This is a form of control, but it is not created for control, but for finding out the truth in the investigation of crimes in the Interstellar Union.

Electromagnetic radiation that suppresses those parts of the brain that allow a person to invent something, to lie.

#391, 38:16

The best protection against negative entities

Complete confidence in divine protection, in yourself, as a part of God. Faith that you are on the right path of development. Absence of doubts, fears, negative emotions and feelings - anger, envy, aggression, resentment and other destructive emotions that are formed as a result of negative mental attitudes in the field of the person himself. The main protection is complete trust in God and high vibrations of love.

#223, 04:22, 08:52

Love

The highest divine energy, divine power and feeling, at the same time, which supports all Truth, Light in this world, all existence and makes people godlike beings, because it is the highest and purest energy in God.

State of the soul. Exchange of energies of all kinds: physical, mental, astral with your loved one. True love is completely devoid of a sense of ownership, a sense of belonging to each other. Eternal true love is the one that becomes a threshold to eternal happiness and an increase in its vibrations after leaving the incarnation. It has the property of unconditionality. Unconditionality, eternity and the absence of a sense of belonging of a loved one to yourself, as a part of yourself, without having your own individual traits. Acceptance of a person as he is.

The main manifestation of Love in the material world is creative activity aimed at improving the world.

For everyone who incarnates in the material world, the primary task is to develop Love within themselves.

It can be developed in oneself in various ways. By overcoming instinctive principles in oneself, but not as overcoming, but as harmonizing and managing them. Or through creative activity, strengthened by the capabilities of the civilizations that are part of the Interstellar Union.

A person who is filled with Love will not be able to hold on to large amounts of money, even if he has it, for the reason that true Love, having money, will begin to spend it with the aim of helping others, without thinking about itself.

Love cannot be revealed without its practical embodiment for the benefit of those people who are near you.

You need to understand that those people who are directly next to you, that is, your loved ones (in this case), are your best teachers of Love. You can train on them. How to do this in order to love them with active, practical, unconditional love.

It is often called sacrificial, because if it is unconditional, it does not require anything in return. And this is to some extent a sacrifice: of one's energy, one's time. But only such actions can develop unconditional Love, raise one's vibrations.

Love of God

God's unconditional love for man. Even if you look like his child in God's eyes, who went into low vibrations and did not follow the path that God wants, you have the right to do so, because you are free. God wants happiness for everyone, but you have the right to follow a different path. And even if you chose this path and followed it, you do not become less loved, and all the benefits in the material world that God created are available to such a person as well as to a saint. God respects freedom of choice to such an extent that when he gives birth to a spirit, he already sees all of his past, present and future, all of his choices, wherever he incarnates, no matter how he lowers his vibrations. Even if he kills the bodies of his other children, he sees all this even at the birth of the spirit and still allows it to be born, because he loves this spirit in any of its manifestations, even in the one that destroys the bodies of other spirits, since without the possibility of this destruction, the spirit's freedom of choice will be taken away.

This is the highest Divine energy, the highest Divine power (and feeling at the same time), supports all life, all truth and Light in this world. And supports the existence of all of us, makes us godlike, because this is the highest, purest energy of God.

#181, 16:14, #475, 00:25

Self-love

Love that is always connected with love for God. Full understanding that you are not separated from God, that you are His part, and He loves you. Recognition of your imperfection. Absence of pride and arrogance and at the same time self-abasement, despondency, excessive self-criticism. Understanding that you are neither higher nor lower, but equal. You are Divine perfection. You are Light. Respect for yourself as an individual and for the individual of another. The right to your beliefs, your life, your desires, respect for the same rights of others.

#19, 01:02:10, #128, 08:11

Parental love

Love that is expressed in a person's everyday life in such a way that those around him, including parents (especially parents), when raising a child, treat him with love and understanding in the sense that they accept him as he is. They do not insist on their opinion if the child does not want it and do not suppress the personality.

Representatives of the anthropomorphic race, that is, humanoid. Humanoids.

#91, 09:55

Indigo People

High vibrational spirits from different worlds and dimensions. Their aura is dominated by indigo colored energy flows. Due to the large number of low vibrational spirits on Earth, high vibrational angelic spirits consciously incarnate on Earth to raise the overall spiritual level and to help build a society where low vibrational spirits will either be blocked or given the opportunity for personal development.

#27, 06:37

Lucifer

Angel of the 24th level, after incarnations on the planet Selbet, lowered his vibrations to the 6th level, becoming a demon. Tried to poison our ancestors with fruits from the Haroul tree. Never incarnated in the material world again. Believes that due to the law of cause and effect, God's love limits his and our freedom as independent individuals when the evil done returns in another form.

He is an Archon, the prince of demons, the owner of demons. He considers the manifestation of low-vibrational emotions to be as correct as the manifestation of high-vibrational ones. Now he controls one of the sectors of the Galaxy "Andromeda Nebula". Lucifer, although he left God voluntarily, still remained his son. And, naturally, his existence and his entire army of demons are supported by the energy of God. And the energy that he uses, including for evil purposes, is also given by God. Lucifer was in our cycle of existence, which we are going through now. He was the first to choose evil, being at such a high level.

Lucifer, Iblis

The image of the spirit that is depicted in Christianity as Lucifer. This is a real spiritual personality. Not only this spirit calls itself by the name Lucifer. There are many other spirits, many entities that also call themselves that. Moreover, this word (means) – the Bringer of Light.

At first he was very high – 24th spiritual level. He was equal with God. In one of his incarnations on the planet Selbet, from the 24th level he lowered his vibrations to the 18th. Then from the 18th level he incarnated again on the planet Selbet. And he participated in the creation of people, this Lucifer or Iblis.

When he was in the body of a Selbet, he participated in and initiated an attempt to kill people. Since he hated the children of God, it means he hated God himself. He hated God so much that he fell from the 18th level to the 6th in one incarnation. When he was incarnated among the Selbet, he really believed that they were lower than him, because they were made of earthly animals, and he considered himself a higher divine being. Fire means Light. That is, he is like Light. He believed that if he despised them, he would remain the same Light. He believed that contempt, pride, hatred cannot defeat the Light, even if he experiences these emotions. This was his mistake, his sin. And even when this Selbet, in whom Iblis or Lucifer was incarnated, was sent to the planet of criminals, even there he did not realize the reason for this sin. He did not repent, did not return to God. He remained on this 6th level until he left the incarnation. Moreover, he still remains on the 6th level. According to the Interstellar Union, he has not gone into incarnation again, although he has every right to do so, but only at his own discretion.

Larvae

Negatively charged images whose only purpose is to fulfill the desire of the person who created them. But they also need life energy to maintain their existence.

37, 44:23

Maggie

People who perform magical practices, rituals, spells, various internal shamanic practices, and so on. Most often, magicians work with plasmoid civilizations, since this is an impact on nature, on the elements of nature, various types of astral energies. This can be the spiritual world, as well as plasmoid civilizations of various levels of density, low-vibrational and high-vibrational, depending on the soul of the magician himself.

#165, 01:06:03

Magic

Conscious interaction: contacts, various unions for the performance of certain tasks in the material world with plasmoid worlds, with those called spirits of nature. A system of magical rituals aimed at unconsciously causing results. Similar rituals existed in polytheistic religions and have remained in the form of esotericism. Unstudied laws of the astral world.

Magnetic energy

Radiation created by the magnetic energy of a particular cluster of atoms (strictly individual for each celestial body, for each star and planet), from which, for example, flying ships can be repelled and attracted. And also this is one of the types of first-level energies, which are present in varying quantities in all chemical elements. The interaction of energies with each other creates various magnetic fields.

#110, 28:03

Magnetic field of galaxies

The totality of magnetic fields and all its largest stars. Each galaxy, as a totality of stars and planets, has its own magnetic field, which includes, as segments, the magnetic fields of the named objects.

#17, 11:38

Magnetic fields

Magnetic lines, energy flows. The magnetic field (earthly devices cannot detect it in full, they only show part of it) is not uniform. It has different strengths, different lines. It is possible to calculate the influence of magnetic fields, depending on the magnetic charge of the body. There is magnetic material in any person. For example, there is an iron atom in each red blood cell. Iron is a magnetic material. Each atom has an open magnetic field. In total, an adult has about six to seven (or even more) grams of iron, which is found throughout the body. Therefore, different magnetic field lines affect the movement of these red blood cells in different ways, which results in a person's well-being. That is why many have noticed that they are more comfortable on the surface of the Earth than, for example, on a high floor. Perhaps not everyone has noticed, but sensitive people can notice that they need to walk on the ground. From the fact that you walk on the ground, energy rises from the Earth, and with height it falls. If you don't walk, there will be a lack of magnetic field, a deficiency.

One of the types of first-level energy embedded in the atoms of any substance. The magnetic field is generated by each particle, can exist in the atom itself, and go beyond its limits into space.

#17, 02:09, #437, 33:31

Magnetic resonance imaging equipment

Equipment in which a person is placed in a special magnetic field with a certain vibration. In it, all functions and organs of a person begin to be restored and they begin to interact correctly with each other, work correctly and release chemical elements correctly.

#225, 19:42

Magnetic pole

A dynamic system, the result of the influence of the magnetosphere on the Earth's core and its surface layers of the atmosphere. It can oscillate and move.

#148, 08:34

Magnetocaloric effect

An effect that occurs when magnetic energy acts on atoms and causes their internal vibrations to accelerate, producing heat. The object increases its temperature and this is the first level energy that is released into the environment. Thermal energy. The magnetic field replaces the energy and free thermal energy begins to be released.

A spiritual personality that incarnates in different worlds and helps this world move to a higher level of spiritual development.

#37, 12:35

Macrogravity

That which allows the laws of kinematics, mechanics, dynamics to manifest in our world. Everything that is called the force of motion, attraction, centrifugal force is a manifestation of macrogravity. This allows all planets, stars, galaxies and the smallest speck of dust in the universe to have their own speed of movement, trajectory, orbit. Not to fly apart in chaos, but to move according to certain laws.

Manvantara

The cycle of unfolding and folding of the material part of the Universe. Those particles that are in the material world will lose their density, that is, the atoms will begin to raise their vibrations so that the energies that enter them will pass into the energy of electromagnetic waves, radiation, gamma radiation, and so on, until they pass into the subtle-material worlds. Then these subtle-material structures, the energies that make up these subtle-material worlds, will further raise their vibrations in terms of density until they pass into the Spiritual world. Not a single atom will disappear, it will first turn into radiation, then into a wave of subtle-material energy, and then into a stream of spiritual Light, from which it originally arose. In fact, matter is spiritual Light now, but it is simply in a dense form. It can lose its dense form and acquire it again.

Part of the Pralaya cycle. Part of the cycle of manifestation, non-manifestation of the Universe. In the Spiritual world, all material worlds are called by the word Cosmos and Universe. In this manvantara, there are 59 levels of density, and all of them are included in the concept of the Universe or material world. The manvantara first expands, and then the compression process begins. Each manvantara can have a different number of density levels. There can be a different number of earth years (a year is one revolution around the Sun), different durations of periods of existence, both of individual galaxies and of the entire Universe as a whole.

Manichaeism

The division of the world into good and evil forces that cannot defeat each other, and want each other's grief. It was born as a protest of plasmoid civilizations against God for His creation of a dense-material world.

#192, 24:12

Mantra

A verbal formula that cleanses the mind from passions and vices, cleanses the heart from harmful desires, and helps to connect with one’s spirit.

A form of addressing God, communicating with Him through sound vibrations. A means of communication given by Krishna, connecting with his energy in the same way as the prayer given by Christ to his disciples connects with the energy of Christ. Faith gives energy for such a connection.

Any mantra, any prayer in any language has its own energy component. This energy component consists of sound waves that spread in space, in the air, and the sound wave is perceived as vibrations of the atoms of the substance that makes up the gas in the air. Then it goes to the subtle material level, but this sound energy is always charged with feelings, emotions and thoughts of the person pronouncing it.

If you read it with faith, with love, then it will have a bright power, if you read it just like that, then it is just a sound that will dissipate, like just a sound, for example, of a bell, which has no meaning. That is why the Apostle Paul said such words that without love I am "noise-making brass or a clanging cymbal", that is, a sound that disappears without benefit.

Voynich Manuscript

A medieval book that was written by contactees with both plasmoid civilizations, and the spiritual world, and humanoid civilizations. But the contact information there was transmitted in a cipher that was known to its creators. This book was not written by one author, but by several. Moreover, there were several ciphers there. The information was about various plants, entities, levels of plasmoid worlds, the spiritual world - about everything that the curators gave. At the time of its creation, there was still a strong influence of the Inquisition and, in order to avoid the danger of this text being read by those people who could persecute these contactees, it was decided to encrypt this knowledge.

Marduk

The supreme deity of the Babylonians. Marduk was believed to reside in the main temple of Babylon, Esagila, next to which was the famous ziggurat Etemenanki, the prototype of the legendary Tower of Babel. According to myths, Marduk's parents were the god Ea (Sumerian Enki) and the goddess Damkina (Sumerian Damgalguna).

Initially, it was the name of a man, one of the Tumesoutians, who participated in the war with the reptilians 12 thousand years ago. He cleared the Solar system of them, protected the planet Mars, took part in the rescue operation of part of the earthlings. A few years later, he transported these earthlings from the base on the Moon back to Earth, when the consequences of the catastrophe ended: the Earth was cleared of radiation, volcanic eruptions were stopped, the atmosphere was cleared, and so on.

Later he flew on a ship to the builders of the first cities, taught them. He was called Mirtux. At that time he was about four and a half thousand years old. He lived for about six thousand more years.

From time to time this Tumesoutian flew to Earth and other planets. He was a specialist in the integration of non-intelligent life forms, that is, animal life forms that had recently evolved into intelligent beings, in which intelligent spirits had recently incarnated.

He was a specialist in integrating these newly created civilizations into the environment, he was a sociologist-educator, that is, someone who educates young races. And also a military man, he fought, he defended. Later, many peoples deified him. Somewhere he was known as Thoth, somewhere as Marduk. He had many names in different cultures. Then the word "Marduk" began to be used to call plasmoids, military leaders. People knew that Marduk fought. There are five known beings who were called Marduk, that is, "Great God." Some low-vibration plasmoids were also called by this name.

Maria Devi Christ

Contactee. A person who contacted Christ and His mother. But when she contacted Him, she first correctly transmitted information, energy, and then became proud that people glorified her. What does it mean to become proud? She forgot that there is a source of all the good that came to her. She began to treat people arrogantly, get irritated with them, get offended when they criticized her. And because of this, she lowered her vibrations. Christ, naturally, as with any person who falls into low vibrations, continued to contact. Maria did not want to continue communication, especially since then those plasmoid civilizations came to her, who introduced themselves as Christ, so that she could create some organization with the help of which she could instill fear, for example, with the imminent end of the world and receive certain energies.

#439, 42:53

Mary Magdalene

A spirit incarnated in the body of a woman who was born in the north of Israel and later joined a group of people who danced for someone, as a dancer. She earned more through a sinful lifestyle. She had contacts with men and at the same time was engaged in dancing. She was healed by Jesus from seven demons. Christ gave her the ability to see her soul and cleanse it, to cultivate the Kingdom of Heaven in herself. She did not write memoirs. She had two daughters. She died a natural death due to heart disease, which was caused by worries about her husband, who ended up in prison, in a dungeon for preaching Christ.

There were no more known incarnations. The current incarnation is known only to a few people.

#400

Mars

The planet, which the inhabitants of Mars themselves called Eltorar, which means “perfect world”, that is, a world without excess, ideal.

There was a climate similar to the modern Earth climate, there was a change of seasons. Unlike Venus and Earth, there was a cold season, when snow fell in temperate latitudes and at the poles. The climate was basically similar to the Earth's, but it was a little colder, but not like now. Roughly, it resembled the Earth during the so-called Ice Age. There were wide belts of temperate climate, wider than on Earth. And there was a narrow tropical belt around the equator. Nevertheless, there was liquid water, there was precipitation, winds, it snowed, and, accordingly, there were bodies of water that froze, as happens on Earth.

Due to the fact that Mars has less gravity than Earth, its atmosphere was initially thinner. But before human settlement, it was saturated with ozone, which creates a screen from both solar radiation and loss of atmosphere. A deterrent. Plus, carbon dioxide was added, which helped warm the planet, creating an additional greenhouse effect, which in that case was beneficial. The average temperature of the planet increased. The jungles were not the jungles that grow in tropical latitudes, but forests with intertwined vines. They grew in a moderate climate and shed their leaves for the winter, that is, they were similar to earthly forms.

The length of day and night was about twenty-five and a half hours, which made up a day, and about two years, minus two months, was the length of a year. Mars then had a different rotation speed.

#426

Masons

A secret organization created with the purpose of attempting to secretly control all economic and political issues on Earth. Initially, Freemasonry was created as a monastic-knightly order. Now - people who really only disguise themselves with religious ideas. Among them, there are many people who do not believe in anything, a lot of cynicism, hypocrisy.

#146, 17:06

Master Kuthumi

A spirit that is currently not embodied. He is an Angel, his last life was embodied on Esler, where MidgasKaus now lives. Master Kuthumi comes to contact and is the keeper of the egregors on the planet where he was embodied last time. On Earth, he contacts in alliance with the Eslerians and Shimorians, with close civilizations. He is their patron.

#169, 58:56

Materialization

Creation of certain objects, of a certain shape, density, mass, physical parameters, chemical parameters from the energy of subtle-material civilizations. They provide energy for this. A person puts in his energy, and they condense it, collect it.

Moving through walls. Disappearing in one place and appearing in another.

#258, 01:03, #309, 01:48:35, #310, 01:48:35

Materialism

A worldview where the incarnate spirit lives to a greater extent by the interests of satisfying the instincts of its body and tunes the vibrations of its spirit to the vibrations of its body completely. And for it, perception changes in the sense that it, even as a spirit, begins to consider itself a product of matter. Many people do not want to hear about spirituality because they have not yet gone through the path of materialism. They must realize that there is no spiritual meaning in matter itself, that is, it is finite. It disintegrates into constituent elements, which become elements for other bodies. One of the tasks of incarnation is to get rid of the materialistic perception.

#181, 33:34, #33, 01:55

Material reality

What you see in the external world: objects, people. Material reality comes from spiritual reality, gradually unfolding through the levels of density of subtle reality.

#180, 10:30

Material vibrations

Various electromagnetic waves, Schumann waves, light, sound, radiation. On Earth they are measured by devices based on the resonance effect.

#92, 06:07

Material world

The world that does not constitute the whole reality, but one of the infinitely small facets of the true reality of the spiritual world. If the embodied spirit lives by the interests of its body, its flesh, from an esoteric point of view - the work of the three lower energy centers, then for it the material world becomes completely real, and the spiritual world, unfortunately, an illusion.

The material world consists of 59 levels of density. The Divine Light, or rather one of Its waves, begins to lower its vibrations by Its will, and first the 56th level of the subtle-material world is obtained, then the 55th, and so on, until the entire subtle-material world, which consists of 56 levels of density, unfolds. There are no atoms there yet, there are no molecules, etc., there are only energies, but in those worlds we can already incarnate, live our lives, gain our experience.

The material world was created so that we could, depending on our level, either develop, that is, develop Divine qualities in ourselves (love, courage, kindness, generosity, and so on), or manifest in this material world the qualities already accumulated in ourselves in other Worlds. In Worlds with more subtle bodies than ours, the physical one.

#17, 02:56

Atoms, particles, quanta, etc., representing divine energy in different vibrations.

#30, 19:31

Matter

Everything that is included in substances, that is, everything that consists of atoms. Simply put, everything that is included in the periodic table. It is divided into dense and subtle matter. A substance that has the property of variability through a function of time. The ability of matter to change its properties gives the intelligent spirit the opportunity to change through its manifestation in the material world. Matter is the material for creation. So that the children of God, his small parts, could become like Him. For this, He gave people matter so that they could embody in it and use it to create their worlds. Someone builds from bricks, someone builds from molecules.

Mother (Mother) of the world

A concept that includes the definition of several entities and intelligent spirits. For example, the spirit that was embodied in the Mother of God (Virgin Mary), she also calls herself the Mother of the entire Universe. Saraswati, the entity that is now embodied in the world of the 38th density level, in the approximate projection of the center of the Milky Way Galaxy, also calls herself the Mother of the world.

#202, 23:10

Royal jelly

A product containing substances that are produced to feed the queen and her larvae. It comes in two types: for regular larvae and for queen bees. The one for queen bees can be several dozen times higher in hormone content. Royal jelly contains a lot of female hormones. It can be used to stimulate metabolism, immunity, and regenerate nerve cells. It can be used as a stimulant for the reproductive organs for both women and men. It enhances reproductive capacity, conception, sexual desire, pleasure, and all experiences during sexual intercourse. It is, of course, advisable not to swallow it, but to keep it in your mouth under your tongue. There are many blood vessels there that absorb all the substances, and the gastric juice destroys them. It can be diluted with honey, as it has a rather specific and unpleasant taste for many. The usual dosage is 30 g per day, 5–10 g before meals. It can be placed under the tongue until completely dissolved.

#255, 35:32, 37:11

Burhad matrix

An energy-information matrix that is intended specifically for earthlings. So that everyone who wants to has the opportunity through the matrix built into the aura of a person, namely a person (with his number of chakras, with his energy structure, with genetics characteristic of earthlings) to connect at a distance to the noosphere of this planet and send questions there, receive answers, an increase in their energy, mental capabilities. It strengthens the spiritual channel for communication with the non-embodied part of the spirit that every humanoid, plasmoid has (it is simply present in different percentages).

#370, 35:41

Gariaev's Matrices

Information, sound, wave matrices, replicas; information from substances of natural origin, as well as from children's photographs in which the child is healthy and happy. Any object, any photograph, any substance contains information on the etheric level about this substance or this person. There is a device called an "etheric wave reader", that is, an etheric converter. It does this with the help of a beam of light, a certain wave and a certain luminescence intensity. The beam does not just run along the surface of this object, it does not stand still. It makes movements. But these movements are only chaotic at first glance, they repeat the outlines of the etheric matrix of this object. If we are talking about artificial substances, the same medicines, for example, then any medicine has an energy component in which the effect of this substance is recorded. A photograph contains energy. When a person is photographed, his image contains information about his life energy at the moment when he was photographed.

Maha - Mantra

A verbal formula for communication, contact of the human spirit with the spirit of Krishna, wherever it may be, cleansing the mind from passions and vices, cleansing the heart from harmful desires, helping to connect with one's spirit.

"Maha" means "Great".

Each word "Ha-re" is not accidental. The syllable means "Eternal Spirit", not in Sanskrit, but in an older language. "The soul is eternal."

One who utters "Hare Krishna" accepts that his soul is as eternal as Krishna, that they are one. If this is said constantly, even mentally, then there will be no room in the mind for thoughts that lead to a materialistic understanding of the world and to base material desires that lower vibrations.

This is strengthening in the Light, strengthening of willpower.

#309, 01:09:55, #310, 01:09:55

Time Machine

The technology of moving a humanoid in time does not exist even in the Interstellar Union. So far, there are only some successes in moving objects. In order to move a living person into the past, his body must be converted into a wave form and moved back in time. The only way to get into the past without a physical body is astral travel, in which you cannot influence what is happening, but can only observe from the side, as a spirit.

#59, 45:05

Alien medicine

Preventive medicine. Cells are already programmed at the genetic level to resist a particular microflora, and DNA also changes. They can change individual sections themselves, at conception. When a child is born, any pathogenic microbe that gets to it will be neutralized during the first 10 cell divisions. It is simply recognized by the tissue macrophages themselves. The immune system will also protect. This will be an analogue of vaccination, only not a vaccine, but at the genetic level and from everything at once. DNA is now being changed at the genetic level. Also, each child is injected into the blood when he is already born, a solution containing a suspension of nanochips. They are invisible to the eye, they are like little robots. They are distributed throughout all organs and tissues, throughout all vessels and observe. For example, they have the function of recognizing the composition of the blood where they are located. They can recognize, for example, contamination of a vessel and clean it: emit certain impulses, and there will be no blockage in it, no thrombus. The penetration of microbes can also be recognized by these chips and a colony of leukocyte analogues will be directed there by special signals.

There are devices that can treat a person who is sick with something other than microbes. If a humanoid is injured or its immunity is weakened by some harmful factor, then the natural immune defense can also decrease, and ordinary microbes that are harmless to everyone can penetrate. To treat such disorders or poisoning (maybe he ate something on another planet), there are energy installations that change the frequencies of organs, reconfigure. They can work not only with physical bodies, but even at a distance, for example, with astral bodies, directing certain energies. Each organ has its own frequency and it models a special field. Vibrations increase, but they are in resonance with the organ. You can come in the mental body, in the astral body and enter this device to receive harmonization and healing of subtle bodies. Then return to the physical body and transfer this energy there. And let all the organs be harmonized.

#316, 43:52

Medical hypnosis

Creating a certain image so that a person believes in it and heals himself. Earthlings, in official medicine, use it only as an auxiliary means. But it can be made the main one, especially when finding out the spiritual cause of diseases and a little support with medications during the acute period of the disease.

A spaceship for traveling between galaxies. It operates on a special engine that uses the energy of free vacuum.

Intergalactic Medical Service

Special detachments of astral travelers from humanoid worlds and special detachments of plasmoids who visit the Earth in their subtle bodies to help the incarnated spirits on it in the third level of density to harmonize themselves with space, time and with their bodies.

Interstellar Union

The main body regulating relations between civilizations of the Milky Way Galaxy, which, according to established tradition, includes civilizations of the humanoid type only. It includes 116 civilizations out of 727 existing in the Milky Way Galaxy. The capital of the MS is located in the Cygnus Constellation and has existed for over 15 million years. There is no single ruler in the MS, there is a chairman of the Interstellar Union, he changes depending on the goal of the MS. There, at the moment, are 117 civilizations, that is, 117 planets, not counting colonies, counting only the central planets that have colonies, but for each colony, for its view, policy in the Interstellar Union, its parent planet is responsible. Not each of the 117 planets has decentralized power, where everyone has the right to vote in some matters. On Burkhad, Daraal and Tumesout there is a single ruler, but there is a Council under him.

In the Interstellar Union there is liberalism in opinions, in religious views, there is no habit, custom of arguing with each other or somehow persuading. Everyone is an individual, freely expressing their opinion. Even if they contradict each other. There is no ban on contact with someone, this is considered a personal matter of the humanoid. If he is on the path of destruction, psychological spiritual destruction, you can only suggest how to get out of this state, but if there is a request for it.

It is not accepted to force to be good, as long as certain known laws of the Interstellar Union related to actions are not violated. There are no forbidden thoughts or forbidden ideologies in society. As long as a person follows the laws of the Interstellar Union, he is free to profess any faith, any ideology and adhere to them. This is personal, like freedom of conscience.

Interdimensional energy

One of the types of subtle etheric energy, which consists of energies of two levels.

Macro level – cubes or crystals in which part of the plasmoid worlds exist.

Micro level – microstructures according to which intermolecular lattices are built in different substances.

The energetic and physical properties of the substance itself depend on the type of these bonds and the arrangement of molecules and atoms in space.

#246, 34:51

Melanin

A hormone that exists not in a single number, there are many types. Basically, it is produced by the pineal gland, the pineal gland. According to the knowledge of the Interstellar Union, there are 6 types of melanin. The main function of melanin is to desynchronize the astral and physical bodies so that they can disconnect and connect back, regulating emotional processes. When the spirit experiences any emotions, certain hormones are produced in it. And in order to metabolize these hormones so that they are removed from the cells, dopamine, melanin and other substances must be released. Earth doctors use huge doses of melanin to treat sleep deficiency syndrome. In an acidic gastric environment, melanin, like any protein, will be broken down into amino acids. And, naturally, it can be introduced through the oral cavity membrane, in injections. The melanin that is artificially created in factories penetrates the blood-brain barrier by several percent. And it does not have the same effect as the natural one produced by the brain itself. Because melanin, in its molecular structure and the architectonics of its molecular connections with other hormones, is completely unique to the body of the person where it is created.

Mercury
A planet with a white Sun, five times larger than the Earth's, and a dark purple sky. Around the Sun there are what appear to be tongues of flame and spots on it that move slowly, as if the wind were blowing them away, and they are irregular in shape.
On the sunny side of Mercury there is a high temperature, about 500 degrees, and on the night side the temperature drops very low. There is a very long day and a long night. A year on Mercury is about three Earth months, because it rotates around the Sun very quickly. In craters, in depressions and holes there are even places where dry ice from carbon dioxide lies, there are depressions where it does not melt even on the sunny side, the sun's rays simply do not penetrate there. Mercury has an atmosphere, thin, but it is there. There is also oxygen, only a few percent. There is a magnetic field, it is smaller than the Earth's.

Repentance, changing the mind. In order for a request for forgiveness, regret for what was done to lead to a change in the mind, it is necessary to realize that what a person did is really bad, that it leads to degradation and harmful consequences for others and himself, to a decrease in vibrations to the degree of inability to feel and adequately perceive the Love and Light of God. To realize bad deeds, to change the mind in the spiritual heart of a person, a few minutes may be enough, or a whole life may not be enough.

Metida

One of Zeus's wives, the prototype was his only wife Cephastis, a Burkhad humanoid named Agoranias. She visited her husband at the Earth base six times, and since she made visits over a period of several hundred years, on different ships and in different clothes, she gave rise to the myth that Zeus had many wives. There was a legend that Metis predicted to Zeus that she would bear him a son who would surpass him. When she became pregnant, Zeus put her to sleep with sweet words and swallowed her. After that, after some time, a girl was born from his head - his daughter Athena, who combined the wisdom of her father and mother. Behind the legend is an image of dominance, he ate - it means that his energy absorbed someone else's. If Zeus absorbed his wife, then Agoranias completely dedicated her life to Cephastis. The daughter inherited her father's intelligence genetically, and during her upbringing, her parents passed on their wisdom to her.

Mechanism of vaccination

The interaction of the vaccine introduced into the body with lymphocytes that secrete antibodies and not just secrete them, but remember how to secrete them. Because against any microbe, against any bacterium, against any virus, not the same antibodies must be developed, but their own, because all microorganisms consist of different proteins, which means that the antibodies that neutralize them must be different. When the body is infected, it gets a virulent infection, that is, one that has the full power to infect cells. Then (this is especially true for viruses, a virus is characterized by the fact that, having entered the body in a small dose, it first hides inside the cells), the immune system does not recognize it. And only when the cell is completely destroyed, not one or three viruses that got in come out of it, but dozens and hundreds that were formed there.

Microgravity (internal nuclear forces)

That which allows objects that can be seen and felt for their structure and density through skin receptors not to be gas and in a more diffuse state. That which attracts them to each other and allows molecules to be built according to certain systems. Each substance has a molecular lattice - the structure of the substance, which is built according to its own laws and individual for each substance. Energy that allows atoms to combine into dense structures. In other words, intranuclear interaction.

Gravity, which affects space, due to which planetary systems, star systems are created, and every two bodies are attracted to each other by a force directly proportional to the product of their mass. This property of atoms affects space.

Brain ((human)

A means of manifestation of personality in the material world. Works almost 100%. If you look at the neural network, then to one degree or another all neurons are involved in the work. But not all of it is noticeable to consciousness. Many brain cells are busy regulating, for example, the autonomic nervous system. They are busy regulating the transmission of neurohumoral signals from the internal organs to the brain. And then through it to the embodied spirit, which is connected to it by consciousness, and in the opposite direction. Many neurons of the brain are busy, for example, comparing the sound picture of the world that arises in the auditory cortex of the brain, and the visual picture of the world that arises in the visual cortex of the brain. And this still needs to be compared with each other. To this are added the receptors of the olfactory cortex of the brain, the taste, gravitational and so on. There are several of them, and all this needs to be compared into a single picture of the world in which the spirit can receive information, develop and make some decisions. 10-15% is the part of the brain's neural network that participates in conscious activity. The rest participates in the reactions of the body and internal organs. Each cell of the brain contains the energy of the spirit. Energies in the spirit: the energy of consciousness, the energy of will, and the energy of emotions.

Moses

A contactee with the planet Tumesout, who lived on Earth about 4 thousand years ago, to whom the Tumesoutians during physical contacts in a simple mythological form, accessible to his level of consciousness, transmitted information. At the same time, a spaceship of the Tumesoutians physically descended on the mountain. Since at that time there was no technical progress on Earth, then all who descended from the sky were Gods for Moses. The Tumesoutians did not convince him otherwise, since it was easier for undeveloped people to give knowledge in mythological form than to explain to them about the existence of space, other planets, and so on.

A molecule

An electrically neutral particle formed from two or more atoms bound by covalent bonds. In physics, molecules also include monatomic molecules, i.e. free atoms. Recent experiments by scientists (1999, 2003 and 2019) prove that molecules also have a dual nature (wave-particle), like the elementary particles (protons-neutrons-electrons) of which it consists. This is an important discovery that allows us to theoretically prove that the DNA molecule can have quantum properties, for example, be modulated and transmitted like a wave.

#246, 34:51

Molecular lattice

A certain structure of matter, which is formed according to its own laws, individual for each substance. This is how microgravity manifests itself.

#17, 14:51, 17:32

Molecular destructor

A stone cutting device given to us by aliens for building houses. It was used to build pyramids. It comes in large and small sizes, with different power.

The action occurs due to certain waves that affect the third energy level in atoms. Microgravity begins to attract the energies of the first level and from this the atoms are destabilized, they are no longer attracted to each other, but disintegrate.

Prayer

An appeal to God as one intelligent entity to another intelligent entity, or to a saint. An energetic connection to a certain egregor when reading with faith in those mentioned in the prayer and the desire to fulfill what is said there. When reading a prayer, energy is invested and the etheric, astral, mental body and aura shell are changed. It is not the words that are important, but the feelings invested in the prayer. To protect against low-vibration entities, pronounce them with faith in God, with love for people, for yourself and for the entities themselves. A state of Divine presence. When a person looks at the world around him as a manifestation of his energy.

The main thing is to say the prayer in high vibrations and with full trust, that is, with hope in the will of God, because hope and trust in the will of God presuppose humility. But hope and trust in the will of God should not destroy one's own efforts and actions to build one's life and achieve one's goals.

The prayer must be filled with Light and Love. If a person with low vibrations speaks, it can dissipate in the Astral.

A race on whose planets and colonies armed conflicts between states never cease. And its spaceships, that is, not automatic probes, but spaceships with living humanoids on board, do not leave the limits of the star system.

#317, 40:34

Youth

State of the soul. In fact, youth is quite independent of the physical body. This state of the soul can be in a person of any age. This is not the state of the physical body, because youth is, first of all, optimism, the desire to know the world and create, and to create in it the right divine wise things. This is the youth of the soul.

#273, 00:20

Monad

The unchangeable particle of the spirit. It is unchangeable not because there is no will to change it, but because it is called "godlikeness". The Unchangeable Light is always on, it manifests itself in different ways, depending on the lowering of vibrations.

#203, 43:46

A monk

Lonely hermit.

#62, 02:01

Monotheism

Monotheism, which appeared when monotheistic egregors had already begun to form. These egregors are considered energetically stronger than egregors where there is polytheism, because in them the attention of people is distributed between priests of different gods, they fight among themselves, and from this the egregor becomes weak.

By calling God by one name, one calls one of his countless energies. Therefore, all monotheistic religions are like a collection of books written about one and the same being, about his energies, his actions, but by different people in different eras and with different worldview combinations of meanings.

In order to form a monotheistic religion, firstly, there must be some specific contactee who will transmit information openly, despite the resistance of the priestly class, which can be quite strong, and even more so, priests are often pushed to resist by plasmoids, who are deprived of their victims, because people are converted to a monotheistic cult.

This new prophet of the new monotheistic faith must be from a fairly high level, naturally, not only by birth, but also by the spiritual level achieved. He must be a fairly sociable, courageous, decisive and in some ways even a tough person, because a person of a different character, his egregor will be quickly destroyed by certain forces that will resist the introduction of the new cult of the monotheistic religion through people.

This is always a contact at the level of personality-personality. In rare cases, there are several more contactees in the environment of the main contactee who can transmit information at the same level, and they will not compete with each other.

The purpose of creating monotheistic egregors in the noosphere of the Earth is to unite the people with a single idea, to direct energy towards the development of spirituality and love.

#184, 01:00:03

Goosebumps

A sign of increased vibrations on the physical level, for example, during prayer, as a consequence of increased spiritual vibrations. That is, a person passes into the Light and his physical body begins to react to this. This is also a sign of high sensitivity, since not everyone can feel something like this on the physical level.

#97, 07:25

The purring of a cat

A signal that she is making contact. Cats have very good contact with plasmoid civilizations. They can see those entities that are near you, and even spiritual and plasmoid entities. They have very good spiritual vision. That is, their animal soul can be tuned to this channel and penetrate where people who have not developed spiritual vision cannot penetrate with their gaze. When cats purr, they call their patrons from plasmoid civilizations to contact them so that they pass healing energies through them. They do the same for their children. In contact with you, they love you with the same love as their children or parents, depending on the age of the cat.

#216, 50:19

Murthy

Deities in India, which are made of stone. In these deities lives the energy of those plasmoids and spiritual beings, as well as the energy and life force of believers who pray to the gods before them. And this spiritual force charges the murti by analogy with Christian icons. In Hinduism, murti are also charged with the energy of believers and the energy of these light entities (plasmoids, spiritual beings). They have the property of raising the vibrations of a person, i.e. instilling optimism in him, strengthening his faith, filling him with love, especially if the person himself coincides with them with his vibrations.

#326, 20:43

Mutation

Distortion of the divine image. Harmful mutations that lead to the degradation of the body are always a distortion of the divine image. The distortion begins at the mental level.

Virus mutations

Changes in the genetic apparatus of the virus.

Speaking specifically about coronavirus, the change in the genetic apparatus of coronavirus does not affect those proteins to which antibodies should be produced, from which antigens for vaccinations are made. That is, even a mutated virus will still have those proteins to which antibodies will be produced. The only thing is that other proteins will be produced there, so the effectiveness of the vaccine from 90% for people may fall to 65-70%, but it will still be there.

#301,18:56

Mohammed

The spirit of the prophet. Currently on the 22nd level. His task was to create monotheism and unite tribes that spoke different dialects and believed in different gods under the name of one God. To make a strong nation so that it could develop and through it spirits would incarnate to build cities, create their own civilization.

#293

Muhurta

A section in astrology devoted to choosing a favorable time to start any activity. Muhurta is translated as an hour. The result of an activity depends on the time of its beginning, but this understanding comes from the Spiritual world. In the plan of incarnation, there are certain branches. They are visible on the Timeline, it is clear to what events these branches will lead.

#354, 06:30

Thought form

Real formations. There are thought forms of resentment, anger, jealousy, envy, etc. From the astral space they are visible as some dark colored ribbons, cords or some clouds. Our intelligent spirit, which has incarnated into the earthly body, is able to create some thought form with its thoughts, charging it with its own life force, and it gives it some consciousness. In the future, if this thought form is negative, it will provoke it to similar thoughts.

#28, 29:55, #401, 01:01:12

Thinking substance in the body

The intelligent spirit, which manifests itself through the physical body, through the brain. And the brain, in turn, controls the entire body. That cellular intelligence, which is at the level of the cell, the intelligence of the organs are, one might say, parts of that image of the body, which is in the spirit.

Communicating with your body, you can communicate with each cell. You can ask it something, you can get an answer. You can communicate with some organ, not with the cell itself, but with that part of the soul, with that part of the Higher Self, with that part that is responsible for the functioning of the body. It simply communicates through the image of this organ. Because through the organ the consciousness of the embodied spirit is easiest to tune, since you specifically address the organ or specifically the cell, you receive an answer from them. The spirit thinks and makes decisions, but it does this through the body.

Consciousness is the energy of the spirit, where the perception of oneself and the surrounding world, where it is. Consciousness, in order to perceive the world, one might say, charges the brain to the last cell. It charges it with itself. And through the brain, through the body receptors - eyes, ears, skin, tongue, nose, it reads the space where a person is, in general, through his body, through his sense of body position, sense of gravity, and so on. And as soon as consciousness reads this space, for example, through the eyes, consciousness reads information about where he is, what objects are around him, but in the form that the physical body can perceive, what are the capabilities of its receptors. Consciousness makes a decision, perceives and transmits information to thinking.

#344, 31:45

Thinking

The ability of the mind to process information and make decisions. Thinking produces thoughts.

#344, 31:45, #345, 30:12

Animal Thinking

The ability to fixate on the perception that is happening around the animal at the moment and the direction of its behavior depending on instinct. There is no decision-making function.

An animal is capable of sacrificing its life for another instinct. For example, the instinct to protect its owner. But an animal is not capable of sacrificing its life for an abstract idea.

An animal is determined by instincts and controlled by them.

#283, 01:13:30

Prayed icon

An image, an icon, in which a lot of energy is invested: human thoughts, thought forms... Light thought forms: love, happiness, faith, patience. When a person does not simply pronounce words mechanically, but addresses God with feeling, and these feelings on the astral level come out of his aura and charge the surrounding objects (especially the one to which the person is paying attention at that moment).

#36, 22:47

Nargipulza

Plasmoid (Pleiades Constellation). Looks like a white hemisphere, from which rays emerge, spreading in a circle, like the Sun at sunrise. Inside there are three horizontal parallel stripes. This is part of the subtle body, which is aimed at contact with people. Rays are the energies of error correction in human cell codes. Representative of the plasmoid civilization of the 24th density level.

#388

A teacher

In the classical understanding, the one who instructs, gives instructions of a spiritual nature. Any person can be a mentor for another person. And any spirit that has appeared (if a spiritual being) or any subtle material entity can also be, in the broad sense of the word, a mentor. Even if it brings some negativity, some damage, in any case, it instructs a person by its behavior to build his behavior and his energy in such a way as to increase his and its vibrations. In the Interstellar Union, a type of curator, a non-embodied intelligent spirit from the 22nd level and above, who selected this incarnation for the spirit that incarnated into a person (contactee), gives him instructions about the spiritual world, helping to realize the goals of the incarnation.

Unconditional love

Pure divine love, the energy of which is given depending on some conditions. This happens because a person initially, even in childhood, fences himself off from that light of wisdom with negative emotional blocks, therefore he begins to understand love incorrectly, illusorily. He has an illusion that love depends on conditions. Why this is an illusion becomes clear if we imagine all manifestations of material energy in the world as a manifestation of love. For example, a river is also a form of divine energy, namely, dense-material energy in the form of water. And any person can use this energy for their own benefit - to swim, to have fun, health, to catch fish, etc. This energy will not differ for any person, regardless of whether he loves God, believes in Him or not. God gives everyone the same energy of a river, sunlight, etc. All energies are given by God unconditionally. But, since a person on Earth often separates himself from God, considers himself completely autonomous, does not strive to become like God, then a person can consider that he receives energy from God unconditionally, but will give it himself under certain conditions. Often such an attitude is formed in childhood, when parents raise a child in the spirit that if you do not do what I want, I will reject you. Or, on the contrary, children behave towards their parents or teachers in such a way that if you do not give me something, I will not give my love, I will not talk, etc.

#307, 44:23

A person who has not undergone the connection with the Christian egregor that occurs during the rite of baptism.

#234, 41:47

Necrotic bindings

Connections with your loved ones and relatives that are formed when you think about them. They cause negative consequences.

Light Love, light memories, wishes for the spirit of incarnations or stay with God in the Heavenly Kingdom do not form an attachment. They are formed by melancholy, lack of resignation to death, regret. Strong pity for a person who has left the incarnation also forms a necrotic attachment. Especially if the spirit itself has ended up on the lower level of demonic or even middle worlds. But if the spirit has ended up on the Angelic level, it is impossible to form a negative attachment to it. If a person tries to do this, then the Spirit-Angel will feel it, it will sympathize with this person, but will not allow this attachment to be attached to itself. Because for it this energy is negative. It will close itself with Light.

But if a person continues to direct these energies, negative, destructive plasmoids can sense them and take on the image of the deceased and connect to this person. This will already be a connection to destructive plasmoids. It has slightly different consequences, more related not to energy, but to the influence on consciousness.

And if this is a necrotic attachment to the spirit, then it also affects the energy, because unlike the plasmoid, the spirit cannot send vital energy to a person. It does not have it. It can send spiritual energy, but not vital, ethereal energy. Therefore, a person, if he has a necrotic attachment, irrevocably gives away his vital forces, his ethereal energy, which should go to his development, the life of his body, the work of the immune system, the brain. A person begins to quickly lose strength, his cells begin to age faster, and not just age, but to deteriorate, immunity decreases, diseases often occur. All this is due to a lack of vital energy, and especially in the organ that is located directly in the place where the necrotic attachment is attached. It can be attached anywhere.

The spirit itself, to which the necrotic attachment is attached, cannot, is not capable of freeing itself from it. It becomes dependent on this energy, which comes to it from a living person, and this delays its development. After all, along with the energy, a person sends negative feelings and emotions, which have already been mentioned. They are felt by the spirit itself, which in this case is the receiver of this energy, and this spirit constantly has memories of the past, of earthly life, associated with this donor person. This prevents it from developing, prevents it from analyzing its incarnation, planning the next incarnation, and delays it at one level. And since this prevents another spirit from developing, the donor person also has karmic responsibility for this, that is, karma. Therefore, it is always recommended to cleanse oneself from such attachments.

The human nervous system

The human system is tuned specifically to transmit an electrochemical signal, which is obtained through the use of adenosine triphosphate. It splits off the remainder of phosphoric acid from itself and because of this, energy is released, which is converted into electrical form, as an impulse. And this impulse is sent along the myelin threads, which consist of a special protein, so that the body carries out the commands of the brain, and through the brain - the commands of the spirit.

No other frequency can interfere with this. It can't enter this nerve, spread through the myelin, it's not electrochemical.

Oil (education)

Oil on Earth can be formed in several ways, depending on where it is. If some small animals, insects and plant matter were buried under the ground as a result of some catastrophe, for example (the earth layer turned over and buried it, like during a flood). All of this was left without access to oxygen, air and light. The microorganisms that were there can slowly begin to process everything to the state of such a mass, where only separate chains with combustible substances exist, which you call hydrocarbons. These are carbon chains with hydrogen attached to it in completely different modifications. There is also sulfur, phosphorus compounds, all the substances that were previously in the proteins of organisms, but they disintegrated under conditions of oxygen-free decomposition. You call this "dead organic matter", the most diverse. There could even be bodies of living beings that died as a result of a catastrophe or as a result of natural death. They lay on the ground, later they were flooded with water, a swamp was formed, they went into the ground, and decomposition began there. Such are the ways of formation.

There is another option, when a reaction occurs between sea water and those substances that are below the seabed. They touch. Under the seabed there are channels where water is poured, and there are slow reactions that also collect carbon and hydrogen from these rocks. A similar substance is obtained, only not from organic matter, but from these substances.

That is, oil deposits are possible even where there were no living creatures. For example, under the seabed. And on other planets, the formation of such reactions is also possible.

Nibiru

A manned ship of alien races, a fleet that orbits the Solar System, named after the lost planet Phaeton (Nibiru), which was destroyed by the Selbetians 12,000 years ago. Several kilometers in diameter, spherical in shape. Externally similar to a planet. Representatives of Sirius live on the ship.

On the planet that was called Nibiru in Tumesout (which was between Mars and Jupiter at the time, and which was later destroyed), there was the main base of the Tumesout people. That's why they named it in their language. When the ships attacked (and there were quite a lot of them), some of the ships flew to Nibiru. They understood that if they were just going to destroy people now, they wouldn't be allowed to do it, because there were bases where there were other ships that could protect them. Therefore, some of the ships separated from the main mass and flew to Nibiru, where the Tumesout bases were. Nibiru was their large base. The first ships reached Nibiru and the impact of this weapon was initially directed at the Tumesout bases on Nibiru, which was not a colony, and no one was resettled there. Their specialists simply lived there. When they hit this planet, they didn't have time to defend themselves from this blow, and it simply shattered into 4 large fragments. And, in fact, those meteorites that most often fall on Earth are parts of the planet Nibiru, in your opinion – Phaeton.

Low vibrations

Low-frequency energy formed from the energies of fear, hatred, envy, jealousy and other low energies. From their long cultivation, energy blocks are formed in the etheric body, moving to the astral plane, then to the etheric, mental, etc. These energy blocks create negative thought forms that provoke a person to further create the same negative emotions. Metabolic processes in cells are disrupted at the cellular and subcellular levels. This can cause psychosomatic diseases.

#27, 11:03

Low vibration (parasitic) plasmoids

Plasmoid civilizations that can instill fear in people through their contactees, frighten them with various disasters, the onset of the end of the world, negative information about reptilians, insectoids, chemtrails and other things. In this case, it is necessary to distinguish between spiritual and material vibrations. Higher vibrations of the subtle body of a plasmoid do not always indicate its high spiritual vibrations.

Nicholas II

The last Russian emperor. Is on the 16th level of spiritual development. Came into incarnation from the third level. In his previous life, he was incarnated where the constellation Ursa Major is, on that side, he was also a ruler. A war began between states, between countries, he left his people and went over to the side of the enemy. Many intelligent beings died, he led an army that acted against his own people. Therefore, he ended up on the third level. The task of the last incarnation was such that the country would develop and not allow a revolution. There was a possibility that it would not happen. Since Nicholas II did not fulfill this task, then after the revolution happened, the task changed. His personal task became to forgive those who committed evil against the entire country. He partially fulfilled this task, therefore he did not get to the level of Angels. If he had made other decisions, there would have been no revolution. If he had made decisions in time, which, for example, Pyotr Stolypin spoke about. He was slow to make them, he believed that the introduction of these laws would shake the government. If they had been accepted in time, there would have been no reason to rebel and overthrow, and then drown the workers and peasants who were promised a better life in blood. They promised the best, but arranged terror and destruction a hundred times greater than all the emperors of the Romanov dynasty. The goal of the future incarnation is to be born as a boy in a simple family in order to develop in oneself purposefulness, activity and the ability to insist on one's position, because this was lacking in the past life. The task of the future incarnation will be to develop in oneself the ability to say "no", the ability to go all the way, to defend one's interests.

Thread of life

Part of the human etheric body. It consists of etheric energy and supports life in the physical body during astral exits from the body, including during sleep. During astral travel, part of the etheric body remains with the physical body, part goes into the astral with the astral body. In this case, parts of the etheric body are connected by a thread. The human etheric body is tuned to his personal vibrations, therefore the etheric thread of each person has a special vibration frequency and never gets entangled with the threads of other people. For the same reason, no astral body will get into another physical body upon returning.

#332, 11:21, #421, 33:22

Nostradamus

A spirit currently incarnated on the planet of the "Order of Six", where reptilians live, who interact with people on the astral plane and destructively set them up for self-destruction.

#486, 08:10

Wearing a pectoral cross

The good will of a person, that is, he outwardly shows everyone else that he belongs to the Christian egregor.

Numerology

Knowing the characteristics of numbers, qualities, symbols of which these numbers and planets, displaying these numbers, are. It is possible to understand by calculations, by special formulas, what qualities of the spirit are lacking for spiritual development, what it has come to develop in itself, what to transform, process, get rid of their negative manifestations, and so on.

The closest celestial bodies that influence the body and the Soul (through the body, naturally) are the Sun and the Moon. The Sun, as the closest star, influences all life. It makes life possible in general. Even the rising and setting of the Sun influences, first of all, the physical body – heat, cold. Secondly – the mood, for example, when the Sun is hidden behind the clouds, the mood is completely different. The Moon, rising in different configurations with the Sun, i.e. opposite the Sun, between the Sun and the Earth, or vice versa, causes the movement of liquids not only in the seas and oceans, but also in your body, and even in every plant. This is not to mention the fact that changes also occur in the astral world because the magnetic fields change from the movement of the Moon and from the change in its position relative to the Earth. There is an increase in astral energy already in the astral worlds.

Other planets, which are more distant, they influence, simply rotating around the Sun in certain orbits. They even influence each other, for example, if Jupiter and Mars are next to each other in the same constellation, and this constellation is behind the Sun relative to the Earth, then it will be so that the magnetic fields of these planets will interact with the magnetic field of the Sun more than usual. And all this will influence the Earth.

ABOUT

An insult

A feeling of attitude towards oneself, towards a person or towards a situation, when one person wants to change the behavior of another, without taking into account his individual life goals, his tasks. This is similar to egoism, only to the feeling of egoism is added such aggression as anger.

This differs from the emotion of anger in that the emotion of anger passes quickly, while resentment exists for a long time. It exists in the heart and can form blocks faster. Resentment must be forgiven, because forgiveness is the recognition of Light in a person and the wish for him to be happy, to be loved, to be loving.

Resentment is the lack of recognition of Light in a person, because the word “resentment” refers to many different states.

#393, 08:20

Inhabitants of planet Earth

All spirits that go to incarnate on this planet, plasmoids and humanoids. They are divided among themselves by density and are perceived by other extraterrestrial civilizations as a single whole, that is, those who are sent to incarnate specifically on Earth.

#23, 07:47

Image (attractor)

That which forms the goal by which society or an individual or a group of people in any religious or political egregor, or even in the egregor of a separate family, moves. There is a hidden or open image.

The development of a society, or more specifically, of a separate country, proceeds at a rapid pace only if the image created by its ideologists, political leaders and those who support them is understandable to the majority of the people and is supported by their inner spiritual heart and desire.

#235, 14:57

The image of the God of Thunder (Perun, Odin, Jupiter, Indra)

An image that originally came from aliens and later merged with weather phenomena.

#197, 14:49

Figurative perception

A subject at school in Esler. In it children are taught to see a visual image or an image described in a book, what kind of image it is, who created it, what it leads to, to Light or darkness.

#51, 01:04:21

Figurative meanings

The foundations of the worldview that every person has. The concepts of what to strive for, what is good, what is bad, what to avoid. In every world, in every society and in every time there is a different set of figurative meanings.

#263, 03:35

Images of Angels and Plasmoids

Any images that can be taken by both plasmoids and non-embodied spirits. In general, wings are an image of flight. Angels and plasmoids do not have physical wings. They create them in their image, their imagination, to show a person that they have flown from the spiritual world. The human spirit, which goes out through its spiritual channel into the world of spirits, if it concentrates on itself and looks at itself, can also often see wings, because at this moment it flies to the spiritual Light.

#223, 02:45

Rite in religion

A form of action in the material world that was needed to demonstrate one's faith and to contact some entities. Material objects can enhance or diminish this contact, depending on the purpose of the ritual. The ritual can be complex or simple, but its essence is always worship of God. Or other spiritual feelings through matter, through objects, incense, music, etc., through images (in some religions this is accepted). With the help of rituals, communication with God or some special effect is caused, but they are needed only for strengthening. It is necessary to remember that the ritual is only a form, and not the goal itself. The ritual is good only with the awareness that it is a means that can be changeable. The ritual is sacred, but not Holy, like God. It is endowed with divine energy, but not so much that it cannot be changed for some reason.

#293, 33:05

Common Higher Self for different spirits

The feeling of unity of all spirits in the Light.

#111, 10:50

Communication with your Higher Self

Communication with that part of God in you, which is 70% of your divine essence. This is much more important for your development than communication with any civilizations and curators, which is possible only through the Higher Self. First, learn to consciously communicate with yourself, consciously follow all the spiritual advice of the Higher Self. In this case, the higher Spiritual world begins to reign in your heart, control your heart and spread to the material world.

#466, 42:38

Communication with a part of the disembodied spirit

Communication with a phantom, which the Higher Self of this person, his non-embodied part, separates from itself. The phantom takes the image of a person from the incarnation that is interesting. And what's more, the phantom takes her memory. The embodied part does not know about this, it is not its task.

#400, 00:03, 40:22

Fiery world (fiery energy)

The highest vibration that creates everything else, from which everything else comes. The energy of God, the Creator of the world and our Father, which is the father of all spirits. A continuous flow of energy.

Access restrictions for Selbet after the war 12,000 years ago

Exclusion from the Interstellar Union. However, Selbet's spaceships and technologies were not taken away. Cessation of exchange with them of new technologies, which the Interstellar Union continued to discover. Limitation of contacts with young races that are not members of the Interstellar Union. Establishment of special surveillance of Selbet's ships, so that there are no aggressive actions on their part.

#144, 27:00, 31:08

Obsession

A state in which the contactee has attracted a certain spirit with his vibrations and they no longer negotiate with him, but simply push him out, throw him out, so to speak, into the street. Of course, the owner is still connected to his body by a life thread, but it can be very difficult for him to get rid of the uninvited guest because he himself attracted him with his vibrations, and because most often the will of the contactee is suppressed.

#507, 21:14

Odysseus

A man who took part in the war for Troy.

#288, 01:04:20

Same-sex marriage

Attraction to one's own sex, arising from partially blocked memories of a body of the opposite sex in the past, in which the soul lived. But this lowers the vibrations of a person. Namely, it lowers the vibrations of his spirit. Because if a person was born in a male or female body and does not take into account that if God and the teachers allowed him to be born in this body, then he must already live another life, and not the one he remembers.

#76, 18:42

Health improvement

The concept of both spiritual and physical bringing of body, soul and spirit into harmony. It can even be translated as "harmonization". Filling life and body with new quality, new sensations.

#257, 50:45, #283, 01:58:33

Ozone

A very active, strong oxidizer. It can produce many molecules saturated with energy bonds in a reaction with organic molecules, more than oxygen. But due to its activity, it also actively acts as an oxidizer, shifting the acid-base balance of the environment to the acidic side. Because of this, with a large dose of ozone or with a long period of its exposure, destruction of cellular and intracellular structures can be observed, despite the energy accumulated there. This is with regard to the effect on living cells.

It stimulates its own energy processes through contacts, including with mitochondria in cells and by destroying pathogenic flora.

#410, 06:07, 48:15

Oxidation

A process in which a molecule of oxygen, ozone, or other oxidizing agent reacts with another substance to form oxides, which destroy the structure of that substance.

#410, 06:07

Graphene oxide (development)

The substance is carbon monoxide in a special allotropic form.

#347, 01:10:35

Oligophrenia

Brain damage, due to which the spirit cannot fully manifest its mind. It manifests more instincts, for example, it has a weak memory, it cannot remember speech, and so on. And for this reason, psychological, psychiatric disorders are formed.

#444, 01:08:03

Rejuvenation

Tissue regeneration.

#226, 10:00

Rejuvenation (practice)

Take your childhood photos or photos from your youth where you like yourself. Put the best photo on your desk where you sit. Look at it for 10-15 minutes a day. Remember all the features of your face - hair, lips, etc. In the evening before going to bed, when you close your eyes, imagine this image in front of you and that you merge with it. This will be a charge of youth energy.

#287, 17:55

Clouding of the mind

A low-vibrational state of various mental structures of the human soul, which makes the correct path in the Light of God on Earth impossible.

#206, 00:22

Oncology

Harmful mutations that lead to the degradation of the body. The oncological process of mutations that is harmful to the body is always the destructive work of the soul. Maybe the animal soul, and maybe the rational spirit.

The spread of cancer on a mass scale is possible only in a society that does not know its spiritual nature. Anything can become a factor in the development of a tumor: any substance, any radiation, which would be completely safe for other people.

Oncology (cancerous growths)

Both protozoa, and microbes, and fungi, and cells of the human physical body that have switched to a more ancient way of nutrition, have in common that they are able to live and feed in low-vibrational states of the human soul. To put it simply, negative thoughts and feelings of a person are able to give the vital energy of the person himself for the development of these pathological cells, both external to the person himself parasitic forms, and internal, which have switched to a way of nutrition characteristic of protozoa, for example, amoebas. This is precisely in many ways the very same psycho-emotional state of a person that causes such low-vibrational energies in him that they affect the human body already on a physical level and cause foreign growths, tumors, which already kill the body itself.

If a child develops a disease, there may be many reasons: in his past lives, in relationships, for example, with his parents, because the etheric bodies of mom and dad, their consciousness also influence. This is the influence that results.

In what state of consciousness does cancer most often appear? This is anxiety, depression, hidden grievances, especially grievances against oneself. Anger at oneself, self-condemnation, rejection of oneself on a subconscious level let the body know, all its cells, that it must be crossed out of life. This starts the biochemical process of any organ, any tissue in such a way that this spirit must leave the incarnation, because it is not satisfied with the life around it, the people around it or itself.

Oncology (active prevention for earthlings)

It should include several factors. The first (the most important) is spiritual, psychological. The second factor is a decrease in the intensity of impact, if possible, of each carcinogenic factor that has already been identified. There are carcinogenic factors that are more carcinogenic than others. And the third is the creation of a positive image of those psychological and biological factors that contribute to the destruction of already mutated cells, cleansing the body of them, while at the stage of an unmanifested tumor disease, while they are still just forming.

Some products, plants, plant products, contain a set of substances that disrupt, for example, the walls and membranes of tumor cells, making them more detectable to the immune system.

All types of cabbage, but especially high content of these substances in broccoli. Also in such weeds as rape, pennycress and so on. Weeds also contain substances that make tumor cells visible for normal immunity.

Also, sulfur compounds, organic sulfur compounds, which are found in garlic, as well as in ginger, help to increase antitumor immunity and disrupt the formation of metastases, that is, the transfer of genetic information of the altered cell to its offspring.

There is also a very important phytoenzyme. A substance called "lycopene" can protect cells from various carcinogenic factors. Lycopene, accumulating in tumor cells at certain stages of their formation, also makes them noticeable to the immune system. Lycopene is found most in tomatoes, but they must be heat-treated. It is then better absorbed.

These substances, as well as red pigments, a whole series of pigments, are contained in red beets, which cleanse the body of toxins that have a carcinogenic effect. Most of these pigments are contained in dark red beets (which are not striped, but uniformly colored and elongated). You can also name such products as turmeric, parsley, citrus fruits, they contain a large amount of copper.

If we talk about microelements that have an anti-cancer effect, these are selenium, vitamin C, copper, iodine, they increase immunity. Of animal products, the most useful is the fish that lives in the sea and contains special molecules similar to molecules in vegetable oils, but of a different shape. These molecules protect against harmful factors, primarily the cardiovascular system, and increase immunity.

Any nutrition, anti-cancer drugs and immunostimulants can only be an auxiliary factor in prevention, and even more so in the treatment of an already existing disease.

Payment "according to the heart" for spiritual services

Trusting God with your material support. When people give themselves, they show by this fact of their work that they completely trust God with their material support. If they completely trust God, their vibrations increase. They allow them to see what those who do not trust God do not see. Light cannot be material. Here, a person did not evaluate it himself, but gave it to God to send people to this person who are able to support him. Payment “according to the heart” gives the opportunity to accept a person and help him in his spiritual development, in his purification and raising his vibrations, even in the case when he has no means at all or has little means, but he needs such help. When you assign payment “according to the heart” for spiritual work, by this you show God, the Universe (or rather, you do not show, but open a channel) trust. With these actions, you say to the Heavenly Father, the Creator something like this: “My Heavenly Father! You see that I want to bring every person to You. I want to help everyone find the Light.” To help find the Light is to lead to It. “You know my needs, You know the needs of my children. I trust You completely. Let those people come to me whom I can really help.” If this openness is sincere, without fears, any internal doubts, without expectations that they must necessarily thank you with something. If he is completely in unconditional Love, then God through other people will definitely send such a person not only the provision of vital needs, but also prosperity, including material.

#52, 12:04, #257, 34:56, #407, 38:25

Girdling

The change in people's energy after eating the fruits of temptation. In other words: at first their energy changed, but not because of the fruits, but because they did not trust. They no longer had that love for the Gods, that is, for those who created them. After all, they were told that they are representatives of God the Father, and that through them He manifests Himself in this way, through them God is created. After all, the Tumesoutians believe in the Creator. And when people went against their Gods, their vibrations decreased and therefore it is said that they made aprons from leaves for themselves, that is, they had already lost their love, which was later confirmed by the fact that God gave them leather clothes so that they would not be subject to attacks from the spiritual world. This is the Veil of the Astral. This was done on the spiritual level.

#196, 12:09

Earth's orbit

Not a strictly circular orbit, but in the form of an ellipse. If you look not from the plane of the ecliptic, but from below or from above, then its path over several decades will resemble a spiral. It is stable. Although it increases, this spiral, but then it returns to the Sun again. The Earth goes along an elliptical orbit and goes through the same path, practically. That is why there are always 12 zodiac constellations.

#250, 22:25, 26:59

Organic life

The original organic life, in the form of the simplest, similar to modern simplest bacteria and viruses, arose in space, because many living microorganisms can withstand the state of vacuum and cosmic cold. God with his Reason directs his energy to the movement of each atom. His Reason makes up these molecules, as if from a construction set. And, thanks to this, the first organic substances arose, which combined into more complex substances and formed the first forms of life - microorganisms. But we must always remember that microorganisms, any material bodies (from microbes to huge creatures) necessarily have an embodiment either in an animal soul or in a rational spirit. Single animal souls, as well as group animal souls, were created from various energies already by plasmoids, that is, by us, when we lived in the form of plasmoids.

In our Galaxy, other life forms are known and exist, in addition to forms based on carbon life - these are organosilicon creatures. There are combined creatures - organosilicon and carbon. There are also those in which, for example, the percentage of carbon in their proteins is largely replaced by phosphorus or sulfur compounds. We can talk about organophosphorus or organosulfur compounds. Molybdenum and various types of substances can also make up organic substances and various elements. This is expressed in the fact that the body will no longer be anthropomorphic, like, for example, the Burkhads, but will be similar to an insect, for example, an insectoid type and the like.

#40, 39:29, #46, 06:14

"Order of the Ice Fire Mages"

A community of plasmoid worlds at different density levels. Currently, it contains 1037 beings from different levels and different worlds. It is like an egregor, but at different density levels. The name "order" comes from the word "society", it was given by certain earthly contactees.

Magi": magic is a certain impact on the material world through energetic change of the astral world, that is, impact on the physical world through the astral. That is why the order was called the "Order of Magi". And "Ice Fire" is the name of the energy that people felt when in contact with the Order's plasmoids. Contactees (not all) felt a fire burning inside them when the plasmoid energy passed through their bodies, and everything outside seemed to be covered with ice. Such a paradoxical feeling.

#604, 38:15

Liberation

Merging with the “embodied Self” consciously and becoming free from the conventions and images imposed by living in this world.

A person becomes free from limitations, dissolving the walls that he built for himself in his body and in his mind. The attitude changes and only what is seen through the window is not considered reality.

#387, 16:18

The main task of the embodied spirit

Develop your spirit in striving for God, for Love, for Light. Everything else is just tools, because, for example, that new body, new things, people, all this will remain in the material world when you leave the incarnation. You will take with you only the experience that you can acquire by taking lessons in solving various simple or complex situations in your life. Depending on the development of the spirit, it is given situations of varying complexity, life lessons. Having left the incarnation, it will take them with it for the next incarnations in order to further raise its level. If you forget about this and think that the life of the spirit is finite, then spiritual development will not even be in second, but in tenth place in life. If a person does not believe and know that he will have a continuation of life in eternity, then he will not attach importance to this spirit. Therefore, in the schools of the Interstellar Union, from the earliest age, awareness of oneself in the astral plane, astral travel is practiced, so that the child can leave his body during the lesson, see his body, the spiritual world, and when he returns, he already clearly realizes that the body is finite, and he is immortal.

#181, 30:50

The main reason for the creation of different races

Their creation for different zones of the Earth. It can be said that the progenitor of all races is what you call the European race. It was resettled mainly north of the Mediterranean, Black Sea.

The fundamental energy of the Creator

The Light of Love. That Love which exists by itself, in itself, and It is capable of shining. It is Light, Spiritual Light, the Light of Love.

#43, 14:11

Mindfulness

The ability of the spirit to work with its emotional states, to honestly analyze events around itself and relationships with others. Evaluation of the degree of spiritual development that occurs with this spirit. The higher the level of vibrations, the greater the level of awareness. To increase the level of awareness, it is necessary to free oneself from low-vibrational states and acquire knowledge about the spiritual world. Understanding that thoughts, feelings, thought-forms are something external in relation to the personality and the ability to display them in speech, either written or oral.

#104, 45:43, #105, 41:00, 45:43

Awareness of civilization

That which is made up of the awarenesses of individual spirits embodied in this civilization. True awareness is impossible without acceptance, without recognizing the right of every being to be unconscious. For some spirits, unconsciousness is a necessary path to understanding reality and to exiting this unconsciousness. Anything you can do to help your loved ones become conscious, to show the advantage of awareness in every moment of your life.

#364, 07:46

Lucid dreaming

A type of astral travel of the soul outside the body while it is sleeping. In a lucid dream, the soul is aware of itself separately from the body and can remember more because of this state, but after returning from sleep and connecting with the body, it is advisable to immediately write down what happened or with whom you communicated and where you flew, since after 20-30 minutes spent in the material world, all memory acquired in the spiritual world usually leaves the consciousness.

#206, 01:24:16, #257, 28:08

Conscious exit to the Astral (Kirkhiton's method)

A practice in which you need to breathe alternately with the muscles of the chest and abdomen, lying on your back, relaxed. On one inhale, hold your breath for a certain number of heartbeats and then exhale. Do not think about anything else. Concentration of thought goes to breathing, and extraneous thoughts, on another topic, are simply fixed. But with the next exhale, you kind of exhale them into space, creating an image of thought in the form of a cloud.

Gradually, a state comes when you stop noticing where you are lying, what space you are in. A vision appears as if you are in a field of white Light. Then, when you inhale this white Light and hold your breath, a feeling appears as if you are inhaling Light, white Light. It spreads throughout the body, expansion occurs and you want to sleep a little.

It is important to maintain consciousness here, because the change in consciousness is like a half-sleep. If you miss this moment, a person will fall asleep and will not remember the exit. But you need to concentrate on breathing so that the consciousness is busy with work and does not fall asleep after a few minutes.

Usually this does not happen right away. It is necessary to do it every day for 30-40 minutes at the same time. Gradually, a spontaneous exit will occur, because the astral body's reflex to separation will work as soon as the body, the brain's biocurrents enter a certain state.

There should be an increasing breath hold. The first inhale for one heartbeat, hold for one heartbeat and exhale for one heartbeat. First with the chest, then with the stomach. Then do the same for two. This should be equal inhale, exhale, hold. For two, then for three, then for four, you can increase this as much as you want, but for now it is comfortable.

If holding your breath is difficult and you feel that it causes tension, the release will not happen. You need to go back one count and do as much as is comfortable.

#441, 24:28

Conscious contact

Contact in which a person understands that these are not his thoughts, that he is in contact with a certain entity.

#126, 55:00, #112, 07:07

Condemnation

Energy aimed at humiliating another. Generated by negative emotions of fear, anger, despondency, irritation. The simplest action based on low vibrational states, which in turn are based on instinctive principles. Having seen in ourselves or in another a manifestation of darkness, evil or low vibrations, we not only note it, but we begin to elevate ourselves. If we have found it in another, we begin to elevate ourselves above him. If we have found it in ourselves, we begin to humiliate ourselves in front of someone else.

#421, 48:55

Answers from the Higher Self

The presence of a feeling of Light, filling with Light. The absence of negative emotions. The internal negative emotions of a person dissolve in Light. Filling with a feeling of joy, openness, calm.

#31, 10:58

Give your soul to the devil

A figurative expression of the fact that people, carriers of low-frequency vibrations, just those whom some plasmoid civilizations call biorobots, have given up their freedom of choice, and they are controlled. But this is temporary, until they realize that they are in slavery not only to matter, but to their incorrect understanding of matter.

#126, 20:27

Separation of the Spirit

The moment of breaking the connection with the body, with the thread of life force. If desired, the spirit can immediately go to the spiritual world to its level or remain for some time near the living in the astral world.

#72, 04:32

Revelation of John the Evangelist

The book is a warning about the consequences of leaving God, Light, Love, from high vibrations to low ones. If the majority of the population did so, it would lead to a catastrophe, which is described as wars, epidemics, destruction, earthquakes, and so on. All this will happen if people sow the seeds of destruction around themselves. But before sowing them, the plant of this anger of destruction and rage, resentment, must first grow in the soul of the person himself.

#270, 18:05

Rh negative factor

A property of the body that mutated several thousand years ago in the gene that codes for blood proteins. The organism that emerged as a result of this mutation no longer contained this protein in its blood. Gradually, this began to be passed on to others through generations and spread throughout the globe. An additional protein in the blood that formed as a result of the already created Earth hybrids' own mutations.

Crystal lattice memory

A special property of a stone or crystal that allows a person or humanoid, by directing their life force into this object, to charge it with their thought form, which will then influence the auras of other people and humanoids.

#26 50:18

Memory of past incarnations

Those records of past experience that are blocked in all spirits incarnating in the material world. This happens because of the need for spirits to adapt not only to a new body, but also to a new environment, a new world, new knowledge, since past memory and past experience can interfere with this.

#27, 36:47

A memorial service

A common prayer in the church that the spirit that left the body after the end of the incarnation would be under the protection of the Angels of the Christian egregor, so that they would fill it with Light, help it find the best favorable incarnation and support it during the period of time when it is in the spiritual world. This is an additional request that expresses the love and care of the living for their relatives who died in the physical body.

It makes sense in the case of preliminary connection during the life of the deceased to the Christian egregor, according to its rules.

If a person is not baptized, then you can send him energy in home prayer, including in your own words, asking the Angels, Archangel Michael, Archangel Raphael to help this spirit go through his path to the spiritual world to his level and adapt there.

#234, 41:47

The entire Universe and all beings living in it are Divine Light in one form or another or in some form of manifestation.

#211, 22:41

Parallel reality

A reality existing in the astral world, created by the thought-forms of various egregors, where scenarios of events can be formed that were not embodied in real life.

#30, 10:06

A parallel world

From the words "going next to", which says that these spaces are located next to each other, without touching. But, from the point of view of the observer, for example, in the astral body, which pays attention to these vibrations, they are as if nested one in another, not going next to each other, but going together. And so 59 levels of density are imposed.

Pesach

Jewish Passover. The commandment about this holiday was already in the book of Exodus, which was part of the Old Testament, the Torah. This holiday was also passed on to Moses and was celebrated in honor of the memory of how the Jews left Egypt. This is the holiday of Passover.

It is celebrated on the 14th of Nisan, a Jewish month. And every year it is celebrated differently, the date of the 14th of Nisan shifts, because the Jews still have a religious calendar that is not solar, but lunar-solar. There, lunar months are taken into account.

The first impulse of the self-conscious spirit

A feeling of separateness from the divine flow from which it arose. As soon as self-consciousness appears, the spirit knows that it is a personality that has not yet experienced incarnations. It can arise at any level of the spiritual world, since the Divine Light penetrates through all levels. And, having arisen for the first time, it has a desire to be, to exist, and this leads it to the idea of incarnation in some material world, in some density.

The first level of density of the material world

Solid environment. Those who can live in a dense environment live on this level.

Fermented with honey. Perga contains more nutrients and antiseptic substances. It is considered a more valuable nutrient. It has the ability to cleanse the body of toxins and increase its ability to adapt to various harmful environmental conditions. Even to ionizing radiation. Perga cleanses of toxins, normalizes blood pressure, cleanses blood vessels from cholesterol plaques and contains a lot of vitamins, microelements and valuable amino acids in an easily digestible form. It can be used for those who have an unbalanced diet.

Pyramid (crystal)

The body, in the middle of which between the top and the base, light is not simply reflected. At the energy level, it is born there. It is like a white ball, the light diverges along the edges of the pyramid, goes down in a stream, and up in a beam. This light is born because such a material as rock crystal consists of a molecular structure that attracts certain vibrational wave qualities of space from the subtle worlds. In the pyramidal form, all this is amplified and collects energy from the ether. Only this collects energy not for use, for transferring electricity somewhere, but specifically for healing. The pyramid is needed so that these energies have a healing effect. When energy flows down the edges, it has a positive effect on the cells of the human body.

When you put it on the third eye, the energy exchange is strengthened. And if you put it on the top of your head, it will strengthen the spiritual channel by 25 times.

#408, 35:58

Pyramids

Structures built mainly by representatives of Tumesout and its colonies to harmonize space. They have a form characteristic of the spaceships of the Tumesout civilization, as well as their dwellings on Tumesout. Pyramids are capable of strengthening the etheric and astral fields of a person and changing the material properties of an object consisting of atoms, affecting water, creating chains of molecules in it, projecting the energy of the pyramid into the water. In the case of the pyramids being located on one meridian, they are capable of purifying the planet and giving it new vibrations.

The first pyramids appeared around 5,000 years ago. They were built by people, Egyptians, but with the use of technology and sometimes using biorobots. Naturally, the people of Egypt themselves, including captured slaves, made a big contribution to this construction.

Different technologies were used. Tools for cutting stones were given (by other aliens, from other civilizations). People were shown how to work with stones to create sculptures, for example, for art.

Then they themselves used it for the pyramids.

At different heights from the base, pyramids exhibit different properties. But this depends on whether the pyramids are four-sided or three-sided, as well as on the height of the pyramid and the material of the walls. For example, in a metal pyramid or in a pyramid made of wood, or from a certain type of stone, different properties are exhibited.

The granite pyramid has preservative properties: the ability to preserve the atoms of a dense material body, that is, the growth of microbes stops, microbes do not multiply, and due to this the body is preserved longer compared to being outside the pyramid.

In a granite pyramid, for example, 20 meters high (there are such in Egypt), the preservative properties manifest themselves at a height of 30 centimeters to about 3-3.5 meters. Further, you can build a staircase and make a shelf in the wall of the pyramid. At a height of about 8 meters 40 cm, the properties of the portal manifest themselves. It is good to open portals there to those worlds that relate to the control of the elements. A little higher, around 12 meters, 2 meters above the middle of the pyramid, energies from space are attracted that heal the body. Treatment rooms with thick walls were usually located here.

The Tumesoutians believe that the pyramidal shape of the space in which you live contributes to the opening of the upper centers and enlightenment.

They believed that the pyramid repeats the structure of the spirit. As the spirit consists of three structures: mind, energy and spiritual heart, so does the pyramid: a top and two angles, like a triangle. Therefore, the pyramidal form was developed among them. They had many contacts with earthlings. Earthlings saw them on pyramid ships and asked: "Why such a shape?" The Tumesoutians said that on their planet this is a form of space purification, raising its vibrations, and therefore comfort, coziness and acceleration of spiritual evolution.

This space is protected from low-vibration entities. Regeneration on the physical level occurs faster in it. People began to pass information about this to each other, they wanted to be in such a space. Then they passed it on to their descendants and they began to build.

Some old pyramids were helped to be built by the aliens themselves. The Tumesoutians mainly did this so that people in the pyramid would feel like part of the Universe. You sit in it and easily enter a state of meditation.

The small pyramids were built by people themselves, and incredible efforts were really put into it. There was a slave system then. Thousands of slaves died at construction sites from backbreaking labor, from the hot sun, from epidemics.

Animal products, in addition to meat, include: dairy products, eggs, fish. For a complete, varied diet, out of these 30% of animal products, 15% are dairy products, and the remaining 15%: - 5% each for eggs, fish and meat. The percentage of the diet of meat and meat products is no more than 5%.

Solar Powered

Eating any food on Earth. To be able to absorb solar energy, plants contain chlorophyll. Sunlight comes from space, being cosmic energy, and, when it hits a plant leaf, it begins to react with water and nutrients that enter the plant from the soil, and form other substances. Thus, the entire mass of the plant, its leaves, stems, roots, fruits, are materialized sunlight. Herbivores, feeding on plant food, also consume solar energy, and so on along the food chain.

Plasma

Any state and manifestation of matter on 56 levels of density, starting from the 4th and ending with the 59th, the state of energy fields, which can be expressed in Russian, approximately, as ether, etheric fields. In these etheric fields there are various worlds, including those on Earth, underground, in the layers of the atmosphere, in outer space, they do not need oxygen, because there is no metabolism in them. They also exist in the chromospheres of stars, even in huge giant stars and in their cores. The subtle body of plasmoids is not subject to destruction from high temperatures and thermonuclear reactions. On the contrary, they take part of this energy for their nutrition.

It is no coincidence that they incarnated in that world; they have their own tasks there: to observe the development of star systems, the relationship of energy fields in outer space.

This is observed by intergalactic plasmoids, galactic plasmoids, plasmoids from the galactic core of the energy center of each Galaxy.

Plasmoid worlds

Subtle-material worlds, having 56 levels of density, the frequency is measured in thousands and hundreds of thousands of terahertz. There are, in fact, tens of times more of them than dense-material ones.

There are different types of plasmoids on Earth: intelligent balls, rays of Light, intelligent radio waves. They are on all planets, for example, of the earth type. These are the so-called spirits of nature, which are various elementals, spirits of the elements, as well as various spirits of houses, forests, fields, rivers, mountains, etc. There are plasmoid civilizations of the cosmic type.

The link between physical civilizations and the Spiritual world. There are many more of them than physical civilizations. They are on many levels of density, and almost the entire Cosmos was created with the help of these civilizations: stars, all planets, galaxies, they were collected by plasmoids, Spirits, who were incarnated there from energy at accessible levels of density. There are a very large number of them, a very large variety. They can take any form.

Plasmoids

Creatures that do not contain gas, but simply energy. The ending "-id" means - similar to a plasmoid. How is it similar? In that it has a subtle-material structure of the body, but at the same time it is invisible. It glows just like the Sun, which consists of plasma, or ball lightning. It can live in the center of stars. It is similar to plasma, but not plasma itself.

Intelligent spirits, embodied in the subtle material world, whose bodies consist of the energy of light, ultraviolet, radio waves, only in the high part of the spectrum. There are more than 90,000,000,000 of them on Earth. Previously, they were called spirits of nature, spirits of the elements - sylphs, salamanders. Ball lightning is an example of a manifested plasmoid. Being intelligent spirits with feelings, reason and energy, combining all this together, plasmoids create souls of animals, plants, microorganisms, etc., endowing them with their life force. This is the meaning of their existence. They can live in the atmosphere of planets, the chromosphere of stars, near the core of the Sun. The energy emitted by stars is attractive to stellar plasmoids, like food. Light, heat, radiation are their food.

This is a form of life that can exist in a very wide range: from several earthly days to several thousand, and there are even known plasmoids that live up to millions of years. Plasmoids are at the density level, starting from the fourth to the fifty-ninth. Plasmoids do not have a physical smell, because smell is a characteristic of a dense-material body and it depends on the presence of certain molecules. They have a special energy that can be perceived as something similar to smell, taste and color, by analogy with earthly senses. Physical bodies and all molecules do not appear out of nowhere. They are created from the elements of the elements. Plasmoids collect the elements into atoms. At the same time, the spirit, incarnating, takes elements from the nature of the Earth to build its body from the plasmoid civilizations of the Earth, which are at different density levels. And when the spirit incarnates, then before incarnation it in any case turns to plasmoids. There is a special appeal to the plasmoid civilizations of the planet where you are incarnating, with a request to provide elements for the construction of a dense-material body to perform the tasks that the spirit has outlined for itself before incarnation. And there is a promise to take care of the body, to fill it with Light, Love. And with love to return this body to the elements of the Earth after incarnation so that the plasmoid civilizations of the Earth through insects, microorganisms could decompose this body again into elements for the incarnation of others. To create a molecule, it must be assembled from an atom. To collect atoms, it is necessary to collect energies. This is from the four elements - the energies of water, fire, earth and air. Therefore, on each planet, the number of plasmoid civilizations is many times greater than the number of, for example, people. On Earth, if you count all the density levels, there are approximately 880 plasmoids per person. They still have to create a biosphere. They have to create plants, animals, insects, they have to eat something and transfer these atoms, and replenish their body with some atoms.

Spiritual mentors, Angels-consultants, before the spirit wants to incarnate on some planet, they first recommend going through several incarnations in the plasmoid civilizations of this planet, in order to build this matter for the denser material ones. And then, as it were, to invest one's energy into this planet, into this civilization, in order to incarnate there oneself later.

The more light energy is released by plasmoids, the longer they are ready to release matter for the construction of body atoms and the maintenance of this or that embodied spirit. They have such an agreement with the Spiritual world that the more a high-vibration society creates on this or that planet, the more the plasmoids are nourished by this, enjoy life, and the more they give in return the opportunity to live on this planet.

If a spirit is incarnated, for whom the term of incarnation should be a life task, the plasmoids are informed of this. And even if this is a low-vibration spirit, it can also incarnate. Its Angels can contact the plasmoids and themselves provide it with this energy, as they say on Earth - "spiritual credit". That is, themselves provide the energy of Love to these plasmoids so that they can help this spirit to be incarnated longer, so that it can come to awareness, to do in one incarnation what it planned for several. But if it begins to lower its vibrations, both the Angels and the plasmoids can change their minds.

There are such high-density plasmoids whose bodies occupy several dozen light years. They condense the matter that is on their plane until matter appears to form galaxies. Then, in these galaxies, other plasmoids form other bodies, smaller ones. Individual stars are formed, and then planets and all physical life on them, the biosphere, and so on. All this is determined by the intelligent advice of these plasmoids, who take their wisdom from the wisdom of the Divine presence, which is omnipresent.

Plasmoids of the 26th density level, mixing different layers of the atmosphere to keep this planet stable after the catastrophe that occurred in the third density level. Many plasmoids suffered, there was a splash of a large amount of negative energy. Plasmoids civilizations cleared the planet's noosphere from this for a long time. Now the task of this civilization is to keep it in harmony.

Plasmoids of the eighth level of density of the element of fire

Plasmoids are from a world that is entirely made of fire, but this fire is ethereal. It is like a sea of fire, in which its own waves rise, from which even ethereal cities are made - the places where plasmoids live. And even the bodies of the creatures that incarnate there are made of fire, they are called "salamanders", representatives of the element of fire.

When in contact with a person, such a plasmoid can take the form of a person in the Astral. But its body will be fiery (like a burning person, and its face will burn like heat from a stove, ashes, cinders - and the whole face in it).

Plasmoids of the Earth

The beings that are called nature spirits: spirits of the elements, spirits of water, spirits of the forest, spirits of houses - these are the so-called "earthly forms of the plasmoid civilization". They also have a body, but it no longer contains a biological component. It is inorganic. It consists of various energies. They reproduce in a certain way: by budding, for example, by emitting various rays, by emitting various rays from themselves. They create energy bodies that are invisible to the physical eyes of people due to their high vibrations. The vibrations of their bodies are higher than the eye can perceive. But sometimes they can, if they lower their vibrations (this is usually quite difficult and unpleasant for them), become visible. A person can physically see something like a ghost, for example, or some kind of ball lightning. They can do this for various purposes. Not all plasmoids can do this. Only those who do this can.

Plasmoids of the Moon

Six civilizations of different density levels. Unlike the Earth's plasmoids, the Moon's plasmoids do not form a biosphere on it. They simply maintain the state of the Moon's energy fields. And there are also the Elemental Spirits who create, who maintain the law of conservation of substances of their civilizations. Those Spirits who create atoms are there so that all this is held in this space.

#352, 50:35

Plasmoids (what happens to them after the forest is destroyed/ killed?)

If the destruction of a forest occurs on an area larger than 2.5 hectares, it begins to affect the biosphere of the given place, on animals in large volumes. The plasmoids that created the souls of forest animals, plant souls of trees, bushes, forest grasses, mushrooms, have unclaimed energy. If the vegetation whose souls they created is destroyed, the plasmoids will not be able to create other souls of trees. It takes time for a tree to grow in the dense-material world.

The fate of the forest plasmoids depends, firstly, on their desire. What will happen where the forest was cut down? If there will be just grass growing there, a meadow, then they can stay to create souls of grass, flowers, microorganisms, animals that will live in this place.

If the plasmoids do not wish or cannot stay there (many can only give birth to the souls of certain trees), then they go to another territory, to where they are needed. There are many territories where there used to be a meadow, pasture, field, but now no one lives, and a new forest grows there. It is still low. They can move there.

If the forest was cut down, the trees were not simply cut down and burned, or thrown into Baikal, but were used for some human purposes, then the plasmoids understand this perfectly well. They simply move to the place where they, their services are needed.

If a forest has been standing for a long time, for the last 250-300 years, and people do not enter it, its own processes begin. Trees that have been standing for a long time age. The rings inside the tree grow on each other and are supplied with sap from the ground worse.

Every year, any adult coniferous or deciduous tree produces seeds. They fall to the ground. It rains. Tree seeds have the ability to germinate even if they are not buried. They only need rain, a certain temperature, and a shoot of young trees forms around the tree. One tree can produce up to several tens of thousands of seeds.

Some die from the cold, while others find themselves in conditions where they begin to grow around the tree and the wind cannot carry them away. After several decades, it turns out that the young trees begin to take food from their parent. It weakens from this, and is attacked by parasitic fungi and insects.

Inside this old tree there is such a mass that it no longer holds it together. If the wind blows, it can fall. This is a natural replacement (without people). Of course, it goes slower. Over many years of falling leaves, a layer forms on the ground through which, for example, grass cannot grow. It rains, everything gradually begins to decompose. A swamp can form. If the plasmoids of this area do not call the plasmoids of fire and do not start a fire that will cleanse it all, then this happens. A forest where people do not interfere often burns. If it does not burn, it turns into very difficult to pass rubble not only for people, but also for animals. These territories are also useless for plasmoids, because even animals cannot be around this place.

Plasmoids cannot burn, they have a thin body. Temperature does not affect it.

A planet in the constellation Scutum. The representatives look like creatures glowing greenish in the dark, with a lot of phosphorus in their skin. In general, they look like people, but with 6 limbs, like insects. Faces, like people, only elongated. Previously, they had a base on Earth. The last visit to Earth, which they had already studied, was about 40 years ago. They have no physical contactees on Earth. Currently, they are studying and developing other planets. They have a base on the asteroid Ceres.

Planet of criminals

A planet for isolating criminals from society, where they work for the benefit of the Interstellar Union. This planet is in the constellation of Aries. If a criminal has already been detained, then the death penalty is prohibited for him, because it does not exist in the Interstellar Union, and because it does not allow the soul of this criminal to realize what he has done and reach higher vibrations. They have medical care there, they have information, that is, they can develop spiritually. There are special psychologists who work with them. They work with their spirit, help them realize why they came to this, etc. But criminals do not have the opportunity to leave this planet until their term is up. Different crimes have their own specific terms. If the crime is serious, then the stay on the planet of criminals is for life. The planet is divided into different sectors, like cities, but they do not touch each other, they are separated by walls. There, criminals are grouped according to different crimes. Spiritual criminologists help them reach the Higher Self and correct the block in their soul that led them to commit a crime.

If a humanoid corrects his soul and this is confirmed by three independent spiritual psychologists who work specifically with the criminal inclinations of intelligent spirits, he may even be released early or, if the sentence is lifelong, this punishment may be removed. If he commits the same or any other offense again, he is sent again (forever) to the planet of criminals. And those who approved his exit are subject to removal from their positions. They are responsible for him.

Planetary model of the atom

A model of the atom's structure, which assumes that the atom consists of a positively charged nucleus around which electrons revolve, similar to how planets move around the Sun. However, this model is not true and does not answer many questions. The solution to the problem of the structure of the gravitational engine lies in the solution to the problem of the structure of the atom, which cannot be understood by calculations, as scientists on Earth are trying to do.

#144, 01:07

A type of engine that is used near planets. They are used to fly from the planet itself to that point in space where it is possible to turn on the gravitational engine, where the gravitational field of the planet itself will not interfere. The principle of operation is based on the use of magnetic field energies. This engine consists of plates made of a special alloy rotating in different planes, which includes two main components - tellurium and palladium. These elements contain energies of such types and vibrations that can, with the help of energies coming from the engine, capture magnetic field radiation of a particular planet and create their own magnetic field that repels it from the planet, or attracts it. The maximum speed that a ship with a mass of up to 1200 kg can develop with the help of a planetary engine is approximately 1/8 of the speed of light.

Increasing the share of positive energies in your astral body: love, joy, trust, openness. This immediately sharply increases sensitivity to the astral world. Because according to Divine law, this is a natural protection that a person has from the astral world, it opens up more easily in high-vibration people. First of all, this is done for our safety. So that a person with his low vibrations does not see those whom he has attracted, since in many cases this can be dangerous for his psyche and for the people around him later.

Podzorova Irina

Contact with extraterrestrial civilizations.

In the summer of 1999, a thirteen-year-old girl, Irina Podzorova, from the village of Peski near Voronezh agreed to take a short trip on a triangular-shaped ship with aliens from the constellation Cassiopeia. Since then, for more than twenty years, she has been regularly contacted by representatives of the civilizations of the Interstellar Union of our Galaxy, which includes 116 of the 727 existing intelligent races.

#185

Sub-tenant

Contact with some entity: plasmoids, disembodied spirits. Humanoids are not settlers, because they have their own bodies. They return to them. A settler is regularly with a person in his field. If these are plasmoids, then they create a communication channel, which we call bindings. It is like a thread that stretches from the person's field to the world of the plasmoid. Although he is not always nearby, he is always in contact. He can also sometimes be called a settler, especially if he has a strong influence on a person.

#328, 01:00:41

Subconscious

Any process that is currently unconscious to perception.

#89, 29:08

Positive

Positive energies embedded in every animal and human. Without them, no one would survive and create the society that exists.

#16, 01:46

Cognition

Increasing knowledge, strengthening the mind. A person reads books, studies different sciences, writes some articles, he spends his time and energy on increasing the mind. And the mind is a part of the spirit. Cognition is one of the forms of spiritual development. But this is spiritual development not of the heart, but of the mind.

#393, 30:32

Repentance

A type of connection with your Higher Self in the form of awareness of a negative behavioral scenario.

#423, 04:44

Worship of God

Form of Love. Recognition of the leading role of God in the Universe. Gratitude to Him for the created world.

#243, 49:16

Generation

Those spirits that entered into incarnation at the same time and coexist simultaneously. These are people of different ages, but of the same generation. For example, now there is a certain number of spirits on the physical density level on Earth from a baby to an old man, and all this is considered one generation. But it, naturally, is constantly changing. For earthlings, the time of one generation is approximately 40-43 years.

#465, 01:01:00

Healthy diet

A varied, fractional diet. It is better to eat often and in small amounts. It is better to eat animal meat 2-3 times a week, on other days, if you are used to it, poultry. It is good to eat sea fish 1-2 times a week. Most of the diet should be plant food - fruits, greens, vegetables, cereals. The ratio of plant and animal food should be approximately 70:30. Carbohydrates, i.e. sweets - 10-15% of the diet. Dairy products, eggs, fish are included in 30% of animal food.

#71, 10:45, 13:17, 17:18

Polytheism

Deification of any powerful being that could somehow help a person in the difficult conditions of his survival. People's attention is divided between the priests of different gods, they fight among themselves, and from this the egregor becomes weak. Having sinned before one God, people went to the priest of another God, bringing him a sacrifice so that he would intercede for the person before the God before whom they sinned. This was called magical thinking, it interfered in many cases with spiritual perfection.

#134, 58:05

Sexual attraction

A form of divine energy of love that passes through the human body.

#179, 34:07

Poltergeist

In essence, unconscious telekinesis, most often caused by the human factor. A person's vital energy can come out, suppress gravity in some object, which as a result causes the objects to move. It can manifest itself during stress and depression, especially in children and teenagers, that is, in a person who is growing and developing. In most cases, these are attempts to contact representatives of subtle-material civilizations (plasmoids). If a low-vibration spirit is embodied in such a plasmoid, then it spends its energy and the energy of the residents of the room to suppress gravity. They (plasmoids) do this either for experimental purposes, to see how people will react to this, they also have research groups that study our physical dense-material world. They can also simply drive a person into fear in order to feed on his energy.

A demigod

A spirit that is following the path of spiritual development and has entered a state of fusion, but is still conditioned by the perception of the material body in which it is embodied or in which it is no longer embodied, but still continues in its thoughts the experience it has received. One can say, approximately: one who has half realized himself as one.

Fasting (spiritual meaning)

Charity expressed in the fact that money saved and earned by a person is given to the poor or food is bought for them. Not feeding one's own flesh, but for some time feeding others who cannot repay

Users

Spirits from the 11th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits. Spirits who have experienced all the charm of the material world in receiving various sensual pleasures and spend their energy on work for the sake of money, which can give them things that are pleasant for them. Unlike demons, they will not transgress moral standards, much less the laws of the society where they live, but their hearts are occupied with the desire for material goods, and their minds with thoughts of how to acquire them and what to spend them on for greater pleasure. Busy with such concerns from morning to evening, they often have neither the time nor the desire to think about their spiritual development, much less make any efforts in this direction.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

The other world (interaction with it)

Energy exchange during interaction of some types of plasmoids or non-embodied spirits of different levels with any person. If you want to communicate with him, if you feel his appeal to you, then you ask him to mentally speak to you in those images and words that will be understandable to you. If he does not succeed, he cannot always combine with you, then using your will ask him: I ask you to leave me alone and never contact me again.

Kiss

Gesture. Touching the lips to any part of the body, signifying the transfer of energy from the fifth chakra, i.e. from the chakra of creativity, plus healing by breathing. For your child - healing, for a loved one - transfer of love through the lips, approval of the creative energy of this person's words, and so on. A kiss on the forehead is approval of the words, recognition of their correctness, naturally, also a transfer of energy.

Poetic inspiration

A special state of human consciousness, in which he is able to perceive information in images and translate it into the language of words without changes. It is not only writing poetry. It can manifest itself in different ways. "Poetos" is a creator. The Greek word "poetics" means to create. This is work.

The emergence of the Universe

The next cycle will begin. First, subtle worlds will appear, then denser ones. And as soon as the first worlds consisting of matter, even the most subtle, appear, spirits will already have the opportunity to incarnate. Those in low vibrations will be the first to incarnate, because the suffering they will experience will push them to incarnate in order to raise their vibrations. Then the worlds will become more and more dense, because the denser the matter, the faster it is possible to go through lessons of perfection in it.

#264, 07:23

Is it true

The idea of the world that is true for every person. There are many types of truth, each person has his own truth depending on his idea of moral standards. But in contrast to this truth, there is one truth and each truth serves only as a part, a reflection or, one might say, a refraction of this truth in each person, in each reasonable spirit, if we look more broadly.

Spiritual growth practices
Actions and thoughts to increase your vibrations, and therefore, sensitivity to the Higher Self.
If you understand that you feel nothing, do not believe in the Spiritual world, do not rush to become disappointed and give it up. Just give yourself time, calmly treat your disbelief, calmly treat your lack of feeling, calmly treat your ignorance. Start doing good deeds and be sure to spend 30-40 minutes every day, at least a little, reading some spiritual literature. These can be books of traditional religions - the Bible, the Koran, the Bhagavad Gita, as well as esoteric literature. The main thing is that it is filled with Light, so that there are no calls for any hatred, for example. So that it is a story about the bright qualities of the soul.

In two or three months, you yourself will feel how you are drawn to spiritual activities again. This will happen by itself. And this will be just a sign that you are ready. When you start doing them again, you will feel a completely different state. You will have that very spiritual experience that you previously thought did not exist.

Practicing homosexual

The one who comes into contact with a person of the same sex. During sexual contact, their energies mix with each other. And since the energy is homogeneous, then instead of the usual exchange that occurs between a man and a woman, there is an exchange of homogeneous energies, and this entails a gradual decrease in their energy potential, a weakening of the aura and a faster development of blocks in their chakras, compared to ordinary people.

#242, 20:16

Prana (ether)

Universal energy, a type of ether, a type of subtle energy. There is physical energy - heat, light, gravity, and there are subtle energies. Prana is one of them. The Interstellar Union distinguishes 75 types of prana, which are characteristic of certain civilizations.

For example, on Earth there are 14 types of them, which are characteristic of people, of plasmoids. To distinguish them from each other, either certain devices are needed that work according to the principles of the Interstellar Union, based on nanotechnology, or the sensitivity of the organism itself, which can only be developed through practice of communication with different entities.

Prana is the life force that the physical body releases from chemical reactions that occur during the breakdown of food substances into simple substances, joining with oxygen.

Prana is the part of the ether that is closer to the material world, separating the material and spiritual worlds.

Ideas about the future.

Pranayama

Breathing practice.

Breathing is the most accessible and simple tool of a person, which was used for all purposes: for physical development, for disease prevention, for the treatment of diseases (there was a method of respiratory therapy), and for mental health. Also, breathing practices were used for spiritual improvement, so that, having established a certain rhythm and type of breathing, a person would cause certain states in himself.

The human brain is neuroplastic, it can build long-lived chains of neurons that remember information at the level of molecular connections. Having developed a certain habit for himself, for example, a certain breathing rhythm and having invested spiritual meaning in it, a person remembered at the level of brain neurons that as soon as he breathes like this, this state will return to him. This was built into a conditioned reflex at the reflexive level.

#441, 12:50

Pranic food

A nutrition system for people who, incarnated in a material body, wish to merge with the energy of space, with solar and cosmic energies. They have ideas that this will speed up their embodiment in the subtle world. According to Ra Aria, these manifestations should not be on the physical plane, but on the spiritual: love for Light, love for the Sun, for Truth, for Life, because the Sun spreads life. Love should be manifested in the fact that you selflessly help others and wish them well, development, and through your practice contribute to this.

The physical body needs physical food, just as the subtle body needs food from solar energy. Each world must have energy of a certain density so that the body can develop and carry out its task. To be an instrument for carrying out its task. If the body receives energy that is not of its density, it will dissipate.

The transition to plant food, if it is done without negative vibrations of condemnation, anger, etc. towards the people around, contributes to the rebirth in the world of plasmoids that create the souls of animals, because a person becomes closer to their consciousness, as he begins to think how not to harm them. Understands them better. Becomes closer to nature, to the Sun. If a person absorbs more green mass, then through it he receives more solar energy. It is also in animal food, but it is already processed by the energy of the animal.

If you sincerely believe that spiritual evolution is possible only on plant food, you should do it. If you believe that it is possible to evolve on any food, then this will not hinder your evolution at all. Each consciousness has a certain set of ideas about reality. You must follow it without condemnation, anger, irritability towards those people who made a different choice, and not consider them less spiritually enlightened than you yourself. This will definitely not bring your chances of successfully completing the spiritual path of evolution closer.

Proto-language

A mixture of the original simplified Tumesout language and various dialects that appeared in the period before the war. People living on different ends of the single continent of Earth, contacting with plasmoids, formed a syllabic proto-language.

After the war, several new languages were given to different tribes so that they could develop their peoples, civilizations and live in different parts of the Earth. Their descendants created a variety of languages that resembled either one of the original, Tumesout, or the proto-language, or those that were given, or most likely a mixture.

You can trace in words, if you break them down into syllables, the meaning that was originally put into them by the priests. They spoke with the plasmoids and with each other in a syllabic proto-language. They modified the words of the Tumesout language, which the aliens gave them, by syllables, in order to put their own meaning into the words, which corresponded to the syllables. Any language on Earth, ancient or modern, developed from some branch of the proto-language.

They spoke one language, which at first was simplified Tumesout. Then it began to adapt to the earthly reality, people began to contact representatives of the plasmoids, began to speak in syllables, and so they developed a syllabic language. It began to differ greatly from Tumesout already 3-4 thousand years after the first people settled on Earth.

In earlier stages, people from different parts of the Earth understood each other. There may have been different dialects, but they were no more different than the dialect of northern Germany from the southern. In any case, they understood each other. And different names for the same thing, with different combinations of letters, appeared later.

It was a single language for the people. And there was also a language that was initially divided, but it was sacred. For each group of priests in each city and settlement there was a secret language from the plasmoids. It was more syllabic. It was more convenient for people to communicate in simple words in everyday life, and the priests wrote books with special runes. They put a syllable in each rune. Each syllable was figurative, they encrypted not just an object, but some quality. For example, as in the syllable "ra", which meant the Sun, because the plasmoids that came from solar civilizations had a vibration perceived by the human brain as "r-rr, r-rro, r-rre, r-rra", with the letter "r". This "ra" began to mean the Sun. At the same time, for the priests, it began to mean not only the Sun, but also light, the deity of the Sun, that is, more abstract concepts.

The syllable "sha" originally meant a fast-running animal, and then it came to mean a person too, because he ran fast on two legs. "Sha" is something that moves quickly. When the syllable "sha" was pronounced, it was an impulse to move. "Sha" meant "person".

The syllable "du" meant "subtle body", "invisible", intangible by physical organs. Therefore, the combination of the syllables "du-sha" meant "invisible in man".

The roots of the proto-language can be traced in any language – in German, English. If you say a word in German, you can also look it up by syllables. If you analyze the Russian word "chelovek", you will see that it consists of two words – "chelo" and "vek", which are also analyzed separately. "Lo" means "vessel", a container for something. "Che" or "chi" meant "reason" in the form of the intellect of the knower, the knowledge base. "Chelo", which also meant "forehead" among the ancient Slavs, means "vessel of reason". The syllable "ve" usually meant development, cognition, movement – "movement for the development of knowledge". Such an abstract concept.

Now some syllables need to have a meaning that can be denoted by several words, but before it was denoted by one word, and was clear to everyone.

Devotee (Vaishnava)

A certain state of consciousness when a person realizes himself as a complete part of God.

#326, 04:20

Betrayal

Returning back to the state that was before the promise, oath, agreement. If it was a promise of Light, that is, to develop in the Light, that is, an agreement, one might say, evolutionary, then the cancellation and betrayal of this agreement is a return, that is, the degradation of the soul to the state in which it was before. In this case, a person, his spirit loses all the acquired vibrations, qualities. Loses, not that he loses, but loses access to those qualities of the soul that were developed during this path, when he walked along it, because he returns back. If this agreement was drawn up for the purpose of degradation, because there is an agreement on crimes (for example, they agreed together to commit something criminal), then the betrayal of this agreement stops the degradation.

#280, 30:09

The purpose of man

Fulfillment of those spiritual tasks and lessons that the spirit intended for itself or conceived for itself before incarnation. Study of that information that the spirit should study in this life. Untying those karmic knots that need to be untied. Dissolving various blocks that need to be dissolved so that they do not prevent the spirit from realizing itself as Divine Light.

Raising the spiritual level and becoming like God, God the Creator. Full manifestation of creative abilities, abilities to love, create and rejoice, to be happy. This, one might say, is the global purpose for all spirits.

The word "appointment" comes from the verb "to assign". To assign means to choose a task for yourself. But the preposition "pred" comes from the word "vpered". So, purpose is choosing a task for yourself in advance, just before incarnation.

#477, 02:59

Predicting the Future (Reasons for Failure)

The inability of the spirit (who used to live in the future, and if he was born here and remembered it, because your future is the past for him, and he remembered several events and predicted them) to explain to himself why the prediction came true, believing that God reveals it to him. And he begins to predict the future simply on the basis of his logical reasoning, that is, without remembering. He has no memories, he predicts it. He already believes in himself and that it will come true. He believes that he sees the future. And then, naturally, mistakes happen.

#47, 26:05

Premonition

Hints from high spiritual beings who know the future. It happens with the purpose of making a person change something, or when it happens, to believe that the Spiritual world exists. There is a God who knows the future and hints to his higher Angels, higher beings that the future is known. Such premonitions never happen just like that. The future is multi-variant and it really can be changed, but if there was some premonition, and it really happened, and it could not be changed, despite attempts to do so, then it was given with the purpose of making a person and those to whom he will tell about it in the future believe, i.e. for testimony. A premonition is given either to change it (this is a premonition of something bad), or to increase faith in the Spiritual world in those who are not able to feel it.

#280, 01:13:25

The principle "From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs"

This is an attempt to transfer the experience of existence in the spiritual world to the material world. “From each according to his ability” means the contribution to the common cause of the evolutionary development of all spirits, which each spirit makes, so that this development is accomplished evenly, consistently for all parts of the universe. The desire for development and for ever greater complexity of any systems and spheres of reason is characteristic of any spirit, since any spirit is a part of God, who has invested in it the desire for itself, as for development. Development is understood as complication and acquisition of qualities that were not developed. “To each according to his needs” means God’s response actions through the entire universe to support the spirit, He gives the ability with his energy to support the spirit’s ability, to feed it with energy and give it the opportunity for development. This means “to each according to his needs”, but not according to the needs recognized by the egoistic false ego, but according to spiritual needs, which are visible in the true Light of God of each, since God sees the spiritual Heart of each spirit. This does not work in the material world. In no world, no matter how perfect and moral, can this law be realized because matter itself is inert. Those abilities that are manifested by the spirit, they must lead to matter. Abilities do not manifest themselves immediately, but needs are always there.

#263

The principle of the arrangement of elements in the periodic table of aliens

Principles of distribution of goods in society according to abilities and needs (socialist and communist)

The first is socialist: from each according to his abilities, to each according to his work. This is the principle of energy exchange, it is universal.

An analogue of energy, the labor that goes into producing one loaf of bread or a liter of milk, in order to somehow harmonize them, a single payment system was introduced: this costs so many units of something, and this can be purchased for so many units of something, and a person's labor can be paid for so many units. Such a system is for convenience. It exists practically everywhere on humanoid planets in one form or another, because it saves time and energy.

The second is communist: from each according to his abilities, to each according to his needs. Abilities and needs may sharply differ among different people, and this system is unrealistic for implementation in the material world, because the concepts of abilities and needs among people of the same society, and especially on Earth, where the most diverse entities are embodied, differ very sharply, for example: the ability to write poetry and the ability to engage in some kind of production from metal ore. Here is hard physical labor, and there is mental labor. Both will have abilities, but the needs may be different.

The society that will consume the product of the poet and the steelmaker can provide both with goods according to their needs, but the steelmaker may need 200 square meters of living space, and the poet - 50, and, accordingly, the poet's relatives will already have questions, and there will be transformations that do not have a very positive effect on the political egregor, on its harmonization. And all the same, it will take the form of one or another payment in universal units.

Communion

The sacrament, when a person goes to partake of the blood that is in wine in the form of energetic etheric vibrations of the same blood that flowed from the cross, and cleanses from sin, from low vibrations.

If the person who has received the sacrament descends of his own free will into low vibrations, he transfers his low energy state to Christ, hammers a new nail into his cross. Very figuratively. Not a physical nail, but energy transfers.

#486, 37:10

The reason for God's creation of spirits

Development of love, which is the essence of God. Absolute love cannot be alone.

#233, 15:04

The reason (meaning) for the emergence of yoga

Conducting various energies through your etheric body, facilitating work with any etheric energy center ("chakras"), contact with subtle-material civilizations, with the Spiritual world by concentrating on one thought, one energy. Some poses are for healing diseases, others are for strengthening your own thoughts.

#341, 35:39

Causal level (subconscious)

The fourth level of the aura of an earthly person, which contains images that are inaccessible in the normal state of consciousness, but which constitute past experience.

#14, 03:10

Causes of diseases

Failure to eliminate or even not to recognize the spiritual cause of the disease. In this case, physical treatment methods, medications, operations, physiotherapy procedures, energy and spiritual treatment methods, as the elimination of consequences, may be ineffective. Spiritual causes of disease are always strictly individual, even for the same disease in two different people.

#199, 58:46

Causes of war 12000 years ago

1 The Selbetians considered hybrids like us dangerous. 2 The representatives of Burkhad and Tumesout did not give the reptilians the opportunity to experiment with our dinosaurs, who were at that time, in order to create an intelligent race and reptilians on Earth too.

An image, a figurative expression from the 1st century AD. It signifies a departure from God, a return to evil deeds, a lowering of one's vibrations, a feeling of the need to serve evil.

#165, 25:07

Life expectancy

The lifespan depends on how successfully the spirit will fulfill the tasks set before incarnation. The behavior of the spirit, the increase of its vibrations, awareness, love, can give the right to prolong life. Degradation of personality, lowering of vibrations, negative feelings and thoughts can shorten the planned lifespan.

#81, 41:24

Damn

A conscious wish to destroy either the physical body, or the soul, or the soul's connection with God, that is, excommunication from something, from life. This is the concept of excommunication, which is spoken out loud or mentally, with a full desire for it to come true. This is a very strong thought form, charged with anger and resentment. It is created by the person himself.

#280, 01:13:25, #292, 06:38

Prometheus

A contactee who was given some biological weapons by one of the civilizations, from the Lyrian representatives. Prometheus was a military leader of one of the cities and came into conflict with another city. A biological weapon in the form of a mirror, from which, when held in hands, radiation comes, it changes the DNA of people, and they stop reproducing. It does not kill them directly, but affects their kind.

It was an invisible weapon, so that its use would not be noticed by the Interstellar Union and the rulers of these states. For us it was a weapon, and for the representatives of the Lyrians - a form of computer for transmitting information. Only the information was transmitted in a wave form, which thus influenced people, and in a way that was invisible to them. When this was revealed, the one who transmitted this weapon was sent to the planet of criminals, and Prometheus, as a contactee, was judged by representatives of the Earth. He was sent by boat to an uninhabited island. And as for the eagle that pecked at his liver, it was said that when Prometheus held a mirror, he often used it, and his own internal organs were damaged. He developed certain diseases of the internal organs, pain. It was in this form that it got into the myth.

#256, 50:25

Propolis, beeswax (application)

You can chew propolis to disinfect your mouth. Even if you swallow some of it, it will do nothing but good. When you eat honey in the comb, do not spit out the wax. In small quantities, up to 25 g per day, you can swallow it. It will only cleanse your blood of toxins. Natural beeswax disinfects the intestines from fungi, candida, E. coli. It absorbs 20 times more toxic substances from your intestinal wall than it weighs itself. And there are a lot of lymphatic vessels in the intestinal wall. This way you can cleanse your lymphatic system.

#255, 37:11

A prophet

A person who carries the word of God and speaks about it. A prophet speaks about the law of God, about the law of the Universe, about how to avoid sin. He can tell about the future, warning that it is multi-variant, and by changing behavior, a person is able to change the future.

Each contactee can be called this word to one degree or another. After all, a prophet is not only someone who predicts only one of the future options, but also someone who carries messages from the Higher Forces, from certain Angels, from extraterrestrial civilizations that are more sincere, high-vibration entities, from plasmoid civilizations.

The state when you understand the true power of the body and mind. And from this you become more harmonious, happy, bright. And you get rid of fears, condemnation, anger, slander. The state of merging with the Higher Self, with the Light that is in a person. Exit to the Spiritual world, but not to the Astral, but specifically to the Higher Self, associated with some event perceived by a person as Light. This leads to cardinal changes in a person's worldview, to changes in his life and departure from materialistic thinking. Types of enlightenment:

Enlightenment by Divine Truth.

Enlightenment by Divine Wisdom.

Enlightenment by Divine Life.

Preventive medicine

Medicine based on the fact that a healthy person is injected with substances to reduce the probability of him getting sick in the future several times. It is impossible to completely eliminate the probability, since each organism produces antibodies in its own way, but it is still possible to reduce the probability of the onset of the disease or its severe forms by tens of times.

Mental illness

Features of the connection of spirit and body that make possible the perception of the spiritual world. Some qualities of the spirit become manifest in the character of a person to such an extent that he loses self-control, and he develops a psychological pathology that causes psychopathy.

Part of the former territory of the garden in the Great Eden. Due to the war 12,000 years ago and the split of the earth's crust, it is covered with sand that burst out from under the ground.

#76, 14:41

The Way of Jesus

The path that each soul goes through when incarnating on Earth, but it goes differently. However, it is still the path of Christ. Any incarnation on Earth is the path of Christ.

#394, 24:36

The path to changing the consciousness of society

Teaching children on Earth about astral travel and telling them about the life forms that exist, about the subtle world, the spiritual world, spiritual levels, other planets, if you do this on a large scale, then the civilization itself will change, it will become more spiritual, there will be fewer crimes and wars.

#181, 30:50, 33:34

Bee venom (medicinal properties)

It contains substances that reduce inflammation, kill various microbes and cleanse the body of toxins. In moderate quantities, it is useful if there is no allergy to this product, as an excessive reaction to the received protein substance.

#255, 34:08

Bees, beekeeping (history of creation)

Bees appeared approximately 150-120 million years before the present time. They were created by representatives of plasmoid civilizations, who created collective animal souls for embodiment in insects. The purpose of creation is to teach plasmoid civilizations, to create such animal souls that can collect the energy of pleasure in the material world and do it collectively, since honey is a symbol of pleasure. Each plasmoid that creates a collective animal soul of bees puts a particle of its Light and enjoyment of life into it. That is why bees love sweets so much. They are like little children. It is important to treat them exactly like children. Do not show aggression, fear, mistrust towards them, and then they will respond to you in kind. They are very sensitive to a person, his disposition.

#255

Pollen

A product not fermented with honey. It has the property of cleansing the body of toxins and increasing its ability to adapt to various harmful environmental conditions. Even to ionizing radiation.

#255, 35:32

Sunspots

The emergence or death of a large colony of plasmoids. That is, some change in the plasmoid world, which entails changes in the plasma of the Sun by lowering the temperature. Moreover, both the emergence and death are accompanied by certain electromagnetic changes in the plasma structure of the Sun. This spot is not just a visual phenomenon, a visible spot. It has certain electromagnetic characteristics that affect all the planets of the Solar System, including the Earth. And the fact that there have been no spots on the Sun lately indicates that solar civilizations are currently harmonized with each other. No cataclysms are happening there.

#155, 18:33, #272, 01:14:17

Servant of God

An expression understandable to ancient people who existed during the slave system, to explain that a person is completely devoted to God and recognizes that his life and death are in God's hands. He is fully aware of his belonging to God, complete dependence on Him in energies, manifestations and in his actions. All that a person has is his own - only his thoughts, deeds and words, which he will take with him into eternity, the rest belongs to God and is given to him for a time. Awareness of humility and at the same time a feeling of cooperation with God in the form of serving Him, as the highest form of energy. The slave of God has submitted to the Law of the Divine commandment, the law of Love and Light, and the slave of his passions is a slave to material consumption, because he remains a slave to a person of slave psychology. And the person who loudly declares that he does not want to be a slave of God, but at the same time is a consumer, a person who devotes most of his energy and his time to the consumption of material goods and is afraid of losing them, is a slave to these material things and his own desires and passions, which force him to devote most of his time to material consumption.

Ravana

Collective image. It is emphasized that not only people acted against Ahasitra to limit her will, but that these people were in alliance with low-vibration plasmoid civilizations. Therefore, Ravana is described as some kind of animal creature that does not look like a human, but which at the same time can control him. In mythological terms, these are low-vibration plasmoids that helped the people who kidnapped this woman.

#326, 32:12, 33:28

Radiation

The energies of the second level, which do not need, do not need to be pushed out of the substance, they come out themselves. In this case, the substance is transformed into another, losing energy. Radiation can damage the energy of the first level that is in the molecules of a person. Like all energy levels, radiation is contained in all atoms, but it is not released from all atoms. Any substance can be radioactive in isotopes. Isotopes and basic substances of an element are taken into account in the Interstellar Union as a single element.

#248, 03:40, #1, 06:21

Radioactive ring

Second level of energy. The collision of solar energy with the Earth's magnetic field, forming "vortices" in space.

#24, 00:00

Radioactivity

Gamma radiation, the highest frequency.

#296, 01:00:47

Radio waves

First-level energy (one of the types) of a certain frequency range, which is created by a transmitter and captured by a receiver antenna, which transmits it to a converter. They pass through the human body without hindrance, without exerting any influence. Radio waves can be emitted by some plasmoid civilizations and become part of their bodies. Humanoid civilizations perceive certain types of radio waves with their visual receptors, as color effects in space, or perceive them with auditory receptors as noise. Radio waves can be emitted by some stars and nebulae.

#141, 55:36, #166, 27:37

Joy

A spiritual state that is inherent to any intelligent spirit. It does not necessarily manifest itself in the form of laughter or movement, there are different reactions of the body, different movements of the head. For reptilians, for example, it is the wagging of the tail.

#219, 34:35

Rainbow (syllabic and semantic analysis)

Ra – Sun, Light, God; Du – invisible being, subtle energy, vital energy, plasmoid; Ga – path, road. Rainbow – invisible (subtle) path to the sun.

#197, 06:35

Developing the Spiritual Heart

Bringing oneself closer to some ideal. The ideal for the spiritual heart is the one described by Jesus Christ: “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.” To see God is the goal of those who develop spiritually in this direction.

#393, 30:32

Entertainment

Something that brings joy, positive and uplifting emotions.

#422, 25:07

Disembodiment

The transition of the spirit to the level of the Spiritual world that it had reached at the moment of disembodiment. If God was the most precious thing to it, it means that it loved selflessly, did unconditional good. It will rise to the level of Angels, to the highest abode of the Spiritual world. As soon as the spirit leaves the embodiment, it unites with its Higher Self, and all its lives become available to it, but not simultaneously, but when it turns to one or another area of its memory. This is the same as a person does not have access to the memory of all the days of his life, but he can remember what he did approximately. In the spiritual essence, this memory is clearer, since it is not conditioned by the course of chemical reactions in the body, on which speeds may depend. Therefore, the memories of past lives in the material worlds are quite clear for spirits.

A type of genetic modification of an organism

Mutations aimed at those cells that are passed on to another generation, that is, children with new properties will be born. This is considered interference in the earthly race. But if any genetic mutations, positively directed in cells, for example, for the purpose of healing, can be caused in those cells that are not responsible for reproduction, and in those organs where there is a violation of the functions of these organs, then these changes are possible. But not by biological or chemical influence, because this will already be evidence of physical contact. But by bioenergetic influence with special fields. During various healing sessions, the targeted influence of energy fields created by both the GFS and representatives of the MS, the cells of the organ that a person is sick begin to change their DNA, produce gene editing in order to return to the state of purity of the cell that was before the disease.

#347, 23:25

Disagreements between the Interstellar Union and the Galactic Federation of Light

The differences that prevent these two communities from uniting.

1. The policy of non-interference in the affairs of young races, not only Earth. The Galactic Federation of Light insists on more active intervention, including the overthrow of politicians they don't like, in various ways, including not very humane ones. At the same time, according to the Interstellar Union, the karma of the general national egregor is not taken into account at all. History counts about 20 attempts at such intervention in the affairs of young races and it did not lead to anything good, and, in the end, these civilizations never became full-fledged members of the Interstellar Union.

2. The policy of Tashig and its colonies, actively supported by Selbet in matters of studying hybrids and hybridization, in various experiments on artificial intelligence and its connection with a living humanoid organism. Tashig, Selbet and their colonies have very active scientific communities, institutions, which are actively criticized by the Galactic Federation of Light for allegedly moving away from the divine essence of love. But the Interstellar Union gives complete freedom to researchers who study the material world, provided that their participation remains voluntary. The Interstellar Union believes that representatives of the political community have no right to influence the study of the laws of the Universe. Because this limits the horizon of knowledge, the desire for knowledge in young people and ultimately brings more harm than good.

3. The Galactic Federation of Light includes humanoid and plasmoid civilizations, and the Interstellar Union has fundamentally decided to include only humanoid civilizations due to the too great difference in psychology, psychotypes and methods of perception in bodies of different densities.

Any humanoid civilization, if it complies with the rules of the Interstellar Union, has the right to be a member of both communities.

#218, 27:34

Intelligence

A certain structure that has the ability to be aware of itself. The main energy of the mind in the understanding of the psychology of the Interstellar Union is consciousness and self-awareness. The mind is part of the immortal spirit, not the body, not something between the spirit and the body, but the most intelligent spirit, i.e. it is included in its structure. This is confirmed by the fact that, being in the astral, that is, outside the physical body, the spirit has the ability to reason, its mind acts. Three abilities of the mind are thinking, imagination, memory.

#233, 01:18:07, #344, 25:22

The intelligent man of the Earth

The spirit, embodied in the body by 30% to fulfill its task (70% remains in the spiritual world).

#233, 02:17

Intelligent immortal spirit (Limis in Daraal language)

The spirit, which is the same in all rational beings, wherever they are embodied: in humanoid and plasmoid worlds, and in non-embodied spirits in the spiritual world. The rational spirit differs from the animal soul (Eromes). It is embodied only in bodies intended for the embodiment of the rational spirit. The rational spirit can be conditionally divided into 3 parts: reason, energy and spiritual heart (essence), which together make up the rational immortal spirit. Each of the three parts, in turn, consists of three abilities.

#140, 18:34, #158, 12:18

Paradise

The state of any human spirit: embodied and non-embodied, specifically on Earth – the state of a person. The state of paradise is the state closest to the union with God in the form in which the embodied spirit can, in general, perceive in this material world. This fusion is possible when the frequency of vibrations of the human spirit and the frequency of vibrations of Divine energies coincide. Paradise is a conventional name in the Christian egregor of high vibrations, when a person feels the energy of God as bliss.

#46, 42:43, #76, 51:33

Heaven or hell

Symbols of high and low vibrations.

#36, 25:56

Cancer

A disease associated with a decrease in vibrations of a person, body organs due to prolonged negative emotions, lack of positivity. Negative energy passes through weakened areas and accumulates in energy centers (chakras), which leads to the development of cancer. This does not depend on age. Cancer can be found in a small child whose spirit has accumulated negative vibrations in a past incarnation. Of course, it was not by chance that he incarnated with these vibrations in this particular family. It often happens that his spirit has previously met the spirits of his parents, and their experience of interaction was negative.

#124, 05:25, #137, 53:22

Cancerous growths

Formations, the growth of which is provoked by negative emotions, due to a decrease in the vibrations of the organ. Each organ has its own frequency of vibrations of a healthy state, its decrease provokes disease.

#124, 05:25

Rakshasi

Spirits from the 2nd level of the World of Unincarnate Spirits. Spirits that are so filled with the energies of anger, hatred and vindictiveness that they direct all their activity towards violence against others, believing that this is the best way to protect and promote their ideas. They forget about the freedom of choice given by God to others and recognize the right to it only for themselves. They easily go to any form of conflict, sincerely believing that a good goal in their understanding justifies any means.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

Rama

A deified inhabitant of the planet Burkhad. Rama was the embodiment of the spirit that later, much later, incarnated as Krishna. Only Rama incarnated about 1.5 million years ago and he did not incarnate on Earth. Rama flew here without a wife (in fact, his name on Burkhad was Kramyar), as a researcher. 1.5 million years ago, the Burkhadians (and aliens in general) were allowed to marry earthlings. So it happened that one of his, as they would say now, contactees, became his wife, was transferred by him to the base. You now know her as Sita (Ahasitra). She was transported by him to the base. She was given special drugs that made her completely genetically compatible with Kramyar, and they had children.

#326, 25:24, 40:28

Ramayana

An epic describing the life of Ahasitra and the alien Kramyar (Ram). The tribe Ahasitra came from, her relatives, conspired with a tribe that lived far away from them. These relatives were against her marriage to the alien, because they had other plans for her. They kidnapped her when Kramyar was not there. They kidnapped her under the guise of meeting her mother and took her not to her country, but to the tribe (so that he would not find her) of those earthly people who helped them. This all happened about 1.5 million years ago. She told him through the Astral about what had happened. And he flew there on his ship. Kramyar said that according to the law of the Interstellar Union, they have no right to limit Ahasitra's will. They tried to detain her by force, and Kramyar was not alone, but with his friends, among them were earthling friends. They fought without weapons. While they were arguing, Akhasitra escaped to his ship, and he took her to his base and did not let anyone in there.

#326, 25:24, 40:28

Raomli

A planet that is part of the Galactic Federation of Light. It is located in the Pleiades cluster and rotates in a system of three stars (three suns). There are no oceans on the planet, mostly waterless space. There are small fresh water bodies, like lakes. Vegetation resembling shrubs is mainly concentrated on the shores of these lakes, since the climate is hot. The mountains reach a maximum height of about 3 km. The inhabitants of the planet are anthropomorphs. Currently, the population of the planet is about 55 million. The average temperature on the planet is +75 degrees Celsius. The main food is plant-based, since breeding animals in the conditions of the planet is problematic due to the sparse vegetation. A special type of mollusks is grown on the surface of water bodies, which are a source of animal food.

Rasputin Grigory Efimovich

A spirit from the 20th level of the Spiritual World. Incarnated into Grigory from the 16th level, after disembodiment he went to the 20th level. He is a representative of the Healing Angels of the 20th level. Grigory Rasputin's date of birth is 01/09/1869, in the village of Pokrovskoye, Siberia. He was married to Praskovia and the couple had three children: a son and two daughters. He asked the Tsar to give him the surname Novykh, because he suspected that all the rumors about his fornication stemmed from his surname, and people laughed at it. Grigory said that he was not fornicating, was pure before God and his conscience, respected his wife and therefore his prayers were healing for everyone. He was a healer and someone who talks to a person to calm him down, a psychologist. He was well versed in politics. He could answer any question quite reasonably, although he did not study this. He was a believer, even closer to a monk. This is a bright spirit, who was simply slandered out of envy from all sides. He said that he communicates with the Holy Spirits: with Archangel Michael, with Archangel Gabriel and with George the Victorious, that he sees them in dreams, in visions.

Crucifixion

Symbol of God's Love. Because if it were not for His Love, He would not have agreed to undergo such a difficult experience. Therefore, this is a symbol of His Love. Also, this fresco is a symbol of Love and the exchange of energies with all subtle civilizations responsible for all four elements.

The symbol of the cross is a pre-Christian symbol of dedication to the elements of air, water, earth and fire.

When the body of God is drawn on it, it is emphasized that during the crucifixion He transmitted the energy of Light not only to the egregors of the Earth and the soul of every person, in general, in the past, present and future. He transmitted it to the Spiritual world, in which there is no time. And to subtle-material civilizations, that is, He built His energy into their worlds so that they could be brighter. Brighter, so that there would be fewer parasitic civilizations. After He was crucified, and after He was resurrected, there were only 12 percent of parasitic plasmoid subtle-material civilizations left on Earth. And before that, there were 38%.

The fact that His body is depicted on the cross means that when He died, He transferred energy to the elementals, that is, the Spirits of the elements of air, water, earth, fire.

#439, 01:15:00

Plants (consciousness)

Consciousness, which plants do not have as such, but through them, through their life, through themselves, through animals and through plants, plasmoids can manifest themselves, which have consciousness, what we understand by a rational spirit. For example, through a tree, which has its own energy: since it has a soul of a certain type, then there is energy. And by coming into contact with the energy of a tree, you can adjust to it and through it come into contact with the plasmoid who helped in the formation of this soul. Or with some other. In general, the plant and animal worlds of all planets are under the influence, care and guardianship of plasmoids. Plants, like microbes, have a group soul of a microorganism. They are also alive, therefore group souls are embodied in them, since they are also created by plasmoids. Group souls are embodied in them, but of a plant type.

#40, 37:25

Expansion of the Universe

Illusion of material perception. Space itself is not empty, but consists of energies. These energies, which make up the structure of the space of the Universe, create such an image of perception, in which objects remote from the observer are moving away - this is a property of space itself. Moreover, it is expressed at any point in the Universe. That is, from any Galaxy it will be visible that all the others are moving away from it. And this is because the devices are tuned to a certain wavelength. Electromagnetic waves (light) propagate in space according to their own laws. The peculiarities of propagation (of light) in a supposedly empty vacuum contribute to the fact that visible objects are moving away, and everyone will see themselves in the center of this Universe. This space is infinite. And the Galaxies do not fly away from the center, but move in this space together with all the stars and are more or less independent of each other.

#251, 01:23

Races of the Earth

Three main races - white, yellow and black, into which a single race, the earth race of the third density, was later divided. It consisted of people who survived the war and who were brought back. According to various estimates, there were, on average, from 500 to 1,500-2,000 people who survived on Earth itself. They hid in caves, in mountains, in cracks and fissures of the Earth. They did not perish either from the war or from the cataclysms that followed.

#256, 02:29, 05:32

Races of the Earth (goals of creation)

Created after the war 12 thousand years ago by precise mutagenic changes in the DNA of the original human race.

Two main goals: firstly, so that representatives of these races could live more comfortably in certain natural conditions, and secondly, so that they could form, mixing with each other, different peoples, with different types of appearance, skin color, so that those spirits that are embodied in these peoples would transform xenophobia into a patient attitude towards the appearance of others.

#182, 01:32:38

Ratrings

Representatives of plasmoid worlds. Luminous beings, like genies in Islam.

Reality

That which exists in the perception of a being. Our material Universe, in which we now live. It is real and unreal at the same time. It is real from the point of view of our direct experience, which we perceive through the receptors of those physical bodies or subtle bodies in which all spirits are embodied. It is unreal from the point of view of looking at the material world as a creation of itself, because in fact, it is an absolute reality.

Reality in the understanding of the science of the Interstellar Union is not divided into objective and subjective. There is a single world of reality, this is what exists in all worlds and levels of manifestation: in the Divine world, mental, astral, etheric, physical, that is, your dreams, fantasies are also quite real in the mental world. The mental world is considered reality.

A feeling of control that arises from self-doubt and fears of losing it. When there is jealousy in the heart, it manifests itself through emotions of the same fear, anger, irritation.

Reincarnation (the reason why it is not mentioned in Christianity)

There are many people who believe in reincarnation, and at the time when Christianity was born, there were such people, they believe and believed that they would have time to correct all their evil deeds against God's Love in the next life. This belief did not help them change themselves in any way. This was the first moment.

The second point was due to contacts with plasmoid civilizations, which transmitted information to their contactees in a distorted manner. They said that human souls incarnate into animals, and animals incarnate into people. They mixed up these concepts. But in reality, only the etheric matrices of those animal souls that have already dispersed into the Astral are used. They can really go to build human souls. But this is not a rational spirit.

Even plasmoid civilizations transmitted that the etheric matrices of animal souls that dissipate can be used to create etheric matrices of people, but this is not the embodiment of the spirit. This is only a part of the etheric body.

They help build a person's ethereal body and not only the ethereal body. When the spirit incarnates into a person, plasmoids build ethereal channels for communication with the entire biosphere of the planet and, naturally, with themselves.

Regardless of the number of reincarnations, will find salvation in Christian terminology or will reach enlightenment in esoteric terminology, will raise their vibrations only the person who realizes himself as a spirit. Not as flesh, but as a spirit that fills the flesh, nourishes it, heals and cares for it.

#439, 17:21

rails

Energy flow aimed at restoring dense-material bodies of the humanoid-earth type. It is heterogeneous in its composition. That is, there are different types of Reiki, there are many of them now, more than 10 types. Reiki systems consist of energy frequencies of eleven plasmoid civilizations (subtle-material civilizations).

#26, 42:16, #28, 09:46, #76, 12:33

Advertising

A type of public opinion management. For example, election campaigning, when several party representatives participate. People cast their votes not for the one who will present a real plan for the country to get out of some crisis or solve urgent problems, but for the one who will promise them more. This is also management.

This is management by means of ideas. In fact, it is much more effective than chemical, physical influence or direct directive to do something. A person believes in it himself and directs the power of his spirit to accomplish a task that is beneficial to the one who controls him. The stronger the chains on a person, the more he believes in the freedom of his opinion, his choice.

His opinion was not chosen freely, but because he believed promises that were not even intended to be fulfilled. This is deception, manipulation.

#374, 26:59

Religious egregors

Energy, information formations that are responsible for the formation of religions on Earth and their manifestations in the material world. Each religious egregor has its own Guardian Spirits from the highest levels of the spiritual world, who monitor that lower spiritual entities do not connect to them.

#33, 08:05, 14:52

Religion

A certain system of teachings and rituals for establishing a connection with some higher being or beings that are higher for this particular person. Any religion in a figurative metaphorical form describes the reality of the Spiritual World.

A certain path to the image of God, which is presented in this religion. There are many religions and many images of gods. But the true God is one. Each person perceives it differently. Therefore, for a conscious person who sees with his heart, any religion will be salvific. But for a person who looks through his ego, through his egoism, uncleaned mind, any religion will be destructive. He will be able to achieve only a decrease in vibrations there.

#118, 12:50, #326, 04:20, #393, 01:13:27, #444, 18:29

Krishna religion (main goal)

Filling with His spirit, entering into His consciousness and becoming completely inseparable from this Consciousness. To achieve this, you need to see God in any person: in yourself, in your neighbor.

#305, 14:11, 28:45, 34:38

Religious symbols

A cross, a cross, mandalas, stones, crescents, talismans and so on are symbols of the energy invested in them, the life force, one's faith and love, helping to tune into vibrations.

#165, 54:31

Religious egregors

Energetically formed, we can say that these are collective entities created by your (and not only yours) thought forms of many, many of your ancestors.

The real attitude of the Interstellar Union towards religious egregors is, naturally, contact with the Guardians of the egregors.

Each egregor, including the religious one, has its own Guardians from the Spiritual World. There are patrons in the plasmoid worlds, there are patrons in the humanoid worlds. The Guardians of the egregors themselves can incarnate into people in order to develop their egregors, to bring some of their teachings there.

In religious egregors, they are the Spirits of Angelic levels, who through the egregor contact believers, send them thoughts about spiritual development in the language of this religion, treat them, heal, protect, and give information.

#411, 01:56

Reptile

A certain cold-blooded egg-laying creature, and the ending "id" means - similar. Similar to a reptile. This is also a type of humanoid.

#324, 38:18

Reptilian civilization

A civilization with a different biological development cycle, reminiscent of the cycle of earthly reptiles. Its representatives are characterized by cold-bloodedness, often not live birth, but laying eggs. A special structure of the brain, which, of course, determines a special way of embodied spirit.

It is believed that the Earth was intended specifically for reptilian civilizations. Because at the time of the discovery of the planet by the Tumesoutians five million years ago, there were many large animals of reptilian nature on it. Some Selbet scientists believed that the planet was more suitable for the reptilian race. They discussed a larger percentage of genes in the created hybrid, suggested up to thirty percent, but due to the fact that these genes were really incompatible with the genes of the Burkhadians, Tumesoutians and terrestrial primates, they left five percent. In the human genetic apparatus, there are genes that can be revealed in offspring, for example, a condition called ichthyosis, for example, that is, this is reptilian skin. And children can also be born, for example, with vertical pupils or with a third eyelid, these are also signs of reptilian genes.

#33, 38:50, #182, 01:24:04, 01:30:45

"Reptilian Brain"

The part of the brain that is responsible for the simplest, "plant" functions of the body. Humans share it with the animal world. The brain has traces of the influence of various genetics, 45% of genes from primates.

#360, 00:47

Roerich

The contactees of the planet Esler, practically in full force. They correctly, of course, at their level of understanding, transmitted information from the Eslerites. A little later in their lives, after 1920, there was a period of contact with plasmoids. And another five years later, they began a period of contact with the Spiritual World. They wrote books and published them periodically. Yes, there were times when one paragraph of a book contradicted some paragraph in another. But this was not because they did not know what they were writing, but because their experience, contact, also underwent changes.

#42, 33:55, #437, 15:50

The recipe for longevity for earthlings from the Lyrians

Conscious control of your body functions. This is possible through the knowledge of the power of the energy of faith, which is directed by the spirit to strengthen and develop your physical health. In the Interstellar Union there are school subjects that provide education in this matter.

#149, 33:20

Rhinovirus

A virus that causes infectious rhinitis. Its target cells are in the nasal cavity and nasopharynx, and are (but to a lesser extent) in the trachea and larynx. The target cells are mainly in the nasal cavity.

#390, 30:35

Drawings in the margins

Changing the state of plants in the field. Representatives of Tashig, as well as Pleiadian civilizations, send automatic probes with a spherically directed magnetic field of a certain configuration.

#270, 59:30

Rhythm of the Universe

The pulse vibration of the flow of etheric energy coming from the spiritual world to the material world for the formation and continuous maintenance of matter. Each of the pulses is divided into three flows, creating the energies of the first, second and third levels in atoms. The percentage of distribution of the etheric flow in atoms between levels depends on the specific type of atoms.

#141, 43:02, 44:44

Ritual

A human action in response to which energy from the spiritual world is directed, changing the person's aura.

#36, 01:31:12

Rishi

In Vedic astrology - contactees or incarnate Angels. Most often both: if he is an incarnate Angel, Angels begin to come to him, remind him, give information, and so on.

#279, 02:18

RNA (Ribonucleic acid)

One of the three main macromolecules found in the cells of all living organisms and playing an important role in coding, reading, regulating, and expressing genes. Like DNA, RNA consists of a long chain in which each link is called a nucleotide.

#246, 34:51

Generic task

The action and the quality of energy that the Guardians of the ancestral egregor offer the spirit in the incarnation it is going to, to build into the egregor. This is what the family offers to do for itself in exchange for the protection of the ancestral egregor that accompanies a person, especially in childhood. The ancestral egregor allocates a certain energy in order to preserve, protect, treat, heal all members of the family, especially small children. For this energy, the Guardians of the egregor ask for an energy equivalent, as if compensation. Because there is a universal law of energy exchange: if something arrives in one place, then this place gives something of its own in return. The spirit that came to incarnation through the ancestral egregor is endowed with a certain energy that helps it in childhood, growing up, adapting in the family, in this family. In exchange, according to the laws of energy exchange, it promises the Guardians of the egregor to fulfill the ancestral task. This can be in completely different forms. If the ancestral egregor itself is in the so-called stage of ancestral degradation, when a lot of negative energies from previous generations have accumulated there, then this is manifested by a decrease in the vibrations of the entire egregor and more frequent illnesses in the family. Completely diverse, but they are more associated not with the physical sphere, but with various addictions, mental illnesses, and the attraction of negatively tuned plasmoids. Destructive plasmoid civilizations with a negative ancestral egregor can form an alliance. If there is a very strong degradation of the egregor, this will already affect the noosphere of the Earth, or individual areas of the Earth where this family lives. If this is already built into certain negative plasmoid civilizations, cooperates with them, and affects other people, other egregors, then the Angels-consultants can decide not to send anyone else to incarnate into this family. And not immediately, but gradually there will be fewer spirits willing to incarnate into this family, and then the Angels-consultants themselves will close the possibility of procreation in various ways. It turns out that those who are born do not procreate. Dead-end branches. The egregor that is left without procreation, when its last representative leaves incarnation, will simply be left without nourishment from the material plane, and will gradually dissipate. Certain civilizations will help this, Angels who want to. If it is very negative, then perhaps destructive civilizations will first select all the negative energy from it, so that all the rest will be dissipated in the Spiritual world.

#517, 26:22, 33:34

Ancestral curse

A wish for some negative consequences not to one person, but to the whole family, the whole clan. If at the same time the clan has members of the clan, at the moment of the curse, who emit negative vibrations, then a mark appears in the clan egregor. It begins to influence, lowering the vibrations of the astral bodies of all members of the clan.

#292, 06:38

Ancestral egregor

This is a set of all energy-informational fields, which are composed of people who lived in the family. The strongest influence has the informational field up to 12 generations. The rest is less. Energy support. The more bright people a person has in his family, the easier it will be for him to overcome life's adversities, since he will feel the strength behind him and support.

#20, 24:33, 39:56, #123, 18:16

Soul mates

Souls that have attraction, a match in vibration levels.

#105, 50:00

Birth

A serious step for which the soul prepares, accumulates energy, asks the Higher Spirits, God to unite it with the body. This is serious work. Before birth, there is always a plan for incarnation, for this life. The term of incarnation is always known. The main term of incarnation and certain turning points are known, what needs to be achieved by this time. This does not mean achieving any material benefits.

There is only one goal for incarnation into the material world. It is diverse, but in a global sense it is one - it is a change in one's vibrations.

To be closer to the Source of everything.

#387,23:14

Birth of the Spirit

The fusion of the impulse of Divine Love in the flow of spiritual Light with the impulse of Divine Reason. Their fusion is accompanied by a flash of Light of a different vibration frequency and gives birth to the Will of the newborn spirit, the beloved child of God. Subsequently, the Will gives birth to the desire for autonomy and gives birth to self-consciousness as the primary monad, around which the impulse of Divine Love and the impulse of Divine Reason are encapsulated. Then, from the impulse of Love, the spiritual Heart develops, and from the impulse of Reason, the spiritual Reason, and from the Will born by Them, all energies of the spiritual essence originate.

#233, 52:08

Born in the Spirit

The one born in the spirit represents a spirit that has realized itself as an eternal, immortal, loving and beloved being.

#274, 01:12:10

Roswell Contact in the USA

Contact of Tashig representatives with earthlings. At the same time, the planet Tashig used its legal right not to report to the Interstellar Union details about the capture or about the voluntary contact of Tashig representatives and Earth, because each planet has the right not to report private things that concern only it.

#46, 18:07

Growth of a creature on a planet

A value that depends not only on gravity, but also on the strength of the magnetic field and also on the intensity of the body’s energy exchange with the environment.

Runic signs

Symbols of certain energies of certain plasmoid entities. It is like a call to contact with them. They are everywhere around us, everywhere around people. These symbols call plasmoids directly to contacts. They have an agreement with the magician that when these symbols are drawn, they send their energies.

The reasons for these agreements can be different, including the exchange of energies, for example, with the magician himself or with those people who come to him, or even with the magician's children. This is a mutually beneficial energy exchange. But what kind of energy exchange it is: aimed at the Light, at development or at destruction, this already depends on, one might say, the degree of purity of the magician's soul. There are light, holy plasmoids, like Angels, and there are destructive ones, who destroy. Which ones a person will come into contact with depends on his filling with certain thoughts, feelings, desires, aspirations, and so on.

Wax is a material, a substance that can manifest an impact from the astral world, from the subtle worlds. Wax manifests the energies of these plasmoid civilizations that are nearby. It is like their faces or images that they think about. They do not have faces in the understanding of people, they are from subtle planes, they consist of energies of subtle planes, therefore wax manifests those energies that are nearby. When it melts, it is in the field of these plasmoids that have come, and from this field it perceives the impact on itself and manifests it in matter.

Many plasmoid civilizations are responsible for runic magic, as well as for magic in general. There are dozens of them, but the degree of their influence on the processes in the Universe depends on their personal energy force, on the density level where they are, and, naturally, on the tasks of their embodiment. Plasmoids also have embodiment tasks, therefore the degree of influence of runic magic on reality depends on many factors. For example, on the strength of energy and on the degree of correspondence of these actions to the chain of events that the spirits built in the Spiritual World. Because if it contradicts them, everything can collapse, and no plasmoids will influence.

#420, 23:21, 27:26

Runes

Simplified alphabet of Burkhad, its forerunner. Ancient writing of many peoples (Scandinavians, Slavs, some eastern peoples). Each rune is a syllable, priests (contactees) communicated with plasmoid civilizations in a syllabic language. Each people had their own rune-syllables.

Mermaids

The name of one of the types of plasmoid civilizations that is responsible for the element of water.

#83, 12:58

Russian language

A complex product, created over thousands of years, containing knowledge inherent in the priests of ancient civilizations.

#197, 06:35

Ruckert Karla

Contactee with a solar plasmoid civilization.

When this woman contacted, it was necessary to clearly place the church attributes: the chalice, the Gospel, etc. If this was not displayed, then the low-vibration entity of the fourth density began to interfere. It was very important to clearly arrange everything so that the beam went exactly at the head of the bed. To verify the location of these church objects, candles, etc. to the centimeter. If these objects were in a certain place in that space, then they influenced her aura. In this way, she herself tuned her spiritual channel to the solar plasmoids. If they were not there, then her consciousness built a channel to those entities that matched the vibrations of her third chakra. There she had a block that attracted certain entities. She could not get away from this block, so she attracted low-vibration entities in the third energy center.

#183, 03:04, 01:09:45

Savvaty

A disembodied spirit who lived in Russia in the 15th century, a monk, a beekeeper. In the Christian egregor, he is one of the spiritual patrons of bees.

#255, 00:22, 30:22

Sathya Sai Baba

The representative of the Spiritual world, the Angel, prepares spirits for incarnation, makes a program for them incarnation and is their spiritual mentor.

There were more than 7,000 incarnations in the material world. He was incarnated in the Christian religious egregore 38 times. Not only in Christian, but in Christian-Jewish, in general biblical egregore. He was embodied as assistants of the ancient Hebrew prophets, such as the prophet Isaiah, wrote down after him, incarnated as a Christian monk more than once. He was born during the time of Krishna.

#413, 16:43

Sacred Geometry

The image of certain energy forms, conducted through perception, through the brain a specific person. Perhaps the energy lines of the room where he is, perhaps, any subtle structures, any energies that are in his own aura, for example, chakras.

A person who has seen some images from the Timeline can depict this in a sacred geometry, but in the form of colors, images, geometric shapes.

#446, 49:43

Sacred Geometry in the Universe

A way of describing reality based on the formation of spatial structures. It is not a building material, but a way of describing how this material forms various material forms: from huge galaxies to tiny microorganisms. Each density has different spatial structures. Space is more stretched, one might say, has a different extent, dimensionality.

#364, 06:05

Sakhya-rasa, vatsalya, madhurya

Certain forms of service to God, forms of interaction with him, contact with him. Different forms of attitude towards God, as a friend, as a child and as a lover. Depending on the state of consciousness of the human spirit, he perceives God differently. It also depends on his social service, social place. In the spiritual books of the Vaishnavas it is written that these forms exist in the Spiritual world. In order to become a devotee of God and go to Him in His Light, in His Light of Love, in His radiance, you need to treat your neighbor, seeing in him a reflection of Krishna, i.e. God, His particle. For example, if you see a little Krishna in your child and treat him in the same way, i.e. serve him, accordingly, this will be vatsalya rasa.

#326, 04:20

Self-love

Love for yourself.

#393, 17:42

Self-tuning

Positive thoughts with faith in getting rid of diseases and the absence of negative thoughts about the disease itself. To strengthen the immune system, faith and the absence of any blocks are needed. Blocks on energy centers will not allow faith to manifest on the physical level.

#86, 44:21

Self-tuning

Positive thoughts with faith in getting rid of diseases and the absence of negative thoughts about the disease itself. To strengthen the immune system, faith and the absence of any blocks are needed. Blocks on energy centers will not allow faith to manifest on the physical level.

#86, 44:21

Self-development

That is why any spirit comes here, first of all, for self-development, even if it comes absolutely altruistically, to help others. But this help is needed so that it feels closer to God. This is the goal of self-development.

#393, 21:24, 26:00

Self-awareness

A state of consciousness that is born when the energy of will is combined with the energy of divine reason.

#283, 23:16

Independence

The ability of a person to perform his own actions, but at the same time it is accompanied by taking responsibility. If a person is critical of himself (criticality has not gone away, it is directed at himself), then he will follow the images of that (we are not using the words “ideas” and “instructions” now, but we use the word “images”) whose goals and objectives, embedded in these images, will be close to his heart, his images, his desires.

#347, 32:25

Suicide

Taking one's own life, when everything is fine with a person, no one attacks him, but he commits suicide because of his mental suffering, mental torment. Torment and suffering are not just words, they are certain vibrations in his spiritual heart. If he kills his body, these vibrations remain in the spiritual heart, they do not go anywhere. He comes to the level that corresponds to his vibrations. If these vibrations are low, he comes to a low level.

When they pray for him in church, not just one person, but by attracting the power of the Christian egregor, then a lot of Light is sent to him, which begins to enlighten him, pull him out of there, figuratively "raise him". Only not to raise him to another level, but to raise his consciousness, so that he himself wants to go to God in another incarnation.

#393, 52:52

Samson

A universal contact with Burkhad, plasmoid civilizations and the spiritual world. It is because of this that King David gave him his kingdom after his death, bypassing his eldest son Adonijah.

#155, 54:37

Sansara

#184, 01:04:23

Sanskrit

A form of the Proto-Indo-European language. It was given to the ancestors of the Proto-Indo-Europeans from the planet Shimor in a simplified form. Many new words were added to it, which people themselves invented, including when communicating with each other, other peoples and plasmoids.

#258, 16:03

Seven-league boots

A symbol of the fact that in astral travel one can instantly find oneself in one place or another.

#258, 30:29

Satan

"Satan" (adversary or apostate in Hebrew) is not a separate person, but the dark side of each spiritual person, which allows it to deviate from the path of good. And the essence of the worldview of this "satan" is that freedom of choice, freedom of will is placed higher than the need to serve the Absolute Reason. The need for freedom of choice is the essence of "satan", because it creates the illusion of permissiveness. But in fact, there is no person independent of the Absolute Reason. The one who is called Satan in Christianity, and later the Devil, is a created image not of the entire race of reptilians, but of that group of it, which, unfortunately, went to war. The image of "satan" was created, like a snake, like a dragon for the Jewish group, with the goal of creating a new egregor, independent of the reptilians, since it was necessary to achieve the goal that they achieved with the coming of Christ into the world. Christ called Satan that civilization that retreated and became an enemy of the Interstellar Union and the entire human race.

#21,05:50, #32, 19:15

Saturn

A giant planet on which protein life is impossible in the form in which it exists on Earth, that is, in dense matter. But it has a powerful atmosphere, which allows subtle-material plasmoid civilizations of Saturn to live there, which feed on the energy of powerful thunderstorms occurring on this planet. Saturn is a symbol of karmic trials, an exam, a test of a person's spiritual level. This is not a stern father who punishes his son for a misdeed, but rather an examiner who lets him into the next step in an educational institution.

Eternity, Knowledge, Bliss.
#34, 01:18:57
Diabetes
A disease in which the state of the spirit is such that a person is not satisfied with life on Earth. Dissatisfaction with relationships, with food, with other areas of life. Because of this, the energy of the spirit through the etheric body begins to influence the level of insulin in the pancreas and reduces its concentration in the blood. The spirit with its energy reduces the sensitivity to insulin in all cells of the body: in nervous tissue, in myocytes, in muscle tissue so that the glucose level in the blood increases. The spirit believes that with little pleasure in life, the sugar level in the blood should be high.
#86, 12:16
Svarog
The Old Slavic name of the first-born son of God, Jesus Christ, who was still in the pre-Christian period. Christ is "anointed one" in Greek. In Hebrew, he was called Mashiach. This Spirit also had his own name. It was the Slavs who gave him the name Svarog at the time when there was still a proto-language. They decomposed this word into two syllables and one letter: Sva-ro-g. "Sva" is Light, "ro" is form, "g" is help, healing, salvation, deliverance, mercy. And all this together was deciphered as "a bright form for salvation." The image that Svarog or the first-born son of God took for salvation.
#324, 46:27
Svarog's day
The day of Christ, the day of his second coming, when the Earth will enter the Interstellar Union.
#324, 46:27
Hypersensitivity
Sensitivity is higher than the normal sensitivity for the human population. Increasing the vibrations of the quanta that enter the body's receptors can increase this sensitivity and they begin to capture a wider range of vibrations of the surrounding world.

#394, 1:01:32
World
The human name for the energy from which everything appeared. But it is like a force, energy, essence, mind at the same time. It is not a personality, like a person, but a personality or a mind that can simultaneously engage in a million different thoughts. Light is infinity. It is generated in the centers of stars during the transformation of helium and hydrogen atoms, during which thermonuclear energy and the energy of Light come out of the atoms. Light is also generated by the energy of plasmoid civilizations that live inside stars. The primary source of the energy of Light is the energy from the Spiritual World.

Freedom
Freedom from the images inside, which a person submits to, gives energy. Submits - means serves them. To serve is to give energy. If he gives energy to himself (interchange with himself, a closed cycle), then he does not spend it, but collects it and he begins to dissolve in the Light. Whether you have a body or not - it does not matter for the realization of freedom. You can be in the body and free, or outside the body, but imprisoned in the cage of your mind. The ability to go either along the path of development or along the path of degradation. Although God is Love and the right to both paths is given to us by God.

free will

The ability of a person to choose between possible courses of action without coercion. The principle of free will has implications in religion, ethics, and science. For example, in religion, free will implies that human desires and choices can coexist with divine omniscience. In ethics, the existence of free will determines the moral responsibility of people for their actions. In science, the study of free will can reveal ways to predict human behavior.

#238, 41:00

freedom of choice

The possibility of both loving God and coming closer to him, and leaving him into darkness and developing in the opposite direction. At the same time, God preserves love for absolutely everyone.

#233, 18:00

Free energy of vacuum

One of the types of external ether (torsion fields). Free energy of vacuum can exist in an absolute physical vacuum, with a complete absence of substances or energies in space. It is present in any cubic millimeter of space, even where there are no atoms and electromagnetic fields, because it is, as it were, between space. And it exists independently, that is, it already exists, but it can be extracted from the vacuum with the help of special methods of influence and used, transformed into energies of any level, even into gravity. This is the energy that part of the plasmoid worlds consists of. In agreement with plasmoid civilizations, there are special places where this energy can be extracted. To obtain this type of energy, a laser beam of special modulation is directed to the desired point in space. A "puncture" of space is obtained, from where the free energy of the vacuum is extracted. To extract energy from a vacuum, you first need to isolate yourself from the gravitational field, that is, it is possible to perform such actions at a distance of at least 100,000 km from the Earth, where there is no gravitational field (of the Earth or other planets).

Quark-carbon bond

A type of instantaneous communication used by the civilizations of the Interstellar Union, based on a certain type of energy waves that make up the energies in an atom.

Holy Spirit

In the original sense, it is God the Father, manifested through the matter of any energy, in any presence in the Universe. God the Father, so it is considered in the Spiritual world, or rather beyond all worlds, beyond the Spiritual world, the material world, in the place that is called in Christianity the "Kingdom of Heaven". God the Father exists there, and His manifestation in the material world or in the Spiritual world is called the "Holy Spirit". That is, it is the embodiment of God the Father in the world created by Him. Therefore, in Christianity, the difference between the Holy Spirit and the Son of God is that the Son of God is born of God the Father, and the Holy Spirit proceeds from God the Father, is not born. "Proceeds" is simply a transfer of the image, i.e. that he "descends" (was the original word). It was simply an embodiment of the image, that He is not born, but manifests. In Christian literature, "the Holy Spirit" began to mean different things. For example, the non-embodied part of man himself, what is called the "Higher Self". Because the word "Spirit" is "Spiritual Self", and the word "Holy", that is, "Light" is that part of Light that is not embodied. Also, in some Christian books, an Angel can be called "Holy Spirit". And this is a common name for the Christian egregor and some spirits that possess Light. In the Christian emerging church, the concept of the Trinity was introduced: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This was done in order to form in Orthodoxy, in the Christian egregor, the concept that we were created by three civilizations, that is, the Trinity. The entire Christian egregor was built on the soil of the more ancient Jewish egregor.

Archangel Metatron, when he came into contact with earthlings, with the apostles, with their disciples, when he presented himself to them as Metatron (this was mentally, they wrote down these thoughts), they perceived him in the form of a bird, imagined him in the form of a huge white bird, as the Holy Spirit (he showed them wings, that he was an Archangel). This is their perception.

Holiness

Divine Light and Divine purity, and at the same time a state of unconditional Love, which increases the vibrations of this space, and makes it very difficult for low-vibration entities to be in this space, be it plasmoid worlds or disembodied spirits.

#239, 51:44

The Saints

Former name "light". Angels with a high vibration frequency and a high level of awareness of themselves as Light.

#19, 01:08:43

#199, 01:22:43

Priest

The one who conducts special Christian rituals (sacraments) that facilitate the conduction of the energy of the Christian religious egregor and the Spiritual world in general in the material world. These sacraments connect the world of believers, the material world with the Spiritual world. In order for him to conduct these sacraments and be endowed with this energy, Christ himself taught the Apostles to transmit these energies to the Christian religious egregor through ordination, in Greek "hirotonia".

#239, 37:16

Self-love or self-love

#253, 00:48

Sexual energy

High-vibration energy, a form of manifestation of Divine love in the physical body of a person, the purest, absolute, unconditional love that exists in the spiritual world, its reflection in the body. It can be directed differently depending on the mental settings of the spirit. In order for Divine energy to manifest correctly and raise vibrations, you need to put your spirit and the spirit of the person with whom you will exchange energy first.

Representatives of the race are cold-blooded, reptilian-like, upright, oviparous creatures. They are one of the three creators of the earthling race. The genes of the Selbetians manifest themselves in a clear form in some human genetic diseases, such as ichthyosis, in which a person develops scales, that is, the reptilian gene manifests itself.

Selection

Directed mutation. Only it is directed by people.

#495, 30:06

Plant Breeding of the Earth

The changes that Earth's plants underwent to make them bear more fruit, with more nutrients, to have a longer growing season. All of this was created for the first ancient people.

All plants that exist on Earth were there, but not in the form they are now. Many were subjected to selection by people themselves. But when representatives of other civilizations arrived on Earth, they also experimented with the genes of various plants to breed species with the necessary properties. This especially affected the cereal family.

When people began to live on earth, they began to grow ancient wheat, barley and other crops from a field plant. This is a wild plant of the cereal family, somewhat similar to bluegrass. Something similar, only the ear is different. This type of bluegrass underwent a targeted genetic mutation and the seeds of wheat, barley and other different plants were obtained. Of course, we can figuratively say that they were brought from other planets. But this only means that it was not they that were brought, but the ideas for their creation, the material was on Earth.

Everything happened in contact with the plasmoids and under their control. They created a plant soul for those plant seeds that had altered properties. This was in consultation with them. The specialists of the Interstellar Union, before making changes to the genotype of any body occupied by a living soul, first create a general council with the creators of this living soul - plant or animal, so that everything goes harmoniously.

#288, 59:19

Family egregor

An entity formed when a man and a woman create a family.

#114, 52:41

Seven Heavens (in Islam)

The image of the presence of Divine consciousness. The division is given for the consciousness of people. The First Heaven is our visible Cosmos. The Second and Third Heavens are subtle-material civilizations. The Second Heaven was most likely inhabited by those who were called "evil jinn" or shaitans. The Third Heaven was most likely occupied by higher-vibration plasmoids, "good jinn" who follow the path of Allah. The Fourth Heaven is the astral world. The Fifth Heaven is the world of disembodied spirits, but disembodied low-vibration spirits live there, those whom we call demons. The Sixth Heaven is the middle spirits, which we designate from the 9th to the 16th level. The Seventh Heaven is already Paradise, where the Angels are.

#260, 00:20

Saint-Germain

An embodied spirit located on the 24th level of the Spiritual World. A genetic relative of earthlings. Lives on the planet Disaru, in the city of Tussin. He was born there when it was 1537 on Earth, and spent a long time on our planet under the guise of an earthling, because he is physically indistinguishable from them. The race of the planet Disaru is exactly the race that was resettled from Venus as a result of the war 12 thousand years ago. He studied the history of this planet, the history of its settlement, and although this happened quite a long time ago, he studied historical chronicles. Communicated with the spirits that were embodied there.

He was also incarnated as Joseph, Christ's stepfather, and was responsible for his upbringing and adaptation to earthly conditions. Joseph was 48 years old at the time of his marriage to Mary and died at the age of 75-76.

Seraphim of Sarov

Curator of the Earth. One of the main Guardians of the Christian egregor. In an earlier incarnation, he was Archangel Michael.

Is the Supreme Hierarch, fully responsible for the planet Earth. Patron of the entire Earth in the Spiritual World. Manages the department where the Arhats and Angels-consultants are located, who send all spirits to incarnate on any density levels to Earth.

#133, 58:29, #424, 00:03, 04:49

Sergius of Radonezh

The keeper of the Christian egregor, patron and curator of the Russian Federation on planet Earth in the Spiritual world. The first incarnation on Earth took place about 300 years after the creation of people. Under Jesus Christ, he was also incarnated and was the father of Apostle Mark.

Sergius of Radonezh was embodied in life from the 21st level. He had a mission to study the faith and with its help to gather a united people. At this period of his life, he was called Bartholomew. In total, there were four children in the family in which he was born. It was a peasant family. Now, in the place where he lived, the Yaroslavl region is located, somewhere near Yaroslavl.

Because of the injury and the genetic characteristics of the body, he could not memorize letters so successfully as to read the Holy Scripture. A little over two years after the first physical contact with aliens, when his head and brain were restored, his life was out of danger. But when the mentors and curators saw that he himself could not cope with this problem, Archangel Gabriel additionally gave him a sacred liquid, which allowed the brain to be completely restored. And after that, he became the first among the students.

The human heart

The central organ in the human body. Hence the ancient word "heart", from the word "middle". In the projection of this physical heart is the anahata chakra, which is a symbol and energy center of the manifestation of the spiritual heart. The spiritual heart is the heart of the spirit, the eternal immortal spirit, in which its essence is located. Simply put, where the very essence of the spirit is located, which consists of three structures - feeling, desire, instincts. Therefore, the physical heart unfolds into a Mobius strip. God arranged it this way to show people that the physical heart is a reflection and continuation of the spiritual heart, the source of eternity in man. The Mobius strip is a symbol of eternity and infinity of the Universe, as the entire set of material and spiritual energies.

Symbol of the egg (Easter cake)

Symbols of the Christian egregor from plasmoid civilizations that agreed to the presence of this egregor on Earth for the reason that Christ transmitted Light to them while being crucified on the cross.

A symbol of life, a symbol of how from the shell, where the chick is not yet visible, but it is there, and then it comes out of there. Therefore, eggs, even in the pre-Christian period, have always been a symbol of fertility, a symbol of the birth of new life.

Red has always meant blood. This shows that new human life begins at the moment of Christ's resurrection, when He changed all human nature with His vibrations. He did this with His blood, which He shed on the cross. That is why the egg is red.

As for the Easter cake. This is also an ancient form of treat in honor of the birth of God, for example, the Sun. This form was in different Proto-Indo-European civilizations. They had different flour, but in any case, such a product was baked long, like Easter cake. And it was greased on top with white, for example, milk, sour cream. This was also a certain symbol of fertility.

#439, 48:05

Symbols and syllables

In ancient times, syllabic writing meant that each syllable represented a specific symbol.

#250, 43:13

Synergy

Life in the consciousness of God. This is a joint action of God and man. Whatever name people give Him on Earth, it is always the same Divine essence. It can be recognized by the active spread of love, joy, life, truth. God gives us strength, intelligence and energy to embody material, any natural entities, objects. We accept this with our will, our desire, our energy. It is important to learn to trust yourself, learn to trust the Universe and completely trust God. And remember that the result of our actions depends on both people and God, almost equally.

#354, 11:31

Synergy (synthesis of different directions of healing)

Combination of several directions into one whole: cosmoenergetics; plus those frequencies that were not included in cosmoenergetics, similar to reiki, originating from plasmoid civilizations (only not those civilizations that gave reiki, but others); and plus the physical impact of certain sounds - such a direction of treatment as sound therapy. Thanks to this, a complex effect on a person, on his energy and on his body is achieved through special areas of the brain, which are excited or inhibited, due to certain combinations of sounds.

#123, 01:15

Sink

Plasmoid (Earth, Solar System). Incarnated from the 17th level. Easily changes its shape, volume, size. Can take the form of a person, an animal. The original form is a cylinder, 0.5 m in diameter, about 2 m high. Color is between gray and blue. The house spirit of the center of Cassiopeia. Incarnated Guardian Angel of the home space. Appointed to the place of the main plasmoid of the city - Manu. In the city of Voronezh, Manu is the plasmoid Arkhiz, 28th density level, his body is 26 km in size.

The ability of the mind to see the same semantic content in completely different texts, in completely different information components.

System Varn

The early political and social system on Venus resembled the system in India, but not such a rigid caste system, which developed into the Varna system, when some group was responsible for each social action. The rulers were called princes. By the time of resettlement to Disara, the entire inhabited part of Venus was divided into twelve regions. These were not countries, but principalities. They did not have a flag, anthem, separate monetary units, language. There were just dialects. The power of these princes was passed on by inheritance, but not always. They did not have a strict monarchy, there were no slaves, everyone was free, as a community of free owners who live on the land, live in nature. Their economy was based more on their own economy and crafts. There was such a period on Earth, but it passed with wars over land, over capturing slaves. There was no such thing on Venus, there everyone lived more in understanding and friendship.

#402, 23:08

Intergalactic Security System

The security system that allows the Interstellar Union to protect the Galaxy from hostile invasion. An important part of the security system are gravitational beacons that are placed throughout the Galaxy and allow for proper exit from intergalactic jumps. They are tuned only to the ships of the Interstellar Union, the Galactic Federation of Light and ships from other Galaxies that have received special markings. There are also other, slower principles of movement in space without gravitational beacons: photon, ion engines, there are intergalactic ships on the free energy of vacuum, but they are more difficult to build, they require high plasma field energy for their operation, they are easy to notice. For security purposes, the Interstellar Union also has bases on the outer approaches to the Solar System, including the ships of Ashtar Sheran, and on the satellites of the outer planets, gas giants, on the Moon, on the Earth itself. All this is equipped with special equipment that will notify of the approach of an unfamiliar ship.

#258, 30:29

Speed of light

A parameter that is not constant. Dependent on the source emitting the light, on the intensity of the flow and on the space in which the light is propagating. At the outskirts of the galaxy and in intergalactic space, the speed can be 150-170% higher than the traditional constant of terrestrial science of 300,000 km/sec.

A modified design of the Burkhad runes, transmitted by plasmoid civilizations.

#197, 12:33

Word

Manifestation of spiritual energies through the physical body.

#297, 38:00

Name change

Changing the vibrational characteristics of the entity. It begins at the moment of changing the name and ends seven years after this change. All these seven years there is an adaptation to new energies and it is not the spiritual level given during incarnation that changes, but the formula for calculating the Tree of Life and the vibration of the tasks of incarnation that changes.

#203, 05:00

Gender reassignment (reasons)

The desire to change gender due to too strong a memory of the past body. Such memory is not left by chance, but so that a person could adapt to a new body, to a new energy, with this memory, to gain a new experience of accepting his body as divine energy. If a person changes gender, then he will not fulfill his task of incarnation, but will return to the memories and sensations of the past that came from his physical body, and he will not be focused on spiritual development.

#181, 30:50

The death penalty

The decision of a low-vibrational spirit, which, due to its blocks and other low-vibrational states, came to some real crimes.

#214, 35:20

The Death Penalty from the Interstellar Union's Perspective

An action considered unacceptable in any crime. This is the deprivation of incarnation before its natural exit, deprivation of the right to correct mistakes at least at the level of dissolving the blocks that led to destructive behavior. In this case, the spirit is sent to lower levels and very often returns again to the same race that executed its body. It is already even more embittered. From childhood, it shows negative character traits.

#391, 38:16

Death

Transition from one energy state to another. Death does not exist, it is an illusion of perception based on a person's idea of the finiteness of some process. If some process is finite, then it does not exist. All existing processes are infinite.

#367, 30:44, 34:27, #387, 13:30

Death of the spirit (death of the soul)

An allegory that signifies separation from the Source of life, which is God. But this is not the cessation of existence. Moreover, even physical death is not the cessation of the existence of either body or spirit, but simply their separation.

Physical death is the separation of the soul from the body. But the body itself continues to exist in the form of elements, not a single quantum will disappear from it. Not a single atom will disappear from it. It will pass into nature. It will pass into other bodies. Just like the spirit. It will not disappear, but will pass into other forms of existence, and subsequently into other bodies.

The spirit is immortal. It is a part of God, the beloved child of God. It cannot die: "cease to exist as an awareness of oneself." Spiritual death exists in the sense that the spirit can leave high vibrations, from the Source of life, which is God, Love, Truth. Go into opposite energies and vibrations. If it left life, then it came to death. Such death does not imply the cessation of its existence. This is the state of its soul, its spirit, its energy, when it denies everything, a nihilist. These are the levels of demonic planes, from which spirits also incarnate in order to return to the Light.

The question of the finiteness of incarnations is decided by the spirit. It can stop its incarnations at any moment. Stop at any level: at the first, demonic, or at the 24th. It can say: "I no longer wish to incarnate and will not go to choose an incarnation for myself." No one will say a word to it. This is its full right.

Whoever wishes to constantly incarnate and bring his Light, which he has achieved, to the world, or to achieve this Light, if it is not yet realized, this is also the right of any spirit. A final or infinite incarnation, nirvana or samsara awaits you, only you decide.

#219, 34:35

Meaning of life
A specific goal that is valuable to a particular individual.
#315, 00:22
The meaning of life of spirits
For the generation on the third level of density – in the awareness of the value of their life, the value of the life of another person and in overcoming egoistic accumulation programs in themselves, overcoming fears, openness to the world, overcoming fears of equivalent energy exchange. Many spirits come here with initial karmic fears. They have a conflict between such concepts as how much energy in any form to take from the world, and how much energy to give. And overcoming this conflict is one of the tasks of this generation of spirits. The meaning of this task.
The meaning of life for spirits incarnated at the same density level on the same planet may differ depending on generations.
#465, 01:01:00
The meaning of “16108 wives of Krishna in Dwarka”
Each number has a symbolic meaning, characteristic of the understanding of the people who wrote these texts. "1" means God and me, as one being with Him, "6" symbolizes absolute Love. "0" means infinity. The last number "8" represents contact with the material world and the spread of energy flows. All together it is expressed as infinite love, which has been developed and is spreading to the material world.
#310, 01:33:32
Bigfoot (Yeti)
A representative of the tribe of earthly people who, after the war 12,000 years ago, did not follow the path of technocratic development, but continued to live in fusion with nature, with plasmoid civilizations. Thanks to this, they developed feelings of perception of the spiritual world, energies, and they began to possess a different way of thinking, which allowed them to better control their physical body. They are able to teleport, levitate, and all this thanks to the power of their thoughts and faith in what they do.

Separation of the astral body of a person from the physical, unconscious travel in the astral world.
Partial memories of travels outside the physical body. Human nature allows the spirit to be in the astral space while the body sleeps.

The spirit itself does not need rest, unlike the physical body, so while the body is recovering, the spirit leaves it.

A body that is as close as possible to the ideal for performing its task chosen for the current incarnation.

#244, 02:22

Conscience

One of the reflections of the Higher Self, but more connected with the moral norms of society. The Spirit, incarnating in each, has a blocked memory of the past and moral norms in it manifest themselves in the form of feelings of what is possible and what is not. If the act committed now took place and its consequences were experienced in the past incarnation, then the Higher Self will tell you through conscience that this is wrong. And this can be bypassing the opinions of others and logically explaining to yourself why this is so.

A type of communication with the Higher Self.

Training the Angelic Consultants responsible for the entire Galaxy on how to properly incarnate spirits, how to select conditions for them and how to create events that lead them to Light awareness and acceptance.

A side activity of the Karma Council (this is more the job of the Arhats) is to monitor the development of political and religious egregors on all planets of the Milky Way and at all levels of density, in all Worlds of the Milky Way at all levels of density.

The Chairman of the Karma Council is Archangel Metatron.

#446, 34:55

Ursa Major Constellation (one of the civilizations)

A civilization of intelligent underwater creatures resembling dolphins, only larger in size, a different color, and having different eyes. Conventionally speaking, these are intelligent dolphins. They are not incarnated as animal souls, but as intelligent spirits. Their nervous system is capable of accepting an intelligent spirit. Since they live underwater and have fins instead of hands, they swim. They do not have the ability to build a spaceship and travel physically in space. This civilization is part of the Interstellar Union. Its representatives can travel in reservoirs specially created by other civilizations.

#296, 45:00

Sagittarius constellation (one of the planets)

A planet in the constellation Sagittarius, located more than 2000 light years from Earth, and part of the Galactic Federation of Light. Not part of the Interstellar Union. Representatives of this planet have gray-blue skin, the gray-blue color shimmers in their astral bodies. They can heal and restore the spirit.

Creation of Races (Reasons for Creation)

Their creation after the war by means of directed mutations of different races so that people could settle in different parts of the Earth and live in different climate zones. It can be said that the progenitor of all races is the European race. It was resettled mainly north of the Mediterranean and Black Seas. A by-product of the creation of races was the elimination of xenophobia in this way. When representatives of different races interact with each other, they develop tolerance for the appearance of others in their political and social egregors.

The creation of man

An experiment by representatives of three civilizations: Tumesout, Burkhad and Selbet, with the goal of creating a hybrid of terrestrial primates. 3 million years ago, the first man was created as a result of introducing genetic material into the nuclei of primate cells. In percentage terms, the following participate in human genes: 45% primate genes; 35% Burkhad genes; 15% Tumesoutu genes; 5% Selbet genes. The first 18 people were created: 9 men and 9 women. People were created at the embryonic level and born from female primates using genetic modification or artificial insemination.

Consciousness

The embodied part of the spirit. The energy of the spirit, aimed at perceiving the surrounding world and oneself in it. This is the perception for building one's individual subjective world. Consciousness, as the energy of the spirit, permeates the entire brain, through it from the receptors information about the surrounding world is transmitted further into the structure called thinking. Thinking requests information from memory. This is approximately one twentieth of a second for a person - such a possibility of neural pathways. Consciousness, in order to perceive the world, one can say, charges the brain to the last cell. It charges it with itself. And through the brain, through the receptors of the body: eyes, ears, skin, tongue, nose, it reads the space where a person is, in general, through his body, through his sense of body position, sense of gravity, and so on. The energy of the spirit, aimed at perceiving the external and internal worlds, in turn, is divided into consciousness, as perception, and self-awareness, as the perception of oneself, different from others.

Krishna Consciousness

The state when a person begins to relate to others, to himself and the world in the same way as Krishna saw it. Through the prism of his consciousness, awareness and mind enlightened by the Light of Love.

This is not Krishna consciousness, but the realization of Krishna as yourself and yourself as Krishna. Not as a phantom, but as a whole. When you speak of Krishna consciousness, speak of it, of the realization of yourself in it and of the realization of Krishna in you.

The superposition of two energies. The energy of the Sun begins to pass through the field of the Moon, they connect. Their magnetic fields and etheric vibrations connect. Each celestial body is surrounded by an etheric shell, atmospheric electricity, so that people's immunity can be suppressed.

Solar wind (polar lights)

The flow of energy of various types of radiation, which is visible at the North Pole, due to its special structure. It has the following types of radiation: hard radiation, X-rays, gamma, which, reflecting from the atoms present in the air, create light emanating from the Sun. Particles of energy that spread in space, reach not only the Earth or Mars, but also far beyond the solar system, and practically do not lose their energy, including coming from the atmosphere of other planets, despite the fact that they are at a great distance from the star. Therefore, these particles interact with particles of gases, with atoms of gases that make up these planets, they create their own magnetic fields just like on other planets.

Order of the Union of Six

A union of planets that are not members of the Interstellar Union, but are in fairly close contact with Selbet, Tashig, and its colonies that are not members of the Interstellar Union. They have their own local information networks through which they transmit information. The theory of secrecy is very well developed. The highest representatives of the elite in their society are used to keeping everything secret from ordinary representatives of their people. Elitism is very often passed down by inheritance in this society. It is very difficult for an ordinary member of society to get into the governing elite; one must go a very long way, approve all the actions of the authorities, and show oneself to be a very respectable citizen who can really benefit this elite. It is not that easy. They mainly have families that pass it down by inheritance.

#140, 06:48, 08:57
Methods of human burial
The Interstellar Union uses technologies where the body is placed in a special transformer, in which the molecules that make up it are broken down into individual atoms. From these, certain elements are obtained that can be used in any process. The elements are rearranged.
As for the Earth, it is only a matter of tradition. The body was given over to fire, thanks to the tradition in which the God of Fire Agni was honored and worshiped. He helped when burning the body. It was long ago, in Vedic times, when the Vedas and their interpretations were written. Burning the body in fire sent the soul to heaven in a stream, in a column of flame. God Agni helped the soul ascend, taking energy from the body. When it burns, it releases energy. It was believed that Agni helps to ascend to heaven. In other words, this is an appeal to plasmoid civilizations so that they help to pass the astral world full of danger for those who did not work on dissolving the blocks in their lives. This is a meeting with an entity, so that God Agni and his assistants the Salamanders accompanied this soul together with the Guardian Angel and illuminated the path with their fire.

As for burial, which did not exist in ancient times in Rus', where did it come from? It came from the story that each soul will be united with its body after the resurrection, after the second coming of Christ. There was such a record in the Christian Bible. When Christianity came to Rus', a custom developed to preserve the body in a box as much as possible. Belief in the resurrection of the body.

There were customs when the body was thrown into the water to give it to the spirit of water. It became food for fish. The spirit of water through its servants fish divided it into parts and returned it to nature.

As for countries where it was not possible to make a large fire or bury the body deep in the ground, they gave the body to the birds.

For the soul, for the spirit, which is pure, not attached to the material world, which is directed to the spiritual, it makes no particular difference what happens to the body. The spirit will go to the Spiritual world to its level in any case and will not worry about the body.

If a person misses his relatives, his body, wants to return to his property, then the rapid destruction of the body in any way helps him to quickly understand that it does not exist, and that vital energy is not released from it.

When the body dies, energy can be released from the cells for several months. This can attract a soul that feels nostalgia for earthly life. In this case, cremation is preferable for such a soul. For a soul that is striving for God, there is no particular difference.

#413, 01:10:08

Methods of destruction of political egregors of different countries of any system

Creation of a negative image of the ruler and people close to him. This negative image of the ruler begins to form a negative thought form in the political egregor, which is fueled by people's thoughts and negative emotions and feelings associated with these beliefs. In this case, the negative image of the ruler begins to influence the ruler who is actually in power in the material world. Sometimes it even enters his field, if he himself, with his low vibrations associated with something, attracts him and is combined with his consciousness, and the ruler himself begins to correspond to this image. And, thus, the image of the negative ruler among the people is further reinforced, and all this is twisted into such a wheel that, in the end, it ends with the overthrow of this ruler or his death from his own negative emotions, etc., withdrawal from incarnation. And, accordingly speaking, either his overthrow by this society and the coming to power of another person, whose image is positive.

He was a communist by conviction. A sincere, convinced communist who communicated personally with Vladimir Ulyanov, Plekhanov, Yezhov and others.

A great personality, who even in very difficult personal conditions, negative blocks, still managed to come to power and take control of the country in one of the most difficult periods of its history. And to hand over this country to another leader in 200 times better condition than he took it. This is his talent as a leader, psychologist, ideologist, his curators, who were also there and, despite the, communicated with him.

Aging

The process of switching off cells and some cellular structures from activity. They first slow down their renewal, repair, and then completely stop functioning. In the cell, not only mitochondria age, but also other organelles. All this is determined by the program, the genetic code, which is embedded in DNA and RNA. At the genetic level, the duration of the sequence of actions of a specific organelle is embedded, as well as any large organ in the human body.

The lifespan of cells and the entire organism as a whole can be influenced by the spirit, the intelligent consciousness that is inside the body, embodied, connected with matter.

#409, 25:22, #410, 03:21

Old age

A set of elements that are controlled from the outside by intelligent spirits, embodied in their plasmoid worlds and tasked with managing, directing one or another element. The usual term is "Salamander" for Europeans.

#33, 25:13

Fear

One of the forms of perception of materialism. Activation of the instinct of self-preservation, which manifests itself through the body. Violation of the first chakra, which can further cause diseases of the physical body and destruction of the aura.

An emotion that is a reaction to a danger to life, to some human program. This emotion arises as an excitation of energy, as a reaction to a violation of an instinctive program.

Fear can be justified or unjustified.

Justified - when it is really dangerous. To remove it, it is necessary to change the situation, if possible, remove this danger.

The unfounded does not disappear when the danger is eliminated, it exists as based on an imaginary situation. Here it is necessary to turn to the Higher Self, find out the reason when it arose, what frightened the person, dissolve this block and fully admit to trusting

God. Then it will disappear.

Fear of God (The concept of "fear of God")

A figurative expression that is understandable only to the spiritual heart, and not to the mind, which is accustomed to understanding the word “fear” as fear of someone, of something.

We remember that God is Love, there are higher energies of Love, life, Light, which does not wish harm to anyone. This is in all religions. And such fear as before a person, before God is impossible. He does not want to be feared as some creature that does not love.

This is the feeling of a person’s emotion when he experiences fear of lowering his vibrations, of leaving the Divine Light of Love.

Fear of being without the presence of God. Of being without God. Of becoming incapable of feeling. Fear of sinning, of committing some sin, some bad deed.

Fear of losing God's presence in your soul, in your spiritual heart.

Builders (spirits)

Spirits from the 12th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits. Spirits whose main goal is to create comfortable living conditions for themselves and their loved ones in the material world. They are ready to work hard for this both physically and mentally, but often consider matter, if not the only reality, then the most important condition for peace of mind and harmony, which they call happiness. Spiritual searches are often incomprehensible and boring to them, although they most often do not condemn all this in other people, but they are closer to the joy of a job well done than from music or a book read, and even more so from prayer or meditation.

Suicide

Deliberate deprivation of one's life in order to get rid of any material or mental suffering in the body. A visible action of the embodied spirit, but it is always caused by a sequence of reasons. And these reasons themselves are deposited as a block in the astral body, affect the mental attitudes of the spirit, and suicide is only a material embodiment of these thoughts, feelings, desires and emotions that were not processed into Light. The spirit leaves with these same problems that it did not solve. These problems are postponed for the next incarnation without memory of their causes.

The essence of love

Forget about yourself. That is why many people who had wealth in ancient times and wanted to live free from the material world, sold it, gave it to the poorest and went either to nature or to some religious institutions. This is a natural consequence of the desire to free oneself from the power of money, because money has power over a person.

Do good selflessly, without expecting anything in return. Just as the Sun shines, without asking anything in return from plants, giving them life, so does selfless Love.

Sphinxes

Sculptures built long before the pyramids, about 15 thousand years before our time, before the war. There were two of them. Around them and between them (they stood next to each other) was a river, but it was wider than what is now the Nile. The sphinxes are facing the Nile. They were originally built by specialists from the Tumesout base where Eden was. They built it on the site of the first city of earthlings. They were built as symbols of friendship between Earth and Tumesout. Initially, the faces of the Tumesoutians were depicted, the two who built them. The sphinxes were built by the Tumesoutians themselves, with their own devices, directly from the rock.

The second sphinx was destroyed during the war. A Selbet ship flew by and destroyed this sphinx with one hit using beams (there was a beam weapon, like a laser, only hotter). It was made of a material similar to hard sand, and therefore it shattered into pieces. A piece from the first sphinx flew across the face of the second and split it, forming a crack. Later, when the pharaohs found them, they began to hire workers and remake the damaged face so that it would look like them. Moreover, it was remade several times.

The face was a man, and the body was a lion. It was a combination, like a union of Earth and Tumesout. Lions in that place were the predominant animals at that time. They were constantly with people, like domestic cats are now. People communicated with them very well, revered lions as a symbol of strength, and it can be said that the Tumesoutians expressed in the sphinxes the covenant of the union of Tumesout and Earth.

Shureo

A planet located in the constellation Bootes, 326 light years from Earth. Looking from Arcturus, it is down and to the left toward the constellation Corona Borealis.

It is very similar in structure to the earth's.

Its representatives evolved from a similarity to sea turtles and therefore they have not just a shell, but hard skin. Although they feed their children with a kind of milk, it is not milk, but some special liquid that comes out of special glands at the back of the head. They are oviparous. Their dark green skin is very hard, you can knock on it. The head is triangular in shape, two eyes, a round mouth, and in place of the nose there is a triangular hole.

They walk on two legs, with webbing between their legs. They lived in water, aquatic organisms, with webbing between their four toes, and long fingers on their hands that bend at four joints.

The life expectancy at present in Earth years is around 250-300 years, which is practically equal to the life expectancy on Daraal.

The average height is one meter twenty, one meter thirty.

They also have many different countries with a population of about 11 billion at the moment. There are 93 countries on the planet that are constantly at odds with each other.

Among the population there are those who are keen on spiritual development, and those who stand at the top of the social pyramid, who are in power, can forbid it. They persecute them. Materialism is very developed, some part of the population wants to join the Interstellar Union, and some are not ready.

They even have something like abortion, only they destroy not children who were not born, but laid eggs. Moreover, they have a belief that if their woman became pregnant for the third time and laid eggs, in this case they lay them four at a time, a group of souls incarnates. The woman must share a meal consisting of these eggs with her man, with her husband. Their government fights against this custom. In some countries it is legalized, no one interferes with it. Religious organizations created by the Interstellar Union condemn such behavior.

They also have the death penalty, and there is even a death penalty for stealing from an official or for long-term non-payment of taxes.

They are at the 13th level of technological development. They have atomic energy, they use it, there are very large deposits of uranium on the planet. Moreover, their scientists are already creating artificial elements.

Even before contact, they had already had several local nuclear wars, but they were limited to isolated strikes.

They fly in space quite actively. They have even sent an expedition to neighboring stars. But their spaceships, which they themselves created, are based on the rapid release of light radiation in the form of a beam. The speed of such an interstellar ship is low. In order for them to fly to a neighboring star in the region of six light years, they need about two Earth months.

They have art. But it is at the service of government forces, which in each country that exists there, praises its way of life and criticizes all the others. Different means can be used. There is an analogue of television, only it is more perfect. It conveys more reality of what is happening. They can use special computer programs. There is artificial intelligence, which uses images of other countries to create negativity, hatred.

When the spirit was born in the Divine Light, it was born, among other things, from happiness, from the energy of happiness, from the energy of Love, from the energy of the Divine Mind. All energies took part in the birth of the spirit.

Sacraments

Special actions performed in the church, developed by representatives of the planets Burkhad and Tumesout, with the help of which the energy of the higher levels of the spiritual world can enter a person and change not only his spiritual vibration, but also the state of the physical body. There are seven such sacraments in the church and any of them makes sense, but only for those who believe in Christ as the Son of God. If He is perceived as a simple man, a prophet or a teacher, anyone but the Son of God, then the rituals will not work, because only faith in Christ as the Son of God includes the necessary vibrations in a person, facilitating his transformation into the energy attracted by this vibration from the higher spiritual levels.

How to realize talent? It depends on what it is.

If you have talent, then constant practice in this direction is necessary. You should not be afraid to move forward, be afraid of mistakes, of other people's condemnation. If you fall into fear, then you will not be able to realize your talent. Because to realize it, you need confidence, courage and readiness to take responsibility for the results.

There is involuntary inspiration - this is an open channel, where the flow of information comes in the form of ready-made proposals from curators in the form of contact and a person understands that this does not belong to him, that this is the work of another. Telekinesis

An ability related to human energy. It is often the cause of such a phenomenon as poltergeist. In order to intentionally cause telekinesis, you need to concentrate your thoughts so as to believe 100% that it is possible. Only the belief that it is possible gives such energy and the ability for this energy to leave a person. Levitation manifests itself in a similar way. The manifestation of this ability is prevented by the mental attitude that it is impossible, which blocks the energy.

#59, 30:55, 31:45

Telepathy

Transfer of thought-images through the astral body, mental body, aura at a distance, innate ability. To transmit, you need to concentrate on transmitting, and to receive, you need to concentrate on listening. All this needs to be learned, you need to believe in it.

This ability can also appear as a result of installing a chip. Such technologies exist, for example, on the planet Daraal. Chips are installed in contactees to enable telepathic communication with them.

There are no devices that will amplify your thoughts to such an extent that they become electromagnetic waves, and then pass into electromagnetic oscillations and enter the aura of another. The contact will still occur through the aura, even if you are in the physical body. And even if they come in the form of electromagnetic oscillations, they will have traveled some distance. When you are both in the physical body, your thoughts are not in the physical brain. The physical brain contains only electromagnetic oscillations that are generated by the mental body - the spirit. And the spirit itself is outside the material world. In order to transmit these oscillations that are in the physical brain through telepathy, you need to think. The thought will first be reflected in the electromagnetic oscillations of the brain, and only then will it pass into the aura, and already by the resonance effect, will cause similar oscillations in the receiver aura. And only then will it be perceived by the brain and then go into consciousness. And even if such a fluctuation occurs, i.e., if you perceive something, it will not be a fact that it is precisely the thought that arose in the transmitter's head. Because it will be a resonance in effect, i.e. a thought that is possibly close to him in consciousness. Well, for example, you will transmit the word "fish", and he will perceive it simply, as the sea, for example. Through the physical body, it will be distorted.

Teleportation

Direction to the object of a special type of energy, which is connected with the etheric field. The energy comes from there in agreement with the plasmoids. It has such a great power that the atoms and fields contained in the physical object are transformed into radiation of a very high density level, for example, like a radio wave, only very high-vibration. It moves along a special teleportation channel instantly to any distance. And there it is reproduced again into atoms.

#397, 01:55

Bodily immunity

Reflection of the spirit's ability to purify, to raise its vibrations, to bring them closer to the Divine. This is a reflection of God's omnipotence, his omnipresence. At the level of the human body, the immune system is represented by bone marrow, lymph nodes, thymus, leukocytes, lymphocytes, monocytes, basophils, neutrophils and eosinophils.

#359, 37:00

Body

Matter that consists of quanta.

#358, 18:00

The human body

The material part of a person.

An instrument, thanks to which you can perceive the world around you with five senses, five sensations through receptors. A person is a perceiver of this world and he is not a function of the brain or any neuron of the brain. A person is an immortal spirit. After the body dies, the spirit will leave it and go to the spiritual world, its eternal home, from where it came here to solve its problems. There is not a single organ of the human body that would be less important. They are all important. You have a harmony of the body. Any organs are important, you have a non-random number of teeth, ribs, certain organs. They are all important for your species, for energetic health, for physical health. All this is formed in a complex, according to the DNA program of the body, but under the influence of the energy of the soul.

A particle of the Earth, a particle of the Earth's space, consists of the same elements as the Earth; in our body there are, in one quantity or another, all the elements, all the atoms that are in the Earth.

The iris of the eye, the location of moles, lines on the palms, etc. are signs of the body. Their location reflects the energy of the one who has incarnated, i.e. information about his energy. Because the physical body, even according to the genetic parameters that are embedded in it, is built on the basis of the etheric body. The etheric body, i.e. the life force, contains astral and mental matrices. That is, all this first exists in thoughts, in the spirit. And only then is it embodied on the physical level. And the different location of different lines, etc. is a reflection of the energy of the one who has incarnated.

Systems Theory

A way of describing the universe as a set of more or less complex systems nested within each other and influencing each other through symbiotic relationships.

#211, 25:22

Thermostats

Microcircuits that are embedded between something, but not between the wall blocks (which can be monolithic), but in their composition, inside. And if the temperature drops below a certain point, then there is a special material that automatically converts the energy of the surrounding building materials into heat.

#451, 36:41

Patience

The main sign of love for yourself and others.

#128, 12:56

Terra-formation in the Galaxy by the planet Burkhad

Scientific direction of the Interstellar Union. Active exploration of planets in star systems previously inaccessible to life. This may be the establishment of a new orbit around a star, a change in the angle of inclination, a change in the atmosphere and many other parameters.

#27, 33:11

Warm

A type of infrared radiation.

#148, 59:35

Thermal energy

The first level type of energy, which reflects a physical sensation or, as measured by instruments, reflects the energy and speed of vibrations of atoms in space.

#148, 14:01

Thermonuclear reactions in stars

What we see on the physical level of the Universe. This is the process of transformation of atoms, which gives the output of energy of the second level. We can say that the source of all stars, all systems of the physical world and, in general, the entire material world, is hidden in the Spiritual world. Matter itself consists of energy. Energy itself consists of more subtle spiritual structures (energies) that make up this energy. And further, everything goes to the source of the original Light. Therefore, the light of stars and the Sun visible to physical eyes is a reflection of the Light of the infinite love of the Creator. Although this is a figurative expression, it quite accurately reflects the essence of things.

#43, 35:54

Tesla Nicholas

Contactee with the planet Burkhad.

The spirit, whose incarnation on Earth in a physical body was the first incarnation in a dense body. Before that, he had not been incarnated on Earth in a physical body or in any dense-material race of the Universe. He had not incarnated in humanoid races. All 56 incarnations before that were only in the subtle worlds. In the 57th, there was the first experience that allowed him to incarnate in a physical dense body. He incarnated from the 9th level because he had exhausted the limit of experience that was available in the subtle worlds, and for the physical world he was a student.

All the last 17 incarnations in the subtle worlds were spent on the Sun, in the solar civilization. That is why at the moment when he was born on Earth, he had contact from childhood. Now he is on the 15th level.

The period of incarnation that was planned was to end nine years earlier. It was extended so that he could raise his level. The last ten years of his life were devoted to analyzing the incarnation.

Tesla Nicholas (Coil)

A device that attracts energy from the air, electricity. The atmosphere contains mini electrostatic discharges that can be attracted. The coil must be made of metal. A small current must be supplied to it and it will be able to attract a large one. That is, as energy, there will be both an electric field and a magnetic field. It does not use the energy of the ether, it is the energy of electrical mini discharges that are always in the air. They are always there, even in a room and in the open air.

Dark matter

Some structure that does not interact electromagnetically with the ordinary matter that we perceive. And from this matter the Universe was formed: it flowed into the structure formed by this matter.

#68, 00:05:22

Tiamat

Symbol of the snake-like creatures that were fought against.

#41, 55:24

Thymus

The gland of immunity. If a person does not strengthen his immunity, this organ can atrophy.

#374, 14:15

Body type (what determines it)

Genetics, energy, climate, magnetosphere, gravity, many factors. Not only the genetics of the animal from which your species evolved, but also the genetics of those beings from space that shared their gene pool with you, as well as their energy, have an effect.

#365, 00:21

Types of Alien Ship Engines

1 Planetary type. The principle of repulsion from the magnetic fields of the planet and attraction to the magnetic fields of other planets. Used only inside star systems for flight between planets.

2 Atmospheric type. The principle of shielding from the planet's gravitational field. An electromagnetic field of a special configuration is created, which shields the ship from the gravitational field, and it takes off vertically upward.

#52, 22:14

Types of micro animals

Viruses, bacteria, fungi.

#27, 01:14:18

Tisul princess

The ruler of the earthly civilization, who lived 850-900 thousand years ago.

#72, 00:49, #75, 26:53

Titans (twelve)

Six men and six women, who according to ancient Greek myths were the offspring of Heaven and Earth. They represented certain forces of nature either from Heaven or Earth, were responsible for the ocean, mountains, sun, that is, they represented a collection of plasmoid civilizations.

#288, 12:50, 29:30

Titanomachy (War of the Gods)

The confrontation of tribes of people living in the territory of Greece, which stood behind this image of war. The ancestors of those peoples who are now called Greeks began to migrate from the north to this territory, inhabited by the Pelasgians, who worshiped the forces of the elements of nature, 3000-3500 years ago. They worshiped the gods of Olympus, led by Zeus. In ancient times, it was believed that when two tribes wage war, the tribe whose god is stronger wins, and the victory of one people over another was described in the form of the victory of some gods over others.

#288, 25:12

Ticht

A civilization that is engaged in the restoration of planetary ecosystems or, in general, the terraforming of planets.

#104, 16:52, #148, 01:03:00

Subtle matter

A special type of matter that consists not of atoms but of energies or fields.

#33, 26:11

Subtle world

A world that is higher in vibrations than the dense material world. It is intermediate between the world of matter and the first region of the spiritual world, called the astral. If the physical world has three levels of density, then in the plasmoid worlds or subtle material worlds there are fifty-six. In the material world there are fifty-nine levels of density. Three plus fifty-six.

There are beings living on fifty-six levels of density. Since there are more levels than in the physical world, there are many more beings than on all the physical planets combined.

What kind of creatures are these? How do they differ from physical ones? Physical ones are humanoids, those that consist of substances (atoms). Non-physical, immaterial ones are those that cannot be seen. Material ones are those that can be seen and felt. Subtle ones are not material either. They are "Spirit". Spirit is everything that we do not see.

Torsion fields

The closest part of the etheric energy to the material world, which separates the material world from the spiritual. One of its types is the free energy of the vacuum. Atoms are built from torsion fields, they contain gravitons and protons. Spatial energies that are higher than certain spectra, which are partly parts of the subtle material world (from the 6th to the 17th density level).

That

An ancient Egyptian god, deified by a scholar from Tumesout. "Thoth" helped the first pharaohs establish laws. Egypt is their project.

Tumesoutets Totrhamysh. He flew to other bases, contacted priests, earthlings, passed on knowledge. He was in human form. The bird was later depicted as a creature that flew from the sky.

#42, 45:14, #220, 18:14, #403, 05:53, 09:49

Totem

A plasmoid who was engaged in the creation of animal souls. When he came into contact with the priest of the tribe and with all sensitive people, usually with children, he endowed these people with positive qualities.

#256, 01:08:04

Assemblage point

The place where the energy of the mind is concentrated. Plasmoids see a person as a ball (aura), the size of which is determined by the strength of the energy, and the assembly point on it is a spot of the brightest color.

#351, 25:35

Trans

A state of mind that is abstracted from the material world and directed toward the spiritual world or toward oneself as part of the spiritual world. Trance states, like any tool, can be used for completely different purposes, both for good and for bad. For good purposes, trance states can be used to develop one's consciousness, control one's physical body, its condition, its health, development, even its age within certain limits set by nature.

#140, 14:21

Transmigration

A type of contact, when a spirit (most often a non-embodied spirit) comes to its contactee, an embodied spirit, and begins to live together with it, one might say, living its incarnation, practically inseparable from it. Moreover, it can even temporarily occupy its body and receive information from the outside world through the body's receptors. At the same time, the owner of the body, the embodied spirit, leaves the life thread unbroken, still being the owner of this body and considered embodied.

Transmigration is a type of very dense, close cooperation, curatorship with a non-embodied spirit. It is very difficult for an embodied spirit (humanoid or plasmoid) to contact in this way, to be in constant contact, because it must also be distracted by its own body.

On Earth, specifically at the present time, this is a rather rare type of contact: approximately one in seven thousand contactees with the Spiritual World.

This is a very complex process: the contactee and the non-embodied spirit must completely match in vibrations, and the non-embodied spirit must also be able to move into a body, and not every spirit can do this. And not just move into a body, but control it and receive information from the senses. The spirit must be very compatible with the body, and this must be a voluntary agreement.

The spirit that has come fills the etheric matrix of this body. It takes the place of the spirit-contactee inside the etheric matrix, which is the mediator between it and the physical body. And then the mind, feelings and emotions of the spirit-curator, passing through the physical plane, create certain subtle bodies.

They first meet in the Astral and only then, when they agree, the spirit-curator occupies the body of the contactee for a certain period, and then leaves it again and the body is occupied by the owner. Because if you do not do this, the body will not be able to carry out the orders of this spirit constantly.

They constantly interact with each other and sometimes even replace each other several times during the day. For those around them, this will look like a change of personality.

It happens that the spirit that has entered lowers the vibrations of the body or harms it in some way, and these vibrations are transmitted along the life thread to the owner of the body, who is outside of it. If the spirit that has entered negatively affects the body or spirit of the contactee, causing negative emotions and a decrease in vibrations, then the contactee can turn to his Guardian Angel or his Angel-consultant and say that he refuses to further contact, interact with the spirit-curator and voluntarily decided to break off contact. And then his own Angel-consultants come to the spirit that occupies his body and ask him to leave.

#507, 02:55

Transmigration (reasons)

Most often, this is some unfinished business of the non-embodied spirit, which it was unable to complete on Earth. At the same time, the spirit has left on Earth, for example, a continuer of its business, a student, or simply a person with suitable vibrations, who can complete this business in union with the non-embodied spirit, and they work on it together.

#507, 06:15

Transmutation of matter

A change in the ratio of the energies of an atom of three levels in any substance (in terrestrial physics, a change in the ratio of electrons, neutrons and protons) with the aim of obtaining another substance.

#141, 32:37

Transpersonal restoration.

A personal state of altered consciousness of a person, a trance state, when a person separates a little from this world and begins to feel himself, to sense the world around him, space, other people and all his energy flows. In this state there is no aggression and there is complete acceptance.

#88, 15:15

The third level of density of the material world

The level of density in which substances exist in solid, liquid and gaseous states. The spirit, a rational living entity that lives eternally and infinitely, unlike the dense material body, is embodied in this substance.

Here you can go through your lessons very quickly, because it is very difficult for those who are incarnated in the 3rd density to see and feel the Spiritual world. You need to work harder for this, call on God more, love more, learn Love. And if more strength and energy is spent on this, the result is valued more. You can appreciate this light of Love more only after you have been in darkness. And this is the meaning of the existence of all worlds.

Three types of reality

1 Physical,

2 Subtle material,

3 Spiritual.

Although they emerge from one another, they may not intersect with each other.

#398, 32

Three waves of volunteers sent to Earth

Groups of souls who incarnated together with the task of assisting each other in creating spiritual teachings.

#358, 01:05:33

Three main energy managers

Faith, imagination and will. They are somehow united with each other, faith can act on will and vice versa. Faith is not just energy, but a universal manager over all energies. Faith, imagination and will control our psychic or spiritual structure.

#456, 23:18

Three pillars of the brain

Hypothalamus, pituitary gland and pineal gland. These are the glands that support the vegetative and central nervous systems. They are the main instruments of influence of the spirit on the body and the body on the spirit. This is the transmitter of spiritual vibrations to the physical level and vice versa.

#359, 53:55

Trichomonas

A single-celled organism, but quite large. This is the simplest animal, which is a predator. Trichomonas can feed on other microorganisms, bacteria, human erythrocytes, spermatozoa and fungi. But some fungi have developed resistance to those lysosome enzymes that are inside trichomonads. And when trichomonads absorb them, they can remain alive inside and even reproduce.

#410, 38:48

Trinity

A symbol, a description of spiritual reality in our three-dimensional world. It includes God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. The concept of the Trinity was introduced for the purposes of apologetics, that is, the protection of Christian teaching from various distortions. For example, from the distortion that is now known in the form of Arianism.

#340, 03:44

Ternary code

Conventional division into three categories when classifying something. The reflection of the triune code is also in the structure of the rational spirit: mind, essence (spiritual heart) and energy. Trinity is based on the manifestation of three fundamental substances in the universe: matter, energy and information.

#141, 24:26, 41:41

Throne of Allah

Symbol of God's presence everywhere and everywhere at the same time. Allah's Throne is above the Seventh Heaven, outside the Spiritual World in general. Only some of the Angels have access there, who can most fully merge with the consciousness of God, practically indistinguishable from it in their qualities.

#260, 03:41

Troposphere. The World of "Tropos"

The lower atmosphere, birthplace of Demeter, the Earth's main plasmoid. "Tropos" is a Greek word meaning "place."

"Tropos" means another world in the language of the contactee, because if we designate this world with our sounds, we will not hear anything (or rather, there will be some waves there). "Tropos" is territorially located (if you look at how the worlds are superimposed on each other) at the level of the center of the Earth's core. There, at the 48th level of density, one can say, there is this city, that is, a place.

#508 28:10

Tulpa

A separated energetic entity from a spiritual entity, another type of phantom (among Buddhists).

#367, 18:58

Tumesout

The name in the Daral language of a planet located in the constellation Orion (Pi Orionis) at a distance of 1050 light years from Earth. The inhabitants of the planet look like people of Slavic appearance with a height of 5 to 8 (3 to 7) meters. The Tumesoutians are the discoverers of our planet 5 million years ago. The embodiment of an intelligent spirit in our Galaxy first occurred on this planet several hundred million years ago. The mission of Tumesout is to spread intelligent life throughout the Galaxy. They are one of the three creators of the race of earthlings. Tumesoutians build houses like Egyptian pyramids and they clearly reflect the interaction of the energy structure of the planet on which they are located with the energy structures of space. In the pyramids there are places where tombs stand. In such places they sleep and regenerate themselves in their sleep. There is a Tumesoutian base in the Caucasus. Seismic activity of the earth's crust in the mountains is favorable for their energy and for their habitation.

The body of a deceased citizen of the planet Tumesout remains incorruptible, that is, it is not destroyed by microbes, since it is preserved in a special chamber until the spirit adapts to the Spiritual world, because it needs the energy that is released from the cells of the body. Then the spirit, as soon as it adapts to the Spiritual world and throws off its ethereal shell, that is, from the soul it becomes a spirit and completely adapts, its life force dissolves between the ethereal and astral layers of reality, the Spirit completely adapts to nutrition from spiritual sources and then informs special servants on Tumesout, who disperse this body in space, like a laser beam, and it turns into radiation, that is, it does not burn, but simply turns into a field.

#48, 15:03, #59, 01:05, #182, 25:42

Tunguska meteorite

The nucleus of a comet, which seemed to melt and did not reach the Earth. And since the comet was large, when it came into contact with the atmosphere and was heated sharply, an explosion occurred, the blast wave of which caused enormous destruction. The fall of many meteorites that entered the tail of this comet began long before the Tunguska meteorite itself. For many months, people began to notice that what they called meteor showers had become more frequent. A lot of small stones were falling. This was the Earth passing through the comet's tail. Because the tail of a comet can stretch for many thousands of kilometers, which consist of individual stones, dust particles burning up in the Earth's atmosphere.

#46, 16:36, #437, 01:30:59

Heavy water

Water, which, due to the energy of its atoms, remembers information better than ordinary water, both positive and negative, and transfers it to the body. The crystallizing ability of its molecules and macromolecules, that is, clusters of molecules, to remember energy information and transfer it to the body increases compared to ordinary water.

#410, 51:09
U Murder

Conclusion from the embodiment of a certain rational spirit. Bringing the body into a state that is incompatible with the presence of the spirit in it, the manifestation of the spiritual principle in it.

The spirit can be taken out of incarnation by any means, even if it is at a distance, even if the killer is not nearby, this energy will still damage his (the killer's) etheric field through the Astral. This is not a punishment, but a certain consequence of such a decision, which he will then have to pass on to his children. This etheric damage is called "etheric damage from bloodshed". It is not necessarily from blood, you can kill with poison, for example, but still take him out of incarnation. Even in this case, the killer's etheric field is damaged.

The more people were killed directly by this person, the more his etheric field is damaged. This can cause different consequences. Also, if there was a customer of the murder and there was a performer, then the etheric field of both is damaged, since they both participated in it. If a person ordered a murder, he will not remain on the sidelines. Moreover, the etheric field of the doctor who directly performed the abortion, killed the child's body and interrupted the incarnation is also damaged.

All these damages that (if both a man and a woman want to conceive a child through their cells, which contain etheric matrices) people will pass on to their future child. This will affect him in different ways. It can lead to the degradation of the ancestral egregor (it acts somewhat similarly), it can lead to some tendency to aggression of this spirit that is being born. The vibrations of his developing brain will already be prone to mood swings due to hormonal imbalances. For example, he will have an innately elevated level of stress hormone, or it will be difficult for him to keep his vibrations high, more difficult than without this damage.

There are also consequences of falling into some kind of addiction, mental, and sometimes even physical illnesses. They can manifest themselves both in the person with damaged etheric matrices and in their offspring. Up to the 7th generation, this is transmitted, but gradually fades away if there are no more murders. Moreover, the tendency to aggression and solving problems by force, including murder, is also transmitted through this etheric matrix. The spirit that incarnates will be prone to the same disorder.

On some planets of the Interstellar Union, which came to this knowledge through their spiritual practices and contacts, there were even such laws even before joining the Interstellar Union that if there was some kind of murderer, he was forbidden by a special law to give birth to children, so as not to spread this damage.

Dying
The exit of the astral body, i.e. the spirit in the astral shell. It occurs through the Astral, through its egregor. It rises higher, where non-embodied spirits live. When the body dies, the soul leaves and at first it stays in the Astral. The average period is usually about three days. Then spirit guides come to the soul and say that it is time to rise higher to another level. And the soul rises to its level in the world of non-embodied spirits, which it reached during life, that is, from the 1st to the 24th. Then the soul lives in the Spiritual world. At first, it has life force, but with each day, in the earthly understanding, it becomes less and less, it leaves it. And approximately, on average, it is 40 days, it finally leaves. This is very approximate, since it can be a month, it can be 60 days, but on average - 40 days. And then the soul becomes a spirit, since the life force has left it. Usually, a meeting with Light, with God, happens to each spirit after returning to the world of non-embodied spirits, it meets God in the form in which it can perceive Him, and usually it is Light. There the spirit is shown in images how it lived its life, where it was embodied before, whether it fulfilled its tasks or not.

#20, 24:33

The uniqueness of man

A unique combination of spirit, soul and body. Each one is unique, there has never been anything like this and there never will be again. The Christian concept that a person lives once is the understanding of a person as spirit, soul and body. The spirit will never again unite with the same body.

#233, 13:46

Destruction of microorganisms

An energetic effect that can disrupt biochemical processes in microorganisms that cause the emergence of vital force in them.

#27, 01:17:22

Despondency

The feeling when the whole surrounding world stops making you happy, your own life seems meaningless, your own achievements, former hobbies do not bring the same pleasure. And unlike emotion, the feeling of despondency settles in the spiritual heart, in the very core. This is already a seed of darkness, which is sown in the heart by a mental attitude that is in the mind, and it is about the fact that it is impossible to exist in the world without what has been lost. If a person is so sad that this feeling turns into despondency, then this is not Love and lowers vibrations.

#428, 04:44

Management

Tuning the body's biosensors to a certain perception, to certain observations in the interests of the Government. This is an attempt to take away from the spirits, parts of God, their free choice, for which they come into incarnation. The meaning of their incarnation is lost in general.

#391, 23:26

Managed

Observed through chips.

#391, 23:26

Uranium

A creature from the myths of Ancient Greece, a figurative representation of a clot of matter formed during the formation of a new cycle of the Universe, part of the energy of Chaos from which celestial bodies were created by plasmoid civilizations - almost all the stars and all the galaxies.

#288, 07:10

Level of embodiment

The starting level at the moment. This is the level you reached when leaving your previous incarnation. Your spirit was at such vibrations, and at such a level it lived in the Spiritual World, waiting for its incarnation. This means that it mainly communicated with such spirits before this incarnation.

#393, 21:24

Density Levels and Worlds of Creation

From the 1st to the 3rd level of density is the “physical world”, that is, everything that we can see, hear, and feel through the sense organs of our body.

From the 4th to the 59th level of density are plasmoid worlds or they are also called "subtle-material" worlds, some call them "etheric" worlds. These are worlds arranged in a certain way, in which there is also matter, but it exists in a different form. For us, these are like parallel worlds.

#508, 13:54

Levels of Civilization Development (6 of 30)

The first level is what distinguishes what is created by intelligent beings from what is created by animals. That is, these are the first tools of labor and environmental processing that are used consciously. They are not created by instinct. These are consciously created tools from improvised means, stones, wooden structures of some kind, which are not always used for their intended purpose. These are the tools or weapons that distinguish this creature from an animal. For example, if two male monkeys can, during a conflict, during their fight, take a stone or a stick in their hands, then this is not considered a tool, it is simply an improvised means. And the creation of a certain form so that it can be more conveniently used for a given purpose, this will already be a sign of the very first step.

The second step is the complication of tools. Here, not only technology is taken into account, but also the level of science, the level of culture and even religious cults, that is, a certain level of consciousness. Because the level of technology reflects the level of consciousness. This is the complication of existing tools, their greater improvement, including the first buildings. Buildings that are used not only for life, as was the case with animals: burrows or caves. These are the first buildings or shelters that are used, firstly, for the purpose of burying their dead brothers, so as not to simply abandon them, as animals do, and a little later, this is joined by changing the body of the deceased himself, some manipulations over him. And the second is the appearance of such special buildings not for life, but for the performance of some religious cults, worship of something higher.

Because, unlike an animal, he has a rational spirit that came from the Spiritual world. He will strive (even with the most primitive tools) to make himself a separate space for his sacred rites.

The third level is the emergence of power over the elements, this can be fire, water, and wind, depending on the planet.

The fourth level is the creation of certain tools, weapons with the help of fire. This can be, for example, the extraction of some simple minerals from which metals are obtained. These will be exactly those that are common in nature, which can be extracted without any complex technological developments. And this level of consciousness corresponds to civilizations in which metals were used for weapons, for the creation of some jewelry. This is the use of all kinds of precious stones. The fourth level is characterized by a certain level of consciousness, when great importance is attached to weapons.

The fifth level is already the complication of blacksmithing, and the beginning of the domestication of animals. They begin to adapt the animal world to their needs.

Level six. This already includes the use of alloys and precision processing (cutting from metals, dressing stones with other stones or metals without causing significant damage to the stone itself, creating all sorts of figurines.

Levels of density of the material world

A separate reality in which there are many worlds. One density level differs from another by vibrational characteristics that are higher than the previous level by several thousand terahertz. That is, the vibrations of the space environment itself and, naturally, those worlds and subtle bodies of creatures that live there, they form one vibrational characteristic on one plane in order to coincide with each other in one space and time flow. There are only 59 density levels. The third density level is occupied by humanoids, that is, people, anthropomorphs, reptilians, insectoids. Plasmoids are at the density level starting from the fourth to the fifty-ninth.

Dormition of the Blessed Virgin Mary

A holiday in the Old Church Slavonic language denoting the transition to the Spiritual World. This holiday marks the event when the mother of Jesus Christ, who is called Mary the Mother of God in the Christian religious egregor, left the earthly world. In reality, another event occurred. Mary, who is called the "Holy Mother of God", on this day (she was already of a respectable age, but did not lose her sight, hearing and clear mind) left her physical body, but her connection with it was not interrupted. She fell into a state of what you call a coma. Her breathing and heartbeat were practically not recorded, but, nevertheless, she was alive. This state lasted for five days. While in it, she met her son, his phantom, in the Spiritual World. They agreed that his mother, the Mother of God, would not break her life thread, return to the body with its help and move to the planet Burkhad, where her son was already at that time. People buried her, considering her dead because she did not move. They checked for signs of life, but did not notice any breathing. This had happened often before. When they came for her, the cave where her body lay was deserted, there was no one. They entered the cave, moving the stone with an antigravity beam. They took her to the ship, brought her to the planet Burkhad, and there they began to restore her body. She did not have a lesion, but low energy in her vital organs due to age. There were no serious illnesses. She lived for about three hundred years using technologies on the planet Burkhad. Then she left the incarnation.

She said that she now had to be in the Spiritual World. From there she would be able to take better care of the already well-formed Christian religious egregor. One of the eras of persecution of Christians, whom she perceived as her beloved children, was coming.

Conditions of contacts of civilizations (astral, mental, physical) with earthlings

For astral or mental contact, permission from the Interstellar Union is not required. Only the person's consent is needed, his ability to perceive these vibrations, to go to the Astral, for example, or to mentally receive information. Also the consent of the specialist from the Interstellar Union who will work with him.

#52, 19:56

Conditions for the acceptance of planets into the Interstellar Union

1 The end of all military conflicts on Earth and the beginning of the destruction of especially dangerous types of weapons.

2 Stop the propaganda of violence and the creation of a negative image of aliens in the media.

3 Bringing order to the ecology of the Earth: creation of plants for processing solid waste, search alternative types of engines for transport, all possible measures to reduce emissions from chemical plants, combating the greenhouse effect caused by the accumulation of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere.

4 Changing the attitude of the authorities towards the common man, implementing the principle: "The authorities are for the people, not the people for the authorities." Adopting laws that really protect the weakest people in society.

5 Abolition of the death penalty in all countries of the Earth. Introduction instead of it of long or life terms of imprisonment, with obligatory physical labor.

6 Respect for human life from the moment of conception.

7 Abolition of all totalitarian regimes. Mandatory freedom of speech and freedom of conscience.

The doctrine of proper nutrition in Christianity

The teaching that later resulted in the modern teaching on fasting. But it was introduced into Christianity from more ancient teachings and ideas than Christianity itself, with several goals. The most important of them is the development of will. Not even the development of will itself, as in itself, separate from other energies, but namely the will aimed at spiritual development, again in the Christian paradigm of values.

#341, 39:14

Students

Spirits from the 9th level of the World of Unincarnate Spirits. Spirits who learn to direct their attention and energy to other personalities around them. They incarnate in order to learn the moral laws of the society they are born in through their own, often bitter, experience. Often they are skeptics who do not believe anything or anyone except their own eyes and ears, and they usually believe that their senses cannot be deceived. Life debunks this delusion of theirs, sometimes quite harshly, and it is very important at this level not to become embittered by the blows of fate and not to fall even lower - with the awareness and full acceptance of the fact that absolutely everything happens according to the will of God, even if this, due to an insufficiently pure perception, seems "wrong" or "unfair".

Physical contact

Contact is more serious than astral travel. It is necessary to understand that material resources of the Interstellar Union, the Galactic Federation of Light are involved for this. They must spend a certain amount of energy not only to fly to Earth and to take you to another planet and bring you back. But also to shield the spacecraft so that it is not noticed in the Earth's orbit, in its atmosphere, near you, etc. They will have to choose the place, time, how exactly to shield the ship from radars. Many nuances. It is necessary to understand that this must be a serious enough reason, and not just "I want to see another planet." It is also necessary to take into account that this reason of yours will be voiced at the commission on contacts of the Interstellar Union, which will decide whether to accept your request or not.

A necessary physiological process so that a person can review his entire life in the last years or decades of incarnation on Earth.

Analyze, dissolve all blocks, reconcile with all people, one might say, pay off all his moral, energetic and karmic debts and come to a state of high vibrations, and in this state leave the incarnation. The sexual function gradually fades away so that he can direct his energy to the seventh chakra. The laws of God, which are manifested in the laws of nature, the body, provide that the cessation of conception and birth protects children who could be born to elderly parents from being left alone at a young age. If an elderly parent, dad or mom, leave the incarnation, they may be left alone even before adulthood, which will reduce their ability to survive and adapt.

Formation of planets

The process by which the surface layers of the star's chromosphere move away from it and cool in space. These elements of some substances combine with each other and form elements of all other substances. A dust cloud is formed from the elements of different substances around the star, which, due to the attraction of the central star, begins to rotate around it. And thus, more or less large stones begin to form, and so on, until a planet is formed. And if a large asteroid is already being formed, then collisions with other stones give it a spherical shape, and an atmosphere is formed there. The pressure of various elements on each other occurs under the influence of plasmoids, it creates the layers of the future planet.

The character of the spirit (its development)

His beliefs, emotional reactions to everything that happens, and so on. In general, for spiritual development, you need to love yourself with unconditional love: be patient, believe, and forgive. Forgive for what seems unfair, this requires patience so as not to leave this path, to hold on to it. Faith, trust, openness are also a necessary attribute of love. Love loved ones, those who are nearby, nature, space, the elements.

Cholesterol (effect on the body)

No more than 20% of cholesterol enters you with food. 80% is produced by you, your liver. Most of the cholesterol that enters with food has the property of cleaning the vessels from other types of cholesterol that can attach to them. If the vascular endothelium is already damaged from the inside by various microorganisms, as well as constant narrowing and dilatation, for example, from nicotine consumption or frequent stress, then microcracks form in the vascular endothelium. The body “repairs” these microcracks from the inside by attaching plaques to them. Later, calcifications and fatty masses grow on them, as well as thrombotic masses from the blood, which interfere with its flow. This increases blood pressure, disrupts the hormonal composition, functions of the nervous system, and so on.

#292, 45:20

Khorol (fruit of temptation)

The tree of life, the tree of knowledge of good and evil. It has large, low-hanging pear-shaped fruits of a light purple or purple-silver color. Light comes from them. It grows on Tumesout. It also grew in the Garden of Eden. The Selbet people knew that this fruit contains toxins that destroy the human body. That is why the Tumesout people, when raising the first people, warned them not to approach this tree, because they would die if they ate its fruits. Its fruits activate mental processes in the brain of the Tumesout people. They think more clearly, their speed of thought and memory increases. But such a fruit first brings ordinary people into a state of affect, that is, a person, for example, can forget his name, and then falls into a state similar to a coma. And if he is not given a special medicine in time, his soul will leave the body forever. Adam and Eve could know on the subtle plane what they already knew: what is good and evil. Even before the Selbet man offered them the taste, he told them: "Know good and evil," that is, "good and evil." But they already knew what good and evil were, because if they did not know this, then God, that is, the Tumesoutzu Yahweh, would have no reason to tell them: "Do not eat the fruits," because it is pointless to forbid a person something if he does not understand what evil is. And only evil can be forbidden. Therefore, the spiritual meaning of tasting the fruit of good and evil is that their evil deed was not that they ate it, but that before that they stopped trusting their creators, that is, the Gods. For them, these were Gods and this was truly a collapse in their consciousness. That is, first they sinned within themselves, in their hearts. Eating the fruit was only a consequence in the material world.

Christian

A person who carries the image of Christ in his heart loves him, and love is shown in the fulfillment of his commandments. One of the most important commandments is “love your neighbor as yourself” and whoever follows this not out of pretense and hypocrisy, but truly, sincerely, is a Christian.

#239, 51:44

Christian egregor

A single psychoenergetic community. In the astral world it consists of the energy of believers and information on the topic of Christianity. All thoughts and feelings of Orthodox, Catholics, Pentecostals, Baptists and believers of other faiths are directed at Christ, at love for him. In the astral they intertwine with each other and create a single energy formation. The Christian religious egregor, which was formed during the period of struggle, during the martyrdom of the first Christians absorbed a lot of the struggle with dissenters. This is the energy of anger, aggression. And all this was realized through the movement of monastic crusades, the Inquisition, which was in some forms of Orthodoxy. Remember, for example, Joseph Volotsky and his writings.

The Christian religious egregor is tuned to the vibration of love for Christ, love for one's neighbor.

Modern Christianity, like any religion with a long history, has the influence of plasmoid civilizations. Because many Christians who developed this religion after the activity of the Apostles, who formed the canon of doctrinal books, and many of their disciples and those who occupied posts in the hierarchy of the Christian church, had contact with plasmoid civilizations, and through them plasmoid civilizations influenced the formation of Christianity.

In Christianity, the influence of plasmoid civilizations is noticeable in some ideas of condemnation, for example, marriage in some monastic movements, the interpretation of Christian fasting, which was originally abstinence from many types of food, for example, except for water for a certain period, this fast began to be perceived as abstinence from animal food, all this is a plasmoid influence.

In Catholicism, the plasmoid influence is expressed in the fact that even male clergy who have contact with women are not allowed to confess and receive communion from believers.

Understanding the purity of the Mother of God, as her celibacy and childlessness, the absence of children except Jesus, is also a plasmoid influence, because only in the plasmoid lexicon can there be such an understanding of reality as desecration by the very fact of sexual intercourse.

Christian religious egregor (goal of formation)

Raising the vibrations of the planet by raising the vibrations of people who become Christians through the Christian religious egregor. Spreading pure energy of Love of Jesus Christ to Christian believers through the sacrament of confession and communion. This raises the vibrations of not only the spirit, but also the body. Under the guise of bread and wine, a person energetically accepts the blood and flesh of Jesus Christ, who is on Burkhad and constantly increases his vibrations in order to help a person dissolve blocks in the astral and etheric bodies and their traces in the physical body. In order to transform the body, a person accepts this into the digestive tract, everything is distributed through the blood.

The energy of the Christian religious egregor is directed towards Light, Love, reconciliation, humility, acceptance. Humility does not imply humiliation of a person, but acceptance. Not a feeling of humiliation and submission before any blows of fate, but acceptance of this world as it is.

Every person can do this, but the vibrations must match this egregor. If there is no vibration match, no connection to the Christian religious egregor occurs.

The Christian religious egregor has many Guardian Angels, many light high-vibration plasmoids, Spirits of nature, Guardians.

#486, 25:47, 50:30

Christ

The firstborn son, the anointed one for the kingdom (Mashaah, Messiah). The first spirit to realize himself, his autonomy in the Light of God, to realize himself in the flow of His thoughts even before the creation of the material world, to receive a little more Light and to have free will, but to never use this freedom to act against God. One with God. In the New Testament, in the Gospel of Luke it is said that Mary gave birth to a son from the Lord God. Christ was the firstborn son of God and at the same time the son of that Burkhad, who was also considered God. He was a double son of God. He had half the percentage of genetic information of the Burkhad than all of us. The genes of the Burkhads allow the high Spirit to manifest its nature more and suppress animal instincts more. Therefore, when Christians say that there were no animal instincts in Christ, they mean that they were suppressed by the high nature of his Spirit.

Christ is our elder brother, and he incarnated many times on different planets in order to create a form of religion there, accessible for the beings living there to come to the Light. And in order for such a high-vibration Spirit to be incarnated on Earth, it was necessary to do so through the egregor of a certain people and through a certain woman. His physical father could have been taken from another planet, but his mother had to be from this one in order to accept her nature and vibrations. At that time, he did not find a woman who could incarnate his high-vibration Spirit without being destroyed herself. He incarnated on the planet Tumesout, one of our creators, and flew in the body of a Tumesoutian on a spaceship to Earth in order to create a religious-national egregor here, through which he could incarnate on Earth. That is, he built a house for himself on Earth. And it was He who came into contact with the representative of the Jewish people, Moses. When the Christian church says that God, Yahweh and Christ are one and the same, then it is so. That Yahweh who incarnated on Tumesout and flew to Moses, giving him laws for the Jews, first forming a monotheistic system instead of a polytheistic one, which did not meet his goals, was Christ, but in the body of a Tumesoutian. Naturally, he conveyed this to Moses in his language and in his concepts. He had assistants - Tumesoutians and Burkhadians, who were called Angels, in Hebrew Malakh.

Now Christ is in a physical body and constantly maintains a connection with the Christian egregor, because he continuously processes the energies of earthlings coming from there. Energy exchange occurs through communion, through the Eucharist. Those who partake of bread and wine invisibly absorb His flesh and blood, energy matrices that contain His energies completely. But at the same time, a person exchanges with him those energy matrices that contain records of his psychological, spiritual, mental, astral states.

And in order to process this and give Light to a person, to process his darkness, his lack of love, Christ must constantly be in the body. He does not even have a period of sleep, for example. He does not separate from the body, he can only separate a phantom from himself. He can transfer His consciousness into one of the phantoms. He can make millions of such phantoms.

Christ lives alone on the island. Once every month and a half or two, sometimes less often, disciples come, fly in or sail by sea for a few hours. There are 8 biorobots nearby who help with everyday issues.

Favorite food is milk of a local animal and for some reason it is mixed with pollen of flowers. This helps maintain energy balance. Can also eat fruit. Can eat meat, but does so quite rarely for the simple reason that the body has enough elements contained in pollen of local flowers. Eats meat together with students who invite them to eat with them.

The physical body is not subject to limitations because it can control the energy of its body and the surrounding part of space and time in an unlimited volume, or rather, limited by the Father.

Akashic Records

A place where all past events are recorded in space by special radiations of people and planets.

Layers of the spiritual world, where the past, present and future are parallel worlds. A person can obtain knowledge about them, as if turning for information to this common information field of the Earth.

Part of egregors that contains the information component. Anyone who has a connection with any egregor usually has access to the Chronicles.

There are no Akashic Chronicles in the material world. This is already the level of egregors. It can be read only by going to the Astral or receiving through your spiritual channel. No material elements, no material carriers can record it. No laser beams can show it. Only a spiritual channel can do this.

There is such a part of the Akashic Chronicles, for example, to which the Time Tape belongs, where events, knowledge about past events are located. But they are there in the form of energy impulses. Even if people did not send thoughts about it, since it happened in space, then from this, from these events themselves, such energy departs, which forever remains in the Time Tape.

The Kingdom of Heaven (in Christian terminology)

24th level of the spiritual world. This is the highest presence of God in his original Light. There is nothing and no one else there. High-vibration spirits (from 22 to 24 levels) have access there, but in itself there is only the consciousness of the One Who gave birth to this world and maintains its existence every second with His energy of Light.

Goals and objectives of the Interstellar Union Security Service

Protection of law and order established by legislative texts and unspoken, generally known to rational beings, laws of security.

Protecting the borders of the Galaxy from military invasion from outside by other Galactic unions driven by mercantile and militaristic goals.

Protection of passenger ships from piracy, prevention of distribution of substances prohibited for use.

Protection from the deprivation of life of a rational being, protection of property, suppression of the dissemination of ideas contrary to light and goodness, ideological sabotage.

Control over specialists who come into contact with earthlings, especially physically.

Prohibition of providing material confirmation of contacts.

#150, 17:20, 20:05

Goals and objectives of the creation of the Interstellar Union

Joint cooperation of various civilizations in exploring the Galaxy and helping each other develop each planet. Most of the inhabitants of the planets that are part of the Interstellar Union understood that each being is an incarnate immortal spirit that has its own goals and tasks. They considered that it would be easier, faster and more constructive to achieve the goals of these incarnations together than separately.

Celibacy

The rule that a Bishop and all ranks above a Bishop do not have the right to be married or have sexual relations. Orthodox priests have the concept of partial celibacy, but Catholic priests have the rule of total celibacy.

#53, 47:35

Healer

A real and honest specialist who must necessarily coordinate his work with the Higher Self of the patient and find out the spiritual cause of the disease. You should be careful with a specialist who will promise the patient healing in one or several sessions and will give a guarantee for this, since no healer and no curators know exactly how the body will react to this treatment. In many ways, success will depend on how much the patient himself will understand and correct the spiritual cause of the disease. A pure healer will not shift responsibility for the patient's condition to "dark forces", sorcerers, reptilians, demons, and so on, but will always look for the cause of the condition of the person seeking help in his soul.

The purpose of the Interstellar Union contact

Gradually, through natural evolution, giving through contactees information about the Interstellar Union and its laws, about the understanding of the Spiritual world that they have, with the help of this information to change the awareness of reality of the inhabitants of the Earth. All this with the goal that they too could be ready to enter the Interstellar Union, become employees of the MS in the study of the Universe and the transfer of life and intelligence to other worlds, including outside the Galaxy.

#42, 38:42

The purpose of contact with the Higher Self

Awareness of the true purpose of incarnation in this world and receiving the energy of Light in order to have the strength to change oneself and the surrounding reality, as well as to check the information received from other sources in the material world, to what extent it corresponds to its goals and objectives.

The goal of the modern education system on Earth

Prepare the younger generation for life in the material world, not the spiritual one, because the spiritual world does not exist for people who write educational programs. In short, this is called materialistic perception. Therefore, in the schools of the Interstellar Union, self-awareness in the astral plane, astral travel is practiced from a very early age, so that a child can leave his body during class, see his body, the spiritual world, and when he returns, he will already clearly understand that the body is finite, and he is immortal. As soon as they begin to teach children astral travel on Earth and tell them about the forms of life that exist, about the subtle world, the spiritual world, spiritual levels, other planets, if this is done en masse, then the civilization itself will change, it will become more spiritual, there will be fewer crimes and wars.

The organization of people, called by Christ MY BODY, in which

His vibration is located. Through this vibration, the spirits embodied in these people acquire spiritual experience, necessary for the transition to higher spiritual levels. The Church was created, thanks to the disciples of Christ and their disciples with the help of representatives of the planets Burkhad and Tumesout. In the spiritual world, in the astral world it is an egregor, engaged in the maintenance and processing of energies coming from earthlings.

Civilization

A community of intelligent inhabitants of a particular world, which creates for itself the conditions for life and activity on a particular planet of the dense-material world or in a particular space of the subtle-material (plasmoid) world, capable of providing itself with all the necessary resources.

A community of intelligent beings that form a certain community, a community of egregors. This is a social form of consciousness that has a tendency toward self-regulation. This is what distinguishes a society of intelligent beings from an externally structured and harmonious herd of animals that does not conduct the activity characteristic of civilization in the surrounding world.

The emergence of civilizations among dense-material humanoid forms occurred approximately 8 billion to 500 million years ago. At first, there were individual representatives of intelligent living beings on certain planets, only then did they begin to form societies.

Antares Civilization

Plasmoid type civilizations. They are divided into 2 main categories: 1 friendly high-vibration civilizations, there are 11-12 of them, which are positively tuned to the Earth; 2 parasitic, low-vibration civilizations, which make connections based on low, negative vibrations of a person.

Earth Civilization (Emergence)

5 million years ago, scientists of the galaxy discovered a world on a planet where there was already plant, biological, animal life: there were birds, fish, insects, large mammals and reptiles. Naturally, there was a microbiological world, mammals: a detachment of primates, among which were representatives of various monkeys. When studying these animals, no possibility of the embodiment of a rational Spirit was found in them.

For the first 2 million years after the discovery of the planet, the scientists of the Galaxy waited for the self-organization, self-evolution of these primates, since they were most suitable for the role of those creatures in which an intelligent Spirit could be embodied on Earth. Then it was decided to speed up this process, to begin work on creating a hybrid, because the genes of the Selbetians, Tumesoutians and the genes of the Burkhadians, having combined with the genes of the primates, made it possible to prepare the nervous system and the receptor system of the hybrid's body for the embodiment of an intelligent Spirit.

Why was this done? The Earth had a unique set of flora, fauna and all the riches: geological, atmospheric, energy capabilities, available in its world, which are not so often found in the Galaxy. And even more so, the location of the Earth in space, its distance from the Sun allowed the development of a civilization here: a future employee of the Interstellar Union. That is why it was decided to help it evolve.

#185, 51:26

Kryon Civilization

An association of plasmoid-type civilizations from the 8th to the 18th level, which includes more than 150 civilizations, including most civilizations of air spirits, Earth, Sun, gnomes, sylphs, spirits of individual places of nature. Their goal is to support our magnetosphere with their energy, so that we can comfortably exist in it.

This is a group mind. Each Kryon employee has his own vibration. He can perceive it as a name. Names sound through the perception of the contactee and are a necessary attribute for a conversation with her. Names consist of a system of symbols that are inaccessible to earthly perception. As for Kryon, this name was chosen by the entire group of civilizations. Therefore, whoever comes out in the name of Kryon, he will be called this way by any of his contactees.

Different Kryon groups can contact one contactee. The one who is ready for communication at that moment will contact.

Ranshkaka Civilization

A civilization that lives there, what people call the North Star. It is not part of the Interstellar Union. It is part of the Galactic Federation of Light. Its name in the galactic language is Ranshkaka. There live creatures that look like people, but they have legs like grasshoppers. They are not grasshoppers. They evolved from some kind of large flying creatures, somewhat similar to bats. There are no such animals on Earth, they look like insectoids, but they are warm-blooded.

This is a closed civilization. You can get information about it, but its representatives do not let anyone into their world and they have no contactees on Earth. Maybe there are astral ones, but this is not certain.

This is one of the planets. It is the eighth from the star. The creatures living there can rise into the air. Their body is brown, they have wings. But they can no longer fly, it is just an attribute. They have lost the ability to fly, because their physiology has changed. They have acquired a large body mass. Those cavities that were filled with air have now disappeared, giving way to the nodes of the nervous system, which performs the same function as in people of Earth, the brain. Intelligent spirits are embodied in them.

#354, 48:17

Tisiona Civilization

A civilization living in the constellation of Draco. Flying reptilians also live there.

#219, 04:40

Harishtimr civilization

A humanoid civilization in the Pleiades cluster. The height of its representatives is about two and a half meters. They have bright white skin, like the Burkhadians, but the structure of the head is different: a round head without hair, a round face and a very high elongated forehead. The head twists back in several spirals and the back of the head is slanted. The eyes are dark in color, they are blue. It depends on their nationality. They live about three thousand Earth years. They were against the entry into the Galactic Federation of Light of one of the reptilian races, which joined it a little more than 260 Earth years ago. They refused to be in the Galactic Federation of Light due to disagreements with the Interstellar Union on the issue of the presence in it of some civilizations, which they consider, to put it mildly, unethical.

Cyclicity of time (on Earth)

The Earth goes through, roughly speaking, four major cycles, each of which is divided into approximately 12-14 cycles, depending on how one measures. The transition from one cycle to another is accompanied by a Quantum Leap. The matter of the Earth itself does not disappear, but changes the polar direction of energies in relation to each other. This changes the energy of space, changes the noosphere of the planet, changes the climate, etc. The instruments in this Quantum Transition are both plasmoid civilizations and humanoid civilizations of this planet. Through their bodies, through their understanding, through their level of evolution, they project spiritual energy into space of such a quality that builds the structure of the world around them. Each cycle for the Earth according to the current chronology lasts approximately 960,000 years, if one year is considered one revolution of the Earth around the Sun and take into account at what distance it is now. At the moment, such cycles. The passage of each cycle can accelerate or slow down depending on the level of consciousness. This is such a dynamic system.

#286, 21:33

The cyclical nature of the development of the Universe

The Universe exists cyclically. That is, it unfolds in space: first in the subtle-material world, then in the dense-material world, and then folds back. “Everything will fold like Light…” What does “fold” mean? It means that it will cease to exist in the dense-material form and we will incarnate in the subtle-material worlds, and then the subtle-material worlds will also fold into Light. There will be a return of God Himself to Himself, to His original form, and we will be in the Spiritual world in a form closed on itself in the form of Light. The cycle of folding and unfolding of the Universe is approximately equal to 125 billion Earth years. But the cycle does not go in absolutely equal periods: it can be more, it can be less. Depending again on the amount of Light in the incarnating spirits. All this affects the entire Universe, in all the Galaxies and in all the subtle-material worlds. And the unmanifested cycle cannot be measured in time periods, because there is no time there. There it can last for a moment in time, or for many billions of years.

Tsoi Victor

A spirit that incarnated from the ninth level. Came out of incarnation at the fifteenth level. Had an incarnation in one of the Roman warriors who died in battle (but that was in the third century) for one of the Roman provinces, in a battle with wild hordes. Then there was another one - on Gihor. Was born there as a woman who, one might say, worked at a factory producing some food products. Before his incarnation in the body of Viktor Tsoi, was incarnated in a subtle entity also on Earth, at the eleventh level of density. Controlled magnetic waves, magnetic field, regulated energy exchange or energy relations between the Earth and the Sun, so that there were no too strong magnetic storms. There were 989 incarnations in total, including the last one in Viktor Tsoi.

When he was still a child, he was taken in by the Burkhadians, that is, he had physical contact with the Burkhadians, and they modernized his body, improved his contact with the spiritual world. And he began to feel it as himself. They changed the vibrations of his pineal gland. And from this he began to feel the spiritual world better. He came into contact with the Burkhadians, with plasmoid civilizations, with the spiritual world from which he incarnated. Now he is incarnated on Shimor, he is an elderly Shimoret, one of the elders of the planet, who is involved in politics.

Chakra

The energy center of a person in the etheric, astral, mental and other fields of his aura. Chakras express the qualities of the spirit and are projected through seven specific places of the human body. In the terminology of the Interstellar Union, each chakra is responsible for one of the astral levels of the planet's noosphere, is a symbol, a designation of some spiritual reality of the structure of our common spiritual structure, of which the spirit consists, in general, any intelligent born spirit. The aura of earthlings is divided into 7 fields, 7 layers, 7 bodies and 7 energy centers. On other planets there may be 9, 12, 24, 30, 36, etc. floors of the astral world.

Symbol of the manifestation of the spirit through a specific body: physical. The spirit manifests itself through the body in such a way that its energy, which contains certain qualities, is reflected through certain places in the body. This depends on the type of body. The number of chakras depends on the energy of the planet.

As the fetus is forming, there are no chakras yet, they only begin to develop after birth. They are there, but in an embryonic state.

Physical energies: gravity, heat, etc., are felt more through the first chakra, which is located in the coccyx area. Subtle energies, the energies of one's emotions, are felt more through the second and third chakras.

The energies of the astral world, where feelings and desires are located, are felt more through the heart chakra and the fifth chakra.

And the energy of the World of non-embodied spirits is felt through two chakras – the sixth and seventh. Developing one chakra without developing others is ineffective. It will not give anything, because a person must have everything harmoniously developed. It is necessary to work on cleansing and opening your spiritual heart and gradually all the chakras will come into harmony, because, like the center of the scales, it is in the middle – three on top and three on the bottom. The heart chakra is in the middle and balances the two sides.

The energy system of chakras is energy centers that are the manifestation of the spirit in the physical body of a person. This is the property and belonging of the spirit itself, as well as the body. Only the spirit that is directly embodied can change the energy settings (according to Divine law).

A person is both a spirit and a body. This means that he can have physical, energetic and purely spiritual reasons that are reflected in the physical body. Simply put, these can be hormonal disorders, infectious diseases, blocks on the etheric body, that is, energetic disorders, or mental attitudes. Convincing oneself that this exists.

To help yourself as much as possible, you need to identify the level at which the disorder arose and eliminate it. To do this, it is best to talk to the non-embodied part of yourself about the reasons for the lack of arousal.

Schumann frequency

The leading frequency, magnetic-gravitational potential. Each planet has its own. It includes the electric, electromagnetic, and magnetic fields of the planet. And also the electricity of the earth's soil itself. It also has electric energy, the energy of the Earth's core. Electric processes occurring in the atmosphere and, naturally, gravitational forces.

It can fluctuate sharply during the day depending on solar activity.

Human

Spirit embodied in a body. The sum of aggregate frequencies, a system of energies operating at different frequencies. This is a dynamic system, one constantly flows into another – a person, a humanoid, a plasmoid.

The meeting place of two worlds. It contains energy from the Spiritual world and the physical world, and when they come together, they form the etheric body. If you look at light biophotons, you can name the smallest portions of this energy, between cells and along the meridians.

#227, 21:25, #410, 18:35

Black magic egregor

The lowest section of the esoteric egregor. Magic is also a type of esotericism, knowledge of the world through extrasensory experience. Magicians know the world and influence it with their thoughts and energies, create events. But low-vibration destructive plasmoid civilizations can connect to their energies, and non-embodied spirits from the first 6 demonic levels can also come. Sorcerers can also connect to this egregor.

There is enough energy there. Magicians take it for their rituals. When they take energy for their rituals, energy as the driving force of this ritual, they have an energy debt to the guardians of this egregor.

If before God and light entities debts do not arise, because it is given unconditionally, then the dark, that is, low-vibration spirits, who have rejected the Light, do not feel it in themselves voluntarily, are not so selfless and do not know how to love with unconditional Love. They write everything down.

#30, 06:00

The fourth level of dense media

The lowest level of plasmoids. Spirits of the earth, water, nature, forest. They can look like balls, or they can take the form of small people. They can take the form of stones or animals. Their body in their world looks like a small ball, for example, 15 cm in diameter.

When dying, it begins to lose its shape and disintegrate into smaller bubbles.

#180, 01:04:25

Black hole

A former star that had a mass greater than the mass of two Suns, from which all types of first and second level energies left and only gravitational remained. Due to the fact that it remained, gravitational energy compresses itself and as a result acquires the qualities of supergravity, superdensity, and so on. Apart from gravitational energy, almost nothing remains there from what was there initially. And although radio waves remain there, but because gravitational energy holds them, they cannot leave these atoms and go beyond the shell of the former Star, in which only gravitational energies remain.

For some subtle-material entities (for plasmoids and for those who are, in general, without a material carrier, i.e. those who are in astral bodies) there is a possibility of getting into a black hole, into this gravitational clot.

In the center of a black hole there is such a gravitational charge that, depending on its initial mass and its location in space among other gravitational fields, the one who finds himself in a subtle or astral body in the center of a black hole, due to the fact that gravitational energies accumulate there, mini-portals open for him. Approximately the same thing happens as in gravitational engines. That is, he is thrown from this clot of energy into another black hole, which may already be either in our Galaxy, or in another Galaxy, or in that part of the Universe that we call the Anti-Universe.

There are 25 black holes in our Galaxy.

An energy gap into another space. Through it, you can get into both subtle-material worlds and another Universe.

You can pass through black holes into the Anti-Universe. But only those who have the so-called access code. This is a special state of the energy body, which, for example, curators have. They were specially trained for this.

Chips

Scanning devices. Usually material, physical chips. They are placed in contactees in order to observe the everyday life of earthlings through them. They can be placed in the head, in the occipital part of the head in order to read from the visual cortex of the brain those signals that come through the eyes. And then the specialist will see, figuratively speaking, through the eyes of a person, where he is, what he sees around him and with whom he communicates.

There are combined chips that read the energy of people around them, that is, astral and mental fields. And it happens that these combined chips are connected to the pineal gland and to the occipital cortex of the brain, which is responsible for both visual signals and energy vision, and then sociologists and psychologists from other planets study the change in the energy of astral-mental fields in the process of communication and interaction.

Chips cannot be installed on everyone, even if a person wants to, and there are no other obstacles, because physical bodies have different vibration frequencies. And there are people who are incompatible with this chip due to both physical and energetic rejection. If such a person is installed with a chip, he may, for example, start to get sick, it will be difficult for him to adapt to it, or the blocked part of his memory will give him some psychological disorders. People who are not ready for contacts, with a special structure of the cerebral cortex, for example, according to the laws of the Interstellar Union are prohibited from installing such devices, even if they want it, because it can entail irreversible consequences.

The contactee's body, spirit and psyche also affect the implant. The same implant installed in different people gives different results depending on the person's initial abilities.

At birth, only non-physical chips are installed, which do not require physical flight, but etheric and astral ones. Physical ones are installed at the age when the child moves independently, talks and can give consent. They explain to him that he is dealing with aliens from another world. The child is an embodied spirit from that planet, since he calls them, it is believed that they have easy contact, and they explain to him that it is necessary to install a device so that they can see what is happening to him, and after this, some civilizations immediately block the memory, because they believe that he will tell adults, and they will persecute him for this, laugh at him.

Numbers (meaning)

"1" is the Number of the Absolute, Divine Consciousness, it looks like a very bright white Light. It is a point of non-existence and existence at the same time. Non-existence of the material, but absolute existence of the spiritual. Buddhists called it "shunyata", but the emptiness there is only for material manifestations, not for spiritual ones.

"2" is the number of the born spirit, it is the number of the soul. At first there was one God, and then there were two - God and the Son. "2" is the number of the one who is nearby. It is the number of the emerging spirit, which still realizes itself in unity with God, but at the same time realizes its independence. That is, it is unity and separateness at the same time. Unity in energies, separateness in consciousness.

"3" is the number when two people decide to move together and unite their energies. This gives birth to the will to act, not the action itself, but the will to act directed outward. At first there were two, then a third appeared. This is reflected, for example, in the figure of a triangle: if "2" is a straight line on a plane, then "3" is an exit to another dimension, to the height. Trinity can be seen in various substances and material properties. For example, the physical world consists of three levels of density - solid, liquid, gaseous, etc. Even in each of our cells there are three types of ribonucleic acid: transport, information and ribosomal. This is also the embodiment of the characteristics of the number "3".

"4" is the number of the emergence of energy that generates the material world, that is, it is the number of the material world. Something dense appeared for the first time. "3" is the emergence of the movement of the subtle material world, but without dense particles. "4" is the emergence of the dense material world and its structuring. From the Divine Absolute arise forms of space and matter, familiar to us, which can be touched and sensed.

"5" The number when "4" united with one: God united with matter and embodiment arose. Or, for example, "2" - the soul united with the will to act, it wanted to act, that is, "2" + "3" and it turned out "5". The number "5" is the number of the incarnated spirit. The spirit incarnated for action. In the Spiritual world - this is also the number of the Higher Self, control over the situation, management of this situation. On Earth, this is the number of man, as a rational being.

"6" is the number of love. A person awakens a feeling of love and enjoyment of the material world. All forms of enjoyment that he strives for in the body are only a vague reminder of spiritual experiences, of spiritual love. Nevertheless, it is one and the same energy. It is simply manifested, as light can be manifested through a lamp, through a lantern, through a torch, through the Sun. The energy of Love can be manifested through different things and is connected with the energy of enjoyment. Love and happiness make up one energy and this is "6".

"7" The number of learning something new. The number of some energies that can be perceived as lessons, tests, sometimes even suffering. In Buddhism, this is expressed simply: the cause of suffering is desire, which grows with satisfaction.

"8" An endless cycle of certain energies. After the tests, after the lessons comes the comprehension of the Truth. The Truth of the eight itself is contained in the endless approach to it. "8" is the comprehension of the Truth, it is a certain secret that is inaccessible to those who are at other levels of awareness. Comprehension of the Truth leads to a state when the number "8" goes to the number "9".

"9" Inverted six. Absolute Love. If "6" is a circle, which in this case means the Higher Self and an attempt, a hook upwards, which can come out of the Higher Self and cling to pleasures, then "9" is a circle, energy comes out of it downwards, not to seek, but to give; up and down.

"0" The number of infinity

Numeric codes

A set of corresponding energies, which is expressed by one or another number. Each number is a symbol of energy, some energy state. This is "consciousness management", that is, awareness, spirit management with the help of numerical codes - this is just one of the subtypes of managing your state, your body and your consciousness with the help of any other symbol.

There are many types: meditation with concentration on some picture, there is meditation on Tarot cards, on runes and so on. These are ordinary symbols that are used at the person's discretion, but they can be useful only if the person applies his faith in the effectiveness of this symbol. Then it is really effective.

#393, 01:19:00

Pure Mind (Buddhi)

The fifth level of the aura of an earthly person, containing information about previous incarnations and about life in the spiritual world between them.

#14, 03:10

Feelings

The attitude of the spirit to itself, to some phenomenon or personality. There are many feelings, this is a long dynamic process that changes in its strength, in its direction, sometimes in relation to the same phenomenon. It happens that a person feels, one might say, is in a state of this feeling, but he cannot express it in words, because the conceptual apparatus of his thinking cannot take these words from the memory of the spirit. Or he can take them, but he cannot connect them, select them in this way. Without feelings, a person cannot think of himself. Feelings are part of the structure (construction) of the spirit, located in the part of the spirit called the "spiritual heart" or Essence and having no relation to the heart as a physical organ, which is the core of the spirit, its essence, the essence on which the other two parts of the spirit depend: Reason and Energy.

Chupacabra

An animal that attacks birds and small animals and sucks their blood. These are ordinary small animals that live in families and of which there are many species on Earth. They themselves are different, depending on the habitat, country, climate, and so on. These predators are one of these species that feed on blood and dig holes.

Shamanism

An ancient form of communication with the Spirits of nature, with plasmoids.

In a shaman's family, a soul is often born that specifically comes from the Spiritual World to continue this work on Earth. But this is not always the case, sometimes such a soul does not appear from shaman families.

Shamanic drum

An instrument whose sounds and rhythm are used to tune, to a greater extent, to plasmoid civilizations of the earthly type.

#239, 48:17

Shambhala

The name, which has 3 meanings:

1 An active ancient alien base in the Southern Altai, created 10,000 years ago. In the language of the representatives of the planet Esler, "Shambhala" came from the words "Shampa", which was the name of the capital of their planet, and "ola", meaning an alien, a guest. This word was used by people to call those creatures who came to their village to teach them. "Shampalo" - that's what they were called.

2 Parallel universe (anti-universe), a material world existing on a different wavelength, with a different atomic structure. Part of this universe is visible as dark matter, but earthly instruments cannot detect the radiation of these stars. There are representatives of Earth who contact representatives of Shambhala through the astral. Physical contact is impossible due to harm to both sides, since the rotation of atoms and the release of energy of our world and the parallel world occur in opposite directions;

3 The name of the highest levels of the Spiritual World. From this world the highest spiritual teachers are incarnated, who lead others to enlightenment.

The one who saw the perfect world, he called it "Shambhala". Now Shambhala is rather an internal state than a place. It is equivalent to the state of Buddha.

Materialization of plasmoids using large amounts of energy.

A life form of subtle-material beings. It collects atmospheric electricity into clots in order to conduct some experiments, develop, and redirect energy between Earth and Space.

Chess

Initially, a certain cipher. It was invented, firstly, to transmit information to students, as a teaching meaning, and secondly, to influence reality through this game, like a magic ritual. By moving the figures in a certain way, two people create a certain egregor, which changes the energies in space. Invented by ancient priests to designate different forces in the human soul and in the Universe under different symbols. Then it began to designate the struggle between Light and Darkness. Previously, it was the impact of various forces of nature or the human soul, or the Universe on each other. Each game symbolized, for example, the creation, birth of the world and its end. The symbols that now designate an army on the battlefield used to mean something else.

Shentrikuss

The planet of the Order of Six, which sets the ideology of behavior for the entire Order of Six and is the unofficial ideological capital. Although it does not directly govern this body, representatives of their

The world of disembodied spirits.

#30, 07:25

The sixth level of embodiment

Archons, the so-called "chiefs" of demons, who have experience in management.

#145, 32:02

Shiva

An intelligent spirit, incarnated on different planets, was a plasmoid many times, as well as a priest, a Slavic sorcerer, and an ancient Greek philosopher.

#75, 01:14:28

Schizophrenia

A disorder of perception, thinking, which involves contact, uncontrolled by the person, with an external being/beings. The disorder causes his maladjustment in society. Adaptation depends not only on the curator who comes to him, it also depends on the contactee, on his reaction to this contact. A disorder of the brain, which causes certain visions, states (materialistic explanation).

#97, 12:10, #115, 33:05, #267, 02:39

Pineal gland

Reflection of the sixth energy center, responsible for intuition, contacts with this world, one's own thinking, etc. On the physical plane, it is reflected by the release of hormones that regulate a person's intellectual activity, his mood, and exit to the astral plane when the body is sleeping.

The organ of those hormones that are responsible for mood, for emotions. If a person is in negative emotions, then its work is suppressed. And not only the pineal gland, but also two other glands, on which the work of the brain is based, the pituitary gland and the hypothalamus. Even tumors can form due to the fact that calcium is deposited. For example, there is a pituitary adenoma - also from negative emotions.

Sho-Khariki

An insectoid civilization that is part of the Interstellar Union. It was formed naturally from large insects that naturally evolved their nervous system, albeit a group one, so that intelligent spirits could incarnate in them. It is a very old civilization, about two hundred million years old. It lives on a planet in the Pegasus constellation, about 620 light years from Earth. There is approximately 1.23 Earth gravity. The sun is bright, larger than on Earth, and the sky is completely white. The methane content is high, about 8%. The radiation is such that if a person goes out there without a suit, he will live no more than fifteen minutes. There is no vegetation. In total, Sho-Hariki has eighteen moons and two suns. There is practically no dark time on their planet. Sho-Hariki's houses are in the form of a sphere or two connected cones, only the angle of the cones is not acute and these houses seem to be suspended in the air. The inhabitants themselves fly between them, having wings. The atmosphere there is rarefied and evolution has taught their organisms to make loud sounds. Adults are approximately 2.4 to 2.8 m tall. They are similar to praying mantises only in that they are also long, but not green, but brown. They have a rather small head compared to their body. Representatives of Sho-Hariki have a group mind. A separate intelligent spirit is embodied in each creature, but due to the fact that they have a group mind, the neural network of their brain, their nervous system is connected at the electromagnetic level with the noosphere of the planet and with the mind of each creature. Therefore, their spirits, although separately embodied, also unite in the Spiritual World into a conditionally group Soul and exist until their existence in this incarnation ends. On their paws, at the ends, they have some fingers and there are clearly more than ten of them. They can even take small objects with them. They have six limbs, their head can turn in different directions and, in general, throw back. Brown complexion, nose is not visible, practically, the mouth has two plates on top that move apart and crack. They do not have blood, but some kind of common liquid, no vessels. The skeleton is not inside, but outside, this solid base does not allow them to die from radiation and allows them to withstand high atmospheric pressure. Their metabolism is completely different, although they feed on other living creatures, i.e. they are predators. Sho-Hariks have contactees, but due to the group mind, these contactees have a high percentage of schizophrenia. Because with schizophrenia, there are many personalities in one person. Sho-Hariks have such a disease.

Strain

A separate population of viruses, which in this case differs slightly in its RNA molecule composition from all the others in the arrangement of individual nucleotides. And therefore, in the protein content that codes the DNA or RNA molecules. There can be many, many thousands of virus strains, due to the fact that they reproduce very quickly, copying themselves many millions of times in our cells. Due to such rapid copying, many mutations occur. These mutations then give rise to new strains.

#390, 21:49

Sumerians

A civilization consisting of the descendants of people who came to the valley between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers 12 thousand years ago. These people remembered and passed on to their children the historical events that took place in the pre-war period. They wrote it down as the legends of their own ancestors. They even called the book "The Testaments of the Ancestors". The book has been partially preserved.

Books were written not only on clay tablets. Something resembling paper was widely used. They engraved on metal plates, on dishes, and even on the walls of houses.

Euglena viridis

Microorganisms that are no longer plants, but micro animals, they have a high percentage of chlorophyll and feed on light. But even such small microorganisms still feed on the light of the Sun, through the chlorophyll reaction, only partially. They also feed on other microorganisms, such as ciliates. Only unlike ciliates, they also contain chlorophyll.

#40, 41:27

Evolution of the Spirit

The development of consciousness and the development of brain structures, which are guided by spiritual development. A process closely connected with the evolution of any civilization, where each embodied spirit, each person can reveal in themselves the potential that the Creator has laid in them. For this, it is necessary to explain to the child from childhood why they came here, that they are temporarily in this life. And with the help of eternal love, they will be able to change the world towards increasing the level of Love and awareness in it.

#193, 07:18, #281, 19:42

Euthanasia

Deprivation of a person of incarnation at his request, due to illness, at his desire, at the request and assistance of other people. A form of premature exit from incarnation at the will of the spirit itself. This is a form of killing one's body, but, unlike suicide as such, it is not done by one's own efforts (for various reasons), but with the help of other spirits. This is assistance in exiting incarnation, when the spirit itself, for some reason, does not take full responsibility for its act, depriving itself of life on Earth, but wants to place this on other spirits, so that they can help it do this. There are spirits who have found themselves in difficult circumstances, in some kind of trouble, in some kind of illness. In order not to feel physical or spiritual suffering, they decide to completely exit this body. Subconsciously, with the help of their intuition, conscience, they understand that this act contradicts their idea of good and evil, their idea of Light, and then they ask someone to help them, to share responsibility with them. So it turns out that if the person who helps him to leave the incarnation agrees to euthanasia, then responsibility for the premature exit from the incarnation, as for murder, will be borne by two: the one who asked and the one who committed it.

#352, 58:20

Ego (I)

Either it is the embodied part of the spirit, which is called the soul, or it is some part of it.

The ego can be filled with Light and then it will be an enlightened personality. But if the ego is filled with darkness, as the absence of Light, if the ego does not love anyone, then it does not love itself. In fact, there is no true Love. And then it interferes with awakening.

#393, 17:42, #444, 05:33

Egoism

Elevation of one's ego. Originally it meant "I", the feeling of "I", the feeling of self. The meaning of the word "ego" is the isolation of some part of the spirit and giving it elevation above everything. Egoism is when you take a part of the spirit, which is called "ego", and simply place it above the whole spirit, even above the non-embodied part, above the Higher Self. This means that in the spiritual heart of this person, instead of God, who should sit as if on a throne (as the Higher Self, God, the Creator, Jesus Christ, the ideal part that leads to the Light), he himself sits, precisely in his earthly incarnation. Not in some ideal, but precisely in his earthly incarnation. For such a person, the most important will be his earthly interests: the interests of his body, pleasures, relationships. And his life tasks, the tasks of incarnation, raising his level, developing love will be ignored. And this will be love only for one part of yourself, only for one projection of yourself, while ignoring everything else. In essence, egoism is not true love for yourself, but dislike for yourself.

Egregor

An energy formation in the planet's noosphere, partially accessible through the astral shell, which contains mental, emotional and volitional energies similar in vibration frequency and idea. There are religious, political and scientific egregors. A concept, term and concept in occultism and esotericism, which means a non-physical entity, a group biofield. An egregor is not just a separate mind. It consists of several parts: the information part is the Akashic chronicles, where the Spirits are located - the guardians of the egregor. If this is a religious egregor, then there is a high level of Souls, we call them Angels of the 22nd, 23rd and 24th levels. They, as guardians of the egregor, distribute its energy. The energy part of the egregor also contains the energy of people, which is released during rituals (religious egregor) or reflections on a certain topic (scientific egregor), or dreams of winning (financial).

Egregor of dependencies

An egregor located on the lower floors of the astral world. Its guardian spirits come from the demonic levels of the world of disembodied spirits. Often these spirits themselves had the same problem when they lived in the material world.

#50, 19:16

Egregorial system

The system through which everyone has to act: both you and us. It certainly has its advantages and its disadvantages. Our business and yours, as light spirits incarnated on this planet, is to turn all the disadvantages that exist into advantages. And to strengthen the advantages. But to completely remove the idea of egregoriality is fundamentally wrong, because it is impossible. There will simply be a new egregor.

#411, 01:56

Eden

The oldest Tumesout base on Earth. A scientific base and testing ground for the creation of man and the training of our ancestors to go through the social path of development. 12 thousand years ago it was located on the site of the Mediterranean Sea, closer to today's Turkey.

#18, 31:50, 34:30, #202, 17.20

Esoteric egregor

One of the religious egregors, where people are engaged in spiritual development.

An esoteric egregor (one that speaks of spiritual development) is also a type of religious egregor.

#411, 01:56

Ekadashi

Fasting on the eleventh day after the new moon or the full moon, so that a person would raise his vibrations so that he would engage in spiritual practice more. These days (the 11th day after the new moon and after the full moon) had such a property that they helped to cleanse the physical organism of a person and his etheric body.

The fast was adopted so that people would spend less time a day earning food and spend more time on prayers, spiritual practices, performing various good deeds, rituals that raised their vibrations.

Another point. A very important one, in any fast of any religion. That money, that food (if it was a long fast, anyway the person worked somewhere, went somewhere), which he saved up during the fast, without eating it himself, was a virtue to give to the poor, i.e., one can say, he tore it away from himself. A person learned to harmonize his egoism, when he earned not only for himself, for his material consumption, but showed mercy to the poor, to those who do not have such an opportunity to eat it.

The meaning of fasting was that a person abstained from food in order to give it to the poor, the needy, the sick, widows, children, i.e. those who could not take care of themselves. This is a very ancient meaning of fasting.

Scientific method of creating a physical shell.

#20, 46:53

Ecstasy

A trance state, withdrawal into oneself, into one’s spiritual world, which can be accompanied by the release of the astral body, when the ethereal energy of the astral comes out of the hands, feet and head.

#118, 23:41

Ecumenist

A person who accepts all religions accepts the salvation of all religions. This is also a kind of religion, a religious-philosophical teaching. Such a person will simply no longer be a Christian, a Jew, and so on.

If you are an ecumenist-esotericist, entering a temple of one religion or another, you will temporarily fall into this egregor. You are equally a Christian, Muslim, Buddhist, and so on.

#439, 34:26

Electric energy from air (Tesla)

Energy does not come from nothing, but from electrostatic charges. To get it from the air, you first need to attract it into a certain twisted metal wire.

#377, 00:23

Electric charge

Subtle energy, a substance that consists of different frequencies. For a person, it is visible in the form of dark matter, dark energy. Worlds and planets are made of these subtle energies - a parallel world. They are imperceptible to a person.

#110, 29:07

Electricity

Radiation or flow of energy of the 1st level.

#17, 24:19, #404 , 33:51

Electricity (Tesla)

One of the forms of etheric energy.

A type of ether energy that has two opposite charges: "plus" and "minus". Two opposites.

One of the types of ether, which can be transformed into others: into heat, light, into different types of mechanical energy - something rotates, something moves. But this electricity is generated, all the same, by ether. This is not only a current that "runs" along a conductor, it moves simultaneously along the surface and around.

#376, 14:10, #404 , 33:51

Electromagnetic waves (from the point of view of the Interstellar Union)

The first level types of energy that emerge from atoms and move through space create electric and magnetic fields.

Electromagnetic waves: radio waves, ultra-high radiation waves, ultra-high frequency waves, on which microwave ovens are built, and so on, all these waves are lower in frequency than the first color in the color spectrum, red. The highest in frequency in the light spectrum is violet. Above violet in frequency is ultraviolet: ultraviolet long-wave, ultraviolet short-wave.

Only long-wave ultraviolet has a moderate irritating effect on the skin, because it begins to damage the outer epidermis. It has a very high frequency. When these waves oscillate very often, a large number of times per second, they begin to damage the proteins of the skin, the substances that enter the skin.

The short-wave ultraviolet spectrum is even more high-frequency. There may be sunburn. That is, in addition to the visible spectrum from the sun, there is also an ultraviolet component that passes through the atmosphere.

Above the short-wave ultraviolet spectrum is X-ray radiation. It can damage human cells even more, but less than radiation.

#296, 01:00:47

Electromagnetic fields

Fields with a frequency lower than the spectrum of light that the human eye can perceive. They are safe. The only thing they can cause, if the source of the waves is located near a person, is an increase in temperature. They cannot cause damage to cells, because they have little energy for this. They have a low vibration frequency, lower than in the nerve cells of the body, which have a semblance of electricity. That is, people emit electromagnetic waves.

#296, 01:00:47, #377, 15:55

Electron

A particle of radio wave, electrical and magnetic energy.

A structural element that consists of 60% of the energy of the element of fire and 40% of the energy of the element of air, which supports it there. That is why fire and water are opposite elements, "plus" and "minus", opposite in their quality.

#17, 33:39, #307, 44:23

Electron, proton, neutron

Particles consisting of the energies of the four elements in a certain ratio. The electron includes elements that are fundamentally opposite in their qualities to the elements in the proton. The electron has more of the element of fire, and the proton has more of the element of water. Accordingly, they repel each other. The neutron has not only an electric charge, but also a gravitational charge in the nucleus of the atom. The neutron is neutral because it contains the energy of all four elements in equal proportions. This play of the four elements: air, earth, water and fire, represents the ten material energies that enter into atoms.

#322, 01:26

Electron cloud, proton-neutron complex

Ten material energies that make up the three energy levels of the atom. The first energy level contains five energies: heat, light, electricity, magnetism, and radio waves of certain frequencies. The second energy level in the atom contains radiation energy and thermonuclear energy, which is present in any atom, regardless of the substance. The third energy level is the deepest in terms of immersion into the atom. This is micro and macrogravity.

#322, 03:48

Elementals

Spirits from the 7th level of the World of Unincarnate Spirits. Spirits that seek to incarnate in plasmoid worlds responsible for certain natural elements. They emerged from the demon world and devoted their energy to controlling nature and creating animal souls. Their own power still attracts them to such an extent that they can ignore the needs of their family, act against society as a whole, and not wish to sincerely turn to God. But they have already moved away from demonic egoism and now, by creating and controlling animal souls, they learn to selflessly love someone other than themselves.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

Elohim

The name of the aliens from humanoid civilizations and plasmoids. All aliens were called in Hebrew by the term Elohim. In Russian it is translated as God, but it is plural, and in Hebrew it is read as gods who came from above. One of the Elohim is Satan.

Emblem of the Interstellar Union

A three-dimensional rotating star, similar to the emblem of Cassiopeia. It symbolizes the spread from the single center of God's consciousness in its energy of true love and life to all sides of the universe.

#218, 06:03

Embryogenesis

The process of forming an organism. The spirit is primary in this process. The spirit, the spiritual essence, which is embodied in a certain body, receives vital energy for the embodiment, which subsequently becomes a person's "etheric body" or "etheric field", as people call it. But when the spirit has received its vital force (it has received not the entire spirit, but 30% of it, which is called the incarnating part, this is for an earthling), this part, so to speak, the spirit separates from itself. The spirit, if you look at it from a material point of view, is divided into two parts. And from a spiritual point of view, it simply incarnates a part of itself. Both will be true, but this is only a view from different sides. This incarnating spirit, which is called the soul, awaits the conception of its body, being in the astral world next to its parents at this time. And at the moment when the physical reproductive cells of its father and mother unite, and the first cell of its new organism is formed, the exchange of genetic information between the cell of the man and the woman begins. And at this moment, the spirit that has come to incarnate combines the flow of its life force, its etheric force with this cell. It kind of saturates it. We say the word "injects", but it does not simply inject, like a needle, but it imposes its life force on it, and it is completely under the influence of its etheric body, its life force. It itself does not enter this cell until the earthling's embryo reaches the age of seven weeks. But for all seven weeks, its life force is still present in this embryo. It is not just present, it controls the speed of transcription, that is, the rewriting of genetic information at the physical level already at the level of cell construction. How does this depend? The Spirit already has an image of its physical body ready. It is in it, in the image of the so-called "etheric matrix". That is, each future physical organ has an exact copy of it. Only it does not have dimensions, weight, any physical parameters. It is at the energy level. But, nevertheless, it is a completely real structure, and it begins to fill with cells of the future physical body. This process is also influenced by the life force of the mother and, to a lesser extent, the life force of the father. The life force of the spirit itself has the greatest influence, despite the fact that its body is small, but its spirit has the greatest influence on this. From the moment of conception, the embryo is, in fact, a separate organism. Although not yet independent, it is an energetically separate organism that takes only the necessary substances from the mother's body.And energetically it is more independent than you think.

Emotional pain

Human pain that is located on the mental, casual and other deep structures of the human spirit. It occurs when individual life goals of a person are violated and not fulfilled.

#191, 01:01:55

Emotional diary

A separate notebook, which can be titled "My personal emotional diary", the main condition is that the diary is inaccessible to anyone. No one should open it without your consent: neither mom, nor dad, nor child, nor husband, nor wife. This is the main condition for honesty with yourself. As soon as you experienced some emotion and remembered that you need to write it down, you must take it out. In the "emotional diary" write the date, approximate time, what emotion and why you experienced. If you censor your statements, they will no longer be pure emotion. You need to write in one notebook for about a month. After a month, choose a day when you get up in the morning and read it all. You will read it more detachedly, like a book. You will see what you did not see in the "emotional diary". Many emotions are repeated in the same situations. This will help to identify mental attitudes that are hidden from you. And you will see that you need to change yourself so that nothing can take you out of the positive, harmonious state of your stay in the body.

#266, 40:57, #401, 01:25:23

Emotion

An energetic reaction to information perceived from the outside, or events occurring within the spiritual field, that is, in the field of memories. This is energy aimed at changing the external and internal environment. All living beings, both rational and irrational, have emotions. They are mandatory. This reaction stems from the very understanding of biological life as a chain of reactions to changes in the external and internal environment. The material world is very plastic and changeable. Any living being that is in the material world, in order to survive, produce offspring and occupy a certain niche in its social sphere, must react to changes in the environment. Only the animal soul will always have an emotional life based on instinctive reason, and rational spirits, including humans, have it based on their immortal spirit mind: spiritual reason and instinctive reason, or their combinations.

Energy stone in Kaaba (Mecca)

The stone is of terrestrial origin, but it contains a particle of a stone (white crystal mineral) rather than a meteorite. A particle of a crystal is placed inside the stone, and the Tumesoutian Jabrail gave it to Mohammed, and at that time the Interstellar Union allowed gifts to be given.

#217, 37:36

Energy (as part of the intelligent spirit)

Part of the intelligent spirit, consisting of three energetic abilities: will, consciousness and emotions.

#33, 19:25, #59, 35:02, #140, 18:34,

Vacuum energy

Energy that is located in empty material space, free from substances and fields.

#77, 13:18

Second level energies

What is called radioactive radiation (hard X-rays) and thermonuclear fusion energy is what is released when atoms of different elements collide with each other at high speed and under high pressure.

#17, 14:51

Energy of Healing

The energy of the mind, consciousness, which is filled with Divine Light and the desire to heal a person and fill him with the idea that he is healthy.

#367, 01:46:25

Energies of the material world

1st level energies – heat, light, electromagnetism, radio waves.

Level 2 energies are radioactive radiation (hard X-rays) and thermonuclear fusion energy, which is released when atoms of different elements collide with each other at high speed and under high pressure.

3rd level energies – microgravity and macrogravity.

All energies of the material world are interconnected and interact with each other.

#17, 14:51

Energies of Patriotism

Energies of Love.

#444, 14:38

Energy of water

An endless sea, but it is more like an underwater world. There is a state of constant movement, like a wave. The energy of the element of water is spiritual purity, a cleansing principle.

#434, 09:19, 17:23

Air energy

Air flows consisting of an endless atmosphere with clouds, cyclones. Only all this in an energetic form. An endless atmosphere in which there are houses, cities, consisting of clouds.

Air energy is the energy in the Spiritual world not just of reason, but of wisdom. For example, when you think about something, it is knowledge, a desire to know, an interest, which is described in the Spiritual world as a desire for knowledge. This is a spiritual state.

#434, 09:19, 17:23

Earth Energy

A static state, where there are many different crystalline forms, for example. Similar to the structure of the earth's crust, only the crystals are magnified a million times.

The energy of the earth element is protection. The energy that protects everything and holds everything together, introducing it into the structure, producing structuring.

#434, 09:19, 17:23

Energy of Fire

Ethereal elemental force, it has a certain color, but not physical, but the one that manifests itself in the subtle material world. There is a color, a certain structure of the structure of some plasmoid, for example. It can be at different levels of density.

The spiritual world is the world of feelings and thoughts. The energies of the element of fire are the spiritual feeling of Love. Spiritual Light is reflected as the energy of fire.

#434, 09:19, 17:23

First level energies

Heat, light, electromagnetism, radio waves.

#17, 14:51, #146, 14:01

Energies of SII-HA

"SII" is energy, a quantum of this energy, and "HA" is direction. This is a targeted quantum energy, pulsed, with a very short frequency. It is similar to our Qi energy. This energy is life-forming, it is also a wave particle. But due to the fact that it has a very short wave and a very high frequency, its effect on the body is very soft, easy and very effective. The energy acts at the quantum level, interacting with the cell. Over time, not immediately, activation occurs.

An energy system to help the Earth in Ascension, help in passing the quantum transition for both the planet and people, which is actually the return of people to high vibrations of Light. They enhance the inner vision of various events, develop extrasensory abilities (hypersensitivity).

#394, 27:17 ; #394, 01:01:32

Third level energies

What is called gravity. It is divided into 2 types: microgravity and macrogravity.

#17, 14:51

Energy of subtle-material civilizations

Energy that provides the gravitational field, all gravitons, microgravities, macrogravities consist of this energy. Subtle material civilizations create attraction to planets, stars, galaxies of the Universe and fields in space. By condensing and changing their vibrations, they create all atoms.

#90, 22:13

Energy of Transmutation

Transformation of negativity into positivity when one realizes oneself as Divine Light and dissolves blocks, i.e. when a person realizes the reasons for the appearance of these negative emotions and transforms them.

#253, 03:31

Energy exchange

One of the forms of interaction of material particles and energies.

#166, 30:44

Energy exchange (energy of thought)

Spending our energy potential as divine beings. According to divine law, no one has the right to take our energy from us without our consent. We can voluntarily give energy to any entity if we send it any emotion, feelings. If you send negative energy of fear, anger, hatred, irritation to a light entity, this energy will go back from it, will be reflected from its field amplified as much as the field of this entity is more powerful. The negative entity will absorb this energy, but according to the laws of exchange will send its own, which is charged with negativity.

#296, 02:22, 05:15, 07:39

Energy center

Manifestation of one of the aura fields through the physical body.

#112, 12:22, #365, 00:21, 05:05

Energy centers of the Earth

1 A large energy formation, a portal, a large chakra of the Earth, an energy center for exchange with space (that's why there are portals, a cluster of portals). It is located approximately at the geographic latitude and longitude of the source of the Oka River. There is an ancient sanctuary there. The water that flows out of there has healing properties, charged water.

The epicenter of the zone is slightly more than three kilometers. But the influence extends further, perhaps hundreds of kilometers. Depending on the cyclical activity of plasmoid civilizations, which depends on the cycles of the Sun and Moon, on the general rhythm of nature.

If you look at this place on an energetic level, the space glows very strongly. In ancient times, there were many places in this area where the Magi healed people.

2 Another place is in Russia, it is smaller. An energy line that repeats the fault of the earth's crust, like a geological physical formation. Geoelectric energy comes out of it. It rises upward, causing vortices in the etheric space, like a tunnel in which it twists. And this is the Novokhopersk anomaly, an anomalous zone. Many plasmoids, UFOs, encounters with "field memory" are observed there. The space remembers certain things, for example, images of people who have been there. Then the images can be photographed. Like the Akashic Chronicles.

Light plasmoid civilizations that live in this place create a portal. They agree and create a portal in one place, which they use for their needs, to move from world to world, influence the physical world, observe it, perform all the functions of plasmoids: create animal souls, etc. Such portals existed long before the existence of intelligent man on Earth. Long before the discovery of Earth by the Tumesoutians, such portals already existed, because plasmoid civilizations lived here.

People who live now, getting into these spaces can strengthen them with their Light, weaken or even close these portals, change the energy to negative, if they emit negativity. The third level of density assumes very dense energies embedded in this matter and a very large power of divine Light (or the opposite of Light), which the spirit, embodied in the body, emits.

Energy construction of the body of the Burkhadians

Incarnation through their body type is distributed differently, they have other chakras, other energy centers. Not only their number is different. In each chakra, there are so-called petals, multi-level systems. In one chakra there are as many petals as there are etheric channels in them. The structure of each chakra, their functions in Burkhadians differ from their structure in earthlings. And for this reason, incarnation by 70% does not prevent this spirit from realizing itself in the Spiritual world. It has enough 30%, remaining in the Spiritual world, to fill with energy.

#286, 11:31

Energy construction of the body of the Eslerites

The representatives of the planet Esler have twelve fields. Each chakra has a certain spectrum of color. There are more of these colors. For example, there are two more types of green, white is in the aura, and all the colors that are characteristic of earthlings are present. There is also something in between red and brown.

#365, 00:21

Epilepsy (Causes of Epilepsy)

Lack of control, fear that a person does not control his life. This fear needs to be worked on. If it can be dissolved and removed, then the brain will stop sending these signals about uncontrolled contraction to the muscles. And, accordingly, there will be no cramps.

Epilepsy can be caused by a hereditary change in brain proteins, provoking the appearance of foci of neuroimpulses in the brain, which generate muscle contractions, loss of consciousness, etc. But these same manifestations can be a consequence of contact with one or another form of intelligence, an exchange of energies with someone with whom a person has come into contact, for example, from unbalanced contact with plasmoids. And it also often happens that these are electromagnetic signals arising in the brain, disrupt consciousness and cause convulsive attacks of various kinds. There is an excitation of the energy of the aura of the etheric body, excitation of the aura.

#86, 52:20, #333, 28:02, #444, 01:20:52

Epiphysis

One of the instruments of the spirit, with the help of which it controls the body, releases special hormones, regulates their quantity and influences the spiritual visions of a person. It is located right in the middle of the brain. It is one of the instruments of consciousness, therefore it is called the crystal of consciousness.

#217, 07:01

Erwin

A representative of the plasmoid civilization of the 37th density level of the star Betelgeuse in the constellation Orion. The keeper (stores information and energy) of the Order of the Magi of the Ice Fire. Erwin is a certain thought-form, such a sound code, which we can address to him, plasmoids do not have such sounds as we do. This creature lives far from Earth, in a hot star called Betelgeuse in the constellation Orion.

By specialization, he is a scientist who studies worlds of another density, specifically, the third. He has such a task and he has been fulfilling his task for 56,000 years, having started doing this when he was 400 Earth years old, that is, quite quickly after being born in his world.

#604, 07:22, 25:01

Eromes (in Daraal)

The animal soul, which can incarnate only in the bodies of animals, insects, birds, reptiles, etc., in irrational creatures, in whose bodies the central nervous system is not intended for the manifestation of consciousness.

#140, 18:34

Esler

A planet located in the Eta Bootes star system, 36 light years from Earth. The system in which Esler is located includes 8 planets, of which only three are inhabited. The diameter of the planet is about 20 thousand kilometers. The distance from the star is about 206 million kilometers.

The climate is similar to that of Earth, but slightly warmer. There is no winter there at all, even at the poles of the planet. Water on the entire planet is in a liquid state all year round, it does not freeze. The average temperature is higher than on Earth, but not higher than on Venus.

The natural evolution of the planet's inhabitants did not occur through mutation, but through complication (if we look at the evolution into a rational being) of the neural connections themselves. Not through mutation, but through complication of the neural connections of those animals that were their ancestors. The cells remained the same, but they could transmit more energy impulses, at a higher speed, due to the connection with the animal soul. This process led to the emergence of a rational being on Esler about 8 million years ago.

The population of Esler is currently about 30 billion people. The average life expectancy, if we count in Earth years, is about 430-470 years. Representatives of the planet Esler are 1 meter 70 and slightly taller. The skin is brown, wrinkled, even in young Eslers, who have lighter skin, in older ones it is darker. The eyes are yellow, the pupils are black vertical, like a cat's. Hair comes in different colors, but mostly dark, although there are light ones. They have long pointed ears and they are larger than those of earthlings. Representatives of the planet Esler have twelve fields. Each chakra has a certain spectrum of color. There are more of these colors. For example, there are two more types of green, white is in the aura, and all the colors that are typical for earthlings. There is also something in between red and brown.

Esler is not ruled by a single ruler, but by a Planetary Council, which consists of sixty-two representatives of Esler. But each city, each district, something like a region, is ruled by a Council of that city district, not a single member of which is on the planetary council of Esler. This is called the Council of the Communities: a decentralized government, where there is no single ruler.

The inhabitants developed naturally through evolution from those animals that consumed mainly plant and dairy food, that is, they were mammals. Their bodies are adapted to process this type of food. Therefore, on Esler, the way of eating involves eating plants and dairy products from animals. Of the plants, they eat, speaking in earthly terms, fruits, juices, nuts, which do not grow on trees, but on small bushes. There are also plants growing underground, in the roots of which useful nutrients accumulate. There are animals that give milk. They are very similar to yaks. On Earth, the Esler organism is best suited to foods with a high content of iodine and silicon, for example, seaweed, various herbs, for example, knotweed, various root vegetables, such as beets, which contain a lot of iodine, fruits with a high iron content, for example, apples, which are consumed in limited quantities due to pectin, which is somewhat difficult for their bodies to process.

Esler (Healing on Esler)

Medicine that exists as a synthesis of philosophy, esotericism and biology. There, each disease is considered on a psychological, biological and energetic level. Naturally, there are chemical preparations, various devices and special places in the astral space where patients are placed. This is a room in the astral space where certain vibrations exist that cause changes in the astral field.

On Esler and in MS there is a science: "Spiritual foundations of safe activity of the spirit in the physical body", which determines how to properly fill it with energy, how to properly develop it so that it can properly perform its functions, use the energies of the surrounding world in the form of oxygen, nutrients, vitamins, inorganic substances. Use this energy to the maximum in an accessible and beneficial form for yourself. Cleanse yourself of toxins as much as possible, without damaging yourself.

The stage of timelessness

In the Proto-Slavic and Proto-Indo-European calendar, which was introduced almost 500-600 years after the war 12,000 years ago, there were 360 days, an equal number of days in each month. The movement of the Moon and the Sun was taken into account. And those remaining days that remained each year, because the Earth made a revolution in more days than 360, were simply added to the last day. These six days were the days of the so-called timelessness. Before the New Year, when the entire Earth enters a new stage of existence, the year ends, then comes the period of timelessness, when people finished all their affairs and prepared to celebrate the New Year. This was considered a time not of physical purification, but of spiritual purification. Only it was not before God, but before the ancestors, before the gods. Each person looked into his soul. Then came the first day of the New Year, as a renewal of everything. Usually it was in the spring and was tied to the point of the vernal equinox.

Aesthetes

Spirits from the 13th level of the World of Disembodied Spirits. Spirits who begin to understand that the level of happiness does not depend on material well-being. Many of them still doubt this, but feeling the influx of Light in their souls, they can fall into an ecstatic state that is completely incomprehensible to spirits who watch, read and listen to the same thing, but do not experience such a variety and depth of emotions. For aesthetes, the pleasure of literature, music, painting and other manifestations of creativity of other people exceeds the pleasure of pleasures received through the body.

Article by Vladimir Goldstein "The Structure of the Spiritual World through the Eyes of Aliens"

Floors of the Astral World

Levels of the astral world. Their number is different on different planets depending on the chakra system of the energy structure, the spirit embodied there. On Earth, this is a seven-chakra system, therefore, 7 Floors of the astral world.

Cells that have a nuclear structure. Most animals and plants are eukaryotes.

#246, 34:51

Ether

A certain substance that supports all the elements, which is the border zone of material civilization with the Spiritual world.

#244, 28:15

Ether (Nikola Tesla)

The all-generating life force that makes up all visible manifestations of the universe. Divine energy, a force that manifests itself in different forms.

#404 , 25:12

Etheric Energy (Tesla)

The universal energy from which the Universe appeared and which surrounds the Universe. It is everywhere in space, but only in another dimension, around each atom and simultaneously around the Universe.

#376, 14:10, 31:41

Etheric body

The life force that every person has. Its origin is both from the physical world and from the Spiritual world.

#410, 18:35

Ethereal hairs

A phenomenon that occurs due to special practices that tune the etheric body in such a way that its channels begin to protrude into the outside world in the form of bristles, increasing the sensitivity of the etheric space of one's own thought waves. Used by plasmoid civilizations.

#249, 10:24

Etheric matrices

Those cliches by which atoms are built. As we fill our life force with emotions and feelings, so the Holy Spirit fills the etheric force of these atoms with his feelings. And these are feelings of Love, happiness and, naturally, the desire for God.

#397, 18:50

Human etheric fields

One of the types of ether: prana. It is given at birth, at incarnation. At the same time, it is also produced by the spirit itself in the body and is modulated by its emotions, feelings, desires and thoughts, so it is charged.

#437, 33:31

Ethereal Fire

Fire, but not physical. These are not chemical reactions, but some kind of force, energy. But physical fire is a reflection of the ethereal fire, like a reflection in a mirror.

#398, 32:16

Etheric flow

A flow of subtle energy directed by a higher-order mind. That is, it is not just mechanical energy that has passed from potential to kinetic. The etheric flow strives to create all the energies of the material world, which, in turn, form the atoms of individual substances, and creates three levels of energy in these atoms. The etheric flow in the material world is divided into three components: 1 creation of torsion fields and an astral veil to form a boundary between the spiritual and material worlds; 2 formation of atoms and matter of varying density (that is, nuclear interaction); 3 formation of all types of energy within atoms, from gravity to electromagnetism.

#141, 02:20

Doppler effect

The transition of spiritual energy, which originally forms the subtle material worlds, into a dense material form.

#72, 29:04

Telegony effect

The energetic impact of the etheric plane on the physical body. It manifests itself both in the animal world and in the human world, but in the animal plane it manifests itself more strongly due to the fact that it is not the rational spirit that we are all talking about that is embodied there, but the animal soul is embodied. It is completely subordinated to the instincts of the animal body, therefore the effect of telegony manifests itself more strongly in them. In humans, this effect manifests itself partly due to the fact that the instinctive programs of the physical body, as a rule, should be subordinate to the embodied rational spirit.

#20, 52:55

I

Poison emperil

A non-dense material substance, that is, it is not a substance in the usual sense. The substance that is called emperil is the same energy of light, fire, but not processed properly. Incorrectly processed through the human chakra system.

#37, 44:23

Nuclear weapon

Explosive energy. A nuclear explosion can be effectively suppressed and the energy collected by certain devices that convert this energy into another.

#414, 52:44

The language of angels

Another language that plasmoids use when in contact with a person, trying to speak through his speech apparatus, resulting in an incomprehensible set of words or sounds. It is impossible for any person to understand it. God, through his spirit, his energy, opens up in the spirit of the believer the possibility of speaking in a foreign language unfamiliar to this person.

#94, 07:42, 15:47, 18:52, 20:17, 32:57

Clairvoyance

A form of intuition, a form of contact with one's Higher Self, when knowledge of something that a person did not know comes to him not from the surrounding world, not from books or from other people, but from his own inner insight. These instant insights can be in the form of visual visions on a person's inner screen and represent messages from the Higher Self or from curators.

#115, 37:11

Clairvoyance, clairaudience, claircognizance

Not just human abilities, but specific contact with certain forms of life.

#59, 20:44

Yahweh

The name of the Tumesoutz who came to Abraham and his descendants, to Moses, his followers and descendants, in whom Christ was incarnated. He came to form his people on Earth, through whom he could incarnate. "The Bringer of the Light of Eternity in Time."

"Merged into one with the one Light" translated from the Tumesout language.

Hermes Trismegistus and the Emerald Tablets. Why is the God "Thoth" bird-headed?
https://blog.cassiopeia.center/germes-trismegist-i-izumrudnye-skrizhali-bog-tot

Hermes Trismegistus means thrice wise or thrice greatest. He was a contactee. I am not personally acquainted with his Spirit, but I had to study his works, including with the help of contactees who told me about him. From the descriptions of this man, it was clear that he had contacts with highly organized plasmoid civilizations. They imagined the role of God, the role of the Creator, the role of man somewhat differently than humanoid civilizations do.

For example, in his writings there are hints about victory over one's animal body in order to enter a more subtle world. In his writings he called desires and sensations of the body, feelings dirty, low-vibration, which prevent one from feeling God and being in the bliss of this world. This is a purely plasmoid teaching. I said that some plasmoid civilizations of a higher density level, above the twentieth, find it difficult to understand physical sensations. They consider them low-vibration, reducing the vibrations of the Spirit.

Messages from the Higher Spiritual World are distinguished by their Highest Unconditional Love for all manifestations of life, both dense-material and subtle-material.

Hermes Trismegistus was a man, although he had a rich experience of incarnations in his past life. I have no information about his physical contact with the worlds of the Interstellar Union at that time. He could contact astrally, since astral contacts are carried out without notifying the Interstellar Union. Each specialist decides for himself whether to go into astral contact with a person who feels him or not.

Emerald Tablets

Emerald is a precious stone. The emerald tablets are a symbol of the precious knowledge that he believes is contained in this manuscript. If I say, for example, "The Tibetan Book of the Dead," you would not think that it was written by the dead.

Even if there were emeralds of such sizes, it was still very difficult to write any text on them. And it is not necessary to do so. For an emerald of such size, one could buy at that time about a ton of papyrus and two hundred slaves to write any manuscripts. It was unprofitable. It is unlikely that a smart person would do this.

The name "Hermes" was understood as a messenger, as an Angel is understood now. The name "Hermes", and later "Mercury" was understood as a messenger of the gods, as from the Spiritual world of the Guardian Angel, as they are now called in Christianity. There was no Christianity then, but there were messengers. They could name an alien who was also a messenger of the gods, for example, Zeus. And he was called "Hermes", that is, an alien who transmitted the message of the gods to people and a spiritual essence. A person who transmitted knowledge about people to the gods, entered into contact, could also be called "Hermes".

Hermes, whom you know from ancient Greek mythology, is a collective image, literary processed. To what extent did Hermes participate in the creation of Tarot cards? Knowledge of some arcana was brought by curators. They could say that Hermes brought them.

"Thoth" is also a symbol, an ancient Egyptian god. He was a deified scholar from Tumesout. One or more who taught the people language, writing, medicine, religion, etc. after the war 12 thousand years ago, who later became the Egyptians.

Then they openly entered into contact and passed on the knowledge of the gods. "Thoth" helped the first pharaohs establish laws. Basically, these were representatives of Tumesout, Egypt is their project. The pharaoh, the priests - their project initially. If they were helped by other civilizations, then for the Egyptians they were still included in the image of the wise Thoth.

The bird's head spoke of wisdom, the bird was a symbol of wisdom. Why is it depicted this way? People have been accustomed to depicting gods as animals or with animal heads since the time of totemism, long before the war, as a reflection and veneration in their consciousness of plasmoid civilizations that create animal Souls.

00:21 News of the Project "CASSIOPEIA".

Maxim: Dear friends, hello to all! Today we have a wonderful day: live broadcast, live transmission. Today we have representatives of extraterrestrial civilizations, as I basically promised – representatives of the planet Aptisahr. How is it said correctly, Irish? (addresses Irina).

Irina: (voiceover) Apsihra.

Maxim: The inhabitants of the planet Apsikhra are dolphin-like humanoid creatures that live underwater. This is the constellation Ursa Major.

I think today it will be possible… (reads comments) Yes, the Cassiopeia T-shirt. Many thanks to Svetlana for the T-shirts that she gave to me and Irina! So, Crimea, I greet you too!

Guys, you know, we were actually collecting money for a gift for Irina. And we thought for a long time about where to spend this money. And, in fact, we spent it. We completely updated the equipment for live broadcasts: we installed a good sound card, updated the entire system unit. A huge thank you to everyone! I think Irisha will probably tell us herself. She is nearby.

We bought equipment to conduct cool live broadcasts, streams, meditations and much, much more. But, in addition to that, Irina wanted to allocate 20% of this money to charity. We are currently selecting a good charity fund so that these 20% will benefit people. This is her personal wish. I think this is a great wish!

And you know, I will probably think about taking some cool charity project under the patronage of the CASSIOPEIA Project. One that will really help people. One that will really be needed. And maybe we will even open our own project.

Our news, as always, is short. There will be no more advertising on live broadcasts. I have already said this.

"What will happen to communication with Spirits?" (reads comments).

At your numerous requests (there's a lot of feedback!) we won't be closing off communication with the Spirits completely, but we won't be doing it so often. And the next live broadcast, which will be... I don't even know, we promised not to get into politics... But there were just so many requests, so many people asked to do this broadcast!

This is the broadcast after Gorbachev. We needed a broadcast with the Spirit of Yeltsin. That's why we already agreed on it. I'll give you some interesting news. Yeltsin is on the 4th level - this is the demonic level, so I think the broadcast will be very interesting. I'm waiting for everyone next Sunday for the live broadcast with Yeltsin.

Plus, I want to remind you: we have Ufa from August 2nd to 5th. We are going to Ufa together with the Health Center, we have a wonderful 1st level of training there, which we conduct every time at off-site events. All the links are under this video. You can find there how to call, where to go. But I remember, either yesterday or the day before, we already closed the recruitment. Because the entire hall was completely filled. I will not deceive you.

Yes, on the 4th (reads comments).

You know, as soon as we agreed on the broadcast with Yeltsin, I was given a huge amount of information. Of course, my hair stands on end from what happened in those 90s. And in general, what happened to the country. I could not even imagine such a thing in my worst nightmare. This shows that I was very little interested in history. But when I started to be interested, I just had a sea of questions.

I was sent very interesting news with interesting questions that I will ask. And believe me, we will sometimes cross the line between esotericism and politics there. Because there is no other way to ask them. I think that this will be one of the most interesting broadcasts of the CASSIOPEIA Project, as far as I understand.

And also, dear friends, if there is a historian or political scientist among you who understands the 90s, please write to the phone number: +79889100040, her name is Elena. And please give us feedback. We will definitely hold a live broadcast where you can personally ask your questions to Boris Yeltsin - the Spirit. It will be a very, I don’t even know what to call it - an exciting, exciting broadcast. Therefore, if there is a historian or political scientist among you who understands the issues that arose in the 90s, call and leave your request for the opportunity to communicate with the Spirit of Boris Yeltsin.

"With Napoleon?" (reads comments). Maybe we'll do it with Napoleon later. We still have the apostles. We haven't communicated with all the Spirits of the apostles yet. But we'll focus on extraterrestrial civilizations, because I think a huge number of extraterrestrial civilizations will be happy to tell us about themselves. By the way, we have one... We'll find out now who contacted Gorbachev's Spirit, what civilization. And we're even trying to get in touch with those he communicated with. That is, we made such a request. Therefore, I think it will also be an interesting broadcast.

There is no more new news. So I invite Irishenka, the party gold that Kolchak put somewhere, and for some reason I found (laughs). Please sit down.

08:20 Presentation of conference participants.

Irina: Hello, dear friends! Good evening! Thank you all!

My name is Irina Podzorova, I am a contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations. And today we have our curators: LiShioni from the planet Shimor - a specialist in astral interactions and astral contacts, and also a representative of the planet Esler - MidgasKaus. He is a biologist, psychologist, specialist in extraterrestrial civilizations. Also present here are representatives of the civilization from the constellation Ursa Major. The name of the planet in the Daraal language is Apsihra.

(reads comments) Thank you all for your emotions, hearts, kisses and I send you the Light of my Love!

Here are two representatives of an underwater civilization that is part of the Interstellar Union. They are in that part of the Galaxy that is visible from our planet as the constellation Ursa Major. This is in our Galaxy.

This civilization lives underwater. Outwardly, it resembles our underwater animals, such mammals as, for example, dolphins.

The thing is that the name of the planet itself in their language, as well as the names themselves, are heard by our ears as a whistle with ultrasonic components. Therefore, I asked them to introduce themselves so that it would be possible to call them somehow and distinguish them from each other. Since this is impossible to do in their language, I ask to count in my memory how it is most harmonious and correct to call them. That is, I ask them to introduce themselves with those names that can be addressed specifically by an earthling.

Maxim: And what name is it?

Irina: The first one is called Larsy, and she is a woman.

Maxim: Oh, great, we have two representatives today: a woman and a man?

Irina: Yes, Larsy, and she is a female.

Maxim: Great, just great!

Irina: That's one. And the second humanoid is called Lorgi. He is a representative of the male gender. Now I'll tell you what they do on their planet. They are researching the problem of contacts with planets in deep space.

Maxim: And also research into interplanetary contacts?!

Irina: That is, they are like curators. I will say right away that their brain is very developed in the direction of astral travel, and they are good astral travelers. And often with the help of astral and mental contacts, through the Spiritual channel they contact representatives of the entire Galaxy, including the Earth.

Maxim: Excellent! Then we will not miss the moment. I greet you, Larsi and Lorgi! I cannot whistle like you (laughs). I will communicate as a human, an earthling. And, probably, one who is trying to understand extraterrestrial life, extraterrestrial intelligences.

13:15 Galactic news from the planet Apsihra. The body structure of the inhabitants of Apsihra.

Maxim: Larsi and Lorgi, please tell me, what galactic news have you heard that has amazed you recently? Is there one?

Irina: About the representatives of their planet, as I understand?

Maxim: Good. What galactic news from your planet's representatives could interest us? Was there some kind of breakthrough or some crazy news? Interesting news.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): For us, news, that is, information about what has happened recently, is spread through the connection of humanoids with each other. And we do not have the mass media that you are accustomed to. We pass it on to each other.

As for the news. From the news of our planet I can tell. Of course, for you it will be Galactic news. After all, our planet is in another place of the Galaxy. The news is that over the last three local years our population, the number of inhabitants of our civilization has increased by one and a half times. Thanks to the use of medical and scientific technologies of the Interstellar Union, we have managed to significantly improve our bodies and spend more time in them in our incarnation.

Maxim: So, thanks to the technologies of the Interstellar Union, your lifespan has increased. Am I right?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, it increased by almost 240%.

Maxim: How long is your life span in Earth years now, and how long was it?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): It was, in Earth years, about 250-300 years old. And it became around 700!

Maxim: How interesting!

Larsi, Lorgi, please tell us what you look like? We have legs, arms, a torso, a head, hair, eyes, a mouth, ears, lips, teeth. Please describe yourself. Only in detail, if possible. If you cannot do it yourself, let our curators help convey the information.

Irina: It’s better to ask questions, because that’s how they answer.

Maxim: Do you have legs? What's underneath? What limbs?

Irina (to Larsy and Lorgi): We don't have lower limbs because we swim in the ocean. We have a tail. (Lorgi shows Irina an image that resembles the tail of a large fish).

Maxim: And the longitudinal or transverse fin on the tail?

Maxim: Like the mermaid in our imagination or like a shark?

Irina: But the shark has a vertical one?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina: And here it is horizontal. At least, I look from above. And when they swim, they don't do it like this with their tail, but like this (shows with hands).

Maxim: Okay, got it.

Dear friends, I want to tell you that this is one of the planets that we are now describing in the "Almanac of Civilizations". We will soon publish a book for contactees, where Irina will describe all the civilizations of the Interstellar Union. But for now we have started with twenty-five. Why did we invite this civilization? Because it will be in the first part of the almanac.

I want to continue the questions further. Irina, I have a lot of questions.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): In general, the length of our body from head to tail is about 4-5 meters.

Maxim: Wow, big, long body!

18:20 The size of the planet Apsihra, the composition of the atmosphere, water.

Maxim: Do you live (I'll ask right now, because this is important) on a planet in the ocean of this planet?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes.

Maxim: Are there any other intelligent beings on land?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): There is no room on land. We have very few islands. (Lorgi shows: the land area on the entire planet is slightly more than 1,300 square kilometers).

Maxim: What planet? What is its volume?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): It is larger in diameter than the Earth. Its diameter is just over 17,000 km.

Maxim: Yes, bigger than Earth, for sure. And there is so little land?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): And it's not concentrated in one place, like a continent, for example. But just like islands, small islands. There are dozens of them there. (Lorgi shows the number 87).

Maxim: What is the composition of your planet’s atmosphere?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Our atmosphere is dominated by nitrogen, oxygen and methane. Methane is 10%, and oxygen is 25%. There are also nitrogen oxides, carbon dioxide and water vapor - 4-5%.

Maxim: Tell me, please, is the composition of the water in the ocean where you live similar to the composition of the ocean on our planet?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Similar. In general, our soil has a slightly different mineral composition. Much more, for example, carbon and silicon compounds. (Lorgi shows: organic and inorganic carbon and silicon compounds, a large content of sulfur, sulfates, sulfites and less chlorides). For example, you have chlorides in the ocean, and we have them, but in smaller quantities.

20:58 Possibility of representatives of Apsihra to be in the ocean of the Earth. Other inhabitants of the water element of Apsihra.

Maxim: Tell me, please, could you swim in our ocean for some time? Without spacesuits, for example? Survive for some time in our ocean?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): It depends on where, what the temperature is and what the oxygen content is. Because our planet has more oxygen (by a few percent), and it dissolves more in water.

As for the composition of the water. Provided that we have some protection from excessive chlorine content - yes. Your chlorine is harmful to us. Not so much that it will be immediately fatal, but we can get sick.

Maxim: So, in principle, you can be in our ocean for a short time?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We can stay for about a day.

Maxim: Cool! Thank you!

(Answers to messages from the chat). Guys, I'll definitely go over what they look like now. I'll just ask first. In order to understand what they look like, you first need to understand where they are.

Irina: This is again in salt water. In fresh water, as I understand it, they will be completely uncomfortable. Because the composition there is completely different.

Maxim: I understand. Tell me, please, what kind of life are your oceans filled with?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have a lot of fish in the oceans, big mollusks (he shows me), like worms. But they look more like snakes. That is, their worms are up to half a meter. And they are centipedes. Bottom insects, bottom insects, and a large number of fish, and also plants - algae. And there are even such species that are in the coastal strip, like some kind of mushrooms. Like mushrooms, similar to plaque on stones.

Maxim: Like slime?

Irina: Some kind of mold.

Maxim: I see.

23:23 The body structure of the representatives of Apsihra.

Maxim: Let's get back to how you look. So, you have a tail-fin at the bottom, like our mermaids. It moves, it turns out, from the bottom up for movement.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes.

Maxim: Do you have a bony skeleton at all?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have parts that are made of bone, and there are parts that are made of flexible material. That is, it is hard, but flexible, like your chitin.

Maxim: Very interesting. Is your tail made of one structure, or are there two bones, for example? One or two bones?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): Alone.

Maxim: I see. Let's move up. How are your hip joints and spine structured?

Irina: What does hip joint mean? They don't have legs.

Maxim: I will ask the question correctly now. What is above the fin? Please describe it.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): There is a spine, and from it (shows Lorgi) a small bone extends onto the back, around which the upper dorsal fin is formed on the body.

Maxim: Big fin?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): In an adult it can reach half a meter, 30-50 cm.

Maxim: Wow, big fin!

Irina: And Lorgi shows me that it has slightly different shapes in men and women.

Maxim: So you can tell men from women by their fins?

Irina: Yes. Because in men it is sort of triangular in shape. And in women it is narrower and folded back.

Maxim: I understand. But we have hands. And what do you have instead of hands?

Irina (Lorgi): We have two pectoral fins. During our evolution they have changed. I wouldn't call them arms, but they are two limbs that have flexible fingers.

Maxim: How many fingers?

Irina (Lorgi): There are four of them. Those that can move more or less freely. Six in total. And there are membranes between them (shows to Irina).

Maxim: Are you viviparous?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, viviparous. And mammals.

Maxim: Let's say we have breasts. What is located in your breast area?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Women have six milk-producing organs with which they feed their babies: three on the right side and three on the left. Sort of one on the chest and two on the stomach.

Maxim: Very interesting! How many children can you have at once?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): One, very rarely two.

Maxim: Next comes the neck. What about you?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We don't have it highlighted, it's more like fish. That is, like this (Irina shows with her hands) the body goes into the head, and like this it's a little pointed, so it's better for swimming - less resistance.

Maxim: How are the eyes set?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Our eyes are on the sides and a little on top, like this (Irina shows with her hands).

Maxim: And the nose, nostrils?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Nostrils in front, two. (Irina thinks).

Irina: He shows me that he has a jaw - the lower one. It's a little bit lower and it looks like this (shows with his hands how the upper jaw goes over the lower one). And he has such a sharp nose, and like this (shows) they can swim.

Maxim: Tell me, please, do you have ears or gills?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have ears. (Lorgi shows three ear openings. They are located on the back of the head and covered with a membrane). As for gills, we do not have such structures. Because in these nasal openings, in the nasopharynx, there are such organs that take oxygen from the water.

Irina: And there are no gills. Just smooth skin. I don't see any scales.

Maxim: What is your skin color?

Irina: Brownish-greenish, darker on the underside. The body is kind of brownish, and on top it's brown with dark green streaks.

Maxim: I understand.

Irina: (Laughs) And the eyes glow.

Maxim: What color?

Irina: Greenish, and it looks like phosphorus light. Do you know how it glows?

Maxim: Why is this necessary?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): It is evolutionarily designed so that the light coming from the eyes shows the presence of prey. It is necessary for orientation, since it is dark there.

Maxim: Please tell me (our viewers are already asking interesting questions), and I also became interested: why do you have a maximum of 1–2 children, but six nipples for feeding?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Because we evolved. And our reproductive system changed. That is, the very exit of a female cell that can be fertilized became such that only one cell exits, and not several, as it was in the animals from which we evolved. For the reason that they had increased reproduction in order to spread across the planet and evolve. That is, the goal of the plasmoid civilizations that exist on our planet was achieved at the moment when the body of our ancestors was able to evolve to a state capable of accepting an intelligent Spirit.

31:19 Animal ancestors and the sleep process of intelligent inhabitants of the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: And from what animals did you evolve?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): From these, they are also here now, that is, their descendants (Lorgi shows Irina animals that are practically indistinguishable from them). Only there was no intelligent Spirit there. Animals similar to fish, but which gave birth to live young.

Maxim: Thank you very much! Where do you live, do you have a home?

Irina: They don’t have houses.

Maxim: Do you live in packs? Where do you sleep, do you sleep at all?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): Yes. We sleep when we swim.

Maxim: That is, during the swimming process?

Irina: He is showing me now that they do not just freeze in place, but even some part of the brain can control the movements of the tail and the whole body. These are the movements they make in the water (shows). And another part of the brain can fall asleep. That is, they do not need to lie down somewhere for this.

Maxim: Wow, that's interesting!

32:38 Contacts of the inhabitants of Apsihra with the planet Earth.

Maxim: Tell me, please, I understand that you are in contact with our civilization?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, in the astral.

Maxim: And did you have physical contacts with our civilization?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): There were, when we were brought on the ships of the Interstellar Union. But that was a long time ago, before the war 12,000 years ago. We got acquainted with your planet, and we were brought in special capsules where conditions were created. Because we simply cannot absorb oxygen from the air without water. We do not have the organs for this.

Maxim: You are a member of the Interstellar Union?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes.

Maxim: How long have you been in the Interstellar Union?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): 2,800 years old.

Maxim: So 12,000 years ago, it turns out you weren’t in the Interstellar Union?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, but we also had contactees, including physical ones, and they visited your planet. Can your contactees visit the planets of the Interstellar Union?

Maxim: Just as they took Irina and transported her around the planets, so they transported your representatives?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, that's why we visited Earth. We considered it tourism. Because there were only such contacts, and only then we were joined to the Interstellar Union.

34:40 Nutrition, social structure on the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: It turns out you sleep when you swim. What do you eat?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We eat shellfish, small fish, all kinds of insects that live on the bottom. We can also eat 18 types of local algae, but this is not our main food.

Maxim: Do you have any entertainment? How do you spend your time? Do you work or get something? Do you have any money? What is your government system?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We don't have a state as such. It's just that in each group of humanoids there is a leader, chosen by the situation. Who doesn't rule us, but simply shows something by his example. That is, a leader for us is the one in some area of activity who does it best.

Maxim: Do you have any enemies on the planet who, for example, could attack you and kill you?

Irina: No. There are none. He is now showing me that there are just small fish. And large fish feed on small fish, but they are not attacked. Because they are also large (laughs).

Maxim: Interesting. That is, you don’t have predators with whom, let’s say, it would be difficult for you to exist.

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): No.

Maxim: It’s all very interesting!

Irina: They don't have money. They don't need it, they don't exchange goods.

I'll explain now. They don't produce anything. It's a civilization that lives underwater. Creatures swam, intelligent Spirits began to incarnate in them. They were discovered quite a long time ago, then gradually they entered the Interstellar Union, because they themselves expressed such a desire and corresponded to the rules of the Interstellar Union.

(MidgasKaus says): This can be done without any technology. The main thing is that the spiritual conditions are met.

37:16 Spiritual development of the Apsihra civilization, comparison with the Earth.

Maxim: Please tell me, how do you engage in spiritual development? How do you engage in self-development in general? What do you do for this?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We fulfill the tasks of our incarnation. And they are different for us. We are constantly in contact with our Spirit. We are constantly in contact with our Angelic Guides and with the Heavenly Father. And we develop in ourselves those feelings that can be very well developed in an underwater civilization - freedom, the ability to be free when there is no organization. That is, the experience of such a free life, but at the same time spiritual development.

Maxim: Dear friends, I ask you all. If you like our broadcasts, please like them! Because the more likes the broadcasts have, the more likes the views have, the more other people can learn about this information. And, accordingly, join our family

"CASSIOPEIA". Guys, like them!

And be sure to subscribe to this channel so you don't miss new videos. Especially with Boris Yeltsin, which will be next weekend. It will be something unreal. I'm even afraid of this broadcast. You'll find out later when you get to it.

So, do you have any religion? What do you believe in? Do you believe in God?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): How can we believe in someone? You mean do we believe in God?

Maxim: In the existence of God?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): How can you believe in the existence of someone who surrounds you?! (They are a little perplexed).

Maxim: Now I'm confused. So for you this is not faith, for you this is the essence of everything in principle. That's how it is. Is that right?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Do you believe that the Sun exists? Or do you know that it exists?

Maxim: I know and believe that it exists.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): If you know and believe that it exists, why do you need religion to interact with it, to look at it and receive energy from it?

Maxim: Everything on our planet Earth is very ambiguous. We, people, need faith. Because without faith we begin to selfdestruct.

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): What destroys you?

Maxim: What destroys us? A lot. Different things that we like. We like to do things that destroy us sometimes.

Irina: Lorgi says that he studies the earthly civilization in this regard as well. (Laughs)

Maxim: I think I can give you a lot of feedback about the earthly civilization. Because I have gone through different paths of development.

Irina (Lorgi says): And what part of your personality wants to destroy other parts?

Maxim: What part? The brain. And its desires. The desire to enjoy the world, space, yourself, your body.

Irina (Lorgi): Does pleasure destroy?

Maxim: Sometimes we simply go to pleasure through self-destruction. That is, we can drink alcoholic beverages, smoke various tobacco herbs, which destroy our cells. We can fight with each other, taking away territory, killing each other. That is, due to the fact that we need to expand our territories, we can kill each other.

Irina (Lorgi): Why do you kill each other over territory if you are not there forever?

Maxim: Because while we are here, we want to get the most out of this life.

Irina (Lorgi): Territories?

Maxim: Maximum pleasure through the use of territories.

Irina (Lorgi): If this territory was obtained at the cost of suffering of other people who are the same as you? What pleasure can there be if it contradicts the law of Love?

Maxim: On Earth, we are not taught the laws of Love from childhood. Here, we are taught other laws – to be stronger, smarter, more beautiful than others. In our schools, we are not even told that there is a Soul, there is a Spirit. 95% of people on our planet do not even believe in the existence of the Soul.

Irina (Lorgi): And how do they then – these, as you said, 95% – explain to themselves their real existence?

Maxim: This is a very interesting question. Everyone explains it differently. Let's say those who are materialists believe that we evolved from some cell. This cell then acquired intelligence, and, accordingly, this intelligence controls all internal instincts, feelings, emotions in order to continue to live and exist.

Many do not even believe in the existence of the Soul. They think that man is a self-developed bio-creature, and the only intelligent creature in the Universe.

On our planet, many people don’t even know about the existence of other extraterrestrial civilizations!

Irina: Now she's talking.

Maxim: She?

Irina: Yes.

Irina (says Larsi): In fact, if the Spirits came to incarnate on your planet, and came precisely at that stage of civilization development that you are now going through, and in that civilization where egregors exist with similar ideas that you just said, it means that these Spirits came precisely for such an experience.

That is, you came precisely to live through this experience. To live in this society and take something useful for your lives on other planets and in other worlds. Haven't you been told that each incarnation is part of the Soul's big plan for a set of certain qualities?

Maxim: No. We are not taught this from childhood, we are not taught this in schools. Only through such esoteric projects, contactees, various religious teachings can we tell about the fact that in addition to the physical body, there is also the Soul, the Spirit. And the tasks of the Soul and the Spirit are more primary. But we are not taught this. We on this planet in small groups of contactees and various people who have more or less enlightened themselves, realized themselves, their Spiritual nature, are trying to bring this knowledge to the masses.

Irina (Lorgi says): Here, perhaps, the reason is that a person’s consciousness is focused more on external activity and on how this external activity will show him to others than on his inner world.

Maxim: Once again.

Irina: He says that this may be because the energy of a person's consciousness is focused on external activity in the outside world, and he worries about how he will look in the eyes of other people. And not about his inner world.

Maxim: Yes, in most cases our statehood contributes to this. In order to govern us, we need to focus not on the internal world, but on external interaction.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): The whole point here is that the form of government always reflects the types of consciousness.

Maxim: Our type of consciousness is aimed at external interaction with the environment, and not at internal growth.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): And this means that the brain of the body in which you are incarnated has a large cluster of neurons in the part of the cortex that is responsible for contact with the outside world.

Maxim: Yes, that's right. That's how it is. That's why we're running our Project and we've called you to find out how it works for you.

45:34 Raising children on the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: Please tell me, who is raising your children? How does it happen?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have schools. They exist in certain places. If we now take a certain group of our humanoids that move, then we can move along a certain route, that is (Lorgi shows) – along the same route. And in a certain place there is such a gathering of children as a school. And our children, they, of course, do not go there or ride, they float.

And there they can - both the teacher and the students - simply move their fins to stay in place or move slowly. That is, for them, all this happens in the water.

And we communicate through sounds that for you would be a whistle of different tones or ultrasound. For us, it is connected. Each sound lasts a certain amount of time, and it contains information about our language. We have many languages in general, but we understand each other. That is the first thing.

And secondly: I also want to say that we are good at orienting ourselves in the ocean, where we should sail. Where, for example, our relatives are, our friends. Or the place we should visit. We also orient ourselves by smells that are dissolved in water. And also in our brain there is a special organ that catches the ethereal radiation of a place.

49:44 Ocean depth and climate on the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: What is your water temperature? Ocean depth?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): The deepest place is more than 15 km.

Maxim: Can you dive to such depth?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Not on that one. We just know this from the research that we have already begun to conduct together with the Interstellar Union.

Maxim: To what depth can you dive?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): A comfortable environment for us is about 2-3 km, no more. That is, it can be less, but not more.

But we also have places. There is an ocean there, but it is quite shallow – maybe a few hundred meters. That is, it is a sandbank. But it is not near some island or continent. But the ground can simply rise and go for many kilometers.

Maxim: What is the temperature of the atmosphere itself?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have different climate zones, climate belts. If we compare with Earth, there is also a change of seasons. Where the poles are, it is quite cold here. There is also winter and summer. Accordingly, in the equatorial zone it is always quite warm. But the average temperature of the planet, the average annual temperature, is somewhere around +11/+12 degrees.

51:50 Calendar, health care, population on the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: Please tell me, do you have any holidays?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We don't really notice the days. That is, we don't have the concept of a "calendar". We just focus on the feeling of each day, let's say.

Maxim: Do you have any illnesses?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have been in the Interstellar Union for a long time, so we have already learned to overcome infectious diseases and injuries, including those at birth. But not by ourselves, since we still lack technology, but with the help of biorobots that were provided by the Interstellar Union.

I would also like to thank the representatives of the Interstellar Union, who provided us with many technologies that help us live and develop fully.

(Irina): He shows me special biorobots that can also be underwater. There are also alien underwater bases where they can heal.

Maxim: What is the population of your civilization on the planet?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): A little over 21 billion.

Maxim: Wow! And everyone has enough space, room, life?

Irina: If the planet is larger than the Earth, and if it is covered by ocean except for a few islands, then even if we exclude the pole, where it is cold and uncomfortable, where there is ice and little oxygen, even if we take a more or less warm place, we will see that there is quite a large space there. Moreover, as they have already said, they can be at different depths.

Maxim: Do you have any submarines? How do you move? Maybe you move on these ships?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Only those that belong to the Interstellar Union.

Maxim: Are they somehow adjusted for you? Is there water inside the ship?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, there is special distilled water there, in which a certain amount of oxygen and minerals necessary for us are dissolved. And inside there is even (he is showing me now) something like spacesuits. And there are capsules, like spacesuits, which can be, in turn, in other spaceships. And so they can travel.

54:52 Manifestation of feelings and emotions on the planet Apsihra. Inhabited planets in the constellation Ursa Major.

Maxim: Tell me, please, do you have feelings, emotions like we, Earthlings?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We are intelligent Spirits. Therefore, we have the same feelings and emotions as you, we just express them differently. Not through laughter, crying or anything else, but simply through (Lorgi shows) special differences in the cross-sections of the eyes, the movements of the fins.

Maxim: Do you have a Sun, like we do? And does your planet have satellites, like our Moon?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, we have a star in the constellation Ursa Major. This star is located at a distance of 1260 light years from the Sun.

Maxim: Are there any other habitable planets in the constellation Ursa Major, in the field of your star?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): There are no more habitable planets in our star system. There are only three planets, and ours is the only habitable one. But our planet has two natural satellites, two moons.

Maxim: Two moons?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): They are small, but they are there.

Maxim: Are you familiar with our civilization, our dolphins?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, we study them. Some of our representatives can fly to Earth as researchers, as scientists. But only as part of special expeditions, which happen quite rarely. As I already said, we need special conditions for flights. But nevertheless, we know about your underwater animals, about your underwater life. We study through information from the Interstellar Union.

(Irina): Because they have (he is showing me now) translators who can translate the languages of the Interstellar Union into their language and vice versa.

(Larcy and Lorgi): Because what appears to you as a series of random whistles has its own patterns that this machine, the computer, can recognize.

57:41 Families and relationships between males and females on Apsihra.

Maxim: Are your couples monogamous or polygamous?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): Monogamous.

Maxim: Do you have one pair formed for the entire period of the Spirit's existence?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, we form monogamous couples. And we have very strong families despite the fact that we live in the water. But we often like to be near each other. And we really love tactile contact (he is showing me now). And our love for our husband or wife manifests itself in such a way that there is no room in our Soul for anyone else.

Maxim: What forms of affection do you use? We have kisses, hugs, when we cuddle up to each other. And what forms of affection do you use?

Irina: He shows me how they swim around each other and touch with these fins, tail and what is under their tail.

Maxim: And what's under their tail?

Irina: They have organs with which they connect for conception.

Maxim: I understand. I won't elaborate further. I know many would elaborate now (laughs).

Irina: They have already shown me so many images, I understand everything.

Maxim: Have they shown you the images yet? Okay, tell me later (laughs).

Guys, ask your questions again. Because I'm going to go to the Q&A Live chat now.

Irina: (reads comments) Here you go: "Do they drink alcohol?" They grow grapes at the bottom! (laughs)

Maxim: Tell me, do you use any substances that alter your consciousness? For pleasure, let's say. Or to get endorphins, additional hormones.

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): No.

Maxim: You don’t use anything?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Clear consciousness and a consistent train of thought are the best conditions for the development of the Spirit, in our understanding.

1:00:13 Interstellar Union bases on Apsihra. Length of day and year on the planet.

Maxim: I read the book of Melchizedek. We had such an interesting incarnate Spirit. And he told us that once our civilization contacted civilizations similar to you. It could have been you, right?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): As I already said, our contacts have been flying in for a long time. They also flew in later. But we just didn't do it that often. Because, again, on the ship we'll fly in, special conditions must be created.

But we can apply to the Interstellar Union (Lorgi shows). We have underwater bases we can sail to. Including a large underwater base of the Burkhadians. True, it is mostly biorobots that live there, but various humanoids who cannot live in water can fly there on special ships that can fly in space and swim underwater at the same time. Land-dwellers, so to speak.

We can sail there, and biorobots will come out, and we can submit an application to them that we want to physically visit some planet. We justify the goal, why, etc. And they will allocate us a special ship.

Maxim: I understand. Do you have hours in a day, do you measure them in hours?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We don't have such a dimension of time, but we feel it inside.

(Irina): That is (he shows me now) they have biological rhythms that they feel.

Maxim: How long does it take for your planet to revolve around your sun according to our earthly time?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): 16 hours.

Maxim: 16 hours. That is, you rotate around the axis quite quickly. And how long around the Sun?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): Almost 32 years.

Maxim: I'm reading "Q&A Live" - we have a chat like that on Telegram. By the way, there's a link under the video. You can join this chat and ask questions.

Irina: (reads questions from the chat) There was already such a question: how do they communicate? They submit applications. In the Interstellar Union there are devices that translate from their language, from their whistles to the languages of the Interstellar Union.

1:02:55 Sexual pleasure on the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: Please tell me, do you enjoy the breeding activity? When you are engaged in the breeding process, do you enjoy it?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): Do you mean physical? We have special sensations that arise when we connect. And this serves as a sign that we are ready to reproduce. That is, we are ready for the embodiment of the Spirit through us.

These sensations themselves, we believe, are energy. Any sensation is a special form of Spiritual energy. And the fact that we experience it in the physical body only indicates that this energy manifests itself through the body. But then, in the end, this energy gets into the Spiritual world, that is, into the Astral, as you say... We do not separate the Astral and the non-Astral.

Accordingly, we believe that the evoking of these sensations in each other, the physical contact of the reproductive organs with each other, these sensations that are born are a sign to the Spiritual world, a call for the embodiment of the Spirit.

1:04:21 Chakra system of the inhabitants of Apsihra. The possibility of the emergence of an intelligent underwater civilization on Earth.

Maxim: How many chakras do you have? What is the chakra system?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have four main chakras.

Maxim: What color are they? Or do you have your own colors?

Irina: He shows me yellow, then some greenish-yellow, green and red. At least that's what I see. Some kind of balls that are in their aura.

Maxim: So, you study our earthlings, our habitat, our oceans, dolphins, animals inside the ocean?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, but due to the peculiarities of our bodies, we mainly do this through astral contact. And including through contact not only with people, but also with the plasmoid civilizations of your planet.

Maxim: How many children can you have in your lifetime?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): It depends on what the agreement was between the parents and those who want to incarnate. In general, many things are possible: our reproductive capacity does not decrease with age.

Maxim: So you keep it until the moment you leave the incarnation?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes.

Maxim: Do you also have Spiritual Mentors, Curators?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Of course there is. After all, the Spiritual World is everywhere, in every cubic millimeter of space, regardless of whether it is occupied by an air or water ocean. Or it is generally the cosmic emptiness that seems to you. All the same, there, in any space, everything is permeated by the Spiritual World.

Maxim: (answering a question from the chat) Guys, they now live up to 700 years. Watch the beginning of the broadcast, it says it all.

Next question. What do you think about the civilization of our dolphins? Is there a chance for them to become intelligent? For intelligent Spirits to incarnate in them?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): There is always a chance, the question is in the micromutations that must occur. And the plasmoids of the Earth, who create the conditions for these micromutations, forming various events in the life of these creatures, should be interested in this first of all.

We talked about this, by the way, with Demeter, who is responsible, as a representative of the plasmoid civilization, for your planet. We asked her a question about the direction of the evolution of underwater creatures. Not necessarily dolphins, but any others that are most suitable for this. About the possibility of the embodiment of an intelligent Spirit. This was somewhere around 150 years ago - such a conversation with Demeter. And she answered us that at present the Earth is intended specifically for a land civilization that occupies the entire biosphere. That is, for you.

Maxim: (reads comments) Some Semchan100 asks: "Maxim, please, a very important question! Is this the civilization that saved our planet from an asteroid, bigger than our planet, in 2014?"

Irina: They don't work with asteroids. They live underwater.

Maxim: That's it. Tell me, please, you study our ocean. Do we have huge sharks in the ocean? We call them megalodons, somewhere in the depths of our ocean, longer than 10 m. Do we have such sharks on the bottom?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): You probably need to talk about this with the civilizations that have underwater bases here. We don't have bases on Earth. We don't have bases in the Solar System at all. We communicate mainly astrally.

It is precisely about these animals and fish that you are talking about that we need to ask whether those who live at the bases and those who explore the ocean through probes have encountered them.

1:09:34 Life outside the ocean and marriage among the inhabitants of Apsihra.

Maxim: Can you stay out of water on land for some time?

Irina: A few minutes. They won't be able to breathe.

Maxim: I understand. As we are under water, they can do it for a few minutes.

Irina: That is, we, people, can drown in water, they can drown in air. (Smiles)

Maxim: Do you have such a concept as marriage? How are unions concluded? In a simple, conditional form, or do you exchange stones or something else?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): For us, this is an internal agreement of the Spiritual Heart, and it is not accompanied by any rituals. We don’t need it.

Maxim: What is the maximum speed, let's say, in kilometers per hour, that you can swim? If our curators help translate, that would be convenient.

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): What is a kilometer? Now. (thoughtful)

(MidgasKaus says): I have also studied this civilization. I want to say that they can swim about as fast as people walk: maybe 5-6 km/h (shows). They don't have such a desire to move quickly. Precisely because they have a large body, and that's the speed they have.

1:11:13 Astral contacts with earthlings and healing by the inhabitants of Apsihra.

Maxim: You study dolphins, you enter into astral contacts with our people. How do you make astral contacts? Who do you contact on our planet astrally?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We have contactees – people who perceive us as Spirits. That is, as beings who come to them from the Spiritual World.

Maxim: Do you show them images of what you look like?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, we show. We even travel with them when they leave the physical body. We travel with them to our planet in the astral body. And there we show images of how we live on this planet in the physical world.

Maxim: Guys, I go to VK specifically to look at the questions, because you say that they are on VK. Now I go there, I find a message about the broadcast. Well, where are the questions? No questions, guys!

(reads) "Does this civilization have any man-made devices, ships, or flying machines?"

Irina: They don't have the devices. There was a question already.

Maxim: That's it, no more questions in VK. Tell me, please, do you have such a concept as healing mantras? Are there healers on your planet? That is, those individuals who are engaged in spiritual healing, physical healing of other individuals? Doctors, spiritual doctors? Is there such a concept or not?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): And we have the concept of spiritual healers. But they only direct the attention of a humanoid who is afflicted with some disease, his awareness so that he remembers that he is the owner of this body. And so that he himself brings it into harmony with his energies. In your opinion, this is a hint - to turn to yourself, to your Higher Self, as you say, that is, to the non-embodied part of the Spirit so that it helps to harmonize in itself those energies that have gone out of balance.

Maxim: Guys, please like! Please ask interesting questions!

What can you tell us, for example, about killer whales on our planet? Do you study them?

Irina: A more specific question is needed. What do you mean, “can you tell me”?

Maxim: Do you study any aquatic creatures besides dolphins?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): No specific types. We just know that they exist.

1:14:42 Levels of Spirits incarnating on Apsihra, the system of punishment on the planet.

Maxim: Do you also incarnate from different levels? That is, from the 1st to the 24th Spiritual?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes.

Maxim: You don’t have any restrictions there either?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes, finally.

Maxim: Are you husband and wife?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): No.

Maxim: Are you colleagues at work?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): We are brother and sister.

Maxim: What do your parents do?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Our parents have already left incarnation.

Maxim: I see. Do you have children?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Yes.

Maxim: What do your children do?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Learning about the world. Learning, studying.

Maxim: Got it. Do you have prisons where you lock up the violent representatives of your civilization?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We don't have prisons. If someone breaks the law, then the representatives of the Interstellar Union deal with it. They have special departments, that is, compartments on the planet of criminals for our race. You could say, their reservoir.

Maxim: What is your body temperature?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We don't know your measures?

Maxim: What color is your blood, or what do you have instead of blood?

Irina: He shows me: some kind of colorless.

Maxim: Something like our lymph?

Irina: Yes, something like that.

1:16:30 Creativity, preparation for death, pets on the planet Apsihra.

Maxim: Are you involved in creative work?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): For lack of materials, of course, physically. We don’t draw anything, we don’t sculpt anything, etc. But in our minds, of course, we can – with intellectual creativity. This concerns various, so to speak, oral traditions: we can tell each other various stories, poems. But again, it will all be in our language – with these signals.

Maxim: Please tell me, after an individual dies, what happens to its body?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Our brain is designed in such a way that a humanoid feels the heart stop, the cessation of cardiovascular activity. That is, he feels his death. And he swims away to those areas of the ocean where he leaves the incarnation. Later... (Lorgi shows Irina some place). This is a certain place on the planet. There are various accumulations of predatory fish, animals, insects, which then feed on his body. And gradually it disintegrates. Only something like a skeleton remains. But from water with minerals it also disintegrates.

Maxim: Do you have any pet fish?

Irina: Where will they keep them?

Maxim: (Laughs) In the same water where they themselves are.

Irina: They don't have pets. They don't have a home.

Maxim: How is that possible? How can you live without a home?!

Irina: Imagine that you swim and swim all your life.

Maxim: Have you had incarnations on our planet?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): We don't know our past lives.

Maxim: Do you go to the Astral?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): Of course, we are in the Astral.

Maxim: In the Astral, can you view your past lives?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We can, if there is such a request to the Higher Self.

Maxim: And you have never once been interested in your past lives?!

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): No.

Maxim: You are not interested in this?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): We are interested in directing energy only to our incarnation. Because our Spirit has singled us out as unique individuals so that we can fully experience it.

Maxim: Interesting. How interesting. And if you were asking earthlings, what question would you ask us?

Irina (Lorgi): As we have already said, we are studying earthlings. And I have already asked you some questions – including those I wanted to ask.

1:19:57 Perception of earthlings by representatives of Apsychra. Understanding of God by the civilization of Apsychra.

Maxim: How do you perceive us in general? What surprises you about us? Are there any moments that you don’t understand?

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi): When we come here in the Astral, we feel your general atmosphere. And what puzzles us is the amount of fear that people emit. You are very afraid. Not you specifically, but the majority of earthlings are afraid of literally everything: the past, the future, their mistakes, the mistakes of other people, God, the devil. That is, certain entities. And you are also afraid of people and at the same time afraid of loneliness. This is strange for us.

The Earth is a very beautiful planet. But when you start flying to it in the Astral, for us it is as if saturated with fear. You have a very active instinct for self-preservation. For what reason does it appear through social fears?

Maxim: Do you have such a concept as cannibalism? That is, can individuals eat each other?

Irina (Larcy and Lorgi): No.

Maxim: Thank you. I'm just wondering if you have something like this on your planet. Tell me, please, when you lose a partner, can you then look for another one?

Irina (Larsi): Generally, it is not forbidden, but it happens very rarely. Because, as I already said, love for one partner does not end with his exit from incarnation, but continues when he finds himself in the Spiritual world. And therefore, such humanoids who want to connect with someone else are very rare.

Maxim: (addressing Lorgi) I have, perhaps, an extreme question for you. Please describe what God is to you?

Irina (Lorgi): God is space. God is energy. (choosing words)

God is all the space in which the space where you live is enclosed, possessing a Spiritual mind and a Spiritual heart filled only with Love. And this space is aware of itself as a separate being. But at the same time, it is aware of itself as everyone who lives in this space.

Maxim: Thank you.

Irina: How clear is it to you?

Maxim: I understand absolutely everything that you told me, you explained it to me. (laughs)

Irina: (laughs) You explained it interestingly.

1:23:34 A wish to earthlings from representatives of Apsihra.

Maxim: And, probably, the last question. What would you like to wish for us, earthlings?

Irina (Lorgi): I wish you that the incarnation you have chosen on Earth will lead to the maximum realization of your Divine abilities, possibilities. And to approaching the ocean of Light in which your consciousness lives. And to the realization that all your suffering begins when you begin to separate yourself from the source of Light and Love. Just as a drop of water dries up in the sun, so you begin to feel sad and afraid if you break away from the ocean of Divine Love.

Maxim: Thank you! Dear friends, dear fellow scientists, dear smartest people on this planet who want and can ask questions to extraterrestrial civilizations, spiritual personalities, Spirits! Please come to Voronezh. I will gladly offer you my place. So that you can ask very smart questions. I don't mind, come!

But guys, most of us are considered schizoterics. Scientists don't want to contact us because they are afraid of losing their reputation. Famous people who are really interested in this topic are also afraid of losing their reputation.

Irina: (reads comments): "Why don't they attack people?" How do you like this question?

Maxim: Excellent question! This is the best question of this broadcast! Why don't they attack? Because they live on another planet, people! (laughs)

Irina (Larsi and Lorgi speak): Why should we attack anyone? You can only attack if you feel inferior. But we are completely harmonious, self-sufficient beings. Therefore, we do not need to affirm our existence, our consciousness in this way.

Maxim: Guys, I am always happy and ready to conduct a broadcast with a very smart person who wants to communicate with any civilization, with any Spirit. And who wants to conduct a live broadcast. Come, I'm waiting for you! I've been shouting and screaming about this for a long time! I'm not a super-mega-educated person. I'm not the super-mega-leader of this project. I just conduct live broadcasts and try to ask your questions during these live broadcasts. If you think your questions are stupid, then I don't know which ones to ask?

Irina: Ah, he clarifies (reads the comments): “Why don’t killer whales attack people?”

Maxim: So, guys, everyone can appear on our channel. I'm waiting for you, please come to Voronezh! As I sit, so will you ask your questions.

Irina: In fact, there were cases. Now he clarified the question: "Why don't killer whales, unlike sharks, attack people?"

(says MidgasKaus): In fact, they, like any other animals, have different cases. And there have been cases of attacks by these animals too. And there have even been attacks by dolphins on people. It's like aggression.

Maxim: I understand. Aggression.

Irina: What killer whales! Even our cows, bulls and goats can attack, although they are domestic animals! They can attack their own owners.

Maxim: Do you know why I focus on, as you say, the negative? Because I want a really smart person to come here every live broadcast, who can ask the right questions.

Irina: (answering a question from the chat) They don't have any technologies, not even primitive ones. They don't have any specific tools, so to speak, that could create these technologies.

Maxim: So thank you all very much! We are currently building again at the Center. We have already built five houses. We have two swimming pools. The third building is being built. We are waiting for you all! We have wonderful programs at our Centers. We invite all esotericists, all energy practitioners to spend time with us at this Center, conduct retreats, seminars.

Soon I will place our Center, which we have built, on the website in its entirety, where we can meet and connect together.

In the meantime, from August 2 to 5, there is a meeting in Ufa. The meeting will be a blast! We are leaving with the entire Health Center. Even Guzel Maliarova is coming with us. So, see you all! Thank you all so much for being with us and for helping our Project develop!

Irina: Thank you all!

Question: Why did our creators abandon us after the war 12 thousand years ago, we communicated normally?

They did not abandon us. They gave us independence, about one and a half thousand years after the return of earthlings to their homeland, after the war 12 thousand years ago. We were returned to our renewed Earth, and we began to live independently.

About 1.5 thousand years later, there was an attempt to build a starship or spaceship that could fly to the Moon, as to the city of the Gods. The spaceship was built using technologies that people knew before the war. They were passed on by curators.

Since it was built incorrectly, representatives of Burkhad intervened. They told people that before flying into space, you need to develop your civilization, lay the foundation for building similar ships so that you can be equal partners with the Interstellar Union.

In order for the development to happen faster, people were given several different languages, their genetics were slightly changed so that they could live in different parts of the Earth, which had changed climate. And also so that people of different races could learn to interact with each other before joining the Interstellar Union, where there are even more similar and diverse races.

After the settlement of your people on different continents, already divided, gave rise to different languages of tribes and peoples. At that time, open contacts with your representatives continued.

In the period from seven to six thousand years ago, many new people were born on Earth, who for various reasons began to fight among themselves and enter into conflicts over religious, territorial issues, laws of blood feud, etc. This happens at the initial stage of development of many civilizations.

At this stage, your representatives who were in contact with the Burkhadians increasingly sought independent development. There were even proposals for the Burkhad representatives to leave Earth, not to observe or influence your development.

In the Interstellar Union, it was decided to limit its contacts with earthlings to the creation of, for example, religion, various philosophical movements, privately through contactees so that you could go through the cycle of development yourself, which will lead you to moral, spiritual and physical perfection.

Many scientists of the Interstellar Union believed that it was impossible to interfere in the affairs of young races, as this would lead to their degradation, infantilism, and would not allow them to join the Interstellar Union on equal terms.

It was decided to leave bases for observation, for contacts, so that in the event of any cataclysms, it would be possible to intervene, as happened, for example, at the time of the Chernobyl accident, as happened in many cases of battles between earthlings.

Our ships appeared. They were forbidden to interfere in the battle, but the earthlings could see them and disperse. This did not bring a lasting effect. Then the war continued anyway.

In the 20th century, when your governments decided to start a nuclear war that threatened to destroy the entire Earth, they made open contact with representatives of two countries against their will: they were simply taken away. The ship of Tashig and Esler transported them to a lunar base. They were warned that they could lose their power if they did not reconsider their policy and stop launching missiles filled with nuclear warheads towards their opponent. Several such missiles have already been intercepted. There have been no similar incidents since then.

Now official contacts of the MS and the GFS and any other galactic or extragalactic intelligent force of the dense-matter type with your governments can be initiated only with the permission of the Interstellar Union for the purposes that I mentioned earlier.

As for the safety of contactees in the conditions in which the Earth found itself. Recently, a decision was made on physical contact only on special types of ships under electromagnetic protection from the reflection of photons. Anti-photon field. The ship will be invisible.

This happened because you have improved the technology of detecting flying objects, military weapons that are used in air battles. They are becoming faster and more destructive. After the destruction of several hundred of our ships, the Interstellar Union took such a step.

#586 Black magic and its consequences. Rituals, damage, love spells - protection from negative influence.
https://blog.cassiopeia.center/chyornaya-magiya-i-eyo-posledstviya-ritualy-porcha https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EAH6K1-wS5o

00:00 Start of video.

00:18 Fragments from the conference.

Irina (MidgasKaus): Those demons who will be nearby can also say to the Angel: "After all, you did something to get to this level, you did what you wanted?" He will say: "Yes. I did what I wanted." "And why is it that you can do what you want, but we can't. How are we any worse than you?"

He has a need to somehow control other people, somehow punish them, somehow remove them from his path, and so on. It is like a big self-conceit and placing himself in the center of the Universe.

An angel, by the way, will never blame even the person who does this. He simply understands that the person lives in his illusions, in his vibrations and is going through his lesson. He will simply sympathize with him.

Always trust God. Your trust in God already protects you.

01:51 Introduction of the meeting participants.

Tatyana: My name is Tatyana. I live in Germany. Why did I want to talk about this topic? Because, you could say, it is a little bit connected, not even a little bit, a lot connected with my work. I am a karmologist, I study people's past lives. I count them. As if I tell people that there is no magic here, there is only science, signs and arithmetic. But at the same time, I see all this. And very often people, unfortunately, turn in the wrong direction. That is, often no one talks to their Soul, no one fulfills their mission, and everything happens to people not as it should, and, of course, they begin to blame others for this. Today I would like to talk about black magic, its application and its, how to say, view from the spiritual side.

Irina: Well, yes, the topic... Hello, Tatyana! The topic is indeed ambiguous. I asked LiShioni to come, who is a specialist in astral interactions, that is, in energies and thought forms. He studies the influence of various egregors, thought forms and their creation. This is directly related to the topic of the conversation. I also asked MidgasKaus to come. As a psychologist, biologist and, perhaps, simply as a wise humanoid, he will also give his answers. He also travels in the Astral consciously and is familiar with many entities, he has experience working in egregors.

We have LiShioni from the planet Shimor, MidgasKaus from the planet Esler. They are specialists, scientists of the Interstellar Union and are here in astral bodies in a state of conscious astral travel. They greet.

Tatiana: Thank you! I greet them too.

Irina: And I think they will answer these questions. My name is Irina Podzorova, I am a contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations. Today we have an ambiguous topic: black magic and its consequences. What is it, and where does it lead? So, we listen to the questions.

Tatyana: First question. Before actions are performed, they are performed from some specific intention, that is, the intention to do something, the intention to do something to someone first of all. I would like to talk about intention.

04:52 MidgasKaus on the intention to harm and its reflection on the spiritual plane.

Tatyana: What is happening in general on the spiritual side of this person, if he already has intentions in his head to harm someone, to perform some rituals? It makes no difference what he wants, but the main thing is that he already has intentions.

What is emerging on the spiritual side against this background, I would say on the spiritual side of even his Soul? Your friends know how best to answer what I mean.

Irina (MidgasKaus): So where does the intention to harm come from?

Tatyana: Yes, it all happens from the spiritual side, which already begins to emerge when a person already has this intention, because everything happens with an intention. That is, before the action comes the intention.

Irina (MidgasKaus): Do you call desire intention?

Tatyana: Yes, the desire to go and take revenge on someone, to do, let's say, some love spells. The person has already thought about it, pondered it, but hasn't gone and done it yet.

Irina (MidgasKaus): You see, the psychology of the Interstellar Union considers man as a Spirit, embodied in a body through the life force. In your Russian language there are two words that we use for this - these are Spirit and Soul.

Desires appear in the spiritual heart, both in the incarnate Spirit and in the non-incarnate. For simplicity, we will decide to say that in a person, in the incarnate Spirit, desire appears in the heart of the Soul, because the Soul is the incarnate part of the Spirit. We simply say "in the heart of the Spirit", without separating these concepts. We have our own corresponding language. But here we emphasize that what a person desires, his non-incarnate part, his Higher Self, may not desire at all.

That is, it can act independently, autonomously within fairly large limits, and this is what gives a certain illusion that a person is a structure different from the Higher Self, that these are two different personalities, that these are two different entities, and so on. But in fact, the Spirit is one, just the incarnating part, the Soul, acquires its personality by blocking the memory of its past incarnations, its past births and life in the Spiritual world. What is desire in this case? In general, what is it? If we analyze this phenomenon, we will see that it appears not only in humans and not only in intelligent life forms.

Desire appears in animal Souls, and in plant Souls, and so on. Desire is generally a quality of the Soul, and if we look at where the desire itself comes from, it is a need of the Soul that is consciously realized by this Soul, that is, accepted for fulfillment. Need, if we are talking about a person, desire is a conscious need of a person.

Tatiana: I see.

Irina (MidgasKaus): But a person is both a physical and a spiritual being. He has a number of physical and spiritual needs. And in order for a person to develop harmoniously, to develop all his sides, that is, to fulfill the task of his incarnation, the task of incarnation is development, it is necessary for him to fulfill both physical and spiritual needs. We are for harmony. As for the desire to harm. Do you think that harming someone is a human need?

Tatyana: It depends on the side. Each person pursues their own goals.

Irina (MidgasKaus): Why might a person need to harm someone? To calm himself. That is, a person begins to generate a desire from his ego, from his embodied part of the Spirit, without taking into account the desires of other people, their feelings and desires and the feelings of his own Higher Self. If he follows the path of the ego, this is called egoism. A person believes that he has a need to somehow control other people, somehow punish them, somehow remove them from his path, and so on. This is like a great conceit and placing oneself in the center of the Universe. In your opinion, this is a form of pride that forms in the heart of a person like an unhealing ulcer.

Tatiana: Which is bleeding all the time, right?

Irina (MidgasKaus): Pride, pride, arrogance itself is such a specific feeling, and it is this feeling that not only gives birth, but distorts the needs that are already in the heart. Needs pass from the heart together, connecting with feelings. Accordingly, a person's need to be happy, connecting with a negative feeling of pride, resentment, hatred, with negative feelings of pride, hatred together and so on, can even cause the natural desires of the Spirit to come to truth, justice, happiness, passing through these, we call them, energy blocks, leads to the emergence of a desire to deal with an objectionable person, because a person does not manifest his divine desires purely, but through blocks. This is similar to how light enters a room not through clean glass, but through one covered with dirt.

Tatyana: It turns out that distorted information is even going around somewhere, right?

Irina (MidgasKaus): Here we need to understand that a person strives for happiness. For him, happiness, love and harmony are his spiritual needs. But because of the egoistic, because of the negative feelings that are in the heart and form blocks in the aura, plus because of the negative mental attitudes of the egoistic plan, which I have just named, all this together distorts the Divine Light of his desires, his needs, which comes from the heart, and therefore a distorted passion appears in the consciousness, we call it "passionate desire", a certain captivity and obsession with this desire. Because the energy block itself, which a person has collected in his aura, is charged with negative energy, which was charged with life force, and the block itself adds a certain energy to this desire, and the person forms a negative model of behavior. We call this "sociopathy" or "negative life scenario".

Tatyana: Everything is clear. Second question.

13:49 MidgasKaus about the Soul of a person who performs rituals or orders them.

Tatyana: What happens to the Soul of a person who performs any rituals himself, or he orders another person to perform them, that is, he still acts as either a performer or a customer?

Irina (MidgasKaus): As you know, the desire has already been fulfilled. That is, in any case, the desire itself that came out of a person, if a person has not processed it, has not harmonized it and has not transformed it into Light, has not forgiven this person and has not wanted to reconcile with him, he already lowers his vibrations by this. And if this goes to the physical level, that is, already to the level of an action, then the order to do harm, that the execution to do harm in any case not only lowers the spiritual vibrations of a person, but also reinforces this model of behavior in his mind, he begins to consider this even more the norm, and it will subsequently be more difficult to turn him to the Light, including himself. Because his heart is as if covered by another layer of ice, that is, figuratively speaking, he hardens his heart even more, makes it stony, insensitive to the pain and suffering of another person.

Tatyana: Uh-huh. Irina, I have a question.

15:27 MidgasKaus on the difference between the performer and the customer of black magic.

Tatyana: Is there a difference from the spiritual side between the performer and the customer in black magic? For example, one person does, the other just orders. From the spiritual side, is there a difference in these moments?

Irina (MidgasKaus): The one who performs these actions, the performer is constantly in a state of lowered vibrations, because he has already come to this occupation, he has certain negative attitudes towards people. Not just towards one person or several people, but most often towards the whole world. Very often he himself is already at very low vibrations.

And as for the customer, he can be angry, hate only one person for the reasons I mentioned, and his Soul damage is often less because of this. And what does this mean? It means that it will be easier for him to return to the Light, completely change his behavior and raise his vibrations and his spiritual level.

Tatyana: I see. Next question.

16:50 MidgasKaus about a person who has been cursed.

Tatyana: What happens in the Spiritual world to a person who is cursed, hexed, or put to death, or to finances, to love, or anything. What exactly happens from the spiritual side to a person towards whom these actions are performed?

Irina (MidgasKaus): This is a specific program, one might say, an energy matrix, in which certain ideas and images are embedded. It is charged for a specific person and enters his field through the Astral, that is, beyond the distance. What will happen next depends on many factors. First of all, on how similar in vibrations the person on whom the magical effect was produced is, and the one who produced it. That is, a certain similarity in vibrations will be needed, and secondly: it matters how much the person is in high vibrations in general, whether he has any of his own blocks and in which chakras or not. Based on this, the result will be different. If a person is pure, lives in the Light of Love and completely trusts God, then he (he shows a huge Light, in which this negative thought form will simply not be noticed, like a fly is not noticeable to the Sun).

Tatiana: I see.

Irina (MidgasKaus): It will just burn (he shows the evaporation).

Tatyana: That is, whether it will physically affect a person's life, everything depends, as you said, on the above. We need to look at what vibrations.

Irina (MidgasKaus): The thing is that a negative thought form has a certain energy charge, that is, a certain energy potential, a certain energy vibration, which can be attached to the aura only in the area of the chakra where the block is located, and also on a similar topic (he shows), there should be a similarity in vibrations.

Tatyana: As you said in other videos, if there is something to cling to, like an anchor, then it starts working, if there is nothing to cling to, the person is clean, then it passes by. This is also you...

Irina (MidgasKaus): Yes. That is why we constantly remind you that it is necessary to love everyone, forgive everyone, help people, raise your vibrations and fully trust God. That is, to get rid of fears, worries, including about your material well-being, and your life, and the time of death, that is, any fear that a person has can attract such programs.

20:04 Advice to people for protection from black magic.

Tatyana: Irina, what other advice would you give to people so that these programs don’t cling to them, in addition to the above? What would you like to add?

Irina: It is natural to be in constant contact with the Higher Self, in conscious contact. You can ask the Higher Self, firstly, whether a person has negative blocks. If so, in which chakras, what feelings do they consist of, and what needs to be done to completely dissolve them. Secondly, you can ask whether there are necrotic attachments. It happens that a person goes to the world of Souls, that is, to the Spiritual World, and the living person who remains on Earth begins to form an attachment to him because of unresolved relationships with him, either because of melancholy, boredom, or resentment, or guilt, there are many options.

This attachment itself is not a magical effect, but it is capable of depriving a person of energy. A very large percentage of energy can go to the world of non-embodied Spirits, since they are the recipients of energy. After 40 days, they do not have an etheric body, an etheric field, and the etheric energy coming from a person again reminds them of their life, and not only harm to a person's health occurs due to such energy vampirism, one might say, but also karmic responsibility, because if an attachment is formed, the Soul that has already formed, the Spirit to which it has formed, does not have the opportunity to analyze its incarnation or prepare for the next one, because the energy constantly coming to it will remind it of these situations, which will distract it from its path, and karmic responsibility occurs.

Tatiana: Thank you. Next question.

22:24 MidgasKaus on the relationship between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law.

Tatyana: What can your friends say when, for example, a person has been doing this for a very long time. Let's take a famous situation, I don't want to offend anyone, but in my work I often encounter this: basically mothers-in-law cannot love or accept their son's choice and for a very long time they act in ways that are not always right, they try to harm him somehow so that the relationship with their son does not work out, and, of course, they use black magic. For example, if this happens not for one year, but for several years, what happens then from the spiritual side and in general with the Soul of this person who is doing this? This is the first question. And the second question: how many years, in your opinion, in the opinion of your friends, can actions of this nature occur?

Irina (MidgasKaus): This is a very general question. It needs to be made more specific. What does it mean, how many years can these actions take? There are different cases, and each case is individual. If a person does not come to high vibrations, does not want to follow the path of Spirit, love, he can live like this his whole life. Or he can return to the Light at any moment.

Tatyana: So, in practice, it happens that people do this for many years?

Irina (MidgasKaus): It happens.

Tatyana: How much health they have!

Irina (MidgasKaus): As for the mother-in-law and certain things related to accepting the wife, a lot depends on the relationship between the mother-in-law and the daughter-in-law, a lot depends on how the son himself treats his mother, and what kind of relationship they have, maybe she has grievances against him. That is, here it is necessary to look at their relationship. And secondly: how a man and a woman behave with each other, what they talk about, and how the husband's mother sees all this plays a very big role. A lot here depends on how much the life principles and habits of these women coincide or do not coincide. They may have different understandings, for example, in raising children, running a household.

Again, a lot depends on the man, since the mother has known her son since birth, and she met his woman relatively recently. Therefore, how exactly this man talks about his wife when he is alone with his mother also plays a role here. What image he builds of her. Perhaps he does not tell his wife everything that he talked about with his mother. Such cases also happen in relationships.

A man needs to understand how he will treat his wife, and if his mother sees that he is happy, she will not have any doubts about it, gradually she will be grateful, but if, of course, she really loves him, and not just talks about it, because they can have different relationships. If she has a grudge, then it may not work. After all, the son could have a grudge against his mother, and the mother against her son even before meeting this woman. They can have a relationship that was very difficult, and all this will be reflected in this family.

Tatyana: I see. You were talking about the fact that you need to forgive people, your ill-wishers, wish them Light, wish them Love. That's all clear. This would be a slightly more specific question.

27:16 MidgasKaus on forgiving an ill-wisher and communicating with him.

Tatyana: Is a person obliged to communicate closely with his ill-wisher, even though he has already forgiven him a thousand times?

Irina (MidgasKaus): There is no obligation. Communication is always the desire of two, not one person, it is the responsibility of two for the dialogue and the relationships that they build. Here the word "forgiveness" is not even about further communication, but about wishing happiness, love, development and, if necessary, if this particular person suddenly asks for some specific help, and it may not necessarily be material help, not to refuse him because of hostility. This is what is meant here.

Tatiana: I understand.

Irina (MidgasKaus): And this could also be material.

He gives an example: if two friends quarreled and no longer communicate with each other - this is their decision, or rather one strives to communicate, and the second, although she forgave, says that she has completely different interests and simply does not want to waste her incarnation time on this communication. And suddenly she finds out that this already former friend needs help. For example, she fell ill and ended up in the hospital. And the Spirit of love, the quality of love that will be in her heart, will tell her, she will not feel obligated, just the feeling of love itself will tell her, for example, to visit her in the hospital in these difficult circumstances, to offer her help in any form not because she wants or does not want to communicate with her, but to help a person in a difficult moment in life.

Helping a person is a manifestation of love on the physical plane. Why do we help each other at all? Because love is a feeling of unity, and when someone needs help, the one who feels one with him provides it to this person as to himself. We help ourselves, don't we? What do you say?

29:52 MidgasKaus on the role of human Guardian Angels in protecting against negative rituals.

Tatyana: I see. I don't know if your friends can answer this question: how do our Guardian Angels react when some negative rituals are performed on a person?

Irina (MidgasKaus): They feel it and see it in the Astral, they can tell a person to strengthen their Divine protection, because if, as I already said, a person has blocks, the Angel will not be able to protect him, because they will be attracted. Therefore, the Angel can warn through dreams, through certain visions, through thoughts so that he can forgive, pray, do something else positive, so that there is no harm from these actions to the person. By the way, the Angel will never blame even the person who does this.

He simply understands that a person lives in his illusions, in his vibrations and goes through his lesson. He will simply sympathize even with the one who does this, and will not say that “this person is putting a curse on you, do not communicate with him”, the Angel will not condemn. He simply understands that he is in a state of spiritual illness.

A very good example: it is like your friend or relative is sick with the flu, coughing or sneezing all night, and because of this you have trouble sleeping. You are not irritated by the fact that he is sick. You understand that he is not doing it on purpose, but it is an illness. So here too is a spiritual illness.

31:51 On the results of confrontation between people on a spiritual level.

Tatyana: What is the result of this confrontation between people on the spiritual and physical level? Will there be a karmic denouement? If so, how?

Irina (MidgasKaus): Yes, of course. A person who wants to harm another in any way, even, for example, by slandering, deceiving him, committing some kind of betrayal, hurting him, hitting him physically, there are different methods, not only magical ones, they form negative karma associated with this person. What is karma? It is the result of a person's actions. What is negative karma? What he did not forgive and punishes this person for, this relationship will be his lesson, which he did not go through, and will go through it further in another form, maybe even with other people.

His mentors, the Angels-consultants will lead him to untie his karmic knot before leaving the incarnation. If he does not do this, then the karmic knot will take him to a lower level from which he came, because this will not allow him to fulfill his task. That is, the formation of negative karmic knots is associated with the failure to fulfill his task, and in order to rise higher, if he says: "I want to rise higher", - he will be shown a chain of incarnations, only they will be such in which there will be passing lessons that he did not pass.

Tatyana: Is it possible that in this confrontation one person can leave the incarnation, that is, reach such, I would say, an extreme point?

Irina (MidgasKaus): Yes, it is possible. An illness may appear or a certain, as you call it, accident may occur, that is, a certain set of circumstances, which will be, for example, caused by the carelessness of this person due to magical influence on the psyche.

That is, for example, an influence was exerted through damage to death, and because of the negative vibrations of a person, this program entered his field and began to influence his body, and the weakest link, for example, was the brain, there changes begin, which, in the end, affect memory, perception and give rise to inattention, and a person can, for example, go, think about something and get into a catastrophe, and as a result of this, leave the incarnation. And all this will be the responsibility of the person who made this program, because in the karmic matrix of the Soul it is visible because of what he got into this catastrophe or because of what he got sick with this disease.

35:40 MidgasKaus on negative traces in a person’s field.

Tatyana: Irina, does it happen that a lot depends on the person on whom it is done, do certain negative threads of any negative impact remain in the person's field, even if the person tries, as you said, to be closer to high vibrations, not to show negative moments, to smile more, to show true love, and not feigned, as many do. Yes, unfortunately, this is how it is in our world. Not everything is as ideal as we would like. Do negative threads from this negative impact remain in the person's field, all the same, as I would say, a trace?

Irina (MidgasKaus): It is not necessary to have large negative blocks, a person can, for example, be irritated by something, be afraid of something, doubt something or something else, that is, unspoken thoughts and emotions will spin in his field and lower his vibrations, this can provoke the attachment of this program.

Tatyana: Next question. Here we are already approaching the end. I very often observe such moments on the Internet that people even on VKontakte, a developed social network, very often there are esotericists, magicians, as they position themselves, who do, I very often saw such pictures, perform love spells or negative rituals specifically in cemeteries.

37:32 About the Higher Self of a person engaged in magical rituals.

Tatyana: What does the inner self of this magician who is engaged in these rituals do? After all, as far as my logic understands, of course, I always strive for perfection, that if a more advanced, more pumped-up person works with the inner self harmoniously, in the same direction, he listens to it, they listen to each other, no one blocks anyone. I read, sometimes very interestingly and humorously they position themselves as Great magicians. How does their inner self react to this? This is somehow, I think, illogical at the same time.

Irina (MidgasKaus): How the Higher Self reacted to the actions of even Catholic monks who were engaged in the Inquisition and at the same time prayed to God. This is the lesson of a person who, because of his pride, fell into the self-illusion of seduction by his magical power and does not see any obstacles even to somehow controlling the destinies of other people.

What is a love spell? This is a certain impact on a person's consciousness, which in 80 percent of cases is performed not even by the personal energy of the magician himself, but with the help of certain curators - low-vibration plasmoids, non-embodied Spirits from demonic levels, and at the same time, this program does not contain the energy of love, but of sexual passion, that is, the energy of Kundalini is activated through special practices, spells and rituals. In a man who is bewitched, or in a woman, the energy of Kundalini is activated, while the heart center is closed, which can help him recognize the truth, and information about the customer, about the woman who should be the object of Kundalini manifestation for him, is entered into his mental field.

And at the same time he begins to live as a person who... Have you heard of such a thing as passionate love? In any case, a person begins to strive only for the object of his passion, of course, if he attracted this influence, if he has some negative moments in his field, his blocks, and in this case he constantly has obsessive thoughts and desires associated with this woman. Moreover, he himself cannot recognize this substitution of his love while he is in this state, for him it seems quite natural, especially if a person is not aware and does not understand where these thoughts come from, he will simply follow his true feeling.

But it all ends with his physical and energetic health beginning to deteriorate from the blocking of the heart center and from other magical influences, from excessive focus of Kundalini on sexual energy, that is, it begins to cause a lack of energy in the etheric field, and his Soul, his Higher Self begins to take him out of this state, sending thoughts that this is unnatural behavior, especially if he has already come together for a life together with this woman. Accordingly, he has a contradiction between consciousness and subconsciousness, which he cannot resolve himself, which can lead to the formation of addiction, bad habits and even suicide.

Tatyana: I have noticed in my work that men who have been subjected to love spells, unfortunately, very often drink alcohol.

Irina (MidgasKaus): It happens that the energy of anger and irritation that accumulates in the aura of this man can spill out onto the object.

Tatyana: Well, they kind of defend themselves on a subconscious level?

Irina (MidgasKaus): They have certain blocks to which this love spell has already attached itself, which in fact also strengthens them, and he develops such a psychological dependence on the person, which he himself seeks to get rid of, including by devaluing this woman and, including, perhaps, by applying physical force, because people are different in their beliefs and upbringing. For some, this will go more quietly, for others, it will not. Someone is ready to lay hands on himself, but not on another. It happens differently. He feels very bad mentally, he really suffers.

But this can be removed through the Higher Self, if a person goes to it, all these magical programs will be removed when the blocks to which they are attached are dissolved, and moreover, there is a special formula to transform any magical program, this is a certain energy released into the field, into a lighter energy and direct it to one's development. But for this it is necessary, naturally, to sincerely say that a person forgives this person, even if he does not know his name, the customer and the performer. One person, two persons - it does not matter, because God knows everyone, and when he forgives sincerely and sends them the Light of Love simply even into a certain space, then it will get to those people who were the culprits of this negative program, this Light will come to them, and whether they accept it or not is, of course, their will, but he will raise his vibrations by this, and all these programs will begin to fall away from him.

44:22 MidgasKaus on the Soul of a magician who intimidates clients.

Tatyana: I see. I also see this on the Internet. You will probably say that I have read too much passion on the Internet. I am a very inquisitive person, yes, I am interested in all this. People who position themselves as magicians, as I call them, for example, very often, when they do work on a love spell or some kind of damage to death - it does not matter what they do, they send people a bill for 100 thousand, 50 thousand rubles, 30 thousand, huge amounts, where, unfortunately, the average level of the population cannot pay it, and, of course, when people do not pay it, they begin to write such words, I understand that these are only words, but I would still like to ask that “I will cast a spell” or “I will make sure that your relatives have cancer” or something else, they are trying to scare people.

Tatyana: What is happening with the Soul at this moment?

Irina (MidgasKaus): When he says this, what does he use? The psychological law according to which a person who is authoritative for a person can influence his health. That is, he uses the psychological law of authority. When he writes to a person like this, he consciously causes him to fear himself as a powerful person. Accordingly, if a person has accepted this in his field and is really scared, then when further conducting some ritual it can really stick to him. That is, as I already said, they make lower vibrations.

46:03 MidgasKaus on the reaction of the magician's Guardian Angels.

Tatyana: Yes. And how will the Guardian Angels of this magician react? How will they react to all this, that he is doing these things?

Irina (MidgasKaus): They simply dissuade him from this, but they cannot force him to change his behavior. Every Spirit has freedom of choice.

Tatyana: I see. We do what we want, everyone does what they want.

Irina (MidgasKaus): Naturally. Those demons who will be nearby can also say to the Angel: "To get to this level, you did what you wanted, didn't you?" He will say that he did what he wanted. "And why can you do what you want, but we can't?

How are we worse than you in general?" Well, and it seems clear that nothing. It's just a choice.

Tatyana: Yes. And they also write that they don't take the money for themselves. People are indignant that such services are so expensive. They write to them: "This is not for me, I'm paying off the fee."

47:04 About ransom from the spiritual side, fears and protection from damage.

Tatyana: What is a ransom from the spiritual side, and what do they mean by it? Some kind of ransom to the Spirits.

Irina (MidgasKaus): There is such a theory as a teaching in magic that there is a certain ransom from karma, as if from those consequences that violence against a person leads to, because even black magicians understand that they do evil, because it is against God, and many of them understand karmic responsibility very well. They have such a certain teaching that various ransoms can be money, certain sacrifices and so on, they will transfer the guilt, the responsibility of this person to another person or to an animal or even release it into space. In fact, this does not work, because karmic responsibility is formed by the person himself and cannot be transferred to another or to another creature until it is lived by the Soul that gave birth to it.

Tatyana: Yes. That's logical. I have no more questions.

Irina: Thank you for your interesting questions.

Tatiana: Everything was told.

Irina: Yes. Very interesting questions. LiShioni and MidgasKaus thank you.

Dear friends, I thank you for watching this video. I hope you found it interesting and useful. By the way, I get asked a lot of questions on this topic. Now there will be a video answer.

So, dear friends, I love you and ask you not to be afraid of anything. Any fear of black magicians, of witchcraft, of damage increases their influence on fate.

As soon as we do not allow this influence, it will not exist, because our faith creates our reality. Believing in damage, we attract it. Or rather, even not believing in damage, believing in its power for us, we are divine beings, and if we allow something, we let it into our field, so, by the way, atheists and materialists are in a very good position, who simply vehemently deny, and it is impossible to influence them. It must be a very strong magician to invest a certain energy to break through his field, even if it is overflowing with negativity. He simply reflects it with his denial of such things. In his reality, such things do not happen.

Tatiana: He has his own reality.

Irina: Yes, it’s funny to him, he shows laughter, for him these are prejudices, superstitions, like, for example, it’s funny for adults to believe in, I don’t know, the tooth fairy. It happens that…

Tatyana: For many material people... The magician will say: "I'll cast a spell on you," - he'll just twist his head and say: "Are you okay in the head? Get out of here."

Irina (MidgasKaus): Not only will he twirl his temple, but if he sincerely does not believe in it and does not allow such an impact on himself, he will not have fear, then such a person will already be more protected than a person who thinks that this is possible, and that woman on the trolleybus looked at me the wrong way, I came home from work, there was dirt on my rug. All this is called "fears" that attract this damage. And if an atheist-materialist simply throws out this dirt and forgets about it, then an esoteric idealist can wind up such a thing that even a sorcerer did not think in his head.

Tatyana: I thank your friends for their participation and answers.

Irina (MidgasKaus): So control your mind, always trust God. Your trust in God already protects you even more than the materialist's disbelief in these things.

So, I thank you! Sending you the Light of Love! Until next time!

MidgasKaus on the concept of lies. Concepts of Spirit and Soul in training https://blog.cassiopeia.center/midgaskaus-o-ponyatii-lzhi-ponyatiya-duha-i-dushi

Imitation is imitation. Imitation can be for different reasons. A person does not develop his creative potential, which is inherent in everyone, but imitates someone else's. Perhaps this is like learning.

Many people learn to draw by putting a picture on paper and copying it. They are not yet confident in themselves and learn to draw. Sometimes, for the purpose of learning, and sometimes for the egoistic purpose of appropriation. Or with the purpose of adding to the work of another person, in order to gain people's trust in their work. Any form of human lying in society begins, first of all, with lying to oneself.

What is a lie to oneself? What is a lie? A lie is not a complete absence of truth, it is a distortion of it. Truth, true knowledge, true wisdom are distorted by those emotional energy blocks that prevent it from being accepted in the Light of God. Therefore, a person begins to see lies in the world, lies in himself, and reacts with lies. Lies are one of the main reasons for any negative manifestations of intelligent entities. Lies are opposite to truth, as hatred is opposite to love. As soon as lies disappear and truth becomes available to a person, love also becomes available to him, because truth and love are one.

This training in helping oneself and helping others in preventing negative emotional blocks should begin in childhood. On Esler, this is included in the school curriculum. I did not find anything similar on your Earth when I studied the educational standards on your planet, which, although different in many countries, I noticed a striking disregard for the issues of one's own Soul, for the issues of managing one's own body.

And even, as surprising as this is for any intelligent Spirit, for the issues of the Spiritual World.

Our education at school begins with the simplest truths that will be needed for the correct choice of priorities in our society. But children come to school from their families. We also have family education, just like you. Our families are trained in the same schools and our mass media, if we speak in earthly terms, to put knowledge into the consciousness of children of the youngest age. And not just knowledge as a theory, but practical knowledge that they are embodied Spirits who have an eternal House of the Soul.

The basis of emotional stability is the true knowledge of what emotions are, why they manifest, and what determines the vibration of emotions, their quality, their direction to negative and positive, and how the direction can be changed, preserving your rich emotional life. We teach this to small children.

You can also pass this on to your children, each parent individually in the family. This will help your children more successfully establish contacts with their peers. This will help you understand your emotional life. When you explain to your children, you will be able to feel it in practice. This will help your children more fruitfully and productively assimilate educational material. And, most importantly, it will help prepare them for adult life in your society, including family life, work, social life; show them the reality that awaits them after reaching adulthood https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PSGJau7MpuIя. Not to say, but to prepare for it, so that by the age of adulthood they are completely independent people in emotional and intellectual terms.

03:17 Probiotics "Cassiopeia".

04:02 Presentation of conference participants.

Maxim: Dear friends, hello to all. And again I am with you, my name is Rusan Maxim, I am the head of the Cassiopeia Project. Today we have, I would say, a very, very interesting broadcast with the Spirit of Boris Nikolaevich Yeltsin.

You know, I have never read such a number of questions, even when we held conferences with Jesus Christ. I understand that the history of our country interests us very much, and all viewers of our channel are very interested in it. I will say right away that we do not want to disgrace anyone with this video, to refute any information, we just want to hear the voice of the Spirit, which is already in the Spiritual world, and, I think, will try to say everything as it was, because we have a wonderful contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations - Irina Podzorova, who can communicate with Spirits, and with subtle-material civilizations, and with different space civilizations.

When I was preparing for the broadcast, I was very nervous.

Why? Because I have never seen such a number of questions anywhere, in any broadcast. So I am sure that it will be very hot.

Plus, I have five minutes of airtime, and I want to tell you the news of the Project. We agreed that I will not advertise anything else, you can find advertising on our projects, I will only talk about the most interesting news of the Project, which already exists, and will be waiting for you.

The nearest event from the second to the fifth is Ufa, this is training on the first level of contacting. In this first level there will be all the information about what extraterrestrial civilizations are, what the Higher Self is, how to contact your Higher Self, what energies are, space and many, many other interesting things.

This is an off-site training event, which will take place not just with training, but with our masters. This is Nadezhda Viktorovna, the head of our health center, who works at Oberon, she is a contactee with St. Luke, and Alexey, he is also a contactee, plus he is a visceral therapist in three systems of visceral massage. I'll tell you a secret - this man "sees" organs with his hands, knows how to handle these organs and gives you feedback.

Now, what interesting things we have coming up in the near future. And, by the way, to all those who helped chip in for Irishka's gift, thank you very much, very much! We bought the latest equipment to conduct live broadcasts so that they would have high-quality sound, high-quality video, so that nothing would lag, so thank you very much to everyone. Irishka thanked everyone last time, but I see how this new equipment works, and I am very glad that part of the money went to this equipment.

The rest of the funds, at Irina's request, were sent to a charity that we will continue to support. We decided to take a real, active charity and start supporting it. This is the organization "World of Good Hearts." Guys, I will definitely ask our IT specialists to post a link to this organization. This organization really deserves attention, it really helps people in different life situations. That is why today we sent the first tranche of support to this organization, it is located in Borisoglebsk. Therefore, if someone also wants to help a charity that really uses funds for charitable purposes, they can also do this with us. And as the Cassiopeia Project, and as an individual entrepreneur, and as the head of the Project, I will ensure that our organization makes monthly deductions to this charity fund so that these deductions help people.

What other information do we have? We will soon be in St. Petersburg, information about this will appear after the retreat in Ufa, we have already prepared an off-site event. There will be unique training - this is the "Science of Imagery" and astral travel. And plus, accordingly, there will be conferences on contacts with extraterrestrial civilizations, there will be conferences to answer your questions and build contact with the Higher Self, as a necessary introduction to the training in the "Science of Imagery" and astral travel with Irina Podzorova and our interstellar friends.

Well, and, accordingly, after St. Petersburg, closer to the New Year, we are going on a sacred tour of Egypt. Wait for information, it will be given after St. Petersburg. Irina and I are going to Egypt together, not for training, but to ride around all the sacred places - the pyramids of Cheops, various caves and anomalous zones. There, Irina will give feedback on all issues related to energy, who oversees this space, how this space was formed, that is, we will reveal the secrets of Egypt. It will be a very interesting tour. Wait for information about this tour soon.

The most important news is that we will have New Year's Eve in our spiritual and physical development health center "Cassiopeia" in the city of Voronezh. The number of places is limited, we can only organize 50 places for now. I hope that if we finish building the third building, there will be more places, all the information can also be found on our resources. All the necessary links are under this video. There is a link to the info-chat "Cassiopeia", be sure to subscribe to have all the information that is happening in the Project and is called the chat "Info-Cassiopeia" in Telegram. We will really look forward to all the closest people of the Project "Cassiopeia" for the New Year in our Center in the city of Voronezh.

I think that many will be surprised, many will be pleased, how we grow and develop, how we upset the Center, so we will wait for you in comfortable conditions with a winter, I think, heated pool. And so, in principle, that's all, I will probably pass the floor for the broadcast, which we organized for our "gold of the party", as I always call her - this is our dear Irina. Irishenka, sit down.

Irina: Hello, dear friends. I hope you can see and hear me well. Good evening to all, greetings to all! My name is Irina Podzorova, I am a contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations, subtle-material civilizations and the Spiritual world. I transmit questions and answers between entities of different worlds, I am a mediator, you could say.

Today, at your numerous requests, we have invited the Spirit who was known in his last incarnation on Earth as Boris Yeltsin. There are indeed many questions for him, and in fact, more questions than there were for Jesus Christ, I confirm this.

We thought, if it is so important for you to talk to him, we decided to invite him. He is here, Boris sends you greetings and thanks for wanting to listen to him.

13:45 Yeltsin's spirit about his spiritual level.

Maxim: Boris Nikolaevich, I welcome you, for me this will also be a very interesting broadcast.

Irina: He says, “Just Boris.”

Maxim: Can I just call you Boris?

Irina: Yes.

Maxim: Many people accuse me of being too familiar with the Spirits, so I can just call you Boris, right?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): All names, patronymics, titles become meaningless in the world where I find myself.

Maxim: Tell me, please, where are you now? In what world?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I am in the Spiritual World. Shows an image of his place, as he sees it, he has a house. Now I will explain what you showed me. He lives in a small house, which he created with the power of his thoughts. In addition, he is there alone, but other Spirits can come to him with his permission.

Maxim: Tell me, please, what spiritual level are you on now?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): On the fourth.

Maxim: The fourth level is the demon level. Please tell me what kind of atmosphere is there on the fourth level?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): At the fourth level, the Spirit remains one-on-one with its problems and its unresolved tasks in incarnation. That is, it is like being alone with yourself, constantly looking at yourself in the mirror and analyzing what happened. And from this analysis you do not feel satisfaction. This (shows) a feeling like despondency. And externally you can create any image, the main thing is how you feel inside.

Maxim: Tell me, please, at this level, have you met with anyone of those with whom you incarnated on Earth?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

Maxim: Who did you date?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Mikhail Gorbachev came to see me.

Maxim: Is Mikhail Gorbachev on your level?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): No, he came to me from above, I also met with my parents, met with Patriarch Alexy (shows Patriarch Alexy, who died).

Maxim: Is he on your level?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No, but he came down to me too.

Maxim: Ah, that is, he came.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes (shows his image).

Maxim: Thank God, otherwise I just breathed in such information. I know that Hitler is at your level, haven't you met him there?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No, I know he is on my level, but we have not met. A level is not just a city or a planet, it is, one might say, a separate collection of separate worlds.

Maxim: Tell me, please, we know that demons visit our planet, sometimes they try to control people. And do you somehow interact with people on our planet?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I interact with my relatives (shows a woman), but only because they have an attachment to me.

Maxim: And how is the connection expressed?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Offended.

Maxim: And how is the resentment expressed?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): They are offended by me for my actions, for example, for my lack of restraint, rudeness, and for not always fulfilling their wishes.

Maxim: Tell me, please, do you now feel any sense of guilt in general in relation to what you did when you were incarnated on the planet?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, there is such a thing.

19.10 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on his addiction to alcohol.

Maxim: A very common question that I get from different sides: why did you drink so much, drink alcoholic beverages? What was the reason?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): To improve the nervous system.

Maxim: Was it loose?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, everyone drove me crazy, and I often got angry, felt anger and fear at the same time. This combination of anger and fear really depressed me, tormented me, and when I felt the calming effect of alcohol, and my mood improved from it, I became more self-confident, but at the same time calmer than I was without this potion (shows a lump of negative emotions, this remained in him. He says: "This remained in me" - because he did not get rid of it before the end of the incarnation).

Maxim: Boris Nikolaevich, I will tell you honestly, the broadcast will be very long, and I will have too many questions that are not very good to even listen to. But I would ask you, if possible, to perceive this more or less adequately and answer the questions honestly. Will you be able to do this?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I have nothing to hide.

20:52 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about previous incarnations.

Maxim: Nothing to hide, excellent. Tell me, please, how many incarnations have you had in this manvantara?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): 213.

Maxim: Have you been incarnated anywhere else on planet

Earth, besides Yeltsin?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, I incarnated in Boris Yeltsin's body for the third time on Earth. I mean in the third level of density.

Maxim: This is the third time you have incarnated on planet Earth.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, into a person.

Maxim: And tell me, please, when was the first incarnation and by whom?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I was incarnated during the time of Christ (I understood who it was). Do you know who Varrava is?

Maxim: Varrava?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, who is known in the Bible as Barrabas.

Maxim: Yes. I became really interested. That is, this first incarnation on Earth was in Barrava, right?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes. That is, into the man who replaced Christ when He was crucified.

Maxim: What do you mean replaced?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): In that incarnation they wanted to crucify me, but they let me go, and instead of me they crucified

Jesus. In Israel.

Maxim: This is really interesting, what does “instead of you” mean, why did they want to crucify you?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Because I robbed and killed people.

Maxim: Ah, so you were supposed to be the third one hanging on the cross?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

Maxim: What information! And to what spiritual level did you go, Varravoy?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I became a true Christian and left on the sixteenth. When I left, I was 58 years old. But if I had left at 28, at the moment when they would have crucified me, I would have left on the third.

Maxim: I understood, just in general - Barrabo, instead of Christ, should have been crucified, it's really interesting. And the second incarnation?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): And the second incarnation on Earth was the previous one before Boris.

Maxim: Yes, in front of Boris, who?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Before Boris, I was incarnated in the early 19th century in Spain as a woman named Mary. She planted and bred flowers, did design and drawing (shows a beautiful woman Mary). She lived for 42 years and died of a fever. After this exit from incarnation, I ended up on the fifteenth level.

Maxim: I see. And you came to Boris Nikolayevich Yeltsin from the fifteenth level?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

Maxim: And he left for the fourth.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

Maxim: Yes, such very interesting changes. Tell me, please, did you have any other significant incarnations in this manvantara on any planets, maybe as a ruler or someone else?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Between the incarnations of Barrabas and Mary, I was incarnated in one of the layers of the star Vega, at the fourteenth level of density.

Maxim: Yes, by the way, guys, regarding density levels – we recently released an article that contains a clear description of density levels and clusters, and where they are, what they mean, so please find our article, called “Research of Plasmoid Worlds”, where it is clearly described which plasmoid levels correspond to what.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): So I had incarnations on Tashig, Disnit, Burkhad, but that was even earlier.

Maxim: And where were you incarnated 12,000 years ago, when there was a war in our Galaxy?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): At that time I was incarnated on Tumesout as a small child (shows a boy), very small.

Maxim: I understand, thank you, Boris. Tell me, please, who was your Guardian Angel here when you were Boris? Did you have a Guardian Angel?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, I had a Guardian Angel, whose name was Lavrenty.

Maxim: And was it prescribed when you came here that you would become a big man, the president of the country?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): There was such a possibility, but it was small.

Maxim: And this small probability came true, right?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, but I had a slightly different task when I was just going to this incarnation.

26:35 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the loss of fingers in childhood.

Maxim: Please tell me, what was the spiritual reason that you lost fingers on your hand as a child, and where did you lose them?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): It was the post-war period, when it was easy to find explosive devices (shows how he and the boys found supplies in the ground, some kind of buried bunker, found something like a grenade). There were weapons and grenades in boxes. We ran away from there so that we wouldn't be noticed, but we stuffed our pockets with everything we could, and then, secretly from the adults, we examined it all (shows how he turned something in the grenade, as I see this device). He wanted to blow it up and threw it away at the wrong time (shows damage, he also has something with his face, and his hand).

Maxim: So, as a child, you found an ammunition depot, and, accordingly, something exploded there.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

28:08 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about his levels of incarnation.

Maxim: Our subscribers ask: in this manvantara, what are the highest levels you have reached, and what are the lowest spiritual levels you have fallen to?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): After incarnation at the fourteenth level of density, before incarnation in Mary, I had just reached the eighteenth level.

Maxim: Were there higher levels that you reached?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No. The eighteenth is the highest.

Maxim: And what was the lowest level it fell to?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): On the second.

Maxim: So you were even on the second level?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

Maxim: Tell me, please, how does the Spirit feel, understanding and remembering all its levels, realizing all this? Let's say, what happened on the second level?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Shows a dark basement in which there are many different creatures, and they constantly attack each other, like some kind of ball.

Maxim: Wow, that's something.

Irina: It's a very aggressive environment there, and the vibrations are very harsh. I would say so.

29:40 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about the year of his exit from incarnation.

Maxim: We are moving forward, I hope the initial questions have been asked, and I am moving on. Boris, please tell me what year you actually died, because they say that you died in 1996 after a heart operation, and then a double ruled the country, is that true?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): No.

Maxim: So you ruled the country until the end of your days?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): In 2007, I left the incarnation.

Maxim: In 2007, right?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

30:15 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on children's disputes.

Maxim: The question is: why did they encourage the second-grade students to jump out of a second-story window? Was there such a situation?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, there was, but she wasn't the only one, I jumped myself, it was a bet.

Maxim: That is, for a bet.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, I jumped myself...

30:36 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the collapse of the USSR.

Maxim: We are approaching the most interesting questions. These are the years 1991 and 1992, the coup and the collapse of the USSR. A direct question, Boris: with what money was the coup carried out to overthrow Gorbachev? How did this happen?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): One more question, please.

Maxim: What money was used to carry out the coup to overthrow Gorbachev?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): What do you mean “overthrow” and why overthrow?

Maxim: What was that?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): And what year was the overthrow? We need to clarify, we need the date of what happened there.

Maxim: Okay, fine.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): When he was overthrown, he himself signed the renunciation of the USSR president. What does "overthrow" mean? Are you saying that I paid him to sign the resignation of his powers, or what?

Maxim: And why do you think he signed the resignation?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Because the USSR ceased to exist.

Maxim: Did the USSR cease to exist under him?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Naturally, first we signed the independence treaty, and only then did he sign the renunciation of his powers.

Maxim: So you first signed the treaty on the independence of the CIS countries.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes, and this is what the CIS countries wanted.

Maxim: But I know that there was definitely a vote, and the majority, more than 80%, were in favor of leaving the USSR.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, there really was a vote, but then they became disillusioned with this vote, and protest sentiments began to grow in all the republics, people began to be killed, and the police could not cope - neither in Georgia, nor in Tajikistan, nor in Kazakhstan. People went (shows) with posters "get out, Russians", something like that. And, especially, I'm not even talking about the Baltics - they did not even participate in the vote.

Maxim: That is, first they voted to leave the USSR, and then they started organizing protests in their own countries.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): They were disappointed. Because when they voted to leave the USSR, they expected a different life, but they didn't get it. That is, disappointment, and they were even outraged that they were deceived. Protests began, stones were thrown at Soviet police, all sorts of incendiary mixtures, and so on.

Maxim: In general, what were the goals pursued during the collapse of the USSR? During the fragmentation of the USSR?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): What goals were pursued by me personally?

Maxim: Let's start with your personal goals.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Naturally, for Russia to be independent and stop allocating money to other republics, subsidies, and for it to build its own future in a free democratic and legal country, a legal state, where not some regional committee secretary decides your fate, but you yourself. That was my goal.

Maxim: So, the treaty on the collapse of the USSR was signed in Belovezhskaya Pushcha, am I correct in understanding?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): That it ceases to exist, and a union arises, it is called "independent states". Independent from whom? From each other. They are independent from Moscow, and we, accordingly, are independent from them. This was then celebrated, and now, I believe, it is celebrated, I have not long ago left the incarnation, as Russian Independence Day.

Maxim: Everything is interesting.

Irina: Do you celebrate Independence Day?

Maxim: Yes, so this Independence Day is because we became independent from others.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): From all the republics. We became independent, that is, we went our own way of sovereignty, we became responsible for ourselves and stopped being responsible for someone else, we gave them freedom, and they, in turn, gave us freedom.

Maxim: Interesting. I understand. Tell me, please, what do you really think – was it someone’s plan to break up the USSR, or was it really a necessary, forced measure?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I wouldn't say that it was a necessary measure, but the Union had come to what it had been led to for many decades, perhaps even starting with Brezhnev's death. That is, it was growing (shows) like a lump of problems that the entire government apparatus could not resolve so that the Union would remain. Although we wanted to leave it at the beginning, we were unable to fully provide the same conditions in the market system for other republics. I mean, in terms of their standard of living, which they had under the Soviet Union, they were outraged and wanted to leave.

Maxim: And what kind of problems arose in general, other than providing for these union republics?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Economic problems, there was a very big crisis back in the early eighties, it was just unnoticeable. All of this was contained, but there were already problems then, and with each year they only got worse. And that was the first thing. The second thing was the lack of glasnost, constant violations of people's rights by the KGB, party organs, and so on. That is, people were disenfranchised, and, accordingly, that was also a problem.

37:45 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the events of 1993.

Maxim: Tell me, please, was there a military seizure of power?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): What does this mean?

Maxim: There were showdowns on tanks, and they shot at the Government House.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Ah, you're talking about '93.

Maxim: Yes, I am talking about the 93rd.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): About Khasbulatov.

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): What is the question?

Maxim: What was behind the coup that took place? Why was it necessary to seize power by military means?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): They wanted to arrest me, as a popularly elected president, and remove me from power because I signed a law that they didn’t like.

Maxim: And what was this law?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): It was a law that decrees of the President have greater force in the Constitution than decrees of parliament, because I wanted to untie my hands and act on the path of transforming our society as a person responsible for the construction of this society, and they decided to put a spoke in my wheel.

Maxim: How interesting it all is. And when we talked to Gorbachev, he said that he had nothing to do with it, and you say, it turns out, that he was for the people. Okay, go on, I have a lot of questions.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I'm not saying that they weren't for the people, or that I'm not for the people. We just had different understandings of what the people needed, let's say that. And that's why I didn't try them for their crimes, although, by the way, they also shot.

It shows them shooting at some crowd standing near the tower. They also opened fire with a grenade launcher.

Maxim: So, from your side, it turns out that you didn’t seize power, but simply fought back your power all together, am I right in understanding?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): How could I seize it if I was already in power? I was elected President, so who could I seize it from?

Maxim: Okay, thank you, I understood the answer.

Irina: If some person who was not the president decided to remove them, then yes, he would seize power.

40:27 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on relations with the USA.

Maxim: Tell me, please, what were the relations with the United States of America?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Good.

Maxim: Did they participate at all, did they help?

Irina: Shows me Bill Clinton, how they hug.

Maxim: And did Bill Clinton participate in the adoption of laws of our state?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I consulted with him about this, and he gave me advice, and George Bush, who was before. But they did it reluctantly, they didn't want to take responsibility for the laws of another state. But I still asked them about it, as more experienced leaders of democratic states. We didn't have any experience of democracy. That's why I consulted with him.

Maxim: Tell me, please, did the Americans help write the 1993 constitution?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Only as consultants. We consulted with them, they offered us not only the Constitution, but also other laws (shows), various codes, they showed us their options, specifically legislative ones (as shown in the Duma), and then people voted "for" or "against". That is, the Duma made the decision, I signed it, but they could only be consultants and that's all. We invited them ourselves.

42:03 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the 1991 coup and the events of 1993.

Maxim: Here they write that the coup took place in 1991, and there were tanks on Red Square.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): It was there in '91 too, yes.

Maxim: What kind of coup was that?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): In 1991, it was the State Emergency Committee. It was different. They wanted to overthrow Gorbachev, who was then the President of the USSR, and me, too, as the President of Russia. Against both of us, as I would tell you now, there was a certain grouping, consisting of security forces and the military, like a junta.

Maxim: I understand everything. Tatyana, I am not confusing anything, I am asking the questions that you are asking.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): They wanted to overthrow us.

Maxim: So in 1991 they wanted to overthrow you, and in 1993 you were already defending your presidency, right? Because they wanted to overthrow you too.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): They didn’t want to overthrow me, they didn’t want to carry out my orders and wanted to announce my resignation.

Maxim: After you took power back into your hands, did they then want to carry out your orders?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, then I cancelled their trial (shows how they were not tried), although they also committed a crime, including the murder of people, but I pardoned them by a special order, because I understood that they also wanted good for the people.

Maxim: This is what you have, "good for the people" on one side with tanks, on the other side with tanks, putsch. And everyone wanted good, right?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): We simply understood Russia's path differently. You see, when two men argue with each other and it comes to blows, all that can end in is broken faces. But when statesmen who have the right to command the army argue, it may end in something completely different than broken faces.

Maxim: Got it. We're not far from the monkeys. Okay. Let's move on, because there are a huge number of questions, I don't know how long we'll be on this broadcast, but I'll ask all the questions that were sent to me.

Irina: By the way, he responds quite quickly.

Maxim: Yes. We have a chat in Telegram, it's called "Q&A Live". You can ask questions not only here, on YouTube, but also in the Telegram chat.

"Maxim is illiterate." Absolutely illiterate, guys, don't worry.

Irina: I will also ask Boris to answer – he already does this and that – briefly on each question.

45:17 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the collapse of the country's economy.

Maxim: Yes. Good. They ask: were you a member of a Masonic lodge?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): No.

Maxim: That is, he did not participate in Freemasonry.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): No. Not interesting.

Maxim: Is it true that your consultants were employees of the Central Intelligence Agency?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

He was talking about the Americans.

Maxim: So the Americans were consulting, right?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): They advised me, and our Duma, and the Council of Ministers, and the army, and everyone, so that we could move to democratic rails after totalitarian ones.

Maxim: They write: "Either he's a fool or he's lying. The Constitution was written in Washington." Guys, he said that they helped write the Constitution, they proposed their own specific provisions.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): They didn't force you to accept it, they just gave you advice and that's it. And there was no such thing as them directly saying "accept it and that's it."

Maxim: But they say that Bill Clinton laughed at you when you were drunk and dancing on stage. Was that really true?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): If I said what he did when he was drunk.

Better not talk about it.

Maxim: Did he also drink often?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): He was an amateur, but he hid it more carefully than I did. In the society where he lived, the president could be fired. His Parliament could fire him much easier than me, they had such laws, the president for America is all the same as a hired employee.

Maxim: I understand. In general, many of us think that you sold Russia to America. Do you agree with this statement?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No. What do you mean sold?

Maxim: I have some information that was sent to me, I will read it out, if possible, I just want to hear some comments from you on it. I have a very large amount of this information:

"We have achieved what President Truman intended to do with the atomic bomb, with one major difference: "We have obtained a raw materials appendage" (this was said by the President of the United States Bill Clinton about Russia). That is, President Truman could not have achieved this even with the atomic bomb.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Well, "raw material appendage", if those are his words, I would answer him if he is talking about what raw material - oil? Well, it was the same under Brezhnev - sometimes grain was sold abroad, sometimes oil. And how was it not a raw material appendage then?

Maxim: The total losses from the destruction of the country's economy in 1996 alone were two and a half times greater than the losses in the Great Patriotic War. Is that true?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): This is inflation, meaning the consequences of the economic crisis that occurred as a result of the transition to a market economy, and everyone foresaw this, including many economic institutions. And without such upheavals it was impossible to get out of the situation in which the Soviet Union was destroyed.

Maxim: Under the guillotine of privatization, on your order, 261 defense enterprises immediately went, the most unique, the best, the elite of the defense industry. Just one of the hundreds of American "predator firms" that flocked in, these are companies such as Nick&C Corporation, bought up shares of the Kursk "Pribor", "Avionics", Tushino Machine-Building Plant. 19 military plants ended up in the hands of Nick&C Corporation alone. Is that so?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I did attract foreign investors. And by the way, at whose instigation? Everyone wanted me to attract foreign investors. And what will they buy, boots from the Ivanovo factory? They don't need them, they make their own.

Maxim: So they bought military defense enterprises?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Invested in stocks and started to make a profit from them. Why did we need so many defense enterprises that the country itself could no longer handle? If they were built in Soviet times, and the lion's share of the budget went there, because of this, ordinary builders, collective farmers, janitors did hard work and walked around their entire lives in two changes of underwear. So you think this state of affairs is normal?

Maxim: I don't know, I haven't thought about that yet. That is, these enterprises only pulled money out of the budget and didn't bring money into the budget, am I right?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): And what can they bring to the budget if it needs a constant infusion of money, raw materials, all sorts of minerals, and so on? I'm not even talking about the working hands, who, by the way, were paid salaries from the state treasury.

Maxim: The country's domestic product has decreased by 28% under your rule. Russia has never seen such a decline in national production in any other year, not even during the First World War, when production decreased by 25%, nor during the Civil War - by 23%, nor during the Great Patriotic War - by 21%. 28 percent!

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Here (he shows), you see, so, at the expense of what did this production in the Soviet Union survive, which fell by 28%? At the expense of the fact that there was a planned economy, there were certain state enterprises that paid money, a certain salary, and were dependent on state subsidies from the state treasury. And as soon as they were privatized, and people saw that they too could become owners and could become entrepreneurs, a large percentage of them simply went into trade and into people serving the trade sector, for example, banks, security companies, insurance agencies, and so on. And, of course, why should he grind some parts at a factory for 200 rubles if he can become an entrepreneur and trade them? I won't force him to do it if he doesn't want to.

52:50 The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin on privatization.

Maxim: Okay, fine, let's move on. Such fundamental industries as mechanical engineering, electricity production, water, river, and air transport, communications facilities ended up in the private hands of foreign companies and criminal structures; more than 90% of shares in non-ferrous metallurgy enterprises now belonged to Western companies. Why was this done?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Why didn't people buy them with their investment shares that were issued? Why did they allow foreign investors to buy them all? There were free trades. Why didn't people come and invest their investment shares in these shares?

Maxim: Because, probably, people simply didn’t have money, and they sold it?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): How could there not have been money? Each person was given a document stating that all the property of state enterprises was valued at almost 150 trillion rubles, and they were given to each person (shows the paper), and the value of this paper was 10,000 rubles. That is, these trillions of rubles of valued state property were divided among 140 million people. How else?

Maxim: Do you want to say that it was for trillions of rubles, and all these trillions of rubles then went into the budget?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): How did they come into the budget if we made every person the owner of this share.

Maxim: So, each person with this voucher, so to speak, had to use it as he saw fit?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Of course. Why did we create this law in the first place?

Maxim: It turned out that those who had money simply bought up these vouchers, and with these vouchers they acquired a share of the enterprises, is that how it works?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): You want to say that the voucher itself was paid for, yes, it cost 25 rubles, and that was just for its registration, but there were 10,000 invested there, from all the enterprises of the Soviet Union, in which a Soviet person, from infancy to old age, could acquire. They were given to everyone, why didn't you go and invest, like these Western investors, in these defense enterprises, as you said, minerals, transport?

Maxim: But where can our people get such money for this?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): They weren’t accepted for money.

Maxim: Not for money, yes, it turns out they had to unite into structures.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Why?

Maxim: How could they use their voucher, hand it in?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): You could simply leave Moscow and St. Petersburg. Go to those regions where this or that company sold its shares cheaper for people. If, for example, 50 (shows), I don't remember exactly how, but I'll say approximately - 40, 50 Gazprom shares in Moscow cost these 10,000 rubles, you could buy them. But you could go, for example (shows), to the Orenburg region and buy them there for 10 times more. Why didn't you go and buy them? And the government is again to blame.

Maxim: From the sale of the largest Russian enterprises, the value of which at the minimum price exceeded a trillion dollars, the treasury received seven billion 200 million dollars.

Irina: He says that he already said that it was decided to distribute all this property among the residents with these vouchers.

Maxim: And, accordingly, everyone sold these vouchers as they wanted, right?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): My mother-in-law told me that her friend, some Stepan, went and simply sold his voucher for two bottles of vodka. Should I stop him? He simply drank it away. So he could have drunk away his house, too, maybe I should let him live in my apartment then? I can let him in, but he'll drink away all my property. That's the kind of person he is.

Of course, I understand that there were people who did not understand what to do with them, but they could have consulted with lawyers, with economists and thought carefully about where to invest that share of the property that the government allocated to them as former residents of the Soviet Union, who invested their labor in the creation of these state enterprises. And this voucher was compensation for those deposits that were destroyed by inflation in 1992. This same state paid off its citizens with its property.

59:05 The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin on lending by foreign banks.

Maxim: Okay, fine. There was a consortium of commercial banks that issued a loan of 250 million dollars to the Government of the Russian Federation, receiving oil, gas, and the largest super-profitable enterprises as collateral. But before the banks issued the loan to the state, the Ministry of Finance placed almost the same amount of so-called free currency funds of the federal budget in these banks.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): So these funds were from foreign banks.

Maxim: So it turns out that foreign banks provided loans to our state, and in return took on obligations for oil, gas and everything else?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Well, not obligations, because when foreign countries financed our treasury, the order of return of this debt was signed. In fact, I know that my successor has already returned a lot.

Maxim: It turns out that the banks were lending to the state with state money. It wasn't so much foreign money, it turns out, it was federal money that was in the government's accounts, with the same money, it turns out.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): There simply wasn't enough money collected from the treasury to support the social structure: salaries, pensions, health care, even for road construction. And additional money was needed, so they borrowed it.

Maxim: It turns out that oil companies, gas companies, and major deposits were given as collateral. Although the federal budget draft did not include the redemption of collateral.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): But then they returned it later, when the state treasury began to receive tax profits, and the price of oil abroad began to rise again, everything went to the treasury. Even if a private company sold oil, it paid taxes, and all of this replenished the treasury, and therefore these debts were gradually paid off.

1:01:35 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on privatization and the closure of military bases.

Maxim: According to the conclusion of the Accounts Chamber, privatization contributed to the establishment of control by foreign persons over strategically important economically significant enterprises of the defense industry.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Important to whom? Why weren't they important at the time when they were sold at such a low price, as you claim? Those who were important to them would have gone and bought them.

Maxim: Who could buy them in the country where all this was happening? People didn't have money. People didn't have money for food, people didn't have money for housing, who could buy what the state was selling?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Wait. How come there was no money? The thing is (shows) people sold and transported abroad those goods that needed to be sold in Russia, and they got rich from this. They had money.

Maxim: I understand. And what about the military bases in Vietnam's Cam Ranh Bay in the Indian Ocean, the Persian Gulf, the naval bases in Tartus in Syria? All of this was closed and given away.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Why do we need to support all these socialist governments, which even in their own countries no one could really stand?

Maxim: So these bases were closed only because neither we nor they needed to maintain them?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Why should we maintain bases in a foreign country, spend our state's money, the money that our treasury collected? Why should we maintain all these bases, feed some puppet governments that will bring communism that we ourselves were unable to build?

1:03:43 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the sale of state assets.

Maxim: Okay. Over the course of a year, $30 billion worth of state assets in the electric power industry were sold. What portion of these thirty billion went to the state budget? I'll answer for you - zero. Why?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Why zero? There were certain percentages from sales as taxes. And the Ministry of Finance was in charge of these receipts (shows). When some enterprise was privatized, it was often privatized for free. That is, people did not pay anything for the privatization, here the cost of the enterprises themselves was simply calculated. But no one set any cost for them. Why? Because we were interested in transferring everything to people as private property, and not selling it, so that they would already begin free market relations and build a democratic state on this basis. But they still paid some tax for this privatization, but it was small.

1:05:17 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the sale of uranium to the USA and the export of gold abroad.

Maxim: Okay, let's put the cherry on the cake, the cherry on top - what can you say about this? Just two seconds.

There was a sale to the United States of 500 tons of weapons-grade uranium for 12 billion dollars. Although the price of weapons-grade uranium on the black market was 60 billion dollars per ton. That is, 500 tons for 60 billion per ton were sold for 12 billion. Why?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): When you decide to sell something and want it to be bought from you, and you don't need this object, but you need money for it, naturally, you will start to lower the price compared to your competitors. This is the basis of the market. What's so special about that?

Maxim: Wait, please, wait. So you're saying that these 500 tons of weapons-grade uranium couldn't have been sold to other countries for a higher price?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No, no one else bought them except them. That's exactly the amount.

Maxim: Why not sell one ton? Why did you have to sell 500 tons?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Because this money was needed quickly, that's the first reason, and the second reason is that these 500 tons didn't solve anything for us. What were they needed for? By the way, they were extracted specifically for sale. If you knew how much oil, gas, and other minerals were sold, for example, it was much more than uranium.

If you knew that practically the entire apparatus of Gorbachev, Rutskoi and so on transported boxes of gold on Aeroflot planes, which was stored in the basements (shows) of our Central Bank, and transported it all abroad and sold it to jewelers. Do you know that in general, between 1987 and 1993, these "selfless communists" took out about 2,000 tons of gold. Now calculate how much 500 tons of uranium and 2,000 tons of gold cost. Or do you want to tell me what it is?

Maxim: I know that 1,000 tons of Russian gold from 1994 to 1995 were exported to banks in England, Latin America, Australia, and Romania. Is that true?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, but they made it out as if they were buying grain. Yes, they bought grain, gave orders, secretly of course, to their tamed regional committees, so that they, for example, delayed harvesting the fields for a few days, and it all rotted. So you think this is normal practice? And then they made it out that "we are buying, we have nothing to eat, the people are rebelling, Moscow is starving, it's almost a war", let's buy it with our gold. Not with money, because Soviet money is not quoted anywhere, but with gold.

Maxim: But wasn’t it like that? Weren’t products bought for gold?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Two packages of soap and three packages of toilet paper? And why did people, speculators, buy up their own in 1987 and export it to Turkey in whole sacks? Because they needed to get rich. So who opened the gates for foreign trade? Did I open them? This was 1987. Who was I in 1987, what power did I really have?

1:09:23 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the transfer of territories to the West and China.

Maxim: Okay, let's move on. Another "cherry on the cake". You gave the US 200 Russian miles of economic zone, 7.7 thousand square kilometers of water surface and 46.3 thousand square kilometers of continental shelf.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Where is it? Name it.

Maxim: I can't name it, there's just information here. I ask you to comment.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): There was no such thing. I think you are confusing me with Shevardnadze again. It was America, we have only one sea border. You just said about America.

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): We have a maritime border with America. Do you know where it is?

Maxim: Where?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): What sea does it pass through, for example? Well, there is the Chukotka Peninsula and (shows) the Bering Strait, it passes into the Sea of Okhotsk. And it is precisely about this continental shelf and this sea territory that you are talking about, that it was given to America?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I didn't sign it, it was before the collapse of the USSR and before I came to power, Gorbachev and Shevardnadze decided such issues. And, by the way, I asked him this question too. While he was still alive. And he told me that he did it in order to sign an agreement with the American president on rapprochement between the USSR and the Russian Federation (USA - editor's note). That is, he made concessions to them, because this made America make concessions in other ways. For example, it signed (shows) an agreement that softened its policy towards the Soviet Union.

Maxim: Okay, but the 86 thousand square kilometers of Russian territory in the economic zone of the Barents Sea that was given to Norway – that’s not about you either?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): In my presence.

Maxim: Why was this done?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): It wasn't me who decided this, it was (shows) the consuls who decided, and they decided that Norway has a legitimate claim to these territories, some documents were shown.

Maxim: And did China receive Tarabarov Island and part of Bolshoy Ussuriysky Island in the Amur River bed?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Documents were also shown that showed that the Soviet Union did not quite legally own these lands. That is, it was returned (shows some papers).

Maxim: So it’s possible to show some papers and get back some parts of the territory?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): These were not just some papers, these were precisely those proving that they had the right to this territory. Yes, that was the case.

Maxim: And who did you consult with, you and who was nearby, when you handed over this territory back?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): With the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (shows several people consulting with each other). They say that the claims of these countries have a basis, and agree to them. That's the first thing. Of course, we could have ignored all this and said again, "No, this is ours, we won't give it up," but we took such steps to show the world that we are open to cooperation.

Maxim: For the distribution of territories?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): What do you mean "for distributing territories"? I'll say it again, they took this island. They didn't say, "Give us this territory, behind this island, for example." That was the argument. For example, now, Finland didn't come, the representatives of Finland didn't say, "Give us St. Petersburg, because this city is on lands that used to belong to our king." Although that's true. But they didn't come because there was a certain agreement, there were international treaties, according to which St. Petersburg belonged specifically to Russia. Although there was a time when these lands actually belonged to Sweden. They didn't come and say, "Since this belonged to Sweden, give us this city now." In that case, we can go to Warsaw, for example, and also say, "Here are the documents according to which Warsaw belongs to the Russian Empire, and therefore to the Russian Federation as the successor." That's not how things are done, it's all a matter of certain international treaties.

1:15:37 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the spiritual reason for the collapse of the USSR.

Maxim: Tell me, please, now, being in the Spiritual World at the fourth level, what do you think was the spiritual reason for the collapse of the USSR?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): The spiritual reason for the collapse of the USSR is the ignorance and selfishness of the people, and that is why each time such rulers came who pushed the country into the abyss.

The ignorance and egoism of the people consisted of the following. I will tell you now as a wise man. Why does everyone praise the Soviet Union? They praise it because there were high salaries, high pensions, but at the same time everything in the stores was cheap. That is, there was a good life, free medicine, free education, and at the same time everything was high-quality, everything was cheap, and a person could live well on his salary.

But I'll ask you this question now: if the salaries in the cities were high, and then, accordingly, the workers in the cities had high pensions, who worked in different specialties. All the products were cheap, they could buy a lot of, for example, food products with their salaries, but they didn't produce them themselves. If these products could be bought in large quantities for this money, it meant that the products themselves, compared to the ruble, did not have such a high price. Do you understand what I'm talking about?

Maxim: I understand.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): And what did that mean? That means either the producers of these products should have received even more, right? But they received several times less than the city dwellers. Why did that happen? Because the state needed to keep prices low. And the state kept prices low at the cost of humiliating the peasantry. And that's called "ignorance," "egoism," "slave system," only covered up with high-flown words. And that's why it all collapsed. In the end, people saw that they worked a lot, they fed the cities, but earned little. In some cases, they even worked for "sticks" in a notebook.

1:18:46 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on his achievements.

Maxim: What do you think was the most significant achievement during your presidency?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I believe that my entire presidency was significant in that I was able to turn the country from a socialist and especially a totalitarian model of society to a democratic, open and market system. It was not that easy, but the reforms and changes that I undertook allowed us to save the country from disintegrating into separate regions, independent of each other, and to prepare it for the economic growth that occurred after I left the presidency. All the economic growth that my successor and his government achieved occurred on the basis, the foundation of the structure that we built. Although there was a danger that not only the Soviet Union would disintegrate in 1991, but also that many regions would leave Russia.

1:20:19 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the predictions of collapse after the collapse of the USSR.

Maxim: This is precisely a question about the autonomous "Ural Republic". You initially supported making it an autonomous republic, but then abandoned the idea, removing Eduard Rossel from office for exceeding his authority. That is, you initially wanted it, but then changed your mind. How did that happen?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): You could say they convinced me (shows two men as advisers - Sasha and Zhora), and they convinced me that if sovereignty were to be given to separate regions or some separate territory, then all this would lead to me remaining in Moscow to rule the Moscow Republic.

Maxim: I see. Tell me, please, did you know about the plan by the United States of America to divide the old Soviet Union into autonomous regions?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): You see, the thing is, in the United States of America, naturally, the situation in the Soviet Union was studied, and various situations were predicted, connected with what would happen after the collapse of the USSR. It wasn't even that there was a plan, it was, rather, how can I put it, a political assumption. Do you know what a political analyst is?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): This is a political analysis of what will happen in the event of the collapse of the Soviet Union. We also had political analysts who calculated different situations. But, indeed, there were such assumptions that everything could go down the path of Russia's collapse. But our country did not go down this path.

1:22:31 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about the Kuril Islands.

Maxim: Thank you. Tell me, please, when you were flying to Japan in 1992, you wanted to hand over several Kuril Islands to Japan, what made you change your mind?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, indeed, I wanted to convey. Why? I thought that they were not as important for Russia as they were for Japan, Japan is an island state, there is very little land there, and they fight for every little piece. And I understood perfectly well that such a gesture would be perceived as a sign of friendship with our country. And, of course, I hoped that after this step the Japanese government would also meet us halfway, provide investments and create joint companies with our businessmen.

Maxim: Yes, they were already ready to transfer 100 billion dollars.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): And it will provide jobs. But (shows) they talked me out of it, that is, they scared me that the people would overthrow me.

Maxim: Was Rogozin really a powerful psychic operator, and is it true that he said: “As soon as Yeltsin hands over the islands to Japan, China will immediately make claims to Russia on its disputed territories, and an armed conflict could begin?”

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): It wasn't him who told me that (shows Viktor Chernomyrdin, do you know him?)

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Viktor Chernomyrdin told me this, but he said something slightly different: if I hand over the islands, then I will be accused of selling out Russian territory and therefore being a traitor. He said: "Even your army will be against you. And you won't be able to do anything." I asked: "How do you know?" - and he said: "I know about the mood among the top generals and among the security forces."

Maxim: So you were already flying on a plane to hand over the Kuril Islands, so you changed your mind right on the plane, or something?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I was actually flying to the negotiations, but during the flight I was thinking about this conversation with Viktor Chernomyrdin, weighing everything and hesitating until the negotiations themselves. That is, nothing had been decided yet, but here are the hesitations (shows). Then I finally refused.

1:25:35 The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin on Boris Nemtsov and the Chechen War.

Maxim: Tell me, please, when you took Boris Nemtsov from Nizhny Novgorod to Moscow, did you see him as your successor or something else?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No, he was too harsh and rude for a successor, despite the fact that he was always very active, I understood that he had no place as president, because he was very emotionally unrestrained. He could not restrain himself and could do bad things for our country.

Maxim: Got it. Boris, please tell me, why did you entrust the negotiations to Prime Minister Chernomyrdin when Chechen fighters attacked Budyonnovsk?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Not only him, there was a whole apparatus (shows) of combat generals, for example, Alexander Lebed was there, do you know him? He was there too, and, by the way, I didn't want to go to the negotiations, it's just that people are already coming out with posters: "No to war!" In principle, I listened to the voice of the people.

Although even the American Bill Clinton even wanted to support me in this war.

Maxim: And why didn’t you support it?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): He said: "Ask me for help whenever you want." But people started going out to the squares with posters (shows) saying that there should be no war. I stopped it, one might say, half a step away from victory. I was accused of many Russian people dying. There were also articles in the press showing some not very pleasant actions by Russian soldiers, such as attacks on villages with women and children. You probably saw that.

Maxim: I read the comments and I don’t understand, do people not hear anything at all?

Irina: What happened?

Maxim: There are such comments.

Irina: I just don’t see them.

Maxim: "To hell with him." And, guys, don't you really want to find out the reason, what happened? In general...

Irina: What do they write there?

Maxim: Oh well, I think those who watch this video will read the comments, because the chat will be recorded.

Irina: What kind of question is that?

1:28:33 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the 1996 elections.

Maxim: We touched on Lebed. Was he killed?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I think so.

Maxim: What do you mean, “I think”?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I think he was "ordered". But he will probably tell about it himself, because I can only guess, I have not met him.

Maxim: Please tell me, who and how helped you win the Russian elections in 1996? According to the security service, you spent about one billion US dollars on the entire company, circumventing the current legislation. Is this true?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Businessmen helped me, for example, some Vladimirs (shows), some Gusinsky.

Maxim: There was one.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Poltoranin, Deripaska (I don't know who that is) and Berezovsky.

Maxim: They sponsored this whole event?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, they told me. We gathered about ten people (shows the meeting), they gathered and talked (now I will translate into literary language).

Maxim: What do you have there, unliterary swearing?

Irina: What they told him.

Maxim: Okay, in general, literary.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): They said: "It's the end of your political career, because very few people really support you." I said: "I don't want to myself" (shows that he himself didn't want to run for a term in '96).

Maxim: You didn’t want to go yourself?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes. They said: "Then it will be Zyuganov." In general, they said that if I don't go, then Zyuganov will come with his apparatus and return everything back, and that means nationalization of the enterprises privatized with such difficulty.

Maxim: I understand. And tell me, were there any falsifications?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): What a strange question. I didn't count. I was just accepting congratulations.

1:31:57 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about the Ipatiev House.

Maxim: I heard you. I understand. Tell me, please, you ordered the demolition of the house in which the Bolsheviks shot the family of Nicholas II. For what reasons was that?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): At that time, I thought that it was a negative memory of the event that had happened. This is the house where such evil was committed, a crime of the communist regime. As a sign of protest (shows a protest). The Tsar, who had already abdicated the throne, with his children - with his girlfriends, with his minor son - were brutally murdered in secret from the people. They became, as it were, sacred victims of the communist regime. And as a sign of protest, so that there would be no reminder of this (shows).

1:33:15 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on the tasks of incarnation and contacts with the Interstellar Union.

Maxim: I understand. Now, two seconds. Tell me, please, why are you then on the fourth level, if everything is going so well for you?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I didn't complete the task and accumulated a lot of negative feelings, negative emotions. I didn't complete my tasks, I had other tasks.

Maxim: What were your tasks?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I had the task of studying healing, esotericism, I was interested in esoteric things, I even talked with contactees (shows), but I myself did not do this.

Maxim: Did you believe in aliens?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I knew that there was an Interstellar Union, and I was given information from the secret service.

Maxim: Did you know that the Interstellar Union exists?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Of course. I read it.

Maxim: Were you at the contacts yourself?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin’s Spirit): No, I wasn’t at the contacts, I didn’t need it, but they gave me the documents where the contacts were recorded.

Maxim: Tell me, please, when they transfer documents, do they really not transfer these contacts, the people who are in contact?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): There were lists of people, data on these contacts, I looked through it all. There was an analysis of what this contact could bring for the Russian Federation, the continuation of these contacts, what civilizations there are. There were not very friendly remarks regarding civilizations.

Maxim: What kind of unfriendly remarks, what kind of character?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Under the guise of moral values, alien civilizations want to establish their dictatorship here.

Maxim: I understand, these are the conditions that need to be met to join the Interstellar Union. I understand what you're talking about. Yes, guys, if you want to see what it is, we have a video "Conditions for joining the Interstellar Union", you read it and you'll understand why he said that. By the way, I understand you, yes.

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I know about these conditions.

1:35:27 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about Vanga’s prediction.

Maxim: Yes, I understand. I know that Vanga wanted to see you personally, but you didn't go to her, but sent someone on your behalf. What did Vanga tell you?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): She gave it to me (shows), as a warning, precisely about the fact that there would be an attempt on my life. I believed it, and on those days (shows) that she named, I did not appear in those places that were dangerous.

1:36:18 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about his successor.

Maxim: This is a very serious question: how did you find a successor, who recommended a successor to you for the position of president?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): You know, many people recommended someone to me, but I made the decision myself.

Maxim: What were the reasons for making such a decision?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I looked closely at this man, studied his biography and the personal file that was opened on him, his service record. You probably know that the security agencies keep personal files?

Maxim: Yes, I know.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I ordered it to be brought to me, studied it, then talked to him several times, asked him various questions: about our state, about our state system, to which other people somehow did not find an answer or found vague answers. But he always gave very clear and precise answers, and I gave him the task (shows) at the post where he was, to prepare a certain draft law, to give his analysis of a particular situation, and I was very surprised by his brevity and precision.

I thought for a long time about who could be my successor, and I thought that it should be a young man who is not from the old party apparatus, as I was. And at the same time strong, strong-willed, self-confident, smart, well versed in jurisprudence, economics and market relations. And also who is a good diplomat - he traveled with me (he shows some joint trips abroad). I saw how he communicates with foreign colleagues. And this also influenced my choice.

I thought that he was the one who deserved to take the place of the president. I asked him about it first: "Do you want to be president?" He even refused. Not that he refused, he said: "I don't want to, I'm not ready for this post." It was in 1999, in the summer, in my office. And the fact that he said "I don't want to" was the last straw for appointing him, because he wasn't eager for power, he didn't rub his hands in glee in an impulse to rule and change the country the way he wanted.

Maxim: Very interesting. I heard you.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): But then I called him again, asked him to think about it, and said that there were no other candidates. And he said, "Well, what a hard fate you're preparing for me!" That's how he took it. And I said, "What can we do if there's no one else." And then he agreed.

Maxim: It's really interesting, really. Do you think he's up to the task?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): This was before the moment I left the incarnation?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): In general, yes, but there were some rough spots, connected, so to speak, with his past in the security forces – he was used to solving problems by bans. And I personally told him about this. These are the kind of rough spots that, in my opinion, did not affect Russia's general path. Although I was somewhat wary of the "tightening of the screws", so to speak.

Maxim: I understand. I even understand what you're talking about. The security forces have this.

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): For example, the gradual taking away of freedom from the press, as well as the tightening of laws in relation to freedom of speech, freedom of opinion and other matters.

Maxim: It’s okay, this happens in all states, in all countries.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I didn't have that.

Maxim: Please tell me, after the exhumation procedure, were the missing remains of the last member of the Romanov royal family found?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): No (he has no information).

Maxim: Ah, you have no information at all on this information?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): Yes.

1:42:39 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin about advisers and their contacts.

Maxim: Apart from members of your family, has anyone from your circle been the most useful advisor to you as head of state, to Russia and to the world as a whole?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): For example, the same Zhora Rogozin advised me a lot, he is a contactee, in your words “contactee”, and this is a wise person who can advise even down to where to sleep and what to eat so that there is no energetic damage.

Maxim: Weren’t you really interested in communicating with extraterrestrial civilizations?

Irina (The Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I was interested, but they didn’t fly to see me.

Maxim: And through Zhora, let's say, to communicate. Did you communicate through Zhora?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): No, he didn't suggest that he would directly communicate with aliens for me. I just knew that he was in contact, but I didn't specify with whom, and I simply asked him for advice, for opinions that were important to me. And in general, I wasn't so interested in contact with aliens through an intermediary. I understand that the intermediary will still bring something of his own. If I was interested in contact, it was only face to face.

1:44:06 The spirit of Boris Yeltsin on his presidency.

Maxim: Interesting. Please tell me how your children are doing in life? Is it true that your daughter was an advisor to your government?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): Yes, but she wanted it herself. I think they've settled down quite well and are living happily.

Maxim: How do you assess your role in the history of Russia and the influence of your rule on the current political situation in the country?

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): My assessment, dear friends, I will repeat myself, is that, unfortunately, I have not fulfilled all your wishes and have not fulfilled everything that I promised. I was unable to fulfill much of what I promised and was unable to make you completely happy and our country prosperous. I was somewhat naive in relation to, how to say, the degree of penetration of the psychology of a person who is not a creator, but a parasite. The degree of penetration of this psychology into the consciousness of Soviet people. It will take several more generations in our country for this parasitic consciousness to emerge from new generations, because in capitalist countries people are accustomed to not relying on the state, not relying on a strong tsar, they are accustomed to being responsible for their own lives from childhood. They are more resilient and can be responsible for themselves, for example, not only for their state, but also for the place where they live.

For as long as I've been in America (shows), if they see some violation of the law, they immediately report it to certain authorities, they don't just pass by. If they see some garbage dump somewhere in nature, people will clean it up, they will improve this area and won't add new garbage to it, because "that's what everyone does."

Maxim: By the way, they are conveying gratitude to you for Vladimir Vladimirovich, for the fact that you chose him.

Irina (Boris Yeltsin's Spirit): I am also turning to you and asking your forgiveness for not fulfilling all my dreams and not fulfilling all my wishes and all the promises I made. I did not do this because I wanted to somehow profit from you - I had enough of everything, even when I was the boss, the director of the Sverdlovsk construction plant. I had everything I needed to be happy, even then I had everything.

Maxim: Boris, please tell me, what illnesses did you have in general, what illnesses did you have during the process, at the end of your life?

Irina (Spirit of Boris Yeltsin): I had a heart attack (shows how her heart hurt).

Maxim: I understand.

Formation of Religions on Earth. The Concept of "Sect" https://blog.cassiopeia.center/formirovanie-religij-na-zemle-ponyatie-sekty

Religions on Earth are formed from small groups. We will tell you a little about what is called "sects". You have all heard the word "sect", it is on everyone's lips. It is interpreted by modern people as a negative phenomenon. For various reasons. All large religions are formed from small sects.

A sect is a group of people who have accepted the teaching about God or about Higher Powers, about the invisible world, invisible Spirits, about rituals of communication with them, which is not similar to the religious ideas of society. Buddhism, Christianity, Islam are the three largest religions. Judaism is the fourth religion.

There was a time when these religions did not exist. The prophets who brought these religions, the religious teachers who brought the ideas, were only preachers of the new truth, which they received, most often, in contacts with their Higher Self, with the Angel-consultant, with the Interstellar Union, with plasmoids, etc.

Most often, the founders of religions were universal contactees. Or, as in the case of Jesus Christ, they were half human, half alien. He was a contactee from childhood. A group of followers that gathered around the founder of a religion was called a sect.

And only several centuries after the religious teacher left incarnation, a large religion was created by his followers on the basis of his actions, words that were written down by students or passed down from memory.

If people call someone a sect, it means that this is a small seed, possibly of a large tree of religion. Whether it will develop into a religion or not depends on many factors, the main one being the need and relevance of these ideas for planet Earth. If it is relevant, then the seed will sprout and bear fruit 30, 60 or 100 times, depending on how much this idea is accepted by the hearts of other people.

Each person explains religion to himself in his own way, gives his own interpretations of the meanings that he reads in religious books. Religions are created by the same people as us, based on the messages that are transmitted by contactees, even with the Spiritual world. A person is in contact with Higher beings, higher vibrational.

The purpose of creating a religion is to increase the awareness of earthlings, to increase their vibration level so that they would know the commandments of God, that there is a Spiritual world, spiritual laws. Their violation, as well as the violation of physical laws, sometimes leads to the physical death of the organism. For example, you cannot jump out of a window of the 10th or 14th floor, remain alive and unharmed. This is a violation of physical laws. Also in the spiritual sphere there are laws, violating which the Spirit spiritually dies, that is, moves away from the Source of life. Religions speak about this in the language of their time, their country and those preachers who carry the ideas of this small sect further.

All religions started from small sects. The same applies to Christianity. 2000, even 1900 years ago it was a small sect within the Jewish religion.

On the Probability of the Forced Introduction of a New Religion. The Experience of the Incarnation of the Spirit during the War https://blog.cassiopeia.center/o-veroyatnosti-nasilstvennogo-vnedreniya-novoj-rel

The introduction of a new religion at that moment in time, when people's awareness was at the level it was at the time of the introduction of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, really, according to the lines of probability on the Timeline, did not suggest any outcome other than war.

It was clear from the probability lines that if monotheistic religions had not been created, these polytheistic religions would still have entered into military conflicts, and the same people, the same Spirits, only for a different reason: the seizure of territory, the struggle of different priestly classes, that is, the war that was waged for the sake of introducing a new cult would simply have been waged for a different reason: preserving their territories, for example, or revenge for some insult. That aggressive energy that accumulated in the egregors of the Earth had to find an outlet in active actions, otherwise it would have destroyed people's bodies.

Physical war, physical battle is only the last stage of the aggressive energy accumulated in the Earth's noosphere. First there is a long period of aggression within some people, within some group, and only after a fairly long period of time does it develop into physical actions.

It was through monotheistic religions that a greater opportunity was given to each person to come closer to the one God than in polytheistic religions, because it was said that there is one Creator and Father of all people on Earth, who is love, to whom one must strive if one wants to live in peace, as He is the King of peace. This was done, including for the sake of ending wars, violence, and injustice.

Why do these things still exist on Earth after such a long time?

I want to remind you that the age of your earthly civilization is only one tenth of the age of more developed races in the Galaxy. You still have a long way to go in terms of development. Many civilizations have gone through this period of social upheaval, wars. And I also want to say that the Spirit who is born on a certain planet in a certain historical period is necessarily introduced to the fact that military actions are possible with such and such a degree of probability, in which he will most likely participate if he agrees to incarnation. Or if there is some kind of epidemic or some other disaster that can lead to a premature exit from incarnation. And for this Spirit, for example, the period of incarnation is 75 years, but in this territory the probability of military actions is 70%. If he is born a man, with such and such a degree of probability he can participate in them and with such and such a degree of probability he can die in them. Approximately such plans of incarnation are given to the Spirit, they are told to him, and he himself sees it. All this happens in mental contact with mentors.

And many Spirits who need to process themselves, harmonize the energy of aggression and learn, for example, to love enemies, to come to terms with the loss of the physical body at any age, that is, to completely trust God, choose the experience of incarnation in such years of instability, conflicts, revolutions.

#588 Galaxy Light Network – New Transformational Practice. Interstellar and Cosmic Energies.
https://blog.cassiopeia.center/svetovaya-set-galaktiki-novaya-transformacionnaya https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8qpiRQ7nNSo

00:00 Start of video.

00:20 Introduction.

Irina: At present, the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy (TLNG) includes one thousand six hundred seventy-four (1,674) subtle-material star civilizations. I have been working with earthly contactees for three thousand (3,000) years. We can only help, but we will not live your life for you and will not go through your spiritual lessons for you.

00:53 Introduction of participants.

Julia: Greetings to all. My name is Julia Zinnurova. I am a representative of the Cassiopeia team, a guide to the Higher Self and a volunteer of the Project. Greetings to you, Irina! Please tell us who is present with us today.

Irina: Hello, dear friends! My name is Irina Podzorova. I am a contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations. Today with us is a representative of the planet Disaru, known on Earth as Saint-Germain. He has lived on our planet for quite a long time under the guise of an earthling. He is very similar to earthlings. The representatives of his planet are our genetic relatives. They are practically no different from us. That is, an inhabitant of the planet Disaru can be dressed in our clothes, and he will look almost like an earthling.

We are also joined by three representatives of plasmoid civilizations. Today we will talk about a new practice called "Connection to the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy" or simply the Light Network of the Galaxy (LNG). These are star plasmoids, representatives (they are showing me the stars now) of Vega, Canopus and Aldebaran.

They say that their names cannot be pronounced in human language.

So, to simplify our conversation, so as not to introduce ourselves with meaningless names or sets of sounds, we propose to address us by the names of our stars. If we call ourselves "Rorumi" or "Tutumi", so to speak, it will not be any different in accuracy than if we call ourselves Vega, Canopus and Aldebaran. They say that this is to simplify our conversation. That is how they speak now.

Julia: What density level are they?

Irina: Vega is the 36th density level, Canopus is the 17th density level, Aldebaran is the 56th density level.

Julia: Nice to meet you! Hello everyone again!

Irina: (Saint-Germain speaks) Greetings. And I am from the third level of density.

03:52 Definition, location of the Light Network of the Galaxy.

Julia: We are also from the third level of density. The capital of the Galaxy's Light Network is on which star?

Irina: We will talk about what the Network is. It is an energy field system not of the entire Galaxy, but only of the three hundred and eighty-sixth sector (386), according to the terminology of the Interstellar Union.

Our Galaxy is divided into sectors. Each sector goes from the core of the Galaxy and covers a certain space. Therefore, it cannot be called the capital, but it can be called the Decision-Making Center, which is located in the core of the Galaxy.

When viewed from Earth, the core of the Galaxy is located in the part of the sky occupied by the constellation Sagittarius.

Julia: Good! Since the spring of this year, training has begun at the second level of the School of Contactees, where those who wish can connect to the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy, which Irina has just told us about. In the circle of our guides to the Higher Self, we are already testing these energies, and we have positive results.

Irina: Excellent!

Julia: We even plan to launch a direction where masters could conduct SSG sessions with representatives of these civilizations for those who wish. Today at the conference we would like to examine some issues in more detail.

Irina: Yes, of course. They are telling me now: "We know that you and Irina are connected to the Galaxy Light Network. We will be happy to tell you."

Saint-Germain was the first to tell me about this Network and suggested that I first connect to it myself, and then connect others.

06:13 The relevance of connecting to the Light Network of the Galaxy.

Julia: We had a question: why did he decide to hand it over now, not earlier and not later?

Irina: (Laughs) I asked him about this too. Saint-Germain, I remember your answer. Please explain why you decided to transmit this method now?

(He says) I am not the only one who decided this. It was a joint decision of representatives of plasmoid civilizations, the Spiritual World, the Interstellar Union and the Galactic Federation of Light. The decision "right now" is due to the fact that the Earth is going through a difficult period of Quantum Transition. For the last few years, it has been in lower vibrations than is necessary for the Quantum Transition, than it should be normally.

To help the Souls that are incarnated on the third level of density during this period, it was decided to transfer the connection to the Network through the contactee right now, knowing that the contactee is participating in a large esoteric project and will be able not only to keep it for himself, but to pass it on to others.

07:45 Using the energies of the Light Grid on the planet Disaru.

Julia: Thank you! And how are these energies applied to Disaru and how are they used?

Irina: On Disaru we live in constant cooperation with the plasmoid civilizations of our planet, our star and the Galaxy as a whole. We do not have such a ritual of connection, we do it differently.

We have a slightly different state of the noosphere and energy of people. We use contacts not only for our own benefit, but also to help plasmoid civilizations. For example, to study our world, I mean the third density. In order to fill the space with positive energies and exchange information together. We cooperate with them in this. Conscious cooperation.

Julia: The Light Network is called transformational. How does the process of transformation (let's talk about people) happen in a person? What is used for a positive result?

Irina: At the moment, one thousand six hundred seventy-four (1,674) subtle-material star civilizations participate in the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy. That is, these are star plasmoids from different stars. Representatives of three stars are present here, and there are dozens of them from different constellations.

09:52 Definition of transformation within the Light Network of the Galaxy.

Irina: Transformation is a sharp change in a person's vibrations, feelings, desires, thoughts, emotions and will, which leads to the transformation of his entire life and to a change in his spiritual level. The word "transformation" can be translated as a blow, a push and a sharp change.

Transformation is assistance in development by a sharp change in vibrations. This state is achieved by directed flows of energies from different levels of density, with different frequency characteristics.

Naturally, these are ethereal energies, that is, the energies of those worlds in which intelligent Spirits who participate in helping are embodied in subtle bodies.

I remind you that there are 6,048 (six thousand forty eight) types of material energies. Of these, only nine are physical and 6,039 (six thousand thirty nine) are subtle etheric energies. Almost all types of energies are known and used in these plasmoid civilizations that work through the transformation network.

Many types are aimed at activating chakras, cleansing from blocks, cleansing from magical programs, healing various organs through the restoration of the etheric matrix of the field, harmonizing and strengthening contacts with various egregors, as well as weakening the effects of destructive egregors and destructive plasmoid civilizations.

12:21 The difference between the energies of TSSG and other energy practices.

Julia: Still, I would like to emphasize: what is the main difference between the energies of the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy and energies of, for example, Cosmoenergetics, Cosmohealing, Reiki? There are plasmoids in both. How are they different?

Irina: Cosmoenergetics are energies created mainly by humanoid civilizations of the planets Gihor, Gesam, Saama and others using technical means: similar to your electronic towers for cellular communication. Only they are in space and emit a different type of waves.

Or created by telepathic method. Through the Astral, a mental flow is fed, filled with images of health, happiness, which enters the subconscious of a person connecting to the channels of Cosmoenergy. He begins to believe in it. This can be voluntarily accepted by him, or not accepted. If he is not ready for changes, the channels will not affect him to the proper extent.

As for Reiki, this energy is very similar to that created by plasmoid civilizations, but it combines the efforts of eleven (11) plasmoid civilizations. Their main focus is healing.

The Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy unites the efforts of 1674 civilizations, and they are more universal. The plasmoid specialists who will work with each connected person and with those who turn to them have specially studied the dense world, the problems of Earthlings in order to help resolve them at the energy level. They can even change the event plan of the future that has not yet manifested.

Julia: Yes. Amazing possibilities for exploration. How is it supposed: individual sessions or can one master conduct a group session?

Irina: It can be individual and group. 1674 civilizations at the moment. Their number, by the way, can change. New civilizations can join or some civilizations can leave the project. But this does not mean that so many plasmoid beings will work. There are so many civilizations, and from each civilization from several dozen to several thousand plasmoids actively participate in this project, who work voluntarily and are very happy that they have the opportunity to fulfill their tasks, to increase their level of love in this way.

Julia: Is the master who conducts the session a conductor? Does his energy participate in this somehow?

Irina: I understood the question. It all depends on his request. He can just call. Now the plasmoid named Vega is turning on. She even introduced herself to me as a blue ball, because the star Vega is blue. Even to me she shows some kind of female image, although she says that there is no gender, in our understanding. The word "Vega" is feminine, so that it is easier to perceive that it is she.

(She says) I have been working with earthly contactees for three thousand years. I also know closely such a Spirit as Zaliatar. I know Mirah Count, Archangel Michael, I am a Spirit from a high angelic level. I want to say, answering your question, that a person who is a conductor of the energies of the subtle worlds can submit his request and ask us to come. At the same time, he can help us by radiating his energy additionally. Or he may not do this, he can join the session as a patient.

Julia: Can representatives of dense-material civilizations come to such sessions?

Irina: If they want - please, if they are interested. We are happy to cooperate with any Spirits, even with non-embodied ones, with embodied ones at different levels of density. We, present here, are from different levels of density. It makes no difference to us at what level of density the Spirit is embodied or not embodied at all. The main thing for us is the unity of consciousness. What is the unity of consciousness? It is the direction of efforts to achieve one goal and complete mutual understanding.

18:50 Preparing the technician for connection to the TSSG.

Julia: What preparatory steps does a person need to take in order to effectively accept the energies of the SSG?

Irina: The general rule is to increase your vibrations. It is very good to dissolve and remove your blocks before connecting, if there are any. Also, if there is a connection to destructive plasmoid civilizations or contact with demonic levels of the Spiritual World, reduce it as much as possible, if it is impossible to disconnect completely.

It happens that dark forces or dark Spirits do not let a person go. They begin to fight for him, although he has already embarked on the path of Light. This is possible, we will help him with this, but still, it is necessary to try to change your vibrations, to change yourself as much as possible. Secondly, it is necessary to ask your Higher Self, the non-embodied part of the Spirit, permission in this form: "My Higher Self, do you approve of me connecting to the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy?" If the answer is "yes", immediately clarify: "For what purposes do you approve of me directing their energies?" Or simply: "How exactly can I work with these energies when I connect?" Your non-embodied part knows more than you, because it has the experience of all your lives.

How else to prepare? Three days "before" and three days "after" there should be no intoxication with tobacco or alcohol.

Julia: Is this for the participants who receive energies?

Irina: The participants who receive the energies are not familiar with them and they need to cleanse their bodies as much as possible from everything that affects their brain and that can prevent the neural network of the brain from integrating into the energies of the TSSG.

We, the subtle beings that you call plasmoids, do not have a nervous system similar to yours. We do not have physical bodies. Therefore, we connect to a person's consciousness through his brain. In order for this to happen most harmoniously and painlessly, he must be in a clear consciousness, without the influence of psychoactive substances.

It is not even advisable (now Saint-Germain adds) to take psychoactive drugs that affect the brain. As for tranquilizers, neuroleptics, antidepressants, all of this is equivalent to narcotic substances in this case.

Three days before and three days after connection, do not have sexual intercourse, save your energies. Sex is a release of Kundalini energy. This is one of the etheric energies in your etheric field. It will help you adapt to this network as easily and comfortably as possible.

23:06 Age restrictions for connecting to the TSSG.

Irina: As for age. We do not recommend connecting before the age of 12, but best of all from 14. From the moment when the teenager has an independent aura. When his aura has separated from the aura of his parents. If he wants to engage in practices earlier, connection is possible as an exception, but only both his parents must already be connected so that there is no energetic incompatibility with them. At 14, this is not necessary, he can make decisions independently.

Julia: Do I understand correctly that the session connects those who come to the TSSG?

Irina: She connects to work with them, but not so that they can open it later.

Julia: Good! And in terms of time, how long can such a session last?

Irina: Optimally 30-40 minutes.

24:35 Frequency and features of receiving TSSG energies.

Julia: How often can a person come to such a session with representatives of the SSG?

Irina: I would recommend 2-3 times a week, not more often. He will need the remaining days to listen to himself, to identify the changes that will happen to him. And also to work with his Higher Self and to start helping himself to eliminate the disorders that caused him various problems in life. With health, in his personal life, in the financial sphere, etc. Two or three times a week is optimal, because he will have time to adapt and work with himself, with his Higher Self.

How else to prepare? On the day of connection, it is advisable to stick to a dairy-vegetable diet. This is not necessary, but you will make the process of entering the Galaxy Network easier, because you will adapt to it, and it will adapt to you.

Vibrations of animal flesh (meat of animals and birds, as well as fish), you know, any flesh contains vibrations of the Soul that lived, part of the vibrations of frequencies. You have a strong instinctive nature, as do all third-density beings. Plasmoids do not have an instinctive nature, so they adapt to the one that you have and during the period when you will connect and adapt, it is very desirable that your field contains vibrations of only your instincts.

Yulia: I have a question that has matured, a purely everyday one. What will happen to those who will not so conscientiously observe these rules? For example, three days "before", three days "after" you cannot have sex with your partner. Three days pass, then another session and again three days.

Irina: No. It's not a session, it's at the moment of connection. Then it doesn't affect.

Julia: So you need to be especially careful the first time?

Irina: When you connect during the ritual.

Julia: Is this for the masters or for those who participate in the session? For those who receive energies?

Irina: No. This is for those who connect. Those who accept energies, accept help. And if you connect, your field becomes part of the SSG.

27:52 Preparation for receiving the energies of the TSSG session participants.

Julia: Okay, okay. A question about those who come to receive energy. The Master observes all these rules. We observe and conduct a group session. Those who come to us, how should they prepare for the session in order to receive the energies in a beneficial way?

Irina: It all depends on what his request is, what he came with. His field will not connect in the same way as the master's field to the SSG. The rules are the same as when visiting other healing sessions, for example Reiki, Cosmoenergetics, Cosmohealing. It is desirable to be in trust, thank those who will work, open up.

If there is mistrust and suspicion, the field will be closed. And, of course, permission must be given. "I give permission to the subtle-material civilizations of the Galaxy (you can say it in your own words) to work with me." You can make a specific request. It is desirable to be in a calm emotional state, not irritated, without fears, to be without psychoactive substances. This only affects not the work, but the sensitivity to these energies.

Julia: Are the healing energies Cosmohealing, Cosmoenergetics, Reiki friendly with each other? We have a lot of similar sessions. Is it possible to take several sessions in one day?

Irina: At the discretion of the person, but I would say now that many civilizations participate in the TSSG, and they all direct energies on request. It is desirable not to be exposed to any other energetic influence on this day. Not because there may be incompatibility, but because oversaturation of energy in the etheric field can cause the opposite effect.

30:35 Human responsibility for accepting transformation.

Julia: What factors can become an obstacle on the path to transformation?

Irina: A person's unwillingness to take responsibility and work on their own problem, shifting responsibility to others, including those who help you, to the representatives of the TSSG. (Aldebaran is speaking to me now and they are showing me an orange ball). We can only help, but we will not live your life for you and we will not go through your spiritual lessons for you. You must understand this. This is your incarnation, and you are responsible for how you go through it and what results you achieve. This gift is called "freedom of choice", it was given to everyone by our Absolute, the Higher Mind, which you call God.

I want to say right away that the practice of healing sessions, and not only healing sessions, but also restorative ones, as I already said: social relations, relations with partners, restoring connections with the ancestral egregor, etc., all this is compatible with all religious egregors on Earth. We have already agreed on this issue with them. There will be no conflicts between egregors and plasmoids who come to this work.

It is also possible to work on identifying and dissolving karmic knots. We work (there are several specialists in our network) with reincarnation - the science of the formation of karma, starting from the first incarnation of the Spirit. We can help identify any karmic knot that leads to the formation of negative mental attitudes in this incarnation, and, therefore, to the creation of blocks, complex relationships, conflicts, natural disasters, etc. We can show what this karmic knot is, what lesson was not passed and we can suggest how to pass it.

Julia: In order to invite professional karmic plasmoids, karma specialists, a person must think about his own problem and invite them?

Irina: It's simpler. We decided this way: a person may not suspect that the reason is in karma when he created it. It will be enough for him to name the problem he came with and specify the request (result) he expects to receive. According to his request, which will be imprinted in the mental field, those plasmoid representatives will come who will work with his problem. If it is a karmic problem, they will come.

35:00 Harmonious use of the energies of the TSSG session.

Julia: Is there a possibility that a person may not get any results from the session?

Irina: Yes, of course, it does. There are conditions for receiving help. As I already said: it is working on yourself and the willingness to accept any result. It happens that a person's desires are not entirely compatible with his spiritual development. People often want to be happy "here and now", momentary happiness. They often lack awareness of what this can lead to.

For example, (Saint Germain says) a person can ask to pass an exam at some university, but his inner desire will be another place of work. He wants to finish this university because of obedience to his parents, or so that, as he understands, he has a reliable rear behind his back; fears and something else.

It happens that the Timeline shows a scenario: if he enters this university, studies there and graduates. He will not be able to develop spiritually in this profession, because he will not like it. It will not satisfy his Soul, and he will be constantly irritated, lower his vibrations. Or, more simply, for example, going to this university in the morning, he can be attacked by someone. That is, there are situations that a person cannot calculate and see himself.

His Guardian Angels, often his family, family egregor, the forces that are there, Spirits, as well as plasmoid civilizations that are connected to this egregor, can lead him away from this university. Including blocking the exam. The person will ask the Light Network, and when the specialists see this, they may not fulfill his wish, they can send him thoughts that this is not necessary. He will not achieve the result. This is one example.

Secondly, it is necessary to ask only for what is in accordance with the will of God, what corresponds to the laws of love for everyone. Not only for you, but for all people. For example, if a woman fell in love with a married man and asks the Light Network of the Galaxy for him to leave his family and come to her because they have unearthly love, this will not be fulfilled. She may get the opposite effect from such requests, because this is selfish love, which does not imply sympathy for the wife of this man. She may be left alone, which will cause her some fears, neuroses, etc. If you did not think about her feelings, then it is quite possible that they will not think about yours either.

One more rule. I ask you to stick to it! Ask only for yourself! If you ask your son to stop drinking, to get out of prison or to stop using drugs - this is his will, and the plasmoids cannot change his choice. They can tell him, but he may not listen to them.

I am telling you that this is not a magic wand for controlling the reality of other people, this is controlling your own reality, respect for any choice of other people and other Spirits.

To use this tool harmoniously, always remember the rule: "nobody owes anything to anybody." Your sons, husbands, daughters should not quit drinking because of you, if they do not want to. Just as you do not owe them anything. You do not owe them anything, you do not have to take care of them if they are in trouble. This is only your choice. They may have a different one, even if you do not like it. Is that clear?

Julia: I understand, because this often happens in sessions with the Higher Self.

41:03 The rule of good deed.

Irina: Yes. What else? It is desirable that the master who asks the Galaxy Light Network for some help, within a few days after this request (even if you have not yet received the result) from the heart help some person or group of people. That is, help to others. But if the master asks not for himself, but for someone else, then it is important to warn this person that now help to others should come from him.

Plasmoid civilizations are ready to help those Spirits who themselves help others. Those who are not ready to help others are in denial, in negativity, must go through their lessons.

Julia: So. Let's clarify this point again. Yes, we knew about the "rule of a good deed", what we have to do. But if we conduct a group session, a session with a group of people, then those who come must also fulfill this rule: do a good deed.

Irina: As I have already said - no one owes anything to anyone! They can be offered to do this, but warned that if they refuse, if they do not want to help others, as other beings help them, then the session may be ineffective. There may be no effect, because (it is necessary to say here) it is not the blind forces of the Universe that are working with you, not some cosmic energies like electricity. It is intelligent Spirits that are working with you, who are at high levels of spiritual development, and who are next to you in subtle bodies. They feel your energy. If you have a desire to help others - this will come from your love. If you have love for others, even for strangers, then by this you will show civilizations that you are ready to accept the help that they will give you.

Julia: Is this a form of energy exchange? Can their "gift from the heart" to the master be this good deed?

Irina: They give the Master a “gift from the heart” for a service, and when I mean a “good deed” – it must be selfless.

Julia: So. Well, we've heard it all. This, of course, requires high awareness, purity of the Soul.

Irina: Again, what good deed? It is at the choice of each person's heart. We do not watch or spy on anyone under any circumstances. This is visible from a person's vibrations. Did he help someone and with what motive. If a person helps with the motive: I will give 100 rubles to a beggar now, if only they would help me cure cancer. Here I am giving (for show), and leave me alone with this help. It will not be sincere.

The main thing is the sincerity of a person's heart. Always remember the words of Jesus, who said: "When you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing." This means that the person who helped someone has forgotten about it. It does not necessarily have to be monetary help. Sometimes it is easiest to help with money. Give some money.

But sometimes a person needs moral support, good advice. This raises your vibrations. If you don’t tell anyone about it later. Of course, if someone asks you, someone saw it, you will confirm it.

If you start telling: I bought something for my friend, or I helped him, or I forgave my debtor, he owed him some money, I called and forgave him this debt. This is a good deed - debt forgiveness. If you tell someone about this, you will devalue this good deed.

Yulia: Thank you for the detailed answer. Indeed, a useful, very necessary clarification.

46:38 Clearing the space through sessions of the transformational Light Network of the Galaxy.

Julia: Another question. Is it possible to clean an area, a body of water or a room through TSSG sessions?

Irina: Yes, of course. You can call us, Vega is speaking now, showing how to imagine a beam that will go to the zenith and call: "My Star brothers, I call you into this space to cleanse it, fill it with light energies and to raise the vibration of this space."

You will feel how they began to work with this space. It can be a house, a place of nature, a room, etc. Sometimes they cleanse the space from low vibrations, from negative thought forms that can be present in the Astral in this place. How do they cleanse? They come and fill it with Light and displace everything that is incompatible with Light.

These civilizations can be asked, for example, to charge through you, through your hands (if you take any objects in your hands), for example, crystals, water, salt, sugar, any crystalline substances. These can be minerals, you can ask to charge food, water, because in any food, in any food there are water molecules. It holds energy very well. And say "for what". For example, for healing, rejuvenation, increasing immunity.

They will send energy through your hands, since you are already part of the Light Network, through your field, which will program the molecules of water or minerals, to the thoughts that you put there, to the settings. When you eat, take it inside, the food will go to nourish your body, and the programs that you put in will change your etheric matrix.

49:10 Sessions and individual impact of TSSG energy.

Julia: Good. Thank you! We also have this question written down. Do the Galaxy Light Network transformation sessions work in recording? Of course, we are planning online sessions, but people still ask: will there be a recording? Is there a recording? Just explain to us again, is it possible to do it in recording?

Irina: For those who were there?

Julia: No. For those who didn’t manage to get in and want a recording.

Irina: If he didn't manage to get there, he won't be able to connect, because the master, when he invited the plasmoids, didn't invite them for him. This is not intended for recording, because the energy that will be released will not be directed to the needs of the person who will be watching. This is a strictly individualized impact.

Julia: Are there any differences, does the master conduct a session with a group of people or individually?

Irina: Almost none. Because there are always enough plasmoids to work with everyone.

Julia: Let’s say we had a session. Could it be that the plasmoids will stay with some people and continue to work independently?

Irina: Yes, they can. They can work even for up to three days, and sometimes even for up to a week. They can come to this person periodically. But they do this on their own initiative, to finish the work they started, if, for example, it requires several stages.

51:05 Safety rules when in contact with plasmoids.

Julia: What rules should be followed to safely interact with plasmoids?

Irina: The same, to safely contact people. To love, to trust, like friends, and, at the same time, to fully trust only yourself, your heart, your Higher Self. Because if you start to trust someone more than yourself, it is called "creating an idol." By doing this, you reject your Divine part, which lives in your heart, and put a block on your spiritual development.

52:00 The purpose of creating the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy.

Julia: Thank you! General question. For what purpose was the Galaxy Transformational Light Network created?

Irina: It was created a long time ago and exists for the needs of the Galaxy. We (Aldebaran says) solve different problems. How can this be explained at your density level? For example, what stars, in what space, with what mass, luminosity and types of energy should appear, what planets should appear there.

We are creating energies that will later be transformed into atoms by your Elemental Spirits, who are at a lower density level than us. We are all solving this together with the help of such structures as the Light Network, which is, to put it very simply, one of the forms of group intelligence.

Julia: Do they have some kind of hierarchy within them? Someone in charge, someone in charge of all this?

Irina: We have a Spiritual Teacher. He is not the main one. He is an example to others. He does not rule in the form of command. As a spiritual leader.

Julia: A spiritual leader of a higher level of density?

Irina: Well, yes.

Julia: At what level of density are spiritual mentors, teachers?

Irina: Above the 50th level of density - mentors.

Julia: Aldebaran - Spiritual Teacher?

Irina: Well, yes.

Julia: Okay. Question from the master. Is it necessary to keep the fire lit for the entire session, or does the candle burn out and that's it?

Irina: At the discretion of the master. Sometimes the fire is lit, sometimes not. There is amplification, but it is not necessary.

54:28 Parting words from subtle-material civilizations and Saint Germain.

Julia: Good. I thank everyone present and will be glad to hear parting words from Saint Germain and from the Spiritual Teacher.

Irina: (Saint Germain speaks) I congratulate you on the unique opportunity to become part of the Galaxy through joining its subtle energies and subtle worlds. All who have connected to the Light Network of the Galaxy, you are co-creators of these Souls. They also study you, and you tell them a lot about your world even with your aura radiations.

I also remind you that the condition of "doing good deeds" is not to burden you or make things difficult for you. It is only to make you understand that only a person who is fully responsible for himself can become happy. And responsibility for oneself implies helping others as a form of love similar to the love of God.

Julia: Thank you, Saint-Germain!

Irina: (Aldebaran speaking) I am very happy to work with you, third density earthlings. I like your planet very much. I have also met the plasmoids of Earth, Demeter. She is compassionate to people who are in low vibrations. She is a very pure, open, trusting embodied Soul who wants to help everyone. Earth is a full part of our Galaxy, and we are very happy to include you in our family.

Julia: Thank you, Aldebaran. Will Vega tell us something? Feminine energy, as we see it.

Irina: (She says) Remember that the Light of love creates life, life creates happiness, happiness creates the meaning of life, and the meaning of life strengthens love. This cycle exists forever!

Julia: Excellent! We can quote it. Canopus, please.

Irina: Canopus observed more.

Julia: I was watching, but we'll still give the floor.

Irina: (He speaks) I was watching the answers. I thank everyone who answered: Saint-Germain, Vega, Aldebaran. I thank Irina. And of course, you, Julia. I am very happy to work on this project, and I hope, I believe, that our cooperation will be fruitful.

Julia: I understand that he is one of those who is doing the work.

Irina: Yes.

Julia: Good. We will, I hope, successfully develop our project. I thank Irina, our friends, guests for the opportunity given to us to multiply the Light of God in the Soul of every intelligent being.

Irina: And here's another thing (Saint-Germain is speaking now). This is a unique opportunity to transform your energy and go through a Quantum transition in the highest energies.

Julia: Friends, we invite you to the sessions of the Transformational Light Network of the Galaxy, when they are launched. Do not miss the opportunity to feel these energies.

Irina: Yes. Very interesting energies. Thank you, dear friends! Thank you to everyone who answered! Sending the Light of my Love! Also, thank you for watching this video! Thank you, Yulia, for the wonderful questions! I love you all!

Julia: Goodbye! Thank you very much!

Irina: Goodbye!

Christianity – Reformation of Judaism? Law of Moses. Changing the canons in accordance with the vibrations of the Earth. New Testament https://blog.cassiopeia.center/hristianstvo-reformaciya-iudaizma-zakon-moiseya

It was the New Law, the New Testament. It was not just a reformation, it was a change in the canons of Judaism so that the new commandments, the new laws could correspond to the changed vibrations of the Earth at that time. Because Judaism had already existed for 2,000 years by the time I was born, a little more. And during these 2,000 years, the Earth made, as you now call it, a quantum leap, a transition, i.e. it made such a transition to another era, where there were other laws, for example, the death penalty was no longer required for crimes, which I showed in the case when a woman was brought to me who was caught cheating on her husband. According to the law that I gave to Moses, she should have been executed. That was the case at that time when I spoke with Moses, it corresponded to the vibrations of the earthly race.

But when I came myself in my body, it ceased to correspond to the new vibrations of the Earth. And, realizing this, some guards who were servants of the high priest brought this woman to me and asked what I would advise to do. This was done with the purpose of catching me in a logical trap, because, following the law of Moses, I was obliged to say that they must fulfill the law, since I myself gave it. But before that I had given many sermons among the people, who, naturally, the priests heard about the fact that this law was abolished by the law of love.

If I had insisted on the execution of the law, that is, on the execution, I would not only have contradicted the words of my sermon, I would have completely destroyed my work, for the sake of which I had become incarnate. Therefore, I said the only thing I could say in that situation:

> "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to cast a stone at her."

I said this in the physical body, which you know as Jesus Christ, to those people, but I did not say this to Moses and his brother Aaron and all his descendants, that they should examine themselves for sins before throwing stones, because at other times they were not capable of doing this by nature. They had to go through some kind of social, public and spiritual development.

Each religion corresponds to a certain vibration. At that time, Judaism corresponded, then Christianity corresponded. And when I said this, and they all left, I did not forbid them to stone her and did not order them to do so - I let them decide for themselves. And they decided as it should be according to the new Law. They listened to themselves and left her alive. But when they left, it did not end there, then a rumor began to spread that I was not just speaking out against the law of Moses, but doing it in a way that was very dangerous for Judaism. That is, I was presented as an opponent of religion, destroying the foundations of the fathers, and in such a way that they themselves could not answer me.

Change of religions. Correspondence of vibrations to egregor, religion. Physical death of Jesus to change vibrations of earthlings

Was it planned that Christianity would replace Judaism? That is, Judaism would pass into Christianity. At the moment, there is Judaism, Christianity, and Islam - all three religions.

This cannot be planned, because each religion corresponds to certain vibrations. The egregor still remains to exist. I understood perfectly well that some would move to the new egregor both from Judaism and from the pagan plasmoid cults of the surrounding countries and peoples, but the egregor that remained accumulated for 2,000 years and became a rather strong energy unit.

It was impossible to simply disperse it, since its energy cannot disappear anywhere, it can only transform. Therefore, in this egregor that remained, only those people could remain in it or new people could come to it, who by their vibrations corresponded to this egregor.

What does "by vibrations" mean? I will explain, because on Burkhad everyone understands this, but I do not see understanding in some people now on Earth.

What does it mean to "match the vibration of religion"? It means that those laws, not rituals, but specifically the laws, the position of religion must coincide with the internal moral law in the heart of man, with his image of God and the laws of God that he is ready to fulfill. This is called "matching the vibrations." Why did those people throw out the stones and leave? Because inside themselves they matched the vibrations of the new Christian egregor.

And why did the high priests, his servants, decide to kill my body? Because their vibrations at that moment in time corresponded to the vibrations of the old egregor, which was fighting the new one. Both they and the egregor, as an energetic, energetic-informational unit, fought with their vibrations against the creation of a new unit, dangerous for them, which could destroy everything that they had been building, one might say, for 2,000 years.

I understood perfectly well what would happen, what I was going to. It was my choice to create this religion precisely in those conditions and precisely at that moment. I understood perfectly well, as I have already said, that there was a very high probability that my body would be executed in this way. I could have come to any other period of history through my mother. She could also have incarnated through other people, when such laws no longer existed. But my choice was precisely this in order to direct my energy to change the vibration of all earthlings. This could only be done in the way it happened.

A Child is a Gift from God. The Plan of Having Children. About the Path of Divine Development https://blog.cassiopeia.center/rebyonok-dar-ot-boga-plan-rozhdeniya-detej-o-puti

The number of children is very often, almost in 80% of cases, known before incarnation. Such an agreement with the Spirits, who will incarnate whom, is established before incarnation. Sometimes (much less often) the need to incarnate for a certain Spirit appears later, when it already lives in incarnation. But in this case, the Spirit at the level of the Higher Self still agrees.

The path of Divine development is followed by those Spirits who live a true life, the thought of refusing another Spirit to incarnate cannot even enter their minds. Because incarnation through themselves they understand that they can make a gift to this Spirit, a gift to God. And at the same time perceive this child as a gift from God. That is, they give the opportunity for life to God. These are those who follow the path of development.

And those who follow the path of degradation may refuse because of their egoistic motives. They may refuse incarnation, citing various difficulties or something else.

The one who follows the path of spiritual development, he remembers that the physical body is an instrument for the development of the Spirit. That is, if the physical body suffers difficulties, it does not mean that this person is more unhappy than the one whose physical body is in comfort. Maybe, on the contrary, true happiness is in love and in approaching God.

If there really is an objective circumstance, then they can come to an agreement. If she feels that she cannot give birth to him, for example, because she is busy with work. And she feels that this work is for the public good, then she can come to the Spirit, and then they, together with the Angels-mentors, decide what is more important for each of this Soul - for her, the child and the whole society as a whole, as a continuation of her public work.

So such an agreement is possible, right?

If she communicates with him mentally before incarnation, then this is possible. But even if she says, for example, that I cannot incarnate you this year due to such and such circumstances, or the father says so, this does not mean that they will completely refuse him incarnation.

For example, here on Esler, a woman understands from childhood that by denying the Spirit an incarnation, she may delay its development for several hundred years until it can wait for the next incarnation. And if she delays its development, then hers too, because it is a part of her. Everyone is connected to each other.

Description of Spirit levels. Alternative version https://blog.cassiopeia.center/opisanie-urovnej-duhov
When you calculate the spiritual level of incarnation, you must understand that there is no bad or good level. There is energy, and it was necessary for you to go through the experience in the past life. You incarnated, which means you are needed here and now, at this level, on this planet. This is God's will. You are beautiful, rely on your heart, it will tell you the level for spiritual and physical growth.
Deva level 24
These are Spirits who have reached the maximum potential of love in a past incarnation or have chosen the path of service to help others. They have learned the power of their heart, have opened their heart chakra to the maximum. In this incarnation, they may encounter misunderstanding from others, because they subtly feel the experiences of the world, sympathize with everyone. In their mind, love is above all else, but the realities of the world will reflect something else.
Their task is not to succumb to cruelty and not to become angry, not to fall into the position of a victim and not to go into negative experiences. You came into the world to teach others to love, through your example of life, to help unobtrusively, setting the rhythm with your example of being. Do not go into a state of fanaticism, be that light in the darkness that they strive to find, and do not burn. Meditation, prayer, contemplation of nature, family - that is what will help you not to go into depression.
"In dark times, bright people are clearly visible..." - from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque "Arc de Triomphe"
Level 23 Arhats
These are the Spirits of Justice and Honor, so to speak, the voice of conscience, embodied in form. Their law is the law of a pure heart, clear mind and devotion to serving God. When such spirits incarnate, they often become defenders, choosing professions or activities where they can fully help - prove and protect the innocent. Of course, in modern conditions, they often choose the path of mentoring, where they guide lost souls by love and honor, for example, in psychology. In the family, such children often show strong and strong-willed qualities, with all their courage they protect their loved ones.
Such people need to remember that justice should not come with cruelty. A heart that loves you will hear if it is on the same wavelength as you, and there are many adults among us whose hearts have been clouded by time. Your job is to gently wipe this soot from their hearts, not crush or suppress it.
To be fair, you must first be kind. And to be kind is to understand that all people make mistakes. - Adriano Celentano

Level 22 Spiritual Consultants
Such Spirits are engaged in searching for the best conditions for the passage of a new incarnation of spirits whose time has come to incarnate and undergo a new experience. People who came from the 22nd level subtly feel any changes and fluctuations in the external environment, are well versed in the topic of numerology, astrology and often choose professions where they can directly give the right support, help with advice and action. Such people often feel everything in advance, strongly experience the internal duality of their nature, for example - to say or to remain silent.
The task of those who came from the 22nd level is to choose a position of neutrality and learn to give help when asked for, not to press, not to waste your energy on everything. And if it is still necessary to give advice, you need to do it softly and carefully. Your words have a powerful force, your throat chakra works directly with the energies of the universe, be careful with what you embody in words. In a negative position, you can waste your energy on helping others without receiving the return energy of mutual exchange. Do not grab to give support to everyone, the student is ready, the teacher is ready - this is the ideal option for you to work with energies.
“People who will not take advice cannot be helped…” - Benjamin Franklin.
Level 21 Guide Angels
Their task is to live on guard of two worlds, to meet and see off souls to the material world and back to the world of spirits. They live as a guard between our worlds, therefore they are loyal to everything, they see off souls even where there is nothing, they shine with the lantern of their heart. They live both in the material world and in the subtle world, they live with their hearts, they know a lot, they have flexible thinking. In their world, logic and reason fail, faith and love always win. People incarnated from the 21st level, feel their entire life first with their heart, then with all other feelings. It is always calm and warm with them, they are an island in the bustle of this world, they will easily take us to spirituality and return us back to a state of pure mind. They will keep all your secrets and teach you to live in the duality of the world. They are incarnated in a physical body, but the spirit still remembers that they are the gates and guardians of two worlds. Such people receive their life force from love, support of loved ones. Through guides, a person gains a heart, love and devotion, gains faith, which gives strength to spiritual development. The task of the 21st level is to learn to love, to be devoted to yourself, others and the path you have chosen. Reveal the divine absolute love in yourself. Learn to trust the world. Free yourself from egoism.
It's easy to tell those around you: "Don't take it to heart." How can they know the depth of your heart? And where is it close to him? - Elchin Safarli

Level 20 Healing Angels

Such angels are engaged in healing and healing of both spiritual and physical wounds. They are pedantic, kind, always ready to help, listen and heal. Demanding of safety, they teach that all affairs must be completed, empty talk takes away the energy of health, deception and lies are the main wormhole that takes away physical health. Creation and love are the main tools of health. Healing is the goal of their life, and they are reverent about their work, asking in exchange to take care of their health, self-love allows us to love others.

People who came from the 20th level do not tolerate pressure, are also meticulous in business and have golden hands. Often their gift is transmitted to them from their angelic essence, so it is not uncommon that these are doctors or people working with children, or professions where you need to have patience and the magic of understanding from a half-word. These people often have the gift of healing in the physical body, can be our guides into the depths of our mental, unconscious or be spiritual healers, they have a unique gift to send positive vibrations through thoughts and energy.

Children and animals are drawn to people of the 20th level, people look to you for support, often run to you for advice, but do not forget that you must be able to replenish your energy and, of course, take care of yourself first and foremost, your energy to charge others is needed by this world, but you are most important, heal yourself, then start helping others. Find what fills you with energy, and do not allow others to take advantage of your kindness and softness of heart. In a negative manifestation, you will become a loner, without strength, with an anxiety disorder, do not allow such a development of events, first fill yourself, then others.

To be the happy happiness of others is the true happiness and earthly ideal of life for anyone who devotes himself to medical science. - N. I. Pirogov

Level 19 Prophetic Angels

The task of such angels is to bring the light of God's love to all living beings in any dimension and time. They are not mystics at all, their task is to tell us the true word of God. They are reverent about their mission, devoting all their energy to conveying true love. People born from the 19th level are very different from others from early childhood. They treat all living things with care, pity everyone, do not live in duality. These are people with big hearts. Their love warms everyone around them with interest. Many take advantage of their gentleness, but they often forgive and do not attach importance to it.

These are believers, their hearts and souls have been dedicated to serving God and love since birth. You often know everything in advance, you are often silent, withdrawn and retreat into your own world. It is hard for you to live in the harshness of this world, and you certainly have your own, but still your task is to accept this reality of the imperfection of human existence and bring love and light to those living today. Of course, not to become a fanatic, but to become that ray of goodness, that beacon of love in our difficult times. It is not easy for you to choose an activity, but listen to your inner self, ask what gives you the energy to move, and not to live in a daze. Your big, loving heart will tell you the right path.

Don't complain about the darkness. Become a small source of light yourself. - Bernard Werber

Level 18 Guardian Angels

Their main task is to protect embodied souls. They appear nearby to snatch the embodied from the power of evil spirits and protect from evil. They help to cope with blasphemous thoughts, obsessive thoughts, protect from temptation, guide on the true path, help in business. In our soul there is a constant struggle between light and darkness, we ourselves become the battlefield, so the Lord gave us a Guardian Angel as an ally. The Guardian Angel invisibly accompanies a person throughout life. Do not forget to thank your angels, keep your heart pure, do not be tempted by blasphemous thoughts.

People who come from the 18th level are silent, kind, patient. They love nature, animals and children are drawn to them. They always keep their word and back it up with action. They will sympathize with you sincerely, from the bottom of their hearts, and their hearts are big. Outwardly, they are often cold, seem like strict, insensitive people, but this is only their defense, only a shell hiding completely opposite qualities. They are hardworking, often choose manual work, they are good at things, people with golden hands. A nut with a golden core. If you have such a person in your family, you are very lucky, you have found unbending support and support. Do not forget to give them your love, and they will multiply it for you.

Angels represent God's personal care for each of us. - Andrew Greeley

Level 17 Nature Angels

Their main task is to help share knowledge and accept teachings from subtle beings. In different cultures, plasmoids are called differently, but the essence of such beings is to help the planet on which they live. They monitor the healthy growth of plants, harmonize the energies of nature, monitor the life of the animal world. They have no concept of good or bad, subtle beings live by other concepts, and we have something to learn. But they are difficult to contact, and the few with whom they share their knowledge are the Angels of nature. And they, in turn, teach them to maintain and not disturb the balance, tell them the essence of the existence of the incarnate, thereby maintaining harmony.

Nature angels also monitor the ecology of the landscape, the inhabitants of the animal and water world. Nature angels subtly sense those who are ready to help serve for the good of nature, and will certainly contribute your merits to good deeds. They are very tolerant, do not try to somehow influence the decisions of living beings, the exception is the case when there is some interaction with the spirits of nature. Those who came from the 17th level are given away by their eyes, they scan you like a scanner, they are very insightful, often work with people, not uncommon - these are people: teachers, psychiatrists, doctors. In general, their peculiarity is not to judge, but to gently instruct, one can only envy. They will definitely figure you out in a few minutes of communication and will speak in a language you understand, adapt to changes in conditions and behavior, but at the same time remain themselves. People of iron will with a soft heart of an energy conductor. Such people feel changes in energy, often suffer from vascular diseases.
Those who have incarnated from the 17th level should remember that the discussion will entail a disruption of energy, and therefore, illnesses over time. You are strong, but pride should not rule you. You are conductors of energies, you have come to help your planet, family and friends. Communication with nature, traveling, learning languages, working with animals, as well as helping people - this is what gives you strength and fills you with energy. Do not lose it by freezing, develop, start small, with small steps you will achieve an understanding of where to move further. Love and faith always fill you, give it to yourself, read prayers, meditate, combine your activity with rest, do not overload yourself, you can work to exhaustion, everyone knows this, surround not only your loved ones, but also yourself with care.
Get up in the morning, wash yourself, tidy yourself up - and immediately tidy up your planet. - Antoine de Saint-Exupéry. "The Little Prince".
Level 16 Spirits - Seekers
Their mission is to find the light of love even in the darkest times, this is Danko in the spirit world. They are trying with all their might to find the way to the world of Angels, where the energy of love surpasses the dark energies. They have come a long way in search of truth and are finally beginning to realize that the door is themselves and that faith, hope and love are the main keys that open these doors. People who came from the 16th level are usually dreamers. But they approach their work quite seriously, despite all their imagination, in most cases they choose professions related to the exact sciences. Seekers prefer to do only what interests them, have a practical mind, adequately perceive their powers. At the same time, they are always in search of something new, exploring the diversity of the world. They understand that the truth is somewhere nearby, so they value their freedom very much. Their main fear is to lose this freedom.

Seekers try to leave the familiar as soon as possible and begin to explore the unknown. Because of their desire to know everything, they become real erudites in completely unrelated fields. Of course, deep down they seek knowledge of themselves, study religions and esotericism. The soul remembers their desire for this light of absolute love. In a negative manifestation, people of the 16th level can get bogged down in disbelief and loneliness. They doubt and demand facts where simple faith and a sense of inner sensation are needed. They tend to waste energy on trifles, avoid difficulties, move away from making decisions and specific actions towards knowledge and study. To be in balance, the Seeker needs to understand that he does not have to stand still, work all his life at the same job, live in the same place. He needs to realize that the truth is everywhere, since love permeates everything that exists. The Seeker also needs to stop from time to time to analyze his path. Don't forget to give yourself time to rest in the eternal race for knowledge.
The adventurer is the most striking example of a man who lives in the present. - Georg Simmel.
Level 15 Spirits-Inventors
The main goal of such spirits is to attract and create everything new. They try with all their love to bring benefits, innovations to ensure convenience or manage the complex. Inventors are attracted by progress, and the thirst for knowledge, the search for something new, the desire to change the world for the better. People who came to us from the 15th level are innovators. They are kind, religious, these are the scientists who rely on the call of their hearts, and their hearts call them to the unknown. Inventors are erudites, from childhood their hands and minds seek knowledge, disassemble watches, read books, ask awkward questions, fidgets with flexible thinking. These are people who rarely sit still, in childhood they are kids with a motor. Such a reserve of energy must be put into the right direction from youth, so that it is in creation.
Another component of success for an inventor is a broad outlook, do not limit your mind to templates, your head works directly with the ether, you are one step ahead of progress, strive to listen to your heart and inner self. Therefore, it is important to be able to take risks, make sometimes ambiguous decisions and not give up even in very difficult situations. Of course, you are very upset by the disbelief and ignorance of others to your ideas, it is important to understand that wisdom comes with time, with patience and work, will allow you to achieve success, and there you will find kindred spirits. Choose your loyal comrades. Inventors have a soft heart, but a thousand failures and betrayals can force them to build a massive shell around themselves, know that behind the external coldness there is a child. These are truly eternal children who have grown into sullen adults.

In a negative manifestation, people from the 15th level are loners, tyrants. Fans of their business with an unhealthy position. To prevent this from happening, remember that all geniuses found support within themselves, the core inside you is given to you from above, do not waste it on the position of a victim and aggression. Direct your forces into the business you have dreamed of since childhood.
Young man, you don't understand how the world works. I haven't had any failures. I've successfully identified five thousand ways that won't work. As a result, I'm five thousand ways closer to the way that will work. Thomas Edison
Level 14 Researchers
These Spirits are captivated by seeing signs of the Creator's manifestation in everything. But their mind still fights with themselves and tries in every way to carry out logic and prove everything and everyone. They search for the laws of the Universe, their heart burns with the fire of knowledge. People from the 14th level are travelers, they are keen on searching for the unknown, junk dealers, lovers of antiquity. Their fantastic mind analyzes everything, absolutely everything, but the heart says something else, the impossibility of proving everything and everyone, in many things there is only faith. But these are analysts with a sharp mind. They are loners, their doubts in everything make others doubt even themselves. They are excellent speakers.
We need researchers, because someone has to doubt the teachings and scientists, that's how progress works. A researcher is a literate, inquisitive person with high intelligence and logical thinking. He needs a good memory, quick wits, and mental flexibility. He must be ready to work with a lot of information, and also be able to systematize it and make meaningful conclusions. In a negative manifestation, these people lose their wings. Parents of children from the 14th level, do not deprive your children of this opportunity - to fly! Your heart is your guide. Do not force yourself to flow in one river, you are multifaceted. To explore is to see what everyone has seen and to think what no one has thought. Albert Szent-Györgyi
Level 13 Aesthetes
Aesthetes are people who value beauty in all its manifestations. They know how to find art where others see the ordinary. This is not just a hobby, but a special view of the world. They see the goodness of God, his love for us through the beauty of his creation! Aesthete people are educated and refined. They will not allow themselves to behave inappropriately and will not tolerate such behavior. They are people with a big heart, they have a delicate, vulnerable soul. The character of an aesthete is little understood by others. It is difficult for people to see the beauty in the ordinary every day with a clouded gaze. And this is the main talent of people of the 13th level.

They teach us that life is the everyday life of our being, to live here and now. To see God's care not only at great distances, but also every day. This is a very important skill, not easy for everyone. Life without beauty and constant manifestation of art and harmony in all the little things will seem unnecessary and gray to an esthete. They are very capricious in choosing friends and life partners, but if such people are next to you, it means that your soul is beautiful, even if you do not notice it. These are loyal friends and co-workers, despite all the sophistication, they will boldly rush to help. They value their family and are firmly connected to it, wonderful parents. In the negative, their pride devours everything and themselves. They become empty, in the position of a child with a narcissistic disorder. They lose their main skill - simplicity equals beauty.

Don't put out your light, you carry a message to this world that beauty can change the world for the better. A person with refined aesthetic taste is not only a critic of others, but also the harshest critic of himself.

Eugene Ryabyi

Level 12 Spirits-Builders

Their path is their business, they give themselves to work, they are absolutely not afraid of difficult work, they "build" for the benefit of others, they value kindness and generosity of soul. Their gift is in their hands; the creator has enclosed the warmth of their hearts in them. People born as builders are people of labor. People of labor are strong, purposeful, strong-willed individuals. This is a person who is devoted to the cause with which they are associated. They are real craftsmen, their golden hands give warmth to everything they do. Animals love them, because a big kind heart is ready to give comfort and care to everyone. They are people of the Earth, our planet needs the energy of such strong people, they are not afraid to ground themselves and take on hard work for the benefit of our beautiful home.

People from the 12th level also feel the presence of God in everything they do, observing their affairs, they see this invisible care. They feel a connection with the planet well, they are also excellent athletes, they also often go into complex medical professions, where endurance is required, they are also people of creative professions, where strength and patience are required, for example, felters or carpenters, modern artisans. They value comfort and strive to give it to their neighbors. In general, work permeates our entire life, it will be for our benefit and to our liking, every now and then it will be for the benefit of the world and our neighbors. So the main thing for people-builders is to listen to their inner world and find the activity where they can reveal their talent. And then their activity will be saturated with their energy, the energy of their strength and love. In a negative manifestation, such people are rude, distrustful, too grounded, work for the sake of work or carelessly, thereby wasting their health. You must remember that you are the real conductors of earthly energy, teachers for us all, teach us not to be shy about working hard and with our hands, remember that a person dries out faster without effort than a drop in the sun.

"When work is a pleasure, life is good! When work is a duty, life is slavery!" - Maxim Gorky, "The Lower Depths"

Level 11 Consumers

Spirits of the 11th level are real workaholics and hedonists. They work, creating comfort around themselves and giving it in abundance to their loved ones. They are very smart, pedantic, demanding. They firmly believe that everyone deserves happiness and everyone has their own, they teach us to find pleasure in the everyday, in the simple, mundane, and this is also a great science. People born at the 11th level recognize the unconditional value of earthly life. It is generally believed that consumers are selfish, but this is a mistake. They simply, unlike many, know how to enjoy both food and rest, but they also enjoy work, study, sports. On the contrary, these are the very people, workaholics, who have found their business and do it better than anyone else, with great love, devoting themselves to this business, and all because it brings them maximum satisfaction.

They are people of the mind, innovators who know how to simplify the complex, inventing something new. They are well aware that the path to a dream lies through thorns, and difficulties are just one of the stages that will make life better. So they are not lazy at all, but simply value their own comfort and the comfort of their loved ones. Yes, they love to eat well and have a good rest, but their morality is strict, they do good for themselves, not forgetting about society. Consumer people are born with a strong psyche, courageous and good-natured. They have strict moral rules. They are real breadwinners, knowing that he himself makes him happy, so self-discipline is their most important rule for receiving benefits, but they demand it from others, sometimes to the point of tyranny.

People of the 11th level are fond of philosophy, music, esotericism, have a more mathematical mindset. The coldness of their character is more in the knowledge of their boundaries than in something negative. In a negative manifestation, they are always looking for an ideal place of work, constantly studying without activity. Or, on the contrary, they work without rest, but it fills you with energy. They are impatient with criticism, do not listen to the opinions of others, do not analyze the situation. You are given to find the experience of life, in the pleasure of being a person, because we are his children, he gave us the opportunity to go through the earthly path, combining work and rest. A consumer is a person who is able to benefit society without harming his beliefs and principles.

"If you spend the day doing good, you will always feel joy in the evening" - Thomas a Kempis.
10th level Warriors
Warriors are those who care about justice. Such spirits are warriors of light, they are impatient when the innocent are offended, and of course they will not let anyone offend them. A warrior is always focused on the result. A warrior does not seek battle, does not provoke conflicts, as it might seem. On the contrary, he would be glad of a peaceful flow of life, he calmly uses his energy of masculinity and strength to work and achieve good. Therefore, although Warriors strive for victory, he values life above all else.
Warrior people are passion, power, focus, activity, active energy and enterprise. Warriors are characterized by a strong will, a heightened sense of justice. These are the people who go through fire and water, saving, protecting, defending rights: doctors-surgeons, rescuers of the Ministry of Emergency Situations, special forces, often volunteers, sometimes entrepreneurs. Warriors are people who always keep their word. They honor honor, complete any task. They teach us to strive for success, overcome weaknesses, prove to themselves and the world that everything is possible! Believe in your dreams, fight internal fears. In a negative manifestation, this is a disadvantage of people who lose their strength. They become victims, blaming everyone around them for their failure. They can destroy everything in aggression, draw conclusions without analyzing. Such people need to understand that their strength is a gift, you are warriors of light, use such powerful energy correctly for the good. Always listen to all participants, analyze, make balanced decisions, with a cool head.
No one loves peace as much as warriors who have been in battle.
"The White Queen" by Philippa Gregory.
Level 9 Students
First of all, these are spirits open to knowledge, they try to study various sciences, are very creative, approach the matter thoroughly. People born from the 9th level are strong-willed, curious, and know how to work in different areas. You will meet students in a variety of professions. The most important thing for a student is to choose a strategy and a path, not to waste energy on everything, to think about what you are really interested in, then you will succeed in everything you put your efforts into. You study thoroughly, strive to do everything qualitatively and beautifully. You are an aesthetic student, you love communication, and you perceive well-founded criticism well.

People of the 9th level question what is alien to them, they get lost in ignorance and can react aggressively, but they quickly move away, and their desire and curiosity begin to work, filling the gap with knowledge. Students are young souls, but with difficult experiences in past incarnations, hence this doubt, such a defense mechanism for maintaining safety. They are trying with all their might to turn from a student into a teacher, and we must give them credit, with the experience of the worldly path they become such. In fact, we are all students in our life path, so we have something to learn from the student. The student is open to knowledge, which means the universe will generously give him the experience of passing, here the main thing is for you to set the direction and area. Everyone goes through this path from student to master, you can not miss this valuable experience, otherwise you will become a lousy specialist.
“I learned a lot from my teachers, even more from my comrades, but most of all from my students” (Talmud Taanit)
Gina level 8
Djinns are subtle beings and are an integral part of it. They, like all spirits of the natural world, do not divide situations and people into good and bad, duality is not inherent to them. Djinns are spirits that can change shape, and they are created from fire and air. The word "djinn" itself comes from the Arabic "ja-na-na", which means "to hide, to conceal". Djinns, as spirits of nature, help where they live. They make sure that the soil is fertile, rivers do not drown all living things, and fire does not burn crops. They can also help people, believing that we are also an integral part of nature.
Where do genies live? The genies, who were defeated by angels, spread to all corners of the earth, choosing the most remote and inaccessible places to live: islands, caves and forests. They protect their homes and take care of their territories. People who came from the 8th level have a bright, agile mind. They are usually physically strong, drawn to the study of physics and chemistry. They like to do hard work. They are distinguished by their business acumen, they choose partners with their heart and mind equally. They do not like to judge a person, they always rely only on how the interlocutor treats them. They can be businesslike, silent. They are distinguished by great imagination. They protect their family with all their might, especially love children.
Genie people see through your thoughts, can respond rudely if they think that you have made plans against them, and not only respond, but also punish severely. But they will also be grateful to you and will never forget if you helped him with all your heart. Our nature and the planet need genies, they are warriors-defenders. You have a big heart, but your mind must be cold, so that your strength is directed to good deeds.

Give a man everything he wants, and at that very moment he will feel that all that he wants is not all. - Immanuel Kant

7th level Elementals

These are spirits created from the four elements, they are one of the most ancient subtle beings. They were created together with the planet they inhabit, since everything around is created from five energies: water, earth, fire and air - at the base of the energy of all-encompassing love. We find the first mention of these beings in Paracelsus (an alchemist, doctor, philosopher who lived in the 16th century). They are wary of people, since they have tried many times to subjugate them for their destructive purposes. Elementals are the building blocks of nature. In practice, they are pure energy and consciousness. When we come into contact with them, they affect us very deeply.

People born from the 7th level are harmonious, they have warm kind hands. A big loving heart. They subtly feel all the changes around them. Often these people are keen on studying psychology and relationships both between people, and political and international relations. These are also people of medicine. They become excellent veterinarians or nurses, doctors. They adopt the property of not dividing people into good and bad, they live with their heart and feelings. They find it difficult to get along where they are uncomfortable, they try to create the most pleasant conditions for themselves. They take care of their family and loved ones. They can easily fall into anger, but they are forgiving. Such people need to understand that your thoughts are material, anger is not the best form of protection for you. Your mind is space, give it good intentions.

When you feel bad, listen to nature. The silence of the world calms you down better than millions of unnecessary words. - Confucius

6th level Archons

Archons are essentially demons. In some incarnation, they, being a spirit, went against their essence and destroyed love and faith in their hearts. Thus, they descended to the level of passing in this incarnation. Archons do not want to hear, they are in the darkness of their souls, lost their way and chose the path of dark service. They became warriors and leaders in the society of evil spirits. Now their task is to get out of this circle and gain experience in searching for light in their souls. And this is extremely difficult to do, you need to go a long way to gain this hope and faith, to see and doubt the correctness of your existence.

If you came from this level, know that you are great, despite your difficult experience, you still found that light. Your task is to gain the ability to trust, yes, it is very difficult, because you remember that pain and feel the pressure from your difficult path of reincarnations. But know that you are a leader, you have enormous willpower. You will pull anyone out, take on the most difficult path, you just need to trust yourself a little and find inner support in the form of love and faith. Rely on your inner light, hear your self. Do not deceive yourself, learn new things.

The light is not the one who does not know darkness, but the one who knows both light and darkness, but time after time, being tested, makes the right choice, following the dictates of the heart. - Rina Miloradova

Level 5 Demons

Demons are fallen angels. They have lost the light and now lead an exiled life. They can choose this path themselves or come to it by their actions. But now they have lost their soul light and are trying in every way to prove the imperfection of unconditional love. If you came from the fifth level, it means that you have been given a chance or you have found that part of the unlost light in your heart. Of course, you are great adventurers, but we must give you credit: you are very afraid of stumbling. Thus, you put up an invisible protection around yourself, give the impression of complex, unemotional people, you can sharply express your opinion, but then you regret it very much. This is your protection.

People of the fifth level often choose professions related to documents or money, where a lot of monotonous, complex, responsible work is required. For example, economists, accountants, analysts, document specialists. You try to doubt everything, often double-check everything that you are told. Stick to your truth. You need to learn to combine your pragmatic mind with the trust and openness of your future heart. Learn to trust yourself and at least your loved ones a little. Of course, it is very difficult, but you must understand that it is impossible to do everything yourself, you will only become more disappointed in people in your mistrust. Your heart longs for love, blessed knowledge.

Don't complain about the darkness. Become a small source of light yourself. Bernard Werber.

Level 4 Demons

Demons were once bright angels, but they rebelled against God and fell away from Him, as a result of which they were expelled from heaven. Despite their fall, demons retained all the properties of their angelic nature, so they have consciousness, high intelligence, memory, feelings, have self-awareness, are incorporeal. If you came from the fourth level, it means that you came to go through the experience of growth, to learn to see the light again, we are all given free will, which means that you still decided to do good and find those wings of yours. People with such experience have a subtle mental organization, they have a hard time trusting, it is difficult for them to make contact. But they have a burning desire to help, they have a very developed sense of justice, sometimes reaching an unhealthy understanding of it. Here you will need self-discipline, choose sports and professions related to it.

Medicine, firefighters, doctors - these are the professions where you can show your sense of responsibility, your wonderful sharp mind, and helping people will be a pleasure for you. You need to try to avoid senseless aggression in its unhealthy behavior, watch your speech and diet, alcohol and other bad habits have the best effect on your spirit. Listen to your heart, you once radiated a magnificent light, which means it has been reborn in you, support it with good deeds, do not forget that when we love ourselves, we can love others. Love yourself without selfishness, but do not let your spirit be extinguished.

Joy is love elevated; peace is love returned; long-suffering is love that endures; gentleness is love in society; kindness is love in action; faith is love on the battlefield; meekness is love in difficult times; and temperance is love in training. - Dwight L. Moody

3rd level of Asura

Asuras are demons possessed by egoism. At some point in their incarnation, for some reason, they went into the position of a victim. They began to care only about themselves, in an absolutely negative manifestation, their benefits exceeded the significance of all others. If you came from the third level, it means that you decided to overcome your egoism and go through the difficult path of gaining faith. You have a sharp mind and, of course, you are excellent strategists. You are excellent analysts. And, of course, people from the third level know how to earn material benefits with their hard work. You have a lot of energy, do not waste it on self-flagellation or anger. Calm your ego, leave that healthy part and move towards your good dreams. Do not forget about helping your neighbors. Learn to love again.

You are wonderful parents with a lot of enthusiasm and energy. You, like no one else, can do more than two things at once, and very well, and not half-heartedly. Asuras can achieve great things, let these things bring benefit and light to your loved ones and people around you.

Faith brings such freedom, such love, such peace and such joy into our lives that there are no words in any language that can explain it. You have to have it to know it. You have to experience it to understand it. Faith liberates. It liberates love and hope. If I am free to love and free to hope, what more do I want from life? - Katherine Doherty

2nd level Rakshasa

Rakshasas are demons and masters of illusion. They have plunged into darkness, extinguished the light in their hearts. They have gone through difficult experiences in the past, which plunged them into darkness. However, Rakshasas have a certain code of honor and are not averse to fighting in a "fair fight". War is their favorite pastime.

People from the second level have come to gain experience of peace. They value this blessing - to have the experience of enjoying the simple, they see a flaw everywhere. They see the ego everywhere and in themselves, thereby preventing themselves from loving themselves. The task of not only them, but also their loved ones is to teach them to love the small, to love and value themselves. And then they will fill their hearts with faith, faith in their strength and the power of love.

People who come from the second level often choose professions related to the land or natural resources: farmers, architects, engineers. They have a mathematical mind, they are good at understanding where you need to think and take your time to make a decision, they will weigh and analyze everything. They are not quick-tempered, but if you offend them, you are unlikely to return their trust. They are freedom-loving, love to travel, study culture and languages. They adapt well to their habitat, are not capricious.

Faith is faith in the unknown. Faith heals, faith creates, faith works miracles, faith moves mountains. Faith is the searchlight for God. - Sivananda Bhutas are demons who have lost all hope for themselves and have stopped remembering the light of their soul at its inception. They remember only pain and anger. It is difficult for them to find the path to the light, since they have simply lost these memories. These are also often very young souls who immediately received a very painful negative experience and could not accept it, and began to deny their good existence. People of the first level came to learn to live again, to live with the opportunity to love, to see the light, to gain experience in helping others and to accept help from others. They need, like children, to learn to choose their path of knowledge, to choose a profession where their heart will learn the experience of love again.

1st level of Bhuta

People of the first level, like children, despite all the difficult experience of the past, are sincerely surprised by the simple, their neighbors need to support this light, to see the magic of creation in the everyday. They strive for learning, their mind absorbs knowledge. You can choose any path, rely on your heart. Choose it with understanding and responsibility. Accept that sometimes it will be hard, but the main thing here is to move, and do not forget that the path of our growth is life, rest is necessary, like our work, to overcome the next step. Do not lose yourself in search of your business.

People climb into express trains, but they themselves do not understand what they are looking for, so they know no peace, rushing first in one direction, then in another… And all in vain… The eyes are blind. You must search with your heart. Antoine de Saint-Exupéry

Legacy in the civilizations of the Interstellar Union https://blog.cassiopeia.center/nasledstvo-v-civilizaciyah-mezhzvyozdnogo-soyuza

According to the laws of the Interstellar Union, each Spirit, before leaving incarnation, if it is not a sudden exit, disposes of its property on the advice of its Higher Self. The protocol states that the Spirit, leaving incarnation on the advice of its spiritual non-incarnate part, distributes its property for certain purposes. It does not simply distribute it to certain individuals, it also writes down certain purposes in its will. It specifies what it would like them to use it for.

And if he suddenly left the incarnation, then his property remains with the one he indicates from the Spiritual world. There are spiritual specialists in astral interactions. Such a specialist, together with a relative of the deceased, goes to the Astral, to the world of non-incarnate Spirits. He asks permission from the Spirit's mentors to meet with him. This is considered a good reason, because the property is part of his material energy, he spent a certain amount of energy to accumulate it.

The deceased, in contact with his Higher Self, as a single, integral Spirit, gives the answer: where, for what and why. He has the right to bequeath it to his children or simply to society, or to some specific organization. Not necessarily on his planet or in the Interstellar Union. It is his right if he sends the property to a specific organization. The Spirit himself appoints a responsible person. Usually his relative or acquaintance, who will ensure that this property goes where it should.

> Comment : You live and live on Earth, and you receive an inheritance from another planet. To some contactee.

The contactee is forbidden to give physical evidence. Therefore, of course, this is somewhat limiting. Then all the mentors and curators, upon leaving the incarnation, would send part of their savings to the contactee, converting them into valuable metals, materials that exist on Earth (laughs).

After the inheritance issue is resolved, the Spirit is considered ready to move to the Spiritual World. It remains alone, goes into meditation and separates from the body. At the same time, its relatives and friends may be present, if it so wishes. It also happens that it wishes to remain alone with its Higher Self, with its guides, mentors and curators.

#589 Channeling Live with the Galactic Federation of Light. Billy Meier. Gorbachev. Peruvian Contact.
https://blog.cassiopeia.center/chenneling-v-pryamom-ehfire-s-galakticheskoj-feder https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kzC284ttxwQ

00:00 Start of video.

00:04 Rusan on the contradictory information from contactees.

Maxim: Dear friends, hello to everyone. As always, we have some minor technical issues, so we decided to move the broadcast by 15 minutes. How can you hear me, please? Excellent. The main thing is that you can hear us well.

Lately, each broadcast has become more and more interesting. Today we have on the line the Galactic Federation of Light, the Pleiades, even the Pleiades group. These are the ones who organized and made the Peruvian contact, those who made contact with Gorbachev and those who had contact with Billy Meyer. This is one group of extraterrestrial civilizations. It is very heterogeneous, as far as I understand. And today, representatives of this group will answer very interesting questions. A large number.

It seems to me that there is a contradiction between the data that the Interstellar Union gives and the data that the Galactic Federation of Light transmitted to Billy Mayer. Therefore, today on this broadcast we will raise very acute questions concerning the contradictions of these moments.

And, by the way, you know, I noticed that the Galactic Federation of Light has long been in the field of communication of contactees. But the Interstellar Union recently appeared in the field. And I myself learned about the Interstellar Union only when I met Irina Podzorova. For me, aliens only appeared when Irina appeared. Therefore, I will be broadcasting today quite biasedly. Why? Because I have read a very large amount of information on the Peruvian contact, a large amount of information that Billy Meyer transmitted. Therefore, I think that today will be just fire-fire-fire. And there is no point in me supporting or not supporting anyone, there will be very acute questions today.

I expect quite sharp questions from you too. Today we will raise the topic of contact between the Galactic Federation of Light and people, contact between the Interstellar Union. By the way, you know, Griar Murati just won't let us go. He generally divided the contactees into two groups. These are those who say that this could not have happened, and those who say that they personally communicated with him.

So, dear friends, I can tell you in anticipation of sensational news that we have sent a whole expedition to this place according to the data that Ashtar Sheran transmitted about the landing of Griar Murati's saucer. Because I believe that if we are a serious Project, we should not just somehow state information without any evidence, we should already check this information in some specific way. Therefore, we formed an expedition to the crash site, to the crash site near the village according to the coordinates that Ashtar Sheran transmitted to us.

Therefore, dear ill-wishers, dear contactees, I think that we are all engaged in the same thing. We are engaged in preparing earthlings for possible further contact with other forms of life that exist in our Galaxy. I see no point in throwing mud at each other, I see no point in looking for contradictions. I see the point in entering into a mutual dialogue and in this mutual dialogue to look for some truth.

But this expedition investigation will be simply bombastic. We will explain why these could not have been meteorites from Lyra, we will show the place. We have conducted a survey of people who are nearby in a small village, who gave us feedback on what happened at night, what movements there were. In general, please wait for this film yourself. The film is being processed. There is quite a large amount of material, and it needs to be edited competently as a normal documentary. Therefore, a film about the investigation will appear soon.

We didn't name it after Griar Murati. Although I don't know, maybe we'll call it that. What do we have to hide? We wanted to approach this issue indirectly, but due to the great bitterness of some contactees towards this information, I understand that they don't read other information from Irina Podzorova. They only heard information about Griar Murati and based on this information they made some conclusions. Guys, please don't make any rash conclusions. We will need to further advance the topic of contacts with extraterrestrial civilizations. And what those who don't believe in this story with their spiritual hearts do is set people against our Project.

Maybe you do this on purpose? I know that some do it on purpose. Because they are not able to carry spiritual knowledge on the terms of payment according to the heart. Yes, of course, in this regard we are very big competitors to some projects that cannot, for their ethical and other reasons, carry spiritual knowledge taking into account payment according to the heart. Therefore, we are waiting for the film, we like it, we subscribe to the channel. Because when you like it and subscribe, you will have the opportunity not to miss the notification about the release of this film, this investigation.

We, of course, forget about the galactic news. I think that today we will not forget this moment, we will definitely talk about the galactic news. Today we will generally talk about many things that make those people who are not connected with contacts with extraterrestrial civilizations, have a very contradictory attitude towards all contactees.

Understand correctly that our task is not to tear each other's throats and not to decide who is cooler or who is not cooler. Our task is to give people who do not believe and do not understand that aliens exist, to tell not only about aliens, but also about the spiritual component of this whole process. Therefore, we are waiting for the film.

Our next news is a trip to Minsk and St. Petersburg. We are going to Minsk to a wonderful sanatorium, where we were the year before last. It is a KGB health sanatorium. A cool sanatorium, awesome. There are so many health procedures, there are swimming pools, saunas, different types of massage, hydromassage. In general, we are going both to improve our health (to another sanatorium besides our Health Center), and to present a unique new program. It will talk about astral travel, teach these astral travels, which will tell what the Science of Imagery is, which will tell about what theories there are in the universe.

There will be a lot of practices. Our wonderful masters are coming with us: Alleiya, Ivan Yonten, Guzel. And I am also waiting for all our graduates-contactees who will also want to get to this wonderful unique place with very interesting unique practices and new information from the Interstellar Union and the Galactic Federation of Light.

I want to say hello to Ufa. Ufa, we are leaving for you tomorrow. As agreed, we will be with you from the second to the fifth. Yes, Minsk, the Lesnoye sanatorium, everything is correct, absolutely correct. "Come to Krasnodar." And we will come to Krasnodar too. We have a schedule of trips for next year. Krasnodar is on our schedule.

I won't take up any more of your time. I know that I irritate many people with the first ten minutes of the most interesting news of our Project. But that's okay. I think that if I irritate someone, it means that I influence someone.

Guys, I really want to say that among esotericists, I jokingly call them schizoterics, I am not from this environment. I am from a completely different environment. I got into esotericism, so to speak, through psychology. When Irina and I opened the Cassiopeia Project, I knew that it would be difficult. But to such an extent, and that I would have to deal with people who absolutely lack analytical and other forms of thinking, I did not think.

I am handing over the reins of power to our wonderful contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations, Irina Podzorova. Irishenka, sit down.

11:23 Introduction of participants.

Irina: Greetings to all, dear friends! Good evening to all. My name is Irina Podzorova. I am a contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations. Today is a very interesting conversation. Many have already gathered here, representatives of both the Galactic Federation of Light and the Interstellar Union are present. I asked a representative of the Galaxy Security Service, Bergast from the planet Burkhad, to come. He works in the Galaxy Security Service, which closely cooperates with the Galactic Federation of Light. Also present here is a representative of the planet Futissa. One of the specialists of the commission for contacts with young races of the Galactic Federation of Light, OalmaRaums.

Maxim: Today we have Bergast, OalmaRaums.

Irina: He's from the planet Futissa. He's a biophysicist.

Irina (OalmaRaums): I studied sociology and am a specialist in contacts with young races. That is, with those races that have not yet left the confines of their star system. Have not entered the big space, as we say.

Irina: Also present here are the Lyrians from the planet Tuluari Artis. Already familiar to us. He is also a specialist sociologist, a socio-psychologist. He studies the laws of society, studies the influence on society, studies the Science of imagery and so on. And also present here, of course, are LiShioni from the planet Shimor and MidgasKaus from the planet Esler. They will also be with us, because they are specialists in contact with earthlings.

Maxim: MidgasKaus, I have a request for you right away. Please tell me, there was information that you refused contact with earthlings, is it true?

Irina (MidgasKaus): No, of course not. I have many contactees, the number has even increased.

Maxim: Even increased?

Irina (MidgasKaus): Yes. I know who said that about me. Irina told me, and other contactees told me too. This person who said that about me, this contactee himself refused to contact me. And I do not force, it is free will.

Maxim: Thank you very much, MidgasKaus. I see. Irina, is that all who is with us or is there anyone else with us?

Irina: There are also representatives of the plasmoid civilization, they are also from the GFS. There are three of them. There is another Futissian here, a colleague of Griar, one of the specialists who contact earthlings. He lived at the base. He says: "You can call me Sabiir."

Maxim: There is a big conference today, and I even got a little lost.

Irina (Sabiir): I came because I spoke directly with Yakovlev and Gorbachev.

Maxim: Ah, that's it, I get it. So you spoke with him directly at the base, right?

Irina (Sabiir): I decided that the story about this contact would be interesting to you.

Maxim: Very interesting.

Irina (Sabiir): LiShioni contacted me and said that the Cassiopeia Project is interested in contacts of the Galactic Federation of Light. I can also tell you about the Peruvian contact. I know about it, I also participated, I was one of the specialists. It was a major project.

I'll list them now. Two Futissians, one Lyrian, one Burkhadian.

Maxim: We have Artis from Lyria, Sabiir and OalmaRaums from Futis, Bergast from the planet Burkhad and plasmoids from the GFS.

Let's then start with an interesting contact, with a contact with Gorbachev.

Irina: Let's start with galactic news, otherwise we'll forget again.

17:09 The emergence of a new intelligent civilization in the Galaxy.

Irina: Yes, we have very interesting news that happened a month ago. We decided to report it as galactic news. We haven't talked about it yet.

In the constellation Pegasus, on a long-discovered planet, the first intelligent beings appeared, that is, they evolved. And now there are 728 intelligent civilizations in the Galaxy. I want to say that this civilization appeared in bodies similar to your large birds. We observed this situation and now we have found out that intelligent Spirits are already incarnating there.

Maxim: No, guys, Gorbachev is not here, don't worry. We just decided to invite the representative from Futissa who was in contact with him.

Irina (Sabiir): I decided to come because OalmaRaums knows about this contact, but I thought you might want to hear directly from the person who made contact with them.

18:25 The aliens' goal in contacting Gorbachev.

Maxim: First of all, I greet everyone with great respect, our dear interstellar friends. I have already communicated with you all a lot. But I have never communicated with Sabiir, and I have a question for you right away. Tell me, please, why did you need contact with Gorbachev?

Irina (Sabiir): Why did we need contact with Gorbachev? Because he was a key figure in a large Earth state and influenced the life of the entire Earth. In order to warn him not to make the wrong moves.

Maxim: Warn Gorbachev?

Irina (Sabiir): Yes.

Maxim: Please tell me, who from other countries did you invite to contact you in order to also warn?

Irina (Sabiir): I was directly responsible for contacts with the Soviet Union, with Russia. But our other specialists were in contact with the United States of America, Great Britain, India, the African continent, Brazil, Peru, and generally with the countries of South America. We have several mobile groups that move to the base and there they receive all the information about the country where they are in contact, about the rulers, about the leading political groups, elite structures, and so on. And there they develop plans on how to influence society in a positive way.

20:18 Contacts between aliens and the Russian Government.

Maxim: Please tell me, do you interact in any way with the Government that we have on the territory of the Russian Federation?

Irina (Sabiir): Naturally, we also contact. Yes, we have contactees there.

Maxim: Are they transmitting information?

Irina (Sabiir): They have microchips. They use them to transmit information to us about what is happening in the corridors of the Government. And we, in turn, give them advice and recommendations on how to act in their profession.

Maxim: Interesting.

Irina (Sabiir): I would like to address Bergast now. They are, naturally, physical contactees. But since physical contacts are currently temporarily limited, we have switched to mental communication via microchips. But it is not possible with all of our contactees, because even microchips are not capable of enhancing astral sensitivity in a person who is too materialistic.

21:33 Statistics on alien ships shot down by earthlings.

Maxim: I want to ask the representatives of the GFL - the Galactic Federation of Light. Please tell me how many ships have been shot down by earthlings over the past 12,000 years?

Irina: All? State Fiscal Service and the Ministry of Justice? Or only the State Fiscal Service?

Maxim: Approximately how many MS, how many GFS?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes, we record everything. Over the last 12,000 years, 731 ships from the Galactic Federation of Light have been shot down. And 352 ships from the Interstellar Union have been shot down.

Maxim: Please tell me, how was it possible to shoot down ships with such technologies? Because many ufologists who contact you say that your technologies are so advanced that it is impossible to shoot you down.

Irina: Who is the question for?

Maxim: To Sabiir.

Irina (Sabiir): My opinion is that any ship downing is the result of the carelessness of the crew that was operating it. Or of those humanoids that launched the automatic ship, the automatic probe, if we are talking specifically about it, because this number includes automatic probes, the so-called robot ships.

Maxim: I see. Let's say that our scientific and technical progress, so that we could somehow shoot down your ships, has been progressing for the last 100 years, but before that moment there were any ships shot down on Earth?

Irina (Sabiir): No, before that, there weren't any. During the era when weapons appeared.

Maxim: Over the last 100 years.

Irina (Sabiir): You could say that. A little more, but yes.

24:00 Coordinating Earth security issues with aliens.

Maxim: The question, I will ask it correctly. There is contact with a group of representatives from different countries in order to somehow supervise and coordinate issues of nuclear safety and many other issues. Am I right?

Irina (Sabiir): Yes, we also supervise environmental safety, nuclear safety and so-called political security. We monitor the adoption of laws that could lead to political destabilization of society, lead to totalitarian regimes and so on.

Maxim: I have another question. I would like to address it to Sabiir.

24:53 Disagreements on the issue of safety of contacts among aliens.

Maxim: I know that there are disagreements regarding the issue of contact with earthlings between the Galactic Federation of Light and the Interstellar Union.

Irina (Bergastr): Hello. I want to say that because of these disagreements, the number of downed ships is different. What was said about the Interstellar Union, 351, here the majority are unmanned. And the Galactic Federation of Light has a different number, because they have a different approach to contacts in general. They often make contact without camouflage, fly too low over military bases, fly close to aircraft, and so on. They disregard safety rules.

A striking example of such neglect was quite recently, as you already know, with Griar Murati, who was also a representative of the Galactic Federation of Light. He had all the means on his ship to be invisible. Not that he would not be shot down, but so that he would not even be seen. He did not use this himself of his own free will. But we have all the means, all the technologies. By the way, they are constantly being improved not only in interaction with earthlings, but also in the study of new materials, their combinations, new properties of energy fields. After all, our science does not stand still, it is constantly moving forward.

26:59 Civilizations in contact with earthlings.

Maxim: Question for Sabiir. I notice that those contactees who contact the Galactic Federation of Light begin to deny that the Interstellar Union exists. Why is this happening? They say that such a thing does not exist, only the Galactic Federation of Light exists, the Interstellar Union is a fake and a fabrication.

Irina: He asks for an example. Who denies the Interstellar Union? Who was asked?

Maxim: In general, they say that the Interstellar Union is a union of outcasts.

Irina: Denying the Interstellar Union and saying that they are outcasts are two different things.

Maxim: That this is a union of outcasts, that they have no place, they have no say, no influence. Why is this happening?

Irina (Sabiir): This is the personal opinion of those curators who came into contact with them, refracted through their earthly psychology, their mental apparatus.

Maxim: Besides the Interstellar Union and the Galactic Federation of Light, what other associations are there that transmit information to Earth?

Irina (Sabiir): "Union of Six". But through the Astral.

Maxim: Are there any other unions?

Irina (Sabiir): Not in our Galaxy. There is the Intergalactic Association, there is the Intergalactic Union, it is sometimes also called the Intergalactic Confederation. For example, in the Western countries of the Earth it will most likely be called a confederation. And the "union" will be called in the post-Soviet countries. When we communicate with you, we switch to earthly languages. We will not say, for example, that in Burkhad the organization is called "Roshtiyar Porghaati". You will not understand these words. Therefore, we speak the earthly language.

Maxim: Tell me, please, is there some planet that is even more aggressive than our earthly civilization?

Irina (Sabiir): Of course, it exists. There are planets where very cruel wars are going on, including in space. But they do not go beyond the Star system. They are isolated, as it were, in their Star system, and they are not included in any unions.

Even, as you know, in the "Union of Six" among these planets there are no planets where wars are going on. They are solitary.

Maxim: Question for Bergast.

29:53 Spiritual egoism of contactees.

Maxim: Bergast, what is the reason for such egocentrism of each contactee? Let's say we do not deny the existence of other contactees and that they have contact. Many contactees say that "I have the right contact, and that one, she or he, is talking nonsense." What is this even connected with? Maybe with some peculiarities of our human development or something else?

Irina (Bergastr): If a person says that he is talking nonsense, he shows disbelief. And if a person shows disbelief, in your opinion, he has a narrow mind. He is capable of understanding and accepting only his form of contact. And seeing contradictions, for example, with his information, he can protect his information. Turn on the instinct of self-preservation, but only preserving his information, himself in the previous state. As a defense.

And if this contactee encounters information from another source that will visibly contradict his own, he can turn on this defense and devalue the contact of the other in order to continue believing in his contact. Because otherwise he will have a fear that his contact is wrong. This is a defensive reaction.

Maxim: I understand, thank you.

Irina (Bergastr): I can give another example. You know, there are such contacts, in which they say that one Spirit or (as you say) the Higher Self has many simultaneous incarnations. Do you know that there is such a teaching on Earth? Some contactees also talk about it. Are you aware of this?

Maxim: Yes, I know about this.

Irina (Bergastr): And if through Irina (and other contactees) they transmit information that the Higher Self has only one incarnation? How will you or Irina, or another contactee react to information that says that the Higher Self has many simultaneous incarnations? What will you say?

Maxim: That they are transmitting information incorrectly.

Irina (Bergastr): Why would you say that it is wrong and not otherwise?

Maxim: One incarnation in one person and many incarnations in one person are two different things.

Irina (Bergastr): No, not different. If you look from the position of the Spiritual world, all incarnations generally happen simultaneously. Why don't you find unification, but look for differences? That's how your brain works.

Maxim: To bite each other's throats and prove that I'm not a deer. Perhaps, after all, that's how we're made.

Irina (Bergastr): Look, in the Spiritual world there is no time. And that means, if you look from the point of view of the non-embodied part of the Spirit, for example, your Higher Self can enter a state where it will simultaneously perceive itself in many bodies. And it will say: “I am embodied at the same time.” When your embodied part perceives this message from the Higher Self, you will understand it as happening now. And you will say that you have many incarnations here.

Maxim: That is, when we transmit information, we simply need to look for a way to explain where this information comes from. Am I right?

Irina (Bergastr): Yes, naturally, you can find an explanation for many things, but only if the contactee himself wants it. Because, perhaps, the contactee heard the information and begins to deny it, without understanding where it came from to the other contactee, and where it could have been perceived, but simply denying it and saying that he made it up. For example, I didn’t make it up, but he did.

There are some contactees who consider other people's contacts to be fiction, and their own to be reality. But they do not take into account that other people may also consider their contact to be fiction, fantasy. Some contactees not only begin to think so, but also to talk about it publicly to those people to whom they transmit information through the media. For example, they begin to say: "This contactee made this up." They do not say, this is such a transmission through his personality. They simply say "made it up."

And when they start asking him: "Did he make this up on purpose or not?" He is deceiving himself. Not on purpose, such a fantasy arose in his mind, supposedly he is so weak that he could not distinguish the fantasy from his curator.

You've heard things like that, haven't you?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Bergastr): But they don't talk about themselves like that, so my mind couldn't distinguish fantasy from reality. They talk about others like that. So you understand that this is a form of spiritual egoism.

35:51 Aliens' disagreements about religions on Earth.

Maxim: Bergast, there is information that the Galactic Federation of Light does not impose any religions on us, but the Interstellar Union for some reason imposes religions on us. I wanted to ask the representatives of the Galactic Federation of Light: were any religions transmitted to us on our planet?

Irina (OalmaRaums): No. This is really done by the Interstellar Union, for which the specialists of the Galactic Federation of Light criticize its specialists a lot for creating religious egregors, for the fact that these egregors become dogmatic. Especially considering your, as Bergast already said, dual nature. When many religions are created, this can create grounds for conflicts.

Maxim: Yes. Because, let's say, a Christian and a Muslim can argue until they foam at the mouth and not hear each other.

Irina (OalmaRaums): For example, I perfectly understand the position of the representatives of the Interstellar Union, who say that in different religions, as well as in different nationalities, people must go through lessons of accepting those who are not like them, so that there is no xenophobia. Of course, I understand this too.

But the position of the Galactic Federation of Light is different. We believe that moving away from xenophobia can be done in a different way. Not through the creation of a religion, not through the creation of different nationalities, but through individual contact with each person and the gradual increase of their vibrations and spiritual enlightenment.

Many specialists of the Galactic Federation of Light tell the specialists of the Interstellar Union: “You should first teach people spiritual enlightenment, and then introduce religions when there is already soil.”

Maxim: I would like to ask Bergast. Why then does the Interstellar Union introduce religions? What does the Interstellar Union think about this? Why should this be done?

Irina (OalmaRaums): In general, a religious egregor, religion is a path to spirituality. This is so that the Soul, which got into a body with such a way of thinking, with such a brain and into such a society, where there is no spiritual enlightenment yet, as in the Interstellar Union or the Galactic Federation of Light. OalmaRaums does not take into account that in his society from childhood they teach to contact the Higher Self, the spiritual Self, the non-embodied Self. Everyone around does this. Of course, they are spiritually enlightened, why do they need religion?

On Earth, the environment is completely different, you have a very materialistic environment. You have the example of adults next to a child, there are schools where all people, as I would say, turn on their instincts and fight for survival. This makes them selfish consumers of the goods that are around them. If there is a dispute over certain material resources, selfishly minded people who are not in contact with their Higher Self, do not recognize themselves as Spirits, will enter into conflict even without religion.

For example, let's take the Soviet Union. They said that religion should be banned as a relic of the past. Did that make them kinder? You can look at the actions of atheists, who introduced the death penalty and fought. There was a certain cruelty there too. The absence of religion did not eliminate cruelty.

Certain commandments, laws were introduced into religion that called for raising one's vibrations, avoiding sins, avoiding what leads to degradation, to destruction. It was necessary to explain why this should be avoided if one wanted to do it. Explaining that you will develop love to a person who has not purified his heart is useless, he does not understand the importance of love. He needed to be told that if you do not do this, you will end up in a terrible place, that is, to intimidate, to frighten with fear.

Look, if you have a child who wants, for example, to take matches and set something on fire. You won't tell him: "If you do this, our house will burn down, and then we will have less love." When he does this, it will be too late to say this. You will take these matches from him by force and will scare him that if you do this, you will burn yourself and it will hurt. You will scare him with pain, won't you? Because he doesn't understand yet, he is not aware.

And there are civilizations that are not conscious. They have not yet gone through the path of a civilizational structure on the terms of equality. Even under democracy they hide a dictatorship of varying degrees of expression. I do not know of a single real democracy on Earth. This is now. And can you imagine what it was, for example, just five thousand years ago?

45:21 Opinions of aliens about evidence of their presence on Earth.

Maxim: Why are there such disagreements between the Interstellar Union and the Galactic Federation of Light regarding evidence of contact, regarding the appearance of flying saucers? Why does the Interstellar Union not show itself, while the Galactic Federation of Light has such an opportunity, shows its saucers, contacts contactees, allows itself to be filmed on video?

This is a question for the representative of the planet Futissa. Who can answer this question from the GFS? Why does the Interstellar Union not give any evidence and strives not to give it, while the Galactic Federation of Light, on the contrary, strives to prove the existence of this contact?

Irina (Artis): Because contact with evidence, open contact attracts people's attention more and makes them think about the reality of what is happening. When a contactee is simply given information without any confirmation, depending on the society where the contactee lives, this can completely discredit him. Then tell your contactee not to suffer from attacks, ridicule, and sometimes even isolation in a psychiatric hospital. Tell him to at least write science fiction books, but not to call it the truth. It will be more humane.

This is Artis' opinion.

Maxim: GFS. And now I want to hear Bergast's opinion. The opinion of a representative of the Interstellar Union.

Irina: They have such discussions.

Maxim: I would like to discuss this topic, because there are many contradictions. And these disagreements especially reveal contradictions among the contactees.

Irina: When different mental thought forms come telepathically, I feel like a participant in a Galactic conference where they stand and discuss.

Maxim: What does Bergast want to say about this? Why does the Galactic Federation of Light, on the contrary, understand that earthlings need to be instilled with this contact, to show that we really exist. But the Interstellar Union is simply against this open contact?

Irina (Bergastr): It's not without reason that we are against open contact. In fact, evidence was completely banned in 1996.

Maxim: In connection with what?

Irina (Bergastr): In connection with many cases of even greater persecution of contactees who provided this evidence. Either by the special services of their state, or by criminal groups that could, through blackmail and force through the contactee, try to somehow influence extraterrestrial civilizations so that they would provide information, mainly of a technological nature, which could strengthen their group.

Maxim: A group of contactees?

Irina (Bergastr): Criminal groups that were pursuing them. There were such cases. They were in the State Fiscal Service as well. The same project "Peruvian Contact" that was closed. And it was not just closed, there were certain problems related to evidence.

Why, for example, did Gorbachev, with whom the Futissians spoke, not have problems? You know perfectly well that he spoke with him. But he didn’t come and tell everyone: “I contacted aliens. I was taken to make contact.” Imagine the president’s tribune now. It turns out that he says this for everyone to hear. What will be the reaction?

Maxim: Here's an example - Kirsan Ilyumzhinov. He said openly that he had a contact, and after some time he lost his position.

Irina (Bergastr): By the way, he hasn’t said everything yet.

Maxim: What does this mean?

Irina (Bergastr): He hasn’t talked about many contacts yet.

Maxim: Were there frequent contacts?

Irina (Bergastr): He doesn't often. He had a few physical contacts, because he has a different task. But he contacts quite well on the mental plane.

Maxim: He also plays chess professionally. That means he has a developed brain.

Irina (Bergastr): We would gladly provide some evidence. We would even fly to you to drink tea with you, but we are just guessing how this might end. Not for us, but for you.

47:28 The fate of contactee Billy Meier.

Maxim: Were there many moments when contactees were given evidence, and did it affect their life activities?

Irina (Bergastr): There are dozens of such cases.

Maxim: And what happens to them when they are given proof of contact?

Irina (Bergastr): For example, do you know Billy Meyer?

Maxim: We also have a lot of questions about him.

Irina (Bergastr): You know Billy Mayer, who lives in Europe, as I understand it?

Maxim: What, is there another Billy Meyer?

Irina (Bergastr): In fact, that Billy Meyer, who is also a contactee and lives in Europe, has a real name of Eduard. Ed, Eduard. He took Billy for himself, as you call it, a pseudonym for writing books. He called himself that because his curator told him about the case of another contactee named Billy, but who lived not in Europe, but in the United States of America before him. In 1953, he had contact with a representative of Futissa. Now, by the way, they are still imprisoned in an interplanetary prison. This contact led to the death of not only him, but also his family: his wife and three children.

And for all these lives, it was the representatives of the Interstellar Union who arrested the curators. There were two of them who gave him evidence. And they took them to the planet of criminals. They are responsible for this incident, for their lives.

Maxim: Here, please, in more detail. It turns out that the Interstellar Union oversees the rules of not giving contacts, and for this, criminals are put on the planet?

Irina (Bergastr): Naturally. Earth civilization as a rational community was created on the basis of hybridization. Hybridization was led by the planet Burkhad. And that's not all. As is known, your planet was initially discovered, a space detachment from the constellation Tumesout flew to it. And this is also the Interstellar Union. The Galactic Federation of Light did not even exist, the Interstellar Union was the very first to appear in our Galaxy.

Maxim: I understand. It turns out that the Galactic Federation of Light gave information to Billy Meier that there is an earthly race on Earth that initially, before the moment of the incarnation of the intelligent Spirit, that is, before the acquisition of memory, awareness, itself acquired these properties. Is it possible to somehow comment on Sabiir, why Billy Meier was given information that human civilization, originally developed here itself?

Irina (Sabiir): It was the representatives of the Galactic Federation of Light who did not give such information to anyone, at least not to me and other curators whom I know. I did not have direct contact with Billy Meier. It was a long time ago, I was working in a different field at that time. OalmaRaums knows his curator directly.

51:43 Different interpretations of information from contactees.

Maxim: I want to read a phrase from Billy Meier’s book: “Man arose on this planet with the help of the forces of the planet and nature without the touch of any deity.”

Irina (Sabiir): He wrote about the deity. Here he simply decided to convey the information that the basis of man (you have primate genes, right?) was created by the earthly plasmoid civilizations themselves. He meant nature. I know this place from the book. He simply denied the biblical picture of the world, when God created man from clay.

Maxim: Good. "There are not only earthlings on Earth, but also people of extraterrestrial origin from the constellations Lyra and Vega, the regions of Sirius, the planet of milk Phaeton." What does this mean that there are not only earthlings on Earth?

Irina (Sabiir): Naturally, many exist on Earth, not only earthlings. In general, existence is life. We live for a long time on your bases. We also exist on your planet and from different planets.

Maxim: It turns out that there are not only earthlings on Earth, but also people of extraterrestrial origin.

Irina (Sabiir): Yes, these are people of extraterrestrial origin. He meant us, humanoids.

Maxim: I would like to talk about Phaeton. The information in the book is very ambiguous. I just want to find out. "Phaeton is a planet destroyed by the madness of those who lived on it," and then in the same book it says that "Phaeton was destroyed in the war." What does that even mean?

Irina (Sabiir): You need to ask him what kind of madness there was among those who lived there, because it is generally known that it was destroyed by a strike from space. Perhaps what is meant here is that the inhabitants of Phaeton somehow attracted this aggression themselves. But given the history of the war with Selbet in the Solar System, I want to say that the attack was sudden for many intelligent beings.

And here I can only comment on Billy Meier's words in this way: the madness of the Phaetonians was that they did not put up defenses around the Solar System from military invasion. There was none then. Now this defense is carried out by a detachment of Ashtar Sheran ships, which are also in the Galactic Federation of Light. There was none then.

Maxim: Are there Interstellar Union ships that protect us?

Irina (Sabiir): No. They can be present in the detachment of Ashtar Sheran's ships under the agreement. But in general, Ashtar Sheran and his team are the ones who do this. He took on this function himself.

Maxim: The question now will be very interesting, this is, of course, not in contrast to other contactees. Basically, contactees with the Galactic Federation of Light transmit information about raising vibrations, about energies, about chakras. But not a single contactee transmits information in technical language, which Irina can transmit. Are there contactees with the Galactic Federation of Light who can also transmit information, like Irina? Let's say, what planet, what is the mass of the planet, what is the atmosphere of the planet?

We are now writing the "Galactic Almanac", where we indicate the civilizations of the Interstellar Union. And Irina describes and tells technical information about the planets and energies in detail. I have never heard from the contactees of the Galactic Federation of Light how energies are structured, what types, subtypes, what quantity, what they include. I hear from the contactees only information about spiritual development, about chakras, about etheric fields. And much more.

Irina (Bergastr): They are not interested. Why do they need the mass of the planet? Why should they transmit this? They are not tuned to this. There are contactees who, even if you transmit this information, will reject it. Because it is simply not interesting to them, and they are tuned to one wave of transmission about vibrations, about energies. I would say, information in an esoteric key.

As for Irina, I want to talk about the specifics of this contactee. Do you know that we have a questionnaire, a file for each contactee? Her immediate supervisor is MidgasKaus. We are also in contact with him. Naturally, he keeps this questionnaire for each of his contactees. He can confirm this, and I know and feel it myself. And we also talked with Kirkhiton, we know him.

Irina has a specificity, that she has a heightened, not activity, but, you know, of a person who is very curious about the world. When he is already an adult, but in his curiosity he approaches a child who is just learning about reality. Do you know such an adult who can stop, for example, near a tree and start thinking, what is it called, how is it made? Do you know such an adult?

Maxim: No.

Irina (Bergastr): Is there such a type of psyche?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Bergastr): It is curiosity, the curiosity of this contactee. Irina has it, it is quite developed. She is still interested in the structure of the world, from the smallest microbe to the huge Sun. She is interested in absolutely everything. And therefore it is easy to transmit diverse information through her.

Maxim: I understand. Many people react that if you laugh, it’s not true.

Irina: Because I find it funny what they said about me. And I'm so surprised that it's not all true?

Maxim: Unfortunately, it's not all that way. And they still argue about who is better at transmitting spiritual information. But there is no technical information. I have never heard pure technical information from another contactee, as I, for example, see it from you.

Irina: “Let Irisha laugh.” Thank you.

Maxim: Okay, then I have another question: there are descendants on Earth who were destroyed in the war between the Lyrians, Vegans, Sirians and Molons. What kind of descendants are these, and where are they on Earth?

Irina (Artis): I am just one of the Lyrians and I am a member of the Interstellar Union, but I know a civilization of Lyrians that is a member of the Galactic Federation of Light and the Interstellar Union at the same time (they transmit many different thought forms to me).

I know who Billy Meier could have spoken about when he said "descendants live on Earth." He meant that before the war 12,000 years ago, contacts were generally open. No one was hiding from anyone, flying saucers could fly in, land in the middle of a field (shows an alien saucer) and could enter into open contacts.

Maxim: We also entered into open sexual contacts with earthlings.

Irina (Artis): And they had sexual intercourse and fell in love with each other, and if they were compatible, which was often reinforced by special drugs that improved the compatibility of different genetic types, children were born. This also happened with the Lyrians, and the Sirians, and the civilizations that Billy Meyer listed. And the Shimorians, as you know, even gave birth to Krishna.

And this was not an isolated case, in fact. And "descendants" means the descendants of those children who later gave birth to their own children, and these descendants reproduced until the war itself.

Maxim: It turns out that when there was a war, almost everyone was taken from the planet?

Irina (Artis): Yes, almost everyone. But there are those who were not found, who hid. According to various estimates, about two and a half thousand people remained on Earth, who hid somewhere. But of them, no more than a thousand remained alive, the rest perished in these cataclysms.

Maxim: Some of them are those children.

Irina (Artis): Yes, they already had descendants. They went into caves, into dense forests, and began to hide there. And when civilization began to develop again on Earth, their descendants were in no hurry to come out to this civilization and decided to live in parallel.

1:02:58 Reasons for the ban on direct contacts with earthlings.

Maxim: Now I have the most important question. Why were contacts allowed 12,000 years ago, and openly contacted, and after this war contacts were banned, and the Interstellar Union is overseeing the ban, and the Galactic Federation of Light is trying to violate this ban?

Irina (Artis): 12,000 years ago, before the war, Earth had no science of its own, no technology of its own, you needed help to start building your civilization, you needed to pass on knowledge. And later, after the war, many earthlings became wary of contacts with aliens in general, because they remembered how their former patrons turned their weapons against them. This was imprinted in the memory of earthlings as a betrayal. And it was decided not to impose contacts, to give earthlings the opportunity to build their own civilization.

Naturally, there were people among the earthlings who agreed to contact. Later they were called contactees, but not all of them contacted, but selectively. Through them, information was transmitted to other people in a form that could help them develop. Since they did not want such open contacts.

And, as I have already said, it was the Interstellar Union that transmitted this in mythological form, in a fairy tale form, so that it would be possible to build a religion understandable for the level of consciousness of that person, for the level of thinking that did not know the laws of nature, in order to educate them. You also educate children with fairy tales. Have you really never invited Santa Claus to your child? But this is a fairy tale.

Of course, there is a Spirit of Winter. But you invite a person who dresses like that to create the impression in your child that a real Santa Claus has come to him and brought him something. After all, you don’t say that this is a person in disguise? That is, you, in essence, create an illusion for him. But he needs this illusion while he is little. He begins to believe in it and raise his vibrations, because he directs his love to him.

Maxim: Bergast, please tell me. I read the comments, and there are a huge number of people saying that no, the State Fiscal Service is more right, we need to openly engage in contact, we need to provide evidence, because we, without evidence, our brain, our structure, we don't even believe ourselves.

1:06:20 Aliens on the validity of the rules for contacts with earthlings.

Maxim: Tell me, please, will the Interstellar Union provide evidence of the presence of extraterrestrial civilizations on our planet?

Irina (Bergastr): Now I will explain to you once again why such a decision was made. What is faith? What do you think?

Maxim: Faith is convincing yourself that it is real.

Irina (Bergastr): Convincing yourself on what basis?

Maxim: Based on my feelings.

Irina (Bergastr): Yes, this is a feeling of the existence of an object regardless of evidence. And what do you think, does this feeling develop a person or not? Does it raise vibrations or not?

Maxim: Of course.

Irina (Bergastr): Again, it depends on what.

Maxim: Are we talking about faith in God now or are we just talking about faith?

Irina (Bergastr): In general, about faith in any unproven phenomenon.

Maxim: Depends on what you believe. Because something can increase, and something can decrease.

Irina (Bergastr): Yes, but when you develop faith itself, the ability to believe without proof, you develop that part of your Soul that will help you build your reality and direct energy where you want even in other areas of life. If you doubt the subject of your faith and ask for proof, these doubts can prevent you from following the path of your life in completely different areas. Because there is a type of psyche of a person who constantly doubts. And a person who constantly doubts is not firm in any of his paths.

Maxim: And what does OalmaRaums, the representative of the State Fiscal Service, think about Bergastra's words?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Faith is useful. I want to talk about the sphere of proof at the very moment when your earthly authorities and special services are fully aware of the existence of Galactic civilizations. They hide this from the population in order not to lose their power. Giving proof to the people at this moment from the side of already cosmic civilizations is pointless, because it will only lead to a conflict with your own authorities. Is that clear?

Maxim: Yes, thank you. I want to ask OalmaRaums, the representative of the planet Futissa. Why then do you give evidence, putting people in danger?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Why do we provide evidence?

Maxim: Yes. And you are putting people in danger with this evidence. The secret services will hunt for the artifacts you give. If the Government really is hiding all this in order to control.

Irina (OalmaRaums): I understood your question. Yes, of course, if you just give evidence and leave the contactee alone with people who will come to investigate who he is contacting, whether it is dangerous for the state where he lives, with whom he came into contact. Maybe it is, for example, a spy from a neighboring state (you know the mindset of the special services). They will investigate all of this.

Of course, if you give evidence and just leave them with this evidence, it can be dangerous if the contactee shows it to someone. And this someone will tell someone else, and it will all go further. But we are not in favor of giving evidence to individuals, but in favor of giving evidence to groups of people at the same time, so that it would be difficult to isolate them individually. And so that they would raise this issue in the public sphere, in the media, and this information would reach the general public.

Maxim: I'll give you an example. Information from the US Congress about the existence of aliens. And this was discussed literally recently. And they said that aliens exist. Giving this information, many people here, in the chats, realizing that aliens exist, and the US Congress is talking about it, come up with reasons why this doesn't happen. Because there is a special military operation going on, people need to be distracted. Because they are so confusing people's minds. Because of something else. Even giving direct evidence from our government structures, people still won't believe in aliens.

Irina (OalmaRaums): Now imagine a person, for example, who was given access to this classified information from the special services, signed a non-disclosure agreement about the existence of downed ships, about the existence of alien bodies and everything else, or living aliens, who are also being studied.

If he gave this subscription, it was given not just like that, but on a special secret document form. And it says there that "if I disclose this information in my life, even when I no longer work in this structure, then I will betray the interests of the Earth." Because among the earthly special services there is an internal structure that resists alien invasion. Do you understand what I'm talking about?

Maxim: Yes. "We ask the GFS to enter into open contact with humanity of planet Earth." In fact, I have great respect for our curators - representatives of the Interstellar Union, I understand what they are talking about. I even support to some extent the idea that faith is much stronger than evidence. But many people demand evidence for aliens to appear and show themselves.

Irina (OalmaRaums): You tried to post on social media that photo where the spaceship that Irina photographed was clearly visible. Was there such a photo?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (OalmaRaums): Did you exhibit it?

Maxim: Yes, I did.

Irina (OalmaRaums): You read what it is.

Maxim: Yes, I read it.

Irina (OalmaRaums): Well, was this proof?

Maxim: No. Who wrote what. That it was a fake, that it was something else. It probably makes little sense.

Irina (OalmaRaums): And what did you feel?

Maxim: In this photo?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes, you remember her?

Maxim: Of course.

Irina: By the way, it was a ship from Futissa. You see, they didn't hide, but they still flew away later.

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes, you took a photo, you posted it. And what did you read? That everyone believed it? Do you think that if we had gone out and taken a photo with Irina in the background, the result would have been different?

Maxim: I think probably not.

Irina (OalmaRaums): Let's roll you back now, say, 15 years. Do you remember yourself 15 years ago?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (OalmaRaums): What did you think about aliens?

Maxim: I thought that people who talk about this smoke something.

Irina (OalmaRaums): And if you saw the photo, would it convince you?

Maxim: I would say it was photoshop, because I was absolutely sure that they weren't there. No, I wasn't absolutely sure, I had my suspicions that they were there, but I would still have my doubts.

Irina: "Please post it again." We've already heard. There were dozens of versions of what was photographed there. It's still on VKontakte. It's posted somewhere.

Maxim: Yes, on my page, in the VKontakte group.

Irina: We have her in our group too.

Maxim: She is in the group and on VKontakte. Scroll through, read the most interesting articles.

Irina: Read the articles.

Maxim: Especially those articles where they talk about energies, about the structure of energy. I want to continue the conversation further.

Who is the ancient Hanog, who existed 12 billion years ago, from whom different races diverged?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Billions?

Maxim: Yes, the book says “billions”.

Irina (OalmaRaums): This is definitely not from the Interstellar Union or the Galactic Federation of Light. At that time, even the Solar System did not exist. It is a little over 8 billion years old.

Maxim: Billy Mayer has information in his book that our Universe is 46 billion years old, and that the oldest dense-matter object in our Universe is 38 billion years old. This is information that was transmitted by the Galactic Federation of Light. It turns out that Billy May did not write his book himself, and it was not the GFL that transmitted it to him?

Irina: They mean the American Billy Meier, but you probably mean the Swiss one.

Maxim: You've confused me about Billy Myers.

Irina: Do you mean Eduard? They just have the last name Mayer. The one they contacted, he didn't have time to write anything. By the way, they let him film himself standing with two curators, and left the film in his video camera. And he showed it to the journalist.

Maxim: So, is there really a film that shows him and two aliens?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes, and not only that. And how they enter the flying saucer.

Maxim: Wait. The drawing where the person is standing, the alien is a little taller, and the alien is very tall - is that a drawing taken from real footage?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes, but it was a drawing. And it was film that was still on an American video camera from the fifties. Once again: I am now talking about the American Billy Meier, not the one in Switzerland.

Maxim: Even now I'm looking. Iga Igipa: "There are no photos."

Guys, of course, there are no photos. Don't go anywhere, we are deceiving you, we are sitting here. And in general, our Project, it turns out, is deceiving everyone. We are sitting here, we have nothing to do. We are sitting and making things up.

Irina (Bergastr): Look, you are here and you see that the person just came to waste his time to refute something. What do you think?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Bergastr): Let's think about motivation. You know very well, let's say a person decides to spend his energy on something. And time is also energy, by the way. Right? Time is energy? What do you think?

Maxim: Yes, a stream.

Irina (Bergastr): Energy flow. What do you think, for what purpose? Here is Irina, who writes that this contact does not exist. Let's all together, and Irina will think, and we will all think, why did this person decide to spend the time that God gave her for this day, for this evening, and which will never return, on refuting something that she herself does not believe in?

Maxim: It seems to me that things are so bad for her that she needs them to get even worse.

Irina: What do you mean bad?

Maxim: She doesn't believe in anything. She thinks that everyone is deceiving her. She doesn't believe. So, everyone is deceiving her?

Irina (Bergastr): Well, tell me, you yourself don't believe in everything yet? You have ideas that you don't believe in?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Bergastr): Are you going to go there and write that it’s not true?

Maxim: No, I won’t go.

Irina (Bergastr): You won’t waste your time on this?

Maxim: I won't. I don't have enough time to run the Project.

Sunday. I prepared for this broadcast, read the information. I killed my Sunday to conduct a live broadcast. My time is very precious to me, because I want to give people more adequate feedback, I want people to believe in the existence of aliens. Not just write to me that we are deceiving. But really believe.

Irina (Bergastr): Let Irina write. She confirms that yes, we are deceiving.

Irina, let's think together about why you spend time refuting something you don't believe in. Did you decide to convince us of this? That is, you decided to make me believe that I am deceiving someone. You decided to spend part of your Soul's energy on making the world a little better. Right? In your understanding, of course, how to get rid of information that is false for you.

But in fact, this desire comes from the need to see the world as perfect. But since there is little love in the heart, it is distorted, and a person begins to argue with people who have different beliefs, and say, "You are lying, and I am telling the truth." And if you tell him in response, "No, I am telling the truth, and you are lying," he will say, "You are very angry, you are very cruel, you treated me badly," and he will be offended. At the same time, he will not see his own cruelty and anger.

This is a state of the heart when a person wants to remake reality, remake the world, but without love. We will now stand on your worldview for a minute. Even if someone is deceiving someone.

Maxim: Ira, I suggest not wasting time on air, but continuing further.

Irina (Bergastr): Two words. If someone is deceiving someone, just relax and let people go through their lessons. Even if it is so. Because no one will definitely convince you, no one needs to change your reality, as long as you like it.

Maxim: Let's continue with the information from Billy Meier, which I read in the book. "Certain layers of the population were genetically modified, after which people became more aggressive, strong and combat-ready." What genetic modifications are we talking about here?

Irina (Bergastr): I think that we are talking about adding Tumesout genes, because they were the strongest, most physically powerful and resilient.

Maxim: They write in the book that these genes added degeneration, diseases, added the ability to live less. Previously, people lived longer, now people live less - up to 100 years. And now people develop diseases. Why then did they add these genes?

Irina (Bergastr): Only a person who is not entirely familiar with the spiritual structure of the world could write this. Do you think that any change in genes that affects life expectancy is possible without the permission of the spiritual patrons of the Earth, who send the Soul for a certain period of incarnation?

Maxim: Good question. I think probably not.

Irina (Bergastr): They first coordinate all this with the Spiritual World. Before changing the lifespan on Earth, which can affect, for example, the number of generations that can pass through Earth in, for example, a certain period of time. This can affect the construction and filling of various egregors. This is all already a spiritual question.

Maxim: Information: "22 million years ago, the Earth was visited by the Lyrians from the Lyra-Vega system, where different human races live: dwarfs, giants, giants, people of normal height. Skin of white, brown and red color." Do such people exist?

Irina (Bergastr): Yes. In general, there are people with different skin colors, not only Lyrians. The Earth was discovered 5 million years ago. It was not discovered before (they say they did not give such information).

Maxim: Who could have given such information?

Irina (Bergastr): When a contactee prints a book, we most often don't get acquainted with its text. Especially not in such detail, down to every line.

Maxim: "Maxim, please ask why the Tumesoutians destroyed the planet Majorak." Is there such a planet that Tumesout destroyed?

Irina (Bergastr): Majorac? Destroyed Tumesout? There have been no wars on Tumesout for the last 15 million years. More distant history? Probably, you should ask the Tumesoutians. We are not experts in their history. It entered the Interstellar Union at its creation and never left. If there had been a war there, especially one that destroys another planet, it would have been excluded, for example, temporarily or forever. But Tumesout was not excluded at all.

Maxim: Here's the question. Did human civilization achieve any higher technologies than now during its existence on this planet?

Irina (Bergastr): No. Not by myself. With the transmission. Various devices were transmitted to her. But she hasn't built them herself yet.

Maxim: I understand. Why can't the Interstellar Union define a unified policy with the Galactic Federation of Light regarding contact and providing evidence?

Irina (Bergastr): What do you mean by a unified policy with many beings who promote their theories? There are rules, of course, that everyone signed up to follow. They were created by Burkhad. And there are all the warnings we talked about. But sometimes there are beings like Griar Murati, who disregard safety rules, especially in difficult times like military conflicts, and fly to reconcile someone, especially to a place where reconciliation is not wanted.

And it turns out that way. It turns out not only the exit from the incarnation of the humanoid itself, whose Spirit, as is known, is immortal. But it turns out that the technologies end up in the hands of engineers who study them. Naturally, we do not think that earthlings will fly to some planet in the Galaxy on this plate tomorrow. We understand perfectly well that you cannot yet repeat these technologies. But this does not eliminate the fact that some materials from which the spaceship and biorobot are made, some alloys can be used by earthlings in military equipment. I am not even talking about interstellar flying ships, but specifically about individual materials, about their use.

1:29:21 Specifics of civilizations of the Interstellar Union.

Maxim: I will ask the question again. Why does the Interstellar Union not include subtle-material civilizations in its coalition? Why do only dense-material civilizations enter the Interstellar Union?

Irina (Bergastr): Because we believe that our Union should be based on the psychology of humanoid civilizations, because it is easier for us to understand each other and easier to conduct a unified policy, since subtle-material civilizations have the specifics of their psyche, their Soul, which is very different from humanoid civilizations. It would be difficult for us to maintain unity.

1:30:01 Bergastre on Nibiru.

Maxim: Please tell me, why are there such disagreements regarding the planet Nibiru between the information transmitted by many contactees? Perhaps you can explain what Nibiru is?

Irina (Bergastr): Nibiru is a Tumesout word. It is the Tumesout name for the planet Phaeton, and later they began to call ships by it. It happens that a ship is named after a lost planet. And as far as I know, even the ship on which Ashtar Sheran lives is called that. Since it revolves around the Solar System and guards the Earth, the function of Phaeton, where representatives of alien civilizations lived before the war, it was the main base, has now moved, so to speak, beyond the Solar System to the ship of Ashtar Sheran. And in the consciousness of the contactees, these two objects have been replaced by each other.

Maxim: So Nibiru has different names. Names of a planet, a ship, someone's name, maybe someone introduced themselves, some kind of plasmoid Nibiru, right?

Irina (Bergastr): Plasmoid can even introduce himself as God, the Absolute, the Supreme Mind.

Maxim: Exactly, God. Just God.

1:31:50 Aliens about the Anunnaki.

Maxim: Please explain. There are a lot of contradictions when we start talking about the Anunnaki. Who are the real Anunnaki? I want the representatives of the State Fiscal Service to do this first, what do they think about this, how do they explain the word "Anunnaki" and then, of course, the representatives of the International Society.

Irina (Bergastr): Anunnaki is already an earthly word. This is a word in one of the ancient languages, the so-called Sumerian-Kaksk, when the Sumerians existed. That's what they called the aliens who flew in (shows tall ones). They flew in Egypt, they flew in to the Sumerians. These are the Tumesoutians. They called them Anunnaki. This is "an alien from heaven." Like Elohim was in Israel.

Maxim: In Israel, Elohim are gods who flew in, and in Sumerians, they are the Anunnaki. These are also gods who flew in from the sky. Any civilization can be called the Anunnaki.

Irina: In principle, it is possible. Now the representative of the Galactic Federation of Light OalmaRaums says that the Tumesoutians were called that way more often.

Maxim: Tall aliens.

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes.

Maxim: I understand. In principle, Bergast will probably explain the same thing.

Irina (Bergastr): Yes. They have already answered.

Maxim: Since we don’t have any more questions, let me look at the chat.

Irina: The Peruvian contact, they never told about him. They told about Billy Meyer, they told about Grear, they told about Gorbachev.

1:34:00 Peruvian contact.

Maxim: I know that "Peruvian Contact" is a group of young people from 14 to 19 years old, for which you showed up, showed yourself on flying saucers and even gave the opportunity to film yourself. Is that true?

Irina (OalmaRaums): Yes, but then all the photographs, if you saw them, then you still didn’t find a single photograph.

Maxim: No, I really didn’t find a single photo.

Irina (OalmaRaums): They were destroyed by the Peruvian secret services, who contacted the parents of these contactees, ordered them not to disseminate this information and threatened them with sanctions if they did, because it was classified information. And the parents then destroyed all the photographs, so there would be no problems. But that's how it happened in Peru.

1:36:16 The fates of contactees who had evidence of contacts.

Irina (OalmaRaums): We, the Galactic Federation of Light, in the 1910s in different countries made contact with such evidence in order to show ourselves not only to contactees. Our most dramatic contacts were in the United States of America in the state of Texas. Two teenage contactees, aged 14 and 15, told their parents and suggested that they come to the place of contact. Their curators came. I was one of the curators of this project and directly supervised it.

The parents were convinced of our existence. Some were fine with it, but the parents of the second contactee were wary that an unknown object was flying towards their child, and they reported it to the police. They reported that someone was flying from the sky, asked to look into the situation, because they were scared, who is it?

And these contactees were put under surveillance. And when they made contact again, they were watched, and the police saw it and reported it to the management. And they already had the appropriate instructions on how to act in such images and reported it to the special services.

In the end, it was a long chain, I will not tell it all now, it is quite long. It all ended with these guys being isolated from their parents and through their mental connection they began to ask the representatives of the Galactic Federation of Light certain questions related to the reason for the contact, about the reasons for such a revelation to the people, "why are you confusing our people" and so on. Naturally, they tried to ask technical questions and about the location of our planet and many other things.

It all ended with a meeting on Earth among representatives of the special services, and it was decided not to release the child contactees so that they would not present further evidence, since the photographs and videos that appeared could provoke the people to ask questions of the scientists and, therefore, to disclose information about the contact with the authorities. And this would already be a disclosure of secrecy.

The thing is that people who are involved in the security services of your world, despite being quite brave on the outside, are actually struck with fear inside. There are many fears among them, they are constantly very suspicious. And no matter how much we, representatives of the Galactic Federation of Light, tried to convince them that we do not pose any danger to Earth and that we are ready to make open contact, they said that open contact would provoke unrest on Earth, since people are not prepared for this contact.

The children had chips. And all this led to the children being locked in a hospital-type room belonging to the secret services. Behind a high fence, an office, two beds. They were injected with a drug that deprived them of memory. It affects the brain. They lived there for about 30 years, and for the last three years they no longer controlled their physiological functions.

Maxim: They stabbed them.

Irina: He is now showing me how they administered drugs that could help them forget these things. By the way, this was done in secret, the parents were not told where they were. It was presented as a kidnapping. The parents even filed a complaint with the police so that they would look for them and they did, but they were not found. Naturally, no one told them where they were. It was like a kidnapping.

Maxim: I know that the State Fiscal Service even went out through television in France, transmitted information to us, earthlings. But again, earthlings said that it was a technical failure, interference.

Irina: Now he told me not about the Peruvian contact. This did not happen in Peru, it did not come to that. He is talking about the phase of this project in America, where they treated the contactees differently. And because of this, the entire project of proving contact was curtailed. And the curators who contacted these boys directly were not sent to the planet of criminals, but were removed from contact with the lands for this conclusion of the contactees.

Maxim: American Billy Meyer was even given some kind of weapon, which he shot at a tree and left holes in the trunk. Is that true?

Irina (OalmaRaums): No. There were no weapons. There was only a video recording.

Maxim: I think he's one-armed. What is he, the American Billy Meier? I watched a movie with him.

Irina: He was not one-armed. He shows me an ordinary man, thirty years old, maybe with his wife next to him.

Maxim: And the second Billy Meyer?

Irina (OalmaRaums): The second Billy Meyer is alive. And the killers shot him, killed his family, even set his house on fire. And he had videos, photos, and negatives of these photos as evidence. When they started following him, he came to the car and said: "If you follow me, the next day I will send all the negatives of the photos to all the newspapers." And literally a few days later he was shot. They burned the house to destroy everything he kept there.

Maxim: Are there any other unusual cases of behavior of the authorities and special services towards contactees?

Irina (Bergastr): There are various cases related to the Soviet Union. There, contactees tried to prove their existence, but they were simply isolated. Not killed, but isolated for life.

Maxim: Thank you all, dear friends.

1:44:23 Proof of contact in Kazakhstan.

Irina (Bergastr): There was something similar in Kazakhstan. Not only the Galactic Federation of Light had something similar, but also the representatives of the Interstellar Union, for example, the planet Tashig, who gave proof of existence to their contactee in Kazakhstan near Alma-Ata. This was about 8 years ago. They gave him a device (shows).

Don't name the device, name its functions. I don't understand.

(Bergaster) He was given a device that could convert different types of energy into electrical energy.

Maxim: Different types of energy into electrical. What did this device look like?

Irina: He shows me a grey ball.

Maxim: I watched a video on the Internet about this gray ball. Yes. He later said that he was joking, and nothing like that happened.

Irina (Bergastr): He tuned the energy to the flow of light, and this light then came out in the form of electricity and charged the batteries (shows how it works). It turned out that he brought this device home, he had a wife. Everyone was very surprised. His wife's relatives told about it in their small village, and everyone started going to look at it, take pictures. And then his house was attacked by robbers and they stole it. And later, according to signals that came to the base of the planet Tashig, this device was broken. They started doing something with it, and it stopped working for them.

Maxim: They most likely took it apart to study it.

Irina (Bergastr): And when they attacked this house, this contactee was wounded, he ended up in the hospital, his wife was also wounded, she later died of an illness that was related to the injury. And now he continues to make contacts, but only on a mental level, because because of this evidence, his curators were also removed from contacts, and he was left with only astral contact.

1:47:40 Conditions of open contact on Earth.

Maxim: Please tell me, according to the version of the State Federal Service, the version of the Interstellar Union, at the current moment in time, how long will it take for real contact with the planet Earth?

Irina (Bergastr): We believe that the earthly civilization is only at the beginning of its great journey. How long will it take for contact to take place? It will only happen when all earthly states create a united coalition of earthly states, so that all territorial, economic and religious disputes are resolved only at the level of words, and so that weapons fall silent. When your governments begin to trust each other, and open your doors to each other, first of all the doors of your hearts, then you will only come closer to mass contact.

The second step is the elimination of the death penalty on the entire Earth. The third step is respect for life from the moment of conception. And when you go through all these three stages, the first is the elimination of all wars and revolutions; the second is the abolition of the death penalty and the third is the abolition of abortion. And then all the other conditions: the purification of the Earth, that is, concern for the environment, political transformation of laws so that social laws are fair in all states, these transformations will start by themselves. Because these three links that I have just mentioned will start all the others.

The first thing you, earthlings, need to learn now is respect for human life. Even if that person speaks a different language, has a different skin color, or believes in a different religion. Respect for human life. What kind of respect? Exactly the same as you have for yourself. But the whole problem here is that even many people have no respect for their lives, no love for themselves. So the first thing is still love for yourself, and then love for others.

But both are impossible without love for God. Whatever you call him. God, of course, we are now speaking in Russian, understandable to everyone. In fact, this is a multidimensional spiritual being, which is the source of life for each of you, and which treats all forms of life with equal love. It wishes happiness and development, freedom and love to all those people whom you consider enemies and bad people, and is ready to help them and puts them on the same level with you.

When you go through social evolution, you will understand that it is much more profitable, even from an economic point of view, to negotiate with each other than to fight. Wars actually bring only destruction, death, economic chaos, hunger, epidemics. And cooperation with each other in matters of security, in matters of life, science and spirituality brings prosperity to all countries.

Maxim: I thank you. First of all, I thank you for giving us, earthlings, the opportunity to communicate with you. I personally thank you for the fact that when I started communicating with you, my life changed dramatically. I understood a lot for myself. I discovered a huge number of worlds in myself, God, love and that awareness in this love and in that God that is in me. I thank you very much for the fact that you are broadcasting all this through Irina.

Dear friends, put likes if you liked the broadcast. If you want to learn how to contact extraterrestrial civilizations, we have a Center in Voronezh where we teach these contacts. Plus, there are off-site events, retreats that we conduct. There we teach contacts with the Higher Self. We conduct sessions of cosmohealing, cosmoenergetics, mentalhealing. We have a new direction "Light Network of the Galaxy", in which energies are transmitted for healing, for the healing of your body and your Soul.

I want to thank you all for trusting not only Irina as a contactee, but also other contactees who transmit information from the representatives of other civilizations. And there is no difference between MS and GFS, everyone is doing the same thing. Everyone is waiting for us as full members of their society. Therefore, we raise awareness, participate in meditations, participate in retreats, come to us for training.

Thank you very much for your help and support, material, spiritual, any, that you can give to our Project. Thank you very much!

Irina: I thank you too, dear friends. Thank you, my extraterrestrial friends. I consider you my friends, co-workers who do the same thing with me. In fact, we are all equal in the Universe before God precisely from the position of love.

I, Irina Podzorova, am in contact with both the representatives of the Interstellar Union and the representatives of the Galactic Federation of Light, because I am in contact with Ashtar. He is a representative of the Galactic Federation of Light. And his civilization participated in the creation of the Interstellar Union 15 million years ago. They just left later for certain reasons, and now he is a representative of the Galactic Federation of Light. Every Sunday we fly in the Astral with all those who want to to Ashtar's ship.

Maxim: So join in. I also want to ask the representative of the Galactic Federation of Light to make an appeal to those people who will watch this broadcast to the end, who were really interested.

1:56:13 Galactic Federation of Light on the meaning of earthly incarnation.

Irina (OalmaRaums): My dear earthly people. The souls that are embodied in you have been embodied in different systems, Galaxies, Star systems, planets. And your incarnation on this Earth, although it is shorter than on some other planets, is truly unique. Here you can learn to believe in what is not visible, here you can learn to love someone who hinders you in your development in order to change both him and yourself, because love changes everything. If it is sincere, if it is unconditional, it awakens hearts.

The Light that is in me now, I transmit to you through the contactee

Irina, through the Project "Cassiopeia", through the egregor "Cassiopeia". I wish each of you to find your Light in yourself and share it with others so that the whole Earth becomes a branch of the heavenly divine kingdom.

Maxim: Thank you very much, OalmaRaums, thank you very much Bergastr, thank you very much Sabiir, thank you very much Artis, MidgasKaus, LiShioni and all the representatives of our galactic friends.

Guys, see you in Ufa. We will be in Ufa from the 2nd to the 5th, then we will meet you in Minsk and St. Petersburg, we have events planned there. Tomorrow or the day after tomorrow we will set the dates when we will go to Minsk, and when we will be in St. Petersburg. This will be in the coming months. Guys, hugs to everyone, thank you all. Until next time on new broadcasts.

Irina: Bye everyone!

The concept of "destiny" of man. About the plan of incarnation. Jataka https://blog.cassiopeia.center/ponyatie-sudby-cheloveka-o-plane-voploshcheniya Question: Jataka is a section of Vedic astrology, the so-called birth astrology or natal astrology. What is destiny? Is it predetermined? Are all the events of life from birth to death determined for each of us?
Angel Consultant Level 22 answers:
The word "predestination" can only be called by a spiritual being. What is "predestination"? You as a Spirit determine what will happen in life when you are already incarnated. You can look at your Life Plan on the Time Tape. It will be predetermined for you. But the Time Tape has many different options. You can decide that the thickest branch will definitely come true because it is the most probable (a thick branch is a more probable event, thin branches are less probable events). From the Spiritual World, this is very clearly visible. I have watched many times. It often happens that some event occurs, and after this event, the Probability Tape for you begins to unfold along a thinner line. The further it moves away from the thicker line, the less similar the events are to what you predetermined. Such a game with yourself.
Destiny is the path of life. This word is applicable only to the incarnated Spirit. When we mean the non-incarnated Spirit, we speak of the Plan of incarnation. Some call it a "script." But if anyone has ever made a film on Earth, they know that there are deviations from the script due to the speed of each actor, their speech, their manner of performance, perhaps words or actions that were not included in the script. It is impossible to foresee everything. Also, each Spirit, when deciding to incarnate, decides to incarnate not just to eat earthly products and return to the Spiritual World. Some do so too, but this is not their main goal.

The main goal is usually to come to a more conscious spiritual level, to develop. Some call degradation development for evil, this is also development. It depends on how you look at it: for them it is development away from God, lowering vibrations. Everything depends on the starting point. Nevertheless, everyone sets more optimistic goals: usually fulfilling their tasks.
What tasks could these be? Depends on the experience of the Soul. This is very clearly visible both in the astrological chart and in the "Tree of Life". If in past lives a person developed anger, hatred, then one of the tasks will be to take lessons on harmonizing this anger, directing the energy of this anger towards creation.
What is needed for this? Simply saying: "Develop Love" is not effective, because an angry person will not be able to develop Love until he harmonizes his anger. He will fall even lower, scold himself for not being able to. Therefore, his life task is divided into stages. Developing Love is a global task and sub-stages. We do not call it "fighting anger", we call it harmonization. Fighting the manifestations of one's own Soul is fraught with the fact that a person will drive them deep into his subconscious, and this will create blocks. No real result will be achieved this way.
We develop a plan of incarnation, using anger as an example. We look at who developed his anger: the circumstances of past incarnations. Or he is greedy. Where did this greed come from? Based on his characteristics, we choose the conditions of incarnation for him, the people around him, the parents, the conditions that will help him to exit low vibrations in the most favorable way. In different ways. It depends on the type of Spirit.
If he is at the initial stage of harmonizing his anger, then with a calm environment, which will sow in him and develop a desire for tenderness and affection. But from the fact that he became tender and affectionate, the anger itself did not go away, it remained in the depths of his Soul. Therefore, as soon as he passed this lesson, as soon as his Soul became softer, more pliable, they begin to send him through his mentors, through the mentors of other people, such lessons and events in which he previously showed anger, but in a softer form, so that he can track his reactions and learn to harmonize himself.

00:00 Start of video. Excerpts from the conversation.

“...And the persecution there was serious: only two of the 12 apostles ended their lives by natural causes...”

"...the pure in heart will see God, and he who sees God will see Him everywhere. But he who does not see God in himself will not see Him anywhere, no matter how many books he reads..."

"...They are called "The Beatitudes". The word "beatitude" was translated into Russian, but in the original Greek it means "happiness"..."

"...There is one truth, and it is everywhere. If a person is full of Love, he does not need any commandments..."

00:45 The essence of the content of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount.

Natalia: We spent a lot of time today on excursions and were in one of the temples where the eight commandments for Buddhists are located. And yesterday you and I talked about the Christian commandments that Christ gave. And I was amazed at how you read each commandment, because it opens the heart. I really wanted to talk to you about this.

Irina: Yes, indeed, all Spiritual Teachers, no matter what country they were in, if they were enlightened by the Light of Truth (and the Light of Truth is the Light of true Love) all spoke about the same thing in different languages in different eras, but the words of each of them reached the hearts of their contemporaries. Jesus Christ, Buddha, Prophet Mohammed, and other Spiritual Teachers - they taught people to be conscious, to pay attention not only to the body, but also to the Soul. Because if the purpose of a person's life is beyond earthly life, then all earthly life acquires eternal meaning.

Yesterday we talked about the Sermon on the Mount. And, indeed, all the truths that contactees and esotericists are now talking about were spoken back then – 2,000 years ago. What is the Sermon on the Mount? It is a sermon that Jesus Christ gave while on a mountain near the city of Capernaum. This is the so-called province of Galilee near Lake Tiberias (now Lake Kinneret, or, as it is also called, the Sea of Galilee). And in this sermon, Jesus Christ spoke about eternal truths, following which one can achieve transition, Ascension, enlightenment, holiness, calling the same state by different words. This is a state of endless happiness and meaning that gives a person the strength to fulfill all his dreams. And not just to fulfill his dreams, but to be satisfied with the results that he receives, and to go to the Spiritual world calmly, having passed to the highest Spiritual level, that is, to fulfill the goals and objectives of his incarnation.

As you already understand, I adhere to the concept that our Spirit is immortal. And that it travels in the Universe, moving from one body to another, fulfilling its eternal tasks: raising vibrations, that is, approaching divine qualities.

So, the Sermon on the Mount begins with the nine Beatitudes. They are called the "Beatism". The word "Bliss" was the translation into Russian, and in the original Greek it means "happiness". So they can be called the "Blessings of Happiness". And it talks about the stages of the spiritual path of each person, that is, where he begins the spiritual path, and where it leads him in the material and in the Spiritual world.

04:36 The First Beatitude about the poor in Spirit.

Irina: The First Commandment reads: “Blessed are the poor in Spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

Tell me, Natasha, when I told you, at first you didn’t understand what I was talking about?

Natalia: Yes, that is true.

Irina: Well, how can the poor in Spirit be blessed? We strive for the riches of the Spirit, we try to enrich ourselves spiritually as much as possible, and then suddenly it says, in the very first Commandment, that blessed are the poor in Spirit. What is this all about?

Here it is said that until a person wishes to find the Spirit in himself, to gain an understanding and a sense of the immortality of his Spirit and its belonging to God, until he wishes to find it in himself, as a beggar wishes to find money, then he is not blessed. That is, his blessedness begins with the fact that he begins the search, as a beggar seeks money. How much time he spends on this, how much energy he spends on this - this is how a person seeking spirituality directs his efforts in the search for the Spirit.

That is, it says here that blessed is he who seeks and asks God for spirituality in the same way as a beggar asks for money. In fact, the meaning is simple. And this Commandment speaks of the beginning of the spiritual path, because all spiritually seeking people, all esotericists, all followers of various religious systems in any case began with the understanding that material goods are not enough for them to be completely happy.

Natalia: We set out on this path.

Irina: They understood that they lacked something, like a beggar, again, understands that he lacks money. They understood that the entire material world is not able to satisfy their spiritual hunger. And they began to search: they began to spend their time, their energy to search for information, to pray to God, to study their Soul, to look for that spark there, from which a flame will later ignite.

And further: "Blessed are the poor in Spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." Why is it theirs? Because it is said here about what the end of their search will be if they go to the end. And what is the Kingdom of Heaven? These are the very highest regions of the Spiritual world, where the highest Angels, Archangels exist, where there is only Light, Love, Good. Everyone understands each other and penetrates into each other's thoughts and feelings, and becomes for each other like open books.

07:47 The Second Commandment is the beatitude for those who mourn.

Irina: The Second Commandment sounds a little scary to some because it reads: "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Tell me, how can those who mourn be blessed, that is, happy? It doesn't sound very good.

Natalia: Well, yes.

Irina: Now let us remember that we are talking about the second stage of the spiritual path, which came after the search for spirituality. Man found something, he found the source of Light in himself. He began to review his entire life, all his actions from the position of the Spirit, from the position as if he had taken the side of God and began to look at himself through His eyes, that is, to analyze himself with the help of thoughts coming from the divine plane of reality. When he begins to look at himself through the eyes of God, he notices that he did not always act as his conscience told him, as Love showed him.

We have a certain Ray of Love, which is called "conscience", which always shows us how to act in order to come to the Highest Spiritual reality and become enlightened, holy. In any religion there are commandments that prescribe a certain behavior and forbid the opposite, so that a person does not leave the Highest Spiritual world in the lower, that is, does not become the opposite of God, does not become negative, etc.

And then a person begins to consider himself from the position of Love. And asks himself: "Have I always acted as Love told me to?" Naturally, those situations begin to appear before his spiritual gaze when he behaved completely differently than Love prescribes.

Natalia: And then he cries.

Irina: Tell me: a simple Commandment? The second stage can follow immediately after the first, or maybe years will pass between them. It depends on the specific person, how much he will work on himself, on changing himself. Or he will go into fanaticism and will work on changing others. This also happens. After all, it is easier to change others.

Natalia: Of course. That is, these are the steps of ascent in the Spirit. Each Commandment is the next step. Right?

Irina: Yes. "Blessed are those who mourn." Despite the fact that he cries, he begins to understand how much pain he brought to his loved ones, how he loved himself, did not love his loved ones, did not love God, and he begins to feel regret.

Where does regret come from? Regret is not a feeling of guilt, that I am guilty and nothing can be fixed. Regret, although it reproaches itself for some bad deeds, is full of hope for changes, for the correction of the situation and, of course, for the Love of God, which accepts even the worst sinner.

And so further: "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Why do they cry? Because through tears their internal psychological, energetic blocks come out. That is, through tears the process of purification of the Soul occurs. It is cleansed, renewed. Like the body after bathing in water, so the Soul, washed by tears, is renewed and comforted.

Natalia: I see.

11:52 The Third Beatitude is about the meek in Spirit.

Irina: The Third Commandment: "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth." This is in Russian. If you look at the Greek original, there will be a word that translates as "affectionate, gentle, good-natured, tender." They are blessed. That is, when a person has purified himself, his Spiritual heart has become softer, it is lenient to everyone, does not condemn anyone. He begins to speak kindly to everyone, begins to do good to everyone.

It is clear that he is happy in himself. And suddenly, this Commandment says: "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth." It would seem that all our material experience says the opposite. Because many people have experienced for themselves that the more good you do for people, the more such tenderness you show, the less inheritance you may have left, for obvious reasons.

Natalia: Because the strong and daring take more for themselves.

Irina: They see that a person is kind, gentle, soft, and they start to take advantage of his kindness. Many have gone through this experience. Such a difficult experience - both for the one being used and for the one who uses. This may be a karmic knot. There is a need for forgiveness, and awareness, taking responsibility... There is a lot that needs to be done.

And here it says: "They shall inherit the earth." And what is the earth? It is not a piece of land where a person will live. The word "earth" in the Gospel usually refers to the image of the material world. What does "inherit" mean? Inherit means receive an inheritance. And who receives an inheritance? Which heir from the testator? The heirs are usually children. This was the case in Ancient Israel, in Ancient Greece. In Ancient Rome, there was also a law on inheritance at the time these Commandments were written.

What does it mean "inherit the earth"? Who does the earth belong to, the entire material world? Naturally, to the Creator. And why do they inherit the earth? Because these people, who have gone through the previous stages, already feel like children of God. And if a child, then he is an heir.

And what does this mean in a practical sense? In a practical sense, this means that such a person feels the entire material world as a gift from God, as his inheritance. After all, the inheritance itself is not earned by a person - it is a gift from his parents. That is, he begins to perceive all material energies, his body, everything around him, his finances, all these trees, grass, sea, sun, all the elements, etc. as gifts from God. Gifts from his Father, which God gave him for joy, and therefore, he begins to be content with them.

That is, he begins to thank God and, naturally, becomes a conscious heir. And that means he manages his inheritance so that it multiplies, that it is purified. That is, he did not simply come into this material world to use it and leave, leaving some dirt to his descendants. He begins to be a very thrifty and economical manager of this inheritance, at the same time, thanking God for it.

It is clear, what stage of the spiritual path? Caring for the material world. How does a person behave who feels like an heir to everything around him? He will not consider some territory, for example, as intended for causing some harm there. He will treat all of nature as his beautiful garden: look after every plant, every animal. He will love them, he will take care of them, he will remember their purpose – this biosphere.

Is everything clear here?

Natalia: Yes.

Irina: You see: Jesus always spoke in a language that was understandable to the people.

Natalia: And then?

17:00 The Fourth Beatitudes about those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.

Irina: The next Commandment is: "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled." "Alkat'" is a word that came to us from Church Slavonic, and it means "to starve." To hunger is hunger.

That is, here Jesus is talking about our basic needs - such as food and water. When a person experiences hunger and thirst, his thoughts constantly return to this topic. Simply those who are thirsty and hungry cannot be blessed, that is, happy in the spiritual sense, because all people experience this. So, here it is talking about something else.

And here we see the word "truth". If we analyze its original, which was written in Greek, we will see the word "righteousness". And what is righteousness? Righteousness is precisely life according to the Commandments. It is life according to the Commandments not out of fear of punishment from God, but out of love for Him.

Natalia: That is, they can't live without it, they hunger and thirst for it.

Irina: That is, the next Beatitude already speaks of the stage when a person strives to keep the Beatitudes and avoids breaking them, just as a person strives to eat and drink, and avoids hunger and thirst. And can you imagine such a person? He constantly lives by this. We constantly eat, drink water. So this person constantly keeps the Beatitudes.

And then there is a promise, or a promise: "For they shall be filled." What shall they be filled with? Righteousness, that is, they shall become righteous. Constantly fulfilling the Commandments, they shall raise their vibrations to the level of righteousness, that is, righteous people. And righteousness, as is known, is the constant fulfillment of the Commandments. And this is already half the way to holiness, that is, to absolute enlightenment, when it will not even occur to a person to break anything. His heart is full of Love. And as it was written by one contactee with Jesus already in the 19th century: "There is one Truth, and it is everywhere. If a person is full of Love, he does not need any commandments."

What do you feel?

Natalia: Love.

Irina: Do you understand what I'm talking about here?

Natalia: Yes, and then?

19:50 The Fifth Beatitude about the merciful.

Irina: The next Commandment is: "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." The word "mercy" or "charity" has another name.

Natalia: Mercy is closer to me.

Irina: Merciful is gracious. Pardon – do you know what that is? Pardon was usually granted by the tsar. When a criminal was being led to execution, he could be pardoned. Why could they pardon? Also because of compassion.

Here we are talking about direct action, the cancellation of the action of a person's own karma. Here a righteous person ascends to the next level, when his karma of past reincarnations, this life, begins to be zeroed out. That is, the negative turns into positive, and they unite, annihilate and disappear. And a person becomes completely clean from all the consequences of his actions.

Do you know how this is possible? To be merciful to everyone. And this means to have mercy even on those who are evil. That is, to treat them with compassion. Why? The word “mercy” itself in Greek sounds like “eleion” (“oil”). The same word in Greek means “olive oil”. Olive oil used to be used to lubricate wounds, dissolving and infusing various herbs in it. Wounds were often treated with olive oil in the Mediterranean region of the Roman Empire.

Accordingly, if a sinner begins to sin, does not follow the righteous path... After all, a righteous person who has already reached this level can live next to completely different people - with a completely different consciousness, with their own blocks. He has already worked through his blocks, and therefore the behavior of others seems terrible to him. Does this happen? Especially if his gaze is directed outward, and not into the heart. He begins to watch: how did this one allow himself to do what I have not allowed myself to do for a long time?! Do you understand what this is about?

Natalia: And envy.

Irina: It’s not even that I envy.

Natalia: Condemn.

Irina: He begins to take the place of God. And instead of God, punish this person at least with condemnation. Because condemnation is negative energy directed against a specific person.

But we must distinguish condemnation from criticism. For example, if you say that you are a liar, then this is condemnation. But if you say that this person is lying for the simple reason that I have certain arguments - this is criticism of certain actions. That is, you need to distinguish between these. And turning a blind eye to some destructive actions of others is also not worth it. But we simply do this without condemnation, with an understanding of why the person did this, and, naturally, with a willingness to forgive, with forgiveness for what he does. We forgive because he acts as his Soul tells him at this stage of development. He hears his Higher Self, his conscience, or rejects it. And this is natural for his level of development.

We ourselves, at one time or another – either in this life or in previous ones – could have been like that or even worse. That is, we went through such tough lessons. No one knows all their incarnations – who they were there and to what levels they descended. Accordingly, when we begin to judge and say that this particular person is bad, and we are better than them, we begin to descend to their level, or even lower, because we take on the function of God.

It happens when a very emotional person in a fit of emotion will say something judgmental to another, but then immediately change his thoughts and forgive him - that's one thing. And it happens that a person holds a grudge in his heart for a long time, no longer in emotions, and accordingly - this is a decrease in vibrations. That is, we understand that there are different situations here.

This Commandment speaks about the merciful. That is, when we see the shortcomings, the sins of others, we clearly see that he is wrong, he behaves in a way that hurts us very much, we ask: "Why does he behave like this?" And because his Soul is sick, it is all covered with wounds from past sins. I like the words of the Apostle Peter, which are also in the Bible, where he compares the sinner with such a very vivid image. He says: "The sinner is like a dog that licks a saw, getting drunk from the taste of its own blood." How do you like this comparison?

Natalia: A very vivid image.

Irina: Well, is it immediately clear what is being said here? That is, he does not notice how he hurts himself. Why does he get drunk from the taste of his own blood? Because a dog, of course, loves blood, and therefore it even drinks it and does not notice that it is hurting itself. In the same way, a sinner hurts his body, but intoxicated by this temporary joy or his excitement from sin, he does not notice the pain that is present in him. And when he begins to notice it, he does not want to heal his wounds, because he does not know how, or does not know how, or is already accustomed to doing so.

And he begins to hurt others. And if we are unkind to him, then when we see this person, we begin, for example, to say or write offensive words to him – words that hurt him even more. That is, we take the "sword of our lips" (there is such an expression) and begin to chop with it: "You are like this, why did you come here?! What are you doing here? I don't need you at all! Who are you?!" That is, we begin to humiliate him, trying to make him understand his place and, accordingly, stop behaving the way we don't want. So that everything around us is good, everyone is kind. And we begin to force people to be the way we want, even if not everyone is ready. But this is not mercy. We begin to hurt him, to inflict an even greater wound.

And what does a merciful person do? Here we see a wounded person, he screams in pain, and if we are merciful, now we take an ointment, and in ancient times they took olive oil and smeared the wounds, calmed them down. And what can you smear spiritual wounds with? Naturally, only with Love. That is, we begin to tell him that everything is fine, we will now understand what he wants. We will try to do everything to make him feel good. That is, we tell him that we are safe for him, and will do everything to help him.

So we start to lubricate these wounds. How do you think he will feel?

Natalia: He will calm down and maybe believe that there is justice, if he doesn't believe in it.

Irina: A very common situation, especially among esotericists who are on the Internet. A person comes to some esoteric chat and says that everyone there is a charlatan, or "who are you listening to, charlatans, idiots, stupid, fools" - and there may be other such words. They start to say in response: "What are you doing here? Go away!" They prove it to him with their behavior: when he sees this, he is convinced that he was right, and leaves with an even greater wound. Right?

Natalia: So. And should he be taken into foster care? What should be done?

Irina: No. It is necessary to ask: “Here you are. You call these people this way. For what reason, first of all, do you think so? Secondly, for what reason did you decide to say this here? Maybe someone offended you? Do you need help?”

Natalia: I understand what you're saying. True. In reality, sometimes in life it's not that easy to do.

Irina: It happens, okay, on a website, or in a chat, or on YouTube it's easy to do: turn it off and don't read. But if it's your friend or your relative, with whom you have to constantly communicate - the situation is much more complicated.

But here it is necessary to understand that this relative or acquaintance of yours is given to us as a spiritual teacher. With his words he touches us on those unprocessed blocks that we still have. If they are all processed, then any offensive word of his will not cause us pain.

Is it clear who the merciful are? They pardon everyone to the maximum and anoint them with the oil of their Love, and they will be pardoned. They will be pardoned by God. This means that they will be given mercy and transferred to the next level, that is, an increase in their Spiritual level.

Is this Commandment clear?

Natalia: I see. And what next?

30:50 The Sixth Beatitudes for the pure in heart.

Irina: The next Commandment is: “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.”

Natalia: Now that's closer. Everything is clear.

Irina: What do you feel?

Natalia: Pure in heart is when there is no longer any deceit in the heart, that is, complete acceptance and absolute Love.

Irina: What is being talked about here? What heart?

Natalia: About the spiritual.

Irina: About the spiritual, yes. And what should it be pure from?

Natalia: From everything that all previous Commandments were cleansed of.

Irina: Here we see that at this stage a person begins to cleanse his heart from the last negative blocks, feelings and desires incompatible with Love. And in a pure heart there is nothing but Divine Love, as well as other positive feelings associated with it: faith, hope, happiness, etc.

And why is he blessed? Because it says there: "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." So, to see God, to see God is bliss. And why is it bliss? Because when a person sees God with spiritual eyes, he will see a huge Spiritual being and will see himself in His composition, in His energy, and will know his unity with Him. And since God is absolutely happy, then he will also become absolutely happy.

And what is absolute unconditional happiness? It is not a temporary joy that depends on what makes us happy in life at the moment, and when it passes, sadness sets in. It is happiness, a state of consciousness that never retreats while a person is at this level. That is, a person is happy, is in complete acceptance and is filled with positive emotions. Because positive feelings give birth to positive emotions.

Natalia: And you had such an experience?

Irina: Yes, of course. I had such an experience when I felt myself a part of God and saw Him in my heart.

And why does it say there that this person is happy? Because the one who saw God in his heart... If it is clean, he begins to see God there, because he has cleaned it. Just as a window is cleaned and one begins to see the sun, so one cleans the glass of one's heart and begins to see God in oneself. And, naturally, if a person has seen God in his heart, then he begins to see Him everywhere. Because he has already cognized the Divine energies, and cognized that there is nothing else besides them.

Natalia: Did this happen to you when you were 12? I know.

Irina: Yes. It happened to me when I was 12. And quite suddenly, that is, I did not expect it. It was a contact with my Higher Self, as it turned out later. And I felt expansion, Light and Infinity, Eternity, that I am an eternal Spirit, and that I am always in the face of God - a loving being who endlessly sends me various energies in the form of material objects. And the people around are also His children, who are going through their own experiences and are His particles, just like me.

Natalia: Does this experience seem just as vivid to you now?

Irina: I am speaking in words now, but there it was all feelings. That is, there were simply no such words, there were feelings.

Natalia: Is this experience being erased? How do you remember it?

Irina: I even remembered the day that happened. It was October 12, 1998.

Natalia: Can you reproduce this feeling in yourself, or has it always been with you from that moment?

Irina: No. It is not always like this with me. I am in a normal state of consciousness. But if I start thinking about it and concentrate on this thought, then I remember this feeling, and it comes again.

For example, I am now thinking about those who are listening to me. I am telling you that you are divine beings. All objects around you are certain material substances that are given to you so that you can be happy. And if you are unhappy and suffer, it is only because you have made such a choice: not to see this Light and not to thank God for it. Because the Light is dissolved in every breath, in every sip of water, in all space. And every person close to you is, in fact, a Spiritual being. He is much more mysterious and unknown than an alien.

Natalia: It's true. That's why it's more interesting for me to talk to you about this, and not about aliens. Because we are people, we are here.

Irina: Although they are also divine entities. In essence, we are no different from them in our spiritual nature. We simply live in a world that has not yet entered the stage of development when a completely socially just society is built. We are only on the way to this. Because we have many people who are unconscious for various reasons: because of a past full of destruction, and because of a large number of people fixated on material existence, etc.

Natalia: Let's talk about the Commandments then.

Irina: So the pure in heart will see God, and he who sees God will see Him everywhere. But he who does not see God in himself will not see Him anywhere, no matter how many books he reads. So, is it clear what the Commandment is about?

37:26 The Seventh Beatitude is about peacemakers.

Irina: The next Commandment is: "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God." Do you understand what this means?

Natalia: About those who do everything to ensure peace.

Irina: Yes. This is the one who reconciles the warring parties, who does not take sides, but tries to consider any dispute as objectively as possible. This is already the level of Spiritual Teachers. Of course, after the purity of the heart, as we see, right?

This is already the level of Spiritual Teachers, to whom people come to resolve various disputes: both family and even interstate. Because there was such a thing that Saints, enlightened people in Ancient Rus' reconciled warring princes, that is, ancient politicians. They called them to see each other as brothers, not enemies.

Why does it say there that such people will be called "sons of God"? Because they will create peace, as God gives peace to the nations. That is, He calls for peace, and they begin to repeat after Him.

"Called the sons of God." They do not simply feel themselves "sons of God," they begin to resemble God. Naming is the acquisition of a name. The son must be like the Father. Isn't that so? For if the son is not like the Father, he renounces part of his energy. And here the son begins to resemble the Father more and more, he begins to recognize Him in himself, himself in Him, and to communicate consciously with Him.

39:22 The Eighth Beatitudes about those who were persecuted for righteousness' sake.

Irina: The next Commandment: "Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Here is the same commandment as before: "Blessed are the poor in Spirit." Also "theirs is the kingdom of heaven," just as "blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake."

It happens that the peacemaker lives and begins to be the Light. And this Light begins to be seen far away. And it happens that the people around him are still in the darkness compared to him – in the darkness of their delusions, vices and blocks. That is, their Light is not as bright, they are at lower levels of spiritual development (Light and darkness, of course, are images for levels). And they begin to understand that they also want to be such a conductor of Light as this person, but they do not have the strength or desire to go through the entire spiritual path, starting with “blessed are the poor in Spirit” and so on, which I talked about.

After all, this path is quite difficult for many. And then they look at this person, and he begins to irritate them. Because the very presence of this person begins to awaken their own conscience, and they want to reject it. And then for this truth, for this righteousness (there is also the word "righteousness"), that is, for observing these Commandments, a person begins to simply be persecuted: his rights are infringed, he is expelled, he is not communicated with.

This can be expressed in different forms at different times. At the time when Christ lived, it was expressed harshly, because the laws were different then. They could not only banish, but also kill, as they killed Christ himself. And, by the way, they killed Him precisely for the truth. He did not commit a single sinful act or crime against the law, He did not commit the crime for which such an execution was prescribed. And this means that He was not only banished for the truth, but also killed for it. And He still did not renounce it.

Why are they blessed? Because if a person does not submit to such circumstances and does not renounce God, his spiritual path, but without condemning these people, the stages of which he has already passed, understanding and accepting their side (even agreeing to leave), then he preserves the presence of God in himself. Because he has completely trusted Him, completely loves these people. And the one who has completely trusted and who completely shows Love, there is no fear in him. Because, as John the Theologian said, "perfect Love casts out fear."

Natalia: Beautiful!

Irina: That is, he loves completely, trusts completely, and he has no fear that these people can do something to him and somehow deprive him of this happiness. Yes, they can deprive him of his body, they can deprive him of his incarnation, but no one can deprive him of his Soul. No one can deprive his Soul of contact with God either. You can only kill, execute, lock in a dungeon, etc. You can do something with the body, but with the Soul it is impossible.

43:02 The Ninth Beatitude about those who were cast out and mocked for Jesus Christ.

Irina: Well, and the last thing: “Blessed are you (He is already addressing those present here), when they persecute you, and revile you, and say all kinds of evil against you for My sake. Rejoice and be glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.” Here again the theme is continued. That is, not simply driven out for the truth, but we are already saying: “…to persecute, revile, insult, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake.” What does it mean to “speak evil falsely”? Essentially, it is to slander.

Natalia: To slander God?

Irina: To slander these people, if “they will slander you.”

Natalia: There it is "for Me", that is, to slander for Christ, it turns out. These are His words, aren't they?

Irina: Look. "They will slander you because of Me." For Me - that means for those ideas, for that faith, for that Love that Christ showed to them. Why did he say that? He saw the future perfectly. When he was in that time, he saw all the future options, including those that assumed persecution of his disciples. And the persecution there was serious: only two of the 12 apostles died a natural death.

The Christian church, the Christian religion began as a small sect, as a movement within Judaism. And this sect was not recognized by anyone - neither by the state, nor by other religions that existed at that time. And it was constantly persecuted, because Christians were ordered to worship only Christ, but not other gods. After all, there was monotheism - faith in one God. And the very idea of polytheism was unacceptable to them: otherwise, the egregor would collapse due to the fact that you recognize other gods. And for the Roman Empire, it was essential that they not even worship all the gods, the entire pantheon, but that they recognize the emperor as God and also pray to him, sacrifice to his statue, etc.

Christians could not do this. The Emperor was an ordinary man for them, and they refused such idolatry – to set up a man as God. And for this they were persecuted. But in essence, they were persecuted for Christ, for the truth. This is what we have just talked about. And accordingly, they were given such a Commandment: “Rejoice and be glad!” That is, He consoled them in advance: “Do not be sad, do not be discouraged, do not get angry in response, do not be afraid, etc., but rejoice and be glad that you are persecuted, for great is your reward in Heaven.”

That is, He told them: “Even if you are poor here, destitute, you are persecuted, and you are nobody in this world… Why is there a reward in heaven? Because with your Love, by not responding to evil with evil, you acquire the highest Spiritual level. And this reward is the amount of Light and Divine energies that the Spirit will acquire when it leaves incarnation. That is, this is the fulfillment of its tasks.”

And then He adds: "For so they persecuted the prophets who were before you." Who is He talking about? About many prophets, mainly, of course, Jewish, because in Judaism before Christ there were ancient prophets who spoke with the kings of Israel, conveying to them the truth from God: they conveyed, as a contact with God, the words of God that the kings did not like. The prophets were expelled, even executed, etc. But they still did not deviate from these words.

For example, the prophet Jeremiah, the prophet Ezekiel, who warned the ancient Israeli kings to turn away from sins, to begin to follow the commandments, to reduce corruption, etc. There were many sins, that is, violations of the commandments given by Moses. "Otherwise," they warned, "if you sin, God will allow and send another nation against your people, and you will be conquered and deprived of freedom, and you will be in captivity." They told the kings this because this is the law of national karma. If the egregor of a nation begins to lower its vibrations, another nation can attack it.

Accordingly, these prophets warned their kings, and for this they were recognized as traitors, because they recognized that another nation would defeat them. And for this betrayal they were either expelled from the city, or executed. That is, there were different circumstances: they were deprived of their property, imprisoned, beaten.

Natalia: This has always been the case.

Irina: But despite this, what they spoke about came true anyway – 70 years of Babylonian captivity. In the end, the Babylonian army of the Chaldeans attacked Israel. They conquered all of Israel, destroyed Jerusalem, took many people into captivity, and imposed a tribute on the rest. It was like this: they destroyed all of Jerusalem, burned the Temple of Jerusalem. And accordingly, these words that the prophets spoke came true. But then it was too late.

Because 70 years of captivity had already passed. And then, nevertheless, those people who were in captivity of the Babylonian king, who captured their state, managed to become officials in this state and began to ask the Babylonian king now to return and rebuild their city. And he, seeing their good behavior, allowed it. Because what can they not allow, if they behave correctly, do not threaten to attack or something else? They said: "We would rather pay tribute, but rebuild our city."

We were just talking about the Beatitudes. I just told you all about them. Any questions?

Natalia: I wanted to clarify: you received some understanding, some awareness of the fullness of this Sermon on the Mount there, when you were in Israel? Am I right? Did you have some kind of contact there?

Irina: In general, the Ray of Christ Consciousness is built into my Spiritual channel. He built it into me before my first contact with His Phantom, because He said that otherwise it would not be possible to transmit words from His Phantom. I gave my consent, and then I went into the Astral. And He tuned the Ray of Christ Consciousness to me through the Astral. And now it turns on for me when I need to explain some words from the Bible or from another spiritual book. If I ask Him, it turns on and begins to speak even in words that I cannot find.

Natalia: This is amazing, of course. And were you incarnated during the time of Christ? Did you have such lives?

Irina: Come on, let's not talk about it. I don't want to talk about it.

Natalia: Okay. Then thank you from the bottom of my heart for this conversation, because it seems to me to be useful to many! At least for me it was very useful.

Irina: Thank you.

Natalia: And for your clear images and such detailed comments – this is great! Thank you!

We sat, risking our lives, under a coconut tree. But, thank God, nothing fell.

Irina: Yes. Bye everyone!

Natalia: And the sun set. The sunset was amazing. Very cool!

Vedic and Western Astrology
https://blog.cassiopeia.center/vedicheskaya-i-zapadnaya-astrologiya

What you call "Western astrology" is not what exists today as modern astrology. "Western astrology" when it appeared was also different from its modern analogue. Those magi and priests who studied "Vedic astrology" also understood this issue differently. After the war 12 thousand years ago, those who survived and who were brought back by representatives of Burkhad included magi and priests who began to tell the new generation, the children and grandchildren who were born, how to calculate the birth of a person by the stars. After the separation of the peoples, some priests wrote everything down. Some continued to pass it on orally.

Those who continued to pass it on orally did not mention many details. This happened among the people who built Babylon, gave birth to the Sumerians, etc. Then Egypt. From there came the concept of "Western astrology". It was then that one of the priests, who had his own personal opinion, adopted the spring equinox as a reference point. The real position of the constellations and celestial bodies began to be ignored. It was believed that this was the spiritual Zodiac. Not the real physical one, but the spiritual one. That is how he passed it on to his children. Later, other changes in astrology appeared, for example, the "houses" of the horoscope began to be counted differently. They ceased to be equal and to start from the first degree. There were many different changes.

As soon as the Solar calendar began to prevail over the Lunar calendar in some countries, the Moon immediately lost its original significance in the astrological systems of these countries. Let me remind you that in "Vedic astrology" the Moon has much greater significance than the Sun. Largely because it is closer to the Earth and is responsible for the Soul, while the Sun is responsible for manifestation in the material world.

As for the different set of planets: in "Western astrology" only visible planets were taken into account for a long time. Much later, points on the celestial sphere began to be taken into account, including those that are not taken into account in "Vedic astrology". I am talking about Lilith now. Initially, there were several planets. But there was no modern Pluto, Uranus, Neptune. They did not exist before in either "Western" or "Vedic astrology". They were not discovered. After the discovery of these planets, Western astrologers, who were astronomers in the scientific field, included them in their calculations. "Vedic astrology" remained in the same position, because astrologers who learned about the discovery of the planets, at one time considered that the functions of these planets in the horoscope are perfectly performed by two lunar nodes.

"Western astrology" is a partial teaching of "Vedic astrology", since much of it has been lost. The concept of sub-horoscopes for every occasion has been lost. The knowledge of how to harmonize a person with the planets has been lost, that not only different planets have different energies, but also different signs of the Zodiac. This energy influences each other. Western astrology has preserved aspectation, that is, a description of the aspects of the planets, but it has completely forgotten that a planet, being in a sign or house, influences not only the planet in the opposite house, but the entire house. This is open radiation. Such moments have been lost.

The Main Illusion of Earthly Society. How to Feel the Spirit of the Unborn Child? The Meaning of Spiritual Life https://blog.cassiopeia.center/glavnaya-illyuziya-zemnogo-obshchestva-kak-pochuvs

Question: We know that Spirits with their Mentors determine their tasks and ways of their implementation before incarnation, and then the appropriate conditions are selected: planet, country, place, family, etc. Considering that on Earth the majority of people do not know how to communicate with the Higher Self, and the period from the moment the Spirit chooses a family until conception is hidden from them, I would like to know some details about this. How, for example, can parents feel that they have been chosen by the Spirit? Can they feel it at all?

MidgasKaus answers :

I greet you all, dear friends! A very interesting question for me. On Earth, much is hidden from you under the influence of those social illusions and delusions that replace the real spiritual reality for you. You call them "social attitudes".

There are social attitudes that replace spiritual reality for you. One of the main ones is that the thoughts that come into your consciousness are considered imagination. That is, something unreal that does not affect real life. One of the main misconceptions, illusions of the majority of your society is that consciousness is a great cosmic mind that has passed through many planets, Galaxies, and is considered a product of the material brain.

You have many studies of scientists, etc. about this. Is it possible to feel in such conditions that you will incarnate a child? Undoubtedly, it is possible under one condition, that a woman or a man, a man can also feel that a child will be incarnated through him, because through his seed his potential capabilities, like a man, are also incarnated. Dad and mom can feel the desire of the child to be incarnated if they are attentive to themselves, to their Soul. And they will know what the Spiritual world is. They will love each other. The husband, the man will love the woman. The woman will love the man. At the same time, in their love they will not be self-isolated from society, but will carry this love into the world. They will understand that the true meaning of love is not in pleasure, but in spreading.

The child can appear in their dreams, come to them mentally. They can feel his desire to incarnate as their own. And even communicate with him. Even without being taught to communicate with the Higher Self, if they live a true spiritual life. And true spiritual life does not consist of wearing certain clothes or eating certain foods, but only in unconditional love, acceptance, forgiveness and doing good deeds.

The meaning of spiritual life is to approach the Divine Source. And the Divine Source shows its love not with useless words, but with real actions that everyone can see in the surrounding world.

#591 Prophet Zoroaster and his religion. History of Zoroastrianism. Sacred fire. Culture of Ancient Iran.

00:00 Start of video.

00:12 Conference fragments.

Irina: "And then, after a few days, the contact was repeated. Already at night. They began to transmit information to me about how the world is structured and what the Soul is. That is, I began to receive information and write it down (he now shows pieces of wood, or rather bark with some signs that look like runes). I began to write it down and believed in it.

And a little later they began to tell me that I should pass this knowledge on to people, and that they should pay more attention to their spiritual development and to the development of Light in themselves, and not to the ritual side of communication with the gods. Because those who came to me said that people had replaced genuine spiritual work with sacrifices and the use of various herbal infusions for contact with the gods, instead of going through their hearts."

01:50 Introduction of participants.

Irina: Hello, dear friends. My name is Irina Podzorova. I am a contactee with extraterrestrial and subtle-material civilizations, with the Spiritual world. Today, our curators are with us: LiShioni from the planet Shimor, a specialist in astral interactions, MidgasKaus from the planet Esler, a biologist, psychologist, and specialist in extraterrestrial civilizations. And today, with us is an incarnate Spirit from the 17th level of the Spiritual world, who was known on Earth, I emphasize, as the founder of the religion of Zoroastrianism. We will talk about him today. Our guest will tell us more.

Maruf: Good afternoon or evening, Irina. Greetings LiShioni, MidgasKaus. Greetings to the Spirit of Zoroaster from the bottom of my heart. I am very glad to meet you and would like to talk to you about such an ancient religious tradition as Zoroastrianism. As is known, this is the most ancient religion. It was widespread in the territory of modern Iran, Central Asia, and Northern India. It had a great influence on other religions. In particular, the three Magi who brought gifts to the newborn Jesus Christ are considered Zoroastrian magicians.

It was a very ancient religion, with its own theology, its own scripture, the Avesta. An interesting religion, which was later replaced by Islam. Although many elements of this religion are still preserved both in Iran and in Central Asia. There are small communities in Iran, in India. There are centers all over the world. And in Russia, I heard, there are Zoroastrian centers. I would like to talk to you about this religion today.

Irina: Thank you, Marouf. So, he is ready to tell, to answer questions. He has repeatedly communicated with contactees. He also has his own contactees. He supports the religious egregor of Zoroastrianism from the Spiritual world. And not only. He supports, helps other religious egregors to develop: Christianity, Islam, Hinduism. He is currently an Angel of Nature, who helps religious egregors to develop on Earth, because his incarnations were connected with Earth. He says that after incarnating in the body of Zoroaster, he had incarnations on other planets, on other levels of density. At the moment, he is not incarnated. He had other incarnations (shows 3 incarnations).

Maruf: After Zoroaster?

Irina: Yes. After Zoroaster.

Irina (Zoroaster): I have come at Irina's request. I greet everyone. I greet you, Divine Soul. Since I have come at Irina's request, I have included the memory of this particular incarnation, which you will be asking about.

Marouf: Great. Excellent.

06:00 The Spirit of Zoroaster on incarnations on Earth. The Spirit of Zoroaster on the evolution of language.

Marouf: Did he have any other incarnations on Earth?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. I had an incarnation on Earth during the time of Jesus Christ. I was incarnated in Anna, who is known in the Gospel as the prophetess Anna.

Marouf: Excellent. Please tell me, Zoroaster, where and when were you born on Earth as Zoroaster?

Irina (Zoroaster): The thing is that my name (he is calling me now, as I hear it, is Sirudasht).

Maruf: Did you sing?

Irina: Yes. Sirudasht.

Marouf: What does this mean?

Irina (Zoroaster): A shepherd who takes care of livestock: sheep, cows, etc.

Maruf: There is also his name Zardusht. Some interpret it as "the one who was on a camel" or Zaraushtra. "The one who rode a camel."

Irina: I hear an "S" in front. I want to talk about names.

Okay (LiShioni is speaking now). The thing is that each contactee transmits names in their own way, based on their understanding of the thought forms passing through the brain. Therefore, another contactee may hear differently. You don't hear with your ears - with your consciousness.

Maruf: Good. There is much debate among scholars about the date and place of Siraushtu's birth. Siraushtu, please tell us where and when you were born.

Irina (Zoroaster): Siraustu is my birth name, and then, when I grew up, I was more often called Siradesh.

Marouf: How should I address you now?

Irina (Zoroaster): You can call me Zoroaster, because it is a more famous name. Or you can call me Siradesh. You can just call me Divine Spirit. Since I am a disembodied Spirit, you can call me that way.

Marouf: Okay. Then, to make it clear to all earthlings, I will address you as Zoroaster, if you don't mind.

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes, good. So, I was born one thousand twenty years after Krishna was born. Do you know who that is?

Marouf: Of course.

Irina (Zoroaster): I was born on the territory where there is now an abandoned city. In the south of the Chelyabinsk region.

Maruf: Arkaim?

Irina (Zoroaster): Somewhere there. Not in Arkaim itself, but in a nearby village. Sindasht. Something like that.

Maruf: 1200 years after the birth of Krishna?

Irina (Zoroaster): 1,020 years.

Marouf: 1,020 years. Approximately when?

Irina (Zoroaster): 4,000 years ago. If Krishna was born 5,000 years ago and lived 127 years. If 1,020 years passed after Krishna's birth, then 4,000 years remained until our time.

Maruf: Yes. According to sources, your father's name was Purushasta and your mother's name was Dugdova. Please tell me, is this correct?

Irina (Zoroaster): I called them (shows): dadya and patya. Dadya is mother, and patya is father.

Marouf: What language was it? Please tell me, what language did you communicate in?

Irina (Zoroaster): There were many dialects of the single proto-language of our peoples, in your opinion. At first our people were united. Then they began to disperse to different places, and many dialects appeared.

He tells me now that there was no single language that exists for everyone in the modern world. Because there was little written communication between tribes. There was writing, but it was very rarely used in practice. People communicated more in colloquial (oral) speech. Therefore, the language differed significantly even in neighboring villages, because written sources make the language static.

For example, the way you speak is the way you write. And you pass this on to your children. They learn and automatically start speaking the same way. But if, for example, you look at the language of your people 300 or 400 years ago, you may not understand anything. Or you may understand very little. Why? Because few written sources have reached you since then. Accordingly, the language has changed. A language can change in one generation. New words may appear in 25-30 years.

If the father's son went to live in another area and started his own clan, this clan may differ somewhat in language from the one he came from. Because he perceived by ear the words that his father and mother told him. And then he began to perceive by ear the words that his fellow tribesmen told him. As he remembered, so he passed on to his children. Given that each person has some forgetfulness related to memory. And there are also peculiarities of pronunciation of the same words, which are not the same for different people.

And all this forms different languages. That is why we spoke the language of the people, which in your opinion (as I see in the memory of the contactee) was a single people. It is now called in some sources "Aryans". This is the people who became the ancestors of other peoples, who then settled over a large territory. I can only tell about our tribe.

A tribe is a collection of tribal clan communities. It made up a tribe. There were 55 clan communities in our tribe. Our tribe was called Harsi.

Marouf: Harsi? Very interesting. Please tell us about your family. What kind of family were you born into?

Irina (Zoroaster): Both my mother and father were herders. Our tribe had only recently become settled; before that, it was nomadic. I was born into a poor family. We had a small plot of land. Since I had shown a tendency to contact with various beings since childhood and told my mother, father, two older brothers, and my friends with whom I played outside, they told the priests (magi) about it. At the age of five, they took me to study with them in the city you call Arkaim. It was a very large city, where the most famous learned priests lived. Not Zoroastrian priests, but leagues that recognized many gods. They had complex rituals.

Marouf: Polytheistic religion.

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. But the priests who were there taught their successors. At that time, in the Harsi tribe where we lived, there was no caste system in which only the son of a priest could learn this art. They took students even from other classes.

Marouf: Okay. Tell me, did you have brothers? Sisters?

Irina (Zoroaster): I had 4 brothers.

Maruf: Seniors?

Irina (Zoroaster): I was the third.

Marouf: The third in the family. Good. Please describe your life. How and where did you live, what did the settlement look like, what did people do, what was the climate like there?

Irina (Zoroaster): There was a change of seasons. There was summer, there was winter. There was (shows) a steppe and mountains in the distance. More like hills. He saw such landscapes in his childhood (shows). When I was five, I began to live in Arkaim. I lived there until I was 15. I studied for 10 years.

I don't know to what extent this can be called a city (shows). There are some buildings made of stones all around. The street goes around, and in the middle there is some kind of well where they get water from.

Horses, cows, sheep are walking everywhere (shows). A huge herd near the city walls.

At the age of 15, I began to travel with the priests in carts (shows a large cart pulled by two horses). I began to travel to different cities of our country, our tribe. In order to teach people.

Marouf: At 15 already?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. I studied for 10 years, and at 15 I passed the initiation, which made me a full-fledged priest.

Marouf: Tell me, please, what did you teach them?

Irina (Zoroaster): Initially, I taught how to worship the gods, how to make various herbal infusions that help to enter a certain state, how to read prayers. How to bury the dead, how to honor ancestors. How to read various spells for sacrifice, for example, for cleansing from sin, for fertility, so that a woman would be cured of infertility. At that time, priests also performed the function of healers, in your opinion. They knew herbs (shows how they boil something).

20:33 The Spirit of Zoroaster about his first contact.

Marouf: Okay. Tell me, please, in the future, as I understand, you made contact?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. Then I had contact. Somewhere six years after the beginning of my activity, that is, at the age of 21, I had contact (shows 7 Spirits), who appeared from across the river. But I was not at home at that moment. I was (shows mountains north of Arkaim, where the river flows). The day before that, I was at some high waterfall. Then I moved to another village. The village stood on the bank where one river flows into another. I went out to the place where the two rivers merge.

It was a wide river. I was looking at it, and on the other side there appeared seven luminous beings, similar to white silhouettes of people. They were moving through the air (shows), flew over the river. I was looking at them. They were not like what I had seen earlier in my contacts with the gods. It was more obvious and caused other feelings in me. Because, as I have already said, I studied for 10 years and saw various gods in my astral travels. I saw Indra, Rudra, Varuna and others. I communicated with them, but it happened outside the physical world.

And here I saw with my eyes in reality. And I was not afraid, because fear is the first thing that priests remove, that is, all possibilities for fear. I asked who they were. They introduced themselves to me as the Angels of the One God. And then I said: "I want to see Him Himself." "Which Supreme God?" I asked. They answered: "The Creator of the Universe, the Creator of the Universe." The word "Universe" did not mean what it means now. The Angels said that this is the Creator of the entire Universe, including the visible and invisible world. This is the Earth on which I stood, and the stars that I saw and knew about, and the Sun.

I was very surprised that the Sun was created. And I asked, “What about fire?” The thing is that my specialty was the worship of Agni, the God of Fire. I even participated in sacrifices to fire. And I asked, “Did someone really create Agni?” And they said, “Agni is also a creation of the One God, just like you. You are equal to him.” The fact that you worship him is only your delusion, because by doing so you are belittling yourself.

I asked permission to see the One. They said, "All you see is Him." Energy. There was no word "energy." They understood it as the forces of Nature. These are His forces. I asked, "Can I see His Mind?" And they answered that His Mind is so great that it cannot fit even into 10 worlds like Earth. And then they said that each of them is a complete manifestation of God, because they are from the Highest level. Speaking to them, I seemed to speak to Him Himself.

Marouf: These were, as I understand it, Spirits of Nature, plasmoids?

Irina (Zoroaster): Later I learned that three of them were representatives of non-embodied Spirits, and four were plasmoids.

Moreover, two were terrestrial type plasmoids, two were cosmic, and three were Angels of the 21st, 22nd and 23rd levels.

Maruf: That is, the Angels manifested themselves in the material world so that he could see them.

Irina (Zoroaster): Although I saw them with physical eyes, it was my perception. At that moment I had an altered state of consciousness, and the vision of the Spiritual plane moved to physical perception. If someone had been standing nearby, he would not have seen them.

Marouf: In Zoroastrianism they are known as the Ameshaspends. Is this who we are talking about?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. But at that time they were specific Spirits. Now, by the way, some have reincarnated. They are in another incarnation. And some who came are now in the World of non-incarnate Spirits. According to your terminology, my curators. I asked why they came to me. The answer was that I myself planned this meeting, being in the Spiritual World.

Marouf: I see. The appearance of such a cluster of Spirits is unusual. Seven Spirits at once.

Irina (Zoroaster): Moreover, three were not embodied, and four were embodied in more subtle bodies. I want to say that they were similar in their luminescence. I would not have distinguished at that moment whether they were embodied in a subtle body or not. For me, they were Spirits, both. What I am telling you, I learned later, after my incarnation. At that moment, I believed that Spirits from the Spiritual World came to me.

Marouf: Okay. What happened after this meeting?

Irina (Zoroaster): After this meeting, I returned to my priest friends with whom we were on the trip, told them about it. They questioned me, but said nothing, because contacts with various Spirits were common. They questioned me and were interested, but did not comment. A few days later, the contact was repeated (shows) at night, and they began to transmit information to me about how the world is structured and what the Soul is.

I began to receive information and write it down (shows pieces of wood, more like bark, and some signs that looked like runes). I believed it. A little later, they began to tell me that I should pass this knowledge on to people, and that they should pay more attention to their spiritual development and to the development of Light in themselves, and not to the ritual side of communication with the gods. Because those who came to me told me that people had replaced genuine spiritual work with sacrifices and the use of various herbal infusions to contact the gods. Instead of going through their hearts.

I started talking about it, and I had a conflict with other priests. We talked frankly, there was no rudeness. They told me that everyone understood: “You made contact, but you are ruining our work.”

Maruf: Business?

Irina (Zoroaster): It was not the word "business". But as the authority of these people.

Marouf: Tell me, please, have you had physical contact with aliens?

Irina (Zoroaster): No. There was no physical contact with anyone.

Maruf: So there were mainly astral contacts in which information was transmitted to you?

Irina (Zoroaster): In your opinion, astral. At that time I did not understand the world as physical and astral. For me, these contacts were real. I perceived them as real, as the surrounding reality.

32:12 The Spirit of Zoroaster on the names of God.

Marouf: Good. Please tell me who is Ahura Mazda?

Irina (Zoroaster): This name appeared later. After me, other representatives of the egregor came. I will tell you whose name it is. This name was passed on after me. The name of the Creator of the Universe - God. I was initially given the name when I asked what his name was (I now hear something like Rishta). I was told that any name is an image. Any name of God is an image that reflects only a part of His qualities, because He is limitless.

I was warned that His name can limit a person's consciousness, his understanding. I asked how to address Him. Rishta in our language roughly translated as "All-Attractive Source". Source, in your opinion, is "Most Beautiful". Why did they call Him that? Because I always admired the beauty of nature, all the elements of nature. Those who came to me, my curators, said that this was only a reflection of His beauty. Therefore, I perceived His name as Rishta, that is, "Most Beautiful" in translation.

By the way, the Russian word (you are communicating in Russian now, and I counted it in the contactee's memory) "God" is also one of the names of this being. You have probably heard the term "Bhaga"? The words "Bhaga" and "God" come from our language. They sounded like "Bagaha" in our dialect. Bagaha, that is, "Shining". Those who came to me also shone. That is why I called them "Bagaha". Later, in one language, this word turned into the word "Bhaga", and in another - "God".

Marouf: Please tell me, how often did you have contact with them?

Irina (Zoroaster): At first two or three times a month, then several times a week, and then almost every day.

Marouf: Did all seven come at once or different Spirits?

Irina (Zoroaster): All seven came at once for the first contact. Then two, three or one could come. I saw all seven only many years later, when I was already in another place, in another country.

36:17 The Spirit of Zoroaster on migration.

Irina (Zoroaster): I traveled and was a participant in the migration to another country because other tribes from the southeast began to raid our area. The tribes raided, drought and famine affected. The residents of the city of Arkaim, when I was already 27 years old, began to move south.

Shows the huge caravan it is in.

My parents were no longer alive at that time, but my brothers were. I moved with my brothers. At that time, I was no longer a priest of Agni. I carried the truth of the One God. Therefore, the other priests kept their distance from me. As an outcast. We moved south and passed through many dry areas. We rarely encountered rivers and lakes. Near each river or lake, we stopped and set up camp. But each time, the local tribes drove us away from there. So we reached the lake.

MidgasKaus now shows the map and asks him to show where it is, He says that it is not far from Lake Aydarkul.

Maruf: Aydarkul? Central Asia.

Irina (Zoroaster): There I ended my days.

Maruf: Interesting. Aydarkul is southern Kazakhstan, approximately.

Irina (Zoroaster): That's what they called it (they show a long lake). I ended my days on its shores. I was 77 years old at the time.

Marouf: Please tell me, are you buried there or burned?

Irina (Zoroaster): Burned. According to the religion of the kind in which I was incarnated, everyone was burned.

39:51 The spirit of Zoroaster about his family.

Marouf: Tell me, please, were you married? Did you have your own family?

Irina (Zoroaster): I had two wives. One of them died of illness. Then came the second.

Maruf: And the child?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. I had children. Three daughters and three sons.

40:15 The Spirit of Zoroaster on the spread of Zoroastrianism.

Marouf: About your religion. When did you start spreading your new religion? How?

Irina (Zoroaster): At 21, I received contact. About a year later, I began to talk about it. Because those curators, mentors who came to me, constantly told me not to remain silent and to carry the truth. My heart told me the same thing.

At first I started telling in my immediate circle. As I already said, there was a conflict, including with the priests. We had a hierarchy: someone was a senior priest, someone was his assistant, and someone was the high priest who managed religious affairs in this area. I also spoke with him. He was an old experienced sage and contactee, and he treated me favorably.

The high priest told me that those who came to me, came to him too. He advised me to preach, to carry this teaching more carefully or in another area, so as not to be attacked, because for this they could kill. Since the teaching contradicted certain ideas of egregors. At that time people were very cruel and could kill just because someone's ideas were not liked.

Marouf: Yes, I understand. Was that one of the reasons for your leaving there, or were there other reasons?

Irina (Zoroaster): We moved with the whole tribe (shows). I know that some remained in Arkaim and in the surrounding villages. But few remained, maybe two hundred people. The rest left.

Marouf: How did you start talking about your religion in your new place? I assume you started spreading it further?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. When we came to a new place, the local tribes accepted us. They did not drive us away and allowed us to establish our settlement (houses, huts, shows), to build it on the shore of the lake. Among the local tribes to whom I came, I began to preach. And as I already said, I was 27 years old at that time. From that moment until my exit from incarnation, which happened 50 years later, I traveled around this lake, but not far and returned to the settlement.

I told, and everyone accepted (shows how they accepted and listened). Students began to gather. Especially since I used the knowledge and skills that I received in my priestly school about how to talk to people. I also used my skills as a healer. Healing and my stories created a rumor about me as an unusual person who communicates with the gods.

In those days, for a person, what the priest said was the truth. There was no skeptical, materialistic approach to these things. Therefore, I quickly gained supporters, admirers, who wanted to worship me as one of the avatars, in your opinion, as an incarnation of the gods. I resisted this and explained that I was the same as them, because my teachers told me so. Although, I do not hide, I liked the honor, but it was more important for me to maintain relations with the Angels, with the luminous beings. They told me: “If you develop pride and arrogance in yourself, we will abandon you.” I asked: “Why will you abandon us?” They answered: “Because you will choose another path, and then you must go through it to the end without our support.”

45:55 The spirit of Zoroaster about the united people and their ancestors.

Maruf: What kind of tribes were they? What kind? Were they Aryan tribes or others?

Irina (Zoroaster): I'll tell you now. The thing is that every 50-70 years certain people, families, departed from the united people. They went to another place, and then a tribe was formed from them. All these tribes were branches of the united people. The Harsi also departed. The Harsi is one of the tribes. And these departed earlier. They went further from the places where I was born.

When I was still living in the family and later, when I moved to the priests, I saw my parents. They came there and told me that our tribe moved from a place that was northwest. They showed me and told me legends about how many centuries ago we all lived together with the gods. One day the gods got angry at us and threw down fireballs.

Marouf: Yes, I understand what you are talking about.

Irina: He shows me what the legends were.

47:50 The Spirit of Zoroaster on the name of religion, rituals and the scripture "Avesta".

Marouf: I see. I would like to ask you about your religion. What was the name of the religion? Did the religion have a name? Because different sources call it by different names.

Irina: The religion he followed since childhood? Or the one that was created?

Marouf: The one he brought.

Irina: Was there a name?

Marouf: Did this religion have a name? Because "Zoroastrianism" is a later name. There are such names: "Mazda Yasna", "Behdin" and so on. Was there a single name for your new religion?

Irina (Zoroaster): No. It was called “Faith in God”. You just gave two names, he doesn’t confirm.

Faith in God. There was no need to give any names. It was clear that this was faith in Rishta and the tribes to whom I was transmitting. They did not know the language. Their language was different, but they understood some words, and Rishta was already called by another name. At that time, I did not say that it was necessary to do any rituals that were different from other religions. I only said that they should pay more attention to their hearts. Later, in the last five years of my activity, I developed rituals (shows immersion in water and lighting a fire for prayer (connection) with God).

I still decided that people who will continue to support this religion should have some rituals to carry this knowledge further. A person needs something tangible. Not just words. I want to say that I wrote this knowledge down in books, but the vast majority of those to whom I preached could not read. The knowledge was passed on orally.

Maruf: However, after you, perhaps later compiled, the scripture “Avesta” appeared.

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes, I know about this book, but I wasn't the only one who wrote it. Only excerpts. There are other successors, my students, who later collected everything together and wrote what you know. I didn't make it into a separate book. These were notes, more for myself.

51:30 The Spirit of Zoroaster on the exit from incarnation.

Maruf: Please tell me how your fate developed later. You came to a new place, started distributing. You have a family, children and so on. As I understand it, there was no particular resistance. Nevertheless, at the beginning you said that in the end there was a tragic death. Please tell us about it.

Irina (Zoroaster): This happened because I had a falling out with a man who was the son of an influential priest of one of the local tribes. The priest worshiped the Spirits of the ancestors, the Spirit of Fire, the Spirits of the area. And he also healed people. He had a son, Lair, who used certain substances, they are now called narcotics. Moreover, when he used them, he went into a state of madness. Some evil force entered into him. He began to beat people, chase children. I saw it. This happened about a year before my death. I was 76 years old, and I turned to him with a demand not to disgrace his father. He harbored a grudge against me and took revenge, because I told him in public. I then talked to his father about the fact that his son behaved this way and disgraced the priestly family. Then they looked at how the children of priests behaved and formed an opinion about their father. It was, in your opinion, in modern words, like a business card.

Maruf: Yes. Face.

Irina (Zoroaster): That is, a spiritual personality, a spiritual teacher could say whatever he wanted, but if his children behaved inappropriately, it immediately reduced the flow of those wishing to study with this person. They looked at it. That is why I spoke about how the son behaved, how he disgraced his father, because an evil Spirit had entered into him. So that he would get rid of these harmful plants (shows) that he used. In a certain sense, all this was, of course, known to the priests. I also studied this. But my mentors said that this was not the way. This is the way that leads to emptiness and wastes a person's strength. Here I was convinced of this once again. I told him in public. He left. When he looked at me with an angry look, I realized that he harbored a grudge.

A year passed. I was in the house. When I was going to bed in the evening, I heard someone climb through the window in the next room (shows a window covered with fabric). I went out, shone a torch, but saw no one. When I turned to go to the other room, I was attacked from behind. I felt pain in the area of my left shoulder blade. As if I had been pierced with something sharp. After that, I felt dizzy, my legs weak, and fell.

When I turned around, I saw a shadow that flashed back through the window. After that, everything started spinning in front of me (shows the exit from the incarnation), a funnel appeared. I closed my eyes.

Suddenly I stopped feeling pain and felt that I was flying somewhere. In flight, I forgot about what happened to my body.

At first I didn't understand where I was. It seemed to me that I was in a dream. Then I saw those same seven creatures in the distance. I remembered meeting them on the river. The thought came to me: "Maybe I'm still on that river? Did I dream all this life?" I had an altered state of consciousness (shows an altered state of consciousness). Different images from memory emerged. When some image from memory emerged, the environment around me took on this appearance.

Maruf: Interesting.

Irina (Zoroaster): At first there was emptiness. Space, like the black cosmos, with luminous dots and spots. I was hanging in this emptiness, not feeling my arms, legs, my body. I was the eyes that see. When I remembered something, this area appeared around me. I remembered another, another appeared. I did not understand what had happened, and had already forgotten what I felt in my body. That is, I forgot about this blow. Under the impression of what I saw, I forgot my last evening, that I was at home. I was concentrated on these visions.

And then I saw seven beings and remembered that I had already seen them on the river. The same area immediately appeared around me. I saw a river, and it was as if I was standing on the bank. Two of them flew closer to me and said: “We greet you! You have freed yourself from your body.” They began to explain to me. I looked at myself. I had the same body as the physical one. And I: “How did you free yourself from the body?” It was funny to me: “But I am still talking to you, and only a little time has passed.” They began to explain to me that a lot of time had passed since the meeting with them: “We are meeting you in the Spiritual World in order to help you go to your level.”

After they told me, the memory started to come back, and I remembered the pain. But it was a memory. Like a memory of pain. Then I remembered seeing a shadow that jumped out of the window. And I immediately understood what had happened.

Marouf: Yes. Of course. The death was tragic.

1:00:53 The Spirit of Zoroaster and MidgasKaus on the spread of Zoroastrianism.

Marouf: Your religion later spread to the territory of modern Iran, which covered very large areas: the Achaemenid Empire and so on. According to sources, you brought your religion to Iran, to the Achaemenid Empire. Then it became the main state religion.

Irina: Now MidgasKaus is speaking.

Irina (MidgasKaus): Yes. I have studied this issue. And now I have listened to what he was transmitting. In reality, there is a whole clan of priests who bore the name of the Spirit. You have just spoken to him. This Spirit initially received information while living in that place 4,000 years ago. Then there was the next Zoroaster, who lived one and a half thousand years ago. Another one lived 1,000 years ago. There were several of them. Then the one who lived in the fourth century of your era.

There were (shows) 23 of them. And all of them can be called Zoroasters, because they transmitted this teaching from the Primary Source. Naturally, each of these people was not called by this name by chance. Each was a contactee who received information from the Angels. They were his curators, including each contacted the Spirit of Zoroaster (the primary source). All together gave them the basis to be called by the same name. What you call Zoroaster is not so much a name as, in your opinion, a title.

Marouf: Yes. A priestly title.

Irina (MidgasKaus): The names could have been different.

Maruf: Did the spread of your religion to other territories further south than you were happen later?

Irina (Zoroaster): I know that religion began to spread further south and east than where I was and came out of incarnation. But this is already the merit of other generations of my successors, who did not extinguish the spark, but began to carry it further and fan the flame from it.

1:04:10 The Spirit of Zoroaster on consciousness-altering substances.

Marouf: Okay. You mentioned different narcotic drinks in Zoroastrianism. Tell me, please, in late Zoroastrianism, the priests used to drink a drink called "haoma" and enter a certain state of altered mind? Was that part of your religion or was it something else?

Irina (Zoroaster): There were several drinks based on different compositions. What you call "haoma", "soma" and so on, had different compositions. Some of them included, in your opinion, alcohol. It was berry juice. Conditions for its fermentation were specially created. Some included psychoactive plants, what you call mushrooms. There were different compositions for different needs. I was against using these substances, because the teachers warned that they lead away from the true path. I know that similar substances were used in the religion in which I grew up.

1:05:30 The Spirit of Zoroaster about Fire as a symbol of Divine Light.

Maruf: Good. You spoke about fire, Agni. In late Zoroastrianism it has a central meaning. A central place. The priests almost worship fire, and there are fire temples.

Irina (Zoroaster): It is just a symbol. Behind the fire they see the presence of the Divine Light.

Maruf: Yes. That is why Zoroastrians later got the name of fire worshippers. Because there was fire in Zoroastrian temples. There is the "Eternal Fire of Bahram", which they later took from Iran and brought to India. It still burns, it is in the temple. You call it a symbol. But why is it of central importance in Zoroastrianism?

Irina (Zoroaster): You see, an image is important for a person. It is very difficult for him to believe in some abstract concepts. This was especially important for ancient man, who lived more in nature. Life in nature predisposed him to greater materialism, because he was engaged in heavy physical labor. He often went hungry, often experienced aggression from people. This presupposed the activation of his instincts in the body: the instinct of self-preservation and so on. Instinctive activity, as you well know, figuratively speaking, brings a person down to earth. Therefore, in ancient religions, not only in Zoroastrianism, but in all ancient religious texts of different religions, there are quite vivid and sensual images of God.

Marouf: Yes. That's why it's fire.

Irina (Zoroaster): Fire is something visible. It is a manifestation of God. It does not mean that fire is a manifestation of God, and the other elements are not. It is considered to be the highest manifestation of God, because everything appeared from Fire. This is what your science teaches, which says that the Earth appeared from the Sun.

1:08:18 The Spirit of Zoroaster on the mutual influence of religions.

Maruf: Yes. Good. Zoroastrians have a concept of "Savior of the World". He is called Saoshyant. Can you tell us anything about it?

Irina (Zoroaster): It appeared later. There were no such concepts. There is an understanding, in your opinion, of a prophet. What does the Savior of the World mean? I taught that everyone can save themselves.

Marouf: That he would supposedly come at the End of Time. It was like the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

Irina (Zoroaster): Don't forget that Zoroastrianism existed before Christianity. Naturally, Zoroastrianism influenced Christianity. Remember the lighting of candles in Christian churches. Why are candles used there? Because fire remains a symbol of prayer, a symbol of connection with God.

The already formed egregor of Christianity around the fourth-fifth century actively contacted Zoroastrianism, which gave rise (now LiShioni suggests) to such movements as Manichaeism in Christianity. But this is already in Christianity.

Zoroastrianism also changed, and the idea of the Savior was taken from the story of the Second Coming of Jesus. It turned out to be a collection. Because one religion influences another. Christianity has also changed over the years of its existence and changed very much. What was common in Christianity then has now become nonsense.

Marouf: On the influence of religions on each other: in Zoroastrianism, five times a day prayer is accepted.

Irina: Oh, that's already Islam.

Marouf: Yes, it is in line with Islam, with the Islamic tradition of prayer: five times a day.

Irina (Zoroaster): You see how religions influence each other.

Marouf: Yes. And it would be interesting to know. Who influenced whom. Zoroastrianism influenced others or him.

Irina (Zoroaster): They influenced each other. I am present in both egregores.

Maruf: Yes. A very interesting topic - how religions influence each other. Everything was in tune. Understandable.

1:11:22 The Spirit of Zoroaster on Souls in Zoroastrianism and burial customs.

Maruf: There is such a concept in Zoroastrianism as the fraveshi of the Soul.

Irene (Zoroaster): This word is similar to the word "travesty." Have you heard the Russian word "grass"?

Marouf: Yes, of course.

Irina (Zoroaster): Perhaps you have heard ancient legends or fairy tales that say that in the place where a certain person is buried, a plant grows, into which his Soul enters. The same root as the word "fravesha", that is, "grass". In the tribes where we lived, it was customary to burn the dead. And there were tribes where our descendants, your ancestors, came. Tribes of nomads who brought with them the custom of burying in huge chambers under the hills.

They lived mainly in the steppes, and it was difficult for them to get enough fire to burn a human corpse. They buried him, and grass grew from the grave. It was also customary at that time not to make a cemetery, but to bury on the territory of the plot where the family lived. It was believed that the grass that would grow from his body would be healing. It would emit such aromas into the air, such energies, in your opinion, that would have a beneficial effect on the space. Because the ancestor came out of the earth and went into it on his plot of land. The word came from one root.

1:14:11 The Spirit of Zoroaster on the concepts of “Truth” and “Falsehood” in Zoroastrianism.

Marouf: Maybe one of the last questions: in Zoroastrianism there is the concept of "Asha" and the concept of "Druj". Please tell us a little about them.

Irina: You'd better speak Russian. At least for people. Because it's very difficult.

Maruf: Good. The concept of "Asha" is truth, order. Druj is a lie.

Irina (Zoroaster): In our language it was different. What can I say about these concepts?

Marouf: Perhaps what you said may be about them. What does this mean in Zoroastrianism? Are these generally accepted concepts?

Irina (Zoroaster): Divine energy and devilish energy. What do you think? Opposites. According to the religion of Zoroastrianism, there is a group of beings that harm the Light and bring lies. Some teachings believe that lies, that is, distortion of truth, are a certain characteristic of material nature, Zoroastrianism speaks of this. Where does this come from? From the fact that I and other followers of Zoroastrianism had contacts not only with light beings.

To us: to me and to others, creatures came, which appeared as terrible monsters with fangs, horns. They brought fear to us and tried to destroy us. What do you mean, tried to destroy? They pretended to attack us in order to cause fear, and so that we would worship them in fear, submit to them. They wanted to impose their order, so that people would suffer, swear, so that they would kill each other. It is like evil. Many religions consider Zoroastrianism dual, but I understood that everything exists by the will of God. I did not think that the devil was equal in power to God. This was later.

Marouf: Do you mean evil Spirits or parasitic plasmoids came?

Irina (Zoroaster): Parasitic plasmoids and disembodied Spirits from the lower levels.

Marouf: They came from the lower levels. Understandable.

1:17:22 The Spirit of Zoroaster on illusion and reality.

Maruf: About Ahura Mazda. Besides Ahura Mazda, there is also the concept of Ahriman, or that which opposes God, opposite to God. Is this a different concept than the devilish evil Spirits?

Irina (Zoroaster): At that time I believed that there were many of them. Not just one, but many Spirits oppose God. Including many people, those who live in illusion, in lies. That is, they lie. And who do they lie to? First of all, to themselves. They lie that everything is fine with them.

In fact, they are deeply ill, they need healing by the Divine Light.

Marouf: And what is illusion for you? You spoke about living in illusion.

Irina (Zoroaster): Self-deception.

Marouf: If illusion exists. Does illusion exist?

Irina (Zoroaster): Of course, for the one who is in it, it exists. It opposes the truth.

Marouf: If illusion exists, can it be said that illusion is also real?

Irina (Zoroaster): What do you mean by the word “real”?

Marouf: Real is what is, what exists.

Irina (Zoroaster): Everything that exists for someone exists. Therefore, if an illusion exists for someone, it already exists in our reality. We just understand that it is an illusion, and they do not understand.

Marouf: If it is an illusion, if it exists, isn't it part of God? The same illusion?

Irina (Zoroaster): In the sense that God gave the power, the energy for this. This is a part of God. But this part stopped following His laws, stopped obeying His laws and created its own world.

Marouf: Your world apart from God?

Irina (Zoroaster): Energetically not separate from God, but according to the laws that rule in the world of Satan, Ahriman. They are separate from God only by their own laws. They do not want to follow the laws of God. They have their own world of lawlessness.

Imagine that you are a respectable citizen of your country, who follows the laws of the state you live in. Imagine that these laws were created so that people could exist harmoniously in one society. Not to steal, not to kill, not to rape, and so on.

And suddenly you find yourself in an environment of people who are a criminal gang. They created their own world because they have their own criminal laws. For example, in their criminal community there may be a law that the more a person has stolen or killed, the higher he is in the hierarchy. But from the point of view of the state laws where you live, on the contrary, he becomes lower in the hierarchy, lower in level. It's like an inverted law.

Marouf: I understand.

1:21:10 Zoroaster's parting words to earthlings.

Marouf: Okay. Do you want to say a parting word to us all?

Irina (Zoroaster): Yes. Thank you for the contact. Thank you Irina the contactee for the answers that she conveyed in her own words. Thank you Maruf for the questions. A very bright Soul. There is Light in you. I also thank those who listened to this conversation. I hope I told about the birth of this religion and about myself.

I want to say that over the 4,000 years that it has existed, it has changed a lot (smiles). And there is nothing wrong with that, because changes are a sign of true life. As I have already said, I myself changed when I met the shining Gods, the shining Angels. That is, those whom I called Gods, you call Angels, messengers of Rishta. I also changed, I did not remain the same. Some of my friends and my spiritual teacher thought that these changes were harmful to me, but they were only speaking of fear of the new. Therefore, I recommend that you do not be afraid of the new, cast aside the fear of change. This fear slows down your development and manifests itself only from the unconsciousness of consciousness, from the fact that you believe that something will harm you in the future. In fact, nothing can harm you except yourself.

Marouf: Thank you very much. Amazing words. Huge thanks to the Spirit of Zoroaster! Huge thanks to LiShioni, MidgasKaus and Irina. Thank you!

Irina: Thank you!

Dear friends! I also thank you for watching this video and I send you the Light of my Love. Thank you for everything: for your gratitude, for your support. I love you. Until next time!

Marouf: Until next time!

Exit from incarnation on the planets of the Interstellar Union https://blog.cassiopeia.center/vyhod-iz-voploshcheniya-na-planetah-mezhzvyozdnogo

Question: "I would like to know: is there any system on the planets of the Interstellar Union that prepares a living being, a humanoid, for exiting an incarnation, knowing that due to his illness, he has very little time left. What advice can you give to prepare a person? What conversation can be held with such a person who already knows that he does not have much time left?"

LiShioni answers:

A specific time period is usually not named. About two months, about a year. This can be felt and said by mentors, since it is practically impossible to set a time period day by day. It can be felt.

What to do in such a case? In the Interstellar Union they teach that before leaving the incarnation, if the approximate time of exit has become known, to meet with your Higher Self on this topic, asking the question: "Have I fulfilled my highest task of incarnation? Do I have any unfinished tasks yet? Are there those in this material world who are offended by me? Are there those with whom I am offended?"

Each Spirit understands that after leaving the incarnation, it will go to talk to God. Each Spirit wants to appear before Him pure so that the vibration of the absolutely pure God would suit this Spirit and give it happiness, not suffering.

A low vibrational Spirit that has hidden grievances or has not reconciled with its neighbors will also converse with God, but at some distance. The presence of God will bring it suffering. Not physical suffering, but spiritual suffering due to the mismatch of vibrations. Very high vibrations, like electricity, but it will be spiritual. This is the first point.

The second point: every Spirit who loves God wants to appear before his loving Father in the purest form, to show Him his Love, his gratitude for this world. This also plays an important role in the fact that the Spirit, before leaving the incarnation, does everything to find out if there is anything in the material world that can prevent him from leaving in complete peacefulness, Love and humility. He spends time to find out if he has any unfinished business, whether he has completed his task, whether there are beings with whom he is in conflict.

Further, if he has closed everything in these relations, he usually begins to think about where to direct the property that he has. Unlike Earth, in the Interstellar Union, inheritance does not always go to relatives.

#592 True Revelations: Channeling with the Spirit of Helena Blavatsky.

00:00 Start of video.

00:04 Rules of contact with the Spirit, if it has an embodied part.

Maxim: Dear friends, hello everyone! Today we will have a very interesting broadcast. We have been waiting for it for a long time. I will now adjust the camera a little so that I can be seen better. Please write how you can hear me. We are checking how we can be heard. "Hello everyone from Sochi!" "Good evening! Nikolaev" Excellent, everything is super, the main thing is that you can hear me perfectly.

Today we have a broadcast with one of the most interesting mystics of the 19th century - this is Helena Blavatsky, maiden name Gan. By the way, she is already here with us, nearby. I want to greet her.

In general, it is a very interesting story. We could not conduct a broadcast with her before for one simple reason, because if the Spirit is already embodied, then it is necessary to obtain the consent of the embodied part of the Spirit in order to transmit correct information. I would like to remind you once again that if the Spirit is embodied on any of the planets of the Solar system, either in a material or subtle structure, in order for the information to be transmitted correctly, it is necessary to obtain permission from this embodied part.

Gan Elena or Helena Blavatsky is currently incarnated as a little girl of five years old, I think 5-6 years old, she will tell you herself, on the planet Esler. The planet Esler, that is, it is one of the planets, MidgasKaus from this planet is with us. The most interesting thing is that she is incarnated in the family of the leader of MidgasKaus, in the family of Oudus.

She is incarnated in a very interesting family. I understand that she also has very interesting tasks. And we took permission from the father of this incarnated girl, because she is still considered a minor on Esler, in order to communicate today with the non-incarnated part of her Spirit, which we all knew in the previous incarnation as Helena Blavatsky or Helena Gan.

Before this wonderful broadcast begins, I would like to tell you what news we have. The first news is that part of our group is already returning from a large esoteric festival. I am sure that we will also hold such festivals in Voronezh. We will be able to easily accept up to 100 people for retreats and events. Our Center is gradually expanding, expanding, and I want to thank all the people who are participating in the expansion of the Center so that we can gather here in large groups, large companies of like-minded people.

Our next event will be in St. Petersburg. We have already approved, there will be a unique program, it is called "Science of Imagery" and "Astral Travel", it will be led by Ilya Alexandrov and Irina Podzorova. A very interesting, rich program with unique training data from representatives of the Interstellar Union. This program will have a lot of interesting things, right up to how to form your reality, how to launch thought-images correctly, think correctly and achieve your goals set at mental levels - this is one task.

Astral travel is, of course, a complete flight. Irina Podzorova will work with each person personally, through testing, select the right technique for entering astral travel. She will tell you what the Astral is, what the mental is, how to enter the Astral correctly, safety techniques.

(Chat conversation) "Who swung at your face, leaving interesting marks?" Guys, as I understand it, my third eye is just breaking through, it doesn't know where to break through. I've been closing it like this, and so on, but it keeps breaking through and breaking through.

Irina Podzorova and Ilya Aleksandrov are going to St. Petersburg from October 10 to 14, and we are taking with us specialists from our Health Center - Nadezhda Viktorovna, a specialist in multifunctional integrative medicine, who will examine you using the Oberon equipment. In addition, Nadezhda Viktorovna is taking two "Chambers of Light" with her - these are scientific developments by our scientists that program your body for recovery and healing. Alexey will be there - our visceral massage therapist, who will work with your internal organs using three techniques. I'll tell you a secret, he sees your internal organs with his hands. If you want to sign up for this event, the link is right under this video, at the bottom. You can follow this link.

And most importantly: our beloved Guzel Maliarova is coming with us. Gulya is the head of the Cosmohealing project, who will be working with you in the evening, will heal you with the Intergalactic Health Service, which includes the Pleiades, the GFS, the Interstellar Union, and subtle-material civilizations. And, accordingly, after the health event there will be a conference where they will answer all the questions that you will have. Therefore, from October 10 to 14, we are meeting in St. Petersburg in a large circle, in a large company. All the information is under this video. There is a link, go ahead, sign up. There is all the information there to understand where what and how, it is there.

In November we are going to Minsk with a unique program. The program will be designed for those who have completed the first and second stages, and those who have already been to the "Science of Imagery", that is, the program will be absolutely unique. But we will announce this program a little later.

Literally next week, on the next live broadcast, I will tell you how you can get to this unique program in Minsk. To a unique Soviet health resort, where there is even a cryochamber, a swimming pool, a jacuzzi. That is, we are not just going to hold events for a week, but we are also going there together to improve our health. An old-style Soviet KGB resort, if I am not mistaken, where there is equipment that is still functioning. It is truly unique. Therefore, we will combine business with pleasure in Minsk. But I will tell you about Minsk a little later. I know that many of you are already waiting for this information, but we are now finalizing the program, the masters who are going with us. We will adjust all this and, accordingly, then we will announce everything that we agree on.

Of course, December, a unique off-site event in Egypt, it's called "Sacred tour of sacred places of Egypt", where I will accompany Irina Podzorova so that no one will steal her. Irina, no one will steal you?

So, regarding Egypt: it will be an experimental off-site event. We will not have any retreat there, we will travel all day to the most interesting sacred places of Egypt and in the evening hold a conference with the Spirits of those places and with the Spirits of those chiefs, military leaders, rulers who existed at that time when this sacred place was formed. That is, it will be a very interesting off-site event, but we will also report on it a little later.

(Communication with chat) "Maxim, talk longer." No, that's all I have. My 10 minutes of time are already up, guys. I hope I've told you all the news.

"Science of Imagery" and "Astral Travel" - St. Petersburg. Minsk - a unique program in the KGB health resort. And Egypt - a unique sacred tour. We will travel, there will be no training. There will be unique feedback from Irina Podzorova and those who will be there on the spiritual, subtle and dense material levels.

10:40 Maria Sokalskaya about the training center "Cassiopeia" in Voronezh and about the head of the Project.

Maxim: Our guest is Masha Sokalskaya. She says: "I want to get on screen." Please write to me now in private. Would you like to meet the head of the school "SAKRAL"? Maria Sokalskaya came from Germany. She even sat through the first stage diligently.

(Communication with chat) "Are you coming to Germany?", I want to go to Germany. Well, go already. "Yes, I love it." Masha, they love you here. "Masha into the frame." "Yes, we want to." Go then.

Our Masha is very open in German. I hope she will greet you now. Sit down, Masha. I will adjust the camera. That's it, you can introduce yourself.

Maria: Hello, dear friends. I am grateful to Maxim that he gave me these couple of minutes to greet you. In fact, I want to share my latest experience of studying with Irina at the school in our wonderful Center.

I want to wish everyone from the bottom of my heart to express their intention to come here, because each stream is unique, and I see it again and again. So, friends, please come to us. I will be very glad to see everyone when I come here again. And I also want to say something very important to me. I saw this time what Maxim did, what he did with our Center - it's just a miracle. Friends, thanks to your donations, thanks to your help, your participation in our Project, Maxim made an oasis for the Soul and for the body here. I was here last year, I saw what state it was in. I see what he did with this Center by this summer.

Maxim: As I promised, I will direct all funds towards the development of the Center.

Maria: Since I am a moderator in our social networks, sometimes I read such rather critical messages regarding Maxim. Friends, I have known Maxim for a very long time, practically from the very beginning of this Project. I want to tell you that this person does incredible work for our Project, for each of you, he tries, he gives it his all, he combines the spiritual and the material at such a high level. I assure you that not every one of you would want to change places with him. He simply does such incredible work at all levels, he harmonizes our Project and all its participants. Therefore, I kindly ask you to show him real love and support.

If you have any comments, I ask you to make suggestions in a constructive manner on how we can improve our Project. I ask for your support for him and for our entire Project, because Maxim is truly that incredible force and love that, along with our Irochka, moves our Project forward, helping everyone who wants to develop spiritually. Thank you.

Maxim: Masha, if I had known what you were going to say, I would not have let you go on air.

Maria: Why? It was such a call of my heart, and everyone should have heard it, Maxim.

Maxim: I think that people should work a little bit on themselves in order to understand and feel. Come here in order to understand what volume of work is being done.

Maria: You just have to see what he does behind the scenes. All our centers, all our retreats, all the training you receive is a huge job that requires huge financial investments, spiritual, moral, mental. That's why Maxim does it.

Maxim: Even sometimes immoral ones.

Maria: You see what it does for all of us. Thank you, friends. Have a wonderful broadcast today. I was very happy to address you all.

Maxim: Thank you very much. You supported me.

14:52 Introduction of participants.

Maxim: We give the floor to our "gold of the party". So, well, now I, Irisha, two seconds, I'll set it up for you now. Oh, listen, today you somehow look very much like Blavatsky. I'm looking at the camera now, it feels as if she has already possessed you.

Irina: Hello, dear friends! Hello everyone. Okay, I'll tell you now. Yes, of course, all this is not accidental. She is already here with us now.

Maxim: Just as her objects moved, so ours are starting to move too.

Irina: Yes, I see. That's how she said hello.

Hello, dear friends! My name is Irina Podzorova. I am a contactee with extraterrestrial civilizations, with the Spiritual world and the subtle world.

I have already been told that Elena and I, Lena, as she asked to be called, are indeed similar in some ways. Probably more in our fate, because we are both contactees and contactees of the same civilization. And that is why it is very interesting for me to talk to my predecessor, so to speak, on this path, but who lived more than a hundred years ago.

Maxim: Guys, the broadcast will be very interesting, watch until the end, don't disappear. You can't imagine how many questions I edited. Yes, I had to watch a film about her, where she was slightly discredited, I watched very interesting video materials, and a huge number of questions that you sent to the chat "Question - Answer. Live" and VKontakte, and Odnoklassniki, and in my personal messages. In general, I processed all of this today.

Irina: Today we are broadcasting with Helena Blavatsky, with her Spirit. Let me remind you, she is incarnated. Now she is incarnated as a girl, a small child on the planet Esler, in the family of Oudus. More precisely, his name is Oudus. He is also here now, by the way, as her father and as one of her curators, because she had many of them when she was on Earth. I want to inform you now that it is absolutely no coincidence that her birthday on Earth was yesterday. But according to the new style. If you recalculate, it was August 12, at that time the calendar was a little different, it was July 31.

She says: “My Spirit arranged events so that you would talk to me on this particular day.”

Maxim: Well, yes. Since we hadn’t been able to talk or communicate until now, because we didn’t know how to get permission. And then I decided, I thought: “I need to ask MidgasKaus.” Because we knew where you were incarnated. Lena, we decided to get consent from your dad, who is also here. I greet him.

Irina: Oudus, greetings too.

18:56 Blavatsky's spirit about her current incarnation.

Maxim: Then I'll start with questions. How can I address you?

Irina: Elena, Lena, can I? Now I'll explain. Here is present that part of her spiritual essence which contains the memory of the incarnation of Helena Blavatsky.

Maxim: So. We've already figured out where you're incarnated - it's the planet Esler. Is it a girl?

Irina: Yes, girl.

Maxim: How old is the girl?

Irina: She was born in June 2018.

Maxim: According to our calendar? You have a slightly different calendar there.

Irina: According to the Esler calendar, not even a year has passed yet.

Maxim: So it turns out that 5 years have already passed?

Irina: Yes.

Maxim: And you’re not even a year old yet, it turns out?

Irina: No.

Maxim: How interesting! I understand.

Irina (Elena): And I will be a year old when the year 2026 comes around here.

Maxim: Thank you.

20:15 Blavatsky's spirit about her incarnations.

Maxim: Please tell me, from what spiritual level did you come when you incarnated as Blavatsky Helena, and at what level did you leave the incarnation. Yes, again, we are speaking according to the data of the Interstellar Union. Don't get confused, guys, because many contactees have their own scales of hierarchy of spiritual levels, something else. We have data from the Interstellar Union, so we use only this scale.

Irina (Elena): I incarnated into the body of Helena Blavatsky from the eighteenth Spiritual level.

Maxim: From the level of Guardian Angels.

Irina (Elena): Yes. I came out of incarnation to the twenty-first spiritual level.

Maxim: Irina, please remind me, level 21, who is that?

Irina: Guide angels.

Maxim: Guide angels are those who meet.

Irina: We are with her. I came from the same level.

She says: “We communicated in the Spiritual World.”

Maxim: And so you had an agreement there to dive here. How interesting. So, it turns out that she went to the twenty-first level, and you came here from the twenty-first level too.

Irina (Elena): Yes, we collaborated with Irina's Spirit. There was a period in our spiritual existence when she and I and another Spirit (she shows him) went to meet and see off Spirits into the material world.

Maxim: Interesting. Lena, please tell me, have you had other incarnations on Earth and what kind?

Irina (Elena): Yes, there were. In this manvantara I had a total of 1,893 incarnations.

Maxim: This is quite a large number.

Irina (Elena): Yes. I am now in my one thousand eight hundred and ninety-third, because the last one has already begun. The 1893rd incarnation, of which I spent 133 incarnations on Earth, but this is on all levels of density.

Maxim: Were there 133 incarnations on Earth?

Irina (Elena): This is at all levels of density. I'll tell you right away.

Maxim: How many were dense-material and how many were subtle-material? How can we understand this?

Irina (Elena): Of these, 18 were in dense matter, and the rest were in subtle matter.

Maxim: Please tell me, before you came to Helena Blavatsky, what other dense-material incarnations on Earth did you have?

Irina (Elena): I had incarnations (shows) more than two million years ago, when the first people were still there, but not those who were created, but those who were already born from them. There were still few people on Earth then (shows). Two million one hundred and fifty thousand years ago.

Maxim: Was this your first incarnation on Earth?

Irina (Elena): Yes. Then I had incarnations one and a half million years ago, eight hundred thousand years ago (she had many incarnations before the war). And even closer to your times, already to the 21st century, where you are, I had incarnations in India, in an Indian ruler, he lived three hundred years before Christ, and his name was Chandragupta Maurya.

Maxim: Interesting. I'll have to see if there is such a Chandragup, and who he was.

Irina: I perceive the name this way because she says it in Sanskrit, which I don’t know. I accept thought forms. I accepted it as Chandragupa.

Maxim: I will explain what dense-material is, what subtle-material is for those who are watching us for the first time. Subtle-material are bodies that we cannot see with our eyes, these are bodies that consist of energies, their different levels. Be sure to read the article. Irina created a scientific work "Research of subtle-material worlds", and you will understand what subtle-material worlds are and how they are formed. There is this article in the VK group, in Telegram in the "Publications" chat. Find the article and study the information on subtle-material worlds, it is very interesting.

Irina (Elena): And I was also incarnated after leaving the incarnation from the body of this king on the territory of the Roman Empire into the sister of the mother of the Apostle Paul. The aunt of the Apostle Paul.

Maxim: Like the Apostle Paul's aunt? How interesting it all is. And it's getting more and more interesting.

Irina (Elena): Delilah.

Maxim: Delilah?

Irina: No, Dalida. (Elena) was incarnated in the Jewish people. After that, I left the incarnation and incarnated on Esler in a man who was a teacher at school, taught (shows the use of different plants, crystals, as natural magic).

Maxim: Is there something like that on Esler?

Irina (Elena): But this is not magic. It is rather the management of the forces of nature and interaction with the Spirits of plants that created their Souls and their flesh.

Maxim: So, before you incarnated as Blavatsky, you were a man on Esler who was involved in earthly magic. Is that correct?

Irina: Yes. They write that there was such a ruler. I read it.

Maxim: Was there such a thing? I don't know, I need to read if there was such a ruler?

Irina: Oh, interesting. They write: "There was a Chandragupta." And I said: "Chandragup."

Maxim: Irina, you understand how the name is conveyed.

Irina: It is written that he is the unifier of India.

Maxim: Very interesting.

Irina (Elena): (She smiles) And also after leaving the incarnation on Esler, I incarnated again as a man, but this was my previous incarnation before Elena.

Maxim: Also into a man.

Irina (Elena): Yes, on Earth she incarnated into an ancestor of her family on her mother's side. This was the great-great-grandfather of Helena Blavatsky's mother (she shows that the line goes from her mother). And she incarnated into a man whose name was Vasily. Vasily Dolgoruky (this is some prince).

Maxim: Vasily Dolgoruky?

Irina: Yes, Dolgoruky, something like that. (Elena) He was then my mother's ancestor. That is, I came into the body of Elena Blavatsky from my ancestral egregor, because I was there in a previous incarnation.

29:24 Blavatsky's spirit on the task of incarnating Helena.

Maxim: Elena, we have a project called “Cassiopeia. Codes”, and there we calculated your task for implementation.

Irina: “Interesting,” she says.

Maxim: Yes. Your tasks for your maiden name Gan and for your last name Blavatsky are described there in a very interesting way. I think that if someone is interested, they can follow the link below and get to the project "Cassiopeia. Codes", where our moderator will post all these tasks. Why am I not talking about these tasks now? I just want to hear from you live, what were your tasks for incarnating on Earth as Elena?

Irina (Elena): In general, my main task was to develop the harmony of love in myself, but it was precisely the personal task of the Spirit in the harmony of love and peacemaking.

Maxim: Yes, there are such tasks there. I saw them. But they arise at a certain age. Very interesting.

Irina (Elena): Yes. Precisely those that became clear to me. I also did not immediately realize them, but now, as I realize them after leaving the incarnation, and as I realized them in the Spiritual world before incarnating into the body.

She calls a girl. But she says that she is not a year old. And in our age she even looks as if she is not five years old, but probably twice as old, at least. I see that she is a girl. She shows the face of an Eslerite. She looks like Mead, but shorter.

Maxim: What is her name there?

Irina: Bakhiru, Bakhero, Baghero, that is, somehow between “k” and “h”.

Maxim: Baghero.

31:37 Blavatsky's spirit about Elena's curators.

Maxim: Tell me, please, Elena, who were your curators on Earth when you were incarnated as Elena? Who did you contact, who curated you?

Irina (Elena): I was supervised by Kuthumi, Mahatma Morya [or El Morya], Oudus, Archangel Michael, Sergius of Radonezh, the Mother of God, and I had communication channels with plasmoids. Thirty-one plasmoid channels were in my field.

Maxim: So the thirty-first level of plasma civilizations was in your field?

Irina (Elena): Thirty-one channels of different levels.

Maxim: I understand. Very interesting.

Irina: What a contactee she was.

Maxim: Guys, be sure to check out the article "Studying Plasmoid Worlds". There, all these clusters are described as multi-level.

Irina: (Looking at the chat) They've already found some prince [Prince Vasily Vladimirovich Dolgoruky (Dolgorukov) 1667–1746]. You're searching so fast.

Maxim: We have someone who is looking for something very quickly, right?

Lena, please tell me, is it true that you could write with both hands and had telekinesis.

Irina (Elena): I was a conductor through whom representatives of different worlds transmit information, I could give them control, two different forces, two different entities, two hands so that they could write, but this caused me a great loss of energy and, in the end, spoiled my health. Therefore, I subsequently gave it up.

Maxim: Guys, by the way, that’s true.

(Reads from the chat) "I have a huge request for Maxim not to host the best broadcasts in this Project." Please, come up with a person who will host the broadcasts instead of me, I ask you, person, please come up with one. Journalist, any person off the street, please replace me. I spend the whole Sunday preparing for the broadcasts, and then I host them. I'd rather give this to any person who makes this request, guys. I'll gladly give the opportunity to host the broadcasts to any literate, sensible person. Person, please come up with one.

34:20 Blavatsky's spirit on telekinesis.

Irina: What was the question just now? About telepathy?

Maxim: So, about telekinesis. Did you have telepathy, telekinesis?

Irina (Elena): It wasn't me who had telekinesis, in general all people have the so-called etheric force that suppresses gravity. You have it too. But it needs to be directed correctly into certain clusters of space so that the clots of this energy could temporarily turn off the Earth's gravity, that is, attraction, and then the object takes off. This process usually occurs during a so-called poltergeist, which is also studied by various scientists. And at that time there were those who studied it. Even church ministers sometimes wrote books about this phenomenon. Telekinesis was possessed by those beings with whom I was in contact. Subtle-material entities, there were so many of them, and they acted on my body in such a way that their etheric fields intersected at the point in space where I was, and this caused such effects.

Maxim: So it’s true that when you were walking, you heard the sound of bells, and for some reason the curtains rose?

Irina (Elena): Not always, but often such effects were. I can't say directly that they were always there. They were in the first half of my life, when I had not yet harmonized these contacts. And when I harmonized them, learned to manage them, everything became calm.

Maxim: I'll ask about this later. I understand that after your trip to Tibet you harmonized your contacts in this way? Yes?

Irina (Elena): It wasn't really a trip. Okay. We'll talk about that later.

Maxim: I have some really interesting questions.

Irina (Elena): And not only to Tibet. But okay, I'll tell you later.

Maxim: For now I will ask the simplest questions. Then we will get to the interesting and complex ones. I will ask you very personal questions.

36:32 Blavatsky's spirit on the differences in raising children on Esler and on Earth.

Maxim: Tell me, please, is there a difference between being a child on Earth and on Esler?

Irina (Elena): A colossal difference.

Maxim: A colossal difference? In what way?

Irina (Elena): There is a huge difference in communication, in general in the feeling of your body, in the environment, in the energy of the house, space and in communication with parents. Both mom and dad tell me a lot about the Soul, about the Spiritual world, about God, about the stars. When I first learned to talk, they began to tell me that all this exists, that therefore I live in a reality that combines the material and the spiritual, since childhood. Agree that this is rare on Earth.

Maxim: Yes. Here you can get hit with a brick from your neighbor, from a child, so here we can’t talk about spirituality.

Irina (Elena): I’m even talking about parents.

Maxim: Yes. We have more materialism, less spirituality. But that's for now. I hope we'll gradually get there.

Irina (Elena): In general, my parents are with me, and I also have three sisters and a brother, they are all older (shows).

Maxim: How much do you have?

Irina: Three sisters and one brother.

Maxim: Our Oudus is so prolific.

Irina: Right now. Oudus speaking.

Maxim: What does he want to say?

Irina (Oudus): With Divine help. The source of my fertility is the infinite Divine energy of creation.

Maxim: Thank you, for some reason I didn’t expect another answer. Excellent.

Irina (Elena): My parents talk to me a lot and spend a lot of time with me.

Maxim: I understand. Our parents need to learn how to communicate with their children more often. For us, it's mostly about giving the child a phone and running off somewhere.

Please tell me who was your Guardian Angel, who saved you more than once in your life when you were Elena?

Irina (Elena): Mahatma Morya is from the Spiritual world. But he was also incarnated on Esler earlier. Then he told me about it. But when I lived, he was not incarnated.

Maxim: He was not embodied?

Irina (Elena): But his previous incarnation was on Esler.

39:50 Blavatsky's spirit about Elena's acquaintance with delegations from India and Sri Lanka.

Maxim: Have you ever been in a situation where you wanted to jump off a bridge?

Irina (Elena): I didn't want to jump out of nowhere. I was just walking around London and met (shows three people, they appear to be wearing turbans).

Maxim: With the Indians?

Irina (Elena): Yes. They were from India and Ceylon, Sri Lanka, it was a delegation. And we started talking there on the street (shows). They asked me something, I answered them. We started a conversation. And only later I realized that it was Mahatma Morya who sent me these people, because we had agreed on a trip there (shows).

Maxim: So your Guardian Angel sent you these people so that you could continue your education? Yes?

Irina (Elena): Yes. They gave me an address (shows how someone gives an address).

41:01 Blavatsky's spirit on the manifestation of Helena's abilities in childhood.

Maxim: Tell me, please, you were married off at 17. Why was it necessary to marry off at 17?

Irina (Elena): Actually, it wasn’t the parents who did this.

Maxim: And who did it?

Irina (Elena): My grandparents did it. They decided to marry me off because they wanted my husband to be responsible for me, to be accountable. They wanted me to go to another house (shows that she was bothering them because she was behaving strangely).

Maxim: I know that since childhood you have been interested in esotericism, esoteric literature, communication with Spirits, you heard them. You spoke.

Irina (Elena): I had contacts, but I didn’t understand what it was then. And, unlike Esler, no one explained to me that we are surrounded by various entities that perceive us and want to communicate. And I perceived this contact as dangerous. A person (even a child), if he sees something unknown and doesn’t know what to expect from it, if he sees something that doesn’t fit into his experience, he experiences fear. This is a manifestation of the instinct of self-preservation, which developed on the basis of the experience of animal ancestors, who ran away from the unknown so as not to be eaten by some beast. And this was the unknown. And various entities appeared. This was heightened sensitivity. I left my body as a child.

Maxim: Astral travel? That's what we'll be teaching in St. Petersburg.

Irina (Elena): Yes, but I had this happen to me. I was about seven years old (shows), I was lying down in bed, and it seemed to me that the blanket was pressing on my body and pressing it against the bed. I wanted to throw it off and raised my hand. But then I looked at my hand, it was glowing in the dark. I wanted to get up to examine it. And when I got up with this thought, I saw that I was standing next to the bed, and in the bed was a girl who looked very much like me.

Maxim: Of course, it's not far from a madhouse. We have a huge number of children of mediums, their parents immediately take them to a psychiatrist. And then, if suddenly these visions continue, they are placed in a madhouse.

44:12 Blavatsky's spirit about Helena's education.

Maxim: Tell me, please, when did you manage to master five languages, and is it true that you knew them? How many languages did you know in total?

Irina (Elena): In general, I knew English, French, Russian, Latin. I also knew a little Hebrew, Sanskrit, so not five, but more. Yes, and Ukrainian, but I didn’t really separate it from Russian, because we communicated in such a mixed language. I was born on the Dnieper River, in the city of Dnepropetrovsk, at that time they spoke such a language. I was taught French and English when I was a child. I was taught (shows two women) by teachers who didn’t teach at school, but at home.

Maxim: I was homeschooled.

Irina (Elena): Yes, at home. And I already learned the other languages when I was an adult, myself from books, from dictionaries. In order to write my books, I studied other sources.

45:45 Blavatsky's spirit about Helena's marriage and escape.

Maxim: Tell me, please, when you were married at 17, you left for Georgia. And then your story disappears somewhere, that is, there is no information about you for 25 years.

Irina: Why to Georgia?

Maxim: I don’t know, they wrote to me that she left for Georgia.

Irina: Once again. When?

Maxim: At 17, when you were married off, where did you go with your husband?

Irina (Elena): I didn’t leave with my husband.

Maxim: And with whom?

Irina (Elena): Do you mean Nikifor?

Maxim: I don't know that, please tell me. And where did your husband go?

Irina (Elena): My husband stayed at home, I ran away from his house.

Maxim: With whom?

Irina (Elena): With no one, I ran away alone. I didn’t want to live with him.

Maxim: Why didn’t you want to live with him?

Irina: We had a question.

Okay. Now I'll explain, I understand you.

(Elena) At first I treated the wedding as a beautiful ceremony. I was 16 when we met. Accordingly, I was about 17 when I got married. He was about 60. He was (shows) a governor and had a military rank. Nikifor - he is Blavatsky. I took his last name. At first I treated it as if my husband was a second dad. He was much older than me. But when we moved to his house and to his city (shows that it is Yerevan or somewhere nearby, a suburb). I lived there with him for the first month. We did not quarrel, at first he was affectionate, and then more and more insistently began to demand the fulfillment of marital duty.

Maxim: And what, was the problem fulfilling marital duty?

Irina (Elena): Yes, I loved him as a person, but I had no desire at all (shows desire for a woman's body). But then he insisted. It turned out that he treated me quite rudely, insisted on it.

Later it turned out that it was not just that I did not have such desires. It was just that when we came into contact, I had terrible physical pain. And then, when I was an adult, many years later I went to the doctor, and he told me that I had a congenital pathology of the development of female organs, which made normal sexual intercourse impossible.

Maxim: So it turns out that you lived your whole life without having sex with men?

Irina (Elena): I only did this once on our wedding night (shows that he is an adult and she is a girl).

He yells at her, swears and demands. She cries, she is in great pain. She shows that she is very offended by him and did not talk to him for a long time. And when he tried to contact her again, she threatened to commit suicide.

Maxim: So, tell me, you ran away. Where did you run away to?

Irina (Elena): At first, back to my house to my grandmother. But she said: "Go back to your husband." I told my dad. My mother was no longer in the real world with me by that time, I had already been without my mother for 6 years, so I told my dad about this problem. He asked me: "What are you going to do next?" And I said that I dreamed of traveling and earning my own living. That's what I thought at first. I was good at drawing and playing musical instruments (I showed theater, plays the piano), I was taught to do this. And he gave me money so that I could get to Turkey, to Istanbul.

51:28 Blavatsky's spirit about the life and travels of Helena.

Maxim: Did you play the piano in Istanbul, Turkey, and earn money from it?

Irina (Elena): I made money there. Then I went to the circus (shows horses, how she rode them and performed tricks on them).

Maxim: Have you performed in the circus?

Irina (Elena): Yes. And then I had an injury (shows how her hand is on some kind of suspension), and I couldn't perform anymore.

Maxim: This is the story. For 25 years, nothing was known about you. Where were you for these 25 years? You got married at 17, and then they say that you disappeared, there is no information about you at all. For 25 years, there was no information about you, and nothing was known.

Irina (Elena): Then I lived in Turkey after that. My dad sent me money. Then I went to Egypt, the first time I went to India, but then I quickly returned back.

Then (shows) to Europe, to Italy. She lives here and there. In the end (shows) she got to London, where she met these Indians.

Maxim: Ah, in London these Indians are your future teachers, who set you on some kind of further path of development. Right? Do I understand correctly?

Irina (Elena): We met with them, and I told them what I see, what I feel. Why did I tell them this? They saw in me, in my eyes, how can I say it, abilities, because they themselves were like that.

Maxim: Contactees.

Irina (Elena): Yes, like mediums, magicians and so on. They were like teachers. There are such enlightened ones. They saw through people. And they saw me.

Maxim: I understand. Please tell us how it happened that you became the first Russian woman to receive American citizenship.

Irina (Elena): This was later, later.

Maxim: Later?

Irina (Elena): I got it through a fictitious marriage. I had a school of theosophy, including in America. And with one of the followers of this school, who was a US citizen so that I could be legalized there as his wife, we registered our relationship. But we did not enter into a relationship, because he knew that I was not allowed to have sexual relations with men.

Maxim: And then they told you that you couldn’t join, or did you decide that yourself?

Irina (Elena): I'll tell you now. I didn't decide this myself. When it happened to me, to Nikifor and to me, and when I ran away, I couldn't understand why this act of love, to which so many people were attracted, was like torture for me. This pain that I wanted to stop. I didn't know any medical terms then, but I felt in my Soul that I didn't need to do this (shows how it feels like rejection).

55:12 Blavatsky's spirit about Helena's contacts with aliens.

Irina (Elena): When I was already in London, I first came into contact not with subtle-material civilizations, but with the inhabitants of the planet Esler. There I had my first physical contact.

This was not in childhood, but she was already more than 20 years old.

Maxim: Tell me, please, were you really taken on flying saucers, like Irina?

Irina (Elena): Yes.

Maxim: Did they install chips on you?

Irina (Elena): Yes.

Maxim: How many chips did you have?

Irina: Three.

Maxim: Oh, like Irina. How interesting. Everything is similar. In general, everything is interesting, it is becoming even more interesting. It turns out that since childhood you heard voices, had the opportunity to contact Spirits, with subtle-material civilizations. And after 20 years, you had real contact with representatives of the planet Esler?

Irina (Elena): Just with Oudus.

Maxim: With the one who is now the father of you, a little girl?

Irina (Elena): Yes. But first he came to me in spiritual form, in the Astral.

Maxim: How did he come to you? Who did he introduce himself as? What did he look like?

Irina (Elena): He introduced himself as an alien (shows an Eslerite). Only he didn't call me Esler, but in his language - Aramia. He showed me this planet and said that he came from there, and that we needed to meet physically, and he set up a meeting (shows) outside the city.

Maxim: I understand.

57:10 Blavatsky's spirit on the organization of the Theosophical Society.

Maxim: Lena, please tell me how the idea of organizing a theosophical society came about, and who inspired you to do this? How did it all happen?

Irina (Elena): When I met the Indians and talked to them (shows: two people who were Europeans). They were citizens of Great Britain, they were interested. The Indians introduced them to me. They were rich, influential. They were interested in mysticism, magic, occultism, spiritualism and so on. They invited me, how can I say, to a spiritualistic session. They called a certain Spirit, and I began to transmit information. This Spirit was one of the Pharaohs of Ancient Egypt, they questioned him.

Maxim: That's where the opportunity to transmit information to people through spiritualistic sessions appeared? Right?

Irina (Elena): I already knew how to do it. They asked me, I think, to test my capabilities.

Maxim: Lena, please tell me, I just want an honest answer. Were there any moments that you embellished at these spiritualistic sessions? Let's say, some special effects, maybe, that were not done by the Spirits themselves, but that you did in order to attract people to these sessions? Because people thought that it was really a spiritualistic session, but with elements of a show.

Irina (Elena): Yes, there were such elements.

Maxim: Were there such elements?

Irina (Elena): Yes.

Maxim: Was this done in order to attract other people?

Irina (Elena): This was done under an agreement (shows a circle in this society) between me and five other people who organized these sessions. Their goal was to attract people to information. Because if you just tell, but do not show anything in reality, then, accordingly, people lose interest.

Maxim: Yes, that's true. I know this as the head of a large Project, that everything becomes boring, people lose interest in everything.

Irina (Elena): I want to say that Oudus, Archangel Michael and many other curators did not approve of my decision and expressed criticism.

Maxim: In general, there was an element of show in any case. Because, due to the fact that there was this element of show, I know, a lot of information was written that it was just a staged show. Was there something like that? Yes?

1:00:45 Blavatsky's spirit about the magazine "Lucifer".

Maxim: I know that Christian churches persecuted you.

Irina (Elena): This was not accidental either. I understand now that these persecutions that the Christian Church organized against me were largely provoked by my harshness in relation to the teachings of the Holy Fathers, which I allowed in my books. But it was not harshness, but categoricalness.

Maxim: Yes. I would like to talk about this. I know that you began to project Lucifer very strongly, and you even published a magazine called "Lucifer".

Irina (Elena): Yes, Lucifer. And what is Lucifer to you?

Maxim: Tell me, please, were Lucifer and Satan the same thing for you or were they something different?

Irina (Elena): Of course not. Satan is not Lucifer at all. It was already in the Middle Ages that such an image was given that Satan is Lucifer by one of the medieval Italian poets. And if you take the Bible, you will find the word "Lucifer" there. If you take the Bible, of course. Do you know from what language the word "Lucifer" comes?

Maxim: Since what?

Irina (Elena): From Latin.

Maxim: Light bearer.

Irina (Elena): Yes. [Lucifer – “light-bearer”]. Lux is light and fero is to carry, and so in the Bible, in the New Testament, this word is specifically there. If we are talking about the Bible, the word “Lucifer” does not mean Satan there.

Maxim: Didn’t you understand that the word “Lucifer” at the time when you were making this magazine was associated with devilry and Satanism?

Irina (Elena): To avoid this association, the clergy had to take the Bible in Latin, open the second letter of the Apostle of Christ – Peter [2 Peter, 1:19] and read there the words that Jesus Christ sends his grace, there is such a text: “until [the day begins to dawn and] the morning star rises in your hearts.” “The morning star” was the name of the planet Venus, and its name in Latin was precisely “luci ferao” – “light-bearer.” That is, Jesus himself was called by this word there. And I named my magazine after him, and largely in order to remove from it the slander with which the name of Christ was discredited, by attributing the devil to him.

Maxim: Have they defamed the name of Christ by attributing the devil to him?

Irina: To Lucifer, I mean. Because that was the name of Christ, and then suddenly they started calling the devil that. Doesn't that defame the name of Christ?

Maxim: Didn’t you understand that if this was an established opinion in the Christian religious egregor, then this would be big problems?

Irina (Elena): At that time I really thought that there would be no problems, because these books exist, they are accessible, you can open them and read who Lucifer is. How can the devil carry the Light, Satan carry the Light? Of course, I know that Lucifer was the name of the Angel who became an archon. He had this name at the same time as Jesus, because they were very close in fact, they were very close friends. But now, when he lowered his vibrations, when he fell, there is such a thing as the fall of Angels.

What kind of Lucifer is he now, if he does not carry the Light now? Is it possible? It does not stand up to any logic to call him that now, namely this particular Spirit. You can say former Lucifer, that is, now he no longer carries the Light. And I meant precisely the one who remained to carry the Light.

Maxim: So, it turns out that you named the magazine “Lucifer” not because it was a magazine that positioned Satanism, Satan, but because it was a magazine that carried the Light.

Irina (Elena): Of course.

Maxim: And when did people start telling you that Lucifer is not the one who carries the Light, but in their minds it is someone else.

Irina (Elena): I asked to open the Bible and show where Satan is called Lucifer.

Maxim: Nobody showed?

Irina (Elena): No, of course not.

Maxim: I see. But in dogmas, everyone died.

Irina (Elena): I was sent to Earth by my spiritual mentors, including to debunk spiritual myths.

Maxim: By the way, Irina, we are also engaged in debunking some spiritual myths, and these myths do not always coincide with religious dogmas.

Irina (Elena): Things are easier for you now than they were then. You have more freedom of opinion now.

Maxim: Thanks to the fact that we live in this state, by the way.

1:07:00 Blavatsky's spirit on the accusation of Helena by her former students.

Maxim: Is it true that in 1885 the Indian authorities accused you of fraud?

Irina (Elena): Not the authorities.

Maxim: And who?

Irina (Elena): My former students, who forged my letters. But they did it so clumsily that even the first researcher who came from London found that these letters were written in their handwriting. They sent these letters written by them to an Indian newspaper, supposedly from me, in which I taught them to deceive people.

Maxim: Why do you think they did this?

Irina (Elena): It was earlier, when we all lived together in India, we were in the Department of the Theosophical Society. They told me that they met the rich son of some rajah, that is, a local prince, and began to ask him for money.

Maxim: I understand, they started extorting money from him.

Irina (Elena): How can I tell you? Under the guise of calling a relative from the other world, that they would cure his sick sister, that is, they began to ask for a large sum. But I told them not to do this, I forbade them. The Rajah was an influential person, it was impossible to cast a shadow on the entire Society. At first they agreed with me. And when I left for Europe (he shows, this is such jealousy) to take away my power in the Theosophical Society, they began to defame me in front of my followers.

Sound familiar?

Maxim: Yes. A familiar situation, very familiar.

1:09:20 Blavatsky's spirit on "The Secret Doctrine" and other books of Helena.

Maxim: Tell me, please, why was the “Secret Doctrine” needed?

Irina (Elena): To unite all religions, philosophical systems and scientific theories into one built-in paradigm of the Universe, which will explain the existence of man and the World, help humanity develop, unite and go together along the path of evolution.

Maxim: I don't understand, is it the Eslerites who influence us so much that we have the same thing in the Cassiopeia Project? Wait, you just said what we do. Is this probably the influence of our curators on the entire Project? That you had curators from Esler, that we have the Esler curator MidgasKaus. So, is this an internal desire of the planet Esler or is it not only the desire of the planet Esler?

Irina (Elena): This is not only the desire of the planet Esler. The entire Intelligent Universe wants to develop. The Earth is a part of the Universe, therefore all the creative forces that created this Universe want to share with earthlings, with humanity on Earth their knowledge, information so that there would be less strife, so that there would be less wars, crimes, cataclysms, diseases, and so that everyone could live in harmony.

Maxim: I understand, now we can call ourselves "The Secret Doctrine" in "Cassiopeia". Lena, I will tell you honestly, I have not read "The Secret Doctrine", but the ideas of "The Secret Doctrine" are embedded in the "Cassiopeia" Project. That is what I have just heard. Now I will definitely read "The Secret Doctrine", because I became very interested in how you conveyed all this.

Irina (Elena): Yes, but in terms of energy, it would be better for you to start with my book “The Voice of Silence.”

Maxim: Why?

Irina (Elena): It will find a great response in your Soul.

Maxim: "The Voice of Silence"? Good. I'll make a note right now. I'll start with "The Voice of Silence".

Irina (Elena): Firstly, its content is many times shorter, and it contains the quintessence of everything that is in the “Secret Doctrine”.

Maxim: I understand.

Irina (Elena): Then you can read “The Key to Theosophy.” And there is another book in which I talk about a journey to India, about the tribes I met there, about the caves and wilds of Hindustan [the book “From the Caves and Wilds of Hindustan”].

Maxim: I understand. I need to read you. In general, basically, everything you wrote.

Irina (Elena): It's about travel. And as for "The Voice of Silence", it's about spiritual development.

I understood what she was talking about. This is not just a piece of fiction, it is filled with images.

Maxim: Okay. I will read it with an open heart.

Irina (Elena): Thank you.

1:12:58 Blavatsky's spirit about the initiation of Helena in Shambhala.

Maxim: Many sources say that you communicated with El Morya, with Sarapis Bey, and that you underwent initiation in Shambhala. I have already learned that you communicated with them. But regarding the initiation in Shambhala, what was it? And what is this Shambhala where you underwent initiation?

Irina (Elena): It was Oudus who took me in his spaceship to the base that was on Earth.

Maxim: Oh, come on. The capital of Esler is Champlois?

Irina: It was on Earth. She is now pointing to one base, which is in Altai, and to the second base, which is under Mount Kailash.

Maxim: Wait. Let's go into more detail from this point on. Let's start with the base in Altai.

Irina: Under the mountains.

Maxim: What kind of initiation did you go through there, what did you do at that base?

Irina (Elena): And there I called the installation of chips “dedication”.

Maxim: That's it.

Irina (Elena): But only Oudus, with him at the base (shows) there were two more Eslerites, explained to me that I should not tell people about this visit to the base and about my flight on a saucer. This was necessary so that all my other words would not be considered empty space, empty fantasy. Otherwise people would start buying my books simply as entertainment.

Maxim: And we weren’t afraid to say that we fly on flying saucers.

Irina (Elena): Saying it now and saying it then are two different things.

Maxim: I understand. At that time, moral and ethical standards did not allow this to be done at all.

Irina (Elena): Can you imagine, at that time there were very few even railways.

Maxim: I understand. Not to mention that there were planes.

Irina: They started to study airplanes, but they were more like (shows) balls.

Maxim: Airships.

1:13:22 Blavatsky's spirit about Helena's sexual relations.

Maxim: Is it true that you knew Leo Tolstoy?

Irina (Elena): I knew her, we corresponded (shows correspondence).

Maxim: You know, I watched a film, and of course, for some reason they said that you had many lovers, and you even had illegitimate children.

Irina (Elena): There was no such thing. I did not give birth to children.

Maxim: She didn't give birth to children, and she didn't have lovers. But we've already heard why.

Irina (Elena): Yes, of course. Like any person of a certain age, of course, there were certain physical attractions, but they did not manifest themselves in the physical body, but when I left the body, and there I really did have some connections with plasmoid civilizations.

Maxim: Have you exchanged your sexual energy with subtle-material civilizations?

Irina (Elena): Yes. And this also helped me to harmonize the energies that were in me, because the influx of energy that came to me in this process helped me to be healthy.

1:16:44 Oudus on Blavatsky's chips.

Maxim: And about the base under Kailash. Did they put chips in you there too, or what was it under Mount Kailash?

Irina (Elena): There they gave me knowledge and showed me (shows a screen on the wall) views of Space, other planets.

Maxim: Did they just show you the knowledge or did they somehow put it into your energy structure? Or what was it?

Irina: Oudus wants to say. (Oudus) I was there with her because she was a contactee. The thing is that she had three chips inserted. One chip was inserted for harmonizing with plasmoid civilizations, because she had a lot of them. And they were of very diverse nature, and their energy was often incompatible with each other. This even had a negative effect on her body. Since she was a natural medium, she attracted them.

Maxim: With my energy. I understand.

Irina (Oudus): Yes, they wanted to manifest themselves through her, so one chip was installed to harmonize these plasmoid civilizations. The second chip was installed for astral contact with us. And the third chip was for monitoring her, her physical body, where she is, what is around her, and its second function was to ensure that she was always in touch, this is precisely for the quark-gluon connection with the knowledge base in Shambhala.

Maxim: It's exactly the same as how you can now make a request to Esler, to the knowledge base, and get information from there. Right?

Irina (Oudus): Yes, there was a slightly different modification of the chip that was suitable for it, but the essence is the same.

Maxim: I understand.

1:19:04 Oudus on the purpose of Elena's incarnation on Esler.

Maxim: Oudus, I have a question for you. Please tell me, how did it happen that Elena was incarnated into your family? Was this some kind of request, or was it some kind of agreement? How can it happen that it is possible to somehow influence this, and in general, how did this happen?

Irina (Oudus): We agreed on this after she left the incarnation, we continued to communicate with her, because I went out into the Spiritual world. We agreed that she would spend her next incarnation on Esler. Now she has the task of combining the knowledge and experience of creating an esoteric community, which she received on Earth, with the Esler experience, which she will receive on Esler, with a certain education. And she will become the curator of earthlings.

Maxim: I understand. So, are you preparing a replacement for yourself?

Irina (Oudus): She will be a female curator from Esler. But, of course, if she wishes to fulfill her destiny. Here the Spirit is absolutely free.

1:20:22 Blavatsky's spirit on the attitude towards the book "The Secret Doctrine".

Maxim: Elena, please tell me what you think about your “Secret Doctrine” that you wrote, and what would you change or correct in it?

Irina (Elena): Firstly, I wrote for a very long time.

Shows how she recorded information from different civilizations there. From subtle-material civilizations, the Esler civilization. Also shows how representatives of other civilizations of the Interstellar Union came. Today one, tomorrow another.

Maxim: And have you had contact with the Interstellar Union or with the Galactic Federation of Light as well?

Irina (Elena): I also contacted the Galactic Federation of Light. Anyone who wanted to pass on information could come to me, and I wrote it down.

What would I change there? Firstly, I would break it up, I would structure the book itself a little differently. That is, I would not write everything in a row, but I would write from whom this information was received (shows).

Maxim: (chatting) Guys, if you like our broadcast, please give it a like, because it will help promote the channel. Irisha, you've become hard to see right away. That's it, that's all. I think Blavatsky has possessed you.

Like. Let's continue the broadcast. There are still many questions, I won't calm down until I ask all the questions.

Irina: What other question?

Maxim: What question? What would you change in your "Secret Doctrine", how would you correct it?

Irina (Elena): I would start writing who exactly gave the information, and I would start writing it in a more understandable language, using fewer foreign terms that were incomprehensible to people, that’s the first thing.

And the second thing I would change. I would like to write less categorical things about the church, about the struggle between orthodoxy and gnosticism, and other things.

Maxim: Yes. We are very careful with this in the Project. Why? Because this is also a certain path that humanity must take, and it is also not worth condemning. This is what I think.

Irina (Elena): There was no condemnation, but simply a certain bewilderment, so to speak, at some decisions of the Church Councils, which crossed out certain books, for example, from the Bible, calling them apocrypha. That is, there was disagreement.

Maxim: I see. This is a very interesting topic. But don't you think it was a mistake that you used the name Lucifer?

Irina (Elena): No. I already said what this name means.

1:23:45 Blavatsky's spirit on the dangers of contacts.

Maxim: Here’s a question they asked: “Why do mediums go crazy?”

Irina: Why does the medium go crazy? What do you mean by "go crazy"?

Maxim: They start to behave inappropriately and live in their own reality.

Irina (Elena): There are various psychotechnics: meditations, opening of chakras and so on. If a person is weak in Spirit, he has a weak will, and he makes contact, opening the door from his side (if he is not spiritually ready for this contact), his will can be suppressed. Then he will be dependent on these Spirits, he will be just a weak-willed puppet in their hands. For such people, contact will be dangerous. They can lose themselves and not fulfill their destiny.

Maxim: I understand. Yes, by the way, we will indeed be talking about the safety techniques for exiting into the Astral at our retreat in St. Petersburg.

1:25:05 Blavatsky's spirit on different types of contact.

Maxim: Were you acquainted with Elena Roerich, and did you supervise their direction from the Spiritual World?

Irina (Elena): I was acquainted with their Spirits, not physically. Not that I was a curator, but I came to Elena Ivanovna Roerich, made contact with her Spirit and helped her translate her book.

Maxim: And now I'll tell you, guys, a secret. When I was preparing for this broadcast, I called the heads of some societies. I contacted one Siberian Roerich Society, who, as I thought, would want to prepare questions. To which they told me: "We are very categorical about spiritualistic sessions."

Irina: But we don't have exactly a spiritualistic session. We have something else.

Maxim: I said: “And how did Blavatsky feel about the sessions?” They say: “We don’t know, we’re not interested in how Blavatsky felt, but the Roerichs were categorically against spiritualistic sessions.” Is that true?

Irina (Elena): They were not categorically against it. Both I and they, in principle, warned about the danger for some people. I have already said what it consists of, and about the responsibility of people. Some spiritualists and mediums fell under the power of Spirits, and this was dangerous for them.

The thing is, for example, in Egypt I encountered the fact that at one of the spiritualistic sessions, where we called the Spirits, there was a circle of people, and the spiritualistic session was not like the one where some saucer is spinning. It was a slightly different type of spiritualistic session. And not like now. For us it is simply astral contact. But it is also not the session where candles are lit and certain Spirits are called to enter the human body. It is a little different.

Maxim: I just haven't encountered anything like that. Does that really exist? Is it possible to summon a Spirit and have it enter a body?

Irina: It is possible. It will enter, but everything will depend on how energetically compatible the person and this Spirit are. If they are poorly compatible, the Spirit can enter, it will be very difficult for it to speak, for example. It can make unpleasant sounds. It can affect the brain of this person in such a way that it will cause motor disinhibition.

Maxim: Irina, do you know what I just remembered? I remembered how I entered you and Mirrah Count spoke to me through you.

Irina: Mirrah Count spoke, at least he uttered some words.

Maxim: Yes, I remember it, I remember your eyes that changed color, I remember your facial expression. I remembered everything, how it happened. So what?

Irina (Elena): Yes, I know Mirrah Count. I am saying now that we called certain Spirits, and plasmoids came. If there is no specific tuning to the Spiritual world, and she needs to learn, most often plasmoids come, who introduce themselves to you as Spirits, to feed on energy. They like attention.

Maxim: So, during such sessions, plasmoids can come and fool people?

Irina: They play a role to get attention.

Maxim: Wait. What's the point here? The contactee might think that he's communicating with some Spirit, but in reality a plasmoid comes along who knew, let's say, this Spirit, and is fooling him?

Irina: I didn't even know. It will read information about his appearance, habits from the memory of the contactee himself.

Maxim: Will the plasmoid read information about the appearance and habits from the memory of the contactee himself?

Irina: He will draw an image for him that this is that Spirit.

Maxim: That is, the Spirit, if this person hates Ukraine, considers this image and will hate Ukraine?

Irina: If someone hates Ukraine?

Maxim: A contactee, let's say.

Irina: So what?

Maxim: Okay, nothing.

Irina (Elena): Hates Ukraine. If a plasmoid comes and wants to sign this hatred, he will create an image of some Spirit who says something negative about this country.

Maxim: Or he'll come up with something negative to say about someone.

Irina: They have many different methods, depending on what Spirit they are calling. But how can one tell whether this Spirit is a plasmoid or not? Of course, now those followers of theosophy who are watching this video can naturally say: "What is the difference between a plasmoid or not?"

I want to say that, firstly, it is a setting. That is, the Spirit is usually warned in advance either by the contactee himself, or by the medium himself, if he himself can consciously visit the Spiritual world and not just visit, but search there by the vibrations of a specific Spirit. That is, this can be easily checked by asking a couple of questions. How does this happen?

(Elena) In Irina's case, Oudus told me that she usually asks her curators about it: MidgasKaus, whom, by the way, I saw, he came to visit Oudus, or LiShioni, Raom Tiyana. They use their special knowledge, tune in to a certain Spirit, looking for it through the Akashic Chronicles, that is, through records in the etheric sphere of the Earth. And after that, they come to him. If he is incarnate, they can come, for example, to his Angels-mentors, Angels-consultants. They show him where he is incarnate and so on. And if he is not incarnate, they come to him in the Spiritual world, where he is, and offer this meeting. That is, there must be an agreement about this in advance.

And if people just sit down and call the Spirit, it will 90% be a plasmoid, because the Spirit is not warned.

Maxim: How interesting. This information is very interesting for many contactees now.

Irina (Elena): Here I am sharing.

Maxim: When we summoned Spirits in the camp, did plasmoids come to us?

Irina: Yes, if you didn’t warn, don’t go to the Astral.

Maxim: So that’s why it was so scary?

Irina (Elena): So, when in Egypt at one such spiritualistic session, when we communicated with the Spirits of certain, as we believed, historical figures: emperors, pharaohs, it turned out that many Spirits came, many people felt their presence (shows how all the candles went out, why it was so scary). And then suddenly one of the spectators, there were other spectators there, that is, there was a stage, and there were spectators, one of the spectators, a soldier who was armed, jumped up from his chair, began to spin around in place, as if fighting off someone, then pulled out a pistol, fired and almost hit me. That was the kind of spiritualistic session it was.

Maxim: Very interesting.

Irina (Elena): Then they grabbed him, pounced on him, tied his hands, took away his gun and took him out of the room. The bullet missed him by a couple of centimeters, because he saw some scary monster there instead of me.

Maxim: Fine. Plasmoid played such an interesting joke. Thank you.

Irina (Elena): I was still young then, and I was in such a state of shock, why did this happen. And I even decided to refuse spiritualistic sessions, because I could not protect the people who were there from this kind of influence.

Maxim: I understand.

Lena, did you know that the Third Reich used your books in their doctrines?

Irina (Elena): They used the Bible too. Specifically Hitler, Himmler and all these people, they read the Bible and used it too. For example, they wrote: "God is with us." They went to church, and they welcomed the Christian church.

Maxim: One of your signs that you used ended up on their flag.

Irina (Elena): Which one?

Maxim: Celtic cross.

Irina (Elena): They could have hung a Christian cross. And would their decision have somehow defamed this cross?

Maxim: No. I'm just asking, do you know this?

Irina (Elena): I saw in the egregors of the Earth that this is happening, but I do not agree with it.

Maxim: They ask a question. Where is Sri Aurobindo now?

Irina (Elena): I don’t know. No, I heard, but I didn’t follow, as I was unfamiliar, I didn’t communicate with this Spirit.

1:35:35 Blavatsky's spirit on the spiritual causes of Elena's pathology.

Maxim: People have been asking this more than once. Lena, please tell me, what were the spiritual reasons for the pathological changes in the female genitals?

Irina (Elena): They were innate and, therefore, were taken from karmic knots in a past life. That Vasily, in whom I was incarnated before, offended his wife in a sexual sense. He behaved rudely with her. The damage was from cruelty aimed at sexual life. Despite the fact that in other areas he was very kind, bright, religious. This person, when he disembodied, that is, his Soul, got to the eighteenth level. But specifically to his wife, he had such damage to the second chakra due to cruelty. Accordingly, this caused an incorrect formation of etheric matrices already in my next body. And in the end, this caused an incorrect positioning of the uterus relative to the ovaries.

Maxim: Thank you, Elena.

Tell me, please, does your spiritual part currently have contactees on Earth?

Irina (Elena): Not right now. I'm busy adjusting to my body, but I plan to take on contactees. I contacted before incarnation.

Maxim: So, when you grow up, when you become an adult girl, you will have contactees on Earth? Are these your tasks?

Irina (Elena): Yes.

Maxim: (Communication with chat) They write: "Aren't you ashamed to lie? Aren't you afraid of punishment from above?"

Dear Vex Data, we are already communicating "from above" right now. Therefore, we are not afraid of punishment, because we are already communicating "from above", and we are not yet being punished for communicating "from above".

Irina: She wants to answer now.

(Elena) Dear Soul, if you think that Irina is lying, please provide specific facts that were distorted.

Maxim: Yes. So we expect from you the facts and distortions that we give you.

Irina (Elena): That is, this is just an accusation, but facts are needed so that, if you really believe that Irina is lying, and warn her that she may be punished from above, show her love. And so that she is not punished from above, provide information that will help her improve.

Maxim: Yes. We are waiting for information from you, based on which we will make corrections.

Irina: She just passed it on.

Maxim: Tell me, please, with whom did you communicate in the Spiritual world after leaving the incarnation?

Irina (Elena): I communicated with Archangel Michael, with Oudus, with the Mother of God and with Jesus. This is the twenty-first level, I communicated with Irina.

Maxim: Yes, and have you had joint incarnations somewhere? Tell me a secret.

Irina: We had joint incarnations (she showed where, but I won't say).

Maxim: On Earth?

Irina: Yes.

Maxim: Don't say it, no need, I understand.

Irina: I don't want to talk about joint incarnations.

Maxim: Okay. I get it. We have little secrets in the Project, guys. So don't be mad at us for not telling you everything.

Irina: Because now I am already Irina Podzorova. I do not associate myself with the incarnation she spoke about. I know about it. Because I do not want people to see this person in me. I want them to see me in me.

Maxim: Excellent. Irina, I see you in you, don't worry, and I see myself in myself.

Tell me, please, is this how you imagined the Spiritual World when you left your body?

Irina (Elena): Yes, of course. I had already visited it many times before its final release, that is, I had traveled.

Maxim: Tell me, please, are religions needed on our planet? What do you think?

Irina (Elena): Everyone decides for themselves. There is freedom of choice on Earth. If religions were not needed, they would disappear.

1:40:46 Blavatsky's Spirit on the universal path to knowing the truth.

Maxim: Please tell me, is there a universal path to knowing the truth, and what practices can you recommend for knowing the truth?

Irina (Elena): Is there a universal way to know the truth? Yes, of course I could say theosophy, but it's not that simple.

The universal path of truth is the path of your heart, it is the path of searching in your heart for that spark of Divinity that the Creator of the Universe placed there at your birth. It is in everyone, no matter what level you live at, if you cleanse your heart from everything superficial in this world, then you will find the infinite Light, which will become your teacher, guide, and will help you become a guide for others, but not to yourself, but to the inner Light of everyone.

Maxim: Thank you.

1:41:52 Blavatsky's spirit on religious movements.

Maxim: This is a trick question. Lena, please tell me, were you a member of the Masonic Lodge?

Irina (Elena): I talked to them, but didn’t go in.

Maxim: They didn’t take you, or you didn’t want to?

Irina (Elena): I didn't want to. I was invited, but I wasn't interested. Just as I wasn't interested in other religions except Buddhism. I only went through Buddhist initiation. But I wasn't interested in that.

Maxim: Yes, by the way, Buddhist currents are closer to our teaching than Christian ones, actually. But I support the Christian religious egregor, because I like it.

Irina (Elena): In fact, Buddhism is somewhat different. If we compare it with the egregor "Cassiopeia", in Buddhism God is not personified. That is, it is simply a universal force that manifests itself in different objects.

1:42:51 Blavatsky's spirit on the practices of spiritual development.

Maxim: Please tell me what practices you can recommend to people to do in order to follow their path of the heart.

Irina (Elena): Practices? That is, what meditations?

Maxim: Yes.

Irina (Elena): There are many. But it generally depends on the person's worldview, what is closer to him: Buddhism, Christianity, theosophy, atheism. For whom should I recommend it? Because it is very individual.

Maxim: For us, for example, in most cases the first place is occupied by the Christian religious egregor. Probably, for Christians.

Irina (Elena): For Christians, everything has long been outlined. For example, in a book by John Climacus, "The Ladder of Spiritual Development." Read it, everything is there.

Maxim: Who again?

Irina: There is a book called “The Ladder”.

Maxim: Staircase or Ladder?

Irina: Lestvitsa in Old Slavonic, in Russian - stairway.

Maxim: "The Ladder of Spiritual Development". Good. Thank you, Lena.

Irina (Elena): But in general I can tell you in a few words – this is metanoia, a change of mind and purification of the spiritual heart with the help of prayers and good deeds.

1:44:19 Blavatsky's spirit about the letters of the sages.

Maxim: Lena, please tell me. You held sessions, and when you invited ancient sages to these sessions, letters written by these sages appeared in the table from somewhere. Please tell me, was it a fake or was it really true?

Irina (Elena): I have absolutely nothing to hide. All this was already known during my earthly life. Indeed, this is what we agreed on with those five people I spoke about initially in order to attract people to information with such unusual phenomena. We agreed on such a theatrical performance, I would say.

Maxim: Thank you very much for your revelation.

Irina (Elena): The tables were close to the wall, they had holes that led through the wall into another room, and they put things there.

Maxim: Thank you.

Irina (Elena): This is known.

Maxim: But for me it’s just a fact, and if you were to say now that it was reality, I don’t know, I would be downright disappointed. Thank you.

Irina (Elena): I really did think so then, and I didn't really like it then. We decided to create an image that Spirits communicate with us on this level.

But I want to say that my experience shows that creating illusory images, that is, casting some illusions on people even for the sake of a spiritual goal, so that they could change themselves, ultimately leads to nothing but disappointment for these people and to discrediting all spiritual development. That is why I later changed my mind about this.

Maxim: Thank you.

1:46:18 Blavatsky's spirit on the role of the earthling in the Universe.

Maxim: Lena, please tell me, what do you think is the role of an earthling in our Universe?

Irina: Precisely an earthling?

Maxim: Yes, exactly an earthling.

Irina (Elena): To become a mediator for communication between different civilizations.

Maxim: Thank you. Levit?

Irina (Elena): I know what you're talking about. You could say that, but only in a broader sense.

1:46:51 Blavatsky's spirit on the relationship with the Earth.

Maxim: Thank you. When there was a war 12,000 years ago, where were you incarnated in the Universe?

Irina (Elena): When there was a war 12,000 years ago, I was incarnated on the planet Burkhad, held a post in the government there.

Maxim: How did you react to the information that the reptilians attacked the Earth, and not only the Earth?

Irina (Elena): There are emotions there, but they are somewhat different. Of course, I was surprised and compassionate towards the earthlings. I had a desire to protect this planet and exclude Selbet from the Interstellar Union for violating the rules. But I did not feel anger or hatred towards the Selbet people, because I understood at that time that they had simply been deceived, and they had deceived themselves with their false theory of superiority.

Maxim: Tell me, please, where does such a large number of incarnations on Earth come from? You have 118 of them.

Irina (Elena): 133.

Maxim: Yes, where does this come from – 133?

Irina (Elena): 133 – in total, including 18 – in dense bodies.

Maxim: Wait, 133 minus 18 – that’s somewhere over a hundred [115] incarnations in the subtle material, so on Earth? And where does such love for Earth come from, such a large number of incarnations?

Irina (Elena): I have always been partial to this planet because the Earth, in my opinion, has a special path. And it is not for nothing that the Primordial Principle, the Logos of the Universe – Jesus Christ – turned his attention to this planet.

Maxim: I understand, thanks for the answer.

1:49:07 Helena Blavatsky's address to her followers.

Maxim: Please tell me what you would like to say to all your followers on this planet?

Irina (Elena): My dear followers. I am addressing you now from the Spiritual World. I live in the Spiritual World. Only my part is embodied on another planet. I want to say that everything that is written in the sacred books of all religions is the truth, it is the truth, only it is expressed in the language that was closer to the consciousness and mind of the person who wrote these lines.

I want to ask you to treat each other and the people around you with love and patience, who do not believe you and criticize our organization, our egregor. Many choose the path of denigrating others because of envy, generated by the fear of their own failures. Treat them with understanding, love. Share your Light, and they will either move away from you to look for others similar to themselves in vibrations, or will become in the same row with you.

Maxim: Thank you.

1:51:07 Blavatsky's spirit on the forecast for the development of the Russia-Ukraine conflict in August 2023.

Maxim: Lena, please tell me, do you now know from the Spiritual World what is happening on our planet?

Irina (Elena): Yes. A lot is happening.

Maxim: We are currently experiencing a huge fratricide. Please tell me, when will this fratricide that is going on between Russia and Ukraine end?

Irina (Elena): This was also the case when I lived on Earth. For example, there were battles between Russia and Turkey. What is happening now is not news, that is, these are not the first such military actions. What is the question?

Maxim: When will these military actions end?

Irina (Elena): In general on Earth or specifically those that are happening now.

Maxim: Those that are going on now, and, accordingly, later.

Irina (Elena): When will they end, that is, to watch? Do you know that you yourself shape your future every moment? And not only you, but every person, and all of humanity with their collective choice. And so now, if I watch.

Shows how part of her consciousness is in a phantom in connection with her Spirit, which is in the Spiritual world. And the Spirit opens the Time Tape in front of itself. And looks.

Yes, I see. I have seen this before. I also went into the Astral. Yes, I am familiar with this picture, like a Tape on the screen, and at the end of it is the globe. And behind the globe stretches a shiny Tape, if you look closely at it, there will be events as they happened.

Maxim: Yes, this is the Timeline.

Irina (Elena): You see (shows), this is a Ribbon from the past. You look, it is not uniform, from it come those branches that did not come true, but they were.

I have already seen it, because I traveled to the Astral.

(Elena) Now look ahead. White rays emanate from the globe in different directions, which means they have not yet been realized. That is, the color is different for those that the Earth has already passed and for those that it has not yet passed. The Earth is now at a point. It can go left, it can go right, it can go forward. Remember the image of a hero who stands in front of a stone on which is written: "If you go left..., if you go right..." This was precisely the image of the Time Tape in fairy tales.

Maxim: A fairy tale is a reality.

Irina (Elena): I look at one ray of the future – the date of the end of the current military actions is generally close, in one ray of the future – it is December of this year, in another ray of the future – it is in a year, September of next year, there are many different probabilities.

Maxim: What is the minimum term and what is the maximum term do you see?

Irina (Elena): The minimum term I see is autumn, late autumn (shows), the end of November-beginning of December this year. At the moment it is also changing, because it can be either pushed back or brought forward. The maximum term (showed), in general, others will be drawn in.

Maxim: What, will other countries be drawn in?

Irina: Yes, all this will grow. These actions will drag on for another seven years, but there will only be many opposing countries.

Maxim: Yes, not a very good prospect, if for long.

Irina: Let's go with the first option.

Maxim: Yes, I am for the first option.

1:56:35 Wishes from Helena Blavatsky to the participants of the Cassiopeia Project.

Maxim: Lena, I have another question for you. You wished for those who are related to theosophy. But I want you to simply wish something to those people who participate in the Cassiopeia Project, who watch us. What would you say to them?

Irina (Elena): Dear Divine Souls. Believe in yourself, believe in the truth that is in you - this will help you believe in God and love God, because it is impossible to love someone you do not believe in. Impossible. For you, this will be to serve, or rather, to cooperate on a selfless basis. There is such a concept as "to serve God", and there is a concept of "cooperating with God in the work of co-creation of the Universe". Because in fact, the creation of the Universe is not finished, it happens every moment right now, and you are all co-creators of God, whom he himself gave birth to in order to create together in love a happy future in all worlds and spaces. For this, the material world was given to all of us, and only it can exist.

These abilities can be manifested only through Faith in yourself, Faith in God, in Love and Truth that live in each of you. Even if they manifest themselves distortedly, in the form of destructive energies: hatred, doubts, despondency, self-criticism and so on, and still, any of these energies can be transformed, returned back to the Light from where it came. To do this, you need to find in your spiritual heart the point from which this energy came out and was born. At this point, correct the situation that allowed you to put on illusory glasses for the perception of the Spirit, through which this energy went wrong.

Did you understand anything?

Maxim: Yes, I understood everything, Lena. Thank you very much. Thank you very much, Oudus. Thank you very much, MidgasKaus. Thank you very much, LiShioni. Guys, thank you very much too. We are doing the broadcast as best we can. That is, we cannot give more than we can, unfortunately. Of course, I would like to see here some super-mega-historian in his place, who knows everything about Blavatsky, and would ask some provocative questions. But everything is what it is. So thank you very much to everyone.

Many thanks to Lena once again, and I hope that she will incarnate more than once on this wonderful planet of free choice – on Earth.

Irina (Elena): I wish you full realization of your goals of embodiment.

And I thank you, Elena. Thank you, Maxim. Thank you, Oudus.

Maxim: Yes. Thank you all, guys. Until next time. Bye everyone.

Joy of every moment of life. Directing the child's attention to emotions https://blog.cassiopeia.center/radost-kazhdogo-momenta-zhizni-vnimanie-na-ehmocii

Question: "How can I explain to a child that the joy of every moment of life is priceless? How can I explain that paying attention to my emotions and experiencing them is more important than sorting out relationships and suffering?"

MidgasKaus answers:

Only by personal example. A child is brought up not so much by our words as by our own example and plus examples from life.

You need to enjoy every moment and analyze your emotions, not suffer from them. Before doing this, a child must first understand that this is possible, believe that he can do it, and feel from his own experience that this brings him greater happiness. Give him an example from books, teach him to analyze the emotions of the book's characters. For example, you read an excerpt from the fairy tale about Buratino, stop at some emotional moment, ask him what this character feels, why he experiences such feelings, and what you would feel in his place, and so on.

Whether it's negative or positive emotions, spend time analyzing both of those examples that he reads or watches films, cartoons. Stop watching and ask:

> “Why do you think he behaves this way, what does he want to achieve by doing this, how does he feel now?”

It is especially important if these are films, emotions are not described in them, that is, the child himself should feel it from the behavior. After an emotional episode of the characters' actions, stop watching and ask:

> "Why did this girl do that? Why did she say that? How do you think she feels? How would you behave in her place? Maybe she did something wrong, could you advise her something?"

Such examples should be only 30-40 minutes a day, conversations over family dinner, and it is important to include analysis of situations that happened with the child during the day. When he tells you something, do not brush him off, saying that you are busy. If he tells you about a quarrel with his friend or about friendship with a new boy, be sure to listen to him and give practical advice, without imposing your opinion, but just talk, as an older friend with a younger one. Always be your son or daughter's best friend, and not just a parent. Only this will allow them to treat you with trust, and therefore, perceive your life values and moral principles as their own.

To feel is the most important thing, to teach to feel is much more important than to teach to think. Because it is on feelings that the speed of thought processes, their direction and the depth of logical analysis are based.

Examples of monetary debt. Karmic knots https://blog.cassiopeia.center/primery-denezhnogo-dolga-karmicheskie-uzly

There is a material debt, there is a spiritual debt. They are interconnected. Money is a form of energy that is embodied in some material image. When a person took money, he took energy. If he did not give it back, he has an energy debt. Debt arises in energetics. This is the balance of the energy of the Universe in his favor, if he did not give it back before leaving the incarnation.

As for the consequences, it depends on the reasons: why he took it, what he spent it on. This is of great importance. Why he couldn't give it back. The external action is one, but the consequences are different.

If we take two debtors, one of whom borrowed money from a bank, for example, 10,000 rubles and spent it, for example, on his daughter's treatment. And then he was fired from work because he himself fell ill and could not pay. In this case, good karma will be credited to him. How will this act affect the owner of the money who gave the loan? His karma will depend on his emotions. If he forgives, good karma will be credited to him. If he gets angry, allows negative vibrations, and cannot forgive this debt sincerely until the end of his incarnation, then he will lower his vibrations.

He valued his material property higher than the Soul of this person. Since he cannot forgive him as his brother. If he objectively cannot repay the debt. A lot depends on the circumstances. Sometimes debts are not repaid for a reason. If someone who has money lends it, then the debtor's mentors make it so that he cannot repay, in order to teach a lesson in non-attachment to material resources. This happens. This is one situation.

And the second situation is if a person borrowed the same 10,000 rubles from the same bank, but spent it on his pleasures. They can be different. At the same time, he worked, and he had the opportunity to return the money, but he continued to spend money on his pleasures. He was not infringed in any way. He did not return it because he considered himself higher and wiser than the one who lent him the money.

This is another story, another karma and another responsibility. He lowered his vibrations. He became too proud and arrogant. He values material means more than the Soul of this person. Money is a means to test your spiritual qualities. Maybe at some point there will be more money for one, less for another, and on another day all this can change to the opposite.

Karmic knots. Money as a means of assistance in spiritual development. Debtors and debt repayment

Question: "In this case, if in the next incarnation there is a debt, does a person give it back to the person from whom he took it, or can he give it back to another person by the decision of the Angels-mentors? Should he simply go through this lesson: paying off a debt? Or should he specifically give it back to the person from whom he took it in the past?"

Depends on the feelings and emotions of a person. Many do not even remember their debts, who owes them how much, after leaving the incarnation. They are busy with other tasks. And if he still remembers about it, then he will really tie a karmic knot. In this case, mentors can bring these people together in the incarnation, and the one who owes can pay off his debt. Not necessarily with money. For example, spend his energy, take care, for example, of a sick child who will be born, and this is his former creditor. He will invest his energy in him, will spend his money on his treatment. Then at five or six years old he will leave the incarnation. He will pay everything back. This happens.

It is better not to tie karmic knots, so that there are no such difficult lessons for the Soul. To do this, first of all, you need to treat money as a means of helping yourself and others in spiritual development. This is their main purpose, like any type of material energy.

If someone asks you to lend them a certain amount, first ask yourself, your Soul, your Higher Self, whether you can comfortably and harmoniously for yourself and your Soul part with this money forever. Don't tell him about it, ask yourself. Tell him: " I need time to think ." Especially if we are talking about a large amount.

And then ask yourself if you can manage if for some reason he can't return or something happens to him, or he leaves. For example, he has a child and needs money. There can be many different circumstances in life. An honest analysis of yourself, ask your Higher Self, your heart:

> "If I give it to him now, and he doesn't return it to me at the agreed time, or ever, will I suffer greatly financially and morally? Will I be able to survive it? Will I be able to forgive him and maintain our previous relationship with him?"

If it's a friend, for example. If the answer is a clear "no", you shouldn't give it to him. You should come to him calmly. You have every right to refuse, because it's your money, the money you earned with your labor. The Universe gave it to you. It's yours now. You have every right to calmly say:

> "I can't help you and give you this money, because I'm counting on my life. They're all in motion, in action. I can't give you this amount."

You can explain the reason. If you heard the answer " Yes ", then give this amount. When you give this money, when it happens from hand to hand, send sincere Light along with it. Mentally say:

"May this work for the good of you and me."

And then, whether he gives it or not, let him go to the will of God. If he does not give it, mentally thank him for this lesson of checking for attachment to material values, fill him with the Light of Love. If he comes to you a second, third, etc. time, the same thing. Ask yourself the same as the first time. If the answer is " No ", do not give it.

Rishis - incarnate Angels and contactees with the Spiritual world. Selection of incarnations. Numerologists https://blog.cassiopeia.center/rishi-voploshchennye-angely-i-kontaktyory-s-duhovn

Question: "Today, there are several main schools of Vedic astrology. Among them are: "Nadi Jyotish, Parashara Jyotish, Jaimini Jyotish, Tantra Jyotish and Tajika Jyotish." They differ in the methods of interpreting horoscopes. Each of the teachings is based on the Teaching received from the ancient sage Rishi. There is a founder of each school, in the scriptures he is called Rishi - "The Seer."

Who were these Rishis, the sages, who established this knowledge and transmitted it to others? Who were the founders of Vedic astrology?"

Alakhiel, 22nd level Angel Consultant, answers :

All people who carried the Teaching of Numerology and Astrology with them are divided into two categories. These people were either incarnated Angels from the 22nd or 23rd levels who possessed knowledge not blocked by incarnation in the body and came to Earth to share it, or they were contactees with the spiritual world. This information was taken from the Spiritual World, based on the terminology, scientific knowledge at the time they lived, from the picture of the world.

Rishis are contactees or incarnated Angels. Most often both: if he is an incarnated Angel, Angels begin to come to him, remind him, giving information.

I am in a group of 15 entities, I am engaged in the fact that I embody, for example, in a certain place or at a certain time, the Souls of people, based on their incarnation tasks. Their Angels-consultants, who lead them through more than one incarnation, consult with me. We are engaged in selecting the conditions for incarnation. When I say "we", I mean myself and the other spiritual entities of my group. Personally, I am engaged in calculations, that is, I look from the Spiritual world at the Time Tape, when there will be a coincidence of the position of the planets and a coincidence of the numerical codes of the family, which will give it a certain name with the characteristics that I know about this Spirit.

Reasons for the emergence of different schools of Vedic astrology

Question: "Was there one school of Vedic astrology in the past, that is, one single Knowledge? What caused the division of these directions? What is the reason for the emergence of different schools?"

MidgasKaus answers :

Previously, there was a single Knowledge. This is a historical question. A single Knowledge 10 thousand years before the war on Earth, which took place 12 thousand years ago. 20 thousand years before the war, there was no division into science, art, culture, esotericism and smaller Teachings. There was a single Knowledge about the Universe, as now in the Interstellar Union (ISU). There was less Knowledge, since your civilization had not yet accumulated a wealth of experience in flying around the Galaxy and interacting with other Galaxies.

Civilizations that are part of the MC have already gone through a multi-million path of development. And yours was just beginning its development. Nevertheless, this knowledge was not yet separated in your consciousness. But for Alakhiel, this knowledge is still one, because he is in the Spiritual World. He is at the angelic level of the Spiritual World. In the Spiritual World, there is a different view of knowledge than those incarnate on Earth. For him, even now, there is one Knowledge: physics is inseparable, for example, from biology. There are laws of physics in biology too. Laws of space, laws of esotericism, sociology, everything is connected with the biological body and physical parameters. This is inseparable for him.

Alakhiel, 22nd level Angel Consultant, answers :

Why is knowledge divided? A good question. Our personal opinion is that this is a feature of the manifestation of the Spirit's mind in your material body. Firstly, you, earthlings, have two hemispheres of the brain. Activation of one is called logical thinking, the second - figurative thinking. Although both involve two hemispheres, the structure of the brain already allows for the division of information. This is not thinking in a stream, as in many other civilizations, when thinking simply depends on perception, and it occurs continuously in a stream, and your thinking is divided, for example, into black-white, heat-cold. This is where all dualistic systems, evil - good, arose. This is a feature of your mind, your brain. At the moment it is like this. Why this is so, one can argue for a long time, but now I am talking about a fact.

Therefore, the single Knowledge is perceived differently by different people, both in ancient times and now. Before the war 12 thousand years ago, there were also such divisions, but at that time there were no sciences, institutes where they taught. All the Teachings were contained in the Magi, priests, who understood everything in their own way, but they did not argue with each other, but did their job.

Competition, dispute appeared later because of your difficult social conditions after the war. People were forced to compete with each other for survival on a suddenly cold and dead planet. This gave rise to in your collective unconscious, your genetic memory, not just different understandings of the same thing, this was a feature of the mind, but a tendency to competition, activation of the instincts of power, combined with the instinct of self-preservation. Thanks to this, many of you began not just to share your opinion, I mean earthlings now, but to prove its superiority. From this came all the divisions into different Teachings.

Causes of aggressive behavior in children and its correction
https://blog.cassiopeia.center/prichiny-agressivnogo-povedeniya-rebyonka-ego-korr

Question: "A 12-year-old child has become very aggressive, swears, can raise his hand to his grandmother and mother, constantly looks at something on his phone and computer, if the phone is turned off or hidden, he goes to his friend to play. What should I do with him? What should I say and how should I behave with him?"

Sit down, talk to him calmly, first of all, say:

> "You live in our house and you have to follow certain rules. You can't fight in our house, and if you have negative emotions, you just have to say it: "I'm angry with you," "I'm irritated." There is a law in the state that is forbidden to break under threat of punishment. So in our house, there are certain rules that we set."

If he asks: " Why you? " - answer:

> “Because we have acquired this house, we provide ourselves and you with material goods, and you have not yet reached the age of responsibility for yourself, so if you want to continue living with us in this house, you should think about following our rules.
> The first rule: in our house it is forbidden to raise your hands, because it brings pain and offense to the people closest to you who love you."

Explain to him calmly and don’t get angry at him in response.

> “Second: in our house it is forbidden to use obscene words, because they attract low-vibration entities, Spirits, who destroy the atmosphere of our house of love, harmony, well-being.
> Third: in our house, everyone has their own responsibilities. For example, for us, it is to work, support the family, look after you, run the household - these are our responsibilities, we cannot refuse them, otherwise we will have problems. Also, you, as a full member of the family, have your own responsibilities: to study, to help the elders in the house as much as possible, to play on the phone and computer only in your free time, since the phone was purchased with family funds, so I give you, for example, with such behavior at 12 years old 2 hours a day, this is enough for any of your entertainment on the Internet."

You can even hang up a list so that he remembers it.

> "If you break the rules, we will have to limit the use of the tools you enjoy because you find it necessary to hurt us. Because of this, we are forced to take extreme measures and instead of using the phone, we will occupy you with reading useful books for about a week for hitting or pushing, three days for using foul language, and a day for playing for half an hour longer than usual."

I am speaking in general terms now; everyone should feel exactly how much time is needed.

> "If you don't follow these rules and responsibilities, then you have to decide why you even need to live in our family."

That's what you say. Just calmly, not so that he understands that you are not needed. But so that if he does not want to do it, then he must decide where he will live, on what funds and in 2 days tell me his decision.

Warn your friend's family that they shouldn't, if he breaks the rules, if he leaves the house... But again, include these walks of his as a certain free time, and say:

> "If you fulfill your duties and do not break the rules, then you will have free time for the Internet, for your development and for walks with a friend, and so on. But if you continue to do this, then we will be forced to take extreme measures and limit your communication with the Internet and communication with a friend, because we, as parents, believe that you need to engage in your own spiritual development. But this will not be because we want to do you harm."

It is imperative to say:

> "It is our duty to prepare you for adulthood. The God who sent you to our family will ask us why we did not prepare you to follow the rules and work with your aggression, so it is our duty to teach you, even if you do not want to."

But under no circumstances should you be rude, say everything correctly and then watch his actions.

Responsibilities of Divorced Parents

Question: "The child's father does not live with him and takes virtually no part in the boy's life. What should be done in this situation?"

Here, only a conversation with dad, explain to him what is happening. And tell dad: "Is he interested in his son being prepared for life in adult society in such a state?" - dad also bears responsibility. But talk without the son, alone with the husband. Directly give him the facts, how the child behaves, ask about it and find some kind of compromise. And if the ex-husband believes that he can behave as he wants, at 12 years old, you need to give the right to choose to your son, trust him. These are his lessons, and let him go through them, just send him love. But in any case, because of the husband's manipulation, you do not need to change the rules of your home, if they are aimed at good, this will not keep your son around.

Yes, and my own example, of course. If your son behaves like this, it means that contact has already been lost, and you need to, first of all, restore it, sit down and talk to your son, find out:

> "What don't you like about our relationship, how have I offended you? Why don't you trust me, why do you treat me like this?"

Perhaps he has some grievances, and it is necessary to clarify this in a conversation with his mother, grandmother. And before setting rules, it would be ideal to first talk and clarify these reasons with him, 12 years is a suitable age.

> "Son, we decided to talk to you about our life, we think that our situation has reached a dead end, the way we have been living for the last few months has caused us a lot of stress. Please tell us how we have offended you, why do you so not want to live with us in the same house? Maybe you want to go to dad? Maybe I said something to you, didn't allow you to do something, maybe I ignored some of your wishes? Tell me everything.
> "You are a human being, you are a free Divine Spirit and you have the right to any choice. You have the right to get > up and leave even now, no matter how much I love you, I will let you go, because you are free. Just explain to me, please, as a mother who gave you the opportunity to walk on the ground, to see this Sun, to eat this bread, how did I offend you so much?"

Just talk to him, he will understand it.

Because she doesn't want to alienate him from herself, but to restore contact, she needs to find out where and when he was lost. And she needs to be ready to hear anything, gather her strength for the sake of her child, in order to prepare him for adult life without negative blocks, and he accumulates them in himself.

It's not just you who are saving, he is saving, since he is already beating his mother and grandmother, which means he already has negative blocks. And so that he can go into adulthood without these blocks, as a free, pure, loving person striving for happiness, goodness and love, you must sacrifice your pride and just talk to him.

Every parent should learn to feel with their heart why they did it. It is impossible, unachievable without developing empathy. If you did not develop it in childhood, which is, of course, very bad, develop it in adulthood. Read more fiction, develop imaginative thinking, ask yourself more often: " What am I feeling? " - pay more attention to the situation with other people. When reading any books, articles on the Internet about different people, put yourself in their place, develop empathy in yourself.

The concept of karma. Free choice and spiritual evolution https://blog.cassiopeia.center/ponyatie-karmy-svobodnyj-vybor-i-duhovnaya-ehvolyu

The meaning of the law of karma is free choice. Each person on Earth is given a certain amount of vital energy for incarnation, which is continuously replenished. A person, by his free choice, has the right to direct this energy to any actions.

I would like to remind you that in the Spiritual world and in Vedic astrology, thought is an action of the mind. Feelings, emotions are an action of the spiritual heart. And physical action is an action of the body. If a person directs the energy of Light, which comes to him from the Higher Self through the spiritual channel to fulfill his task, to increase his vibrations, then this creates positive karma for him, which will help him in his next incarnations. And since the Spirit is outside of time, positive karma affects his past lives and past incarnations. It spreads in both directions.

For example, you can send the Light of Love to yourself in the past from the future, remembering how hard it was. If you remember well, you in the past will really feel that the Light has come to you. This is possible because the non-embodied part of the Spirit is outside of time in the Spiritual world. Therefore, it is not difficult for me, I am now on the 22nd level, to answer these questions. But it is difficult for me to talk about this in the language of a person whose perception depends on the material brain, capable of thinking only in time. Nevertheless, I understand that it is also difficult for you, embodied Spirits, to understand me, who lives outside of time.

Positive karma is, in earthly language, the funds in the bank that you put in. Only not in the material bank, but in the spiritual one.

Jesus Christ said:

> “Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth destroys, and where thieves do not break in and steal.”

This treasure in the sky in the Spiritual World is your own treasure, which is collected thanks to golden thoughts. It is not material gold, but your golden thoughts, words, feelings, emotions, physical deeds. You can’t do without them either. This process will not be completed here. They accumulate and wait for you there. They are not spent physically. If you sent Light to someone, it does not mean that your treasure was spent. It only increased. These are the features of positive karma. This is how you shape your future.

As for negative karma. God gave you divine energy. You spent it not on Light, but on increasing your own degradation, on your own darkness. Do not think that God will be angry. This is your right. Your bag will be filled with coal dust, which hangs on you and prevents you from moving forward. You will be able to develop spiritually, but it will be more difficult. It will take more effort to get out of low vibrations. For example, if you spent divine energy on anger, greed, condemnation, on physical action that harms yourself or people around you.

Even if a person wished someone harm, imagined a mental image of beating them, but did not physically do it. This does not mean that negative karma has not accumulated. It arose, very small. It arose in his thoughts. It will manifest itself in the fact that he spent his energy on this thought. This energy lowered his vibrations. In the future, it will be easier for him to follow the beaten path and think the same in another situation. It will be harder to think, to show Love. Possible, but harder. This is what karma is.

The fruit of karma is the Spirit itself, with all its vibrations, qualities, etc. But karma is not just a static, it is a dynamic process. When the Spirit is incarnated, it is constantly changing. As time on a clock changes, the second hand runs quickly. The change of karma changes even faster, depending on thoughts, etc.
